Overview

Management's discussion and analysis of results of operations and financial condition are based upon our financial statements. These statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These principles require management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. On an on-going basis, we evaluate our estimates based on historical experience and various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

The following discussion of our results of operations should be read in conjunction with our audited consolidated financial statements and the related notes for the year ended December 31, 2003.

We are an auction technology company and a liquidator based in British Columbia, Canada with operations in the United States and Canada. We earn our revenues from providing the following products and services:

Auction Broadcast Services We broadcast live auctions over the Internet using our own technology (www.ableauctions.com/technology) or eBay's Live Auction technology and we provide auction-related products and services for a fee (www.icollectorlive.com/services.aspx).

2.

Point-of-Sale (POS) and Hardware Services - Through our recently acquired subsidiary, Rapidfusion Technologies, Inc. (www.rapidfusion.com/technology), we sell, install and support our Point-Of-Sale (POS) software and we develop, support and maintain auction websites, custom hardware and network configurations.

3.

Liquidation Services - We sell merchandise through our liquidation stores, auctions and Unlimited Closeouts operations. We also generate revenues through our inventory brokerage services, iTrustee.com (www.itrustee.com).

We began our business in 1999. Our goal at that time was to expand the business through the acquisition of various auction businesses, as well as to gain entry into the on-line auction business. Because of the significant costs related to traditional auction businesses, such as maintaining a physical auction site and employees necessary to staff the auctions, our current focus is on growing our on-line auction activities. Through our wholly owned subsidiary iCollector, we currently conduct approximately 113 auction sessions per year on eBay for our antique and collectible clients and approximately 60 auctions per year using our own technology on NAALive.com. We expect these numbers to increase. We have also found that on-line liquidation of business inventory is profitable, and we have expanded this area of our business by creating Unlimited Closeout and iTrustee.com.

During the 2004 fiscal year we will continue to operate at our traditional auction locations in Washington, California, New York, Ontario and British Columbia, conducting both auctions and liquidations. We also will continue to conduct auctions at customer locations in bankruptcies and insolvencies. Our business plan as it relates to traditional auctions is to engage strategic partners to conduct the auctions for us on a commission basis, as necessary, rather than to sustain the significant overhead associated with managing and maintaining permanent auction facilities.

Our business plan as it relates to on-line auctions continues to focus on expanding our client base and the number of on-line auctions we conduct. As we have in the past, we will continue to aggressively market our iCollector services jointly with eBay and to expand our iCollector workforce to enable us to conduct more auctions in Europe and North America. We also intend to aggressively market and thereby expand our industrial auction services through NAA

Live.

We are continuing our research and development efforts to improve our web site and auction broadcasting technologies. We continuously maintain and refine our live auction broadcasting technologies by increasing the speed of the bidding process, the preview of merchandise and the method of registering bidders. We anticipate that we will spend approximately $200,000 on our research and development efforts during the 2004 fiscal year.

We intend to continue broadcasting auctions conducted by auction houses from a variety of locations throughout North America. We also intend to identify possible candidates for strategic relationships or a possible acquisition.

So long as we remain profitable and providing that we are able to obtain additional financing, we anticipate that we will add up to 6 new employees with e-commerce, software development, sales and software maintenance experience to manage and market the services of our various operations.

Results of Operations

Three months ended March 31, 2004 compared to the corresponding period in 2003.

Revenues. During the three months ended March 31, 2004, we had revenues of $966,141 compared to $140,192 during the same period in 2003, an increase of $825,949 (a 589% increase). Costs of sales was 64.8% of our revenues during the three-month period ended March 31, 2004, compared to 42.3% during the same period in 2003. The substantial increase in revenues reflects the strong performance in virtually all sectors of the Company's operations, especially the iTrustee and Unlimited Closeouts liquidation operations. Our significant increase in revenues was due to a number of factors including our creation of iTrustee.com and Unlimited Closeouts to take advantage of liquidation opportunities, increases in on-line auctions, and better advertising of our services. We believe that our liquidation business and the number of antique and collectible auctions we manage is directly related to the general economy. A strong economy will reflect positively on the revenues realized from both our liquidation and our antique and collectible auction businesses.

