Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 13, 2017, People's Utah Bancorp (the "Company"), a bank holding company and parent of People's Intermountain Bank ("PIB"), announced that it completed the merger of Town & Country Bank, Inc. ("T&C") into PIB. As of September 30, 2017, T&C had total assets of $127.2 million, gross loans of $118.3 million and total deposits of $126.4 million.

Under the terms of the merger, each outstanding T&C common share converted into the right to receive 0.2917 People's Utah Bancorp ("PUB") common shares and $4.23 in cash, including $2.0 million of cash held in escrow that is subject to future indemnification claims. T&C common shareholders also received an additional cash distribution of $1.68 per common share in cash. A total of 507,158 PUB common shares are expected to be issued in this transaction. The PUB common shares will be issued in reliance on the exemption from registration set forth in Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The Utah Division of Securities held a public fairness hearing on October 12, 2017 and found the merger consideration to be fair to the T&C shareholders and that the issuance of PUB common shares in the transaction is exempt from registration. The value of the total deal consideration was approximately $26.8 million, including cash of $8.2 million and $2.0 million of cash held in escrow.

PIB will consolidate its existing Bank of American Fork branch in St. George into T&C's St. George branch and will operate under the name of People's Town & Country Bank. PIB expects to complete the conversion of Town & Country's branch onto its core banking platform on December 8, 2017. With the completion of this transaction, the Company expects total assets to be in excess of $2.1 billion, and expects the transaction will be immediately accretive to earnings, after acquisition-related costs.

Forward-looking statements in this Form 8-K include, without limitation, statements regarding the Company's expectations regarding the timing of conversion to PIB's core banking platform, the Company's total assets, and the impact of the transaction on PUB's earnings.
