Compensation of Directors

During fiscal year 2002, Hawaiian paid its nonemployee directors a $12,000 annual retainer fee, prorated on a monthly basis. In addition to the $12,000 annual retainer fee, Hawaiian paid its nonemployee directors a fee of $1,250 for each meeting of the board of directors attended (decreased to

Mr. Adams, Mr. Morella and Ms. Soper, as employee directors, received only reimbursement for expenses incurred in attending meetings.

In October 2002, the Hawaiian compensation committee recommended to the Hawaiian board of directors that the chair of the Hawaiian audit committee receive an additional $9,000 per year payment and each other member of the Hawaiian audit committee receive an additional $6,000 per year given the new regulatory responsibilities for audit committees under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and rules promulgated by the SEC and to be promulgated by the American Stock Exchange (AMEX). These additional fees are paid in equal quarterly installments and prorated on a monthly basis. The Hawaiian board of directors approved this recommendation in October 2002.

(1) Mr. Casey was no longer employed with us after June 30, 2002.

(2) Mr. Casey's base salary was increased to $375,000 as of February 1, 2002.

- (3) The term of Ms. Deister's employment agreement increased from 12 to 24 months on March 1, 2003, the second anniversary of the effective date of her employment agreement.
- (4) Lump sum payment of $30,000 towards temporary living expenses and a dependent education allowance of $21,833.
- (5) Relocation allowance of up to $50,000.
- (6) Mr. Happ was no longer employed with us as of February 15, 2003.
- (7) Ms. Yamanaka's base salary was increased to $180,000 as of February 1, 2002.
- (8) Mr. Zoller was no longer employed with us as of April 15, 2002.
- (9) The term of Mr. Zoller's employment agreement increased from 12 months to 24 months on December 1, 2001, the second anniversary of the effective date of his employment agreement.
- (10) Mr. Zoller's base salary was increased to $300,000 effective as of January 31, 2001.

(12) The term of Mr. Dunkerley's employment agreement will increase to 36 months on the first anniversary of the effective date of his employment agreement and will increase to 60 months on the second anniversary of the effective date of his employment agreement.

There are also certain differences in the termination provisions in the employment agreements of the named executive officers. All of the agreements provide for termination:

immediately upon the officer's death;

at our election, if the officer is unable to perform his or her duties as a result of a medical or physical incapacity for 120 days in any consecutive seven-month period;

at any time by us for cause (as defined in the agreements); and at any time by us without cause.

In addition, the employment agreements with Mr. Casey and Mr. Zoller provided, and the employment agreements with Ms. Deister and Mr. Dunkerley provide, that each may be terminated by the officer for good reason (which includes certain transactions that involve changes in control, a material change in the officer's duties, a material breach by us of the agreement, the failure by us to provide incentive compensation and benefit plans comparable to those in effect at the time the agreement was entered into and the relocation of our principal executive offices outside the Honolulu area). If the officer's employment is terminated by death or by reason of disability, the officer (or his or her beneficiaries) is entitled to benefits in accordance with our retirement, insurance and other programs and plans then in effect. If the officer's employment is terminated by us other than for cause, or in the case of Mr. Casey, Mr. Zoller, Ms. Deister and Mr. Dunkerley, by such officer for good reason, then such officer is entitled to receive:

any base salary accrued but unpaid prior to the termination date; and the continued payment of the officer's base salary and fringe benefits for a period after the termination date that is equal to the term of the officer's employment agreement as discussed above.

Finally, the agreements provide that an officer terminated for cause is not entitled to continuation of the officer's base salary or other benefits after the termination date.

On June 30, 2000, the compensation committee authorized amendments of employment agreements with and certain agreements granting options to specified officers to provide that, for those of the specified officers who continue to be employed by Hawaiian, in the event a change of control in ownership of Hawaiian occurs before June 30, 2003:

all stock options granted to such officers prior to and on June 30, 2000 would accelerate and become fully vested; and the exercise price of any unexercised options previously granted to such officers and having a higher exercise price than the market price of the stock on June 30, 2000 ($2.625 per share) would then be reset to the market price on June 30, 2000.

As of January 31, 2001, the employment agreement for Mr. Casey was amended to change his title and responsibilities.

