Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Pennsylvania statutory law regarding directors and officers insurance and indemnification is embodied in Subchapter D (Sections 1741 through 1750) of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended (the BCL ). Sections 1741 (relating to third-party actions) and 1742 (relating to derivative actions) of the BCL provide that, unless otherwise restricted by its bylaws, a business corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who is made a party to a third-party or derivative action, respectively, by reason that such person is or was a representative of the corporation. The BCL defines representative to mean a director, officer, employee or agent thereof (a Representative ). The sections further state that the corporation is authorized to indemnify the Representative against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action. However, the Representative must have acted in good faith and with a reasonable belief that his or her actions were in the best interests, or not opposed to the best interests, of the corporation; and with respect to any criminal proceeding, the Representative must have had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 1743 of the BCL provides mandatory indemnification for a Representative if he or she succeeds on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any claim or action. The corporation must indemnify him or her to the extent of his or her actual and reasonable expenses (including attorney's fees) in connection with the claim or action.

Section 1746(a) states that the statutory rights of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person might be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, or otherwise. However, 1746(b) forbids indemnification to be made in any case where the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim is determined by a court to be willful misconduct or recklessness. A corporation may not provide indemnification in the case of willful misconduct or recklessness.

The BCL, in Section 1747, also authorizes corporations to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a Representative, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her. Such insurance is declared to be consistent with Pennsylvania's public policy.

Section 6.02 of the Company's By-Laws, as amended (the By-Laws ), provides that a director shall not be personally liable for monetary damages for any action taken or failed to be taken unless the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of his office and such breach or failure to perform constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness. A director's criminal or tax liability is not limited by the foregoing provision.

Sections 6.03 and 6.04 of the By-Laws require the Company to indemnify any director or officer who is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, if the person acted in good faith, in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the corporation, or with reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful. Section 6.05 of the By-Laws does not require indemnification if a court determines that such director or officer's conduct constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. The right to indemnification conferred by this provision includes payment of all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, and any liability and loss.

Section 6.07 of the By-Laws provides that any indemnification will be made on a determination by: (i) a majority vote of directors not a party to the proceeding; (ii) a majority vote of disinterested directors; or (iii) shareholders that indemnification is proper and that such person has met the applicable standard of conduct.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.
- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities being offered therein, and the offering of such securities at a that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the provisions described in Item 6 of this Registration Statement, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
