99.1 Transcript of November 8, 2017 conference call.

The transcript of our November 8, 2017 conference call and webcast furnished with this Form 8-K may contain forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements include all statements other than statements of historical fact, including forecasts of trends. These forward-looking statements are inherently difficult to predict. Actual results could differ materially for a variety of reasons, including the amount and timing of our capital expenditures, the mix of products we sell, adverse tax, regulatory or legal developments, consumer or regulatory claims regarding the products we offer or sell, the extent to which we owe taxes or are required to collect sales or similar taxes in jurisdictions in which we do not do so, competition, fluctuations in our operating results, any inability to raise capital or borrow funds on acceptable terms, difficulties we may have with our efforts to expand both domestically and internationally, and risks of inventory management and seasonality. Other risks and uncertainties include, among others, risks related to the business our subsidiary Medici Ventures, Inc. is pursuing, our continually evolving business model, and difficulties we may have with our infrastructure, our fulfillment partners or our payment processors, including cyber-attacks or data breaches affecting us or any of them. More information about factors that could potentially affect our financial results is included in our Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2017 which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 8, 2017. The Form 10-Q and our subsequent filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission identify important factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those contained in or contemplated by our projections, estimates and other forward-looking statements.