Operating Expenses. During the three-month period ended March 31, 2004, operating expenses were $351,004 or 36.3% of revenue, compared to $134,274 or 95.7% for the same period in 2003. The decrease in operating expenses as a percentage of revenues resulted from the significant increase in revenues we experienced during the three-month period ended March 31, 2004.

Edgar Filing: ABLEAUCTIONS COM INC - Form 10QSB

Personnel and consulting expenses were $146,631 or 41.8% of our operating expenses during the three-month period ended March 31, 2004 as compared to $56,516 or 42.1% of our operating expenses during the three-month period ended March 31, 2003. The number of our employees increased due to our acquisition of Rapidfusion Technologies Inc. and the start up of our iTrustee and Unlimited Closeouts operations. As a result of the increase in employees and the increase in commissions owed because of the increase in the number of auctions we hosted, salaries and benefits increased to $70,418 (compared to $22,853 in 2003) and commissions increased to $57,157 (compared to $1,778 in 2003). However, consulting and management fees decreased to $19,056 (compared to $31,885 in 2003) as a result of cost containment measures we implemented during the 2003 fiscal year.

During the three-month period ended March 31, 2004, advertising and promotion expenses were $20,432 or 5.8% of our operating expenses as compared to $10,915 or 8.1% of our operating expenses for the three-month period ended March 31, 2003. We anticipate that advertising and promotion expenses will increase substantially for the remainder of 2004 as we participate in joint marketing programs with eBay Live Auctions and the National Auctioneers Association, and increase our investor relations budget.

General overhead expenses totalled $93,713 this quarter (compared to $35,514 in 2003) or 26.7% (compared to 19.3%) of our total operating expenses and 9.7% (compared to 25.3%) of our total revenue. This significant increase in general overhead expenses resulted due to our acquisition of Rapidfusion Technologies Inc. and the start up of our iTrustee and Unlimited Closeouts operations. Rent and utilities totalled $30,760, telephone $14,887, travel related to operations $7,001, repairs and maintenance $2,564, automotive $2,321, insurance $6,028 and office expenses $30,152.

We anticipate that overhead as a percentage of operating expenses and total revenue will decrease in future periods as we achieve certain economies from our operations. If we expand our operations, we anticipate that the overall level of general overhead expenses in dollars will increase.

Professional fees were $57,973 during the three-month period ended March 31, 2004 as compared to $25,745 for the three-month period ended March 31, 2003. The professional fees related to preparation of our Securities Exchange Act reports, professional fees associated with the preparation of our American Stock Exchange filings, and professional fees associated with a financing we closed on January 7, 2004. We expect that professional fees will increase during the remainder of this fiscal year since we are prosecuting a legal action against a former employee. Furthermore, if we are able to do so, we intend to try to make at least one acquisition during this fiscal year. If we are successful in making an acquisition, we will be required to incur expenses relating to the drafting and review of the documents related to the transaction.

Depreciation and amortization expense was $18,034 for the three-month period ended March 31, 2004 as compared to $45,820 for the three-month period ended March 31, 2003.

Gross Profit. Cost of goods sold were $625,937 for the three-month period ended March 31, 2004 as compared to $59,299 for the three-month period ended March 31, 2003. Gross profit was $340,204 or 35.2% for the three-month period ended March 31, 2004 as compared to $80,893 or 58% of revenues for the period ended March 31, 2003. The increase in gross profit reflected the performance of the liquidation services group, Unlimited Closeouts and iTrustee.com. Future gross profit margins may vary considerably from quarter-to-quarter depending on the performance of our various divisions, but overall, they are expected to stabilize around 30%, reflecting the weighted average of all of our revenue streams.

Operating Net Income. For the quarter ended March 31, 2004, we realized income from continuing operations of $51,923 as compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2003 in which we had net loss of $92,226. We realized an overall net income for the first quarter of 2004 of $51,923 or $0.001 per share as compared to net income of $3,971 for the first quarter of 2003.

