Offer To Exchange Each Outstanding Share of Common Stock of

CB BANCSHARES, INC.

for cash and for Shares of Common Stock of Central Pacific Financial Corp.
by

in each case subject to the procedures and limitations described in this exchange offer.

The exchange offer of Central Pacific Financial Corp., a Hawaii corporation, and the withdrawal rights of the shareholders of CB Bancshares Inc., a Hawaii corporation, will expire at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on _____, 2003, unless extended. Shares of CB Bancshares common stock tendered pursuant to the exchange offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to the expiration of the exchange offer, but not during any subsequent offering period.

CPF will offer, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this exchange offer and the related letter of transmittal, to exchange cash and shares of CPF common stock, no par value per share, for each of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share of CB Bancshares.

Pursuant to the exchange offer, CPF proposes to offer each CB Bancshares shareholder the right to exchange each share of common stock of CB Bancshares for cash, shares of CPF common stock or a combination of cash and shares of CPF common stock. In this exchange offer, we refer to the cash and/or shares that a shareholder would receive as the acquisition consideration. See "The Exchange Offer" beginning on page 31 for a discussion of the acquisition consideration.

Shareholders will be entitled to elect to receive $19.09 and 1.7233 shares of CPF common stock, the maximum amount of cash or the maximum amount of stock. If you elect to receive the maximum amount of cash or the maximum amount of stock, your election may be subject to proration. See "The Exchange Offer Election and Proration Procedures" on page 31. Regardless of the type of consideration you elect to receive, the value of the cash, stock or cash and stock, that you receive will equal the per share consideration which is determined by adding $19.09 to the product of 1.7233 and the average closing price of CPF common stock over a 20-day period ending one trading day prior to the close of the exchange offer.

The purpose of the exchange offer is for CPF to acquire at least majority control of, and ultimately the entire equity interest in, CB Bancshares. Promptly after completion of the exchange offer, CPF intends to seek to have CB Bancshares complete a merger, which we refer to as the CB Bancshares merger, with CPF or a wholly-owned subsidiary of CPF, in which each outstanding share of common stock of CB Bancshares (except for treasury shares of CB Bancshares and shares beneficially owned directly or indirectly by CPF for its own account (except shares held by CPF in a fiduciary capacity)) would be converted into the right to receive the same acquisition consideration as offered in the exchange offer, subject to dissenters' rights under Hawaii law.

CPF's obligation to exchange each share of CB Bancshares common stock for the acquisition consideration is subject to each of the conditions listed under "The Exchange Offer Conditions to the Exchange Offer" beginning on page 49.

CPF's common stock trades on the New York Stock Exchange, or NYSE, under the symbol "CPF," and CB Bancshares' common stock trades on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "CBBI."

All references to CPF common stock in this exchange offer include the associated preferred share purchase rights issued pursuant to the CPF Rights Agreement (see "Description of CPF Capital Stock" for more information about the rights and the Rights Agreement) and all references to CB Bancshares common stock include the associated CB Bancshares rights issued pursuant to the CB Bancshares Rights Agreement (see "Conditions to the Exchange Offer Rights Agreement Condition" about the rights and the Rights Agreement).

See "Risk Factors" beginning on page 9 for a discussion of various factors that shareholders should consider about the exchange offer.

PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

This summary does not contain all of the information that may be important to you and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the information contained elsewhere in, or incorporated by reference into, this exchange offer. You are urged to read the entire exchange offer, including the information set forth in the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 9, and the attached exhibits and annexes. See "Where Can I Find More Information?" on page 72.

The exchange offer (Page 31)

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

Under the terms of the exchange offer, we are offering to exchange shares of newly issued CPF common stock and/or cash, for each of the issued and outstanding shares of CB Bancshares common stock. You may elect to receive cash, shares of CPF common stock or a combination of cash and shares of CPF common stock in exchange for your shares of CB Bancshares common stock. Your election may be subject to proration, however, which means that you may not receive all the consideration in the form that you selected. The value of the consideration that you receive for each share you exchange will be the same, regardless of the type of election you make.

If you elect to receive a combination of cash and stock, which we call a fixed election, you will receive, for each CB Bancshares share you exchange, $19.09 in cash and 1.7233 shares of CPF common stock. If you elect to receive the maximum amount of cash, which we call a cash election, or the maximum amount of stock, which we call a stock election, the amount of cash and/or stock that you receive will be determined by reference to the average price of CPF common stock over a 20-day period ending one trading day prior to the closing of the exchange offer, which we refer to as the average CPF price. The total amount of cash that we will pay CB Bancshares shareholders in exchange for their shares, which we call the total cash consideration, will not exceed the product of $19.09 and the number of CB Bancshares accepted at the close of the exchange offer. The total number of shares of CPF common stock that we will issue and deliver to CB Bancshares stockholders in exchange for their shares, which we call the total stock consideration, will not exceed the product of 1.7233 and the number of CB Bancshares accepted at the close of the exchange offer. As a result, if you make a cash election or stock election, the consideration you receive may be subject to proration.

The number of shares for which fixed elections have been made and shares for which no election has been made, will receive $19.09 in cash and 1.7233 shares of CPF common stock, regardless of the CPF average price.

If the number of shares for which cash elections have been made divided by the number of shares for which stock elections have been made is greater than the number reached by dividing $19.09 by the product of 1.7233 and the CPF average price, all the shares for which stock elections were made will receive stock, but the shares for which cash elections were made will receive both cash and the amount of stock remaining after distribution of stock in exchange for shares for which fixed elections, stock elections, and no elections were made.

If the number of shares for which cash elections have been made divided by the number of shares for which stock elections have been made is less than the number reached by dividing $19.09 by the product of 1.7233 and the average CPF price, all the shares for which cash elections were made will receive cash, but the shares for which stock elections were made will receive both stock and the amount of cash remaining after distribution of cash in exchange for shares for which fixed elections and cash elections were made.

You will not receive any fractional shares of CPF common stock in the exchange offer. Instead, you will receive cash in an amount equal to the value of the fractional share of CPF common stock that you would otherwise have been entitled to receive.

Promptly after completion of the exchange offer, we intend to seek to merge CB Bancshares with CPF or a wholly-owned subsidiary of CPF, which we refer to as the CB Bancshares merger. The exchange offer, together with the CB Bancshares merger, is referred to as the CB Bancshares acquisition. In the CB Bancshares merger, each share of CB Bancshares common stock that has not been exchanged in the exchange offer (except for treasury shares of CB Bancshares and shares beneficially owned directly or indirectly by CPF for its own account (except shares held by CPF in a fiduciary capacity)) would be converted into the right to receive the same acquisition consideration, as offered in the exchange offer, subject to dissenters' rights under Hawaii law. See "The Exchange Offer" on page 31. Upon completion of the CB Bancshares acquisition, based on the receipt by CB Bancshares shareholders of the total stock consideration, the former CB Bancshares shareholders will own a maximum of _____ % of the then outstanding shares of CPF common stock.

The following information is derived from CB Bancshares' publicly available documents.

CB Bancshares, Inc.
201 Merchant Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813
(808) 535-2500

CB Bancshares, which was incorporated in the State of Hawaii in 1980, is a bank holding company with $1.67 billion in assets as of December 31, 2002. CB Bancshares has three wholly-owned subsidiaries, City Bank, Datatronix Financial Services, Inc. and O.R.E., Inc. (inactive). Based on the closing price of CB Bancshares common stock on the Nasdaq National Market on April 25, 2003 ($67.49) and the number of shares of CB Bancshares common stock outstanding on March 4, 2003 (3,902,309), CB Bancshares' market capitalization was approximately $263.4 million, an increase of 48% from CB Bancshares' market capitalization on April 15, 2003, the last trading day before the announcement of this proposed business combination.

CPF's obligation to complete the exchange offer is subject to a number of conditions (Page 49).

Our obligation to exchange shares of our common stock and cash for CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the exchange offer is subject to a number of conditions, some of which may be waived by us, including, but not limited to, the following:

The tender of enough shares of CB Bancshares common stock so that, after the completion of the offer, we own a number of shares of CB Bancshares common stock which, together with any shares of CB Bancshares common stock that we beneficially own for our own account, constitutes 75.1% of the total outstanding common shares of CB Bancshares on a fully diluted basis (as though all options or other securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of CB Bancshares common stock had been converted, exercised or exchanged);

The receipt of all applicable regulatory approvals required to consummate the CB Bancshares acquisition, including the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting periods;

The requisite approval of CB Bancshares' shareholders under the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute or our being satisfied, in our sole discretion, that such law is inapplicable or invalid;

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

The approval of the issuance of shares of CPF common stock pursuant to the CB Bancshares acquisition by the shareholders of CPF;

CB Bancshares' not having entered into or effectuated any other agreement or transaction with any person or entity having the effect of impairing our ability to acquire CB Bancshares or otherwise diminishing the value of the acquisition of CB Bancshares;

The board of directors of CB Bancshares having redeemed the Rights (as defined and discussed under "The Exchange Offer Rights Agreement Condition" on page 51) or the CB Bancshares Rights Agreement having been found inapplicable or illegal;

Our completion of satisfactory due diligence on CB Bancshares or our waiver of this condition; and

This registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, relating to the securities to be issued in the offer, having become effective.

The exchange offer is also subject to other terms and conditions described in the exchange offer. These conditions and the other conditions to the exchange offer are discussed under "The Exchange Offer Conditions to the Exchange Offer" on page 49.

The receipt of the acquisition consideration in exchange for CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the exchange offer and/or the CB Bancshares merger may be a taxable transaction to you (Page 43).

In the opinion of Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP, counsel to CPF, the exchange of shares of CB Bancshares common stock for CPF shares pursuant to the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger will be treated as component parts of an integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which is referred to herein as the Code. This opinion is based in part on certain factual representations made to Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP, and certain assumptions. If the transactions so qualify, holders of shares of CB Bancshares common stock generally will not recognize any gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes on the exchange of their shares of CB Bancshares common stock for CPF common stock in the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger, except for any gain or loss attributable to the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of CPF common stock.

However, with respect to the cash portion of the acquisition consideration (including any cash received in lieu of fractional share), CB Bancshares shareholders generally will recognize gain in an amount equal to the lesser of the total amount of cash received or the amount of gain realized on the exchange. Any gain recognized may be treated as a dividend or capital gain, depending on your circumstances. The treatment of the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger as component parts of an integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization for tax purposes is based in part on certain factual assumptions, but there can be no assurance at the present time that such factual assumptions will in fact be satisfied. For more information, see "The Exchange Offer Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Exchange Offer and the CB Bancshares Merger" on page 43.

The exchange offer is currently scheduled to expire on _____, 2003 (Page 37).

The exchange offer is scheduled to expire at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on _____, 2003. The term expiration date means 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on _____, 2003, unless we extend the period of time for which the exchange offer is open, in which case the term "expiration date" means the latest time and date on which the exchange offer, as so extended, expires.

The exchange offer may be extended, terminated or amended (Page 37).

We expressly reserve the right, in our sole discretion, at any time or from time to time, to extend the period of time during which the exchange offer remains open, and we can do so by giving oral or written notice of the extension to the exchange agent. We are not providing any assurance that we will exercise this right to extend the exchange offer, although we currently intend to do so until all conditions have been satisfied or, to the extent permissible, waived. During any extension, all shares of CB Bancshares common stock previously tendered and not properly withdrawn will remain subject to the exchange offer, subject to the right of each shareholder of CB Bancshares to withdraw his or her shares of CB Bancshares common stock.

Subject to the SEC's applicable rules and regulations, we also reserve the right, in our sole discretion, at any time or from time to time:

to delay our acceptance for exchange or the exchange of any shares of CB Bancshares common stock, or to terminate the exchange offer, upon the failure of any of the conditions of the exchange offer to be satisfied prior to the expiration date, or upon the failure of the condition relating to regulatory approvals to be satisfied at any time after the expiration date; and to waive any condition (other than the conditions relating to regulatory approvals, the absence of an injunction and the effectiveness of the registration statement for the CPF common stock to be issued in the exchange offer) or otherwise to amend the exchange offer in any respect, by giving oral or written notice of such delay, termination or amendment to the exchange agent and by making a public announcement.

We will follow any extension, termination, amendment or delay, as promptly as practicable, with a public announcement. In the case of an extension, any related announcement will be issued no later than 9:00 A.M., New York City time, on the next business day after the previously scheduled expiration date. Subject to applicable law (including Rules 14d-4(c) and 14d-6(d) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act, which require that any material change in the information published, sent or given to CB Bancshares' shareholders in connection with the offer to exchange be promptly sent to those shareholders in a manner reasonably designed to inform them of that change) and without limiting the manner in which we may choose to make any public announcement, we assume no obligation to publish, advertise or otherwise communicate any public announcement of this type other than by making a release to the Dow Jones News Service, PR Newswire or some other similar national news service.

The exchange shall occur promptly after the expiration date (Page 37).

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the exchange offer (including, if the exchange offer is extended or amended, the terms and conditions of any extension or amendment), we will accept for exchange, and will exchange, shares of CB Bancshares common stock validly tendered and not properly withdrawn promptly after the expiration date and promptly after they are tendered during any subsequent offering period that may apply.

Tendered shares may be withdrawn at any time prior to the exchange of those shares (Page 39).

Shares of CB Bancshares common stock tendered pursuant to the exchange offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to the expiration date, and, unless we previously accepted them pursuant to the exchange offer, may also be withdrawn at any time after _____, 2003.

We may provide a subsequent offering period (Page 38).

We may elect to provide a subsequent offering period of not less than three nor more than 20 business days after the acceptance of shares of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the exchange offer if the requirements of Rule 14d-11 under the Exchange Act have been met. You will not have the right to withdraw shares of CB Bancshares common stock that you tender in the subsequent offering period, if any.

Shareholders must comply with the procedure for tendering shares (Page 40).

You cannot tender your shares until we commence the exchange offer and appoint an exchange agent, among other things.

Once the exchange offer commences, for you to validly tender shares of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the exchange offer:

the exchange agent must receive at one of its addresses set forth on the back cover of this exchange offer (1) a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal, along with any required signature guarantees, or an agent's message in connection with a book-entry transfer, and any other required documents, and (2) either certificates for tendered shares of CB Bancshares common stock or if those shares of CB Bancshares common stock are tendered pursuant to the procedures for book-entry set forth below, confirmation of receipt of that tender (we refer to this confirmation below as a "book-entry confirmation"), in each case before the expiration date, or you must comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures set forth in "The Exchange Offer Guaranteed Delivery" on page 42.

Reasons for the exchange offer (Page 29).

We are proposing the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger because we believe that the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger will benefit our shareholders, including CB Bancshares shareholders who would become CPF shareholders by means of the CB Bancshares acquisition, as well as customers, employees and the State of Hawaii. We believe that the CB Bancshares acquisition will create a stronger local alternative to better compete with the larger banks in the state. We believe customers would benefit in many ways, including an expanded menu of business and retail services, a particularly stronger commercial real estate capability and trust and wealth management services, an expanded branch network and increased number of ATMs available to customers, increased lending limits and increased resources.

Plans for CB Bancshares (Page 49).

We are making the exchange offer in order to acquire control of, and ultimately the entire equity interest in, CB Bancshares. The exchange offer is the first step in our acquisition of CB Bancshares and is intended to facilitate the acquisition of all shares of CB Bancshares common stock. We intend, as soon as possible after completion of the exchange offer, to seek to have CB Bancshares merge with CPF or a wholly-owned subsidiary of CPF. The purpose of the CB Bancshares merger would be to acquire all shares of CB Bancshares common stock not exchanged in the exchange offer. In the CB Bancshares merger, each outstanding share of CB Bancshares common stock (except for treasury shares of CB Bancshares and shares beneficially owned directly or indirectly by CPF for its own account (except shares held by CPF in a fiduciary capacity)) would be converted into the right to receive the acquisition consideration that was offered to CB Bancshares shareholders in the exchange offer, subject to dissenters' rights under Hawaii law and subject to proration.

In order to complete the exchange offer, CPF must first obtain federal and state regulatory approvals (Page 55).

In order to complete the exchange offer, we must obtain the prior written approval of, or confirmation that prior written approval is not required by, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under the Bank Holding Company Act. A request for their approval or confirmation was filed on April 28, 2003. We also filed an application with the Hawaii Commissioner of Financial Institutions on April 28, 2003 for permission to acquire shares of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the exchange offer.

Dividend policy of CPF (Page 19).

The holders of CPF common stock receive dividends if and when declared by our board of directors out of legally available funds. We and our predecessor have paid regular semiannual cash dividends since 1958. Beginning in 1988, we commenced paying quarterly cash dividends. For the first quarter of 2003, we paid, on April 25, 2003, a cash dividend of $0.16 per common share to shareholders of record as of March 31, 2003.

Following completion of the CB Bancshares acquisition, we expect to continue paying quarterly cash dividends on a basis consistent with our past practice. However, the declaration and payment of dividends will depend upon business conditions, operating results, capital and reserve requirements, covenants in our debt instruments and our board of directors' consideration of other relevant factors. We can give shareholders no assurance that we will continue to pay dividends on our common stock in the future.

Dividend policy of CB Bancshares (Page 20)

The following description is based on our understanding of CB Bancshares' dividend policy as derived from its publicly available documents.

The holders of CB Bancshares common stock receive dividends if and when declared by CB Bancshares' board of directors out of legally available funds. The principal source of CB Bancshares' cash flow has been dividend payments received from City Bank. Under the laws of Hawaii, payment of dividends by City Bank is subject to certain restrictions, and payment of dividends by CB Bancshares is likewise subject to certain restrictions. CB Bancshares evaluates the dividend on a quarterly basis.

There are no dissenters' rights in connection with the exchange offer although dissenters' rights will exist in connection with the CB Bancshares merger (Page 48).

