CONCERTO SOFTWARE, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(In Thousands, Except Per Share Data)

(Unaudited)

1. Basis of Preparation

The unaudited consolidated financial statements presented herein have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q and do not include all of the information and note disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles. The statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Form 10-K, Commission File No. 000-15578, that was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 28, 2003. In the opinion of management, the accompanying consolidated financial statements include all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary to present fairly the Company's financial position and results of operations. The results of operations for the three and six-month periods ended June 30, 2003 may not be indicative of the results that may be expected for the next quarter or the full fiscal year.

2. Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

3. Reclassifications

Certain prior period balances have been reclassified to conform to current period presentation.

4. Revenue Recognition

The Company generates software revenue from licensing the rights to use its software products. The Company also generates service revenues from the sale of product maintenance contracts and implementation, education and consulting services. The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with the provisions of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Statement of Position (SOP) No. 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition and SOP No. 98-9, Modification of SOP 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, With Respect to Certain Transactions. Revenue from software license fees are generally recognized upon delivery, provided that there are no significant post-delivery obligations, persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, the fee is fixed or determinable and collection of the related receivable is probable. If acceptance is required beyond our standard published specifications, software license revenue is recognized upon customer acceptance.

SOP 98-9 requires use of the residual method for recognition of revenues when vendor-specific objective evidence exists for undelivered elements but does not exist for the delivered elements of a multiple-element arrangement. Accordingly in such circumstances, we defer the fair value of the undelivered elements and recognize, as revenue, the remaining value for the delivered elements.

Revenues for consulting, implementation and educational services are recognized over the period in which services are provided. Maintenance revenue is deferred at the time of software license shipment and is recognized ratably over the term of the support period, which is typically one year. Amounts collected prior to satisfying the revenue recognition criteria are reflected as deferred revenue in our balance sheet.

5. Stock-Based Compensation

At June 30, 2003, the Company had six stock-based employee compensation plans. The Company accounts for those plans under the recognition and measurement principles of Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations and adopted the disclosure only provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized for stock-based compensation plans under the fair value method as described in SFAS No. 123. In accordance with SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure, the following tables illustrate the assumptions used and the effect on net income (loss) and earnings per share if the Company had applied the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123 for all employee stock options granted using the Black-Scholes option pricing model prescribed by SFAS No. 123.

The effects of applying SFAS No. 123 in the pro forma disclosure are not likely to be representative of the effects on reported net income (loss) for future years. Additional awards in future years are anticipated.

6. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding and the effect of dilutive common stock options using the treasury stock method. A reconciliation of basic and diluted weighted average shares outstanding is as follows:

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

CAUTIONARY STATEMENTS

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 contains certain safe harbors regarding forward-looking statements. Statements set forth herein may contain forward-looking information that involves risks and uncertainties. Actual future financial or operating results may differ materially from such forward-looking statements. Statements indicating that the Company expects, estimates, believes, is planning, or plans to are forward-looking, as are other statements concerning future financial or operating results, product offerings or other events that have not yet occurred. There are several important factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those anticipated by the forward-looking statements. Such factors are described in greater detail under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Certain Factors That May Affect Future Results. Although the Company has sought to identify the most significant risks to its business, the Company cannot predict whether, or to what extent, any of such risks may be realized nor can there be any assurance that the Company has identified all possible issues that the Company may face.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Three and Six Months Ended June 30, 2003 and 2002

Total revenue for the three months ended June 30, 2003 increased approximately $1.6 million or 6.3%, to $26.3 million compared to $24.7 million in the same period in 2002. Total revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2003 increased approximately $3.8 million or 7.9%, to $51.8 million compared to $48.0 million in the same period in 2002.

Product revenue for the three months ended June 30, 2003 increased approximately $208,000, or 1.8%, to $11.8 million compared to the same period in 2002. Product revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2003 increased approximately $593,000, or 2.7%, to $22.8 million compared to the same period in 2002. The increase in product revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003 is due primarily to the product revenue associated with EnsemblePro, which was released in December 2002 and the continued growing product revenue contribution from Asia Pacific offset by a decrease in demand for the Company's Unison and Ensemble products and a decrease in the product revenue contribution from our European operations. During the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2003, EnsemblePro product revenue was approximately $5.6 million and $7.7 million, respectively.

