As a company with leasehold improvements, Blockbuster Inc. (the Company) is performing a review of its accounting policies and practices with respect to leases. As a result of this internal review, the Company has identified errors in accounting practices associated with accounting for leasehold improvements and funds received from landlords for leasehold improvements (tenant allowances). The Company has discussed these items with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, its independent registered public accounting firm, and is still evaluating the ultimate impact of these errors on its financial statements. As a result of the Company's ongoing evaluation, the Company is unable, without unreasonable effort and expense, to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 (the Form 10-K) on a timely basis. Upon completion of this evaluation, the Company intends to restate its previously issued financial statements.

The Company is working diligently to complete its evaluation of the errors mentioned above and will file its Form 10-K as soon as possible following the completion of that evaluation, but in any event on or before March 31, 2005.