No dissenters' rights are available in connection with the exchange offer. If the CB Bancshares merger is consummated, however, CB Bancshares shareholders will have certain rights under the

Hawaii Business Corporation Act to dissent and demand dissenters' rights and to receive payment in cash of the fair value of their shares. CB Bancshares shareholders who perfect such rights by complying with the procedures set forth in Sections 414-351, 414-352, 414-354 and 414-359 will have the fair value of their shares of CB Bancshares common stock determined by a Hawaii trial court and will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to such fair value from the surviving corporation. In addition, such dissenting shareholders would be entitled to receive payment of a fair rate of interest at a rate determined by the trial court on the amount determined to be the fair value of their shares of CB Bancshares common stock. In determining the fair value of the shares, the court may appoint appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decisions on the question of fair value. A copy of Sections 414-351, 414-352, 414-354 and 414-359 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act is provided in Annex B.

There are material differences in rights of shareholders (Page 67).

The governing documents of CPF and CB Bancshares vary, and to that extent, CB Bancshares shareholders will have different rights once they become CPF shareholders. The differences are described in more detail under "Comparison of Rights of Holders of CPF Common Stock and CB Bancshares Common Stock" beginning on page 67.

We will account for the CB Bancshares merger using the purchase method (Page 58).

We will account for the merger as a purchase for financial reporting purposes.

Forward-looking statements may prove inaccurate (Page 74).

We have made forward-looking statements in this document, and in certain documents referred to in this document, that are subject to risks and uncertainty. Such statements include, but are not limited to, (i) statements about the benefits of the proposed merger, including future financial and operating results, costs savings and accretion to reported and cash earnings that may be realized from such merger; (ii) statements with respect to our plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as "believes", "expects", "anticipates", "estimates", "intends", "plans", "targets", "projects" and other similar expressions. These statements are based upon our current beliefs and expectations and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements:

our business and the business of CB Bancshares may not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected;

expected revenue synergies and cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame;

revenues following the merger may be lower than expected;

deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss and business disruption, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, customers, clients or suppliers, may be greater than expected following the merger;

the regulatory approvals required for the merger may not be obtained on the proposed terms;

our shareholders or CB Bancshares' shareholders may fail to approve the merger;

competitive pressures among depository and other financial institutions may increase significantly and may have an effect on pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenues;

the strength of the United States economy in general and the strength of the Hawaii economy may be different than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality or a reduced demand for credit, including the resultant effect on the combined company's loan portfolio and allowance for loan losses;

changes in the U.S. legal and regulatory framework; and adverse conditions in the stock market, the public debt market and other capital markets (including changes in interest rate conditions) and the impact of such conditions on the combined company's activities.

Additional factors that could cause our results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in our reports (such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K) filed with the SEC and available at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the proposed transaction or other matters attributable to us or any person acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. We do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statement is made.

With respect to financial projections for CB Bancshares contained in this document, neither CB Bancshares nor any analyst has published any information for 2003, 2004 or 2005. In addition, we have not been given the opportunity to do any due diligence on CB Bancshares other than reviewing its publicly available information. Therefore, we have created our own financial model for CB Bancshares based on its historical performance and our assumptions regarding the reasonable future performance of CB Bancshares on a stand-alone basis. These assumptions may or may not prove to be correct. The assumptions are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond the control of CB Bancshares. There is no assurance that these projections will be realized and actual results are likely to differ significantly from such projections.

RISK FACTORS

In deciding whether to tender shares of CB Bancshares common stock for exchange pursuant to the exchange offer, you should read carefully this exchange offer and all other documents attached to or incorporated by reference into this exchange offer. You should, in particular, read and consider the following risk factors, as well as the other risks associated with each of the businesses of CB Bancshares and CPF, because these risks also will affect the combined businesses should the merger be completed. These other risks associated with the businesses of CB Bancshares and CPF can be found in CB Bancshares' and CPF's respective Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 and CB Bancshares' and CPF's documents filed subsequent thereto with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this document. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to CB Bancshares or us also may adversely affect the merger and us following the merger.

There are uncertainties in integrating our business operations and those of CB Bancshares (including their and our subsidiary banks) and in realizing enhanced earnings for the combined company.

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

The merger involves the integration of companies that have previously operated independently. Successful integration of CB Bancshares' consolidated operations will depend primarily on our ability and the ability of our subsidiary bank, Central Pacific Bank, to consolidate operations, systems and procedures with CB Bancshares and its subsidiary bank, City Bank, to eliminate redundancies and costs. No assurance can be given that CB Bancshares and CPF and their subsidiary banks will be able to integrate their operations without encountering difficulties, including, without limitation, the loss of key employees and customers, the disruption of their respective ongoing businesses or possible inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies.

The combined company's results may be affected if:

the combination of the businesses of CPF and CB Bancshares and their subsidiary banks takes longer, or is more difficult, time-consuming or costly to accomplish than expected;

the expected growth opportunities and cost savings from the CB Bancshares merger are not fully realized or take longer to realize than expected; or operating costs, customer losses and business disruption following the CB Bancshares merger, including adverse effects on relationships with employees, are greater than expected.

If any of these risks were to occur, the business, operations and/or earnings of the combined company could be negatively affected.

The stock portion of the acquisition consideration is directly related to the market value of CPF's common stock.

We calculate the consideration that you receive for each share of CB Bancshares exchanged by reference to the average price of CPF common stock over a 20-day period ending on one trading day prior to the expiration date. The per share consideration is determined by adding $19.09 to the product of 1.7233 and the average price of CPF common stock. Accordingly, a portion of the actual value of the acquisition consideration to CB Bancshares shareholders will fluctuate based on the market price of shares of CPF common stock.

The receipt of CPF common stock could be taxable to you depending on facts surrounding the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger.

We do not plan to request a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with regard to the tax consequences of the exchange offer and/or the CB Bancshares merger. The exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger are expected to qualify as component parts of an integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code provided that certain factual assumptions are satisfied. If the transaction does not qualify as a reorganization, your exchange of shares of CB Bancshares common stock for the CPF common stock portion of the consideration in the exchange offer or the CB Bancshares merger could be a taxable transaction, depending on the surrounding facts. In any event, the cash portion of the consideration, including cash you may receive in lieu of fractional shares, will be taxed to you as either a capital gain or a dividend, depending on your circumstances. You are urged to consult your tax advisors concerning the United States federal income and other tax consequences of participation in the exchange offer and/or the CB Bancshares merger. For more information see "The Exchange Offer Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Exchange Offer and the CB Bancshares Merger" beginning on page 43.

The exchange offer may reduce the liquidity of CB Bancshares common stock and could result in its delisting from the Nasdaq National Market.

The tender of shares of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the exchange offer will reduce the number of holders of shares of CB Bancshares common stock and the number of shares of CB Bancshares common stock that might otherwise trade publicly and could adversely affect the liquidity and market value of the remaining shares of CB Bancshares common stock held by the public. Shares of CB Bancshares common stock are listed and principally traded on the Nasdaq National Market. Depending on the number of shares of CB Bancshares common stock acquired pursuant to the exchange offer, following the completion of the exchange offer and before the CB Bancshares merger, shares of CB Bancshares common stock may no longer meet the requirements of the Nasdaq National Market for continued listing.

Resales of CPF common stock following the exchange offer may cause the market price of that stock to fall.

As of February 28, 2003, we had 16,006,748 shares of common stock outstanding and 923,940 shares subject to outstanding options and other rights to purchase or acquire. Based upon publicly available information on CB Bancshares, we expect that we will issue a maximum of 7,805,000 shares in connection with the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger. The issuance of these new shares and the sale of additional shares of our common stock that may become eligible for sale in the public market from time to time upon exercise of options could have the effect of depressing the market price for our common stock.

The trading price of CPF common stock may be affected by factors different from those affecting the price of CB Bancshares common stock.

Upon completion of the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger, holders of CB Bancshares common stock will become holders of CPF common stock. Our business differs from that of CB Bancshares, and CPF's results of operations, as well as the trading price of CPF common stock, may be affected by factors different from those affecting CB Bancshares' results of operations and the price of CB Bancshares common stock.

We may be unable to retain personnel who are key to our and CB Bancshares' businesses.

The success of our operations is dependent on, among other things, our ability to attract and retain highly qualified professional personnel. Competition for key personnel in the various localities and business segments in which we operate is intense. Our ability to attract and retain key personnel, in particular senior officers, is dependent on a number of factors, including prevailing market conditions and compensation packages offered by companies competing for the same talent. These same pressures and concerns also apply to CB Bancshares' business.

There are risks related to the businesses of CPF and CB Bancshares.

Results of operations of CPF and CB Bancshares are subject to numerous risks affecting their respective businesses, many of which are beyond the companies' control, as described in the respective Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 for each of CPF and CB Bancshares.

RATIO OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES

The following table sets forth our unaudited historical ratios of earnings to fixed charges for each of the years in the five-year period ended December 31, 2002 and the unaudited pro forma combined ratios of earnings to fixed charges of us and CB Bancshares for the year ended December 31, 2002.

The unaudited pro forma ratios of earnings to fixed charges are based upon our and CB Bancshares historical financial statements adjusted to give effect to the CB Bancshares acquisition. The pro forma amounts have been developed from (a) our audited consolidated financial statements contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 which is incorporated by reference in this exchange offer, and (b) CB Bancshares' audited consolidated financial statements contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 which is incorporated by reference in this exchange offer.

	Pro Forma		CPF Historical Data
	Year Ended December 31,
	2002	2002	2001	2000	1999	1998
Ratio of earnings to fixed charges:
Excluding interest on deposits	3.37	5.92	3.82	3.17	3.49	3.48

	Pro Forma		CPF Historical Data
Including interest on deposits	1.89	2.42	1.71	1.53	1.53	1.50

For purposes of computing the ratios of earnings to fixed charges, earnings include income before income taxes plus fixed charges minus preference security dividend requirements of consolidated subsidiaries. Fixed charges, excluding interest on deposits, consist of interest expense minus interest on deposits plus an estimate of interest included in net rental expense and preference security dividend requirements of consolidated subsidiaries. Fixed charges, including interest on deposits, consist of the above items plus interest on deposits. The ratios should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and other financial data included or incorporated by reference in this exchange offer. See "Where Can I Find More Information?" beginning on page 71.

SELECTED HISTORICAL AND UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL DATA

The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Data set forth below is based upon the historical financial statements of CPF and CB Bancshares adjusted to give effect to the CB Bancshares acquisition. The pro forma financial statements have been developed from (a) the audited consolidated financial statements of CPF contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, which is incorporated by reference in this exchange offer, and (b) the audited consolidated financial statements of CB Bancshares contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, which is incorporated by reference in this exchange offer.

The final determination and allocation of the purchase price paid for the CB Bancshares acquisition may differ from the amounts assumed in this Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Data.

As of the date of this exchange offer, we have not done any due diligence and have not completed the valuation studies necessary to arrive at the required estimates of the fair market value of the CB Bancshares assets to be acquired and liabilities to be assumed and the related allocations of purchase price, nor have we identified the adjustments necessary, if any, to conform CB Bancshares data to our accounting policies. Accordingly, we have used the historical book values of the assets and liabilities of CB Bancshares and have used the historical revenue recognition policies of CB Bancshares to prepare the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements set forth herein, with the excess of the purchase price over the historical net assets of CB Bancshares recorded as goodwill and other purchased intangibles. Once we have completed the due diligence and the valuation studies necessary to finalize the required purchase price allocations and identified any necessary conforming changes, such pro forma financial statements will be subject to adjustment. Such adjustments will likely result in changes to the pro forma statement of financial position to reflect the final allocations of purchase price and the pro forma statements of income, and there can be no assurance that such adjustments will not be material.

The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Data is provided for illustrative purposes only and does not purport to represent what the actual consolidated results of operations or the consolidated financial position of CPF would have been had the CB Bancshares acquisition occurred on the dates assumed, nor is it necessarily indicative of future consolidated results of operations or financial position.

The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Data does not include the realization of cost savings from operating efficiencies, synergies or other restructurings resulting from the CB Bancshares acquisition.

The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Data should be read in conjunction with the separate historical consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes of CPF and CB Bancshares that are incorporated by reference in this exchange offer and the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements on page 58.

- (1) The pro forma per share earnings from continuing operations are computed by dividing the pro forma income from continuing operations available to holders of common stock by the pro forma weighted average number of shares outstanding. The pro forma combined book value per share is computed by dividing total pro forma shareholders' equity by the pro forma number of common shares outstanding at the end of the period. The pro forma combined per share data assumes that 7,582,400 shares of CPF common stock are issued in the CB Bancshares acquisition, based on 3,898,580 CB Bancshares shares outstanding as of March 3, 2003. See "The Exchange Offer Consideration to be Paid," beginning on page 30.
- (2) CB Bancshares equivalent pro forma combined per share amounts are calculated by multiplying pro forma combined per share amounts by 1.7233, the number of CPF shares that would be exchanged as the stock portion of the acquisition consideration for each share of CB Bancshares common stock.

Dividend Policies

CPF

We and our predecessor have paid regular semi-annual cash dividends on the common stock since 1958. Beginning in 1988, we commenced paying regular quarterly cash dividends. We expect to continue to pay regular quarterly cash dividends. However, since substantially all of the funds available for the payment of dividends are derived from Central Pacific Bank, future dividends will depend upon Central Pacific Bank's earnings, its financial condition, its capital needs, applicable governmental policies and regulations and such other matters as CPF's board of directors may deem to be appropriate.

19

Our ability to pay dividends is also limited by certain restrictions imposed on Hawaii corporations. We may pay dividends out of funds legally available at such times as our board of directors determines are appropriate.

CB Bancshares

CB Bancshares' ability to pay dividends is limited by certain restrictions generally imposed on Hawaii corporations. CB Bancshares may pay dividends out of funds legally available at such times as the Board of Directors determines are appropriate.

Effect of Regulatory Restrictions on CPF's and CB Bancshares' Dividend Policies

The principal source of our and CB Bancshares' cash flow has been dividend payments received from Central Pacific Bank and City Bank, respectively. Under the laws of Hawaii, payment of dividends by Central Pacific Bank and City Bank is subject to certain restrictions, and payment of dividends by us and CB Bancshares is likewise subject to certain restrictions. We and CB Bancshares consider such factors as the Federal Reserve Board's indication that it would generally be an unsafe and unsound banking practice for banks to pay dividends except out of current operating earnings and that an insured depository institution, such as Central Pacific Bank and City Bank, cannot make a capital distribution (broadly defined to include, among other things, dividends, redemptions and other repurchases of stock), or pay management fees to its holding company if, thereafter, the depository institution would be undercapitalized. In addition, applicable regulatory authorities are authorized to prohibit banks, thrifts and their holding companies from paying dividends which would constitute an unsafe and unsound banking practice.

BACKGROUND OF THE EXCHANGE OFFER

Background

From time to time during the past few years, we have considered expanding our respective operations through acquisitions of other companies. In December 1999, CB Bancshares approached CPF to discuss a proposal to combine the companies. CB Bancshares proposed that their senior management team assume key management positions in the resulting company. CPF's management discussed the proposal with its board of directors and rejected the offer.

In May 2002, CPF approached CB Bancshares with a proposal to acquire their company in a stock merger transaction. CB Bancshares declined to accept the proposal.

On February 26, 2003, we began purchasing shares of CB Bancshares common stock in the open market. We accumulated 2.27% of CB Bancshares' outstanding common stock by March 13, 2003. On March 17, 2003, representatives of Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., our financial advisor in connection with the proposed CB Bancshares acquisition, met informally with Ronald K. Migita, the President and Chief Executive Officer of CB Bancshares, and Dean K. Hirata, the Chief Financial Officer of CB Bancshares, to present our offer to merge with CB Bancshares. After their presentation, Bear Stearns stated that our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer was standing by and would like to personally deliver a written offer consistent with the Bear Stearns presentation. Messrs. Migita and Hirata refused to meet with Mr. Arnoldus, and Bear Stearns then attempted to give the first offer letter to Mr. Migita and Mr. Hirata, who declined to accept it. On March 19, 2003, Mr. Migita communicated with the representatives of Bear Stearns and requested a meeting for April 2, 2003 to obtain additional information concerning the offer.

On March 21, 2003, Clint Arnoldus, our Chief Executive Officer, messengered the March 17, 2003 offer letter to Mr. Migita at CB Bancshares. On March 24, 2003, our Chief Financial Officer, spoke with Mr. Hirata and confirmed receipt of the March 21, 2003 letter with the first offer letter attached thereto.

On April 2, 2003, Messrs. Arnoldus and Kanda and Mr. Migita, Richard Lim and Warren Y. Kunimoto of CB Bancshares met to discuss the first offer letter. Also in attendance were representatives of Bear Stearns.

At that meeting, Mr. Arnoldus reviewed our view of the benefits of the merger to the shareholders, employees, customers, and communities in which both companies operate. Bear Stearns reviewed again the assumptions underlying the pricing of the offer and other financial aspects of the merger, including consolidation and cost savings opportunities. Mr. Arnoldus also indicated our desire to add representatives of CB Bancshares' board to our board of directors following the merger and a willingness to discuss appropriate positions for CB Bancshares' senior management. During this discussion Messrs. Migita and Lim stated that, notwithstanding that CPF shareholders would own approximately 68% of the outstanding shares of the surviving corporation with the shareholders of CB Bancshares owning approximately 32%, senior management of CB Bancshares should become senior management of the merged company because, in their view, they were of superior quality. It was also revealed during this meeting that CB Bancshares' board of directors had not yet met, or scheduled a meeting, to consider the offer, and that CB

Bancshares' board of directors had not retained a financial advisor or special legal counsel. Messrs. Arnoldus and Kanda were left with the impression that the CB Bancshares' board of directors had not received, or otherwise been informed of the terms of, the March 17 offer letter.