Cost of product revenue for the three months ended June 30, 2003 increased approximately $348,000, or 16.2%, to $2.5 million compared to the same period in 2002. Cost of product revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2003 increased approximately $960,000, or 23.1%, to $5.1 million compared to the same period in 2002. As a percentage of product revenue, the cost of product revenue increased by 2.6% to 21.2% in the second quarter of 2003 compared to 18.6% for the same period in 2002. As a percentage of product revenue, the cost of product revenue increased by 3.7% to 22.5% in the first six months of 2003 compared to 18.8% for the same period in 2002. The decrease in product gross margin was due primarily to the mix of products sold during the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2003, as the Company's EnsemblePro product has a higher cost of hardware components than the Company's Unison and Ensemble products. In addition, included in the six month results of 2003 are the costs associated with the sale of third party software completed by the Company pursuant to an OEM relationship, which yielded an overall lower gross margin than the Company's proprietary products.

Service revenue for the three month period ended June 30, 2003 increased approximately $1.4 million, or 10.3%, to $14.5 million compared to the same period in 2002. Service revenue for the first six month period ended June 30, 2003 increased approximately $3.2 million, or 12.4%, to $29.1 million compared to the same period in 2002. The increase in service revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003 was due primarily to increased implementation and professional services revenue associated with the Company's increased product revenue combined with an increase in maintenance revenue as the Company's customer base continues to grow.

Cost of service revenue for the three months ended June 30, 2003 increased approximately $1.5 million, or 22.8%, to $7.8 million compared to the same period in 2002. Cost of service revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2003 increased approximately $2.4 million, or 19.2%, to $15.2 million compared to the same period in 2002. As a percentage of service revenue, the cost of service revenue increased by 5.5% to 54.1% for the three months ended June 30, 2003 compared to the same period in 2002. As a percentage of service revenue, the cost of service revenue increased by 3.0% to 52.2% for the six months ended June 30, 2003 compared to the same period in 2002. The increase in service cost of revenue and corresponding decrease in service gross margin during the three and six months ended June 30, 2003 was due primarily to increased outside consulting services, third party maintenance, payroll and related expenses including travel expenses resulting from increased implementation and professional service activities.

Research, development and engineering expenses for the three months ended June 30, 2003 remained flat at $4.0 million compared to the same period in 2002. Research, development and engineering expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2003 decreased approximately $119,000, or 1.5%, to $7.9 million compared to the same period in 2002. The decrease for the six months ended June 30, 2003 as compared to the same period in 2002 was primarily due to a decrease in overall occupancy charges allocated to research and development due to a reduction in the amount of office space utilized and other operating expenses offset by increased payroll and related expenses.

Selling, general and administrative expenses (SG&A) decreased by approximately $819,000, or 7.1%, to $10.8 million for the three months ended June 30, 2003 compared to the same period in 2002. SG&A expenses decreased by approximately $1.1 million or 4.8%, to $21.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2003 compared to the same period in 2002. The decrease in SG&A for the three months ended June 30, 2003 was primarily due to a decrease in depreciation and payroll-related expenses, partially offset by the recording of incremental bad debt expense compared to the same period in 2002 due to an increase in accounts receivable. The decrease in SG&A for the six months ended June 30, 2003 was primarily due to a decrease in depreciation, payroll-related expenses, and sales related costs compared to the same period in 2002.

In each of the three months ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, the Company recorded approximately $441,000 of amortization expense. In the six months ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, the Company recorded approximately $882,000 and $809,000, respectively, of amortization expense related to the purchased intangible assets from the acquisition of CellIt in January 2002.

