PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

May 19, 2004

Landmark Bancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation, is the holding company for Landmark National Bank. Landmark National Bank has branches in Manhattan, Auburn, Beloit, Dodge City, Fort Scott, Garden City, Great Bend, Hoisington, LaCrosse, Louisburg, Osage City, Osawatomie, Paola, Phillipsburg, Topeka and Wamego, Kansas. Landmark Bancorp recently completed its acquisition of First Kansas Financial Corporation, the holding company of First Kansas Federal Savings Bank. Landmark Bancorp was formed as part of the 2001 merger between MNB Bancshares, Inc., the holding company for Security National Bank, and Landmark Bancshares, Inc., the holding company for Landmark Federal Savings Bank. As a result of the merger, Landmark Bancorp became the holding company for Landmark National Bank.

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the board of directors of Landmark Bancorp of proxies to be voted at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held at the Boot Hill Repertory Theatre, 201 E. Wyatt Earp, Dodge City, Kansas, 67801, on Wednesday, May 19, 2004, at 2:00 p.m., local time, and at any adjournments or postponements of the meeting. Our 2003 annual report, which includes consolidated financial statements of Landmark Bancorp and Landmark National Bank, is also enclosed. This proxy statement is first being mailed to Landmark Bancorp's stockholders on or about April 16, 2004.

The following is information regarding the meeting and the voting process, presented in a question and answer format.

Why am I receiving this proxy statement and proxy card?

You are receiving a proxy statement and proxy card from us because on April 2, 2004, the record date for the annual meeting, you owned shares of Landmark Bancorp's common stock. This proxy statement describes the matters that will be presented for consideration by the stockholders at the annual meeting. It also gives you information concerning the matters to assist you in making an informed decision.

When you sign the enclosed proxy card, you appoint the proxy holder as your representative at the meeting. The proxy holder will vote your shares as you have instructed in the proxy card, thereby ensuring that your shares will be voted whether or not you attend the meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, you should complete, sign and return your proxy card in advance of the meeting just in case your plans change.

If you have signed and returned the proxy card and an issue comes up for a vote at the meeting that is not identified on the card, the proxy holder will vote your shares, pursuant to your proxy, in accordance with his or her judgment.

What matters will be voted on at the meeting?

You are being asked to vote on the election of four Class III directors of Landmark Bancorp for a term expiring in 2007 as well as an amendment to the Landmark Bancorp, Inc. 2001 Stock Incentive Plan to increase the authorized shares of common stock available under the Plan to 340,000 shares. Additionally, you are being asked to ratify the selection of KPMG LLP as our independent auditors for the 2004 fiscal year. These matters are more fully described in this proxy statement.

If I am the record holder of my shares, how do I vote?

You may vote either by mail or in person at the meeting. To vote by mail, complete and sign the enclosed proxy card and mail it in the enclosed postage-paid, pre-addressed envelope to our transfer agent, Registrar and Transfer Company, 10 Commerce Drive, Cranford, New Jersey, 07016.

If you mark your proxy card to indicate how you want your shares voted, your shares will be voted as you instruct. If you sign and return your proxy card but do not mark the card to provide voting instructions, the shares represented by your proxy card will be voted "for" all four nominees named in this proxy statement, "for" amending the Stock Incentive Plan and "for" the ratification of our auditors.

If you want to vote in person, please come to the meeting. We will distribute written ballots to anyone who wants to vote at the meeting. Even if you plan to attend the meeting, you should complete, sign and return your proxy card in advance of the meeting just in case your plans change. Please note, that if your shares are held in the name of your broker (or in what is usually referred to as "street name"), you will need to arrange to obtain a "legal proxy" from your broker in order to vote in person at the meeting.

If I hold shares in the name of a broker or fiduciary, who votes my shares?

If you received this proxy statement from your broker or by a trustee or other fiduciary who may hold your shares, your broker or fiduciary should have given you instructions for directing how they should vote your shares. It will then be their responsibility to vote your shares for you in the manner you direct. As discussed above, if you want to vote in person at the meeting, you will need to arrange to obtain a "legal proxy" from your broker or fiduciary in order to vote in person at the meeting.