At the conclusion of the April 2, 2003 meeting, the officers of CB Bancshares indicated that they would contact us by April 4 to inform us of CB Bancshares' proposed timetable. No one at CB Bancshares contacted us by that date to discuss a timetable for the offer or the offer itself. As a result, on April 4, 2003, we sent another copy of our March 17, 2003 offer to each of CB Bancshares' directors to eliminate any doubt as to whether the CB Bancshares board of directors had received it, and requested a reply by April 11, 2003. While CB Bancshares acknowledged receipt of our letter, we received no reply to its terms, other than CB Bancshares' request not to send any more communications to their directors but only to communicate with Mr. Migita.

On April 16, 2003, we entered into a voting agreement with TON Finance, B.V., pursuant to which TON agreed to vote 295,587 shares of its CB Bancshares common stock in favor of the CB Bancshares acquisition, which, when added to the shares we own, represent slightly less than 9.9% of CB Bancshares' outstanding shares. TON has agreed to vote the remaining 52,677 of its CB Bancshares shares in favor of the CB Bancshares merger only after any required shareholder approval under the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute, which is described below under "Conditions to the Exchange Offer Control Share Condition." On April 25, 2003, we filed a Schedule 13D, which describes the voting agreement.

On April 16, 2003, we sent a letter to CB Bancshares dated April 15, 2003, setting forth again our offer for a business combination between CB Bancshares and CPF. The terms of the April 15 letter were equivalent to those of our March 17 letter. On April 16, 2003, we issued a press release which attached a copy of the letter.

The full text of the CPF letter is as follows:

April 15, 2003

Board of Directors
CB Bancshares, Inc.
201 Merchant Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Attention: Mr. Ronald K. Migita
President and Chief Executive Officer

Dear Mr. Migita:

We are very disappointed by CB Bancshares, Inc.'s ("CB") lack of response to our March 17th offer to combine CPB Inc. ("CPB") and CB Bancshares, Inc. through a cash-and-stock transaction valued at $70 per share (the "Merger"), which represents a 62.3% premium over your unaffected stock price (the price on February 25, 2003, the day before CPB began buying in the open market the 88,741, or 2.27%, of the outstanding CB shares we currently own). Our proposal also presents a unique opportunity to create a stronger Hawaii-focused bank with enhanced capability to deliver superior results for your shareholders and benefits to your customers, employees and the State of Hawaii benefits that CB cannot realistically expect to achieve on its own in the foreseeable future.

The preservation of our unique island culture requires Hawaii-based business institutions that can compete with mainland-based and foreign-owned banks. The resurgence of our island economy depends on strong banks focused on the small to medium sized businesses that will help drive economic recovery. Our combination would create a competitive Hawaii-based bank whose lending, investing and contribution decisions would be made locally, by people who know, understand and love Hawaii.

History of this Proposal

The basic terms of this offer were outlined in a meeting held between certain members of CB's senior management and our financial advisor, Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., on March 17, 2003. In response to your refusal to receive our written offer, or to meet with us on that day, we delivered our March 17th offer to you on March 21, 2003. You agreed to meet with us on April 2, 2003, for the limited purpose of clarifying the proposal, but were unwilling to enter into substantive discussions. At that meeting, you also told us that your Board had not met, or scheduled a meeting, to consider our offer, and that no financial advisor had been retained by your Board.

At the conclusion of the April 2nd meeting, you indicated that you would contact us by April 4th to inform us of your proposed timetable. You did not contact us by that date or thereafter. As a result, on April 7th we sent another copy of our March 17th offer to each of your directors to eliminate any doubt that they had not received it, and requested a reply by April 11th. While you acknowledged receipt of our letter, no reply to its terms was received. In short, despite our numerous efforts to meet and confer on this combination, we have not received any meaningful response from CB Bancshares to our offer.

The Combined Company

We believe the merger of our banks will create a much stronger and higher performing company through:

The financial strength to compete more effectively for customers and better address the needs of the residents and businesses of Hawaii;

The anticipated significant accretion to earnings per share of the combined company;

CB shareholders' participation in future growth through their ownership of NYSE-listed CPB common stock to be received in the Merger;

A dividend increase of approximately 290% over CB's current payout rate;

A strong balance sheet and high quality loan portfolio, with excellent access to the capital markets;

A very strong management team with a record of consistent performance; and Additional career opportunities for high performing employees who contribute to the success of the resulting company.

Based on the significant premium we are offering and the anticipated performance of the resulting company, we believe that if given the opportunity to act on our proposal, your shareholders would enthusiastically accept it. Indeed, your largest shareholder, TON Finance, B.V., has agreed to vote 295,587 shares of its CB common stock (which, when added to the shares CPB owns, represent slightly less than 9.9% of CB's outstanding shares) in favor of the Merger, a tender/exchange offer CPB may make prior to the Merger, and other proposals having the intended effect of facilitating such transactions, at any CB shareholders' meeting considering or in connection with the solicitation of consents from CB shareholders for approval of such transactions. TON Finance, B.V., has further agreed to vote the remaining 52,677 of its shares under its voting agreement with us only after receipt of any required shareholder approval under the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions Statute, but until such time retains the right to vote these shares in its discretion.

Terms of Our Proposal

For all these reasons, we would like to review the key elements of our proposal, based upon a transaction to be negotiated with you, as follows:

Offer Price. We are prepared to offer 1.8956 shares of CPB's NYSE-listed common stock plus $21 in cash for each share of CB common stock. Based on CPB's closing price on April 14, 2003, this represents an offer of $70 per CB share, comprised of approximately 30% in cash and 70% in CPB common stock (the "Merger Consideration"). The Merger Consideration represents a premium of 62.3% over CB's closing price as reported on the NASDAQ on February 25, 2003, the day before CPB started to buy CB's shares on the open market, and a 54% premium over the closing price on April 14, 2003.

Structure. The combination will be accomplished through a merger of CPB and CB (the "Merger") with CPB being the resulting corporation. The Merger will be structured so that the CPB stock received in the Merger should be tax-free to CB's shareholders. Central Pacific Bank and City Bank will also be merged immediately following the Merger, with Central Pacific Bank being the resulting bank.

3.

Treatment of Stock Options. Any options to acquire shares of CB that remain unexercised upon consummation of the Merger will be converted into options to acquire shares of CPB, with appropriate adjustments to reflect the Merger.

4.

Employee Benefits. All CB employees will be eligible to participate in CPB's benefit programs and will receive credit for their tenure at CB.

5.

Board Representation and Management. In connection with our negotiations we would discuss what number of members of CB's current Board of Directors would be appropriate to add to CPB's Board of Directors following the merger. We propose that the resulting corporation establish an Advisory Board to include those current members of CB's Board of Directors who do not join CPB's Board of Directors following the Merger plus additional prominent community members to be selected by the resulting corporation's Board. We would also discuss appropriate roles for CB's current management team with the understanding that I would continue as Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer of CPB following the Merger.

Conditions. The terms of the Merger will be set forth in detail in a definitive merger agreement, which would contain representations, warranties and conditions customary for a transaction of this type, including, without limitation, all necessary determinations by your Board of Directors to exempt this transaction under your Shareholder Rights Plan and under the Control Share Acquisitions Act of the State of Hawaii. Such conditions would include, but not be limited to, satisfactory completion of due diligence, receipt of all necessary regulatory, shareholder and corporate approvals, and the absence of any material adverse changes. Customary protections for the transaction (e.g., break-up fees, non-competition agreements) will be included. We anticipate that the definitive agreement will be negotiated and prepared in conjunction with our due diligence process.

Given the significant premium that we are offering to your shareholders, and the obvious benefits the Merger would provide to all of CB's stakeholders, we are puzzled by your failure to respond meaningfully to our offer for more than four weeks. Our strong preference is to negotiate the structure and terms of this combination and the various factors involved for a successful integration of our companies with your Board of Directors, but if you continue to refuse to discuss our proposal and prevent your shareholders from considering it, we reserve the right to bring it directly to the CB shareholders for their consideration. In view of the significance of our proposal to both companies and their shareholders, we intend to publicly announce our proposal on Wednesday, April 16, 2003.

I would like to reiterate our strong preference to work with you in a professional and constructive manner to complete this transaction so that its full potential can be realized. If you have any questions, please call me. We continue to be available as we have been for the last month to meet with you or any member of your management or Board of Directors to review this proposal and the benefits we see in this combination and to negotiate the terms of a definitive agreement.

The Board of Directors and I continue to believe that the transaction we are proposing is in the interests of both companies' shareholders and all our other constituencies the customers, the employees, the community and the State of Hawaii. We hope that you and your Board of Directors reconsider your consistent refusal to consider the merits of this combination. We are not, however, prepared to allow an indefinite amount of time to elapse. Therefore, we request that you respond to this proposal before 12 noon, Honolulu time, on April 25, 2003.

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

Very truly yours,

Clint Arnoldus
Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer

On April 16, 2003, we held a press conference to announce the proposed business combination publicly to ensure that CB Bancshares' shareholders were aware of the offer. Throughout the rest of the week after April 16, 2003 and the week of April 21, 2003, we discussed the offer with local news media and in conversations with shareholders and investors.

On April 28, 2003, we requested that CB Bancshares call a special meeting, and deliver an information statement, in accordance with Hawaii's Control Share Acquisitions statute so that CB Bancshares shareholders could vote on our acquisition of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to our exchange offer.

On April 28, 2003, we filed applications with the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act and with the Hawaii Commissioner of Financial Institutions for prior approval to acquire control of CB Bancshares and, indirectly, City Bank.

On April 29, 2003, CB Bancshares announced a 10% stock dividend to be payable on June 27, 2003 to CB Bancshares' shareholders of record on June 16, 2003. On May 1, 2003, we announced that we had notified CB Bancshares that although the total consideration we are offering to CB Bancshares remained unchanged, the per share amounts of cash and shares of our common stock to be paid and issued, pursuant to our offer, would be adjusted in accordance with the 10% stock dividend. Thus, taking into effect the 10% stock dividend to be issued by CB Bancshares on June 27, 2003, the per share amounts offered by us to CB Bancshares shareholders was adjusted from $21.00 in cash and 1.8956 shares of our common stock per share of CB Bancshares common stock (as announced on April 28, 2003) to $19.09 in cash and 1.7233 shares of our common stock per share of CB Bancshares common stock.

On May 2, 2003, the Hawaii Commissioner of Securities confirmed that we had filed a complete registration statement as of April 30, 2003 under the Hawaii Take-Overs Act. Such registration statement became effective on May 3, 2003.

On May 5, 2003, CB Bancshares announced that its board of directors set May 28, 2003 as the meeting date of the special meeting we requested under the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute; and that shareholders of record at the close of business on May 5, 2003 will be eligible to vote at the special meeting.

On May 5, 2003, CB Bancshares also announced that its board of directors rejected our offer to acquire all of the outstanding shares of CB Bancshares common stock for a combination of $19.09 in cash and 1.7233 shares of our common stock per share of CB Bancshares common stock. CB

Bancshares stated that its board of directors concluded that our offer was inadequate from a financial point of view and not in the best interests of its shareholders, employees, customers, suppliers and local communities.

On May 5, 2003, we delivered a letter to Mr. Migata requesting that CB Bancshares set a new meeting date of June 19, 2003, in order to allow the necessary time to enable all shareholders to have a sufficient opportunity to consider the issues and vote. We also announced our continued commitment to ensuring that the CB Bancshares' shareholders are afforded a meaningful opportunity to evaluate the offer and vote on our proposed acquisition of shares of CB Bancshares common stock.

On May 5, 2003, we and CB Bancshares filed preliminary proxy materials with the SEC in connection with the special meeting to be held under the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions Statute.

REASONS FOR THE EXCHANGE OFFER

We believe that the proposed CB Bancshares acquisition presents a unique opportunity to create a stronger locally based and locally managed bank for Hawaii. Compelling opportunities exist to better serve our community, customers, employees and shareholders. The combined company would have expanded banking services and lending capacity benefiting both our community and customers. The combination would create the potential for revenue enhancements, cost savings and great market and client penetration. We believe that it would also bring enhanced liquidity and increased market capitalization, potentially doubling the daily trading of our common stock, thus benefiting our shareholders. We anticipate that the combined company would be accretive to earnings by 2004.

Reasons for the Exchange Offer and the Merger

We and our board of directors believe that the CB Bancshares acquisition is in the best interest of us and our shareholders and CB Bancshares and their shareholders. Accordingly, our board of directors unanimously approved the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger. In reaching its decision, the board of directors consulted with CPF's management, legal counsel and investment bankers. Our board of directors considered a number of factors, to which relative weights were not assigned, including the following:

The best interests of CPF, our subsidiaries, our shareholders and our banking customers including, among other things, the anticipated financial strength of the combined company and expanded choices, convenience and capacity for our customers;

The business, operations, financial condition and earnings of CPF and CB Bancshares on an historical and a prospective basis and of the combined company on a pro forma basis;

The financial condition and prospects of CPF and CB Bancshares, including but not limited to results of operations, capital levels and asset quality;

Our board's familiarity with and review of CB Bancshares' business, operations, financial condition and earnings on an historical and a prospective basis;

The dominance in the Hawaii market of a relatively small number of major banks with many offices operating over a wide geographic area, and opportunities for the combined company to gain additional market share following the merger;

The then-current and prospective economic and regulatory environment, burdens and constraints affecting banking organizations and commercial banks such as CPF and CB Bancshares and the changing competitive environment for banking services;

The consolidation and increasing competition in the banking and related industries, and the expectation that the combined company will have over $3.8 billion in assets, potentially giving it greater access to financial, managerial and technological resources and making the combined company a more effective competitor in the banking and related industries;

The complementary nature of our business and the business of CB Bancshares, which could potentially provide revenue enhancement opportunities for the combined company, based on such things as:

An increased ability to cross-sell a wider variety of banking products and services;

The opportunity to generate increased loan and fee income as a result of the higher lending limits available to the combined entity;

The opportunity to leverage certain expenses; and 29

The opportunity to achieve cost savings, operating efficiencies and other opportunities for revenue enhancement.

The likelihood that the CB Bancshares acquisition will be approved by the appropriate regulatory authorities;

The acquisition consideration to be paid to CB Bancshares shareholders in relation to the book value and earnings per share of CB Bancshares' common stock, and in relation to the market prices and acquisition prices paid for comparable companies in the United States over the past several years;

Industry and economic conditions;

The expanded menu of business and retail services, including a strong commercial real estate capability and trust and wealth management services, and the increased lending limits and resources we anticipate that the combined entity would offer;

The probable impact of the CB Bancshares acquisition on the depositors, employees, customers, suppliers, creditors and communities served by CPF and CB Bancshares through expanded commercial, consumer and retail banking products and services; and

The ability of the combined company after the CB Bancshares acquisition to compete in relevant banking and non-banking markets.

In making its determination, the CPF board of directors did not ascribe any relative or specific weights to the factors that it considered. The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the CPF board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but it does include the material factors considered by the board.

The only information available to us regarding CB Bancshares is information that they have made publicly available. If we conduct due diligence, our beliefs about the benefits of the CB Bancshares acquisition may change.

There are numerous factors, other than the CB Bancshares acquisition, that could cause our results of operations, including, among other things, earnings per share, to increase or decrease after the CB Bancshares acquisition. Therefore, we cannot assure you that the anticipated benefits of the CB Bancshares acquisition discussed in the previous paragraphs will happen. You should read "Risk Factors" on pages 9 through 11 and "Forward-Looking Statements" on pages 73 through 74 for a discussion of the factors that could affect our future operations and financial condition.

THE EXCHANGE OFFER

Consideration to Be Paid

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

You may elect to receive cash, CPF common stock or a combination of cash and stock for each of your CB Bancshares common shares that are validly tendered and not properly withdrawn, subject, in each case, to the election and proration procedures described in this prospectus and the related letter of transmittal form of election. Based on the closing price of CPF common stock on _____, 2003 of $ _____, you would receive consideration with a value of $ _____, which is determined by adding $19.09 to the product of 1.7233 and $ _____, the average price.

Election and Proration Procedures

Making the Election. You may elect to receive cash, shares of CPF common stock or a combination of cash and shares of CPF common stock in exchange for your shares of CB Bancshares common stock. Your election may be subject to proration, however, which means that you may not receive all the consideration in the form that you selected. The value of the consideration that you receive for each share you exchange will be the same, regardless of the type of election you make.

If you elect to receive a combination of cash and stock, which we call a fixed election, you will receive, for each CB Bancshares share you exchange, $19.09 in cash and 1.7233 shares of CPF common stock. If you elect to receive the maximum amount of cash, which we call a cash election, or the maximum amount of stock, which we call a stock election, the amount of cash and/or stock that you receive will be determined by reference to the average price of CPF common stock over a 20-day period ending one trading day prior to the closing of the exchange offer, which we refer to as the average CPF price. All shares for which an election is not made will be referred to as undesignated shares. All undesignated shares will be deemed to have made a fixed election.

If you make a cash election or a stock election your election may be subject to proration, which means that you may not receive consideration in the form that you selected. See " Proration" below for more information about proration.

At the closing of the exchange offer, we will determine the value of the consideration that you will receive for each share you exchange, regardless of the type of election made. That value is called the per share consideration, which will be determined by adding $19.09 to the product of 1.7233 and the average CPF price. For a fixed election, a share will receive $19.09 and 1.7233 shares of CPF common stock. Assuming that no proration is necessary, for a cash election, each share will receive cash in the amount of the per share consideration, and for a stock election each share will receive an amount of stock equal to the per share consideration divided by the average CPF price. Although the shares receive different types of consideration, the value of the consideration received by each share is the same.

You will not receive any fractional shares of CPF common stock in the exchange offer. Instead, you will receive cash in an amount equal to the value of the fractional share of CPF common stock that you would otherwise have been entitled to receive.

