ITEM 4. CHARGES IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT.

On March 9, 2003 we notified Dempsey Vantrease & Follis PLLC, our principal independent accountant, that we were terminating their services. The report of Dempsey Vantrease & Follis PLLC on our financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 contained an explanatory paragraph as to our ability to continue as a going concern. Other than such going concern modification, such report did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor was it modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. There were no disagreements between our company and Dempsey Vantrease & Follis PLLC on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to Dempsey Vantrease & Follis PLLC's satisfaction, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its report.

As previously disclosed in our Reports on Form 8-K and Form 8-K/A filed on October 1, 2002 and October 7, 2002 regarding the previous change in our principal independent accountant from Rodefer Moss & Co. PLLC to Dempsey Vantrease & Follis PLLC prior to the termination on September 30, 2002 there were no disagreements between our company and Rodefer Moss & Co. PLLC on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to Rodefer Moss & Co. PLLC's satisfaction, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its report. A copy of the letter from Rodefer Moss & Co. PLLC to the SEC confirming the foregoing statement was filed as an exhibit to our Report on Form 8-K as filed on October 1, 2002 and Report on Form 8-K/A as filed on October 7, 2003.

Accordingly, during the two most recent fiscal years and any subsequent interim period prior to each of their respective resignation or termination, there were no disagreements between our company and either of Dempsey Vantrease & Follis LLP or Rodefer Moss & Co. PLLC on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to such firm's satisfaction, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its report.

The change in our principal independent accountants was approved by our board of directors.

On March 9, 2004 we engaged Webb & Company, P.A. to act as our principal independent accountant. Prior to such engagement, during the two most recent fiscal years and any subsequent interim period prior to engaging Webb & Company, P.A. we did not consult with such firm regarding the application of accounting principles to a specific completed or contemplated transaction, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on our financial statements.

The change in our principal independent accountants was approved by our board of directors.