We intend to continue to find ways to expand our business, including through acquisitions. We believe that revenues and earnings will increase as we grow. We anticipate that we will incur losses in the future if we are able to expand our business and the marketing of our Internet technology through acquisitions. The losses will be created to the extent of the excess of technology development and marketing expenses over the income from operations.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our capital requirements, particularly as they relate to our desire to expand through acquisitions, our plan to purchase inventory we liquidate and our continued development of our software for live auctions, have been and will continue to be significant. Our future cash requirements and the adequacy of available funds will depend on many factors, including the pace at which we are able to make acquisitions, the pace at which we can deploy our technology and related services to auction houses, the acceptance of our packaged services by our clients and the availability of merchandise to purchase for auction and liquidation.

To date, we have funded our operations with the revenue we earn and through sales of our securities. We cannot guarantee that we will earn enough revenue to sustain our operations although we believe that revenues from our operations together with the proceeds from the offering of our securities we undertook in January 2004 and our cash on hand will be sufficient to satisfy our working capital needs for the remainder of 2004.. During the next 12 months, if we fail to earn revenue in an amount sufficient to fund our operations, we intend to raise capital through public or private offerings of our securities or from loans, if we are able to obtain them. We have no commitments for financing for our future needs and we cannot guarantee that financing will be available to us, on acceptable terms or at all. If we do not earn revenues sufficient to support our business and we fail to obtain other financing, either through an offering of our securities or by obtaining loans, we may be required to curtail, or even to cease, our operations.

Our working capital position at March 31, 2004 was a positive of $7,837,741. We had cash and cash equivalents of $475,895, short-term investment of $ 5,554,719, accounts receivables of $1,001,234, inventory of $720,527, and prepaid expenses of $57,879 at March 31, 2004. We anticipate that trade accounts receivables and inventory may increase during the remainder of fiscal 2004 as we expand our iTrustee and Unlimited Closeouts liquidation operations. Cash flow used for operating activities required $(756,752) due to an increase in accounts receivable and inventory during the quarter ended March 31, 2004. We anticipate that cash will remain constant for 2004. Our cash resources may decrease if we complete an acquisition during 2004, or if we are unable to maintain positive cash flow from our business through 2004.

Cash flow used in investing activities during the quarter ended March 31, 2004 was a negative of $2,867,054 due to the purchase of a short-term investment. Net cash flow from financing activities during the quarter ended March 31, 2004 was $3,356,516 which included proceeds from our private offering and proceeds from the exercise of stock options.

During the quarter, we completed the sale of 4,615,385 shares of our common stock to select institutional investors, raising a total of $3 million in gross proceeds. The per share offering price was $0.65. The investors also received warrants to purchase an aggregate of 1,384,616 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $.80 per share.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosure About Market Risk

We believe that we do not have any material exposure to interest or commodity risks. We are exposed to certain economic and political changes in international markets where we compete, such as inflation rates, recession, foreign ownership restrictions, and trade policies and other external factors over which we have no control.

Our financial results are quantified in U.S. dollars and a majority of our obligations and expenditures with respect to our operations are incurred in U.S. dollars. In the past the majority of our revenues were derived from the business operations of our wholly owned subsidiary, Able Auctions (1991) Ltd., whose operations are conducted in British Columbia, Canada and in Canadian dollars. Although we do not believe we currently have any materially significant market risks relating to our operations resulting from foreign exchange rates, if we enter into financing or other business arrangements denominated in currency other than the U.S. dollar or the Canadian dollar, variations in the exchange rate may give rise to foreign exchange gains or losses that may be significant.

We currently have no material long-term debt obligations. We do not use financial instruments for trading purposes and we are not a party to any leverage derivatives.

ITEM 3:

DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Management carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our President, who is also our Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this report. The evaluation was undertaken in consultation with our accounting personnel. Based on that evaluation, the President/Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms.

There were no significant changes in our internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation.

There were no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation.

