At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider the merger of Parkvale Financial Corporation (PFC) with and into F.N.B. Corporation (FNB) pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 15, 2011, by and between PFC and FNB (the merger agreement). Upon completion of the merger contemplated by the merger agreement, you will be entitled to receive 2.178 shares of FNB common stock for each share of common stock of PFC that you own immediately prior to the merger. FNB common stock is quoted on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol FNB. PFC common stock is quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol PVSA.

Shareholders are also being asked to approve, on a non-binding, advisory basis, the compensation that will or may be payable to the named executive officers of PFC upon consummation of the merger. You will also be asked to approve the authorization of the Board of Directors to adjourn the special meeting to a later date, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of approval of the merger agreement.

After careful consideration, our Board of Directors has declared unanimously that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are advisable. Our Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement, FOR approval of the advisory, non-binding resolution on compensation to our named executive officers and FOR the approval of the adjournment, postponement or continuation of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND OUR SPECIAL MEETING

Q. Why am I receiving this document?

- A. FNB and PFC have agreed to combine under the terms of a merger agreement that is described in this proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. In order to complete the merger, PFC shareholders must vote to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger. PFC will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to obtain this approval. This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, the special meeting of PFC shareholders and other related matters, and you should read it carefully. The enclosed voting materials for the special meeting allow you to vote your shares of PFC common stock without attending the special meeting.

We are delivering this proxy statement/prospectus to you as both a proxy statement of PFC and a prospectus of FNB. It is a proxy statement because the board of directors of PFC is soliciting proxies from PFC shareholders to vote on the approval of the merger agreement at a special meeting of shareholders, and your proxy will be used at the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. It is a prospectus because FNB will issue its common stock to PFC shareholders as consideration for their shares of PFC common stock in connection with completion of the merger, and this prospectus also contains information about FNB common stock.

Q. What items of business will we ask our shareholders to consider at our special meeting?

- A. At our special meeting, we will ask our shareholders to vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement providing for our merger with and into FNB. We sometimes refer to this proposal as the merger proposal in this proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, our shareholders will be asked to cast an advisory (non-binding) vote on the golden parachute compensation payable to the named executive officers of PFC in connection with the merger. We sometimes refer to this proposal as the golden parachute proposal in this proxy statement/prospectus. Lastly, we will ask our shareholders to vote in favor of a proposal to adjourn our special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if we have not received sufficient votes to adopt the merger agreement at the time of our special meeting. We sometimes refer to this proposal as the adjournment proposal in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q. What will I receive in exchange for my PFC shares if the merger is completed?

- A. Upon completion of the merger, you will have the right to receive 2.178 shares of FNB common stock in exchange for each share of our common stock. FNB will pay cash in lieu of issuing fractional shares of FNB common stock.

Q. What does our board of directors recommend?

- A. Our board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger is fair to you and in your and our best interests and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement, FOR approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the golden parachute proposal and FOR approval of the adjournment proposal.

In making this determination, our board of directors considered the opinion of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., or KBW, our independent financial advisor, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the FNB shares you will receive pursuant to the merger agreement. Our board of directors also reviewed and evaluated the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and the merger with the assistance of our independent legal counsel.

Q. What was the opinion of our financial advisor?

- A. KBW presented an opinion to our board of directors to the effect that, as of June 15, 2011, and based upon the assumptions KBW made, the matters it considered and the limitations on its review as set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration provided for in the merger agreement is fair to you from a financial point of view.

Table of Contents

Q. When do you expect to complete the merger?

A. We anticipate that it is more probable than not we will obtain all necessary regulatory approvals, and be able to consummate the merger, in early January 2012. However, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur. We must first obtain the requisite approval of our shareholders at our special meeting and we and FNB must obtain the requisite regulatory approvals to complete the merger.

Q. What happens if the merger is not completed?

A. If the merger is not completed, holders of PFC common stock will not receive any consideration for their shares in connection with the merger. Instead, PFC will remain an independent public company and its common stock will continue to be listed and traded on The NASDAQ Global Select Market, which is referred to as NASDAQ.

Q. Why am I being asked to cast an advisory (non-binding) vote to approve the golden parachute compensation payable to certain PFC officers in connection with the merger?

A. The Securities and Exchange Commission, in accordance with the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, recently adopted rules that require PFC to seek an advisory (non-binding) vote with respect to certain payments that will or may be made to PFC's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

Q. What will happen if PFC shareholders do not approve the golden parachute compensation at the special meeting?

A. Approval of the golden parachute compensation payable in connection with the merger is not a condition to completion of the merger. The vote with respect to the golden parachute compensation is an advisory vote and will not be binding on PFC (or the combined company that results from the merger) regardless of whether the merger agreement is approved. Accordingly, as the compensation to be paid to the PFC executives in connection with the merger is contractual, such compensation will or may be payable if the merger is completed regardless of the outcome of the advisory vote.

Q. When and where is the PFC special meeting?

A. The PFC special meeting will be held at the Parkvale Bank Building, 4220 William Penn Highway, Monroeville, Pennsylvania 15146 on Thursday, December 15, 2011 at 10:00 a.m., local time.

Q. Who can vote at the PFC special meeting?

A. Holders of PFC common stock as of the close of business on October 20, 2011, which is referred to as the record date, are entitled to vote at the PFC special meeting. Beneficial owners of shares of PFC common stock as of the record date should receive instructions from their bank, broker or nominee describing how to vote their shares.

