News release
Converium Holding Ltd, Zug

Zug, Switzerland - May 10, 2007 - Converium advises shareholders to accept improved offer of CHF 23.2 by French reinsurer SCOR

Converium's Board of Directors unanimously welcomes today's revised offer from SCOR S.A. The Board therefore recommends that shareholders accept the improved offer. This decision is fully supported by all members of the Global Executive Committee.

Under the terms of SCOR's revised offer, each Converium share may be exchanged for 0.5 new SCOR shares plus CHF 5.5 in cash and further foresees that the consideration will not be reduced by Converium's proposed gross dividend of CHF 0.2 per Converium share. Previously the offer was 0.5 new SCOR shares plus CHF 4 in cash. Based on the closing price of SCOR shares on Euronext Paris on May 9, 2007, the Offer Price values each Converium share at CHF 23.2.

Converium shareholders will also benefit from SCOR's proposed dividend for the business year 2006 of EUR 0.8 per SCOR share, as they will receive for each tendered Converium Share an equivalent amount of CHF 0.66 in cash which equals 50% of the amount of the dividend paid (in EUR) per SCOR share.

"The increase in the offer price represents a significant improvement in the consideration offered to our shareholders," said Markus Dennler, Chairman of Converium's Board of Directors. "The offer price recognizes our remarkable turnaround of the past two years. It further reflects the exceptional quality of our staff, longstanding client relationships and excellent growth prospects supported by a strong capital position."

Converium's Global Executive Committee is committed to ensuring a smooth combination of the two businesses. This includes the desire to maximize the value of synergies and to facilitate the retention of talent and clients.

For purposes of these calculations, the following currency exchange rate has been applied (closing price of May 9, 2007): EUR 1 = CHF 1.648.