AGREEMENT

Online Auction

THIS AGREEMENT, entered into as of this 18th day of March, 2004, by and between National Auctioneers Association (Association), and iCollector.com Technologies Ltd. (Provider), a British Columbia corporation with offices at 1963 Lougheed Highway, Coquitlam, British Columbia, V3K 3T8, replaces the agreement entered into on June 9th, 2003, between Association and Sonition, Inc. and supersedes all previous agreements, oral or written.

In consideration of the premises and mutual covenants hereinafter contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

PROVIDER S OBLIGATIONS

Provider will provide an online bidding solution (the Solution) branded NAALive, using the URL naalive.com, to develop a forum for the general public and resellers to bid on items offered for sale exclusively by Association members. The Solution provides for an online bidding method where, either through NAALive.com or Auctioneers.org, Association members (and only Association members) are able to schedule online auctions, and bidders are able to bid on products listed by members through a remote site. The URL naalive.com , property of Association, is to be marketed exclusively as NAALive and will:

a.

Include Association Branding (Co-Branded Site), through which (i) Association members may, subject to their agreements with Provider, access Provider s online auction broadcasting solution, to be available to Association members no later than March 18, 2004 (the Effective Date); and (ii) potential auction bidders may search all online auction catalogs loaded into the Solution as of the Effective Date.

Enable Association members exclusively to post auctions and enter into a NAALive agreement, in a form approved by Association and consistent with this Agreement, with Provider for the provision of such auction hosting services.

In addition, Provider shall:

c.

Charge Association members, other than NAA Platinum Members, fees no greater than $125 per hosted auction of the Solution by an Association member and a commission of 1.5% of the gross sell through for each sale made to an online bidder; provided that, upon Provider's request at any time after this Agreement has been in effect for more than two years, Association will discuss in good faith proposed increases in such fees. Real estate auctioneers will pay a fee no greater than the $125 per usage broadcast fee and a bid conveyance fee, to be levied on buyers who purchase through the method, of no greater than $500 per property purchased.

Report monthly all fees collected during such month as provided in Paragraph c above and, for consideration of promotion and marketing support as defined in Addendum A (FEES), pay the fees indicated in the Addendum to Association by the 15th day of the following month.

Require that any auctioneer utilizing the Solution from the Effective Date, provide a valid Association member number.

f.

Maintain a bidder registration tracking method that will (i) distinguish registered bidders identified as being sourced by any particular Association member (Sourced Bidders) and prevent any other Association member from entering into the account of any particular Association member and accessing name and contact information for such Sourced Bidders; and (ii) allow an Association member, pursuant to its agreement with Provider, to (A) access and obtain, at the close of its auction, names and contact information of its Sourced Bidders, and (B) add the names and contact information of its Sourced Bidders to its online or offline mailing lists. The parties specifically agree that Association and each individual member of Association retains all its rights and obligations relating to the names, addresses, including email addresses, and any other contact information provided by it.

Unless otherwise expressly agreed, Provider shall use either NAA Live or iNet in the marketing of this product, and refrain from using the name iCollector in that marketing, except that Provider may use its corporate name iCollector.com Technologies Ltd. to the extent required for insurance purposes or for legal compliance.

h.

Enter into a minimum expected Service Level Agreement to be set out in Addendum A.

2.

ASSOCIATION S OBLIGATIONS

Association will:

a.

Aggressively promote and recommend Provider as Association s exclusive online auction-broadcasting contractor.

b.

Provide its endorsement of Provider s Solution and such marketing and promotion support to the general public for use of the Solution, as it deems appropriate and productive.

c.

Provide training and education, as appropriate, at its membership gatherings.

3.

LICENSE

Each party will provide the other party with pre-approved creative materials (i.e., trademarks and logos) for use in marketing and promotional materials. Any changes to such materials will be submitted to the licensor for approval prior to use. Each party grants to the other party a non-exclusive license to use its trademarks and logos as provided in the approved creative materials only as necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

4.

WARRANTIES OF PROVIDER

Provider represents and warrants as follows:

a.