Holders of PFC's Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A, or the PFC Preferred Stock, which was issued to the U.S. Department of the Treasury, or the U.S. Treasury, under the Capital Purchase Program of the Troubled Asset Relief Program, which is referred to as the TARP, will not have the right to vote on the merger and the merger agreement. According to the terms of the PFC Preferred Stock, the holder of such stock does not have the right to vote on the merger and the merger agreement as long as the shares of PFC Preferred Stock are converted into or exchanged for preference securities of the surviving or resulting entity or its ultimate parent, and such preference securities have rights, preferences, privileges and voting powers, and limitations and restrictions thereof, which, taken as a whole, are not materially less favorable than the rights, preferences, privileges and voting powers, and limitations and restrictions thereof, of the PFC Preferred Stock immediately prior to the completion of the merger, taken as a whole.

Q. What is the quorum requirement for the PFC special meeting?

- A. The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of at least a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock on the record date is necessary to constitute a quorum at our special meeting. All shares of PFC common stock that are present in person or by proxy, including abstentions and broker non-votes, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for all matters voted on at the PFC special meeting.

Q. What vote is required to approve each proposal at the PFC special meeting?

- A. Approval of each proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all of our shareholders entitled to vote thereon at a shareholders meeting at which a quorum is present. A vote by the U.S. Treasury, as the sole holder of the PFC Preferred Stock, is not required to approve the merger.

Q. Why is my vote important?

- A. Under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law, or the PBCL, and our articles of incorporation, adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the golden parachute proposal and the adjournment proposal require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all of the shareholders of PFC entitled to vote thereon at a shareholders meeting at which a quorum is present.

Q. What do I need to do now?

- A. You should first carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus, including the appendices and the documents FNB and PFC incorporate by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information in this proxy statement/prospectus. After you have decided how you wish to vote your shares, please vote by submitting your proxy using one of the methods described below.

Q. How do I vote my shares?

- A. If you are a shareholder of record on October 20, 2011, you may have your shares of PFC common stock voted on the matters presented at the special meeting in any of the following ways:

by proxy shareholders of record may vote by proxy by signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope; or in person you may attend the special meeting and cast your vote there.

If you are a beneficial owner, please refer to the instructions provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee regarding how to vote your shares. Please note that if you are a beneficial owner and wish to vote in person at the special meeting, you must provide a legal proxy from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee at the special meeting.

Q. What does it mean if I get more than one proxy card?

Edgar Filing: FNB CORP/FL/ - Form S-4/A

- A. It means you have multiple accounts at the transfer agent and/or with brokers. Please sign and return all proxy cards to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q. What if I do not specify how I want to vote my shares on my proxy card?

- A. If you submit a signed proxy card but do not indicate how you want your shares voted, the persons named in the proxy card will vote your shares:

FOR adoption of the merger agreement;

FOR approval on an advisory (non-binding) basis of the golden parachute compensation payable to our named executive officers in connection with the merger; and

FOR approval of the adjournment of our special meeting, if necessary.

Our board of directors does not currently intend to bring any other proposals before our special meeting. If other proposals requiring a vote of shareholders properly come before our special meeting, the persons named in the enclosed proxy card will vote the shares they represent on any such other proposal in accordance with their judgment.

Q. If my shares of PFC common stock are held in street name by my bank, broker or other nominee, will my bank, broker or other nominee vote my shares for me?

A. You should instruct your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of PFC common stock. If you do not instruct your bank, broker or other nominee, your bank, broker or other nominee will not be able to vote your shares. Please check with your bank, broker or other nominee and follow the voting procedures your bank, broker or other nominee provides.

Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, or NYSE, banks, brokers and other nominees may not vote shares of our common stock that they hold of record for a beneficial owner either for or against adoption of the merger agreement, approval on an advisory (non-binding) basis of golden parachute compensation payable to our named executive officers in connection with the merger, or approval of the adjournment proposal without specific instructions from the beneficial owner of those shares. Therefore, if a bank, broker or other nominee holds your shares you must give your bank, broker, or other nominee instructions on how to vote your shares. Abstentions, if any, and broker non-votes, if any, are counted as present for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. Once a quorum for a meeting is established, abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted in the voting results and will have no effect on the outcome of the proposals to adopt the merger agreement, approve on an advisory (non-binding) basis the golden parachute compensation payable to PFC's named executive officers, and approve adjournment of the special meeting.

Q. What if I fail to instruct my bank, broker or other nominee how to vote?

A. Your bank, broker or other nominee may not vote your shares without instructions from you. You should follow the instructions you will receive from your bank, broker or other nominee and instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how you want to vote your shares.

Q. May I change my vote after I have voted?

A. Yes. You may revoke your proxy at any time before we take the vote at our special meeting by:

submitting a properly executed, later dated proxy by mail prior to the voting of your earlier proxy at our special meeting;

submitting written notice of revocation to our corporate secretary prior to the voting of that proxy at our special meeting; or voting in person at our special meeting.

However, simply attending our special meeting without voting will not revoke any proxy you previously submitted.

If you hold your shares in street name (that is, in the name of a bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record), you should follow the instructions of the bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record regarding the revocation of proxies.

- Q. How do I vote the shares of common stock that I hold through the Parkvale Financial Corporation Employee Stock Ownership Plan?
- A. If you are a participant in the Parkvale Financial Corporation Employee Stock Ownership Plan, or the ESOP, you should follow the voting procedures provided to you by the trustee of the ESOP. The trustee will vote your shares according to your instructions. The trustee otherwise will not vote shares of PFC common stock held in the ESOP for which no instructions have been received, unless the trustee determines that compliance with the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, the trustee's fiduciary duties or the Employer ESOP Voting Policy requires the trustee to vote those shares.

Q. Should I send my stock certificates now?

- A. No. Holders of our common stock should not submit their stock for exchange until they receive the transmittal instructions from the Exchange Agent.

Q. What if I oppose the merger?

- A. If you are a shareholder who objects to the merger, you may vote against adoption of the merger agreement. However, under Pennsylvania law, you will not be entitled to dissenters' appraisal rights. See Risk Factors Relating to the Merger Risk Specifically Related to the Merger PFC shareholders do not have dissenters' appraisal rights in the merger on page 29.