Other income for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003 was derived from the interest income generated from investments in commercial paper, corporate bonds, Eurodollar bonds, Federal Agency Issued Coupons, Taxable Auction Securities, Tax Advantage Auction Securities and similar financial instruments, net of investment fees. Included in other income for the six months ended June 30, 2003 was $225,000 from the sale of an investment, which the company had previously written off its books. Other income, primarily interest income, decreased 33.0% and 12.5% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003 compared to the same periods in 2002 as a result of the overall decrease in the Company's cash position from 2002 to 2003 and lower interest rates.

In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the Company provides for income taxes on an interim basis using its estimated annual effective income tax rate. For the six months ended June 30, 2003, the Company recorded income before income taxes of $1.5 million. As a result, during the first six months of 2003, the Company recorded a provision of $387,000 for income taxes using an approximate 25% effective tax rate. The effective tax rate of 25% is less than the combined statutory federal and state tax rates primarily as a result of the utilization of available net operating losses and tax credits.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

As of June 30, 2003, the Company's principal sources of liquidity were its cash and cash equivalent balances of approximately $16.7 million, as well as its marketable securities of approximately $10.5 million. At December 31, 2002, the Company's cash and cash equivalent balances were approximately $19.3 million and its marketable securities were approximately $15.8 million. The overall decrease of approximately $7.9 million in the total cash and marketable securities balances was due primarily to the payment of $2.5 million related to the January 2003 settlement of litigation with Manufacturing Administration and Management Systems, Inc. (MAMS) and associated legal fees, the purchase of $2.0 million of capital equipment and the repurchase of 584,300 shares of the Company's common stock under its stock repurchase program for approximately $3.1 million.

Net cash used in operating activities for the six months ended June 30, 2003 was approximately $3.2 million compared to $4.5 million for the same period in 2002. The decrease in cash used in operating activities for the six months ended June 30, 2003 was due primarily to favorable operating results, a decrease in prepaid expense and other current assets, offset by the decrease of $4.2 million in accrued expenses, of which $2.5 million related to the MAMS settlement in January 2003, compared to the same period in 2002.

Net cash provided by investing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2003 was approximately $3.4 million compared to approximately $17.9 million for the same period in 2002. The Company had approximately $5.3 million of net maturities of investments in marketable securities during the first six months of 2003, compared to approximately $30.1 million during the same period in 2002, of which the Company used $10.9 million for the acquisition of CellIt. Property and equipment purchases were approximately $2.0 million during the first six months of 2003, compared to approximately $1.2 million during the same period in 2002.

Net cash used in financing activities for the six months ended June 30, 2003 was approximately $3.1 million compared to approximately $10.3 million for the same period in 2002. The Company used $3.1 million of cash to repurchase 584,300 shares of its common stock for the six months ended June 30, 2003, compared to using $9.6 million to repurchase 1.1 million shares of its common stock for the same period in 2002. The Company also used approximately $2.1 million less for the repayment of long-term debt for the six months ended June 30, 2003 as compared to the same period in 2002, which was related to the assumption and retirement of debt associated with the CellIt merger. The Company received $1.4 million less in proceeds for the sale of its common stock related to employee option exercises and share purchases for the six months ended June 30, 2003 compared to the same period in 2002.

The Company's contractual obligations for future payments as of June 30, 2003 were composed of operating leases for the various office spaces leased by the Company and capital equipment leases. A summary of the amounts due under these leases is as follows:

Contractual Obligation	Payments Due by Period (In Thousands)				Total
	Less than 1 Year	1-3 Years	3-5 Years	After 5 Years
Operating Leases	$ 2,873	$ 7,159	$ 3,003	$ 2,534	$ 15,569
Capital Leases	$ 410				$ 410

Management believes, based on its current operating plan, that the Company's existing cash and marketable securities balances and anticipated cash generated from operations are sufficient to meet the Company's cash requirements for the next twelve months.

DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISKS

ITEM 3: QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISKS

Derivative Financial Instruments, Other Financial Instruments, and Derivative Commodity Instruments.

As of June 30, 2003, the Company did not participate in any derivative financial instruments or other financial and commodity instruments for which fair value disclosure would be required under SFAS No. 107, Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments. The Company's investments are primarily short-term, Euro dollars bonds, corporate bonds, investment-grade commercial paper, tax advantaged auctioned securities, and money market accounts that are carried on the Company's books at amortized cost, which approximates fair market value. Accordingly, the Company has no quantitative information concerning the market risk of participating in such investments.