Assuming that no proration is necessary, the chart below shows the type and value of consideration you would receive for each share of CB Bancshares common stock based on your election and fluctuations in the average price of CPF common stock:

Average Price	Per Share Consideration		Fixed Election	Cash Election	Stock Election

Proration.

The total amount of cash that we will pay CB Bancshares shareholders in exchange for their shares, which we call the total cash consideration, will not exceed the product of $19.09 and the number of CB Bancshares accepted at the close of the exchange offer. The total number of shares of CPF common stock that we will issue and deliver to CB Bancshares stockholders in exchange for their shares, which we call the total stock consideration, will not exceed the product of 1.7233 and the number of CB Bancshares accepted at the close of the exchange offer. As a result, if you make a cash election or stock election, the consideration you receive may be subject to proration.

The number of shares for which fixed elections have been made and shares for which no election has been made, will receive $19.09 in cash and 1.7233 shares of CPF common stock, regardless of the CPF average price.

If the number of shares for which cash elections have been made divided by the number of shares for which stock elections have been made is greater than the number reached by dividing $19.09 by the product of 1.7233 and the CPF average price, all the shares for which stock elections were made will receive stock, but the shares for which cash elections were made will receive both cash and the amount of stock remaining after distribution of stock in exchange for which fixed elections, stock elections, and no elections were made.

If the number of shares for which cash elections have been made divided by the number of shares for which stock elections have been made is less than the number reached by dividing $19.09 by the product of 1.7233 and the average CPF price, all the shares for which cash elections were made will receive cash, but the shares for which stock elections were made will receive both stock and the amount of cash remaining after distribution of cash in exchange for shares for which fixed elections and cash elections were made.

The following are examples of the possible effects of proration on those tendering in the exchange offer.

Case 1: After distribution of cash to shares of CB Bancshares for which a fixed election or no election was made, payment for the number of shares of CB Bancshares for which the cash election is made would be greater than the remaining amount of cash available for payment under the offer.

Assuming the following:

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

A fixed election or no election was made by 50% of the shares of CB Bancshares accepted in the exchange offer;

A cash election was made by 40% of the shares of CB Bancshares accepted in the exchange offer; and

A stock election was made by 10% of the shares of CB Bancshares accepted in the exchange offer.

In this scenario:

those shares for which the fixed election or no election was made will get $19.09 in cash and 1.7233 shares of CPF common stock those shares for which the cash election was made will get a mixture of cash and CPF common stock; and those shares for which the stock election was made will get solely shares of CPF common stock.

33

The chart below shows the type and value of consideration you would receive for each share of CB Bancshares common stock based on the assumptions above, your election and fluctuations in the average price of CPF common stock:

Other Aspects of the Exchange Offer

We are making the exchange offer in order to acquire at least majority control of, and ultimately the entire equity interest in, CB Bancshares. The exchange offer is the first step in our acquisition of CB Bancshares and is intended to facilitate the acquisition of all shares of CB Bancshares common stock. We intend, as soon as possible after completion of the exchange offer, to seek to have CB

Bancshares merge with CPF or a wholly owned subsidiary of CPF. The purpose of the CB Bancshares merger would be to acquire all shares of CB Bancshares common stock not exchanged in the exchange offer. In the CB Bancshares merger, each outstanding share of CB Bancshares common stock (except for treasury shares of CB Bancshares and shares beneficially owned directly or indirectly by us for our own account (except for shares held by CPF in a fiduciary capacity)) would be converted into the right to receive the acquisition consideration offered in the exchange offer, subject to dissenters' rights under Hawaii law and subject to proration. If we obtain all of the shares of CB Bancshares pursuant to our offer, former shareholders in CB Bancshares would own approximately % of the shares of common stock of CPF, based upon the number of shares outstanding of CPF and CB Bancshares on , 2003 and March 4, 2003, respectively.

Our obligation to exchange the acquisition consideration for shares of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the exchange offer is subject to the conditions referred to under "Conditions to the Exchange Offer" beginning on page 48.

CB Bancshares shareholders who tender shares of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the exchange offer will not be obligated to pay any charges or expenses of the exchange agent or any brokerage commissions. Transfer taxes on the exchange of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to our exchange offer will be paid by us or on our behalf unless we disclose otherwise in the instructions to the letters of transmittal when provided.

On April 16, 2003, we asked CB Bancshares for its shareholder list and security position listings in order to communicate with shareholders and to distribute the exchange offer to the CB Bancshares shareholders. We received the list and listings on April 21, 2003.

Our offer to acquire CB Bancshares common stock is also an offer to acquire CB Bancshares preferred share purchase rights ("Rights"), and, when we refer to the shares of CB Bancshares common stock, we are also referring to the associated rights, unless we indicate otherwise. In addition, all references to the rights include the benefits to holders of those rights pursuant to the Rights agreement (the "Rights Agreement"), including the right to receive any payment due upon redemption of those rights.

You must tender one Right for each CB Bancshares share tendered in order to effect a valid tender of CB Bancshares common stock, unless the Rights have been redeemed. The Rights are currently represented by the certificates for the CB Bancshares common stock and your tender of CB Bancshares common stock prior to the Distribution Date will also constitute a tender of the associated Rights. We will not make a separate payment to you for the Rights. Upon the earlier to occur of (a) the close of business 20 days following a public announcement that a person or group of associated or affiliated persons other than CB Bancshares (an "Acquiring Person"), has acquired or generally accrued the right to acquire beneficial ownership of 20% or more of the outstanding CB Bancshares shares or (b) 20 days (or a later date as may be determined by the CB Bancshares board of directors, prior to the time that any person becomes an Acquiring Person) following the commencement of a tender offer or exchange offer, upon consummation of which such person or group would be the beneficial owner of 30% or more of such outstanding CB Bancshares common stock (we refer to the earliest of these dates as the "Distribution Date"), separate certificates representing the Rights will be mailed to holders of record of CB Bancshares common stock as soon as practicable after the Distribution Date, and those separate Rights certificates alone will evidence the Rights. The Distribution Date is scheduled to occur on _____, 2003, which is the twentieth day following the commencement our exchange offer.

If the Distribution Date occurs and CB Bancshares or the related rights agent distributes separate certificates representing the Rights to you prior to the time that you tender your CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to our offer, certificates representing a number of Rights equal to the number of CB Bancshares common stock tendered must be delivered to the exchange agent, or, if available, a book-entry confirmation received by the exchange agent with respect thereto, in order for those CB Bancshares common stock to be validly tendered. If the Distribution Date occurs and separate certificates representing the Rights are not distributed prior to the time CB Bancshares common stock are tendered pursuant to our offer, Rights may be tendered prior to the time that you receive the certificates for Rights by use of the guaranteed delivery procedure described under "Procedure for Tendering" below.

Timing of the Exchange Offer

Our exchange offer is scheduled to expire at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on _____, 2003. For more information, you should read the discussion below under the caption " Extension, Termination and Amendment."

The term "expiration date" means 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on _____, 2003, unless we extend the period of time for which the exchange offer is open, in which case the term "expiration date" means the latest time and date on which the exchange offer, as so extended, expires.

Extension, Termination and Amendment

We expressly reserve the right, in our sole discretion, at any time or from time to time, to extend the period of time during which the exchange offer remains open, and we can do so by giving oral or written notice of that extension to the exchange agent. We can give you no assurance that we will exercise our right to extend the exchange offer, although currently we intend to do so until all conditions have been satisfied or, where permissible, waived. During any extension, all shares of CB Bancshares common stock previously tendered and not withdrawn will remain subject to the exchange offer, subject to each shareholder's right to withdraw his or her shares of CB Bancshares common stock. You should read the discussion under the caption " Withdrawal Rights" on page 38 for more details.

Subject to the SEC's applicable rules and regulations, we also reserve the right, in our sole discretion, at any time or from time to time:

to delay acceptance for exchange or the exchange of any shares of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the exchange offer, or to terminate the exchange offer and not accept for exchange or exchange any shares of CB Bancshares common stock not previously accepted for exchange or exchanged, upon the failure of any of the conditions of the exchange offer to be satisfied prior to the expiration date; and to waive any condition (other than the regulatory condition, the conditions relating to the absence of an injunction and the effectiveness of the registration statement for the CPF shares to be issued in the exchange offer) or otherwise amend the offer to exchange in any respect, by giving oral or written notice of such delay, termination or amendment to the exchange agent and by making a public announcement.

We will follow any extension, termination, amendment or delay, as promptly as practicable, with a public announcement. In the case of an extension, the related announcement will be issued no later than 9:00 A.M., New York City time, on the next business day after the previously scheduled expiration date. Subject to applicable law (including Rules 14d-4(d) and 14d-6(c) under the Exchange Act, which require that any material change in the information published, sent or given to CB Bancshares shareholders in connection with the exchange offer be promptly sent to shareholders in a manner reasonably designed to inform shareholders of that change) and without limiting the manner in which we may choose to make any public announcement, we assume no obligation to publish, advertise or otherwise communicate any public announcement (i) of the type described in this paragraph or (ii) related to an election to provide a subsequent offering period, as explained below, other than by issuing a press release to the Dow Jones News Service, PR Newswire or some other similar national news service.

If we make a material change in the terms of the exchange offer or the information concerning the exchange offer, or if we waive a material condition of the exchange offer, we will extend the exchange offer to the extent required under the Exchange Act. If, prior to the expiration date, we change the percentage of shares of CB Bancshares common stock sought in the exchange or the consideration offered to CB Bancshares shareholders, that change will apply to all holders whose shares of CB Bancshares common stock are accepted for exchange pursuant to the exchange offer whether or not these shares of CB Bancshares common stock were accepted for exchange prior to the change. If at the time notice of such a change is first published, sent or given to CB Bancshares shareholders, the exchange offer is scheduled to expire at any time earlier than the tenth business day from and including the date that the related notice is first so published, sent or given, we will extend the offer to exchange until the expiration of that ten business-day period. For purposes of the exchange offer, a business day means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or federal holiday and consists of the time period from 12:01 A.M. through 12:00 midnight, New York City time.

We may elect to provide a subsequent offering period of not less than 3 nor more than twenty business days after the acceptance of shares of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to our exchange offer if the requirements under Exchange Act Rule 14d-11 have been met. If we elect to provide a subsequent offering period, we will publicly announce the results of the exchange offer, including the approximate number of shares tendered and the percentage of CB Bancshares total shares outstanding that have been deposited to date, no later than 9:00 a.m., New York City time on the next business day after the expiration of the initial offering period and will immediately begin the subsequent offering period. CB Bancshares shareholders will not have the right to withdraw shares of CB Bancshares common stock that they tender in the subsequent offering period, if any.

If CB Bancshares agrees upon a negotiated merger with us, we may amend or terminate the exchange offer without purchasing any shares of CB Bancshares common stock.

Exchange of CB Bancshares Shares; Delivery of CPF Common Stock

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the exchange offer (including, if the exchange offer is extended or amended, the terms and conditions of any extension or amendment), we will accept, and will exchange, shares of CB Bancshares common stock validly tendered and not properly withdrawn promptly after the expiration date and promptly after they are tendered during any subsequent offering period. In all cases, exchange of shares of CB Bancshares common stock tendered and accepted for exchange pursuant to the exchange offer will be made only after timely receipt by the exchange agent of:

certificates for those shares of CB Bancshares common stock (or a confirmation of a book-entry transfer of those shares of CB Bancshares common stock in the exchange agent's account at The Depository Trust Company, or DTC);

a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal or a manually signed facsimile of that document; and any other required documents.

For purposes of the exchange offer, we will be deemed to have accepted for exchange shares of CB Bancshares common stock validly tendered and not withdrawn if and when we notify the exchange agent of our acceptance for exchange of those shares of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the exchange offer. As soon as practicable after receipt of that notice, the exchange agent will deliver the acquisition consideration to CB Bancshares' shareholders who tendered CB Bancshares common stock. The exchange agent will act as agent for tendering CB Bancshares shareholders for the purpose of receiving from us the CPF common stock component and the cash component of the acquisition consideration (including cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of CPF common stock) and transmitting the acquisition consideration, if any, to such shareholders. You will not receive any interest on any cash that we pay you regardless of any delay in making the exchange.

If we do not accept any tendered shares of CB Bancshares common stock for exchange pursuant to the terms and conditions of the exchange offer for any reason, or if certificates are submitted for more shares of CB Bancshares common stock than are tendered, we will return certificates for such shares of CB Bancshares common stock without expense to the tendering shareholder. In the case of shares of CB Bancshares common stock tendered by book-entry transfer of those shares of CB Bancshares common stock into the exchange agent's account at DTC pursuant to the procedures set forth below under the discussion entitled "Procedure for Tendering," those shares of CB Bancshares common stock will be credited to an account maintained within DTC as soon as practicable following expiration or termination of the exchange offer.

Cash Instead of Fractional Shares of CPF Common Stock

We will not issue fractional shares of our common stock pursuant to the exchange offer. Instead, each tendering CB Bancshares shareholder who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of our common stock will receive cash in an amount equal to that fraction (expressed as a decimal, rounded to the nearest 0.01 of a share) multiplied by the average of the closing sale prices for a share of our common stock on the NYSE as reported in the Wall Street Journal over the five consecutive trading days ending immediately prior to the second trading day before the expiration of the offer.

Withdrawal Rights

Shares of CB Bancshares common stock tendered pursuant to the exchange offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to the expiration date, and, unless we previously accepted them pursuant to the exchange offer, may also be withdrawn at any time after _____, 2003. Once we accept tendered shares for exchange, your tender is irrevocable. If we elect to provide a subsequent offering period under Exchange Act Rule 14d-11, shares of CB Bancshares common stock tendered in the subsequent offering period will be immediately accepted and promptly paid for following the tender and shareholders will not have the right to withdraw such shares of CB Bancshares common stock.

For a withdrawal to be effective, the exchange agent must receive from each withdrawing CB Bancshares shareholder a written notice of withdrawal at one of its addresses set forth on the back cover of this offer to exchange, and such notice must include the CB Bancshares shareholder's name, address, social security number, the certificate number(s) and the number of shares of CB Bancshares common stock to be withdrawn as well as the name of the registered holder, if it is different from that of the person who tendered those shares of CB Bancshares common stock.

A financial institution must guarantee all signatures on the notice of withdrawal in order for the exchange agent to release withdrawn securities. Most banks, savings and loan associations and brokerage houses are able to effect these signature guarantees for shareholders. The financial institution must be a participant in the Securities Transfer Agents Medallion Program (unless those shares of CB Bancshares common stock have been tendered for the account of such a financial institution).

If shares of CB Bancshares common stock have been tendered pursuant to the procedures for book-entry tender discussed under the caption entitled "Procedure for Tendering," any notice of withdrawal must specify the name and number of the account at DTC to be credited with the withdrawn shares of CB Bancshares common stock and must otherwise comply with DTC's procedures. If certificates have been delivered or otherwise identified to the exchange agent, the name of the registered holder and the serial numbers of the particular certificates evidencing the withdrawn shares of CB Bancshares common stock withdrawn must also be furnished to the exchange agent, as stated above, prior to the physical release of those certificates.

We will decide all questions as to the form and validity (including time of receipt) of any notice of withdrawal in our sole discretion, and our decision shall be final and binding. None of CPF, the exchange agent, the information agent, the dealer manager or any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defects or irregularities in any notice of withdrawal or will incur any liability for failure to give any notification. Any shares of CB Bancshares common stock properly withdrawn will be deemed not to have been validly tendered for purposes of the exchange offer. However, CB Bancshares shareholders may tender withdrawn shares of CB Bancshares common stock by following one of the procedures discussed below under the captions entitled "Procedure for Tendering" or "Guaranteed Delivery" at any time prior to the expiration date.

If you withdraw any of your CB Bancshares common stock, you automatically withdraw the associated Rights. You may not withdraw Rights unless you also withdraw the associated CB Bancshares common stock.

Procedure for Tendering

You cannot tender your shares until we commence the exchange offer and appoint an exchange agent, among other things.

If you have a preference as to the form of consideration to be received for your shares of CB Bancshares common stock, you should make an election. If you do not make an election in your letter of transmittal, you will be deemed to have made the fixed election. Neither CPF nor the CPF board of directors make any recommendation as to whether you should elect the cash, stock, or combination of stock and cash. You must make your own election decision.

Once the exchange offer commences, to validly tender shares of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the exchange offer, (a) the exchange agent must receive at one of its addresses set forth on the back cover of this offer to exchange (1) a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal, along with any required signature guarantees, or an agent's message in connection with a book-entry transfer, and any other required documents, and (2) either certificates for tendered shares of CB Bancshares common stock or if those shares of CB Bancshares common stock are tendered pursuant to the procedures for book-entry tender set forth below, confirmation of receipt of that tender (we refer to this confirmation below as a book-entry confirmation), in each case before the expiration date, or (b) you must comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures set forth below under "Guaranteed Delivery."

The term "agent's message" means a message, transmitted by DTC to, and received by, the exchange agent and forming a part of a book-entry confirmation, that states that DTC has received an express acknowledgment from the DTC participant tendering the shares of CB Bancshares common stock that are the subject of that book-entry confirmation, that the participant has received and agrees to be bound by the terms of the letter of transmittal and that CPF may enforce that agreement against the participant.

