FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BOSTON SCIENTIFIC IMPROVES OFFER TO ACQUIRE GUIDANT

Increases Value to $73 Per Share

All Modifications Requested by Guidant s Board Have Been Addressed

If Transaction Does Not Close By March 31, 2006, Guidant Shareholders Will Receive Interest

Natick, MA (January 12, 2006) Boston Scientific Corporation (NYSE: BSX) today announced that it has improved its definitive offer to acquire Guidant Corporation (NYSE: GDT). Boston Scientific has notified the Guidant Board of Directors that its amended offer will expire at 4:00 p.m. ET on January 13, 2006, unless the Guidant Board has declared Boston Scientific s improved offer superior to the current Johnson & Johnson $67.92 transaction (based on the closing price of Johnson & Johnson s common stock on Thursday, January 12).

Under the terms of the amended offer, Boston Scientific will provide Guidant shareholders with:

Improved Value: Acquire all of the outstanding shares of Guidant for $73 per share, $36.50 in cash and $36.50 in Boston Scientific common stock, subject to a collar. The amended offer is not subject to any financing condition.

Certainty of Completion: Boston Scientific has now agreed that, if required, it will divest all overlapping assets. This revision to its offer addresses any perceived antitrust concerns articulated to Boston Scientific by Guidant.

Certainty of Value: If the closing of the transaction does not occur by March 31, 2006, the $73 per share price would be increased by $0.012 in cash for each day between April 1, 2006, and the date of closing (representing an annual interest rate of 6 percent).

Our amended offer addresses all of the outstanding issues raised by Guidant s Board, said Pete Nicholas, Chairman of Boston Scientific. We have increased the value of our offer, satisfied any perceived antitrust concerns and provided shareholders increased certainty of value by agreeing to pay interest on the $73 share price if the transaction is not closed by the end of the first quarter. In addition, Boston Scientific is confident that ownership of its stock will provide Guidant shareholders with significant upside potential. We strongly encourage the Guidant Board to act in the best interests of Guidant shareholders by declaring our $73 per share offer superior to the revised $67.92 per share transaction with Johnson & Johnson.

Under the terms of the amended Boston Scientific offer, each share of Guidant common stock will be exchanged for $36.50 in cash and $36.50 in Boston Scientific common stock, based on the average closing price of Boston Scientific common stock during the 20 consecutive trading day period ending three days prior to Guidant shareholder meeting to approve the transaction. If the average closing price of Boston Scientific common stock during such period is less than $23.62, Guidant shareholders will receive 1.5453 Boston Scientific shares for each share of Guidant common stock, and if the average closing price of Boston Scientific common stock during such period is greater than $28.86, Guidant shareholders will receive 1.2647 Boston Scientific shares for each share of Guidant common stock.

If the Guidant Board declares Boston Scientific s amended offer superior by 4:00 p.m. ET on January 13, 2006, Boston Scientific s offer will remain open until close of business on January 24, 2006.

Boston Scientific intends to file its offer letter and the revised Merger Agreement with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Friday, January 13, 2006.

Shearman & Sterling LLP is acting as legal counsel to Boston Scientific, and Merrill Lynch & Co., Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., and Banc of America Securities LLC are acting as financial advisors.