Q. Who can answer my questions?

- A. If you have additional questions about the merger or would like additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus, please call Gilbert A. Riazzi, our Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, at (412) 373-4804, or call Regan & Associates, Inc., the proxy soliciting firm we have retained, at (800) 737-3426.

Our Special Meeting

This section contains information for our shareholders about the special meeting of shareholders we have called to consider adoption of the merger agreement and related matters.

General (Page 42)

We have mailed this proxy statement/prospectus and the enclosed form of proxy to you for use at our special meeting and any adjournment or postponement of our special meeting.

When and Where We Will Hold Our Special Meeting (Page 42)

We will hold our special meeting on Thursday, December 15, 2011, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Parkvale Bank Building, 4220 William Penn Highway, Monroeville, Pennsylvania 15146, subject to any adjournment or postponement of our special meeting.

The Matters Our Shareholders Will Consider (Page 42)

The purpose of our special meeting is to consider and vote upon:

Proposal 1 A proposal to adopt the merger agreement between FNB and us;

Proposal 2 An advisory (non-binding) proposal to approve the golden parachute compensation payable to the named executive officers of PFC in connection with the merger;

Proposal 3 A proposal to grant discretionary authority to our board of directors to adjourn our special meeting if necessary to permit us to solicit additional proxies from our shareholders in the event a quorum is present at our special meeting but there are insufficient votes to adopt the merger agreement; and

Such other business as may properly come before our special meeting and any adjournment or postponement of our special meeting. Our shareholders must approve Proposal 1 for the merger to occur. If our shareholders fail to approve this proposal, the merger will not occur.

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, our board of directors is not aware of any other matter, other than those set forth above, that a shareholder may present for action at our special meeting. If a shareholder properly presents another matter, the proxies will vote in accordance with their judgment with respect to any such other matter.

Record Date; Shares Outstanding and Entitled to Vote (Page 42)

Our board of directors has fixed the close of business on October 20, 2011 as the record date for the determination of holders of our common stock entitled to notice of, and to vote at, our special meeting and any adjournment or postponement of our special meeting.

On the record date, we had 5,582,846 issued and outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at our special meeting, held by approximately 300 holders of record. Each holder is entitled to cast one vote for each share of our common stock held on all matters that are properly submitted to our shareholders at our special meeting.

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of at least a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock on the record date is necessary to constitute a quorum at our special meeting. All shares of PFC common stock that are present in person or by proxy, including abstentions and broker non-votes, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for all matters voted on at the PFC special meeting. A quorum must be present in order for the votes on adoption of the merger agreement, approval on an advisory (non-binding) basis of golden parachute compensation payable to our named executive officers in connection with the merger, and the adjournment proposal to occur.

Based on the number of shares of our common stock issued and outstanding as of the record date, 2,791,424 shares of our common stock must be present in person or represented by proxy at our special meeting to constitute a quorum.

Shareholder Vote Required (Page 43)

Adoption of the Merger Agreement. The adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of our common stock entitled to vote thereon at a shareholders' meeting at which a quorum is present. Accordingly, we urge you to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

When considering our board of directors' recommendation that you vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement, you should be aware that certain of our executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, your and their interests as shareholders. See Proposal No. 1 Proposal to Adopt the Merger Agreement Interests of PFC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 65.

Advisory (Non-binding) Vote Regarding Golden Parachute Compensation. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of our common stock entitled to vote thereon at a shareholders' meeting at which a quorum is present, is required to approve on an advisory (non-binding) basis, PFC's golden parachute compensation payable to the named executive officers of PFC in connection with the merger.

Discretionary Authority to Adjourn Our Special Meeting. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of our common stock entitled to vote on the adjournment proposal is required to approve the proposal to grant discretionary authority to our board of directors to adjourn our special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies from our shareholders in the event a quorum is present at our special meeting but there are insufficient votes to adopt the merger agreement.

Director and Executive Officer Voting (Page 43)

As of the record date, our directors and executive officers and their affiliates beneficially owned 916,994 shares of our common stock, or approximately 16.4% of the issued and outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at our special meeting. Each of our directors has entered into a voting agreement with FNB that provides such person will vote for adoption of the merger agreement.

Voting. You should complete and return the proxy card accompanying this proxy statement/prospectus in order to ensure that we can count your vote at our special meeting and at any adjournment or postponement of our special meeting, regardless of whether you plan to attend our special meeting. If you sign and return your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, we will count your proxy card as a vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement, in favor of the advisory (non-binding) golden parachute proposal and in favor of approval of the adjournment proposal.

If you hold your shares of our common stock in the name of a bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record, the bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record will send you instructions that you must follow in order to vote your shares of our common stock.

Revocability. You may revoke your proxy at any time before we take the vote at our special meeting. If you have not voted through a bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record, you may revoke your proxy by:

submitting a properly executed proxy with a later date;

submitting written notice of revocation to our corporate secretary prior to the voting of that proxy at our special meeting; or voting in person at our special meeting.

However, simply attending our special meeting without voting will not revoke an earlier proxy.

You should address written notices of revocation and other communications regarding the revocation of your proxy to:

Parkvale Financial Corporation

4220 William Penn Highway

Monroeville, Pennsylvania 15146

Attention: Deborah M. Cardillo, Corporate Secretary

If you hold your shares in the name of a bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record, you should follow the instructions you will receive from the bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record regarding the revocation of proxies.

The death or incapacity of a shareholder executing a proxy will not revoke the proxy unless our corporate secretary receives notice of the death or incapacity of such shareholder before our proxies vote such shares.

How We Count Proxy Votes. We will vote all shares of our common stock represented by properly executed proxy cards that we receive before the voting concludes at our special meeting, and which have not been revoked, in accordance with the instructions you indicate on the proxy card.

