Baidu Announces Second Quarter 2007 Results

Second Quarter 2007 Net Income Grows 143% Year-Over-Year

BEIJING, China, July 26, 2007 Baidu.com, Inc. (NASDAQ: BIDU), the leading Chinese language Internet search provider, today announced its unaudited financial results for the second quarter ended June 30, 2007¹.

Second Quarter 2007 Highlights

- Total revenues in the second quarter of 2007 increased to RMB401.3 million ($52.7 million), representing a 109.4% increase from the corresponding period in 2006.
- Net income in the second quarter of 2007 increased to RMB141.9 million ($18.6 million), representing a 142.7% increase from the corresponding period in 2006.
- Diluted earnings per share (EPS) for the second quarter of 2007 were RMB4.09 ($0.54); diluted EPS excluding share-based compensation expenses (non-GAAP) for the second quarter of 2007 were RMB4.34 ($0.57). Costs and expenses related to Baidu's Japan operations were RMB17.2 million ($2.3 million), which impacted diluted EPS by RMB0.50 ($0.07).
- The number of active online marketing customers during the second quarter grew to around 128,000, an increase of 14.3% from the previous quarter. Revenue per online marketing customer reached approximately RMB3,100 ($407.3), representing a sequential increase of 24.0%.

During the second quarter, we saw robust revenue growth and a healthy increase in online marketing customers, said Robin Li, Baidu's Chairman and CEO. These results reflect the successful implementation of strategic improvements made over the last two quarters and a growing recognition by Chinese businesses that Baidu's online marketing platform is a highly effective way to reach consumers.

Mr. Li added, We continued to focus on our long term strategic plan during the quarter by improving our product and service offerings for our customers and users. We also expanded our sales force in key geographic regions to reach a broader and constantly expanding market of new customers.

Shawn Wang, Baidu's CFO, said, In the second quarter, our enhanced product properties and improved customer service offerings contributed to our positive financial results and traffic growth.

The improvements we made during the past few quarters are generating excellent returns and we will continue to boost our investment in key areas of our business to ensure our growth over the long term, added Mr. Wang.

Second Quarter 2007 Results

Baidu reported total revenues of RMB401.3 million ($52.7 million) for the second quarter ended June 30, 2007, representing a 109.4% increase from the corresponding period in 2006.

Online marketing revenues for the second quarter were RMB400.6 million ($52.6 million), representing a 111.9% increase from the second quarter of 2006. The growth was driven by the increases in both the number of active online marketing customers and revenue per customer. Baidu had nearly 128,000 active online marketing customers in the second quarter of 2007, representing a sequential increase of 14.3% and an increase of 42.2% from the corresponding period in 2006. Revenue per online marketing customer for the second quarter of 2007 increased to approximately RMB3,100 ($407.3), representing a sequential increase of 24.0% and an increase of 47.6% from the corresponding period in 2006.

Traffic acquisition costs (TAC) as a component of cost of revenues was RMB44.9 million ($5.9 million), representing 11.2% of total revenues, compared to 9.2% in the corresponding period in 2006. The increase in TAC as a percentage of total revenues primarily reflects the continued growth of revenue contribution from Baidu Union members.

Bandwidth costs as a component of cost of revenues was RMB28.3 million ($3.7 million), representing 7.1% of total revenues, compared to 4.8% in the corresponding period in 2006. Depreciation costs as a component of cost of revenues was RMB33.9 million ($4.5 million), representing 8.5% of total revenues, compared to 6.4% in the corresponding period in 2006. The increase in bandwidth and depreciation costs as percentages of total revenues reflects expansion of network capacity to support Baidu's long-term growth.

Selling, general and administrative expenses were RMB93.7 million ($12.3 million), representing an increase of 59.6% from the corresponding period in 2006, primarily due to expansion of the direct sales force.

Research and development expenses were RMB31.8 million ($4.2 million), representing a 73.9% increase from the corresponding period in 2006, primarily due to headcount increases.

Share-based compensation expenses, which were allocated to related operating cost and expense line items, decreased in aggregate to RMB8.9 million ($1.2 million) in the second quarter of 2007 from RMB11.7 million in the corresponding period in 2006.

Costs and expenses related to Japan operations in the second quarter of 2007 were RMB17.2 million ($2.3 million) in aggregate.

Operating profit was RMB129.0 million ($16.9 million), representing a 122.4% increase from the corresponding period in 2006. Operating profit excluding share-based compensation expenses (non-GAAP) was RMB137.8 million ($18.1 million) for the second quarter of 2007, a 97.7% increase from the corresponding period in 2006.

Income tax expense was RMB1.8 million ($0.2 million).

Net income was RMB141.9 million ($18.6 million), representing a 142.7% increase from the corresponding period in 2006. Basic and diluted EPS for the second quarter of 2007 amounted to RMB4.19 ($0.55) and RMB4.09 ($0.54), respectively.