Provider's Solution will function as an online bidding solution for Association's members as set out in Paragraphs 1a and b above upon completion of training either directly by Provider or by Association to the members of Association pursuant Paragraph 2c above.

b.

If Provider's system fails to function in any specific application, Provider will give immediate notice of such failure to both Association and Association member utilizing the application in order to permit appropriate adjustments to the specific auction event affected.

5.

TERM

This Agreement shall be effective beginning as of the Effective Date above for an indefinite period and except as otherwise agreed to by the parties, automatically renewed in 3-year increments.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND TERMINATION

Any breaches or disputes arising from this Agreement will be handed to a mutually appointed mediator, provided that the party alleged to be in breach has been notified of the breach in writing three consecutive times and, given sufficient opportunity to remedy the situation, has failed on all three notices. If mediation fails to result in a resolution of the breach or dispute, then either party may refer the matter to arbitration, and the parties shall be bound by the arbitration award, which may provide for specific performance, damages, termination of this Agreement or some combination of those remedies.

In the event Provider elects to opt out of the agreement with the consent of the NAA, NAA will carry on the business, using the URL with another technology provider and will retain the rights of contact information and database of the clients. In the event NAA elects to opt out of the agreement with the consent of Provider, Provider will carry on the business using another URL.

INDEMNIFICATION

Association and Provider shall each indemnify and save the other harmless from and against all third party claims arising in favor of any person, firm or corporation on account of personal injury or property damage in any way resulting from the improper or illegal acts of the indemnitor, its employees or agents. Provider specifically recognizes that failure of its Solution through defect or negligence of Provider in any specific application may result in a claim or claims by an Association member user of its service or by auction participants; Provider expressly agrees that any liability premised on such claims would be its responsibility under this indemnification provision. The foregoing indemnity shall include all costs incurred by indemnitee, including reasonable attorneys fees.

INSURANCE

As further protection against potential claims for which Provider is required to provide indemnity, Provider will carry Internet Liability Insurance with limits of not less than $5,000,000 per occurrence naming Association as an additional insured, within a reasonable time period following the execution of this agreement.

9.3

Indemnification Provisions for Seller Parties Benefit. Parent and Buyer, jointly and severally, will indemnify and hold the Buyer Indemnified Parties harmless from and pay any and all Damages, directly or indirectly, resulting from, relating to, arising out of, or attributable to (a) any Breach of any representation or warranty Parent or Buyer has made in this Agreement, (b) any Breach by Parent or Buyer of any covenant or obligation of Parent or Buyer in this Agreement, and (c) any event arising from the operation and ownership of, or conditions first occurring with respect to, the Purchased Assets after the Closing.

Indemnification Claim Procedures.

(a)

If any Action is commenced in which any Indemnified Party is a party that may give rise to a claim for indemnification against any Indemnitor (an Indemnification Claim) then such Indemnified Party will promptly give notice to the Indemnitor. Failure to notify the Indemnitor will not relieve the Indemnitor of any Liability that it may have to the Indemnified Party, except to the extent the defense of such Action is materially and irrevocably prejudiced by the Indemnified Party's failure to give such notice.

(b)

An Indemnitor will have the right to defend against an Indemnification Claim with counsel of its choice reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party if within 15 days following the receipt of notice of the Indemnification Claim (i) the Indemnitor notifies the Indemnified Party in writing that the Indemnitor will indemnify the Indemnified Party from and against the entirety of any Damages the Indemnified Party may suffer resulting from, relating to, arising out of, or attributable to the Indemnification Claim, (ii) the Indemnitor provides the Indemnified Party with evidence reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party that the Indemnitor will have the financial resources to defend against the Indemnification Claim and pay, in cash, all Damages the Indemnified Party may suffer resulting from, relating to, arising out of, or attributable to the Indemnification Claim, (iii) the Indemnification Claim involves only money Damages and does not seek an injunction or other equitable relief, (iv) settlement of, or an adverse judgment with respect to, the Indemnification Claim is not in the good faith judgment of the Indemnified Party likely to establish a precedential custom or practice materially adverse to the continuing business interests of the Indemnified Party, and, thereafter (v) the Indemnitor continuously conducts the defense of the Indemnification Claim actively and diligently.

