Torch Offshore, Inc. Announces Resignation of John Reynolds

New Orleans, Louisiana USA, September 24, 2003

Torch Offshore, Inc. (NASDAQ: TORC) (the "Company") announced today that John Reynolds has resigned from the Company's Board of Directors effective immediately. Mr. Reynolds was a member of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors and had served in these capacities since May 2000.

The Company is in the process of finding a replacement for Mr. Reynolds and will make an announcement immediately upon doing so.

Established in 1978, Torch Offshore, Inc. is involved in offshore pipeline installation and subsea construction for the oil and natural gas industry. Torch Offshore, Inc. is expanding beyond its established shallow water niche market in order to serve the industry's worldwide growing needs in the deep waters.

Any statements made in this news release, other than those of historical fact, about an action, event or development, which the Company hopes, expects, believes or anticipates may or will occur in the future, are forward-looking statements under the Private Securities Litigation Act of 1995. Such statements are subject to various assumptions, risks and uncertainties, which are specifically described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, as well as other factors that may not be within the Company's control, including, specifically, oil and natural gas commodity prices, weather conditions and offshore construction activity levels. Although the Company believes its expectations are based on reasonable assumptions, it gives no assurance that the Company's assumptions and projections will prove to be correct. Actual results may differ materially from those projected.