You must tender one Right for each CB Bancshares share tendered to effect a valid tender of CB Bancshares common stock, unless the Rights Agreement Condition has been satisfied or waived. Unless the Distribution Date occurs, a tender of CB Bancshares common stock will constitute a tender of the associated Rights. If the Distribution Date occurs and separate certificates representing the Rights are distributed by CB Bancshares or the Rights Agent to holders of CB Bancshares common stock prior to the time that you tender CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the offer, certificates representing a number of Rights equal to the number of CB Bancshares common stock tendered must be delivered to the exchange agent, or, if available, a book-entry confirmation received by the exchange agent with respect thereto, in order for such CB Bancshares common stock to be validly tendered. If the Distribution Date occurs and separate certificates representing the Rights are not distributed prior to the time that you tender CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the offer, Rights may be tendered prior to a shareholder's receipt of the certificates for Rights by use of the guaranteed delivery procedures described below. If Rights certificates are distributed but are not available to you before CB Bancshares common stock are tendered pursuant to the offer, a tender of CB Bancshares common stock constitutes an agreement by you to deliver to the exchange agent pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures described below, Rights certificates representing a number of Rights equal to the number of CB Bancshares common stock tendered prior to the expiration of the period to be specified in the notice of guaranteed delivery and the related letter of election and transmittal for delivery of Rights certificates or a book-entry confirmation for Rights (we refer to this as the Rights delivery period). We reserve the right to require receipt of such Rights certificates (or a book-entry confirmation with respect to such Rights) prior to accepting CB Bancshares common stock for exchange.

Nevertheless, we will be entitled to accept for exchange CB Bancshares common stock that you tender prior to receipt of the Rights certificates required to be tendered with such CB Bancshares common stock or a book-entry confirmation with respect to such Rights and either (a) subject to complying with applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, withhold payment for such CB Bancshares common stock pending receipt of the Rights certificates or a book-entry confirmation for those Rights or (b) exchange CB Bancshares common stock accepted for exchange pending receipt of the Rights certificates or a book-entry confirmation for such Rights in reliance upon the guaranteed delivery procedures described below. In addition, after expiration of the Rights delivery period, we may instead elect to reject as invalid a tender of CB Bancshares common stock with respect to which Rights certificates or a book-entry confirmation for an equal number of Rights have not been received by the exchange agent. Any determination by us to make payment for CB Bancshares common stock in reliance upon such guaranteed delivery procedure or, after expiration of the rights delivery period, to reject a tender as invalid, shall be made, subject to applicable law, in our sole and absolute discretion.

The exchange agent will establish accounts with respect to the shares of CB Bancshares common stock at DTC for purposes of the exchange offer, and any financial institution that is a participant in DTC will be able to make book-entry delivery of the shares of CB Bancshares common stock by causing DTC to transfer the shares of CB Bancshares common stock into the exchange agent's account in accordance with DTC's procedure for that transfer. However, although delivery of shares of CB Bancshares common stock may be effected through book-entry at DTC, the letter of transmittal, with any required signature guarantees, or an agent's message in connection with a book-entry transfer, and any other required documents, must, in any case, be received by the exchange agent prior to the expiration date, or the guaranteed delivery procedures described below must be followed. We cannot assure you, however, that book-entry delivery of Rights will be available. If book-entry delivery of Rights is not available, you must tender Rights by means of delivery of Rights certificates or pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedure set forth below.

Signatures. Signatures on all letters of transmittal must be guaranteed by an eligible institution, except in cases in which shares of CB Bancshares common stock are tendered either by a registered holder of shares of CB Bancshares common stock who has not completed the box entitled "Special Issuance Instructions" on the letter of transmittal or for the account of an eligible institution.

If the certificates for shares of CB Bancshares common stock or Rights (if any) are registered in the name of a person other than the person who signs the letter of transmittal, or if certificates for unexchanged shares of CB Bancshares common stock or Rights (if any) are to be issued to a person other than the registered holder(s), the certificates must be endorsed or accompanied by appropriate stock powers, in either case signed exactly as the name or names of the registered owner or owners appear on the certificates, with the signature(s) on the certificates or stock powers guaranteed in the manner we have described above.

Method of Delivery. The method of delivery of share certificates and all other required documents, including delivery through DTC, is at your option and risk, and the delivery will be deemed made only when actually received by the exchange agent. If delivery is by mail, we recommend registered mail with return receipt requested, properly insured. In all cases, shareholders should allow sufficient time to ensure timely delivery.

Substitute Form W-9. To prevent backup federal income tax withholding with respect to cash received pursuant to the offer to exchange, you must provide the exchange agent with your correct taxpayer identification number and certify whether you are subject to backup withholding of federal income tax by completing the substitute Form W-9 included in the letter of transmittal. Some CB Bancshares shareholders including, among others, all corporations and some foreign individuals, are not subject to these backup withholding and reporting requirements. In order for a foreign individual to qualify as an exempt recipient, the shareholder must submit a Form W-8, signed under penalty of perjury, attesting to that individual's exempt status.

Guaranteed Delivery

If you wish to tender shares of CB Bancshares common stock or Rights (if any) pursuant to the exchange offer and your certificates are not immediately available or you cannot deliver the certificates and all other required documents to the exchange agent prior to the expiration date or cannot complete the procedure for book-entry transfer on a timely basis, your shares of CB Bancshares common stock may nevertheless be tendered, so long as all of the following conditions are satisfied:

you make their tender by or through an eligible institution (see "Withdrawal Rights" above);

the exchange agent receives, as provided below, a properly completed and duly executed notice of guaranteed delivery, substantially in the form we make available, on or prior to the expiration date; and the exchange agent receives, within three Nasdaq National Market trading days after the date of execution of the notice of guaranteed delivery, the certificates for all tendered shares of CB Bancshares common stock (or a confirmation of a book-entry transfer of such securities into the exchange agent's account at DTC as described above), in proper form for transfer, together with a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal with any required signature guarantees (or, in the case of a book-entry transfer, an agent's message) and all other documents required by the letter of transmittal.

You may deliver the notice of guaranteed delivery by hand or transmit it by facsimile transmission or mail to the exchange agent, and you must include a guarantee by an eligible institution in the form set forth in that notice.

In all cases, we will exchange shares of CB Bancshares common stock tendered and accepted for exchange pursuant to the exchange offer only after timely receipt by the exchange agent of certificates for shares of CB Bancshares common stock (or timely confirmation of a book-entry transfer of those securities into the exchange agent's account at DTC as described above), properly completed and duly executed letter(s) of transmittal, or an agent's message in connection with a book-entry transfer, and any other required documents.

By executing a letter of transmittal as set forth above, you irrevocably appoint our designees as your attorneys-in-fact and proxies, each with full power of substitution, to the full extent of your rights with respect to your shares of CB Bancshares common stock tendered and accepted for exchange by us and with respect to any and all other shares of CB Bancshares common stock and other securities issued or issuable in respect of the shares of CB Bancshares common stock on or after April 1, 2003. That appointment is effective, and voting rights will be affected, when and only to the extent that we deposit with the exchange agent the cash and CPF common stock that comprise the acquisition consideration with respect to the shares of CB Bancshares common stock that shareholders have tendered. All proxies shall be considered coupled with an interest in the tendered shares of CB Bancshares common stock and therefore shall not be revocable once the appointment is effective. Upon the effectiveness of the appointment, all prior proxies that you have given will be revoked, and you may not give any subsequent proxies (and, if given, they will not be deemed effective). Our designees will, with respect to the shares of CB Bancshares common stock for which the appointment is effective, be empowered, among other things, to exercise all of the CB Bancshares shareholders' voting and other rights as they, in their sole discretion, deem proper at any annual, special or adjourned meeting of CB Bancshares' shareholders or otherwise. We reserve the right to require that, in order for shares of CB Bancshares common stock to be deemed validly tendered, immediately upon our acceptance for exchange of those shares of CB Bancshares common stock, we must be able to exercise full voting rights with respect to those shares of CB Bancshares common stock. However, prior to acceptance for exchange by us in accordance with terms of the exchange offer, the appointment will not be effective, and we will have no voting rights as a result of the tender of shares of CB Bancshares common stock.

We will determine questions as to the validity, form, eligibility (including time of receipt) and acceptance for exchange of any tender of shares of CB Bancshares common stock, in our sole discretion, and our determination shall be final and binding. We reserve the absolute right to reject any and all tenders of shares of CB Bancshares common stock that we determine are not in proper form or the acceptance of, or exchange for, which may, in the opinion of our counsel, be unlawful. We also reserve the absolute right to waive any of the conditions of our exchange offer (other than the regulatory condition, the conditions relating to the absence of an injunction and the effectiveness of the registration statement for CPF shares to be issued in the exchange offer), or any defect or irregularity in the tender of any shares of CB Bancshares common stock. No tender of shares of CB Bancshares common stock will be deemed to have been validly made until all defects and irregularities in tenders of shares of CB Bancshares common stock have been cured or waived. None of CPF, the exchange agent, the information agent, the dealer manager or any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defects or irregularities in the tender of any shares of CB Bancshares common stock or will incur any liability for failure to give any notification. Our interpretation of the terms and conditions of the exchange offer (including the letter of transmittal and its instructions) will be final and binding.

The tender of shares of CB Bancshares common stock and Rights (if any) pursuant to any of the procedures described above will constitute a binding agreement between us and the tendering shareholders upon the terms and subject to the conditions of our exchange offer and the letter of transmittal.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Exchange Offer and the CB Bancshares Merger

The following discussion summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax considerations that are generally applicable to holders of CB Bancshares common stock who exchange their CB Bancshares common stock in the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger for cash and shares of CPF common stock. This discussion is based on currently existing provisions of the Code, existing and proposed Treasury Regulations thereunder and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all of which are subject to change. Any such change, which may or may not be retroactive, could alter the tax consequences of the offer to exchange and the merger that are described below. You should be aware that this discussion does not deal with all federal income tax considerations that may be relevant to particular CB Bancshares shareholders in light of their individual circumstances, such as CB Bancshares shareholders who:

are dealers in securities;

are subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code;

are foreign persons;

do not hold their shares of CB Bancshares common stock as capital assets;

acquired their shares of CB Bancshares common stock in connection with stock option or stock purchase plans or in other compensatory transactions;

hold their shares of CB Bancshares common stock as part of an integrated investment (including a "straddle") comprised of shares of CB Bancshares common stock and one or more other positions; or are subject to the constructive sale or constructive ownership provisions of the Code under Sections 1259 or 1260, respectively, with respect to their CB Bancshares common stock.

In addition, the following discussion does not address:

the tax consequences of the offer to exchange and the merger to any person under foreign, state or local tax laws.

Accordingly, you are urged to consult your own tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to you of the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger, including the applicable federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences.

This discussion of material federal income tax consequences of the exchange of shares of CB Bancshares common stock for CPF shares and cash pursuant to the exchange offer and of the merger assumes that the exchange and the merger will be treated for tax purposes as component parts of an integrated transaction carried out pursuant to a plan of reorganization. In certain rulings, the Internal Revenue Service has aggregated steps in an integrated transaction and determined that the overall result is a qualifying reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. See Revenue Ruling 2001-26 and Revenue Ruling 2001-46. Certain decided cases support such a result. See King Enterprises, Inc. v. United States, 418 F.2d 511 (Ct. Cl., 1969). Integrated transaction treatment also can occur when a merger is preceded by a tender offer. See J.F. Seagram Corp. V. Commissioner, 104 T.C. 75 (1995). However, whether two separate transactions will be integrated as one transaction for tax purposes depends in part on the factual context of the transactions. If the two transactions are not integrated for tax purposes, the result can be taxability caused by failure to qualify under Section 368(a) for one or both parts. We do not plan to request a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with regard to the federal income tax consequences of the exchange offer or the CB Bancshares merger.

In the opinion of Manatt Phelps & Phillips, LLP, counsel to CPF, the exchange of shares of CB Bancshares common stock for the acquisition consideration pursuant to the exchange offer and the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. This opinion is based in part on certain factual representations made to Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP, and certain assumptions.

Assuming that the exchange of CB Bancshares common stock for cash and our common stock pursuant to the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as an exchange pursuant to a plan of reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, as described above, Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP is further of the opinion that the following summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences that will result from the

Receipt Only of Cash

In general, a CB Bancshares shareholder who receives only cash in exchange for CB Bancshares pursuant to the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and such CB Bancshares shareholder's adjusted tax basis in the CB Bancshares common stock shares surrendered (unless the CB Bancshares shareholder actually or constructively owns our common stock and the receipt of cash has the effect of the distribution of a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes as discussed below under " Receipt of CPF Common Stock and Cash"). Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the CB Bancshares acquisition, the holding period for such CB Bancshares common stock shares is more than one year.

Receipt Only of CPF Common Stock

A CB Bancshares shareholder who receives only our common stock in exchange for CB Bancshares common stock shares pursuant to our offer and the CB Bancshares merger will not recognize any gain or loss upon such exchange (except to the extent cash is received in lieu of a fractional share of our common stock, which will be taxed as discussed below). The aggregate adjusted tax basis of our common stock received in such exchange, including any fractional interest in our common stock for which cash is received, will be equal to the aggregate adjusted tax basis of the CB Bancshares common stock shares surrendered therefor. The holding period of our common stock will include the holding period of such shares of CB Bancshares common stock.

Receipt of CPF Common Stock and Cash

A CB Bancshares shareholder who receives a combination of cash and our common stock in exchange for CB Bancshares common stock shares pursuant to the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger will recognize gain, if any, with respect to the shares so exchanged but only to the extent of the lesser of (a) the amount of gain realized with respect to the CB Bancshares common stock shares and (b) the amount of cash received (other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share of our common stock, which will be taxed as discussed below). The amount of gain realized with respect to the CB Bancshares common stock shares exchanged will equal the excess, if any, of the sum of the cash (including cash received in lieu of a fractional share) and the fair market value of our common stock received over the CB Bancshares shareholder's adjusted tax basis in such CB Bancshares common stock shares. No loss will be recognized by a CB Bancshares shareholder who receives a combination of cash and our common stock pursuant to our offer and the CB Bancshares merger (except in connection with cash received in lieu of a fractional share, as discussed below). Each share of CB Bancshares common stock, or block of shares acquired at the same price, will be treated as exchanged for a pro rata portion of cash and our common stock.

Any gain recognized will be treated as capital gain unless, as discussed below, the receipt of the cash has the effect of the distribution of a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes, in which case such gain will be treated as ordinary dividend income to the extent of the CB Bancshares shareholder's ratable share of CB Bancshares common stock's accumulated earnings and profits. Any capital gain will be long-term capital gain if, as of the date of the exchange, the holding period for the shares of CB Bancshares common stock exchanged is more than one year.

The adjusted tax basis of our common stock received by a CB Bancshares shareholder in exchange for CB Bancshares common stock shares pursuant to the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger, including any fractional interest in a share of our common stock for which cash is received, generally will be equal to the tax basis of the shares surrendered therefor, decreased by the amount of cash received and increased by the amount of gain or dividend income recognized, if any. The holding period of our common stock received will include the holding period of the CB Bancshares common stock shares exchanged therefor.

The exchange will not have the effect of a dividend with respect to a CB Bancshares shareholder if either the exchange is substantially disproportionate with respect to the CB Bancshares shareholder or the exchange results in a meaningful reduction in the CB Bancshares shareholder's interest in our common stock. The exchange would be substantially disproportionate with respect to the CB Bancshares shareholder if the CB Bancshares shareholder's percentage interest in our common stock (including stock constructively owned by such CB Bancshares shareholder) immediately after the CB Bancshares acquisition is less than 80 percent of what the percentage interest would have been if, hypothetically, the CB Bancshares shareholder had elected to receive solely our common stock in exchange for all CB Bancshares common stock shares owned or constructively owned by the CB Bancshares shareholder before the CB Bancshares acquisition and no consideration other than shares of our common stock were received. Whether an exchange would result in a meaningful reduction depends on the particular CB Bancshares shareholder's facts and circumstances. However, the exchange should generally result in a meaningful reduction if the CB Bancshares shareholder's percentage interest in our stock, immediately after the CB Bancshares acquisition (including shares owned and constructively owned), is minimal, the CB Bancshares shareholder exercises no control over corporate affairs of CB Bancshares common stock or CPF, and the CB Bancshares shareholder's percentage interest in our common stock is actually reduced from what the interest would have been if, hypothetically, the CB Bancshares shareholder had elected to receive solely our common stock in exchange for all CB Bancshares common stock shares owned or constructively owned by the CB Bancshares shareholder before the CB Bancshares acquisition. In determining a CB Bancshares shareholder's interest in our common stock, the CB Bancshares shareholder would be deemed to own any shares of our common stock owned, or constructively owned, by certain persons related to such CB Bancshares shareholder or that are subject to an option held by the CB Bancshares shareholder or a related person.

CB Bancshares shareholders should consult their own tax advisors as to the possibility that all or a portion of any cash received in exchange for their CB Bancshares common stock will be treated as a dividend and with respect to the consequences thereof, including the eligibility of CB Bancshares shareholders that are corporations for a dividends received deduction and treatment of the dividend as an "extraordinary dividend" under section 1059 of the Code.

Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of CPF Common Stock

A CB Bancshares shareholder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of our common stock and who does not otherwise hold shares of our common stock generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the CB Bancshares shareholder's tax basis in such fractional share. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the date of the exchange, the holding period for such shares is more than one year. CB Bancshares shareholders who separately hold shares of our common stock should consult their own tax advisors concerning the treatment of cash received for a fractional share.

The foregoing discussion is intended only as a summary and does not purport to be a complete analysis or listing of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger. You are urged to consult your tax advisors concerning the U.S. federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of participation in the exchange offer and/or the CB Bancshares merger to you.