(c)

So long as the Indemnitor is conducting the defense of the Indemnification Claim in accordance with Section 9.4(b), (i) the Indemnified Party may retain separate co-counsel at its sole cost and expense and participate in the defense of the Indemnification Claim, (ii) the Indemnified Party will not consent to the entry of any Order with respect to the Indemnification Claim without the prior written Consent of the Indemnitor (not to be withheld unreasonably), and (iii) the Indemnitor will not Consent to the entry of any Order with respect to the Indemnification Claim without the prior written Consent of the Indemnified Party (not to be withheld unreasonably, provided that it will not be deemed to be unreasonable for an Indemnified Party to withhold its Consent (A) with respect to any finding of or admission (1) of any Breach of any Law, Order or Permit, (2) of any violation of the rights of any Person, or (3) which Indemnified Party believes could have a Material Adverse Effect on any other Actions to which the Indemnified Party or its Affiliates are party or to which Indemnified Party has a good faith belief it may become party, or (B) if any portion of such Order would not remain sealed).

(d)

If any condition in Section 9.4(b) is not satisfied within the time required, then (i) the Indemnified Party may defend against, and consent to the entry of any Order with respect to an Indemnification Claim in any manner it may deem appropriate, (ii) each Indemnitor will jointly and severally be obligated to reimburse the Indemnified Party promptly and periodically for the Damages relating to defending against the Indemnification Claim, and (iii) each Indemnitor will remain jointly and severally Liable for any Damages the Indemnified Party may suffer relating to the Indemnification Claim to the fullest extent provided in this Article 9.

(e)

Each Party hereby consents to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any Governmental Body, arbitrator, or mediator in which an Action is brought against any Indemnified Party for purposes of any Indemnification Claim that an Indemnified Party may have under this Agreement with respect to such Action or the matters alleged therein, and agrees that process may be served on such Party with respect to such claim anywhere in the world.

9.5

Limitations on Indemnification Liability. None of the Parties will have any Liability (for indemnification or otherwise) for any claims under this Article 9 after the first anniversary of the Closing Date. The aggregate Liability of Seller Parties for money Damages claimed under Section 9.2 will not exceed an amount equal to $150,000, and the aggregate Liability of Buyer and Parent for money Damages claimed under Section 9.3 will not exceed an amount equal to $150,000.

9.6

Other Indemnification Provisions. If the Closing occurs the indemnification provisions in this Article 9 will be the parties' exclusive remedy with respect to a Breach of this Agreement. A claim for any matter not involving a third party may be asserted by notice to the Party from whom indemnification is sought.

ARTICLE 10

MISCELLANEOUS

Each Party agrees that a final judgment in any Action so brought will be conclusive and may be enforced by Action on the judgment or in any other manner provided at Law or in equity. Each Party waives any defense of inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any Action so brought and waives any bond, surety, or other security that might be required of any other Party with respect thereto.

10.6

Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.

10.7

Headings. The article and section headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and will not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

10.8

Governing Law. This Agreement and the performance of the Transactions and obligations of the Parties hereunder will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington, without giving effect to any choice of Law principles.

10.9

Amendments and Waivers. No amendment, modification, replacement, termination or cancellation of any provision of this Agreement will be valid, unless the same will be in writing and signed by Buyer and Seller Parties. No waiver by any Party of any default, misrepresentation, or breach of warranty or covenant hereunder, whether intentional or not, may be deemed to extend to any prior or subsequent default, misrepresentation, or Breach of warranty or covenant hereunder or affect in any way any rights arising because of any prior or subsequent such occurrence.

10.10

Severability. The provisions of this Agreement will be deemed severable and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision will not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions hereof; provided that if any provision of this Agreement, as applied to any Party or to any circumstance, is adjudged by a Governmental Body, arbitrator, or mediator not to be enforceable in accordance with its terms, the Parties agree that the Governmental Body, arbitrator, or mediator making such determination will have the power to modify the provision in a manner consistent with its objectives such that it is enforceable, and/or to delete specific words or phrases, and in its reduced form, such provision will then be enforceable and will be enforced.