As of June 30, 2003, the Company did not participate in any derivative financial instruments or other financial and commodity instruments for which fair value disclosure would be required under SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities.

Primary Market Risk Exposures.

The Company's primary market risk exposures are interest rate risk and foreign currency exchange rate risk. The Company's investment portfolio of cash equivalent and marketable securities is subject to interest rate fluctuations, but the Company believes this risk is immaterial due to the short-term nature of these investments.

The Company's exposure to currency exchange rate fluctuations has been and is expected to continue to be insignificant since the operations of its international subsidiaries are almost exclusively conducted in their respective local currencies. International subsidiary operating results are translated into U.S. dollars and consolidated for reporting purposes. The impact of currency exchange rate movements on intercompany transactions was $209,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2003. Currently, the Company does not engage in foreign currency hedging activities.

ITEM 4: DISCLOSURE CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The principal executive officer and principal financial officer have evaluated the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures of the Company as of June 30, 2003. Based on this evaluation they conclude that the disclosure controls and procedures effectively ensure that information required to be disclosed in our filings and submissions under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms. There has not been any change in our internal controls over financial reporting in connection with the evaluation required by Rule 13a-15(d) under the Exchange Act that occurred during the quarter ended June 30, 2003 that materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

CERTAIN FACTORS THAT MAY AFFECT FUTURE RESULTS

In addition to historical information contained herein, this report contains forward-looking statements concerning future expected financial and operating results. The Company's future actual results could differ materially from the forward-looking statements discussed or implied in this report because of risks or uncertainties including, but not limited to, the difficulty in the development, marketing or selling of the company's solutions, difficulty with the recruitment and training of additional partners, risks associated with competition and competitive pricing pressures, technological change, the risk of not releasing products on time, new product introduction and market acceptance, stock price volatility, the ability to attract and retain key personnel, weakness in IT spending, weakness in the contact center market, general economic conditions in the United States and worldwide markets served by the Company, delays as a result of acts of terrorism and other geopolitical conflicts, or as a result of the regulatory changes, including restrictions placed on predictive dialing, telemarketing and web technologies and those other factors discussed from time to time in the Company's public reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, such as those discussed under Certain Factors That May Affect Future Results in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and annual report on Form 10-K.

Table of ContentsPART II. OTHER INFORMATION*Item 1. Legal Proceedings

There were no material changes since the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2002.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security-Holders

The annual meeting of security-holders of the Company was held on May 6, 2003. The number of directors was fixed at five and the following persons were elected as directors:

Nominee	Total Votes for Nominee	Total Votes Against Nominee
Alphonse M. Lucchese	9,996,146	84,083
Michael D. Kaufman	9,911,952	168,277

James D. Foy	9,996,452	83,777
Peter Gyenes	9,911,952	168,277

The selection of Ernst & Young LLP as auditors for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003 was adopted and approved, with 9,878,845 shares voting in favor, 200,139 shares voting against and 1,245 shares abstaining.

Item 5. Other Information

Proposals of stockholders intended for inclusion in the Company's proxy materials to be furnished to all stockholders entitled to vote at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders pursuant to SEC Rule 14a-8 must be received at the Company's principal executive offices not later than December 1, 2003. Stockholders who wish to make a proposal at the 2004 Annual Meeting-other than one that will be included in the Company's proxy materials-should notify the Company no later than February 12, 2004. If a stockholder who wishes to present a proposal fails to notify the Company by this date, the stockholder will not be entitled to present the proposal at the meeting. If, however, the proposal is properly brought before the meeting, then, under the SEC's proxy rules, proxies solicited by management for the meeting will confer discretionary voting authority with respect to the stockholder's proposal on the persons selected by management to vote the proxies. If a stockholder makes a timely notification, the proxies may still exercise discretionary voting authority under circumstances consistent with the SEC's proxy rules.