Under the rules of various national and regional securities exchanges, brokers may generally vote on routine matters, such as the election of directors and the ratification of independent auditors, but cannot vote on non-routine matters, such as an amendment to the certificate of incorporation or the adoption or amendment of a stock option plan, unless they have received voting instructions from the person for whom they are holding shares. If your broker does not receive instructions from you on how to vote particular shares on a matter on which your broker does not have discretionary authority to vote, your broker will return the proxy card to us, indicating that he or she does not have the authority to vote on these matters. This is generally referred to as a "broker non-vote" and will affect the outcome of the voting as described below, under "How many votes are needed for approval of each proposal?" Therefore, we encourage you to provide directions to your broker as to how you want your shares voted on all matters to be brought before the meeting. You should do this by carefully following the instructions your broker gives you concerning its procedures. This ensures that your shares will be voted at the meeting.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

It means that you have multiple holdings reflected in our stock transfer records and/or in accounts with stockbrokers. Please sign and return ALL proxy forms to ensure that all your shares are voted.

What options do I have in voting on each of the proposals?

You may vote "for" or "withhold authority to vote for" each nominee for director. You may vote "for," "against" or "abstain" on any other proposal that may properly be brought before the meeting. Abstentions will be considered in determining the presence of a quorum but will not affect the vote required for election of our directors, the amendment to the Stock Incentive Plan or the ratification of our auditors.

How many votes may I cast?

Generally, you are entitled to cast one vote for each share of stock you owned on the record date. The proxy card included with this proxy statement indicates the number of shares owned by an account attributable to you.

How many votes are needed for approval of each proposal?

The four individuals receiving the highest number of votes cast "for" their election will be elected as Class III directors of Landmark Bancorp.

The amendment to the stock incentive plan, the ratification of our auditors and all other matters must receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote. Broker non-votes and abstentions will not be counted as entitled to vote, but will count for purposes of determining whether or not a quorum is present on the matter.

What if I change my mind after I return my proxy?

If you hold your shares in your own name, you may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You may do this by:

signing another proxy with a later date and returning that proxy to our transfer agent at:

Registrar and Transfer Company
10 Commerce Drive
Cranford, New Jersey, 07016; sending notice to our transfer agent that you are revoking your proxy; or voting in person at the meeting.

If you hold your shares in the name of your broker and desire to revoke your proxy, you will need to contact your broker to revoke your proxy.

How many shares do we need to have represented at the meeting to hold the annual meeting?

A majority of the shares that are outstanding and entitled to vote as of the record date must be present in person or by proxy at the meeting in order to hold the meeting and conduct business.

Shares are counted as present at the meeting if the stockholder either:

is present in person at the meeting; or has properly submitted a signed proxy card or other proxy.

On April 2, 2004, the record date, there were 2,091,307 shares of common stock issued and outstanding. Therefore, at least 1,045,654 shares need to be present at the annual meeting in order to hold the meeting and conduct business.

What happens if a nominee is unable to stand for re-election?

The board may, by resolution, provide for a lesser number of directors or designate a substitute nominee. In the latter case, shares represented by proxies may be voted for a substitute nominee. Proxies cannot be voted for more than four nominees. The board has no reason to believe any nominee will be unable to stand for re-election.

Where do I find the voting results of the meeting?

We will announce voting results at the meeting. The voting results will also be disclosed in our Form 10-Q for the quarter ending June 30, 2004.

Who bears the cost of soliciting proxies?

We will bear the cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to solicitations by mail, officers, directors or employees of Landmark Bancorp or its subsidiaries may solicit proxies in person or by telephone. These persons will not receive any special or additional compensation for soliciting proxies. We may reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding proxy and solicitation materials to stockholders.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the annual meeting of the stockholders to be held on May 19, 2004, the stockholders will be entitled to elect four Class III directors for a term expiring in 2007. Landmark Bancorp's directors are divided into three classes having staggered terms of three years. The nominees for election as Class III directors are incumbent directors. We have no knowledge that any of the nominees will refuse or be unable to serve, but if any of the nominees becomes unavailable for election, the holders of the proxies reserve the right to substitute another person of their choice as a nominee when voting at the meeting.