We will count the shares represented by a properly executed proxy card marked ABSTAIN as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Under the rules of the NYSE, banks, brokers and other nominees may not vote shares of our common stock that they hold of record for a beneficial owner either for or against adoption of the merger agreement, approval on an advisory (non-binding) basis of golden parachute compensation payable to our named executive officers in connection with the merger, or approval of the adjournment proposal without specific instructions from the beneficial owner of those shares. Therefore, if a broker holds your shares you must give your broker instructions on how to vote your shares. Abstentions, if any, and broker non-votes, if any, are counted as present for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. Once a quorum for a meeting is established, abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted in the voting results and will have no effect on the outcome of the proposals to adopt the merger agreement, approve on an advisory (non-binding) basis the golden parachute compensation payable to PFC's named executive officers, and approve adjournment of the special meeting.

Solicitation. We will pay the costs of our special meeting and for the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus to our shareholders, as well as all other costs we incur in connection with the solicitation of proxies from our shareholders. However, FNB and we will share equally the cost of printing this proxy statement/prospectus and the filing fees FNB pays to the SEC.

In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, our directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies by telephone or in person. We will not specially compensate our directors, officers and employees for these activities. We also intend to request that brokers, banks, nominees and other holders of record solicit proxies from their principals, and we will reimburse the brokers, banks, nominees and other holders of record for certain expenses they incur for those activities.

We have retained the firm of Regan & Associates, Inc. to assist us in the solicitation of proxies, and we have agreed to pay Regan & Associates, Inc. an engagement fee of $7,500 for its services.

Recommendations of Our Board of Directors (Page 45)

Our board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions the merger agreement contemplates. Based on our reasons for the merger that we describe in this proxy statement/prospectus, our board of directors believes that the merger is in our and your best interests. Accordingly, our board of directors unanimously recommends that our shareholders vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement, FOR approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the golden parachute compensation payable to the named executive officers of PFC in connection with the merger and FOR approval of the adjournment proposal. See Proposal No. 1 Proposal to Adopt the Merger Agreement Recommendation of PFC's Board and PFC's Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 50, Proposal No. 2 Advisory (Non-binding) Vote on Golden Parachute beginning on page 113, and Proposal No. 3 Adjournment Proposal Recommendation of Our Board of Directors beginning on page 114 for a more detailed discussion of our board of directors' recommendations.

Attending Our Special Meeting (Page 45)

If you hold your shares in street name and you want to attend our special meeting, you must bring an account statement or letter from your holder of record showing that you were the beneficial owner of the shares at the close of business on October 20, 2011, the record date for our special meeting.

The Merger

Upon consummation of the merger:

Each share of our common stock will automatically convert into and become the right to receive, subject to the provisions in the merger agreement, 2.178 shares of FNB common stock.

We will cease to exist as a separate legal entity and our business will be combined with FNB s, with FNB continuing as the surviving entity.

Opinion of PFC s Financial Advisor in Connection with the Merger (Page 54)

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., our financial advisor in connection with the merger, delivered a written fairness opinion to our board of directors on June 15, 2011, the date we executed the merger agreement, to the effect that as of June 15, 2011, and, based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in KBW s opinion, the merger consideration in the merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of shares of our common stock.

Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus sets forth the full text of the KBW opinion, which includes the assumptions KBW made, the procedures KBW followed, the matters KBW considered and the limitations on the review KBW undertook in connection with its opinion. KBW provided its opinion for the information and assistance of our board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger. The KBW opinion is not a recommendation as to how you should vote with respect to the merger or any related matter. We encourage you to read the KBW opinion in its entirety.

In considering the recommendations of our board of directors that you vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement, FOR approval of the golden parachute proposal and FOR approval of the adjournment proposal, you should be aware that certain of our executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, your and their interests as a shareholder. These interests relate to or arise from, among other things:

the continued indemnification of our current and former directors and executive officers under the merger agreement and providing these individuals with directors and officers insurance for six years after the merger;

the potential receipt of payments by certain of our executive officers pursuant to employment or change in control agreements with us;

the continuation of certain benefits for our executive officers and directors;

the provision in the merger agreement that, for purposes of assisting with a smooth transition of the operation of PFC and its subsidiaries, either FNB or one of its subsidiaries agrees to offer employment on an at-will basis to certain of our executive officers and employees following the effective time of the merger;

Edgar Filing: FNB CORP/FL/ - Form S-4/A

the appointment of Robert J. McCarthy, Jr., our President and Chief Executive Officer, to the board of directors of the combined company upon completion of the merger; and the appointment of a member of our or PFC Bank's board of directors, who is mutually agreeable to FNB and us, to the board of directors of the combined bank upon completion of the merger, with such person to be determined.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger and the Bank Merger (Page 71)

FNB and PFC need the prior approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency to complete the merger and approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking to complete the bank merger. During the OCC approval process and for a period of 30 days after such approval, the merger may be challenged by the U.S. Department of Justice. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, FNB and PFC have filed all necessary applications and notices with the OCC and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking. FNB and we anticipate that the request for the requisite Federal Reserve Board clearances will be submitted in early November 2011. There can be no assurance that the regulatory authorities named above will approve the merger or the bank merger.

No Dissenters' Rights (Page 75)

Dissenters' rights are statutory rights that, if available under law, enable shareholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. Dissenters' rights are not available in all circumstances, and exceptions to these rights are provided under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended. As a result of one of these exceptions, the holders of the PFC common stock are not entitled to dissenters' rights in the merger.

Litigation Related to the Merger (Page 75)

Certain litigation is pending or has been threatened in connection with the merger. On November 2, 2011, solely to avoid the costs, risks and uncertainties inherent in litigation, PFC and the other named defendants entered into a memorandum of understanding to settle the pending lawsuit. See Proposal No. 1 Proposal to Adopt the Merger Agreement Litigation Related to the Merger beginning on page 75.