10.11

Expenses. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each Party will bear its own costs and expenses incurred in connection with the preparation, execution and performance of this Agreement and the Transactions including all fees and expenses of agents, representatives, financial advisors, legal counsel and accountants.

10.12

Construction. The Parties have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. If an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement will be construed as if drafted jointly by the Parties and no presumption or burden of proof will arise favoring or disfavoring any Party because of the authorship of any provision of this Agreement. The Parties intend that each representation, warranty, and covenant contained herein will have independent significance. If any Party has breached any representation, warranty, or covenant contained herein in any respect, the fact that there exists another representation, warranty or covenant relating to the same subject matter (regardless of the relative levels of specificity) which the Party has not breached will not detract from or mitigate the fact that the Party is in breach of the first representation, warranty, or covenant.

10.13

Incorporation of Exhibits and Schedules. The Exhibits, Schedules, and other attachments identified in this Agreement are incorporated herein by reference and made a part hereof.

10.14

Remedies. Except as expressly provided herein, the rights, obligations and remedies created by this Agreement are cumulative and in addition to any other rights, obligations, or remedies otherwise available at Law or in equity. Except as expressly provided herein, nothing herein will be considered an election of remedies.

EXHIBIT B

CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-COMPETE AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT Dated For Reference the 18th day of March, 2004,

BETWEEN:

ABLEAUCTIONS.COM, INC. of 1963 Lougheed Highway, Coquitlam, B.C., V3K 3T8

ICOLLECTOR.COM TECHNOLOGIES LTD. of 1963 Lougheed Highway, Coquitlam, B.C., V3K 3T8
(iCollector)

(individually, the Company or collectively, the Companies)

AND:

(the Individual)

IN CONSIDERATION OF the agreement by iCollector to purchase from Sonition, Inc. certain assets including goodwill, which purchase would benefit the Individual as a shareholder of Sonition, Inc., and for other good and valuable consideration (the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by the Individual), the Individual agrees with the Companies as follows:

CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-COMPETITION

1.1

For the purposes of this Article 1, Confidential Information includes without limitation:

(a)

trade secrets concerning the business and affairs of the Companies and their affiliates (collectively, the Ableauctions Group), data, know-how, ideas, past and current supplier and customer lists, current and anticipated customer requirements, price lists, market studies, business plans, computer software and programs (including object code and source code), computer software and database technologies, systems, structures and architectures (and related formulae, compositions, processes, improvements, devices, inventions, discoveries, concepts, designs, methods, and information), and any other information, however documented, that is a trade secret; and

(b)

information concerning the business and affairs of the Ableauctions Group, which includes historical financial statements, financial projections and budgets, historical and projected sales, capital spending budgets and plans, the names and backgrounds of key personnel, and personnel training and techniques and materials, however documented; and notes, analyses, compilations, reports, studies, summaries, and other material prepared by or for the Ableauctions Group containing or based, in whole or in part, on any information included in the foregoing.

(c)

Notwithstanding the foregoing, information shall not be deemed Confidential Information if it is generally available to the public through no default of the Individual under this Agreement.

1.2

The Individual acknowledges and agrees that all Confidential Information prepared, produced, developed, known, or obtained by the Individual, directly or indirectly, whether before or after the date hereof, belongs exclusively to the Companies, which will be entitled to all rights, interests, profits, or benefits in respect thereof.

1.3

The Individual will not disclose at any time any Confidential Information to any person not expressly authorized in writing by the Company for that purpose. The Individual will comply with any directions that the Company may make to ensure the safeguarding or confidentiality of all Confidential Information.

1.4

The Individual will not disseminate or distribute any of the Confidential Information to the media, members of the public, shareholders of the Company, prospective investors, members of the investment or brokerage community, securities regulators, or any other third party, without the Company first reviewing and approving the Confidential Information before dissemination or distribution.

