PROXY STATEMENT

We are furnishing this Proxy Statement in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our Board to use at our Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Meeting) to be held as indicated in the accompanying notice. This Proxy Statement is first being mailed to you on or about May 1, 2006.

We have fixed the close of business on April 10, 2006, as the date for determining who is entitled to vote at the Meeting. As of that date, there were 15,967,268 shares of our common stock outstanding, each of which has one vote.

The presence of holders of a majority of our Common Stock is needed for a quorum at the Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted towards a quorum. If a quorum is not present, those present may adjourn the Meeting from day to day, without notice, and directors will be elected at such adjourned meeting regardless of whether a quorum is present. Also, any other business may be done that might have been done at the original Meeting.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Meeting, and any amendment to our 1998 Stock Option Plan must be approved by holders of a majority of the stock present. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the election; abstentions will have the effect of a vote against the amendment and broker non-votes will have no effect.

All shares represented by properly executed proxies, unless previously revoked, will be voted at the Meeting as you direct. IF YOU GIVE NO DIRECTION, THE SHARES WILL BE VOTED (i) FOR THE ELECTION OF THE PERSONS NAMED HEREIN, (ii) FOR THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO OUR STOCK OPTION PLAN AND (iii) IN THE DISCRETION OF THE PROXY HOLDERS ON ANY OTHER BUSINESS TO COME BEFORE THE MEETING.

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by filing with our Secretary a written revocation or duly executed proxy with a later date. Your proxy will be considered revoked if you attend the Meeting and vote in person.

We will bear the cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to the use of mail, our directors, officers and regular employees may solicit proxies in person or by telephone or other means. These persons will not be compensated for the solicitation but may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses. We have also made arrangements with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward this material to the beneficial owners of our Common Stock, and we will reimburse them for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Nominees

Our bylaws provide that the number of directors will be determined by the Board, which has set the maximum number of directors at six persons and which has nominated the six persons named below for election at the Meeting. All of the nominees currently serve as directors. Each person elected will serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until his successor has been duly elected and has qualified. Although the Board does not contemplate that any of the nominees will be unable to serve, if such a situation arises before the Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed Proxy will vote for the election of such other person(s) as may be nominated by the Board.

The Board maintains a Nominating and Governance Committee to recommend to the Board all nominees for election, and any stockholder who wishes to recommend a person for consideration as a director nominee should follow the procedures described below under the heading Nomination Process. The Board selected the nominees for election at this Meeting.

Nominees for election to the Board must possess certain basic personal and professional qualities in order to properly discharge their fiduciary duties to our stockholders, provide effective oversight of our management and monitor our adherence to principles of sound corporate governance. In identifying candidates for membership on the Board, the Nominating and Governance Committee takes into consideration a number of factors, including: (a) relevant career experience, relevant technical skills, industry knowledge and experience and financial expertise; (b) individual qualifications, including strength of character, mature judgment, familiarity with our business and industry, independence of thought and the ability to work collegially; and (c) the extent to which the candidate would fulfill a present need on the Board.

Our Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee regularly assesses the appropriate size of the board, and whether any vacancies on the board are expected due to retirement or otherwise. In the event that vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the committee will consider various potential candidates who may come to the attention of the committee through current board members, professional search firms, stockholders or other persons. Each candidate brought to the attention of the committee, regardless of who recommended such candidate, is considered on the basis of the criteria set forth above.

Certain information about the nominees is set forth below:

The notice must set forth (a) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate, all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); and (b) as to the stockholder giving the notice or the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination is made (i) the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on our books, and of such beneficial owner and (ii) the number of shares of our common stock which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholder and such beneficial owner.

Board Committees and Meetings

The Board held 13 meetings in 2005. The Board maintains Audit, Compensation, and Nominating and Governance Committees that are all comprised solely of independent directors. The Board previously maintained an Investment Committee, which was dissolved in July 2005. Each committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board. The Audit Committee met seven times during the year, and the Compensation Committee met three times during the year. The Nominating and Governance Committee did not meet during 2005; director nominees recommended by the Board for election at the 2005 annual meeting of the Company's stockholders were nominated by the unanimous vote of the Company's independent directors. Each director attended at least 75% of the total number of Board and committee meetings held on which he served.

