GuruNet Estimates Third Quarter 2005 Revenues
Continued Growth in Revenues and Monetization

New York, NY, October 6, 2005 - GuruNet Corporation (NASDAQ:ANSW), creators of Answers.com™, the answer-based search engine, today announced continued growth in its revenues and monetization for the third quarter of 2005. A complete earnings release will be reported early in November. Based upon recent progress, the company]'also expects to share certain forward guidance at that time.

Revenues for the third quarter of 2005 rose to an estimated $555,000 compared to $425,000 in the second quarter of 2005, or 30% sequential growth. Advertising revenues for the third quarter were estimated at $500,000, compared to $357,000 in the second quarter of 2005, or 40% sequential growth, with over 40% of these advertising revenues generated in September.

“We are very pleased with our advertising revenue growth in the third quarter of 2005, which resulted from a strong upswing in our September traffic and monetization, following the seasonally slow summer months.” said Bob Rosenschein, GuruNet's CEO. “In fact, the last week of September showed new record highs in both traffic and monetization. For the last week of September, Answers.com averaged approximately 2.2 million queries per day (including weekends) with an average RPM exceeding $3.50. We are excited about continuing our growth in Q4.”

According to the research firm Hitwise, a leading competitive intelligence service, Answers.com's website visits rank, for the week ending October 1, has reached 233 among all US websites and stands in the top 5 among US educational reference sites.
