THE ROYAL BANK OF SCOTLAND GROUP PLC Pre-close Trading Update

11 June
8

The Royal Bank of Scotland Group ('RBS') will be holding discussions with analysts and investors ahead of its close period for the half year ending 30 June 2008. This statement sets out the information that will be covered in those discussions.

RBS confirms that it expects Group and divisional performance trends to continue to track the guidance provided in the Interim Management Statement of 22 April 2008.

The operating performance of many of RBS's businesses since the beginning of 2008 remain good, though results have been held back by the effects of the continuing deterioration in credit markets

Write-downs on credit market exposures, as discussed in detail in the Interim Management Statement, are expected to remain within the estimates indicated. Overall, the Group's underlying results, excluding write-downs on credit market exposures, are expected to remain satisfactory.

While the global economic outlook is placing strains on a number of business sectors, the Group's loan portfolio remains robust, with a continued reduction in UK personal sector impairment losses but increased US impairments, principally in a specific retail portfolio, as previously disclosed.

Although there has been little change in current corporate and commercial credit metrics, we continue to monitor forward-looking indicators closely.

The integration of ABN AMRO remains on track. Good progress continues to be made, with both income benefits and cost savings slightly ahead of target.

RBS confirms its previous guidance that at 30 June 2008 it expects its Tier 1 capital ratio to be in excess of 7.5% and its core Tier 1 capital ratio

to be in excess of 5

%, on a proportional consolidated basis.

At 31 December 2008 the Group's Tier 1 capital ratio

, on the same basis,

is expected to be in excess of 8% and its core Tier 1 ratio in excess of 6%.

Furt her unaudited
pro forma financial information under the Group's revised divisional structure is set out in Appendix 1. This information covers operating results for the Group, including the results of the ABN AMRO businesses acquired by RBS, for the full years 2006 and 2007 and for the first half of 2007

RBS will give a full update on progress with the ABN AMRO integration and on the Group's credit market exposures with its

interim results on 8 August 2008.

Sir Fred Goodwin, Group Chief Executive, said:

The trends which we have experienced so far in the second quarter are consistent with those referred to in our Interim Management Statement. Whilst we remain very much open for business, our risk appetite is tempered by a cautious stance in relation to short term economic factors and market conditions."

This announcement contains forward-looking statements, including such statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These statements concern or may affect future matters, such as RBS's future economic results, business plans and strategies, and are based upon the current expectations of the directors. They are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that might cause actual results and events to differ materially from the expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include, without limitation, statements typically containing words such as "intends", "expects", "anticipates", "targets", "plans", "estimates" and words of similar import. Factors that could cause or contribute to differences in current expectations include, but are not limited to, legislative, fiscal and regulatory developments, competitive conditions, technological developments, exchange rate fluctuations and general economic conditions. These factors, risks and uncertainties are discussed in RBS's SEC filings, including, but not limited to, RBS's Reports on Form 6-K containing this announcement and certain sections of RBS's Annual Reports on Form 20-F. Information in this announcement of the price at which investments have been bought or sold in the past or the yield on investments cannot be relied upon as a guide to future performance. RBS assumes no responsibility to update any of the forward-looking statements contained in this announcement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except to the extent legally required.

APPENDIX I

Pro forma financial information for the Group under the revised divisional structure

The unaudited pro forma financial information under the Group's revised divisional structure is shown below. These show the underlying performance of the Group including the results of the ABN AMRO businesses acquired by RBS. This information is being provided to give a better understanding of what the results of the operations might have looked like had the acquisition of ABN AMRO as well as the transfers of businesses to the other Consortium Banks occurred on 1 January 2006.

The profit before amortisation of purchased intangible assets and integration costs of each division is detailed below and is described as 'Contribution' in the divisional analyses that follow.