The Audit Committee's responsibilities are covered by its charter, which was reproduced as Appendix A to the Company's proxy statement for the annual meeting of stockholders held on June 10, 2004.

The Audit Committee is comprised of Jake L. Netterville (Chairman), Ronald A. LaBorde, David R. Pitts, Peter F. Ricchiuti and Donald A. Washburn. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Audit Committee meets the definition of an independent director as defined by applicable Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) rules and NASD Rules 4200(a)(15) and 4350(d)(2)(A), and that Messrs. Netterville and LaBorde qualify as audit committee financial experts as defined by SEC rulemaking and NASD Rule 4350(d)(2)(A).

The Compensation Committee reviews and acts on compensation levels and benefit plans for our executives, approves director compensation and approves the issuance of stock options and restricted stock under our stock option plans. The Compensation Committee is comprised of David R. Pitts (Chairman), Peter F. Ricchiuti, Jake L. Netterville, Ronald A. LaBorde and Donald A. Washburn.

The Nominating and Governance Committee, formed in October 2004, recommends to the Board all nominees for election to the Board of Directors. The Nominating and Governance Committee also provides assistance to the Board in the annual evaluations of the Board and review and consideration of corporate governance practices. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Nominating Committee meets the definition of an independent director as defined by applicable SEC rules and NASDAQ Stock Market listing standards. The Nominating and Governance Committee is comprised of Donald A. Washburn (Chairman), David R. Pitts, Jake L. Netterville and Ronald A. LaBorde. A copy of the Nominating and Governance Committee charter is reproduced as Appendix A to this proxy statement.

Ronald A. LaBorde is Lead Director of the Company. The Lead Director performs the following functions: consulting with the Chairman regarding the agenda for any Board meeting, maintaining dialogue with executive management and presiding over executive sessions with non-management directors.

Compensation of Directors

During 2005, all directors other than Mr. Borne received a monthly retainer of $3,000 and meeting attendance fees of $1,000 per meeting attended in person and $500 per meeting attended via teleconference. Each director who attended the 2005 annual Board of Directors strategy session received $2,000. In addition, each director received an annual grant of restricted stock having a value of $44,000 on the date of issuance and a vesting period of 12 months from the date of grant. During 2005, the Chairman of the Audit Committee and the Lead Director received, in addition to the other fees mentioned, a monthly retainer of $1,000. All directors are entitled to reimbursement for reasonable travel and lodging expenses incurred in attending meetings.

Board Independence, Communication & Attendance

The Board has determined that all directors other than Mr. Borne meet the definition of independence of the NASDAQ National Market System. The Board has also determined that both Jake L. Netterville, Chairman of the Audit Committee, and Ronald A. LaBorde meet the definition of Audit Committee Financial Expert within the meaning of that term as defined by the SEC and NASDAQ. The independent directors meet in executive session on a regular basis without any management or non-independent directors present. Ronald A. LaBorde presides over these executive sessions as Lead Director.

Stockholders who would like to submit the name of a person for consideration as a director nominee should address any communication to our corporate Secretary, following the procedures described elsewhere in this Proxy Statement. Stockholders who wish to communicate with the Board on other matters should address their communications to our corporate Secretary, who is responsible for promptly disseminating such communications to the Board.

We do not have a formal policy regarding attendance by Board members at the annual stockholders meeting, and, as a matter of practice, Board members do not attend.

