Item 8.01

Other Events.

On September 7, 2018, the staff (the “Staff”) of the Division of Investment Management of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) issued a no-action letter to Golub Capital BDC, Inc. (the “Company”), Golub Capital Investment Corporation (“GCIC”) and GC Advisors LLC, the investment adviser to the Company and GCIC (“GC Advisors”). The no-action letter states that the Staff would not recommend that the SEC take any enforcement action under Section 57(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”), or Rule 17d-1 under the 1940 Act against the Company or GC Advisors if the Company were to create collateralized loan obligations (“CLOs”) in the manner described in a letter submitted to the Staff on behalf of the Company. The Company sought no-action relief to ensure that it could engage in CLO financing under the 1940 Act and the risk retention rules mandated by Section 941 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K may contain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Statements other than statements of historical facts included in this Current Report on Form 8-K may constitute forward-looking statements and are not guarantees of future performance or results and involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements as a result of a number of factors, including those described from time to time in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company undertakes no duty to update any forward-looking statement made herein. All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this Current Report on Form 8-K.
