Item 4. Purpose of the Transaction

On December 12, 2005, three of Telenor East Invest AS's nominees on the Board of Directors of VimpelCom, Arve Johansen, Fridtjof Rusten and Henrik Torgersen, sent a letter to David Haines, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of VimpelCom, stating that before they can consider approving, as part of VimpelCom's 2006 budget, approximately US$500 million of capital expenditures for Ukrainian mobile operator, Closed Joint Stock Company Ukrainian Radio Systems (URS), (1) VimpelCom must provide comprehensive public disclosure concerning a number of questions raised by the three directors relating to VimpelCom's acquisition of URS and (2) a Board committee must investigate and report on conflicts of interest arising from business relationships between Alfa's nominees on the VimpelCom Board and the sellers of URS. Under VimpelCom's charter, the approval of eight of VimpelCom's nine directors is required to approve VimpelCom's annual budget.

We continue to question the legality of the URS acquisition and reserve all our rights in respect thereof. However, for the Board to approve a capital expenditure budget for URS, it needs to understand the details of the URS acquisition and how that money will be spent. This is about transparency and accountability. We support VimpelCom's expansion and growth, but only if it makes business sense. The Board fails VimpelCom's shareholders if it does not demand and assess the information about how management intends to accomplish URS's expansion and growth, the letter states.

In a statement made at a Board meeting held on November 16, 2005, Mr. Torgersen challenged the legality of VimpelCom management's decision to complete VimpelCom's acquisition of URS and demanded answers from VimpelCom's management to a number of questions relating to such acquisition. VimpelCom's General Director, Alexander Izosimov, said VimpelCom would present answers to Mr. Torgersen's questions. However, to date, VimpelCom has not provided answers to any of Mr. Torgersen's questions, either publicly or privately. Instead, VimpelCom has delivered to directors VimpelCom's proposed 2006 budget, which includes a proposal for approximately US$500 million of cumulative capital expenditures for URS.

In their letter, the three members of the VimpelCom Board demanded that VimpelCom publicly disclose all of the details of VimpelCom's US$231.3 million acquisition of URS, including not only the points addressed in Mr. Torgersen's statement, but also questions concerning (a) VimpelCom's management's plans for the proposed US$500 million capital expenditures for URS, (b) discrepancies between the purchase price paid by VimpelCom for URS and the purchase price previously disclosed to holders of VimpelCom's shares and ADRs, (c) VimpelCom's failure to provide holders of its shares and ADRs with information and documents relating to URS and the acquisition, (d) the individuals and entities, including members of the Alfa Group, who may have benefited directly or indirectly from the purchase price proceeds, and (e) VimpelCom's failure to disclose that Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, its principal external legal counsel, also regularly advises members of the Alfa Group and their affiliates.

To ensure that VimpelCom's operations in Russia and Kazakhstan are not affected by any delay in the approval of VimpelCom's 2006 budget, the three directors have suggested that the 2006 budget be split into three parts—Russia, Kazakhstan and Ukraine—so that the budgets for Russia and Kazakhstan can be separately approved while VimpelCom's management is working on its response to the questions the three directors have raised and the Board committee is investigating the relationship between directors nominated by Alfa and the sellers of URS.

The preceding summary of the letter dated December 12, 2005 from Arve Johansen, Fridtjof Rusten and Henrik Torgersen and addressed to David Haines, Chairman of the Board of VimpelCom, is not intended to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such letter, a conformed copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1, and which is incorporated herein by reference.