The Board has also adopted a Code of Ethical Business Conduct that is applicable to all our directors, officers and employees, including our executive officers. The Code is available on the Investors section of our internet website, www.amedisys.com, using the link entitled Pledge to our Shareholders. The purpose of the Code is to, among other things, deter wrongdoing and promote honest and ethical conduct; full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in our filings with the SEC and public communications; compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations; and the prompt internal reporting of violations and accountability.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of our Common Stock to file reports of ownership and changes of ownership with the SEC. Copies of all filed reports are required to be furnished to us. Based solely on the reports received by us, we believe all such persons complied with all applicable filing requirements during 2005, except Messrs. LaBorde, Netterville, Pitts, Ricchiuti and Washburn each filed one late Form 4 (pertaining to a grant of restricted stock by the Company to each independent director) during 2005.

Employment Agreements

Mr. Borne entered into a three-year employment agreement with us, effective as of April 5, 2005, which provides for an automatic one-year extension of the agreement unless either party provides written notice six months before the expiration of the term. The agreement provides for a base salary of $400,000 annually. It also provides for an annual bonus up to 100% of the base salary then in effect for the applicable year if the target established by the Board for the performance-based criteria for our related fiscal year is met, annual long-term equity incentive awards (at the Board's discretion) at an amount equal to the median market for comparable awards to chief executive officers of other companies determined by the Board to have similar attributes. Any long-term equity incentive awards made shall vest over a three-year period.

If Mr. Borne's employment is terminated (i) due to expiration of the term, (ii) by us without cause prior to a change of control, or (iii) by Mr. Borne for our failure to meet its obligations under the agreement, Mr. Borne is entitled to receive severance compensation of two times the average for our prior three fiscal years of the sum of Mr. Borne's base salary and bonus for each such fiscal year. If Mr. Borne's employment is terminated due to a change of control, he is entitled to receive 2.99 times the average for our prior three fiscal years of the sum of his base salary and bonus for each such fiscal year less the amount of the base salary and bonus that he received from the date of the change of control until the date on which Mr. Borne's employment is terminated.

Messrs. Graham and Browne each have employment agreements with us of indefinite duration, providing for an annual base salary ($300,000 for Mr. Graham, $225,000 for Mr. Browne) with minimum yearly increases, an annual performance-based cash incentive and annual long-term equity incentive awards. The performance-based cash incentives are targeted at 50% of base salary and are based on the achievement of certain performance criteria approved by the Compensation Committee. The agreements also provide for additional benefits such as participation in employee health plans. If Mr. Graham is terminated without cause or following a change of control of the Company, he is entitled to severance compensation in an amount equal to eighteen months of his base salary. If Mr. Browne is terminated without cause he is entitled to severance compensation of six months base salary and various employee benefits, or in the case of a termination following a change of control of the Company, twelve months base salary and various employee benefits. Mr. Browne has recently announced his intention to resign from the Company, with an effective date to be determined in accordance with a supplemental employment agreement executed between him and the Company. The supplemental employment agreement provides that Mr. Browne will remain Chief Financial Officer until his replacement is named, at which time he will continue as an employee of the Company on a transitional basis for 60% of his salary until June 30, 2006, or such later date as determined in the discretion of the Chief Executive Officer. At the expiration of his employment term, the Company shall pay Mr. Browne three months salary in lieu of severance.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee is composed of the directors listed as signatories to the report below, none of whom has ever been an officer of us or any of our subsidiaries.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Company's executive compensation is supervised by the Compensation Committee of the Board. The Compensation Committee seeks to provide executive compensation that will support the achievement of the Company's financial goals while attracting and retaining talented executives and rewarding superior performance. In performing this function, the Committee reviews executive compensation surveys and/or other available information and may from time to time consult with independent compensation consultants.

The Committee seeks to provide an overall level of compensation to executives that is competitive with the healthcare industry and other companies of comparable size and complexity. Compensation in any particular case may vary from an industry average on the basis of annual and long-term Company performance, as well as individual performance. The Committee will exercise its discretion to set compensation based on its judgment and where external, internal or individual circumstances warrant.

