Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 20, 2004, PerkinElmer, Inc. entered into Amendment No. 4 (the Amendment) to the Credit Agreement dated as of December 26, 2002, as amended (the Credit Agreement), by and among PerkinElmer, the several banks and other financial institutions or entities from time to time parties to the Credit Agreement, certain agents and arrangers, and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent. The Amendment amends the Credit Agreement to, among other things:

permit several of PerkinElmer's foreign subsidiaries in specified circumstances to incur unsecured indebtedness in an aggregate amount of no more than $300 million to finance the repatriation to PerkinElmer of foreign earnings of such subsidiaries (with the proceeds of such repatriation used to prepay outstanding indebtedness under the Credit Agreement), if and when pending legislation providing for a low effective tax rate on extraordinary distributions from controlled foreign corporations becomes law; modify the provisions of the Credit Agreement requiring that PerkinElmer mandatorily prepay outstanding indebtedness under the Credit Agreement to reduce the percentage of excess cash flow PerkinElmer is required to use to prepay outstanding indebtedness as PerkinElmer's leverage ratio decreases;

allow PerkinElmer greater flexibility in how it uses its cash by increasing the amount of restricted payments PerkinElmer may make under the Credit Agreement (based upon PerkinElmer's leverage ratio) and permit PerkinElmer to repurchase all or a portion of its 8% Senior Subordinated Notes; and increase the aggregate amount of indebtedness that PerkinElmer may incur for investments in acquisitions from $125 million to $250 million.
