Lines Installed

The addition of 39 thousand lines to the installed plant in 3Q02, against 63 thousand in the previous quarter, reflects Brasil Telecom's strategy to meet the demand and comply with universalization and quality goals established in the concession contracts.

Graph 1: Plant Evolution

Lines in Service The plant in service grew 3.2% in 3Q02, to 9.2 million lines, reflecting the net addition of 288 thousand lines.

During the quarter, 86 thousand pre-paid phones were added to the plant in service. The pre-paid lines have an important role in bad debt control and are only available in switching centers with idle capacity. Besides that, these terminals are not object of marketing campaigns.

Page 6 of 32

Back to Contents

New cancellation policy Beginning on July 2002, Brasil Telecom changed its line disconnection policy in switching centers with idle capacity, with the objective of increasing traffic and reducing expenses with lines disconnection and installation.

According to the previous policy, with the revocation of the contract, which is expected to occur from the 90^o day of payment overdue on, pursuant to Anatel's Resolution 85, the client had its line disconnected. After paying his debt, the client usually requested a new line.

With the new policy, the contract is cancelled, but Brasil Telecom does not disconnect the line. At this moment, the only obligation of the client with Brasil Telecom is the payment of his debt.

Besides the cost reduction, with the new policy Brasil Telecom returns the status of the non-disconnected line to partial block on the 105^o day of payment overdue, with the objective of increasing incoming traffic.

Utilization rate The stability of the installed plant, combined with the growth of the plant in service, resulted in the increase of 2.4 p.p. in the utilization rate.

ADSL At the end of 3Q02, Brasil Telecom reached 118,3 thousand ADSL lines sold, an increase of 16.6% in relation to 2Q02.

Since it is part of the strategy of shielding clients' base, Brasil Telecom increased the efforts in selling ADSL to high-income residential clients (classes A and B neighborhoods), attending SOHO (Small Office Home Office) segment.

Besides that, Brasil Telecom has been repositioning its product portfolio, promoting the substitution of access technologies with high costs (e.g. Frame Relay) for ADSL technology, in order to attend the corporate segment (SME - Small and Medium Enterprises Corporate Market). This repositioning has the objective of increasing current product portfolio competitiveness, leading to a cost reduction and, consequently, to a margin increase.

At the end of September, the Turbo Empresas product (corporate ADSL) corresponded to approximately 4% of ADSL lines in service.

Back to ContentsGraph 2: ADSL Lines*New plans

On August 25, Brasil Telecom launched new ADSL plans for residential customers, offering higher connection speeds. The old plans were discontinued. Despite not being mandatory, the clients have been stimulated to migrate to the new plans, through telemarketing campaigns.

Regarding the corporate market (SOHO and SME), the Internet Turbo Empresas product had its prices repositioned on May 2002, leading to a growth of 252% of the clients of this service between May and September.

12Q02 exceeding local pulses were reclassified.

Exceeding Local Pulses

Exceeding local pulses in 3Q02 were stable in relation to 2Q02. This stability, compared to the 2,1% growth of the average lines in service, is explained by the profile of new subscribers, since the majority of them use only the monthly franchise of 100 pulses.

Another factor with impact in exceeding pulses is the sale of ADSL, because it reduces the number of dialed accesses to Internet connection. The counterpart of this loss of traffic is reflected in data communication revenue, which grew 21.4% in 3Q02.

Back to Contents

Domestic Long-Distance Traffic

DLD traffic remained stable in 3Q02 in relation to 2Q02, reaching 1.9 billion minutes.

DLD traffic/Avg. LIS/Month traffic dropped from 72.1 minutes in 2Q02 to 70.5 in 3Q02, reflecting the higher Brasil Telecom's higher penetration in lower-income classes.

Graph 4: DLD Market Share

DLD Market Share

Brasil Telecom's market share in the DLD intra-region segment grew 0.6 p.p., reflecting the higher number of corporate advertising campaigns, with the objective of reinforcing Brasil Telecom's 14 DLD code.

Fixed-Mobile Traffic

Fixed-mobile traffic increased 2.3% in 3Q02, in relation to 2Q02, reflecting the 2.1% growth in the average plant in service.

Differently from what occurs in exceeding pulses and DLD calls, the penetration in lower income classes results in an increase of fixed-mobile traffic, once the pre-paid mobile plant is higher in these classes.

2Q02

3Q02

Back to Contents

Local Service

Local service revenue grew 9.0% in 3Q02, due to the average tariff readjustment of 8.3% in the local service basket and to the growth of the average plant in service.

Installation revenue totaled R$7.1 million in 3Q02, resulting from the lower number of installation billed in the quarter. During 3Q02, 541 thousand lines were activated. In relation to this revenue, we must exclude 130 thousand address changes and 167 thousand alternative plans, free of installation fee. Therefore, 243 thousand installations generated revenue in 3Q02, compared to 253 thousand in 2Q02. In addition to the lower number of installations billed, installation average fee was reduced by 8.8%.

Basic subscription revenue reached R$682.7 million in the quarter, an increase of 10.7% in relation to R$616.6 millions in 2Q02. This variation is due to the increase of 1.1% in the average lines in service (excluding promotional plans that are free of or offer a discount in basic subscription), combined with an average readjustment of 14% in the residential basic subscription fee.

Measured services revenue reached R$345.6 million in 3Q02, a growth of 7.6% in relation to the registered in 2Q02, reflecting the increase of 7.95% in the local pulse tariff.

Other local service revenues were derived from address changes - R$9.7 million, local collect calls □ R$15.9 million and rural telephony □ R$2.7 million, which dropped 4.0%, 0.6% and 3.6% in 3Q02, respectively.

Public Telephony

Public telephony revenue reached R$86.6 million in 3Q02, a drop of 2.5% in relation to the registered in the previous quarter. This drop reflects the reduction of 10.4% in sold credits during the quarter, which reached 1.4 billion combined with a readjustment of 8.4% in the credit tariff.

The drop in sold credits is explained by the card inventories that retailers accumulated in June, advancing the tariffs readjustment.

Domestic Long Distance

The 3.0% increase in domestic long distance revenue in 3Q02 reflects mainly the 9.8% growth in the intra-region revenue, which is explained by the combination of the 0.6 p.p. gain in the market share in this segment with the average tariff readjustment of 4.97% in the DLD basket.

Fixed-Mobile

Fixed-mobile call revenue grew 3.4% in 3Q02, reaching R$563.0 million, resulting from higher fixed-mobile traffic in the quarter (+2,3%).

Interconnection

Interconnection revenue registered a drop of 7.3% in the quarter, resulting from the 7.5% drop in billed interconnection traffic. This drop reflects network expansion of the other operators in the Region II.

EVA

The EVA (Economic Value Added) is a financial management system that aligns the company's processes, integrating them with the company's strategy, with the objective of creating value to shareholders.

The EVA objective is to maximize the value created by the company, through a cultural change, making its managers think, act and be rewarded as shareholders. It is called Value Based Management (VBM).

The EVA represents the economic profit after all operating expenses, including the cost of capital spent in the operation.

It is important to highlight that what matters in the EVA measure is not its absolute value, but its variation from one period to another. When the performance of one year improves in relation to the previous one, it means that there was value creation to shareholders.

Value creation reaches R$223 million in the year

In the first nine months of 2002, Brasil Telecom had an EVA improvement of R$223.1 million, in relation to the same period of 2001.