Effect of the Exchange Offer on the Market for CB Bancshares Shares; Registration Under the Exchange Act

Reduced Liquidity; Possible Delisting. The tender of shares of CB Bancshares common stock pursuant to the exchange offer will reduce the number of holders of shares of CB Bancshares common stock and the number of shares of CB Bancshares common stock that might otherwise trade publicly and could adversely affect the liquidity and market value of the remaining shares of CB Bancshares common stock held by the public. Shares of CB Bancshares common stock are listed and principally traded on the Nasdaq National Market. Depending on the number of shares of CB Bancshares common stock acquired pursuant to the exchange offer but before the CB Bancshares merger, following the completion of the exchange offer, shares of CB Bancshares common stock may no longer meet the requirements of the Nasdaq National Market for continued listing. For example, published guidelines of the Nasdaq National Market indicate that the Nasdaq National Market could consider delisting the outstanding shares of CB Bancshares common stock if, among other things:

the number of publicly held shares of CB Bancshares common stock (exclusive of holdings of officers, directors and members of their immediate families and other concentrated holdings of 10 percent or more) should fall below 1.1 million;

the number of record holders of 100 or more shares of CB Bancshares common stock should fall below 400; or the aggregate market value of publicly held shares should fall below $15 million.

Based on CB Bancshares' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, as of January 31, 2003, there were 3,898,580 shares of CB Bancshares common stock outstanding, and as of March 1, 2003, there were approximately 4,000 holders of record.

If the Nasdaq National Market were to delist the shares of CB Bancshares common stock after the exchange of shares of CB Bancshares common stock in our exchange offer, but prior to the CB Bancshares merger, the market for shares of CB Bancshares common stock could be adversely affected. It is possible that shares of CB Bancshares common stock would be traded on another securities exchange or in the over-the-counter market, and that price quotations would be reported by those other sources. The extent of the public market for the shares of CB Bancshares common stock and the availability of such quotations would, however, depend upon the number of holders and/or the aggregate market value of the shares of CB Bancshares common stock remaining at that time, the interest in maintaining a market in the shares of CB

Bancshares common stock on the part of securities firms, the possible termination of registration of shares of CB Bancshares common stock under the Exchange Act, as described below, and other factors.

Status as Margin Securities. The shares of CB Bancshares common stock are presently margin securities under the regulations of the Federal Reserve Board, which has the effect, among other things, of allowing brokers to extend credit on the collateral of shares of CB Bancshares common stock. Depending on factors similar to those described above with respect to listing and market quotations, following completion of the exchange offer, the shares of CB Bancshares common stock may no longer constitute margin securities for the purposes of the Federal Reserve Board's margin regulations, in which event the shares of CB Bancshares common stock would be ineligible as collateral for margin loans made by brokers.

Registration Under the Exchange Act. The shares of CB Bancshares common stock are currently registered under the Exchange Act. CB Bancshares can terminate that registration upon application to the SEC if the outstanding shares are not listed on a national securities exchange and if there are fewer than 300 holders of record of shares of CB Bancshares common stock. Termination of registration of the shares of CB Bancshares common stock under the Exchange Act would reduce the information that CB Bancshares must furnish to its shareholders and to the SEC and would make some provisions of the Exchange Act, including the short-swing profit recovery provisions of Section 16(b) and the requirement of furnishing a proxy statement in connection with shareholders meetings pursuant to Section 14(a) and the related requirement of furnishing an annual report to shareholders, no longer applicable with respect to shares of CB Bancshares common stock. Furthermore, the ability of CB Bancshares affiliates and persons holding restricted securities of CB Bancshares to dispose of securities pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Act may be impaired or eliminated. If registration of the shares of CB Bancshares common stock under the Exchange Act were terminated, shares of CB Bancshares common stock would no longer be eligible for Nasdaq National Market listing or for continued inclusion on the Federal Reserve Board's list of margin securities.

Purpose of the Exchange Offer; the CB Bancshares Merger; Dissenters' Rights

The purpose of the exchange offer is to acquire control of CB Bancshares. We are making the exchange offer in order to acquire control of, and ultimately the entire equity interest in, CB Bancshares. The exchange offer is the first step in our acquisition of CB Bancshares, and is intended to facilitate the acquisition of all shares of CB Bancshares common stock. CB Bancshares shareholders will not have dissenters' rights as a result of the completion of the exchange offer.

Upon completion of the exchange offer we intend to proceed with the CB Bancshares merger. As soon as practicable after the completion of the exchange offer, we intend to seek to merge CB Bancshares with CPF or a wholly owned subsidiary. The purpose of the CB Bancshares merger is to acquire all shares of CB Bancshares common stock not tendered and exchanged pursuant to the exchange offer. In the CB Bancshares merger, each then-outstanding share of CB Bancshares common stock (except for treasury shares of CB Bancshares and shares beneficially owned directly or indirectly by CPF for its own account) will be converted into the right to receive the acquisition consideration received in the exchange offer, subject to dissenters' rights under Hawaii law.

If we become the owners of at least 90% of the outstanding shares of CB Bancshares common stock, the CB Bancshares merger may be completed pursuant to Section 414-314 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act. Under Section 414-314, a parent corporation owning at least 90% of the outstanding shares of each class of a domestic subsidiary corporation may merge the subsidiary corporation into itself without the approval of the shareholders of the subsidiary corporation but with the approval of the board of directors of the subsidiary corporation.

No dissenters' rights are available in connection with the exchange offer; however, there are dissenters' rights in connection with the proposed merger. If the exchange offer is completed and then the CB Bancshares merger is consummated, CB Bancshares shareholders will have certain rights under the

Hawaii Business Corporation Act to dissent and demand dissenters' rights and to receive payment in cash of the fair value of their shares of CB Bancshares common stock. CB Bancshares shareholders that vote in favor of the CB Bancshares merger will not be entitled to relief as dissenting shareholders. CB Bancshares shareholders who perfect their rights by complying with the procedures set forth in Sections 414-351, 414-352, 414-354 and 414-359 will have the fair value of their shares determined by a Hawaii trial court and will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to such fair value from the surviving corporation. In addition, such dissenting shareholders would be entitled to receive payment of a fair rate of interest at a rate determined by the trial court on the amount determined to be the fair value of their shares. In determining the fair value of the shares of CB Bancshares common stock, a court may appoint appraisers to receive evidence and recommend discussing the question of fair value.

The foregoing summary of the rights of dissenting shareholders does not purport to be a complete statement of the procedures to be followed by shareholders desiring to exercise any available dissenters' rights and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Sections 414-351, 414-352, 414-354 and 414-359 included herewith in Annex B. The preservation and exercise of dissenters' rights are conditioned on strict adherence to the applicable provisions of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act.

Rule 13e-3 of the General Rules and Regulations under the Exchange Act, which we do not believe would apply to the CB Bancshares merger if the merger occurred within one year of the completion of the exchange offer, would require, among other things, that some financial information concerning CB Bancshares, and some information relating to the fairness of the proposed transaction and the consideration offered to shareholders of CB Bancshares, be filed with the SEC and disclosed to shareholders prior to the completion of the CB Bancshares merger.

Plans for CB Bancshares After the CB Bancshares Merger

Once we have completed the CB Bancshares merger, we expect that CB Bancshares would cease to exist and that its subsidiary bank, City Bank, would be merged into Central Pacific Bank.

Conditions to the Exchange Offer

The exchange offer is also subject to a number of conditions, which are described below:

Minimum Tender Condition

Consummation of the exchange offer is conditioned upon there being validly tendered and not withdrawn prior to the expiration of the exchange offer, a number of shares of CB Bancshares common stock which, together with any shares of CB Bancshares common stock that we beneficially own for our own account, will constitute at least 75.1% of the total number of outstanding shares of CB Bancshares common stock on a fully diluted basis (as though all options or other securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of CB Bancshares common stock had been so converted, exercised or exchanged) as of the date that we accept the shares of CB Bancshares common stock for exchange pursuant to the exchange offer.

Regulatory Condition

The exchange offer is conditioned upon all regulatory approvals required to consummate the exchange offer and merger having been obtained and remaining in full force and effect, all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof having expired and no such approval containing any conditions or restrictions that we reasonably determine will have or reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect. The term material adverse effect means a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations or financial condition of CPF, CB Bancshares and their respective subsidiaries taken as a whole or a material adverse effect on our ability to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

On April 28, 2003, we filed applications and notices with the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco and with the Hawaii Commissioner of Financial Institutions for permission to acquire control of a majority of the outstanding shares of CB Bancshares and indirectly, City Bank.

We will use our reasonable best efforts to obtain the requisite regulatory approvals, which include approval from the Federal Reserve Board and various state regulatory authorities. The exchange offer and/or the merger cannot be completed without the requisite regulatory approvals. Although no assurances can be given, we anticipate that we will receive all regulatory approvals on a timely basis.

The exchange offer and the merger are subject to approval by the Federal Reserve Board pursuant to Sections 3 and 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act. Assuming Federal Reserve Board approval, the exchange offer may not be consummated until 30 days after such approval, during which time the Department of Justice may challenge the exchange offer on antitrust grounds and seek the divestiture of certain assets and liabilities. With the approval of the Federal Reserve Board and the Department of Justice, the waiting period may be reduced to no less than 15 days.

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

The Federal Reserve Board is prohibited from approving any transaction under the applicable statutes which:

would result in a monopoly or which would be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States; or may have the effect in any section of the United States of substantially lessening competition, or tending to create a monopoly, or resulting in a restraint of trade, unless the Federal Reserve Board finds that the anti-competitive effects of the transaction are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

In reviewing the exchange offer and the merger, the Department of Justice could analyze their effect on competition differently than the Federal Reserve Board, and thus it is possible that the Department of Justice could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Reserve Board regarding their competitive effects. The Federal Reserve Board will also consider the financial and managerial resources of the companies and their subsidiary banks.

In addition, under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended, or the CRA, the Federal Reserve Board must take into account the record of performance of CPF and CB Bancshares in meeting the credit needs of the entire community, including low and moderate income neighborhoods, that each company serves, respectively. As part of the review process, the Federal Reserve Board frequently receives comments and protests from community groups and others. In its most recent examination conducted, Central Pacific Bank, CPF's wholly-owned subsidiary bank, received a satisfactory rating. CB Bancshares' subsidiary bank, City Bank, received a satisfactory rating in February 2002.

The Federal Reserve Board will furnish notice and a copy of the application for approval of the exchange offer and the merger to the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, or the OCC, the FDIC and the appropriate state regulatory authorities. These agencies have 30 days to submit their views and recommendations to the Federal Reserve Board. The Federal Reserve Board is required to hold a public hearing in the event it receives a written recommendation of disapproval of the application from any of these agencies within such 30-day period. Furthermore, Federal Reserve Board regulations require publication of notice of, and the opportunity for public comment on, the application submitted by CPF for approval of the exchange offer and the merger and authorize the Federal Reserve Board to hold a public hearing in connection therewith if the Federal Reserve Board determines that such a hearing would be appropriate.

Under Section 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act and related regulations, the Federal Reserve Board must consider whether the performance of CPF's and CB Bancshares' nonbanking activities on a combined basis can reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public (such as greater convenience, increased competition and gains in efficiency) that outweigh possible adverse effects (such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interest and unsound banking practices). This consideration includes an evaluation of the financial and managerial resources of CPF and CB Bancshares and the effect of the proposed transaction on those resources.

In addition, the CB Bancshares acquisition will require certain approvals, notices or exemptions in Hawaii. We do not currently anticipate any significant difficulties in obtaining such approvals or any material impact on the operations of the combined entity if any such approvals are not obtained.

Control Share Condition

Consummation of the exchange offer is conditioned upon our acquisition of a majority or more CB Bancshares common stock being authorized by the shareholders of CB Bancshares pursuant to Chapter 414E of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act, referred to as the Control Share Acquisition statute, at a special meeting of shareholders of CB Bancshares in accordance with the Hawaii Control Share Acquisition statute, or our being satisfied, in our sole discretion, that the Control Share Acquisition statute is invalid or inapplicable to the acquisition of CB Bancshares capital stock pursuant to the exchange offer.

Under the Hawaii Control Share Acquisition statute, unless a corporation's articles of incorporation otherwise provide, any "control share acquisition" of an "issuing public corporation" (such as CB Bancshares) may be made only with the prior authorization of its shareholders in accordance with the Control Share Acquisition statute. CB Bancshares' articles of incorporation, as amended, currently do not contain a provision by which CB Bancshares "opts out" of the Control Share Acquisition statute.

Unless and until such time as CB Bancshares' articles are amended to include such an "opt out" provision or the law is determined to be invalid, the Control Share Acquisition statute requires shareholder approval of any proposed "control share acquisition" of CB Bancshares. A "control share acquisition" is the acquisition, directly or indirectly, by any person of beneficial ownership of shares of a corporation that, when added to all other shares of such corporation over which such person may exercise or direct the exercise of voting power, entitles such person to exercise or direct the exercise of 10% or more, 20% or more, or 30% or more, 40% or more, or a majority or more of the voting power in the election of directors. A control share acquisition must be authorized in advance by the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of all shares entitled to vote, excluding the voting power of shares beneficially owned by the acquiring person. Hawaii's Business Corporation Act provides that a quorum shall be deemed to be present at a meeting if at least a majority of the voting power of the shares are represented at such meeting. If an acquiring person fails to receive shareholder approval or fails to consummate the acquisition within 180 days after shareholder approval, all shares acquired by the acquiring person shall be denied voting rights for one year and will be subject to redemption by the corporation.

Under the Control Share Acquisition statute, once it receives an information statement from the acquiring person, which in this case is CPF, CB Bancshares must call a meeting to vote upon a proposed control share acquisition within 5 days, and the meeting must be held no sooner than 30 days (unless requested in writing by the acquiring person at the time of the information statement) and no later than 55 days following its receipt of the information statement. The acquiring person can agree to a later date.

Without waiving its right to challenge the validity of all or any part of the control share acquisition law or to seek an amendment to CB Bancshares' articles opting out of the control share acquisition law, and reserving its right to take actions inconsistent with the applicability of the control share acquisition law, we delivered to CB Bancshares on April 28, 2003 an information statement relating to the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger. Pursuant to the provisions of the control share acquisition law, the Hawaii control share acquisition meeting must be held no later than June 22, 2003.

On May 5, 2003, CB Bancshares announced that its board of directors set May 28, 2003, as the meeting date of the special meeting to be held under the Hawaii Control Share Acquisitions statute; and that shareholders of record at the close of business on May 5, 2003 will be eligible to vote at the special meeting.

On May 5, 2003, we and CB Bancshares filed preliminary proxy materials with the SEC in connection with the special meeting.

Rights Agreement Condition

Consummation of the exchange offer is conditioned upon the Rights Agreement, dated March 16, 1989, as amended (the "CB Bancshares Rights Agreement"), between CB Bancshares and City Bank, as Rights Agent, not being applicable to the exchange offer.

This condition may be satisfied in a number of ways, including the following: (i) CB Bancshares' board may redeem or amend the Rights so they would not be triggered by the exchange offer and the merger, (ii) pursuant to a consent solicitation of a type referred to under "Background of the Exchange Offer General," CPF could succeed in replacing CB Bancshares' board with new directors who would (subject to fiduciary duties and successful challenges to the Rights Agreement, including provisions requiring the approval of certain directors to redeem the Rights in certain circumstances) take such actions as may be necessary with respect to the Rights so that they would not be triggered by the exchange offer or the merger or (iii) we could file and be successful in litigation seeking, among other things, invalidation of the Rights or an injunction requiring CB Bancshares' board to redeem the Rights. We have not determined whether to commence litigation challenging the CB Bancshares Right Agreement, and if so, the basis for such a lawsuit.

Pursuant to the Rights Agreement, on March 16, 1989, CB Bancshares' board declared a dividend of one right (a "Right") for each outstanding share, to the holders of record on March 27, 1989 and authorized and directed the issuance of one Right with respect to each share that shall become outstanding after March 27, 1989 and before the earliest to occur of (i) March 27, 2009, (ii) the date the Rights are redeemed or (iii) the Distribution Date (as defined below).

The following description of the Rights does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Rights Agreement. Each Right entitles the registered holder thereof to purchase from CB Bancshares one share at a price of $100, subject to adjustment. The Rights expire on March 27, 2009, unless such date is extended or unless such Rights are redeemed earlier, and will not be exercisable or transferable separately from the shares until (i) 20 days following a public announcement that a person or group of persons (other than CB Bancshares, any subsidiary of CB Bancshares, any employee benefit plan of CB Bancshares or any subsidiary of CB Bancshares or any entity holding shares pursuant to the terms of any such plan) has beneficial ownership (including the right to acquire, vote or dispose of the shares) of 20% or more of the outstanding shares (an "Acquiring Person"), or (ii) 20 days (or such later date as may be determined by action of CB Bancshares' board) following the commencement of a tender offer or exchange offer by any person or group of persons (other than CB Bancshares, any subsidiary of CB Bancshares, any employee benefit plan of CB Bancshares or any subsidiary of CB Bancshares or any entity holding shares pursuant to the terms of any such plan) the consummation of which would result in the beneficial ownership by a person of 30% or more of such outstanding shares (the earlier of such dates being the "Distribution Date").

At any time prior to 20 days after the date of public announcement that a person or group of persons has become an Acquiring Person, CB Bancshares' board may redeem the Rights in whole, but not in part, at a price of $.01 per Right.

In the event that (i) an Acquiring Person merges into or otherwise combines with CB Bancshares and CB Bancshares is the surviving corporation, (ii) an Acquiring Person engages in one of a number of self-dealing transactions specified in the Rights Agreement, (iii) during such time as there is an Acquiring Person, an event occurs which results in such Acquiring Person's ownership interest being increased by more than 1% (other than a merger or consolidation) or (iv) a person or group becomes the beneficial owner of 50% or more of the shares of CB Bancshares (other than a merger or consolidation) each holder of a Right, other than an Acquiring Person whose Rights shall become permanently null and void on the occurrence of such an event, shall have the right to receive, upon exercise of the Rights at a purchase price equal to $100 multiplied by the number of shares for which the Right was exercisable, that number of shares determined by dividing the exercise price by 50% of the current per share market price, resulting in the receipt of a number of shares having a market value of two times the exercise price of the Right.

