Item 9 Regulation FD Disclosure

The Company has been sustaining substantial losses in its power supply manufacturing business since April, 2001. The Company's Board of Directors unanimously voted in April 21, 2003 to dispose of these loss operations by approving the sale to Wantec Power Supplies Inc., a related third party, effective December 31, 2002. Winston Gu Chairman of the Company has formally resigned from the Company as Director Chairman of the Board and Officer of the Company effective April 28, 2003 concurrent with the sale of Autec Power Systems Inc. and Bridge Technology Co. Ltd. Ningbo to Wantec Power Systems Inc. of Taiwan, ROC.. On May 14, 2003 the Company has been also advised verbally that Winston Gu, through his attorneys, that he has a dispute with the Company. The Company has requested that any dispute as it effects the Company must be put in to writing so that it may be addressed and properly disclosed to the Board of Directors and the Company's shareholders.

Liquidity

The Company continues to require outside financing which is expected to be available now that the losing power supplies operations have been sold. The Company has settled most of its outstanding litigation except the Allied Web/ John Harwer suit. The Company believes it has no liability in this litigation; however it continues to expend legal fees on this case which to date are in excess of $250,000. The Board of Directors have authorized the filing of legal action against its former President, John Harwer, for damages including recovery of these legal fees, based upon their belief that this matter is strictly related to John Harwer's personal activities prior to

Filing of Audited Financial Statement

The Company had filed Form 12b-25 for an extension to file its Form 10-K for the period ending December 31, 2002 by April 15, 2003. The Company was unable to meet this deadline as the auditors have not completed their work in Hong Kong and Ningbo, China. This delay in the Form 10-K filing also delays the Form 10-Q filing for the period ending March 31, 2003. The Form 10-Q will be filed shortly after the Form 10-K filing. The proforma financial results filed in separate Form 8-K are for the periods ending December 31, 2002 and March 31, 2003 are not expected to vary materially from the Company's audited financial results as prepared by the Company's outside auditors, when they are received by the Company.
