Neurologix, Inc.

(A Development Stage Company)

Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

(Dollar amounts in thousands, except for share and per share data)

(1) In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments necessary to present fairly the financial position of Neurologix, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to herein as the Company) at March 31, 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the periods presented. The unaudited consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The Company is in the development stage and has not generated any revenues as of March 31, 2004. As a result, the Company has incurred net losses of $696, $264 and $6,533 and negative cash flows from operating activities of $672, 234 and $5,537 for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003 and for the period from February 12, 1999 (date of inception) to March 31, 2004, respectively. In addition, management believes that the Company will continue to incur net losses and cash flow deficiencies from operating activities for the foreseeable future.

Management believes that the Company's current resources will enable it to continue as a going concern through at least March 31, 2005. The Company's existing resources will not be sufficient to support the commercial introduction of any of its product candidates. Management plans to raise additional funds through public or private equity offerings, debt financings or additional corporate collaboration and licensing arrangements. The Company does not know whether additional financing will be available when needed, or if available, will be on acceptable or favorable terms to it or its stockholders.

As more fully described in Note 2, effective February 10, 2004, pursuant to a Merger Agreement (the Merger Agreement), Neurologix Research, Inc. (formerly known as Neurologix, Inc. and referred to herein as NRI) merged (the Merger) with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Neurologix, Inc. (formerly known as Change Technology Partners, Inc. and referred to herein individually as Neurologix and, together with its subsidiaries, as the Company) with NRI being the surviving corporation and becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Neurologix.

(2) Pursuant to the Merger Agreement and, as a result of the Merger, each share of NRI common stock, convertible preferred stock and Series B convertible preferred stock outstanding at the effective time of the Merger was converted into the right to receive 69.0135 shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Exchange Ratio), resulting in an aggregate of 385,210,329 shares being issued to former NRI shareholders as follows: (i) 171,883,850 shares were issued to holders of common stock of NRI (ii) 27,283,037 shares were issued to the holders of a note payable to related parties of NRI (iii) 152,174,768 shares were issued to holders of mandatory redeemable preferred stock of NRI and (iv) 33,868,674 shares were issued to holders of NRI Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. In addition, outstanding options to purchase an aggregate of 257,000 shares of the NRI common stock were adjusted by the Exchange Ratio and automatically converted into options to purchase an aggregate of 17,736,470 shares of the Company's common stock.

As a result of the Merger, stockholders of NRI received an aggregate number of shares of Neurologix common stock representing approximately 68% of the total number shares of Neurologix common stock outstanding after the Merger. In addition, the board of directors and management of the Company are controlled by members of the board of directors and management of NRI. Accordingly, the business combination has been accounted for as a reverse acquisition, with NRI being the accounting parent and Neurologix being the accounting subsidiary. These unaudited consolidated financial statements include the operations of Neurologix, being the accounting acquiree, from the date of acquisition.

Neurologix, Inc.

(Dollar amounts in thousands, except for share and per share data)

(3) The accounting policies followed by the Company are set forth in Note 1 to the Company's consolidated financial statements and Note 2 to NRI's financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, which are incorporated herein by reference.

(4) The results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2004 are not indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

(5) Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (SFAS 123), provides for the use of a fair value based method of accounting for employee stock compensation. However, SFAS 123 also allows an entity to continue to measure compensation cost for stock options granted to employees using the intrinsic value method of accounting prescribed by Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees (APB 25), which only requires charges to compensation expense for the excess, if any, of the fair value of the underlying stock at the date a stock option is granted (or at an appropriate subsequent measurement date) over the amount the employee must pay to acquire the stock, if such amounts differ materially from the historical amounts. The Company has elected to continue to account for employee stock options using the intrinsic value method under Opinion 25. By making that election, the Company is required by SFAS 123 and SFAS 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure to provide pro forma disclosures of net income (loss) and earnings (loss) per share as if a fair value based method of accounting had been applied. The Company has used the Black-Scholes option pricing model, as permitted by SFAS 123, to estimate the fair value of options granted to employees for such pro forma disclosures, as follows:

	Three Months Ended
	March 31,
	2004	2003

Net loss as reported	$(696)	$(264)
Deduct total stock-based employee compensation expense determined under fair value-based method for all awards	(62)

Net loss pro forma	$(758)	$(264)

Basic/diluted loss per share as reported	$(0.00)	$(0.00)

Basic/diluted loss per share pro forma	$(0.00)	$(0.00)

In March 2004, the Company granted 3,250,000 options to non-employee directors. The fair value of each option grant is estimated as of the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. There were no options granted in 2003.

Edgar Filing: NEUROLOGIX INC/DE - Form 10QSB

In accordance with SFAS 123, all other issuances of common stock, stock options or other equity instruments issued to employees and non-employees as consideration for goods or services received by the Company are accounted for based on the fair value of the consideration received or the fair value of the equity instrument, whichever is more readily measurable. Such fair value is measured at an appropriate date pursuant to the guidance in EITF Issue No. 96-18 and capitalized or expensed as appropriate.