Treatment of PFC Stock Options (Page 77)

Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding option or similar right to acquire PFC common stock granted under any PFC equity plan will convert automatically into a fully vested and exercisable option to purchase a number of shares of FNB common stock equal to the number of shares of PFC common stock underlying such PFC stock option or similar right immediately prior to the merger multiplied by the exchange ratio (rounded down to the nearest whole share), with an exercise price that equals the exercise price of such PFC stock option or similar right immediately prior to the merger divided by the exchange ratio (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) and otherwise on the same terms and conditions as were in effect immediately prior to the completion of the merger.

Treatment of PFC Preferred Stock and TARP Warrant (Page 78)

The merger agreement provides that upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A, or the PFC Preferred Stock, will be converted into the right to receive one share of FNB preferred stock with substantially the same rights, powers and preferences as the PFC Preferred Stock, unless purchased or redeemed prior to the effective time of the merger. The outstanding warrant, or the PFC TARP Warrant, to purchase PFC common stock, which was issued on December 23, 2008 to the U.S. Treasury, will be converted into a warrant to purchase FNB common stock, subject to appropriate adjustments to reflect the exchange ratio. Subject to the receipt of requisite regulatory approvals, FNB and PFC have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to have the PFC Preferred Stock either purchased by FNB or one of its subsidiaries, in which case it is expected to be extinguished upon consummation of the merger, or redeemed by PFC. FNB also may elect to have the PFC TARP Warrant purchased or redeemed, but has no obligation to do so. There can be no certainty or guarantee as to the timing or occurrence of the redemption or repurchase of either the PFC Preferred Stock or the PFC TARP Warrant.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger (Page 78)

The closing of the merger will take place at a time and on the date specified by FNB and PFC, which will be no later than the fifth business day after the satisfaction or waiver of the closing conditions specified in the merger agreement. The merger will become effective when FNB and we file articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida and with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. FNB and PFC cannot be certain whether or when any of the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, where permissible. We currently expect to complete the merger in early January 2012; however, because the merger is subject to these conditions, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur.

Exchange and Payment Procedures (Page 78)

As promptly as practicable following the effective time of the merger, FNB will deposit with Registrar and Transfer Company, or the Exchange Agent, book entry shares representing the aggregate number of shares of FNB capital stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement in exchange for the shares of PFC capital stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, as well as immediately available funds equal to any dividends or distributions payable to PFC shareholders in accordance with the merger agreement, and cash to be paid to PFC shareholders in lieu of fractional shares of FNB common stock.

As soon as practicable after the effective time of the merger, and in no event more than five business days after the effective time of the merger, the Exchange Agent will mail each holder of record of PFC capital stock a letter of transmittal containing instructions for surrendering certificates representing shares of PFC capital stock in exchange for the merger consideration or cash in lieu of fractional shares. After the effective time of the merger, each holder of a PFC stock certificate, other than certificates representing treasury shares (as defined in the merger agreement), who has surrendered such certificate, together with duly executed transmittal materials, to the Exchange Agent, will be entitled to receive, for each share of our common stock, 2.178 shares of FNB common stock in book entry form and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of FNB common stock to which such holder is otherwise entitled. FNB will have no obligation to deliver the merger consideration or cash in lieu of fractional shares to any PFC shareholder until the PFC shareholder surrenders his certificates representing his shares of PFC capital stock.

Currently, we anticipate it is more likely than not we will be able to complete the merger in early January 2012. However, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur. As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the merger agreement, the completion of the merger depends on the satisfaction of a number of conditions or, where legally permissible, the waiver of those conditions. These conditions include, among others:

adoption of the merger agreement by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all of our shareholders entitled to vote thereon at a shareholders meeting at which a quorum is present;

the receipt and effectiveness of all regulatory approvals FNB and we need to complete the merger, including approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, or the OCC, approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or the Federal Reserve Board, approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking, or the Department, and approval of the listing on the NYSE of the shares of FNB common stock to be issued upon the merger to our shareholders as merger consideration;

the absence of any law, statute, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order in effect by any court or other governmental entity that prevents, prohibits or makes illegal completion of the transactions the merger agreement contemplates; and the receipt at closing of updated legal opinions from FNB's and our legal counsel as to the qualification of the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code.

Neither FNB nor we can be certain when, or if, FNB and we will satisfy or waive the conditions to the merger, or that FNB and we will complete the merger.

FNB and we may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even if our shareholders have already voted to adopt the merger agreement, if our board of directors and the board of directors of FNB approve the termination.

Either FNB or we may terminate the merger agreement under certain conditions contained in the merger agreement, even if our shareholders have already voted to adopt the merger agreement. These conditions include:

if the approval of a governmental entity, which is required for completion of the merger, is denied by final and non-appealable action, unless the denial by such governmental entity is due to the failure of the terminating party to perform its obligations under the merger agreement;

if the merger has not been completed by April 30, 2012, unless the failure to complete the merger by that date is due to the terminating party's failure to perform its obligations under the merger agreement;

if there is a breach of the merger agreement by the other party that would cause the failure of the closing conditions described above, and the breach cannot be or has not been cured by the earlier of April 30, 2012 or 30 days after receipt of written notice of the breach; or if the requisite shareholder vote in connection with the merger agreement is not obtained at our shareholders' meeting (or any adjournment or postponement of that meeting), except that we may not exercise this termination right if we have materially breached our obligation to call a shareholders' meeting to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger as soon as reasonably practicable after this proxy statement/prospectus is declared effective by the SEC, or our board of directors fails to recommend the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and the merger or to include such recommendation in our proxy statement to our shareholders;

FNB may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to our special meeting if:

our board of directors changes, withdraws, modifies or conditions its recommendation of the merger agreement and the merger in a manner adverse to FNB, except as permitted by the merger agreement with respect to a proposal to acquire us on terms and conditions superior to the terms and conditions on which FNB and we have agreed to merge in the merger agreement;

our board of directors has recommended approval of another acquisition proposal; or we fail to convene and hold our special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

We may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to our special meeting in order to enter into an agreement relating to an acquisition proposal that has terms and conditions superior to the terms and conditions on which we and FNB have agreed to merge.