Compensation Philosophy

The compensation philosophy of the Company is designed to align our employees and stockholders. This philosophy applies to all employees, with a more significant level of variability and compensation at risk as an employee's level of responsibility increases. The philosophy is designed for fair pay based on an employee's role in the Company; the market value of their job; and their performance in that position. Opportunities for additional compensation rewards are offered when the Company meets or exceeds its targeted business objectives. The four core aspects of the Company's compensation philosophy are described below:

1. Market-driven. The Company's compensation programs will be structured to be competitive both in their design and in the total compensation they offer.
2. Shareholder-aligned. All employees of the Company will have some portion of their compensation aligned with the Company's stock price or with another approved measure of shareholder value creation.
3. Performance-based. All employees will have their compensation linked to a combination of Company, regional unit, operating unit, and/or individual performance. The specific measures of success that apply and the forms of compensation that are affected will vary by responsibilities and by position. Individual performance will be objectively assessed via a formal performance management process.
4. Values-oriented. The design and administration of the Company's compensation programs will be guided by, and supportive of, the Company's value and commitment to diversity. The Company's assessments of individual performance will measure results and the extent to which each employee is living the Company's values.

Compensation Program Components

In general, the Company compensates its executive officers through a combination of base salary, annual incentive compensation in the form of cash bonuses and long-term incentive compensation in the form of equity awards. The Compensation Committee regularly reviews the Company's executive compensation program to ensure that pay levels and incentive opportunities reflect the performance of the Company. For example, in 2004 the Compensation Committee directly engaged an outside compensation consultant to provide an independent analysis of the Company's compensation program for its Chief Executive Officer, President and Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer. The analysis completed by this independent consultant reflected base pay, levels of annual cash incentives and long-term equity incentive grants for a peer group of companies. The Compensation Committee targeted the 50th percentile of the peer group analyzed for evaluating individual compensation levels.

Generally, the Compensation Committee believes both the individual components of compensation, as well as total compensation, are equitable and competitive. Each element of the compensation program for executive officers is further explained below.

Base Salary. Base salary levels for the Company's executive officers are set generally to be competitive in relation to the salary levels of executive officers in other companies with the healthcare industry or other companies of comparable size, taking into consideration the position's complexity, responsibility and need for special expertise. In reviewing salaries in individual cases, the Company also takes into account individual experience and performance.

Annual Incentive Compensation. The Compensation Committee has historically structured bonuses as incentive compensation. Payment of bonuses have generally been dependent upon the Company's achievement of budgeted operating income targets and, to a lesser degree, individual bonuses based on individual's performance have also been awarded.

Other Compensation. In addition to cash and equity compensation programs, the executive officers participate in various other employee benefit plans. Executive officer participation in various clubs, organizations, and associations that may also be funded by the Company.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation. The Company provides long-term incentive compensation through its stock option plan. The number of shares covered by any grant is generally determined by the then-current stock price, subject in certain circumstances to vesting requirements. In special cases, however, grants may be made to reflect increased responsibilities or reward extraordinary performance.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. Mr. Borne's annual base salary is currently $400,000 per year, effective April 1, 2005, pursuant to his 2005 employment agreement.

Bonuses. In the discretion of the Board of Directors, Mr. Borne, Mr. Graham and Mr. Browne did not receive bonuses in respect of the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

Certain Tax Considerations

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (as amended) currently imposes a $1 million dollar limitation on the deductibility of certain compensation paid to the Company's executive officers. Excluded from the limitation is compensation that is performance based. For compensation to be performance based, it must meet certain criteria, including being based on predetermined objective performance standards. In general, the Company believes that the long-term stock option awards offered to executives qualify for exclusion from the $1 million limitation. Compensation paid in 2005 subject to the Section 162(m) cap is not expected to exceed $1 million for any officer. Therefore, the Committee believes that the Company will not be subject to any Section 162(m) limitations on the deductibility of compensation paid to the Company's Named Executive Officers for 2005.

The Compensation Committee continues to consider other steps which might be in the Company's best interests to comply with Section 162(m), while reserving the right to award future compensation which would not comply with the Section 162(m) requirements for nondeductibility if the Compensation Committee concluded that this was in the Company's best interests.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The following report of the Audit Committee does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Company filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Exchange Act, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates this report by reference therein.