(7) Related Party Transactions:

The Company paid its President and Chairman compensation of $6 for each of the three month periods ended March 31, 2004 and 2003 and $102 for the period from February 12, 1999 (date of inception) to March 31, 2004. Effective April 1, 2004, his compensation was increased from $24 per annum to $85 per annum. The President and Chairman is a principal stockholder of the Company and beneficially owned approximately 11% of the Company's outstanding common stock as of March 31, 2004.

Edgar Filing: NEUROLOGIX INC/DE - Form 10QSB

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, following the closing of the Merger, the Company paid Palisade Capital Securities, LLC, an affiliate of Palisade Private Partnership, LP (PPP), $200 for investment banking services rendered in connection with the Merger. PPP is the beneficial owner of approximately 30.22% of the Company's outstanding common stock.

(Dollar amounts in thousands, except for share and per share data)

Effective with the closing of the Merger, the Company relocated its corporate offices to One Bridge Plaza, Fort Lee, New Jersey 07024. The Company currently uses these premises on a month-to-month basis under a verbal agreement with an affiliate of PPP that does not require the payment of rent.

(8) Stock Options:

During 2000, the Company approved a stock option plan (the Plan) which provided for the granting of stock options and restricted stock to employees, independent contractors, consultants, directors and other individuals. A maximum of 20,000,000 shares of common stock have been approved for issuance under the Plan by the Company's Board of Directors. On March 23, 2004, the Company granted stock options to acquire an aggregate of 3,250,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.06 per share to three non-employee directors. As of March 31, 2004, 8,164,253 shares remained available for issuance under the Plan.

The following table summarizes information about stock options outstanding at March 31, 2004:

(9) Scientific Advisor Compensation:

The consulting agreement with one of NRI's scientific co-founders, scientific advisors and lead scientists, was amended to provide for an increase in his consulting fee from $124 to $175 per annum, effective April 1, 2004.

(10) Pro forma Financial Statements

Edgar Filing: NEUROLOGIX INC/DE - Form 10QSB

As described in Note 2 above, NRI merged with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Neurologix on February 10, 2004. The following unaudited pro forma information summarizes the combined results of Neurologix and NRI as if the merger had occurred at the beginning of 2003.

Management's Discussion and Analysis and Plan of Operations

(Dollar amounts in thousands, except for share and per share data)

Item 2 - Management's Discussion and Analysis and Plan of Operations

Plan of Operations

Effective February 10, 2004, pursuant to a Merger Agreement (the Merger Agreement), Neurologix Research, Inc. (formerly known as Neurologix, Inc. and referred to herein as NRI) merged (the Merger) with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Neurologix, Inc. (formerly known as Change Technology Partners, Inc. and referred to herein individually as Neurologix and, together with its subsidiaries, as the Company) with NRI being the surviving corporation and becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. As a result of the Merger, stockholders of NRI received an aggregate number of shares of Neurologix common stock representing approximately 68% of the total number of shares of Neurologix common stock outstanding after the Merger. In addition, the board of directors and management of the combined company are controlled by members of the board of directors and management of NRI. Accordingly, the business combination has been accounted for as a reverse acquisition with NRI being the accounting parent and Neurologix being the accounting subsidiary. The Company's condensed consolidated financial statements include the operations of Neurologix, being the accounting subsidiary, from the date of acquisition.

The Company is in the development stage and is involved in the development of proprietary treatments for disorders of the brain and central nervous system using gene therapy and other innovative therapies. These treatments are designed as alternatives to conventional surgical and pharmacological treatments. To date, it has not generated any revenues and has incurred total net losses and aggregate negative cash flows from operating activities from inception to March 31, 2004 of $6,533 and 5,537, respectively.

Management believes that Company will continue to incur net losses and cash flow deficiencies from operating activities for the foreseeable future. As of March 31, 2004, the Company's assets consisted primarily of approximately $5,075 in cash and cash equivalents. Since the Company's existing resources will not be sufficient to enable it to obtain the regulatory approvals necessary to commercialize its current or future product candidates, the Company will need to raise additional funds through public or private equity offerings, debt financings or additional corporate collaboration and licensing arrangements. The Company does not know whether additional financing will be available when needed, or if available, whether it will be on terms that are acceptable to it.

Critical Accounting Policies

The Company's discussion and analysis and plan of operation is based upon the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial statements filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The preparation of these condensed consolidated financial statements requires the Company to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. On an on-going basis, the Company evaluates its estimates, including those related to fixed assets, intangible assets, stock-based compensation, income taxes and contingencies. The Company bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

Management's Discussion and Analysis and Plan of Operations

(amounts in thousands except share and per share amounts)

The accounting policies and estimates used as of December 31, 2003, as outlined in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, have been applied consistently for the three months ended March 31, 2004.