Except as provided below with respect to termination fees and expenses and the parties' respective confidentiality obligations, in the event FNB or we terminate the merger agreement, neither party will have any liability or obligation to the other party except for liabilities or damages either of us incur as a result of our willful breach of any of our respective representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement.

The merger agreement provides that we will pay FNB a break-up fee of $6.0 million under certain circumstances set forth below:

if FNB terminates the merger agreement prior to our special meeting because our board of directors changes, withdraws, modifies, qualifies or conditions its recommendation of the merger agreement and the merger in a manner adverse to FNB, except as permitted by the merger agreement with respect to a proposal to acquire us on terms and conditions superior to the terms and conditions on which FNB and we have agreed to merge in the merger agreement;

if we had terminated the merger agreement and accepted an acquisition proposal that was a superior proposal prior to the date we mailed this proxy statement/prospectus, provided that we had given FNB an opportunity to adjust the terms of the merger agreement such that the acquisition proposal no longer was a superior proposal, but our board of directors had determined that the acquisition proposal remained a superior proposal;

the termination of the merger agreement following the commencement of a tender offer or exchange offer for 25% or more of our common stock and we have not sent to our shareholders, within 10 days after the commencement of such offer, a statement that our board of directors recommends the rejection of such tender offer or exchange offer; or the occurrence of any of the following events within 12 months after the termination of the merger agreement by FNB, provided that a third party makes a proposal to acquire us after June 15, 2011 and does not withdraw its proposal prior to termination of the merger agreement:

we enter into an agreement to merge with or be acquired by that third party;

that third party acquires substantially all of our assets; or that third party acquires more than 50% of our common stock.

The merger agreement also provides that upon termination:

by us because FNB breached its representations, warranties, covenants, agreements or other obligations in the merger agreement, such that the conditions to our obligation to close would not be satisfied, and which breach cannot be or is not cured, assuming we are also not in material breach of our obligations under the merger agreement, FNB will pay our out-of-pocket expenses in connection with the merger, including fees and expenses of legal counsel, financial advisors and accountants, up to a maximum of $500,000; and by FNB because we breached our representations, warranties, covenants, agreements or other obligations in the merger agreement, such that the conditions to FNB's obligation to close would not be satisfied, and which breach cannot be or is not cured, assuming FNB is also not in material breach of its obligations under the merger agreement, we will pay FNB's out-of-pocket expenses in connection with the merger, including fees and expenses of legal counsel, financial advisors and accountants, up to a maximum of $500,000, provided, however, that we do not have to pay FNB's expenses if we have paid the break-up fee to FNB.

Edgar Filing: FNB CORP/FL/ - Form S-4/A

FNB and we intend that the merger will qualify for United States federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. If the merger qualifies as a reorganization, each holder who receives FNB common stock in the merger generally will not recognize gain or loss except to the extent of cash received in lieu of fractional shares. See Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 93 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Upon the completion of the merger, the Florida Business Corporation Act, or the FBCA, as well as FNB's articles of incorporation and bylaws, will govern the rights of our shareholders who become FNB shareholders by reason of the merger, instead of the PBCL and our articles of incorporation and bylaws.

Comparative Market Prices and Dividends (Page 110)

FNB common stock is listed on the NYSE under the symbol FNB. Prices for our common stock are quoted on NASDAQ under the symbol PVSA. UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information combines the historical consolidated financial position and results of operations of FNB and its subsidiaries and of PFC and its subsidiaries, as an acquisition by FNB of PFC using the acquisition method of accounting and giving effect to the related pro forma adjustments described in the accompanying notes. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of PFC will be recorded by FNB at their respective fair values as of the date the merger is completed. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet gives effect to the merger, as if the transaction had occurred on December 31, 2010. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated income statements for the year ended December 31, 2010 and for the six months ended June 30, 2011 gives effect to the merger as if the transaction had become effective at January 1, 2010. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated income statement for the year ended December 31, 2010 also gives effect to the merger of Comm Bancorp, Inc. with and into FNB, which was completed on January 1, 2011.

The merger was announced on June 15, 2011, and the merger agreement provides that each outstanding share of PFC common stock other than shares of PFC common stock that FNB, its subsidiaries and PFC's subsidiaries hold and shares that PFC holds as treasury shares, will become, by operation of law, the right to receive 2.178 shares of FNB common stock. The merger agreement provides that shares of the PFC Preferred Stock will be converted into the right to receive one share of FNB preferred stock with substantially the same rights, powers and preferences as the PFC Preferred, and that the outstanding PFC TARP Warrant to purchase PFC common stock, which was issued on December 23, 2008 to the U.S. Treasury, will be converted into a warrant to purchase FNB common stock, subject to appropriate adjustments to reflect the exchange ratio. Subject to the receipt of requisite regulatory approvals, FNB intends to purchase, or fund PFC's redemption of, the PFC Preferred Stock held by the U.S. Treasury prior to or concurrently with the completion of the merger, in which case the PFC Preferred Stock is expected to be extinguished upon consummation of the merger. There can be no certainty or guarantee as to the timing or occurrence of the redemption or purchase of the PFC Preferred Stock and accordingly, the effect of the purchase by FNB or redemption by PFC of the PFC Preferred Stock has not been reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the historical consolidated financial statements and the related notes of both FNB and PFC, which are incorporated in the document by reference. See Where You Can Find More Information on page 116.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements included herein are presented for informational purposes only and do not necessarily reflect the financial results of the combined company had the companies actually been combined at the beginning of each period presented. The adjustments included in these unaudited pro forma condensed financial statements are preliminary and may be revised. This information also does not reflect the benefits of the expected cost savings and expense efficiencies, opportunities to earn additional revenue, potential impacts of current market conditions on revenues, or asset dispositions, among other factors, and includes various preliminary estimates and may not necessarily be indicative of the financial position or results of operations that would have occurred if the merger had been consummated on the date or at the beginning of the period indicated or which may be attained in the future. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes should be read in conjunction with and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the historical consolidated financial statements and related notes thereto of FNB and its subsidiaries and of PFC and its subsidiaries, such information and notes thereto are incorporated by reference herein.