Hawaiian entered into a severance, general release and indemnity agreement with Steven E. Markhoff, which became effective on March 15, 2002. Under this agreement, Hawaiian is obligated to pay Mr. Markhoff his former base salary of $150,000 per year in semi-monthly installments until March 15, 2003, and to provide specified fringe benefits to Mr. Markhoff through March 31, 2003. Hawaiian also agreed to pay Mr. Markhoff a lump sum cash payment of $107,200 and up to $50,000 in relocation expenses if Mr. Markhoff relocates out of the State of Hawaii on or before March 15, 2003. In addition, the agreement provides that his existing options to acquire 50,000 shares of our common stock would be terminated for a cash payment of $37,500. In consideration, Mr. Markhoff agreed to release us from any claims that he might have had arising out of his employment with or separation from us. Mr. Markhoff also agreed that until March 15, 2003 he would not generally be involved with an entity that competes with us in providing interisland passenger or freight services.

Hawaiian entered into a severance, general release and indemnity agreement with Robert W. Zoller, Jr., which became effective on April 15, 2002. Under this agreement, Hawaiian is obligated to pay Mr. Zoller his former base salary of $300,000 per year in semi-monthly installments until April 15, 2004, and to provide specified fringe benefits to Mr. Zoller through April 15, 2006. Hawaiian also agreed to pay Mr. Zoller a lump sum cash payment of $145,500 and up to an additional $60,000 as a relocation allowance if Mr. Zoller relocates out of the State of Hawaii on or before April 15, 2004. In addition, the agreement provides that his options to acquire 300,000 shares of our common stock would be fully vested on April 15, 2002 and that these options would terminate on April 15, 2004. In consideration, Mr. Zoller agreed to release us from any claims that he might have had arising out of his employment with us, but did not release any claims that may arise from or that are related to this agreement, and agreed that until April 14, 2003 he would not generally be involved with an entity that competes with us in providing interisland passenger or freight services. Following Hawaiian's Chapter 11 filing, Hawaiian suspended payments under this agreement.

Hawaiian entered into a severance, general release and indemnity agreement with Paul J. Casey, which became effective on May 23, 2002. Under this agreement, Hawaiian is obligated to pay Mr. Casey his former base salary of $375,000 per year in semi-monthly installments until June 30, 2005, and to provide specified fringe benefits to Mr. Casey through June 30, 2005. Hawaiian also agreed to pay Mr. Casey additional cash payments in the aggregate of approximately $189,696 in lieu of continuing other specified fringe benefits. In addition, the agreement provides that his options to acquire 750,000 shares of our common stock would be fully vested on June 30, 2002 and that these options would terminate pursuant to their original terms. In consideration, Mr. Casey agreed to release us from any claims that he might have had arising out of his employment with us, but did not release any claims that may arise from or that are related to this agreement, and agreed that until June 30, 2004 he would not generally be involved with an entity that competes with us in providing interisland passenger or freight services. Following Hawaiian's Chapter 11 filing, Hawaiian suspended payments under this agreement.

Hawaiian entered into a separation agreement with John B. Happ which became effective on April 3, 2003. Under this agreement, Hawaiian is obligated to pay Mr. Happ a lump sum of $15,000 plus and an additional $422,278 to be paid in semi-monthly installments until August 2004. In consideration, Mr. Happ agreed to release us from any claims that he might have had arising out of his employment with or separation from us. However, since this agreement was executed by Mr. Happ after Hawaiian's Chapter 11 filing, Hawaiian suspended payments under this agreement.

Compensation Committee Report

The compensation committee of our board of directors is charged with making compensation recommendations to our full board of directors for our executive officers whose title includes chairman, vice chairman, president, chief operating officer, all executive and senior vice presidents and our corporate secretary, along with recommendations for bonuses, deferred compensation and stock option plans. The compensation committee also had authority to grant awards under and to administer the 1994 Stock Option Plan and the 1996 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended until October 2002. Beginning in October 2002, the authority to grant option awards was transferred to our option committee.

