CONNECTED TRANSACTION ASSETS ACQUISITION

The Board wishes to announce that the Company has entered into the Acquisition Agreement with CNPC on 23 August 2007, pursuant to which the Company has agreed to acquire the assets of the Risk Operation Service Business from CNPC. Upon completion of the Acquisition Agreement, the Company will pay consideration in the sum of RMB1,652,279,200 (approximately HK$1,700,225,600) to CNPC, representing the value of the net assets of the Risk Operation Service Business as at 31 December 2006. The parties will adjust the consideration by reference to the net assets generated by the Risk Operation Service Business for the period from 1 January 2007 to 31 August 2007 as shown in the management accounts.

CNPC is the controlling shareholder of the Company holding 88.21% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the date hereof. Pursuant to the Listing Rules, CNPC is a connected person of the Company and the Acquisition constitutes a connected transaction of the Company.

Since the applicable percentage ratios for the Acquisition are more than 0.1% but less than 2.5%, the Acquisition is only subject to the reporting and announcement requirements and is exempt from the independent shareholders' approval requirement under the Listing Rules.

ACQUISITION AGREEMENT

DATE

23 August 2007

PARTIES

Vendor: CNPC

Purchaser: the Company

THE ACQUISITION

Subject to satisfaction of the conditions precedent under the Acquisition Agreement, the Company will acquire the net assets of the Risk Operation Service Business. The Risk Operation Service Business mainly comprises the risk operation service businesses of the Xinjiang Bureau and Tuha Petroleum primarily in the marginal oil reserve regions. The relevant assets include oil, gas and water wells, oil and gas processing stations, transportation facilities, ancillary buildings and other associated assets. The mining rights and the reserves in the marginal oil reserve regions in respect of the Risk Operation Service Business are owned by the Company. Prior to the Acquisition, the risk operation services provided by CNPC in respect of these reserves constituted continuing connected transactions of the Company. Please refer to the 2006 Annual Report of the Company and the circular of the Company dated 22 September 2005 for further details of these transactions.

CONSIDERATION

The Acquisition was negotiated and entered into on an arm's length basis and on normal commercial terms. Pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, the Company will pay consideration in the sum of RMB1,652,279,200 (approximately HK$1,700,225,600) to CNPC, representing the value of the net assets of the Risk Operation Service Business as at 31 December 2006. The parties will adjust the consideration by reference to the net assets generated by the Risk Operation Service Business for the period from 1 January 2007 to 31 August 2007 as shown in the management accounts for that period. The Company will pay the consideration together with the adjustment to the consideration in cash to CNPC out of the internal resources of the Company. The adjustment to the consideration is expected to be determined in early September 2007 after the relevant accounts for the assets of the Risk Operation Service Business have been prepared and the consideration (after taking into account the adjustment to the consideration) will be payable by the Company to CNPC immediately thereafter in early September 2007.

In the event the net assets generated by the Risk Operation Service Business for the period from 1 January 2007 to 31 August 2007 as shown in the management accounts for that period is higher than the value of the net assets of the Risk Operation Service Business as at 31 December 2006, the Company shall pay such difference to CNPC and vice versa on a dollar for dollar basis. Whilst there is no upper limit set for the adjustment to the consideration, based on the information available to the Company, it does not anticipate that substantial adjustment will be required.

The above consideration was determined based on the valuation report as of 31 December 2006 prepared by China Enterprise Appraisals Company Inc., Beijing, an independent valuer. According to the valuer's report with valuation based on the cost method, as at 31 December 2006, the total value of the net assets of the Risk Operation Service Business to be acquired under the Acquisition is RMB1,652,279,200 (approximately HK$1,700,225,600).

The total value of the net assets of the Risk Operation Service Business as at 31 December 2006, audited by Zhongtianyun Accountants Limited (CHINESE CHARACTER), after adjustments made in accordance with IFRS, was RMB1,575,309,700 (approximately HK$1,621,022,500).

The unaudited net profits attributable to the assets of the Risk Operation Service Business for the financial year ended 31 December 2005 amounted to RMB460,940,000 (approximately K$474,320,000) were based on the management accounts of the assets of the Risk Operation Service Business prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles of the PRC. The audited net profits attributable to the assets of the Risk Operation Service Business for the financial year ended 31 December 2006 amounted to RMB369,040,000 (approximately HK$379,750,000) were also prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles of the PRC, after adjustment made in accordance with IFRS.

Edgar Filing: PETROCHINA CO LTD - Form 6-K

As CNPC developed the relevant assets under the Risk Operation Service Business over a number of years in the past, the original purchase cost of these assets was unavailable.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO COMPLETION OF THE ACQUISITION AGREEMENT

Completion of the Acquisition Agreement is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions precedent, including:

- (a) the Company having completed due diligence on the Risk Operation Service Business;
- (b) the Company having obtained all necessary consents of the creditors and any other relevant third parties in connection with the transfer of the assets of the Risk Operation Service Business;
- (c) there having been no material adverse change to the business operation and technical performance of the Risk Operation Service Business; and
- (d) the representations, warranties and undertakings given by CNPC being true, accurate, complete and valid as at the date of completion.

As at the date of this announcement, all of the above conditions have been satisfied.

REASONS FOR THE ACQUISITION

The Company is principally engaged in the exploitation of oil and gas resources in China. The Board considers that the acquisition of the assets of the Risk Operation Service Business is in line with the development strategies of the Company.

The risk operation service business of the Company comprises the oil and gas exploitation and production operations commenced several years ago when the crude oil price was relatively low and the production volume, investment and cost pressure were relatively high, with a view to reduce the risk associated with the exploitation of marginal oil reserves of the Company and utilise the advantage of the cost-effectiveness of CNPC's engineering and technological services. In recent years, as oil price continues to rise and exploitation technologies continue to evolve, conditions have existed for the Company to expand such business, which are mainly manifested in: (i) the marginal oil reserve regions corresponding to the Risk Operation Service Business are able to produce stable oil output enabling more efficient exploitation for the Company; (ii) the assets acquired will be deployed to reserves owned by the Company which enables the Company to achieve scientific, rational, continuous and efficient exploitation of its reserve resources; and (iii) the relevant business presents certain level of economic returns to the Company. In addition, upon completion of the Acquisition, the connected transactions between the Company and CNPC will be reduced by a certain extent.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PARTIES AND CONNECTED TRANSACTION

CNPC is the controlling shareholder (as defined in the Listing Rules) of the Company holding 88.21% of the issued share capital of the Company. Pursuant to the Listing Rules, CNPC is a connected person of the Company and the Acquisition constitutes a connected transaction of the Company. Since the applicable percentage ratios for the Acquisition are more than 0.1% but less than 2.5% for the Group, the Company is only subject to the reporting and announcement requirement and is exempt from the independent shareholders' approval requirement under the Listing Rules.

The Board (including the independent non-executive directors) considers that the terms of the Acquisition Agreement are on normal commercial terms and are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

INFORMATION ON THE GROUP

BUSINESS OF THE GROUP

The Group is principally engaged in petroleum and natural gas-related activities, including:

- (a) the exploration, development, production and sale of crude oil and natural gas;
- (b) the refining, transportation, storage and marketing of crude oil and petroleum products;
- (c) the production and sale of basic petrochemical products, derivative chemical products and other petrochemical products; and
- (d) the transmission of natural gas and crude oil, and the sale of natural gas.