Set forth below is information concerning the nominees for election and for the other persons whose terms of office will continue after the meeting, including their age, the year first elected a director and their business experience during the previous five years as of April 2, 2004. The nominees, if elected at the annual meeting of stockholders, will serve as Class III directors for three year terms expiring in 2007. We unanimously recommend that you vote FOR each of the nominees for director. Unless authority to vote for the nominees is withheld, the shares represented by the enclosed proxy card, if executed and returned, will be voted FOR the election of the nominees proposed by the board of directors.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

We currently have ten directors serving as our board, a majority of whom are deemed to be "independent," as that term is defined by the Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. Mr. Alexander is not deemed to be "independent" because of his position as our President and Chief Executive Officer and Mr. Schugart is not deemed to be "independent" because of his services as an officer and consultant to Landmark Bancorp. In accordance with our corporate governance procedures, the board does not involve itself in the day-to-day operations of Landmark Bancorp which is monitored by our executive officers and management. Our directors fulfill their duties and responsibilities by attending regular meetings of the full board, which are held on a monthly basis, special meetings held from time to time and through committee membership, which is discussed below. Our directors also discuss business and other matters with Mr. Alexander, other key executives and our principal external advisers (legal counsel, auditors and other consultants). The board of directors has, in addition to other committees, an Audit Committee, a Nominating and Governance Committee and a Compensation Committee. Consistent with the Nasdaq listing requirements, the independent directors regularly have the opportunity to meet without Mr. Alexander and Mr. Schugart in attendance. The current charters of each of these committees are available on Landmark Bancorp's website at www.landmarkbancorpinc.com. Our website also contains a general description about us as well as our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. Additionally, we maintain a separate website for Landmark National Bank that contains a description of our banking services and products.

A total of thirteen regularly scheduled and special meetings were held by the board of directors of Landmark Bancorp during 2003. During 2003, all directors attended at least 75 percent of the meetings of the board and the committees on which they served. Although we do not have a formal policy regarding director attendance at the annual meeting, we encourage and expect all of our directors to attend. Last year, all of the directors were present at the annual meeting. Directors of Landmark Bancorp receive a monthly fee of $1,250 for serving on the board of directors.

Audit Committee

Messrs. Ball, Downey, Pettle, Ross and Lewis and Ms. Roepke served as members of the Audit Committee, with Mr. Pettle serving as Chairman. Each of these members is considered "independent," according to listing standards set forth by Nasdaq and the rules and regulations promulgated under the Exchange Act and the board believes that each member of the committee possesses the necessary skills and qualifications to critically analyze our financial statements and financial reporting process. Further, the board has determined that Ms. Roepke qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert" under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The board based this decision on Ms. Roepke's education and professional experience as a former senior financial executive of a financial institution. The committee normally meets quarterly. The Audit Committee for Landmark Bancorp met six times in 2003.

The functions performed by the Audit Committee include, but are not limited to, the following:

selecting and managing the relationship with our independent auditors; reviewing the independence of the independent auditors;

reviewing actions by management on recommendations of the independent auditors and internal auditors;

meeting with management, the internal auditors and the independent auditors to review the effectiveness of our system of internal control and internal audit procedures; reviewing our earnings releases and reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission; and reviewing reports of bank regulatory agencies and monitoring management's compliance with recommendations contained in those reports.

To promote independence of the audit function, the Audit Committee consults separately and jointly with the independent auditors, the internal auditors and management. The internal auditor reports directly to the committee on audit and compliance matters. The committee also reviews and approves the scope of the annual external audit and consults with the independent auditors regarding the results of their auditing procedures. We have adopted a written charter, which sets forth the committee's duties and responsibilities. A copy of the charter is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A and is currently available on our website at www.landmarkbancorpinc.com.

Compensation Committee

In 2003, the full board, with the exception of Messrs. Alexander and Schugart, comprised the Compensation Committee. In response to many of the recent corporate governance reforms, we established a formal Compensation Committee in January, 2004. The Compensation Committee is currently comprised of Messrs. Ball and Pettie and Ms. Roepke, with Mr. Ball serving as Chairman. Each of the current members is considered "independent," as such term is defined by Nasdaq. The committee is responsible for matters related to the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers. The committee's responsibilities and functions are further described in its charter, which is available on our website at www.landmarkbancorpinc.com. The board met as the Compensation Committee once in 2003.