The Audit Committee consists of five directors, each of whom has been determined by the Board to be independent within the meaning of applicable rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market and the SEC. The Audit Committee's responsibilities are detailed in its charter, which was reproduced as Appendix A to the Company's proxy statement for the annual meeting of stockholders held on June 10, 2004.

In carrying out its functions, the Committee provides independent and objective oversight of the performance of the Company's financial reporting process, system of internal controls and legal and regulatory compliance system. The Committee provides for open, ongoing communication among the independent accountants, financial and senior management, compliance officers and the Board concerning the Company's financial and compliance position and affairs. The Committee has the power to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within its scope of responsibilities and is empowered to retain independent counsel, accountants, or others to assist it in the conduct of any investigation. The Committee's responsibility is oversight, and it recognizes that the Company's management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements and complying with applicable laws and regulations.

The Committee met seven times during 2005. In overseeing the preparation of the Company's financial statements, the Audit Committee discussed with the Company's independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their audit. In addition, the Committee met with the Company's independent auditors, with and without management present, to review and discuss all financial statements prior to their issuance and to discuss significant accounting issues. Management advised the Committee that all financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the Committee reviewed and discussed the statements with both management and the independent auditors. The Committee's review included discussion with the independent auditors of matters required to be discussed pursuant to Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees). With respect to the Company's independent auditors, the Committee, among other things, discussed with KPMG LLP matters relating to its independence, including the written disclosures made to the Committee as required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). The Audit Committee has determined that the rendering of all permitted non-audit services by the Company's independent auditors is compatible with maintaining the auditor's independence. On the basis of these reviews and discussions, the Committee recommended to the Board that it approve the inclusion of the Company's audited financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 for filing with the SEC.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO 1998 STOCK OPTION PLAN

Our 1998 Stock Option Plan (the Plan) currently provides that up to 2,125,000 shares of Common Stock may be awarded in stock options and restricted stock, subject to adjustment as provided in the Plan. Under the Plan at April 17, 2006, 24,779 shares of restricted stock had been awarded and options to purchase 802,019 shares of Common Stock were outstanding.

We currently have total outstanding options or restricted stock with respect to 826,798 shares, which equals approximately 5.2 percent of our outstanding Common Stock or approximately 5.1 percent of our outstanding common stock plus shares available for issuance under the Plan. The Plan currently has 282,830 shares available for grant.

The purpose of the Plan is to increase stockholder value and to promote our long-term growth and profitability by furnishing incentives to strengthen the mutuality of interests between our directors, officers, other employees and stockholders.

The Board of Directors has approved a proposed amendment to the Plan that would increase the number of shares available under the Plan by 1,000,000 shares, to a total of 3,125,000 shares, subject to future adjustment as provided in the Plan. The Board has recommended this amendment so that it can continue to reward officers and other key employees with the opportunity to acquire a proprietary interest in our company as an additional incentive to promote our success and remain in our employ.

Adoption of the proposed amendment to the Plan requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares present or represented at the Meeting.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO AMEND THE PLAN.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Any stockholder who wants to present a proposal for consideration at our 2007 Annual Meeting should note that we must receive their proposal no earlier than March 10, 2007 and no later than April 9, 2007 in order for the proposal to be eligible for inclusion in our 2007 proxy statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting.

To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at our principal executive offices not later than the close of business on the 60th day nor earlier than the close of business on the 90th day before the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; except that if the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or more than 60 days after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the 90th day before such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 60th day before such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by us. Such notice shall set forth (a) as to any business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (b) as to the stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made (i) the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on our books, and of such beneficial owner and (ii) the class and number of shares of our Common Stock which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholder and such beneficial owner.

A stockholder must also comply with all applicable requirements of the Securities Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder. Nothing in the Bylaws, however, shall be deemed to affect any rights (i) of stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in our proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act or (ii) of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock to elect directors or propose other business under specified circumstances.

OTHER MATTERS

Management is not aware of any other matters to be presented for action at the Meeting.
