Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 13, 2015, the Company issued a press release announcing that its Board of Directors has approved an executive transition effective August 1, 2015. Brian Pratt will step down from his position as Chief Executive Officer and President, while remaining as Chairman of the Board and assuming the non-employee role of Senior Strategic Advisor. Mr. Pratt will continue as a member of the Succession Planning Committee of the Board of Directors.

David King, the Company's current Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, is appointed to the position of Chief Executive Officer and President, effective August 1, 2015.

Mr. King joined Primoris in March 2014 from Chicago, Bridge and Iron (CB&I), where he most recently served as President of Lummus Engineered Products. Previously, he served as President, CB&I Project Engineering & Construction from 2010 to 2013, Group Vice President, Downstream Operations for CB&I Lummus from 2008 to 2010, and Group Vice President of CB&I's Europe, Africa and Middle East Operations from 2006 to 2008. Mr. King received his bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering from Texas Tech University, an MBA from the University of Texas, Tyler, and an Advanced Executive Management Degree from Insead University in Fontainebleau, France. Mr. King is 62 years old.

The Company expects to enter into formal agreements with both Mr. Pratt and Mr. King, which will be filed in a subsequent Form 8-K.

The information contained in the press release attached hereto is being furnished and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liability of that Section, and shall not be deemed incorporated by reference into any registration statement or other document filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.