Nominating and Governance Committee

In 2003, the full board, with the exception of Messrs. Alexander and Schugart, comprised the nominating committee. In response to many of the recent corporate governance reforms, we established the Nominating and Governance Committee in January, 2004. The committee is currently comprised of Messrs. Downey, Lewis and Ross, with Mr. Downey serving as the Chairman. Each of the members is deemed to be "independent," as such term is defined by Nasdaq. The Nominating and Governance Committee is charged with overseeing our corporate governance programs as well as nominating directors to serve on the board of directors. The committee's responsibilities and functions are further described in its charter, which is available on our website at www.landmarkbancorpinc.com. The board fulfilled its nominating responsibilities in 2003 at one meeting.

Director Nominations and Qualifications

In carrying out its nominating function, the Nominating and Governance Committee evaluates all potential nominees for election, including incumbent directors, board nominees and stockholder nominees, in the same manner, although it is not currently seeking out candidates to serve on the board and we did not receive any stockholder nominations for the 2004 annual meeting. Generally, the committee believes that, at a minimum, directors should possess certain qualities, including the highest personal and professional ethics and integrity, a sufficient educational and professional background, demonstrated leadership skills, sound judgment, a strong sense of service to the communities which we serve and an ability to meet the standards and duties set forth in our code of conduct. The committee also evaluates potential nominees to determine if they have any conflicts of interest that may interfere with their ability to serve as effective board members and whether they are "independent" in accordance with Nasdaq requirements (to ensure that at least a majority of the directors will, at all times, be independent). The committee has not, in the past, retained any third party to assist it in identifying candidates, but it has the authority to retain a third party firm or professional for the purpose of identifying candidates.

We intend to satisfy the disclosure requirements under Item 10 of Form 8-K regarding any amendment to or waiver of the code with respect to our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, and persons performing similar functions, by posting such information on our website.

Employment Agreements

At the time of the merger in 2001, Patrick Alexander, Larry L. Schugart, Mark Herpich, Michael Scheopner and Dean Thibault entered into employment agreements with Landmark Bancorp. The employment agreement for Mr. Alexander initially provided for a base salary of $200,000, which may be increased but not decreased, and an initial term of three years, with automatic one year extensions on each anniversary of the effective date of the agreement unless either party gives the other notice of its desire to terminate this automatic extension. Upon any such termination, the agreement will expire at the end of the then current three-year term.

Mr. Alexander's employment agreement will terminate upon the death or disability of Mr. Alexander, in the event of certain regulatory actions or upon notice by either us or Mr. Alexander, with or without cause. The employment agreement will be suspended in the event of a regulatory suspension of Mr. Alexander's employment. If Mr. Alexander's employment is terminated without cause (which is defined in the employment agreement), we will be obligated to pay or to provide to him, as applicable, a cash payment equal to three times the sum of his then annual salary, plus an amount equal to the average of the annual performance bonuses paid to him and the contributions made for his benefit under all employee retirement plans during the most recently ended three years. We must also provide Mr. Alexander and his immediate family continued insurance coverage for the three years after this termination of employment. We will have no continuing obligation to Mr. Alexander if he voluntarily terminates his employment or we terminate him for cause, except that we will be obligated to pay him his accrued salary and benefits through the effective date of his termination of employment.

If Mr. Alexander voluntarily terminates his employment, or his employment is involuntarily terminated, within six months after a change in control of us or our bank subsidiary, then our successor will be obligated to pay or to provide to Mr. Alexander the same cash payment and benefits he would have received if he had been terminated by us without cause. For purposes of the employment agreement, Mr. Alexander's employment will be considered terminated if he is not re-elected or is removed from his position as our President and Chief Executive Officer or if we otherwise commit a breach of our obligations under the employment agreement.

The employment agreement also includes a covenant which will limit the ability of Mr. Alexander to compete with us or our bank subsidiary in an area encompassing a fifty mile radius from any of our banking offices for a period of one year following the termination of his employment. The geographic area covered by this provision constitutes a portion of our primary market area.

