ITEM 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board, or FASB, issued FASB Staff Position, or FSP, No. AUG AIR-1, Accounting for Planned Major Maintenance Activities. This FSP prohibits companies from recognizing planned major maintenance costs under the accrue-in-advance method, which allowed the accrual of a liability over several reporting periods before the maintenance is performed. FSP AUG AIR-1 is applicable to entities in all industries for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006, and must be retrospectively applied. Adoption of this FSP did not have an effect on our annual 2006 financial condition and results of operations. However, prior to adoption of this FSP, we did use the accrue-in-advance method to recognize planned major maintenance costs for interim reporting periods.

The table attached as Exhibit 99.1 presents segment operating income (loss), net earnings and net earnings per diluted common share for all reporting periods in 2006, revised to reflect the adoption of FSP AUG AIR-1.

On March 30, 2007, we signed a definitive agreement with a private-equity tree farm investment fund for the sale of our hybrid poplar tree farm in Boardman, Oregon, for $65 million. In accordance with FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets, pre-tax operating losses for interim reporting periods and full year 2006 will be classified as discontinued operations in our Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income. Results for the Resource segment on the following table have therefore been revised to exclude operating results from the Boardman operation.

Reflected on the table attached as Exhibit 99.1 is a change in the name of one of our segments. Our previously named Land Sales and Development segment has been renamed the Real Estate segment. The change in the name was made to more accurately reflect the primary business functions of the segment, which are the sale of non-strategic timberland real estate and the acquisition of timberlands.

The information in this Form 8-K and the Exhibit attached hereto shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.
