Item 3. Bankruptcy or Receivership

An involuntary bankruptcy petition under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code has been filed against York Research Corporation ("York") in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York by certain creditors of North American Energy Conservation Inc. ("NAEC"), York's energy trading subsidiary which previously filed for bankruptcy. These NAEC creditors hold claims against York as a result of York's guarantee of certain obligations of NAEC. The bankruptcy petition was filed solely against York, the parent holding company, and does not include any of York's subsidiaries, which actually own and operate York's power projects. As a result of the filing, York has twenty days in which it can choose to seek to have the petition dismissed, or converted to a voluntary bankruptcy under Chapter 11.

York continues to be in discussions with the NAEC creditors, as well as the ad hoc committee of holders of the $150,000,000 12% Senior Secured Bonds due

October 30, 2007 issued by York Power Funding (Cayman) Limited (the "Portfolio Bonds"). The holders of the Portfolio Bonds did not join in the bankruptcy petition, and have not exercised any remedies.

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward looking statements as to which there can be no assurance. Reference is made to York's Annual Report on Form 10-K for information as to, and risks inherent in, such forward looking statements. However, it is impossible to predict the effect the matters disclosed in this Current Report, or the bankruptcy proceeding involving York, will have on any of York's current projects under development, or its ability to continue in business.