Except as described below, the employment agreements for Messrs. Herpich, Scheopner and Thibault contain substantially the same provisions as those included in Mr. Alexander's employment agreement. The base salaries for Messrs. Herpich, Scheopner and Thibault are $105,000, $105,000 and $85,000, respectively. The term of these three agreements are for one year and they automatically extend for one additional year on each anniversary of the effective date of the agreement. If any of these officers is terminated without cause during the term of his respective agreement, he will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the sum of his then annual salary, plus an amount equal to the average of the annual performance bonuses paid to him and the contributions made for his benefit under all employee retirement plans during the most recently ended three years. The payment to be made to each of these three officers upon his voluntary termination of employment within six months after a change of control or his involuntary termination without cause within one year of a change of control will be equal to two times the sum of his then annual salary, plus an amount equal to the average of the annual performance bonuses paid to him and the contributions made for his benefit under all employee retirement plans during the most recently ended three years. Each of these employees will be subject to the same non-competition covenant as Mr. Alexander following his termination of employment.

In addition, at the time of the merger, Mr. Schugart entered into an employment agreement to serve as chairman of the board of Landmark Bancorp and Landmark National Bank. The agreement will expire under its terms in October, 2004 and provides for an annual salary of $35,000. The agreement also provides Mr. Schugart with health insurance coverage as well as the opportunity to continue to participate in his deferred compensation agreement during the term of the employment agreement.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee has furnished the following report on executive compensation. The incorporation by reference of this proxy statement into any document filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Landmark Bancorp shall not be deemed to include the report unless the report is specifically stated to be incorporated by reference into such document.

The Compensation Committee, currently comprised of Messrs. Ball and Pettle and Ms. Roepke, has responsibility for all matters related to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. Additionally, the committee has oversight authority over the salaries and bonuses of all the other executive officers. The committee was formed in January, 2004 and prior to then the full board of directors, with the exception of Messrs. Alexander and Schugart, served in that capacity. In determining compensation for all executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, the following factors are generally taken into consideration:

the performance of the executive officers in achieving the short and long term goals of Landmark Bancorp; the payment of compensation commensurate with the ability and expertise of the executive officers; and the structuring of compensation packages so that they are competitive with similar companies.

The committee considers the foregoing factors, as well as others, in determining compensation. There is no assigned weight given to any of these factors.

Additionally, the Compensation Committee considers various benefits, such as the stock option plan, together with perquisites, in determining compensation. The committee believes that the benefits provided through stock based plans more closely tie the compensation of the officers to the interests of the stockholders and provide significant additional performance incentives for the officers which directly benefit the stockholders through an increase in the stock value.

Annually, the Compensation Committee evaluates four primary areas of performance in determining Mr. Alexander's level of compensation. These areas are:

long-range strategic planning and implementation;

our financial performance (including our return on assets, return on equity, earnings per share and efficiency ratio) our compliance with regulatory requirements and relations with regulatory agencies; and effectiveness of managing relationships with stockholders and the board of directors.

When evaluating our financial performance, the committee considers profitability, asset growth and risk management. The primary evaluation criteria are considered to be essential to long-term viability and are generally given equal weight in the evaluation. Finally, the committee reviews compensation packages of peer institutions to ensure that Mr. Alexander's compensation is competitive and commensurate with his level of performance.

Mr. Alexander's current compensation is based on his employment agreement, his substantial banking experience and the other factors described above.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During 2003, none of the directors serving as the Compensation Committee was an officer or employee of Landmark Bancorp or Landmark National Bank, and none of these individuals was a former officer or employee of either organization with the exception of Ms. Roepke, who was an executive officer until her resignation six years ago. In addition, during 2003 no executive officer served on the board of directors or compensation committee of any other corporation with respect to which any member of our committee was engaged as an executive officer.

with the Securities and Exchange Commission and with the exchange on which our shares of common stock are traded. TRANSACTIONS WITH MANAGEMENT

Our directors and officers and their associates were customers of and had transactions with Landmark Bancorp and Landmark National Bank, and their predecessors, during 2003. Additional transactions are expected to take place in the future. All outstanding loans, commitments to loan, and certificates of deposit and depository relationships, in the opinion of management, were made in the ordinary course of business, on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features.

