Item 5.02

Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On April 18, 2011, Independence Holding Company (“IHC”) entered into employment agreements with each of Messrs. David T. Kettig, Larry R. Graber, Jeffrey C. Smedsrud and Bernon R. Erickson, Jr., and with Ms. Teresa A. Herbert. The agreements are described below and set forth as exhibits to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

With Mr. David T. Kettig

Officer Employment Agreement, by and among IHC, Standard Security Life Insurance Company of New York (“SSL”), a wholly owned subsidiary of IHC, and Mr. David T. Kettig, IHC’s Chief Operating Officer, Senior Vice President and director, dated as of April 18, 2011 (see Exhibit 10.1). Under this employment agreement, if Mr. Kettig’s employment by SSL or its affiliate were to cease under certain circumstances, Mr. Kettig would be entitled to receive a severance amount equal to the average annual aggregate total compensation received by Mr. Kettig during the preceding five years, adjusted pro rata for the applicable severance period. The applicable severance period would be the longer of: (i) twelve months and (ii) a number of months equal to the aggregate number of years of service of Mr. Kettig to IHC and its affiliates, not to exceed twenty-four months. The circumstances under which such severance would be paid are (i) Mr. Kettig’s employment by SSL being involuntarily terminated under circumstances that would not constitute “cause” (i.e., Mr. Kettig’s material failure to follow SSL’s or IHC’s lawful directions, material failure to follow SSL’s or IHC’s corporate policies, breach of the non-compete covenants in the employment agreement or his engaging in unlawful behavior that would damage SSL, IHC or their reputations), or such employment being voluntarily terminated under circumstances that would constitute “good reason” (i.e., in connection with SSL’s (or its successor’s) material breach of its obligations under the employment agreement or upon SSL’s non-renewal of the employment agreement). The initial term of Mr. Kettig’s employment agreement is two years from the date it was entered into, but, by its terms, it will be automatically extended for successive two-year periods unless one hundred twenty days’ notice of non-renewal is given by SSL.

With Mr. Larry R. Graber

Officer Employment Agreement, by and among IHC, Madison National Life Insurance Company, Inc. (“MNL”), a wholly owned subsidiary of IHC, and Mr. Larry R. Graber, IHC’s Senior Vice President – Life and Annuities and director, dated as of April 18, 2011 (see Exhibit 10.2). Under this employment agreement, if Mr. Graber’s employment by MNL or its affiliate were to cease under certain circumstances, Mr. Graber would be entitled to receive a severance amount equal to the average annual aggregate total compensation received by Mr. Graber during the preceding five years, adjusted pro rata for the applicable severance period. The applicable severance period would be the longer of: (i) twelve months and (ii) a number of months equal to the aggregate number of years of service of Mr. Graber to IHC and its affiliates, not to exceed twenty-four months. The circumstances under which such severance would be paid are (i) Mr. Graber’s employment by MNL being involuntarily terminated under circumstances that would not constitute “cause” (i.e., Mr. Graber’s material failure to follow MNL’s or IHC’s lawful directions, material failure to follow MNL’s or IHC’s corporate policies, breach of the non-compete covenants in the employment agreement or his engaging in unlawful behavior that would damage MNL, IHC or their reputations), or such employment being voluntarily terminated under circumstances that would constitute “good reason” (i.e., in connection with MNL’s (or its successor’s) material breach of its obligations under the employment agreement or upon MNL’s non-renewal of the employment agreement). The initial term of Mr. Graber’s employment agreement is two years from the date it was entered into, but, by its terms, it will be automatically extended for successive two-year periods unless one hundred twenty days’ notice of non-renewal is given by MNL.

With Mr. Jeffrey C. Smedsrud

Officer Employment Agreement, by and among IHC, IHC Health Solutions, Inc. (“HS”), a wholly owned subsidiary of IHC, and Mr. Jeffrey C. Smedsrud, IHC’s Chief Marketing and Strategy Officer and Senior Vice President, dated as of April 18, 2011 (see Exhibit 10.3). Under this employment agreement, if Mr. Smedsrud’s employment by HS or its affiliate were to cease under certain circumstances, Mr. Smedsrud would be entitled to receive a severance amount equal to the average annual aggregate total compensation received by Mr. Smedsrud during the preceding five years, adjusted pro rata for the applicable severance period. The applicable severance period would be the longer of: (i) twelve months and (ii) a number of months equal to the aggregate number of years of service of Mr. Smedsrud to IHC and its affiliates, not to exceed twenty-four months. The circumstances under which such severance would be paid are (i) Mr. Smedsrud’s employment by HS being involuntarily terminated under circumstances that would not constitute “cause” (i.e., Mr. Smedsrud’s material failure to follow HS’s or IHC’s lawful directions, material failure to follow HS’s or IHC’s corporate policies, breach of the non-compete covenants in the employment agreement or his engaging in unlawful behavior that would damage HS, IHC or their reputations), or such employment being voluntarily terminated under circumstances that would constitute “good reason” (i.e., in connection with HS’s (or its successor’s) material breach of its obligations under the employment agreement or upon HS’s non-renewal of the employment agreement). The initial term of Mr. Smedsrud’s employment agreement is one year from the date it was entered into, but, by its terms, it will be automatically extended for successive one-year periods unless ninety days’ notice of non-renewal is given by HS.

The applicable severance period would be the longer of: (i) twelve months and (ii) a number of months equal to the aggregate number of years of service of Mr. Erickson to IHC and its affiliates, not to exceed twenty-four months. The circumstances under which such severance would be paid are (i) Mr. Erickson’s employment by AMC being involuntarily terminated under circumstances that would not constitute “cause” (i.e., Mr. Erickson’s material failure to follow AMC’s or IHC’s lawful directions, material failure to follow AMC’s or IHC’s corporate policies, breach of the non-compete covenants in the employment agreement or his engaging in unlawful behavior that would damage AMC, IHC or their reputations), or such employment being voluntarily terminated under circumstances that would constitute “good reason” (i.e., in connection with AMC’s (or its successor’s) material breach of its obligations under the employment agreement or upon AMC’s non-renewal of the employment agreement). The initial term of Mr. Erickson’s employment agreement is one year from the date it was entered into, but, by its terms, it will be automatically extended for successive one-year periods unless ninety days’ notice of non-renewal is given by AMC.