In determining executive compensation, the compensation committee reviews such general factors as profitability, operational integrity and customer satisfaction, and takes into consideration the executives' accomplishment of specific projects, which for the executive officers in 2002 included integration planning in connection with our proposed merger with Aloha Airgroup, Inc. (Aloha) and TurnWorks, Inc. (TurnWorks), successful completion of our corporate restructuring, the launching of new routes to Seattle, Washington, Ontario and Sacramento, California and Phoenix, Arizona and the introduction of new aircraft. In addition, the compensation committee, in considering appropriate compensation levels, considers marketplace compensation data of other comparable U.S. airlines in order to provide compensation packages that are capable of attracting and retaining exceptional executives.

Principal Components of Executive Compensation

Components of executive compensation include annual base salary, specific contractual provisions that vary per officer (including term, benefits and fringes), incentive bonuses, and grants of options under our option plans. The annual base salary for an executive officer is generally negotiated at the beginning of employment and reviewed on a regular basis in comparison to industry compensation levels, the need to attract talented executives to Hawaii and the performance objectives listed in the previous section. The award of bonuses, if awarded, is generally related to achievement of performance objectives. The grant of options is generally incentive based related to individual performance and to our profitability.

As described under the caption Employment Contracts; Termination of Employment and Change-in-Control Arrangements, the named executive officers except for Mr. Adams have or had employment agreements with us, which set forth their base salaries and other compensation arrangements and provide that their compensation levels are subject to annual review and possible increases in the sole discretion of our board of directors.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

Mr. Adams' compensation determination for fiscal year 2002 was based primarily on the additional responsibilities and enhanced role that he assumed in the day-to-day management of our company when he became our chief executive officer and president, as well as his leadership during the negotiation of and integration planning in connection with our proposed merger with Aloha and TurnWorks. Mr. Adams received an increase to his base salary from $400,000 to $600,000 effective May 1, 2002.

Mr. Casey's compensation determination for 2002 was based on his leadership following the events of September 11, 2001 and their subsequent adverse effect on the air transportation industry. In response to these events, Mr. Casey and executive management took immediate measures to curtail losses, reduce routes and review expansion and other plans, including negotiation of the proposed merger with Aloha and TurnWorks, which was projected to provide us with long-term benefits. Mr. Casey's performance was recognized by an increase in his base salary from $325,000 to $375,000 effective February 1, 2002. Mr. Casey was no longer our vice chairman, chief executive officer and president as of May 17, 2002 and was not employed with us after June 30, 2002.

On October 18, 2002, the compensation committee recommended, and the board of directors authorized, a $20,000 payment (to be paid bi-monthly in 24 equal installments) to John B. Happ, senior vice president-marketing and sales, effective as of September 15, 2002. Following Hawaiian's Chapter 11 filing, Hawaiian suspended these payments.

On December 12, 2002, the compensation committee reviewed the background, experience and credentials of Mark B. Dunkerley for the position of president and chief operating officer of Hawaiian. After careful review, the compensation committee voted unanimously to recommend to the full board of directors Mr. Dunkerley's candidacy and a compensation package consisting of an annual base salary of $415,000 and the possibility of a bonus equal to up to 50% of his base salary. The full board of directors of Hawaiian approved Mr. Dunkerley's employment and compensation package effective December 23, 2002.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

In April 2002, we executed a Services Agreement with Smith Management, effective as of May 1, 2002, pursuant to which Smith Management provided specified corporate, financial and tax services to us, for which we made a payment of $2 million for advisory services previously rendered by Smith Management and paid $75,000 per month for current services. John W. Adams, our chairman and chief executive officer, is the president of Smith Management. In connection with its Chapter 11 filing, Hawaiian has not assumed or rejected this agreement. Nevertheless, payments to Smith Management have been suspended and we do not anticipate making any payments on this agreement in the future.

In April 2002, we executed a consulting agreement with Todd G. Cole, a member of our board of directors since 1994, pursuant to which Mr. Cole provided executive consulting services regarding fleet utilization, scheduling and other operations issues for a fee of $20,833 per month from May 1, 2002 through October 31, 2002 and a single payment of $125,800 due January 6, 2003. This consulting agreement was extended through December 31, 2002 during which Mr. Cole received a fee of $41,666 per month and accrued payments during the initial term totaling $125,000 on October 31, 2002. This consulting agreement was terminated on December 31, 2002.