AMEND THE LANDMARK BANCORP, INC. 2001 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

At the annual meeting, stockholders will be asked to approve the amendment of the Landmark Bancorp, Inc. 2001 Stock Incentive Plan. The board of directors is asking the stockholders to approve increasing the number of shares reserved for issuance under Landmark Bancorp's 2001 Stock Incentive Plan from 170,750 shares to 340,000 shares. The board believes that it is important to increase the number of shares available under the Plan because the board intends to increase its use of equity based compensation for its employees and directors.

Administration

The Incentive Plan is to be administered by the Landmark Bancorp, Inc Stock Incentive Plan Administrative Committee which is comprised of at least three non-employee directors appointed by the board of directors. The Stock Incentive Committee will have the authority, subject to approval by the board of directors, to select the employees to whom awards may be granted, to determine the terms of each award, to interpret the provisions of the Incentive Plan and to make all other determinations that it may deem necessary or advisable for the administration of the Incentive Plan.

The Incentive Plan provides for the grant of "incentive stock options," as defined under Section 422(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, options that do not so qualify (referred to herein as "nonstatutory options"), restricted stock and stock appreciation rights ("SARs"), as determined in each individual case by the Stock Incentive Committee. Currently, 170,750 shares of common stock have been reserved for issuance under the Stock Incentive Plan. The amendment, if approved by stockholders, will increase the amount reserved to 340,000. In general, if any award (including an award granted to a non-employee director) granted under the Incentive Plan expires, terminates, is forfeited or is cancelled for any reason, the shares of common stock allocable to such award may again be made subject to an award granted under the Incentive Plan.

Awards

Directors of Landmark Bancorp and key policy-making employees of the bank are eligible to receive grants under the Incentive Plan. Directors may receive nonstatutory options based upon a formula. Employee awards may be granted subject to a vesting requirement and in any event will become fully vested upon a merger or change of control of Landmark Bancorp. The exercise price of incentive stock options granted under the Incentive Plan must at least equal the fair market value of the common stock subject to the option (determined as provided in the plan) on the date the option is granted. The exercise price of nonstatutory options and SARs will be determined by the Stock Incentive Committee.

Edgar Filing: LANDMARK BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

Under the terms of the plan and in connection with the listing standards of Nasdaq, no option may be repriced to reduce the exercise price of such option without stockholder approval (except in connection with a change in our capitalization).

An incentive stock option granted under the Incentive Plan to an employee owning more than 10% of the total combined voting power of all classes of capital stock of Landmark Bancorp is subject to the further restriction that such option must have an exercise price of at least 110% of the fair market value of the shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the option (determined as of the date the option is granted) and may not have an exercise term of more than five years. Incentive stock options are also subject to the further restriction that the aggregate fair market value (determined as of the date of grant) of common stock as to which any such incentive stock option first becomes exercisable in any calendar year, is limited to $100,000. To the extent options covering more than $100,000 worth of common stock first become exercisable in any one calendar year, the excess will be nonstatutory options. For purposes of determining which, if any, options have been granted in excess of the $100,000 limit, options will be considered to become exercisable in the order granted.

Each director and key employee eligible to participate in the Incentive Plan will be notified by the Stock Incentive Committee. To receive an award under the Incentive Plan, an award agreement must be executed which specifies the type of award to be granted, the number of shares of common stock (if any) to which the award relates, the terms and conditions of the award and the date granted. In the case of an award of options, the award agreement will also specify the price at which the shares of common stock subject to the option may be purchased, the date(s) on which the option becomes exercisable and whether the option is an incentive stock option or a nonstatutory option.

The full exercise price for all shares of common stock purchased upon the exercise of options granted under the Incentive Plan must be paid by cash, personal check, personal note, award surrender or common stock owned at the time of exercise. Incentive stock options granted to employees under the Incentive Plan may remain outstanding and exercisable for ten years from the date of grant or until the expiration of ninety days (or such lesser period as the Stock Incentive Committee may determine) from the date on which the person to whom they were granted ceases to be employed by the Company. Nonstatutory options and SARs granted under the Incentive Plan remain outstanding and exercisable for such period as the Stock Incentive Committee may determine.

