Item 8.01 Other Events

Pursuant to Rule 10b5-1(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, (the Exchange Act), Robert M. Lazarowitz, a member of the Registrant's Board of Directors, has informed the Registrant that a limited partnership (the Partnership), of which he is General Partner, adopted certain, and modified certain existing, written plan agreements relating to future sales of a portion of the Knight Capital Group, Inc. Class A Common Stock beneficially owned by him. The Partnership is entering into, or modifying, the 10b5-1(c) plans in order to diversify its financial holdings in an orderly fashion over an extended period of time.

Rule 10b5-1(c) of the Exchange Act provides an exemption to the insider trading rules in the form of an affirmative defense. According to the Securities and Exchange Commission, the provision is designed to cover situations in which a person can demonstrate that the material nonpublic information was not a factor in the trading decision [and] will provide appropriate flexibility to those who would like to plan securities transactions in advance at a time when they are not aware of material nonpublic information, and then carry out those pre-planned transactions at a later time, even if they later become aware of material nonpublic information.
