Section 2 – Financial Information*Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On January 19, 2017, Howard Bancorp, Inc., the parent company of Howard Bank, issued a press release relating to its results of operations for the fiscal year and three months ended December 31, 2016. A copy of the release is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1.

To provide investors and others with additional information regarding its results, Howard Bancorp has disclosed in the attached press release noninterest expenses excluding the impact of one-time non-recurring charges related to expenses incurred in connection with Howard Bancorp's acquisition of Patapsco Bancorp, Inc. during 2015. A reconciliation of the adjustments to GAAP results with respect to noninterest expense for the year ended December 31, 2016 is provided below. As the non-GAAP measure excludes charges that are not reflective of ongoing operations, Howard Bancorp's management believes that the presentation of noninterest expense excluding these one-time non-recurring charges is useful to investors because it presents the results of Howard Bancorp's ongoing business operations. As a result, management believes that presentation of this information helps investors in understanding and evaluating Howard Bancorp's financial results, operating trends and future prospectus, as well as in comparing Howard Bancorp's financial results across accounting periods and to those of peer companies.

In addition to the purposes discussed above, Howard Bancorp management uses noninterest expense excluding non-time non-recurring charges as a basis for planning and forecasting future periods, and to evaluate Howard Bancorp's operating performance, including whether our operating performance has met specified targets and thresholds.

This non-GAAP financial measure should be considered in addition to, not as a substitute for, superior to or in isolation from, noninterest expense prepared in accordance with GAAP.