In the event that (i) CB Bancshares merges with or into an Acquiring Person and CB Bancshares is not the surviving corporation, (ii) an Acquiring Person merges with or into CB Bancshares and CB Bancshares is the surviving corporation, but its shares are exchanged or (iii) 50% or more of CB Bancshares' assets or earning power are sold to an Acquiring Person, proper provision will be made so that each holder of a Right, except as otherwise provided in the Rights Agreement, will thereafter have the right to receive, upon exercise of the Rights at a purchase price equal to $100 multiplied by the number of shares for which the Right was exercisable, that number of shares of the acquiring corporation determined by dividing the exercise price by 50% of the current per share market price of the acquiring corporation's securities, resulting in the receipt of that number of shares of common stock of the acquiring corporation which at the time of such transaction will have a market value of two times the exercise price of the Right. Until a Right is exercised, the holder thereof, as such, will have no rights as a shareholder of CB Bancshares, including, without limitation, the right to vote or to receive dividends.

The terms of the Rights may be amended by CB Bancshares' board without the consent of the holders of the Rights prior to the Distribution Date. The Board may redeem the Rights for $.01 per Right at any time prior to the expiration of 20 days after a person becomes an Acquiring Person. However, any redemption of Rights (i) after a person becomes an Acquiring Person or (ii) after there is a change in majority of the directors in office pursuant to proxy contest after a person announces its intention to become an Acquiring Person, must be approved by a majority of the disinterested directors. Generally, a director is disinterested if he or she is not an Acquiring Person and was a director prior to the time that the Acquiring Person became such, or an affiliate or representative of an Acquiring Person and is not an officer or employee of CB Bancshares or a relative of such person.

The Rights have certain anti-takeover effects. The Rights will cause substantial dilution to a person or group of persons that attempts to acquire CB Bancshares in a manner which causes the Rights to become exercisable.

CPF Shareholder Approval Condition

Consummation of the exchange offer is conditioned upon the approval by the shareholders of CPF of the issuance of CPF common stock pursuant to the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger.

Pursuant to the rules of the NYSE, upon which CPF's common stock is listed, the issuance of CPF common stock pursuant to the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger must be approved by holders of a majority of the shares voted at a meeting of such holders at which the total number of votes cast represents over 50% in interest of all shares of CPF entitled to vote on the proposal. This approval is required because the number of shares of CPF's common stock to be issued will be equal to or in excess of 20% of the shares outstanding prior to such issuance. CPF intends to seek this approval at a meeting of its shareholders to be held as soon as practicable.

Due Diligence Condition

Consummation of the exchange offer is conditioned upon completion of due diligence to our satisfaction or our decision to waive that condition. We have not had the opportunity to do any due diligence on CB Bancshares, and we have only had access to information that CB Bancshares has made publicly available. During the course of our due diligence, we may determine, among other things, that the terms of the exchange offer should be amended or that the exchange offer should be terminated.

Certain Other Conditions to the Exchange Offer

Notwithstanding any other provision of the exchange offer, we shall not be required to accept for exchange or exchange any shares of CB Bancshares common stock, may postpone the acceptance for exchange of or the exchange for tendered shares of CB Bancshares common stock, and may, in our sole discretion, terminate or amend the exchange offer as to any shares of CB Bancshares common stock not then exchanged, if at the expiration date, any of the minimum tender condition, the regulatory condition, the control share condition, the takeover notice condition, the rights agreement condition, the due diligence condition or any of the other conditions to the exchange offer set forth in clauses (a) through (g) below has not been satisfied or, in the case of any condition other than the regulatory condition or the conditions set forth in clauses (b) or (c) below, waived.

The other conditions to the exchange offer are as follows:

- (a) the shares of CPF common stock to be issued to CB Bancshares shareholders in the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger have been authorized for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance;
- (b) the registration statement shall have become effective under the Securities Act, and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement or a proceeding seeking a stop order shall have been issued nor shall there have been proceedings for that purpose initiated or threatened by the SEC, and we shall have received all necessary state securities law or blue sky authorizations;
- (c) no temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order or decree issued by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the completion of the exchange offer, the CB Bancshares merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the exchange offer shall be in effect; no statute, rule, regulation, order, injunction or decree shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any court, administrative agency or commission or other governmental authority or instrumentality which prohibits, restricts or makes illegal the completion of the exchange offer or the CB Bancshares merger;
- (d) there shall not be pending or threatened any suit, action or proceeding by any governmental entity (i) challenging the exchange offer, seeking to restrain or prohibit the completion of the exchange offer or seeking to obtain from CB Bancshares or us any damages that are material in relation to CB Bancshares and its subsidiaries taken as a whole or us and our subsidiaries taken as a whole, (ii) seeking to prohibit or limit the ownership or operation by CB Bancshares or its subsidiaries or us or any of our subsidiaries of any material portion of the business or assets of CB Bancshares or its subsidiaries or us or any of our subsidiaries or to compel CB Bancshares or its subsidiaries or any of our subsidiaries to dispose of or hold separate any material portion of the business or assets of CB Bancshares or its subsidiaries or us or any of our subsidiaries as a result of our offer to exchange, (iii) seeking to prohibit us from effectively controlling in any material respect the business or operations of CB Bancshares or (iv) which otherwise is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on us or CB Bancshares;

- (e) no change shall have occurred or been threatened (or any condition, event or development shall have occurred or been threatened involving a prospective change) in the business, properties, assets, liabilities, capitalization, shareholders' equity, condition

(financial or otherwise), operations, licenses or franchises, results of operations or prospects of CB Bancshares or any of its subsidiaries that, in our judgment, is or may be materially adverse to CB Bancshares or any of its subsidiaries, nor shall we have become aware of any facts that, in its our judgment, have or may have material adverse significance with respect to either the value of CB Bancshares or any of its subsidiaries or the value of the common stock of CB Bancshares to us;

(f) there shall not have occurred or been threatened (i) any general suspension of trading in, or limitation on prices for, securities on any national securities exchange or in the over-the-counter market in the United States, (ii) any extraordinary or material adverse change in the financial markets or major stock exchange indices in the United States or abroad or in the market price of the shares of CB Bancshares common stock, (iii) any change in the general political, market, economic or financial conditions in the U.S. or abroad that could, in our sole judgment, have a material adverse effect upon the business, properties, assets, liabilities, capitalization, shareholders equity, condition (financial or otherwise), operations, licenses or franchises, results of operations or prospects of CB Bancshares or any of its subsidiaries, (iv) any material change in U.S. currency exchange rates or any other currency exchange rates or a suspension of, or limitation on, the markets therefor, (v) a declaration of a banking moratorium or any suspension of payments in respect of banks in the United States, (vi) any limitation (whether or not mandatory) by any government, domestic, foreign or supranational, or governmental entity on, or other event that, in our sole judgment, might affect, the extension of credit by banks or other lending institutions, (vii) a commencement of war or armed hostilities or other national or international calamity directly or indirectly involving the U.S., or (viii) in the case of any of the foregoing existing at the time of the commencement of the exchange offer, a material acceleration or worsening thereof; and

(g) CB Bancshares shall not have entered into or effectuated any other agreement or transaction with any person or entity having the effect of impairing our ability to acquire CB Bancshares or otherwise diminishing the expected economic value to us of the CB Bancshares acquisition including, but not limited to, any material issuance of new securities of CB Bancshares, the declaration of any extraordinary dividend, or any other transaction not in the ordinary course of CB Bancshares' business.

The conditions listed above are solely for our benefit and we may assert them regardless of the circumstances giving rise to any of the conditions (including any action or inaction by us). We may waive any of these conditions in whole or in part (other than the antitrust condition and the conditions set forth in clauses (b) and (c) above). The determination as to whether any condition has been satisfied shall be in our reasonable judgment and will be final and binding on all parties. The failure by us at any time to exercise any of the foregoing rights shall not be deemed a waiver of any right and each right shall be deemed a continuing right which may be asserted at any time and from time to time.

Regulatory Approvals

Other than clearance under the banking laws applicable to the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger which are described above under " Conditions to the Offer to Exchange Regulatory Condition," the SEC's declaring the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this exchange offer is a part and possibly the filings under the takeovers law, we do not believe that any additional material governmental filings are required with respect to the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger.

Source and Amount of Funds

We issued $15 million trust preferred securities on March 27, 2003 through a pooled trust preferred transaction. The trust preferred securities have a maturity of April 7, 2033 and are callable at par in whole or in part by us from April 7, 2008. The interest rate on the preferred securities floats quarterly at a spread of 3.25% over 3-month LIBOR with an initial interest rate of 4.54%. The $15 million raised through the issuance qualifies as Tier 1 regulatory capital. CPF will use the proceeds from that issuance of trust preferred securities plus our working capital to provide the cash component of the acquisition consideration.

Certain Relationships with CB Bancshares

Except as set forth in this exchange offer under "Background of the Exchange Offer" on page 23, neither we nor, to the best of our knowledge, any of our directors, executive officers or other affiliates has entered into any contract, arrangement, understanding or relationship with any other person with respect to any securities of CB Bancshares, including, but not limited to, any contract, arrangement, understanding or relationship concerning the transfer or the voting of any securities, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of loans, guarantees against loss or the giving or withholding of proxies, consents or authorizations. Except as described in this exchange offer, there have been no contracts, negotiations or transactions since January 1, 2001, between us or, to the best of our knowledge, any of our directors, executive officers or other affiliates on the one hand, and CB Bancshares or its affiliates, on the other hand, concerning a merger, consolidation or acquisition, a tender offer for or other acquisition of any CB Bancshares securities, an election of CB Bancshares' directors, or a sale or other transfer of a material amount of assets of CB Bancshares. In the normal course of our business, we and CB Bancshares are parties to transactions and agreements. Since January 1, 2001, we believe that no such transaction had an aggregate value in excess of 1% of CB Bancshares' consolidated revenues for the fiscal year when the transaction occurred or the past portion of the current fiscal year. Neither we, nor, to the best of our knowledge, any of our directors, executive officers or other affiliates has, since January 1, 2001, had any transaction with CB Bancshares or any of its executive officers, directors or affiliates where the aggregate value of the transaction exceeded $60,000. As of the date of this offer to exchange, we beneficially own for our own account 88,741 shares of CB Bancshares common stock. In addition, officers and directors of CPF, own 1,437 shares of

CB Bancshares common stock. Set forth below is a description of transactions in CB Bancshares' common stock by us and our officers and directors since February 24, 2003:

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements presented below are derived from the historical consolidated financial statements of each of CPF and CB Bancshares. The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements are prepared using the purchase method of accounting, with CPF treated as the acquiror and as if the CB Bancshares acquisition had been completed as of the beginning of the periods presented for statements of operations purposes and as of December 31, 2002 for balance sheet purposes. For a summary of the proposed business combination, see "The Exchange Offer" beginning on page 30.

The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements are based upon the historical financial statements of CPF and CB Bancshares adjusted to give effect to the CB Bancshares acquisition. The pro forma adjustments are described in the accompanying notes presented on the following pages. The pro forma financial statements have been developed from (a) the audited consolidated financial statements of CPF contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, which is incorporated by reference in this exchange offer, and (b) the audited consolidated financial statements of CB Bancshares contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, which is incorporated by reference in this exchange offer.

As of the date of the exchange offer, we have not done any due diligence and have not completed the valuation studies necessary to arrive at the required estimates of the fair market value of the CB Bancshares assets to be acquired and the CB Bancshares liabilities to be assumed and the related allocations of purchase price, nor have we identified the adjustments necessary, if any, to conform CB Bancshares data to CPF's accounting policies. Accordingly, we have used the historical book values of the assets and liabilities of CB Bancshares and the historical revenue recognition policies of CB Bancshares to prepare the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements set forth herein, with the excess of the purchase price over the historical net assets of CB Bancshares recorded as goodwill and other purchased intangibles. Once we have determined the final purchase price for CB Bancshares and completed the due diligence and the valuation studies necessary to finalize the required purchase price allocations and identified any necessary conforming changes for CB Bancshares, such pro forma financial statements will be subject to adjustment. Such adjustments will likely result in changes to the pro forma statement of financial position to reflect the final allocations of purchase price and the pro forma statements of income, and there can be no assurance that such adjustments will not be material.

The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements are provided for illustrative purposes only and do not purport to represent what the actual consolidated results of operations or the consolidated financial position of CPF would have been had CPF's exchange offer and the CB Bancshares acquisition occurred on the dates assumed, nor are they necessarily indicative of future consolidated results of operations or financial position.

The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements do not include the realization of cost savings from operating efficiencies, synergies or other restructurings resulting from the CB Bancshares acquisition.

The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements should be read in conjunction with the separate historical consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes of CPF and CB Bancshares that are incorporated by reference in this exchange offer.

REGULATION AND SUPERVISION

The following is a summary of certain statutes and regulations affecting us and Central Pacific Bank, CB Bancshares and City Bank. This summary is qualified in its entirety by such statutes and regulations.

General

We and CB Bancshares are registered bank holding companies under the Bank Holding Company Act, and as such are subject to regulation by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, which we refer to as the Federal Reserve. A bank holding company is required to file with the Federal Reserve annual reports and other information regarding its business operations and those of its subsidiaries. A bank holding company and its subsidiary banks are also subject to examination by the Federal Reserve.

The Bank Holding Company Act requires every bank holding company to obtain the approval of the Federal Reserve before acquiring substantially all the assets of any bank or bank holding company or ownership or control of any voting shares of any bank or bank holding company, if, after such acquisition, it would own or control, directly or indirectly, more than 5% of the voting shares of such bank or bank holding company.

In approving acquisitions by bank holding companies or companies engaged in banking-related activities, the Federal Reserve considers whether the performance of any such activity by a subsidiary of the holding company reasonably can be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition or gains in efficiency, which outweigh possible adverse effects, such as over-concentration of resources, decreased competition or unsound banking practices.

In addition, bank holding companies are restricted in, and subject to, limitations regarding transactions with subsidiaries and other affiliates.

Dividend Regulation

Our ability and the ability of CB Bancshares to obtain funds for the payment of dividends and for other cash requirements is largely dependent on the amount of dividends which may be declared by our subsidiary, Central Pacific Bank, and their subsidiary, City Bank.

See "Market Price Data and Dividend Information" on page 18 for more information.

Government Policies

The policies of regulatory authorities, including the Federal Reserve and the FDIC, have had a significant effect on the operating results of commercial banks in the past and are expected to do so in the future. An important function of the Federal Reserve System is to regulate aggregate national credit and money supply through such means as open market dealings in securities, establishing the discount rate on member bank borrowings and changes in reserve requirements against bank deposits. Policies of these agencies may be influenced by many factors, including inflation, unemployment, short-term and long-term changes in the international trade balance and fiscal policies of the United States government.

USA Patriot Act

On October 26, 2001, the President signed into law comprehensive anti-terrorism legislation known as the USA Patriot Act. Title III of the USA Patriot Act requires financial institutions, including the banks, to help prevent, detect and prosecute international money laundering and the financing of terrorism. Our bank has augmented its systems and procedures to accomplish this. We have not performed any due diligence on City Bank, and accordingly can make no assessment as to any steps City Bank may have taken in this regard.

Federal Deposit Insurance

Because of favorable loss experience and an adequate reserve ratio in the Bank Insurance Fund (BIF) of the FDIC, well-capitalized and well-managed banks, including Central Pacific Bank and City Bank, have in recent years paid minimal premiums for FDIC insurance. A number of factors suggest that as early as the second half of 2003, even well-capitalized and well-managed banks may be required to pay premiums for deposit insurance. The amount of any such premiums will depend on the outcome of legislative and regulatory initiatives as well as the growth of insured deposits, the BIF loss experience and other factors, none of which we are in position to predict at this time.

DESCRIPTION OF CPF CAPITAL STOCK

The following description of the terms of our common stock is not meant to be complete and is qualified by reference to CPF's Articles of Incorporation, which is incorporated by reference herein. See "Where Can I Find More Information?" beginning on page 71.

If CPF liquidates, dissolves or winds up its business, holders of our common stock are entitled to receive all remaining assets available for distribution to shareholders after satisfaction of CPF's liabilities and the preferential rights of any preferred stock that may be outstanding at that time.

Preemption Right and Sinking Fund, Redemption or Conversion Provisions. Holders of common stock have no preemptive rights to purchase, subscribe for or receive shares of any class, or series thereof, of stock of CPF. The common stock is not entitled to any sinking fund, Preferred Share Purchase Rights. Pursuant to a Rights Agreement dated as of August 26, 1998, between CPF and the Rights Agent, CPF's board of directors declared a dividend of one preferred share purchase right for each outstanding share of CPF common stock on August 26, 1998. CPF's preferred share purchase rights when exercisable, entitle the registered holder to purchase from CPF one two-thousandth of a share of CPF's Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock, no par value per share, at a price of $37.50 per one two-thousandth of a preferred share, subject to adjustment. These rights are attached to, and transferred with, all shares of our common stock outstanding until the distribution date described below. The rights will separate from the shares of CPF common stock on the distribution date. Distribution date means the date which is the earlier to occur of:

10 days following a public announcement that a person or group of affiliated or associated persons have acquired beneficial ownership of 15% or more of the outstanding common shares;

10 business days following the commencement of, or announcement of an intention to make, a tender offer or exchange offer the consummation of which would result in the beneficial ownership by a person or group of 15% or more of such outstanding common shares; or CPF may redeem the rights at the option of our board of directors for $0.02 per right, subject to adjustment, at any time prior to the earlier of the expiration of the rights or on the date that a person or persons acquire 15% of CPF's voting power. Our board of directors may amend the rights at any time without shareholder approval, provided, however, that from and after the date that a person or persons acquire beneficial ownership of 15% or more of CPF's outstanding common shares, the rights agreement shall not be amended in any manner that would adversely affect the holders of rights. Unless earlier redeemed, the rights will expire by their terms on August 26, 2008.

