PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Annual Report on Form 10-K of SandRidge Mississippian Trust II (the Trust) for the year ended December 31, 2015, could not be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense, because the trustor of the Trust, SandRidge Energy, Inc. (SandRidge), had not filed its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, and also had not filed its notification of late filing on Form 12b-25, by the Form 10-K filing deadline, and the Trust therefore was unable to conclude that its disclosures were adequate in order to file its Form 10-K on March 15, 2016. The Trust is highly dependent on SandRidge for multiple services, including the operation of the Trust development wells, remittance of net proceeds from the sale of associated production to the Trust, administrative services such as accounting, tax preparation, bookkeeping and informational services performed on behalf of the Trust, and derivative agreement services related to production through December 31, 2015. The ability to operate the properties depends on SandRidge's future financial condition and economic performance, access to capital, and other factors, many of which are out of the control of SandRidge. As SandRidge filed a Form 12b-25 on March 16, 2016, the Trust was able to confirm disclosures in its Form 10-K and is filing its Form 10-K substantially concurrently with the filing of this Form 12b-25. Reference is made to the Form 12b-25 filed by SandRidge on March 16, 2016.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Trust anticipates that its Form 10-K will report that royalty income received during the year ended December 31, 2015 totaled $36.0 million compared to $83.2 million received during the year ended December 31, 2014, as a result of a decrease in prices received and a decrease in total volumes produced, caused by natural declines in production. The Trust also anticipates reporting that net cash settlements related to the Trust's derivative contracts during the year ended December 31, 2015 were approximately $11.2 million compared to approximately $1.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2014. The Trust also expects to report that distributable income for the year ended December 31, 2015 was $42.3 million, compared to $78.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2014.

The foregoing statements are based on our current expectations as of the date of this filing and involve a number of risks and uncertainties which may cause actual results to differ, as discussed further below. The risks include, but are not limited to, unexpected changes arising during the annual audit procedures.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Form 12b-25 filing includes "forward-looking statements." All statements, other than statements of historical facts, included in this filing that address activities, events or developments that the Trust expects, believes, targets or anticipates will or may occur in the future are forward-looking statements. Such statements are subject to a number of assumptions, risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the control of the Trust, which may cause actual results to differ materially from those implied or expressed by the forward-looking statements. As such, readers should not unduly rely on such forward-looking statements. See "Risk Factors" in the Trust's Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and other public filings.
