Aracruz to acquire Boise Cascade do Brasil Ltda

Investment speeds up the process of purchasing land and establishing forests, while reducing the Guaíba II project's forest expenditure

(São Paulo, July 1st, 2008) - Aracruz Celulose S.A. (NYSE: ARA), the world's largest producer of eucalyptus pulp, hereby announces that today, the Board of Directors authorized the company's purchase of the local operations of Boise Cascade do Brasil Ltda., for the sum of US$ 47.1 million. This acquisition comprises 15,400 hectares of licensed areas of land, of which 10,200 hectares is planted with eucalyptus, together with a rolling mill, other buildings, machinery and equipment. The purpose of this acquisition is to meet the need to enlarge the company's forest base in connection with the Guaíba unit's expansion project.

The funding of this acquisition are included in the total forest investment approved by the Board of Directors. The average distance from the forest to the mill is 82 km, which is less than the average, of 120 km, that had been expected for the total forest base to supply the Guaíba unit once the project has been inaugurated.