Results of Operations

Three Months Ended March 31, 2004 Compared to the Three Months Ended March 31, 2003

Revenues. The Company did not generate revenues during the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003.

Costs and Expenses.

Research, Licensing and Scientific Consulting. Research, licensing and scientific consulting expenses were $334 during the three months ended March 31, 2004, and $122 during the same period in 2003. The $212 increase in research, licensing and scientific consulting expenses during the first quarter of 2004 was primarily attributable to costs associated with Phase I clinical trials for Parkinson's disease ($139) which commenced in August 2003. The remaining research, licensing and scientific consulting expenses consisted of licensing fees and royalties the Company paid under licensing agreements with academic and medical institutions as well as consulting fees the Company paid to the members of its scientific advisory board.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expenses aggregated $343 during the three months ended March 31, 2004, as compared to $119 during the comparable period in 2003. This $224 increase in 2004 is primarily related to the fact that the operations of Neurologix, which accounted for $158 of such expenses during the first quarter of 2004, were not included in the comparable period in 2003.

Interest Expense, Net. The Company had net interest expense of $19 during the three months ended March 31, 2004 as compared to $23 during the three months ended March 31, 2003. This decrease of $4 in 2004 was principally attributable to the elimination of interest on loans from related parties, which were cancelled as a result of the Merger.

Liquidity and Capital Resources.

Cash and cash equivalents were $5,075 at March 31, 2004.

Edgar Filing: NEUROLOGIX INC/DE - Form 10QSB

The Company is still in the development stage and has not generated any revenues as of March 31, 2004. In addition, the Company will continue to incur net losses and cash flow deficiencies from operating activities for the foreseeable future.

Management believes that the Company's existing resources will enable it to continue as a going concern through at least March 31, 2005. The Company's existing resources will not be sufficient to support the commercial introduction of any of its product candidates. Management plans to seek additional funds through public or private equity offerings, debt financings or additional corporate collaboration and licensing arrangements. The Company does not know whether additional financing will be available when needed, or if available, will be on acceptable or favorable terms to it or its stockholders.

Net cash provided by financing activities was $5,036 during the three months ended March 31, 2004, principally from cash acquired in the Merger ($5,413). During the three months ended March 31, 2003, the Company had no financing activities.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document includes certain statements of the Company that may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and which are made pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements and other information relating to the Company are based upon the beliefs of management and assumptions made by and information currently available to the Company. Forward-looking statements include statements concerning plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events, or performance, as well as underlying assumptions and statements that are other than statements of historical fact. When used in this document, the words expects, anticipates, estimates, plans, intends, projects, predicts, believes, may or should, and similar expressions, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements reflect the current view of the Company's management with respect to future events and are subject to numerous risks, uncertainties, and assumptions. Many factors could cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Company to be materially different from any future results, performance, or achievements that may be expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements, including, among other things:

the inability of the Company to raise additional funds, when needed, through public or private equity offerings, debt financings or additional corporate collaboration and licensing arrangements.

the inability of the Company to successfully complete the Phase I clinical trial for Parkinson's disease.

Other factors and assumptions not identified above could also cause the actual results to differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. Additional information regarding factors which could cause results to differ materially from management's expectations is found in the section entitled Risk Factors contained in the Company's 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-K. Although the Company believes these assumptions are reasonable, no assurance can be given that they will prove correct. Accordingly, you should not rely upon forward-looking statements as a prediction of actual results. Further, the Company undertakes no obligation to update forward-looking statements after the date they are made or to conform the statements to actual results or changes in the Company's expectations.

Item 3 - Controls and Procedures

(a) As of the end of the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2004, the President and Chairman as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the Secretary and Treasurer as the Company's Chief Financial Officer carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures that it has in place with respect to the accumulation and communication of information to management and the recording, processing and summarizing thereof. Based upon that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in alerting them in a timely manner to material information relating to the Company (including its consolidated subsidiaries) required to be included in its periodic SEC filings.

In designing and evaluating the disclosure controls and procedures, management recognizes that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, and management necessarily is required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures.

(b) During the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2004, there has not occurred any change in the Company's, internal control over financial reporting that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II OTHER INFORMATIONItem 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

On February 9, 2004, a special meeting of stockholders was held to consider the Merger Agreement. In connection with the approval of the Merger Agreement, the stockholders also approved and adopted a proposal to amend the Company's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of the Company's common stock from 500,000,000 shares to 750,000,000 shares, (ii) decrease the par value of the Company's common stock from $0.01 per share to $0.001 per share, (iii) change the Company's name to Neurologix, Inc. and (iv) increase the size of the Company's board of directors and divide the Company's Board into three classes, with staggered three-year terms for each class.
