Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 2, 2008, Worthington Industries, Inc. (the "Company") reported that John S. Christie, President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, has requested early retirement. Mr. Christie has agreed to remain with the Company through the end of July 2008 to permit an orderly close of the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ending May 31, 2008, as well as a smooth transition to a new Chief Financial Officer.

A copy of the news release issued by the Company on May 2, 2008 announcing the retirement of Mr. Christie is included with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.

In connection with Mr. Christie's retirement, Mr. Christie and the Company have agreed as follows:

1. For the months of June and July 2008, Mr. Christie will no longer participate in the Company's normal base salary and bonus program. Instead, Mr. Christie will receive $66,666 per month in total cash compensation;
2. Mr. Christie will be subject to a covenant not to compete for three years following his retirement;
3. Mr. Christie will be paid an aggregate amount of $800,000 (which approximates Mr. Christie's average annual cash compensation (base salary and bonus) for the Company's fiscal years ended May 31, 2006 and 2007) in bi-monthly installment following his retirement, with a final lump sum payment to be made in March 2009;
4. The Company will pay or forgive Mr. Christie's healthcare premiums under the Company's employee-paid retiree healthcare program for up to three years; and
5. The normal provisions applicable to retirement will apply in determining Mr. Christie's benefits and rights under the Company's stock option, incentive compensation, 401(k) and other benefit programs.