See "Comparison of Rights of Holders of CPF Common Stock and CB Bancshares Common Stock Special Voting Requirements" for a description of provisions in CPF's articles of incorporation regarding the shareholder vote needed to effect certain business combinations.

CPF's common stock is currently listed on the NYSE under the symbol "CPF."

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF CPF COMMON STOCK AND CB BANCSHARES COMMON STOCK

Upon completion of the CB Bancshares acquisition, CB Bancshares shareholders will become shareholders of CPF, rather than shareholders of CB Bancshares. Since both CPF and CB Bancshares are Hawaii corporations, the rights of the shareholders of CPF and CB Bancshares are governed by the applicable laws of the State of Hawaii, including the Hawaii Business Corporation Act, and by each company's respective articles of incorporation, as amended, and bylaws, as amended.

The following is a summary comparison of:

the current rights of CB Bancshares shareholders under the Hawaii Business Corporation Act and the CB Bancshares articles of incorporation, as amended, or the CB Bancshares bylaws; and the rights CB Bancshares shareholders will have as CPF shareholders under the Hawaii Business Corporation Act and the CPF articles of incorporation, as amended, the CPF articles, and bylaws, as amended, or the CPF bylaws, upon the completion of the exchange offer and the CB Bancshares merger.

The following summary discusses some of the material differences between the current rights of CPF shareholders and CB Bancshares shareholders under the CPF articles and CPF bylaws and CB Bancshares articles and CB Bancshares bylaws. The statements in this section are qualified in their entirety by reference to, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act, CPF articles, CPF bylaws, CB Bancshares articles and CB Bancshares bylaws. Copies of the CPF articles and CPF bylaws and the CB Bancshares articles and CB Bancshares bylaws are incorporated by reference herein and will be sent to CB Bancshares shareholders, upon request. See "Where Can I Find More Information?" beginning on page 71.

Number, Classification and Election of Board of Directors

The Hawaii Business Corporation Act provides that any shareholder may give written notice requesting that cumulative voting be used for the election of directors. The notice must be given to any officer of the corporation not less than 48 hours before the time fixed for holding a meeting of shareholders for the purpose of electing directors. Furthermore, an announcement of the giving of such notice must be made upon the convening of the meeting by the Chairman or Secretary or by or on behalf of such shareholder. The right to have directors elected by cumulative voting as provided for in the Hawaii Business Corporation Act exists notwithstanding that such a cumulative voting provision is not included in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of a corporation; however, this right may be restricted, qualified, or eliminated by a provision of the articles of incorporation or bylaws of any corporation having a class of equity securities registered pursuant to the Exchange Act, which are either listed on a national securities exchange or traded over-the-counter on the National Market of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Automated Quotation System.

CPF. The CPF articles provide that the board of directors shall have not less than five members, at least one of whom shall be a resident of Hawaii, who shall be elected at the annual meeting of the CPF shareholders, in the manner described in the CPF bylaws. The CPF bylaws provide that the board of directors is to be divided into three classes of directors, with each class of directors (consisting of three directors) to be elected for a term expiring at the third succeeding annual meeting of shareholders after such directors' election. The CPF bylaws provide that the number of directors will be nine. As of April 25, 2003, the CPF board consisted of nine directors.

Neither the CPF articles nor the CPF bylaws provide for or specifically eliminate cumulative voting for the election of directors.

CB Bancshares. The CB Bancshares articles and CB Bancshares bylaws provide that the board of directors is to be divided into three classes of directors with each director elected for a term expiring at the third succeeding annual meeting of shareholders after his or her election. Pursuant to the CB Bancshares articles and CB Bancshares bylaws, each class shall consist, as nearly as possible, of one-third of the total number of directors constituting the entire board and the total number of directors shall be not less than three nor more than twenty-five directors (the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by affirmative vote of a majority of the entire board). Currently, the three classes of directors consist of the following: Class I consists of four (4) directors (one seat is currently vacant), Class II consists of four (4) directors and Class III consists of three (3) directors.

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

The CB Bancshares bylaws specifically eliminate the right to cumulative voting as set forth in the Hawaii Business Corporation Act so long as CB Bancshares has a class of equity securities registered pursuant to the Exchange Act, which are either listed on a national securities exchange or traded over-the-counter on the National Market of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Automated Quotation System.

Removal of Directors

The Hawaii Business Corporation Act provides that, unless the articles of incorporation of a company provide otherwise, shareholders may remove directors with or without cause.

CPF. Under the CPF bylaws, directors may be removed (a) for cause by the board of directors when a director has been declared of unsound mind by an order of court or convicted of a felony or (b) without cause at any annual meeting of the shareholders by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the shares of CPF entitled to vote at the meeting.

CB Bancshares. Under the CB Bancshares bylaws, directors may be removed (a) with or without cause by an affirmative vote of the majority of the entire board of directors or (b) only for cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all outstanding shares of CB Bancshares. The articles do not define "cause" for these purposes.

Newly Created Directorships and Vacancies

CPF. The CPF bylaws provide that any vacancies on the board caused by the death, resignation, disqualification or otherwise, of any director who was previously duly elected, may be filled by the remaining members of the board, though less than a quorum, and each person so elected shall be a director until his or her successor is elected by the shareholders. Vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors may be filled only by the members of the board.

CB Bancshares. CB Bancshares bylaws provide that any vacancy on the board that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the board then in office. Any other vacancy in the board, including temporary vacancies caused by illness or absence from Hawaii, may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining members (although less than a quorum). In the case of any temporary vacancy, such temporary vacancy shall be filled only for the period of the incapacity of the director whose place is being filled and until the termination of his or her illness or his or her return to Hawaii.

Quorum of the Board

CPF. The CPF bylaws provide that a majority of all the directors of the board shall constitute a quorum.

The Hawaii Business Corporation Act provides that a corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders: (i) on call of its board of directors or the person or persons authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or (ii) if the holders of at least ten percent (10%) of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date and deliver to the corporation's secretary one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held. Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice may be conducted at a special shareholders' meeting.

CPF. The CPF bylaws provide that special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the president, the chairman of the board of directors or a majority of the board of directors. Such requests must state the purpose of the meeting and the business of the special meeting shall be confined to that stated in the notice.

CB Bancshares. The CB Bancshares bylaws provide that a special meeting of the shareholders may be called at any time by the chairman of the board or the president or the board of directors or by a shareholder or shareholders owning not less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the issued and outstanding capital stock.

Quorum of the Shareholders

CPF. The CPF bylaws provide that the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum. If a meeting cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, those present may adjourn the meeting to such time and place as they may determine; but in the case of a meeting called for the election of directors, those who attend the second adjournment of such meeting, although less than a quorum as described above (the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote), shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing directors.

CB Bancshares. The CB Bancshares bylaws provide that a majority of the shares of stock issued, outstanding and entitled to vote, present in person or by proxy (duly executed in writing) shall constitute a quorum. At a meeting of which proper notice has not been given, the presence of all the shareholders, in person or by proxy, shall be required to constitute a quorum.

Shareholder Action by Written Consent

The Hawaii Business Corporation Act provides that any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders can be taken without a meeting if all shareholders entitled to vote on the action consent in writing to such action.

CPF. The CPF bylaws provide for action by unanimous written consent of the shareholders in lieu of a meeting.

CB Bancshares. The CB Bancshares articles and CB Bancshares bylaws are silent with respect to the ability of the shareholders to act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting.

Special Voting Requirements

The Hawaii Business Corporation Act provides that with respect to corporations incorporated before July 1, 1987, like CPF and CB Bancshares, a plan of merger or share exchange must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of three-fourths of all the issued and outstanding shares having voting power, unless the articles are amended by a three-fourths vote to provide for a lesser proportion of shares.

CPF. The CPF articles provide that in addition to any affirmative vote required by law or the CPF articles, holders of at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class shall be required for certain business combinations (as set forth in the CPF articles) unless such business combinations are approved by a majority of disinterested directors and meet certain price and procedural requirements (as set forth in the CPF articles).

CB Bancshares. The CB Bancshares articles are silent regarding approval of plans of merger or share exchange.

Amendments of Articles of Incorporation

The Hawaii Business Corporation Act provides that a corporation's board of directors may propose one or more amendments to the articles of incorporation for submission to the shareholders. For the amendment to be adopted: (a) the board of directors must recommend the amendment to the shareholders unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders with the amendment; and (b) the shareholders entitled to vote on the amendment must approve the amendment in accordance with the following approval requirement (unless the Hawaii Business Corporation Act, the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors in accordance with the Hawaii Business Corporation Act require a greater vote or a vote by voting groups):

with respect to corporations incorporated before July 1, 1987, like CPF and CB Bancshares, at such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the proposed amendment. The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote thereon. The articles of incorporation may be amended by a two-thirds vote to provide for a lesser proportion of shares, or of any class or series thereof, than two-thirds, in which case the articles of incorporation shall control; provided that the lesser proportion shall not be less than a majority.

CPF. The CPF articles do not specifically set forth the requirements for amending the CPF articles, except in the case of an amendment to the provisions related to the special voting requirements for certain business combinations, in which case the affirmative vote of the holders of seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the outstanding voting stock, voting together as a single class, shall be required to amend or repeal and adopt any provisions inconsistent with the provisions related to the special voting requirements for certain business combinations (notwithstanding the fact that a lesser percentage may be specified by law).

CB Bancshares. The CB Bancshares articles are silent regarding the requirements for amending the CB Bancshares articles.

Amendments of Bylaws

The Hawaii Business Corporation Act provides that (a) a corporation's board of directors may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws unless: (1) the articles of incorporation or the Hawaii Business Corporation Act reserve that power exclusively to the shareholders in whole or part; or (2) the shareholders in amending or repealing a particular bylaw provide expressly that the board of directors may not amend or repeal that bylaw and (b) a corporation's shareholders may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws even though the bylaws may also be amended or repealed by its board of directors.

CPF. The CPF bylaws provide that, subject to repeal or change at any regular meeting of the shareholders, or at any special meeting called for that purpose by the vote of the holders of eighty percent (80%) of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at such meeting, the power to alter, amend or repeal any bylaw or adopt new bylaws shall be vested in the board of directors.

CB Bancshares. The CB Bancshares bylaws provide that the CB Bancshares bylaws may be amended in accordance with the provisions of the laws of Hawaii.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

We have made forward-looking statements in this document, and in certain documents referred to in this document, that are subject to risks and uncertainty. Such statements include, but are not limited to, (i) statements about the benefits of the proposed merger, including future financial and operating results, costs savings and accretion to reported and cash earnings that may be realized from such merger; (ii) statements with respect to our plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as "believes", "expects", "anticipates", "estimates", "intends", "plans", "targets", "projects" and other similar expressions. These statements are based upon our current beliefs and expectations and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements:

our business and the business of CB Bancshares may not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected;

expected revenue synergies and cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame;

revenues following the merger may be lower than expected;

deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss and business disruption, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, customers, clients or suppliers, may be greater than expected following the merger;

the regulatory approvals required for the merger may not be obtained on the proposed terms;

the failure of our shareholders or CB Bancshares shareholders to approve the merger;

competitive pressures among depository and other financial institutions may increase significantly and may have an effect on pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenues;

the strength of the United States economy in general and the strength of the Hawaii economy may be different than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality or a reduced demand for credit, including the resultant effect on the combined company's loan portfolio and allowance for loan losses;

changes in the U.S. legal and regulatory framework; and adverse conditions in the stock market, the public debt market and other capital markets (including changes in interest rate conditions) and the impact of such conditions on the combined company's activities.

Additional factors that could cause our results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in our reports (such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K) filed with the SEC and available at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the proposed transaction or other matters attributable to us or any person acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. We do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statement is made.

With respect to financial projections for CB Bancshares contained in this document, neither CB Bancshares nor any analyst has published any information for 2003, 2004 or 2005. In addition, we have not been given the opportunity to do any due diligence on CB Bancshares other than reviewing its publicly available information. Therefore, we have created our own financial model for CB Bancshares based on its historical performance and our assumptions regarding the reasonable future performance of CB Bancshares on a stand-alone basis. These assumptions may or may not prove to be correct. The assumptions are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond the control of CB Bancshares. There is no assurance that these projections will be realized and actual results are likely to differ significantly from such projections.

Management of CPF believes these forward-looking statements are reasonable; however, you should not place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements, which are based on current expectations.

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of performance. They involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. The future results and shareholder values of CPF following completion of the merger may differ materially from those expressed in these forward-looking statements. Many of the factors that will determine these results and values are beyond CPF's ability to control or predict. For those statements, CPF claims the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

From time to time, CPF details other risks with respect to its business and/ or financial results in press releases and filings with the SEC, including without limitation, CPF's reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q. We urge you to review the risks described in such releases and filings before deciding whether to tender CB Bancshares for exchange pursuant to this offer to exchange.

See also "Risk Factors" beginning on page 9, and the risk factors disclosed in CPF's Annual Report on Form 10-K, for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, which is incorporated herein by reference. A. Right to Dissent and Obtain Payment for Shares § 414-341. Definitions.

As used in this part:

"Beneficial shareholder" means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.

"Corporation" means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.

"Dissenter" means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under sections 414-342 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by sections 414-351 to 414-359.

"Fair value," with respect to a dissenters' shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.

"Interest" means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.

"Record shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.

"Shareholder" means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

§ 414-342. Right to dissent.

A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

(1)

Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party:

(A)

If shareholder approval is required for the merger by section 414-313 or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger; or

(B)

If the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under section 414-314;

(2)

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;

- (3) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one year after the date of sale;

B-1

- (4) An amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenters' shares because it:
- (A) Alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;
 - (B) Creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase, of the shares;
 - (C) Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities;
 - (D) Excludes or limits the right of the shares to vote on any matter, or to cumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or
 - (E) Reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under section 414-74;
- (5) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares; or
- (6) Consummation of a plan of conversion to which the corporation is the converting entity, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan.

- (b) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder's shares under this part may not challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

§ 414-343. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

- (a) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the shareholder's name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the record shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the partial dissenter dissents and the partial dissenters' other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

- (b) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if:

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

B-2

(b)

§ 414-352. Notice of intent to demand payment.

(a)

If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 414-342 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights:

(a)

A shareholder sent a dissenters' notice described in sections 414-353 must demand payment, certify whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenters' notice pursuant to sections 414-353(b)(3), and deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.

(b)

The shareholder who demands payment and deposits the shareholder's share certificates under subsection (a) retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

(2)

The corporation fails to make payment under section 414-356 within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment; or (3)

The corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment.

(b)

A dissenter waives the dissenters' right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter notifies the corporation of the dissenters' demand in writing under subsection (a) within thirty days after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenters' shares.

PART II. INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

ITEM 20. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Section 414-242 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act provides that a corporation may indemnify an individual who is a party to a proceeding because the individual is a director against the liability incurred in the proceeding if:

The individual conducted himself or herself in good faith and the individual reasonably believed: (i) in the case of conduct in the individual's official capacity, the individual's conduct was in the best interests of the corporation; and (ii) in all other cases, that the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual had no reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was unlawful; or the individual engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has been made permissible or obligatory under a provision of the articles of incorporation.

The Hawaii Business Corporation Act also provides that a corporation may include indemnification provisions in its articles of incorporation that are broader than the foregoing provisions.

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form S-4/A

To the extent that a director is successful in the defense of such a proceeding, the corporation is required by the Section 414-243 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act to indemnify such director for reasonable expenses incurred thereby.

Under the Section 414-244 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act, a corporation, before final disposition of a proceeding, may advance funds to pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding. Under certain circumstances, under the Section 414-245 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act, a director may apply and obtain indemnification or an advance for expenses to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. However, no indemnification may be made in a proceeding in respect of any matter as to which he or she has been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duties unless and only to the extent that the applicable court determines that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all of the circumstances of the case, he or she is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which the court deems proper.

Further, under Section 414-246 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act, indemnification may be made only as authorized in a specific case upon a determination that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard, with such determination to be made:

by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the proceeding;

if the quorum is not obtainable, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion to the corporation;

by a majority vote of the shareholders; or by the court in which the proceeding is or was pending upon application.

Under Section 414-427 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act, a corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to officers whom to a party to a proceeding because the officer is an officer of the corporation:

the same extent as director; and if the person is an officer but not a director, to such further extent as provided by the articles of incorporation, the bylaws and a resolutions of the board of directors, or contract except for liability arising out of conduct that constitutes: (i) receipt by the officer of a financial benefit to which the officer director is not entitled; (ii) an intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the shareholders; or an intentional violation of criminal law.

The above described provision applies to an officer who is also a director if the basis on which officer is made a party to the proceeding is an act of omission solely as an officer. Further, an officer of a corporation who is not a director is entitled to the mandatory indemnification under Section 414-243 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act and may apply to a court under Section 414-245 of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act for indemnification or and advance for expenses, in each case to the same extent to which a director may be entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses.

The Hawaii Business Corporation Act also provides that a corporation may include indemnification provisions in its articles of incorporation that are broader than the foregoing provisions. The Restated Articles of Incorporation of CPF, as amended, do not address the matter of indemnification of directors and officers; however, the provisions of the Amended Bylaws of CPF relating to indemnification directors and officers provide for substantially the same as the provisions of the Hawaii Business Corporation Act described above as related to the corporations obligations and authority to indemnify its directors and officers.

CPF has purchased insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of CPF, or is or was serving at the request of CPF as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not CPF would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of the Amended Bylaws of CPF.

ITEM 22. UNDERTAKINGS.

(A) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(B) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report, to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and, where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X is not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

(C)(1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (i) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(D) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(E) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(F) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
