Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On August 23, 2007, Dynegy Inc. ("Dynegy") entered into the Fourth Amendment to Employment Agreement, dated as of August 23, 2007, with its Chairman and CEO, Bruce A. Williamson (the "Amendment"). The Amendment amends the provisions of the Employment Agreement between Dynegy and Mr. Williamson dated as of October 18, 2002, as amended to date (the "Employment Agreement").

The Employment Agreement currently provides that the term of Mr. Williamson's employment shall extend through October 23, 2007, and thereafter for successive one-year terms unless either party presents notice of termination no later than 60 days prior to the end of the term. The Amendment provides that the term of Mr. Williamson's employment shall extend through December 31, 2007, and thereafter for successive one-year terms unless either party presents notice of termination no later than 30 days prior to the end of the term. The primary purpose of the Amendment is to allow the parties adequate time to review and evaluate the implications of the recently promulgated final regulations under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code ("Section 409A"), and any subsequent guidance, with respect to Mr. Williamson's continued employment arrangement with Dynegy. Agreements or arrangements similar to Mr. Williamson's that provide nonqualified deferred compensation benefits could be subject to Section 409A, in which case such agreements or arrangements must contain provisions compliant with Section 409A by December 31, 2007. One of Dynegy's considerations during this period will be the possibility of structuring Mr. Williamson's employment arrangement through the benefits and protections of Dynegy's executive severance and other benefit plans or comparable arrangements, similar to Dynegy's other corporate officers, rather than through an employment agreement.

The Amendment to the Employment Agreement is filed as exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
