GuruNet to Move to NASDAQ

Plans Name Change to Answers Corporation

New York, NY - July 19, 2005 - GuruNet Corporation (AMEX: GRU), creator of the Answers.com™ answer-based search engine, announced today that its application for listing on NASDAQ's National Market System (NMS) has been approved. The Company expects to begin trading on NASDAQ under the symbol ANSW in the beginning of August. GuruNet further announced its intention to change its corporate name to Answers Corporation, subject to stockholder approval.

“We are proud to be moving to NASDAQ, the premier stock market for technology companies, which reinforces our commitment to shareholder value; we have been pleased with the professionalism of the AMEX and thank them for their excellent service,” said Robert S. Rosenschein, GuruNet's Chairman and CEO. “In just seven short months, we've put Answers.com on the map. Unifying our ticker, corporation, and flagship product names strengthens our branding, supports our growth strategy, and helps end-users identify the company behind the product.”

Pending formal stockholder approval, the Company will continue to operate under the GuruNet name.
