Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On November 10, 2006, the board of directors (“Board of Directors”) of Andover Medical, Inc. (the “Company”) appointed Robert A. Baron as a Director. Mr. Baron presently serves as a member of the board of directors of three publicly-traded companies, NanoSensors, Inc., Hemobiotech, Inc. and Exegenics, Inc. Nanosensors is a nanotechnology development company whose principal business is the development, manufacturing and marketing of sensors and instruments to detect explosive, chemical and biological agents; Hemobiotech is a development stage biotechnology company; and Exegenics, which formerly operated as a biotechnology company, is currently seeking to redeploy its assets and actively pursue a new business. From 1998 to August 2004, he served as President of Cash City Inc., a payday advance and check cashing business. Previously, Mr. Baron served as President of East Coast Operations of CSS/TSC, a subsidiary of Tultex, Inc., a New York Stock Exchange listed company engaged in the manufacturing of activewear products, such as t-shirts, and as Chairman of T-Shirt City Inc., a company engaged in the distribution of activewear products. Mr. Baron received his B.S. degree from Ohio State University.

There is no arrangement or understanding between Mr. Baron and any other persons pursuant to which he was selected as a director. Mr. Baron has not been appointed to any committee of the Board of Directors. During the past two years, there were no transactions, or proposed transactions, to which the Company was or is to be a party, in which Mr. Baron had or is to have a direct or indirect material interest.
