Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On March 31, 2008, Whitestone REIT issued a press release announcing that Presiding Judge Joseph "Tad" Halbach of the District Court of Harris County issued a partial summary judgment against Allen R. Hartman on his claim for a termination fee.

In granting the partial summary judgment, the Court agreed with Whitestone that the termination fee is subject to a cap on operating expenses. The Court rejected Hartman's argument that the termination fee is not subject to the cap.

Whitestone believes that the cap has already been met and, therefore, no termination fee is owed. Whitestone also disputes Hartman's calculation of the fee. The REIT alleged in its petition that "it is clear from the plain language of the advisory agreement (between the REIT and Hartman) and the circumstances surrounding its execution that no termination fee is owed." Those issues are still pending before the Court.

The trial on the remainder of the issues is set for May 19, 2008 in the 333rd Texas State District Court in Houston.

A copy of the press release is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1 to the Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
