PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 (the Form 10-K) for Louisiana-Pacific Corporation (LP) cannot be completed within the prescribed time period. As of December 31, 2007, a portion of LP's long-term investments consisted of auction rate securities. Liquidity for these auction rate securities is typically provided by an auction process that resets the applicable interest rate at pre-determined intervals, usually every 7, 28, 35 or 90 days. As of December 31, 2007, all of LP's auction rate securities had experienced a failed interest rate reset process due to the current uncertainties in the credit markets.

In the past, LP has conducted internal valuations of its holdings of auction rate securities for financial reporting purposes; however, given the continued turmoil in the credit markets and the lack of liquidity for auction rate securities, this internal valuation approach did not result in a fair value estimate that was consistent with current market estimates obtained from market participants. Over the course of the last 60 days, LP has not been able to obtain fair value estimates from the various issuing banks or other appropriate sources. On February 27, 2008, LP did receive such information however due to the date the information was received, LP was not able to incorporate this information into its financial statements prior to the prescribed due date of February 29, 2007. As a result, LP is unable to timely file the Form 10-K within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense.

At the current time, LP expects to record a pre-tax adjustment of approximately $18 - $22 million as an other-than temporary decline in value and a pre-tax adjustment of approximately $28 to $32 million as a temporary decline in value related to its auction rate securities.