Net income excluding share-based compensation expenses (non-GAAP) was RMB150.8 million ($19.8 million), a 114.8% increase from the corresponding period in 2006. Basic and diluted EPS excluding share-based compensation expenses (non-GAAP) for the second quarter of 2007 were RMB4.45 ($0.58) and RMB4.34 ($0.57), respectively.

Table of Contents

As of June 30, 2007, Baidu's cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments amounted to RMB1.3 billion ($176.0 million). Net operating cash inflow and capital expenditures for the second quarter of 2007 were RMB277.0 million ($36.4 million) and RMB99.1 million ($13.0 million), respectively. The increase in capital expenditure was primarily due to capacity expansion.

Adjusted EBITDA (non-GAAP), which is defined in this announcement as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, other non-operating income and share-based compensation expenses, were RMB179.5 million ($23.6 million) for the second quarter of 2007, representing a 111.2% increase from the corresponding period in 2006.

Senior Management Hire

In June 2007, Mr. Haoyu Shen joined Baidu as the Vice President of Business Operations. Prior to joining Baidu, Mr. Shen held a number of senior managerial positions at American Express and also worked at McKinsey & Company.

Outlook for Third Quarter 2007

Baidu currently expects to generate total revenues in an amount ranging from RMB492 million ($64.6 million) to RMB506 million ($66.5 million) for the third quarter of 2007, representing a 106% to 111% increase from the corresponding period in 2006 and a 23% to 26% increase from the second quarter of 2007. This forecast reflects Baidu's current and preliminary view, which is subject to change.

Safe Harbor Statement

This announcement contains forward-looking statements. These statements are made under the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements can be identified by terminology such as will, expects, anticipates, future, intends, plans, believes, estimates and similar statements. Among other things, the outlook for third quarter 2007 and quotations from management in this announcement, as well as Baidu's strategic and operational plans, contain forward-looking statements. Baidu may also make written or oral forward-looking statements in its periodic reports to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, in its annual report to shareholders, in press releases and other written materials and in oral statements made by its officers, directors or employees to third parties. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about Baidu's beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties. A number of factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement, including but not limited to the following: our growth strategies; our future business development, results of operations and financial condition; our ability to attract and retain users and customers; competition in the Chinese language and Japanese language Internet search markets; competition for online marketing customers; changes in our revenues and certain cost or expense items as a percentage of our revenues; the outcome of ongoing, or any future, litigation or arbitration, including those relating to copyright and other intellectual property rights; the expected growth of the Chinese language and Japanese language Internet search markets and the number of Internet and broadband users in China; and Chinese governmental policies relating to the Internet and Internet content providers. Further information regarding these and other risks is included in our annual report on Form 20-F and other documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Baidu does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement, except as required under applicable law. All information provided in this press release and in the attachments is as of July 25, 2007, and Baidu undertakes no duty to update such information, except as required under applicable law.

About Non-GAAP Financial Measures

To supplement Baidu's consolidated financial results presented in accordance with GAAP, Baidu uses the following measures defined as non-GAAP financial measures by the SEC: adjusted EBITDA, operating profit excluding share-based compensation expenses, net income excluding share-based compensation expenses, and basic and diluted EPS excluding share-based compensation expenses. The presentation of these non-GAAP financial measures is not intended to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with GAAP. For more information on these non-GAAP financial measures, please see the tables captioned

Reconciliations of non-GAAP results of operations measures to the nearest comparable GAAP measures and Reconciliation from net cash provided by operating activities to adjusted EBITDA set forth at the end of this release.

Baidu believes that these non-GAAP financial measures provide meaningful supplemental information regarding its performance and liquidity by excluding certain expenses and expenditures that may not be indicative of its operating performance from a cash perspective. We believe that both management and investors benefit from referring to these non-GAAP financial measures in assessing our performance and when planning and forecasting future periods. These non-GAAP financial measures also facilitate management's internal comparisons to Baidu's historical performance and liquidity. Baidu computes its non-GAAP financial measures using the same consistent method from quarter to quarter, except that the non-GAAP measures for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 reflected the one-time cumulative effect of change in accounting principle due to our adoption of SFAS 123(R) since January 1, 2006. We believe these non-GAAP financial measures are useful to investors in allowing for greater transparency with respect to supplemental information used by management in its financial and operational decision making. A limitation of using non-GAAP operating profit excluding share-based compensation expenses, net income excluding share-based compensation expenses, and basic and diluted EPS excluding share-based compensation expenses is that these non-GAAP measures exclude share-based compensation charge that has been and will continue to be for the foreseeable future a significant recurring expense in our business. A limitation of using non-GAAP Adjusted EBITDA is that it does not include all items that impact our net income for the period. Management compensates for these limitations by providing specific information regarding the GAAP amounts excluded from each non-GAAP measure. The accompanying tables have more details on the reconciliations between GAAP financial measures that are most directly comparable to non-GAAP financial measures.
