Adoption of 2009 Executive Bonus Program

On January 15, 2009, the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors of VMware, Inc. (the Company) adopted the Company's 2009 executive bonus program (the 2009 Program) under its 2007 Equity and Incentive Plan for its President and Chief Executive Officer, Paul Maritz, and other executive officers, including Maurizio Carli, Carl Eschenbach, Rashmi Garde, Tod Nielsen and Mark Peek. The 2009 Program provides for the payment of cash incentive bonuses upon achievement of certain corporate and individual performance objectives to be established by the Committee.

The Committee also established target bonus amounts. Mr. Maritz's bonus target was set at 100% of his base salary. Bonus targets ranging from 50% to 100% of officer base salaries were assigned to other officers. For the first half of 2009, 75% of the bonus target will be tied to the achievement of corporate goals based on VMware's financial performance and 25% of the bonus target is tied to the achievement of individual Management by Objectives, or MBO, plan goals established for each officer. Bonus payments are based on semi-annual performance. If a minimum of at least 80% of the corporate performance targets are not met, then no bonus amounts will be paid. The calculated bonus amount will vary up to a maximum payment of 200% of the bonus target depending on the level of achievement of corporate and MBO goals during the performance period, subject to the discretion of the Committee to reduce the amount payable.