NOTES TO THE PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Note A Basis of Pro Forma Presentation

The pro forma financial information sets forth FNB's financial condition and results of operations after giving effect to the merger of PFC with and into FNB. The merger will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting; accordingly, FNB's cost to acquire PFC will be allocated to the assets acquired (including identifiable intangible assets) and liabilities assumed from PFC at their respective fair values on the date the merger is completed. The pro forma income statement for the year ended December 31, 2010 also gives effect to the merger of Comm Bancorp, Inc. with and into FNB.

The pro forma financial information includes estimated adjustments to record the assets and liabilities of PFC at their respective fair values and represents management's estimates based on available information. The pro forma adjustments included herein may be revised as additional information becomes available and as additional analysis are performed. The final allocation of the purchase price will be determined after the merger is completed and after completion of final analyses to determine the fair values of PFC's tangible, and identifiable intangible, assets and liabilities as of the closing date. Accordingly, the final purchase accounting adjustments and integration charges may be materially different from the pro forma adjustments presented in this document. Increases or decreases in the fair value of the net assets, commitments, contracts and other items of PFC as compared to the information shown in this document may change the amount of the purchase price allocated to goodwill and other assets and liabilities and may impact the statement of income due to adjustments in the accretion or amortization of the adjusted assets or liabilities.

The pro forma financial information presented in this document does not necessarily indicate the results of operations or the combined financial position that would have resulted had the merger been completed at the beginning of the applicable period presented, does not reflect the impact of possible revenue enhancements, expense efficiencies, asset dispositions or the redemption of preferred stock, and is not indicative of the results of operations in future periods or the future financial position of the combined company.

Note B Pro Forma Adjustments

The pro forma adjustments included in the pro forma financial information are as follows:

- (A) Credit adjustment to record the investment securities portfolio at fair value.
- (B) Adjustment to record the acquired loan portfolio at fair value. The adjustment is comprised of an interest rate-related mark of $8,600,000 and a credit mark of $(40,000,000). The interest rate mark will be amortized over 7 years, which is the estimated remaining life of the loan portfolio. The impact of the adjustment was to decrease interest income by approximately $1,075,000 and $2,150,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2011 and the year ended December 31, 2010, respectively.
- (C) Adjustment to reverse the historical PFC allowance for loan losses.
- (D) Adjustment to reflect acquired premises and equipment at fair value. The adjustment of $1,000,000 to premises and equipment increases the recorded book value for PFC properties to their estimated fair value. The net impact of the adjustment was to increase non-interest expense by approximately $20,000 and $40,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2011 and the year ended December 31, 2010, respectively.
- (E) Adjustment to write off historical PFC goodwill and record $85,384,000 of goodwill as of June 30, 2011 created as a result of the merger.
- (F) Adjustment to write off historical PFC intangible assets (other than goodwill) and to record intangible assets (other than goodwill) resulting from the merger based on estimated fair values. The adjustment reflected herein is based on current assumptions and valuations, which are subject to change. For purposes of the pro forma adjustment shown here, the estimated fair value of the core deposit intangible is $14,300,000, which is estimated to amortize on an accelerated basis over 10 years. Material changes may be possible when the analysis is completed. The net impact of the adjustment was to increase non-interest expense by approximately $935,000 and $1,797,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2011 and the year ended December 31, 2010, respectively.

- (G) Adjustment to record the deferred tax asset created as a result of the fair value adjustments using FNB's statutory tax rate of 35%.
- (H) Adjustment to record assumed time deposits at fair value based on current interest rates for similar instruments. The adjustment will be amortized on an accelerated basis over 5 years. The impact of the adjustment was to decrease interest expense by approximately $2,496,000 and $4,992,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2011 and the year ended December 31, 2010, respectively.
- (I) Adjustment to record assumed borrowings at fair value. This adjustment will be recognized over 5 years, which is the estimated remaining term of the borrowings. The impact of the adjustment was to decrease interest expense by approximately $1,530,000 and $3,060,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2011 and the year ended December 31, 2010, respectively.
- (J) Adjustment to record the incremental direct costs associated with the merger. These costs include accountant and attorney fees, investment banker services, payout of vendor contract obligations, system conversion costs, insurance (tail coverage), payout of employee contracts, severance payments to displaced PFC personnel, other personnel-related costs and other miscellaneous costs.
- (K) Adjustment to eliminate PFC's historical shareholders' equity, which reflects the issuance of FNB common stock and includes the conversion of PFC's stock options and warrants into FNB stock options and warrants.
- (L) Adjustment to record the tax effect of the pro forma adjustments using FNB's statutory tax rate of 35%.

Table of ContentsCOMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following table sets forth for FNB common stock and PFC common stock certain historical, pro forma and pro forma-equivalent per share financial information. The pro forma and pro forma-equivalent per share information gives effect to the merger as if the transactions had been effective on the dates presented, in the case of the book value data, and as if the transactions had become effective on January 1, 2010, in the case of the net income and dividends declared data. The unaudited pro forma data in the tables assume that the merger is accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting and represent a current estimate based on available information of the combined company's results of operations. The pro forma financial adjustments record the assets and liabilities of PFC at their estimated fair values and are subject to adjustment as additional information becomes available and as additional analyses are performed. See Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information on page 19. The information in the following table is based on, and should be read together with, the financial information and financial statements of FNB and PFC incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information on page 116.