Income Tax

Incentive stock options granted under the Incentive Plan have certain advantageous tax attributes to the recipient under the income tax laws. No taxable income is recognized by the option holder for income tax purposes at the time of the grant or exercise of an incentive stock option, although neither is there any income tax deduction available to Landmark Bancorp as a result of such a grant or exercise. Any gain or loss recognized by an option holder on the later disposition of shares of common stock acquired pursuant to the exercise of an incentive stock option generally will be treated as capital gain or loss if such disposition does not occur prior to one year after the date of exercise of the option, or two years after the date the option was granted.

As in the case of incentive stock options, the grant of nonstatutory stock options, restricted stock or SARs will not result in taxable income for income tax purposes to the recipient of the awards, nor will Landmark Bancorp be entitled to an income tax deduction. Upon the exercise of nonstatutory stock options or SARs, or the lapse of restrictions on restricted stock, the award holder will generally recognize ordinary income for income tax purposes equal to the difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of the shares of common stock acquired or deemed acquired on the date of exercise, and Landmark Bancorp will be entitled to an income tax deduction in the amount of the ordinary income recognized by the option holder. In general, any gain or loss realized by the option holder on the subsequent disposition of such shares will be a capital gain or loss.

Amendment and Termination

The Stock Incentive Plan expires ten years after its adoption, unless sooner terminated by the board of directors. The board of directors has authority to amend the Stock Incentive Plan in such manner as it deems advisable, except that the board of directors is not permitted without stockholder approval to amend the plan in a manner which would prevent the grant of incentive stock options or increase the number of shares of common stock available. The Incentive Plan provides for appropriate adjustment, as determined by the Stock Incentive Committee, in the number and kind of shares subject to unexercised options, in the event of any change in the outstanding shares of common stock by reason of a stock split, stock dividend, combination or reclassification of shares, recapitalization, merger or similar event.

Required Affirmative Vote

Edgar Filing: LANDMARK BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting is required to approve the amendment of the Stock Incentive Plan. Our board of directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR the proposed amendment.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Stockholders will be asked to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as our independent public accountants for 2004. If the appointment of KPMG LLP is not ratified, the matter of the appointment of our independent public accountants will be considered by the Audit Committee. Representatives of KPMG LLP are expected to be present at the meeting and will be given the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions. We recommend that you vote FOR the ratification of KPMG LLP to serve as our independent accountants.

Accountant Fees

Audit Fees. The aggregate amounts of fees billed by KPMG LLP for their audit of our annual financial statements for fiscal years 2003 and 2002 and for their required reviews of our unaudited interim financial statements included in our quarterly reports filed during fiscal 2003 and 2002 were $88,500 for each year then ended.

Audit Related Fees. The aggregate amount of audit related fees billed by KPMG LLP for fiscal year 2003 was $31,200. These services were related to an audit of the Landmark Bancorp, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan as of and for the year ended December 31, 2002, and due-diligence and assistance with our acquisition of First Kansas Financial Corporation. No audit related fees were billed by KPMG LLP in 2002.

Tax Fees. The aggregate amounts of tax related services billed by KPMG LLP for fiscal years 2003 and 2002 were $72,318 and $43,810, respectively, for professional services rendered for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning. The services provided included assistance with the preparation of our tax return and guidance with respect to estimated tax payments.

All Other Fees. We were billed an aggregate of $15,000 in 2003 by KPMG LLP for consultation relating to our deposit account classifications. We did not incur any other fees from KPMG LLP for fiscal years 2003 and 2002 other than the fees reported above.

The Audit Committee, after consideration of these matters, does not believe that the rendering of these services by KPMG LLP to be incompatible with maintaining their independence as our principal accountants.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policy

Among other things, the Audit Committee is responsible for appointing, setting compensation for and overseeing the work of the independent accountant. We have adopted a pre-approval policy under which the Audit Committee approves in advance all audit and non-audit services to be performed by our independent auditors. As part of its pre-approval policy, the Audit Committee considers whether the provision of any proposed non-audit services is consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence. In accordance with the pre-approval policy, the Audit Committee has pre-approved certain specified audit and non-audit services to be provided by KPMG LLP for up to twelve months from the date of the pre-approval. All of the services referred to above in the table for 2003 were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.