The Individual will not make any copies, summaries, or other reproductions of any Confidential Information without the Company's express written permission, provided that the Company permits the Individual to maintain one copy of the Confidential Information for his own use.

1.6

The Individual will not, either directly or indirectly, use for his own benefit or for the benefit of any third party any Confidential Information.

1.7

The Individual acknowledges and agrees that Confidential Information is and will be of a special and unique character, the loss of which cannot be reasonably, readily, or accurately calculated in monetary terms. Accordingly, the Companies will be entitled to injunctive or other equitable relief to prevent or cure any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by the Individual. Resort to equitable relief, however, will not be construed to be a waiver of any other right or remedy that the Companies may have for damages or otherwise.

The Individual agrees that for a period of three years following the date of this Agreement, he will not, either for himself or for any other person:

encourage or entice any persons who are employees or independent contractors of the Ableauctions Group (collectively, Service Providers) at any time, or who were Service Providers at any time within the 30 days preceding the date of this Agreement, to seek employment or service with persons other than the Ableauctions Group; or offer employment or service or contracts, directly or indirectly, to any persons who are Service Providers at any time, or who were Service Providers at any time within the 30 days preceding the date of this Agreement; or in any way interfere with the relationship between any of the Ableauctions Group and any Service Providers; induce or attempt to induce any customer, supplier, or business relation of the Ableauctions Group to cease doing business with any of the Ableauctions Group, or in any way interfere with the Ableauctions Group's relationship with any customer, supplier, or business relation of the Ableauctions Group.

(b)

(c)

(d)

1.9

The Individual agrees with the Companies that he will not, except as a Service Provider of any of the Companies, at any time during the three year following the date of this Agreement, either individually or in a partnership or jointly or in conjunction with any person, firm, corporation, government, association, or syndicate as principal, agent, employee, director, officer, consultant, or in any other manner, carry on, manage, operate, or engage or participate in any business whose activities compete in whole or in part with the on-line auction broadcasting business of the Ableauctions Group within the United States or Canada. The Individual agrees that this covenant is reasonable with respect to its duration, geographical area, and scope.

1.10

If the Individual breaches any of the provisions of this Article 1, the Companies or any of them will be entitled to damages from the Individual and, in addition to its rights to damages and any other rights any of the Companies may have, to obtain injunctive or other equitable relief to restrain any breach or threatened breach or otherwise to specifically enforce the provisions of this Article 1, it being agreed that money damages alone would be inadequate to compensate the Companies and would be an inadequate remedy for such breach. The remedies afforded to the Companies by this Agreement will be cumulative and not alternative and will be in addition to and not in substitution for any other rights and remedies available to the participants at law or in equity, including the remedy of injunctive relief.

1.11

On termination of this Agreement, and upon the Company's written request, the Individual will furnish to the Company a certificate in a form approved by the Company's solicitors that declares that the Individual has not:

(a) divulged, disclosed, distributed, or otherwise made available to any person any of the Confidential Information; or

(b) reproduced or made any use of the Confidential Information for his own benefit or for the benefit of any third party; or acted contrary to this Article 1, except with the Company's prior written consent.

(c)

2.

NOTICES

2.1

Any notices to be given by either party to the other will be sufficiently given if delivered personally or if sent by registered mail, postage prepaid, to the parties at their respective addresses shown on the first page of this Agreement, or to any other addresses as the parties may notify to the other from time to time in writing. This notice will be deemed to have been given at the time of delivery, if delivered in person, or within five business days from the date of posting, if mailed.

3.

FURTHER ASSURANCES

3.1

Each party will at any time and from time to time, at the other's request, sign and deliver other documents and do other things that the other party may reasonably request to carry out and give full effect to the terms, conditions, and intent of this Agreement.

4.

SEVERABILITY

4.1

If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be void or unenforceable in whole or in part, that provision will be deemed not to affect or impair the validity of any other provision of this Agreement and the void or unenforceable provision will be severable from this Agreement.

5.

LAW

5.1

This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington and the parties irrevocably submit to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of that jurisdiction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties have signed this Agreement as of the date written on the first page of this Agreement.
