Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As previously disclosed, on March 1, 2013, Flagstar Bank, FSB (the "Bank"), a subsidiary of Flagstar Bancorp Inc., and Steven J. Issa, the Bank's former Executive Vice-President and Managing Director, Commercial Banking, entered into a retention agreement (the "Issa Agreement"). The Issa Agreement provided that payments thereunder were subject to compliance with applicable legal requirements, including Section 18(k) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as codified in Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") regulation 12 C.F.R. Part 359 (the "Golden Parachute Restrictions"). Last month, the Bank was advised that the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency ("OCC") had determined that the payments under the Issa Agreement were subject to the Golden Parachute Restrictions and therefore required regulatory approval.

Effective October 3, 2013, the Bank and Mr. Issa amended the Issa Agreement. The parties agreed the Bank was not obligated to contest the OCC's determination that the payments contemplated by the Issa Agreement were subject to the Golden Parachute Restrictions, but rather to seek approval of the OCC and written concurrence of the FDIC of Mr. Issa's right to retain the payments already made by the Bank. Under the amended Issa Agreement, Mr. Issa waived rights to unpaid retention amounts of approximately $384,500, and acknowledged that he must repay any amounts previously received in the event that the regulators decline the Bank's request for approval. The amendment to the Issa Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
