Item 1.01

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Acquisition of Hampton Inn Seaport

On January 17, 2007, Hersha Hospitality Limited Partnership (“HHLP”), the operating partnership of Hersha Hospitality Trust, entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the “Seaport Purchase Agreement”) with each of BCM, LLC, a New York limited liability company (“BCM”), the owner of fifty percent of the land and improvements of the Hampton Inn situated at 320 Pearl Street, New York, New York (the “Hampton Inn”) and HPS Seaport, LLC a New York limited liability company (“HPS”), the owner of fifty percent of the land and improvements of the Hampton Inn, to acquire 100% of the land and improvements of the Hampton Inn.

The members of each of BCM and HPS are Shree Associates (“Shree”), Kunj Associates (“Kunj”), Shanti III Associates (“Shanti”), Devi Associates (“Devi”), Trust FBO Neil H. Shah Under The Hasu and Hersha Shah 2004 Trust (“FBO Neil”), Trust FBO Jay H. Shah Under The Hasu and Hersha Shah 2004 Trust (“FBO Jay”) and David L. Desfor (“Desfor” and collectively with Shree, Kunj, Shanti, Devi, FBO Neil, FBO Jay, the “Seaport Sellers”).

The purchase price for the Hampton Inn is approximately $27.6 million, which includes the assumption of a three year interest only first mortgage of approximately $19.3 million. The loan bears interest at 6.36% per annum. The balance of the purchase price will be paid either in cash or limited partnership units of HHLP. A party may terminate the Seaport Purchase Agreement if the other party fails to satisfy a material condition set forth in the Seaport Purchase Agreement and fails to cure such condition within ten days after receiving notice from the non-defaulting party. The Seaport Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and conditions to closing. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that HHLP will complete the acquisition of the Hampton Inn on the terms outlined in the Seaport Purchase Agreement or at all. The Seaport Purchase Agreement provides that the closing shall be held on or before March 31, 2007.

Acquisition of Holiday Inn Express Manhattan Madison Square

Also on January 17, 2007, HHLP entered into an agreement to acquire a 50% interest in the Holiday Inn Express Manhattan Madison Square situated at 29th Street and 8th Avenue, New York, New York (the “Holiday Inn Express”). The agreement (the “HIEXP Contribution Agreement”) provides the HHLP will acquire 100% of the interests of H. Metro Delaware, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the “LLC”) that owns a 50% interest in the joint venture that holds a lease to operate the Holiday Inn Express. Under the terms of the lease (which expires in October 2031), the joint venture makes lease payments to the land owner in amounts necessary to satisfy the land owner’s debt service obligations on its (i) current first mortgage financing of a $55.0 million, a 10 year fixed rate loan accruing interest at 6.50% per annum (interest only payable for five years) and (ii) interest only payments on its $15.0 million mezzanine loan. At closing, the LLC will also own an option to purchase 50% of the land and improvements of the Holiday Inn Express from the current land owner. The option is exercisable any time after October 31, 2011.

The members of the LLC selling their interests are Shree Associates (“Shree”), Kunj Associates (“Kunj”), Shanti III Associates (“Shanti”), Devi Associates (“Devi”), Trust FBO Neil H. Desfor (“Desfor” and collectively with Shree, Kunj, Shanti, Devi, FBO Neil, FBO Jay, the “LLC Sellers”).

The purchase price for the membership interests in the LLC is approximately $7.8 million, which is expected to include a combination of cash and limited partnership units of HHLP. Hersha Hospitality Trust had previously funded a $15.0 million mezzanine development loan to the developer of the Holiday Inn Express, Brisam Management LLC (“Brisam”), at an annual interest rate of 10.0%, and this mezzanine loan is expected to remain in place upon the completion of this transaction. A party may terminate the HIEXP Contribution Agreement if the other party fails to satisfy a material condition set forth in the HIEXP Contribution Agreement and fails to cure such condition within ten days after receiving notice from the non-defaulting party. The HIEXP Contribution Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and conditions to closing. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that HHLP will complete the acquisition of the Holiday Inn Express on the terms outlined in the HIEXP Contribution Agreement or at all. The HIEXP Contribution Agreement provides that the closing shall be held on or before March 31, 2007.
