PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Schnitzer Steel Industries, Inc. (the "Company") could not file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended May 31, 2006 ("Form 10-Q") with the Securities and Exchange Commission within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense in light of the circumstances described below.

As previously reported in the Company's Form 8-K dated June 23, 2006 ("Form 8-K"), the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors and Company management concluded that previously reported unaudited financial statements for the three months ended November 30, 2005 (the "First Quarter 2006") and the six months ended February 28, 2006 (the "Second Quarter 2006") would need to be restated because an error was made regarding the interpretation and application of generally accepted accounting principles as they relate to purchase accounting. The accounting error related to the appropriate timing as to when the Company could begin to consolidate the results of operations of Regional Recycling LLC ("Regional"), GreenLeaf Auto Recyclers, LLC ("GreenLeaf") and THS Recycling LLC, dba Hawaii Metal Recycling Company ("HMR") in its condensed consolidated statement of operations. In addition, the Company has identified an error in the classification in the Company's consolidated statement of cash flows for the First Quarter 2006 and Second Quarter 2006 relating to the cash flows from its investments.

Due to the additional time required for the Company to (1) complete restatement of its financial statements for the first and second quarters of fiscal 2006, (2) prepare its Form 10-Q/As for the first and second quarters of fiscal 2006, and (3) prepare its financial statements and Form 10-Q for the third quarter of fiscal 2006, the Company was not able to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended May 31, 2006 by the July 10, 2006 filing deadline, but it expects that it will be able to file the Form 10-Q within the five day filing extension period.

A material weakness is a control deficiency or combination of control deficiencies that results in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected. Management of the Company had determined that at the end of the fiscal periods ending November 30, 2005 and February 28, 2006 a material weakness existed in the Company's internal control over financial reporting related to the application and review of purchase accounting.

The Company is currently in the process of evaluating its disclosure controls and procedures as of May 31, 2006, and whether or not the aforementioned material weakness existed as of May 31, 2006.

As the Company completes the preparation of its financial statements for the third quarter of fiscal 2006, additional control deficiencies may be identified and those deficiencies may also individually and in the aggregate constitute one or more additional material weaknesses.

Forward-looking statements

Certain statements in this Form 12b-25 are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of U.S. federal securities laws. The Company intends that these statements be covered by the safe harbors created under these laws. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the Company’s plans to restate certain previously reported results, to file amended quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, as well as the expected timing thereof, and the expected timing to file the quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended May 31, 2006. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties, and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from future results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the information set forth in these forward-looking statements include possible delays in the preparation of the amended quarterly reports on Form 10-Q or the quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended May 31, 2006 and other factors, some of which are discussed in the Company’s most recent annual report on Form 10-K and its most recent quarterly report on Form 10-Q. Many of these factors and events are beyond the Company’s ability to control or predict. Given these uncertainties, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements, which only speak as of the date of this Form 12b-25. The Company does not undertake any obligation to release publicly any revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this Form 12b-25 or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, except as may be required under applicable securities laws.
