Trend Micro Reports Third Quarter Results

(Revenue up 28% and Net income up 78 % year over year)

Tokyo, Japan October 20, 2004 Trend Micro, Inc. (TSE: 4704, NASDAQ: TMIC), a leader in network antivirus and Internet content security software and services, today announced earnings for the third quarter 2004.

Trend Micro posted consolidated net sales of 15.8 billion Yen (or US $143 million, based on an exchange rate as of September 30, 2004; 111JPY =1USD), operating income of 6.8 billion Yen (or US $61 million) and net income of 4.2 billion Yen (or US $38 million) for the third quarter 2004, reflecting continuous increases in revenue quarter-over-quarter since the same period a year ago.

Netsales from enterprise products grew 28% year over year and comprised 78% of Q3 revenues, while net sales from consumer products accounted for 22% of revenue.

If Q3 results are converted from Japanese yen to US dollars*, Q3 2004 consolidated net sales grew 36%, net sales of enterprise products grew 36%, and net sales of consumer products grew 38% year over year.

This quarter Trend Micro continued growing its revenue in particular, we experienced almost 100 percent growth for our Network VirusWall appliance, which was released earlier this year, said Steve Chang, CEO and founder of Trend Micro. We also received industry recognition that provides valuable third-party endorsement of our brand strength and leadership position in the marketplace.

Based on information currently available to the company, consolidated net sales for the fourth quarter ending December 31, 2004 is expected to be 16 billion Yen (or US $144 million, based on an exchange rate as of September 30, 2004; 111JPY = 1USD). Operating income and net income are expected to be 6.1 billion Yen (or US $55 million) and 3.7 billion Yen (or US $33 million), respectively.

* These numbers were calculated based on the following exchange rates: 1 USD=117.35JPY for Q3 2003 and 1 USD =109.99 JPY for Q3 2004, which are the weighted average exchange rates used to convert USD net sales to JPY for those respective quarters.

Third Quarter Business Highlights

During the third quarter, Trend Micro was established as the gateway antivirus market leader for the fifth consecutive year, according to IDC market share analysis (Worldwide Antivirus 2004-2008 Forecast and 2003 Competitive Vendor Shares. IDC, July 2004.) Leading market share in the mail server and file server areas also made Trend Micro the overall leader in the server-based antivirus market segment.

Table of Contents

Trend Micro was added to the Dow Jones Sustainability Indexes for September 2 2004, which annually track financial performance of the companies around the world, through assessment of companies' economic performance and environmental and social responsibility. For the second consecutive year, the company, with a total brand value close to US$1 billion, was named first among Top 10 brands in Taiwan by Interbrand. Trend Micro was also featured among Forbes magazine's A-List of the World's 400 Best Big Companies (September 2004).

In the third quarter of 2004, Trend Micro was also honored with several awards, including: the ARC Awards from VARBusiness magazine for Product Innovation (August 2004); Best Software Product and Best Channel Strategy at VARVision System Builder Summit event (September 2004).

Recently, Trend Micro entered into an agreement with NTT Communications, Japan's largest telecommunications provider, to supply Network VirusWall appliances that will be installed and managed through NTT Communications' Security Operation Center, which offers security management services for various enterprises.

New customers and new business gained during the third quarter came from the education, technology, and energy sectors including, Beijing Normal University and Beijing Foreign Studies University. In Europe business was established with Belgacom, Belgium's leading telecommunications company and TI Automotive, one of the world's leading suppliers of fuel systems and fuel carrying systems.

During the third quarter, Trend Micro announced its support of Network Access Protection technology from Microsoft and support for the Microsoft Windows XP Service Pack 2 through enhancements to Trend Micro OfficeScan Corporate Edition and Trend Micro PC-cillin Internet Security. Trend Micro Client/Server/Messaging Suite for Small and Medium Businesses v2.0 was also selected for pre-installation on industry-leading HP ProLiant servers with Microsoft Windows Small Business Server (SBS) 2003.

<Note> In order for the warrants to be granted or transferred to the directors and certain employees of the Company and the directors and certain employees of an affiliated company, the Company issued unsecured bonds with detachable warrants. Under pre-revised section 341-8-4 of the Japanese Commercial Code, the redemption and retirement of these bonds are restricted when the total amount of the bonds is less than the total amount of the issue price of the stocks from unexecuted warrants. To reduce interest costs, the Company repurchased some of the issued bonds after warrants were detached. Based on the above reason, the Company intends to hold the treasury bonds until they can be retired legally which is substantially the same as redemption. Thus, bonds and treasury bonds (10,000 millions of yen as of September 30, 2004 and 10,000 millions of yen as of December 31, 2003 respectively) are disclosed in net amount in the balance sheet.

(Note) Since the business environment surrounding Trend Micro Group tends to fluctuate in the short run, it is difficult to make the highly reliable projection figures on a yearly basis. We, therefore, decided to announce the earnings on a quarterly basis in the fiscal year ending in December 2004 as well as earnings projection of the succeeding quarter.

If we found through our calculation conducted from time to time that the net sales fluctuate from the most recent quarterly projection by more than 10%, or operating income or net income fluctuates by more than 30%, we will announce the revision of the earnings projection.