This information is presented for illustrative purposes only. You should not rely on the pro forma combined or pro forma equivalent amounts as they are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred if the merger had been completed as of the dates indicated, nor are they necessarily indicative of the future operating results or financial position of the combined company. The pro forma information, although helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect the benefits of expected cost savings, opportunities to earn additional revenue, the impact of restructuring and merger-related costs, or other factors that may result as a consequence of the merger and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results.

RISK FACTORS RELATING TO THE MERGER

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed under Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-looking Statements, PFC shareholders should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote in favor of the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal.

Risks Specifically Related to the Merger

Because the market price of FNB common stock may fluctuate, our shareholders cannot be certain of the market value of the FNB common stock that they will receive upon completion of the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of our common stock will become the right to receive 2.178 shares of FNB common stock. Any change in the price of FNB common stock prior to the merger will affect the market value of the FNB common stock that you will receive upon completion of the merger. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in FNB's businesses, operations and prospects and regulatory considerations.

The prices of FNB common stock and our common stock at the closing of the merger may vary from their respective prices on the date the merger agreement was executed, on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and on the date of our special meeting. As a result, the value represented by the exchange ratio will also vary. For example, based on the range of closing prices of FNB common stock during the period from June 14, 2011, the last full trading day before public announcement of the merger, through October 31, 2011, the last practicable full trading day prior to the date of these materials, the exchange ratio represented a value ranging from a high of $23.11 on July 7, 2011 to a low of $17.84 on September 22, 2011 for each share of our common stock. Because the date on which FNB and we expect to complete the merger will be later than the date of our special meeting, at the time of our special meeting our shareholders will not know what the market value of FNB's common stock will be upon completion of the merger.

If the merger is completed, the combined company may encounter integration difficulties or may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

In determining that the merger was in the best interests of FNB and PFC, our respective boards of directors considered that enhanced earnings may result from the consummation of the merger, including the reduction of duplicate costs, improved efficiency and cross-marketing opportunities. The success of the merger will depend, in part, on the ability of the combined company to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger. The combined companies may not realize the anticipated benefits at all and such benefits may take longer to realize than FNB anticipates. Failure to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger could result in increased costs and decreased revenues of the combined company.

The combined company may not be able to integrate FNB's traditional retail banking operations and our traditional thrift-focused operations without encountering difficulties, including, without limitation, the loss of key employees and customers, the disruption of our respective ongoing businesses or possible inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies.

If the merger is not completed, PFC will have incurred substantial expenses without its shareholders realizing the expected benefits of the merger.

PFC has incurred substantial expenses in connection with the transactions described in this proxy statement/prospectus, which are charged to earnings as incurred. If the merger is not completed, these expenses will still be charged to earnings even though we would not have realized the expected benefits of the merger. There can be no assurance that the merger will be completed.

The merger agreement may be terminated in accordance with its terms and the merger may not be completed.

The merger agreement is subject to a number of conditions which must be fulfilled in order to complete the merger. Those conditions include: approval of the merger agreement by PFC shareholders, regulatory approvals, absence of orders prohibiting the completion of the merger, effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, approval of the shares of FNB common stock to be issued to PFC shareholders for listing on the NYSE, the continued accuracy of the representations and warranties by both parties and the performance by both parties of their covenants and agreements, and the receipt by both parties of legal opinions from their respective tax counsels. See The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 91 for a more complete discussion of the circumstances under which the merger agreement could be terminated. Therefore, the conditions to closing of the merger may not be fulfilled and the merger may not be completed.

Termination of the merger agreement could negatively affect PFC.

If the merger agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences, including:

PFC's businesses may have been adversely impacted by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the merger; and the market price of PFC common stock might decline to the extent that the current market price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed.

If the merger agreement is terminated and PFC's board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, PFC shareholders cannot be certain that PFC will be able to find a party willing to offer equivalent or more attractive consideration than the consideration FNB has agreed to provide in the merger.

If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, PFC may be required to pay a break-up fee of $6.0 million net of (or including) expenses of up to $500,000 to FNB. See The Merger Agreement Break-up Fee; Expenses beginning on page 92.

The need for regulatory approvals may delay the date of completion of the merger or may diminish the benefits of the merger.

FNB is required to obtain the approvals of several bank regulatory agencies prior to completing the merger. Satisfying any requirements of these regulatory agencies may delay the date of completion of the merger. In addition, you should be aware that, as in any transaction, it is possible that, among other things, restrictions on the combined operations of the two companies, including divestitures, may be sought by governmental agencies as a condition to obtaining the required regulatory approvals. This may diminish the benefits of the merger to the combined company or have an adverse effect on the combined company following the merger. See Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger and the Bank Merger on page 71.

The merger agreement limits our ability to pursue alternatives to the merger.

The merger agreement contains provisions that, subject to limited exceptions, limit our ability to discuss, facilitate or enter into agreements with third parties to acquire us. If we avail ourselves of those limited exceptions, we will be obligated to pay FNB a break-up fee of $6.0 million if FNB or we terminate the merger agreement in specified circumstances. These provisions could discourage a potential competing acquiror that might have an interest in acquiring us from proposing or considering an acquisition of us even if that potential acquiror were prepared to pay a higher price to our shareholders than the merger consideration our shareholders will receive pursuant to the merger agreement.

PFC will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainties about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on PFC and consequently on FNB. These uncertainties may impair PFC's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with PFC to seek to change existing business relationships with PFC. Retention of certain employees may be challenging during the pendency of the merger, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with the business, PFC's business prior to the merger and the combined company's business following the merger could be negatively impacted. In addition, the merger agreement restricts PFC from making certain acquisitions and taking other specified actions until the merger occurs without the consent of FNB. These restrictions may prevent PFC from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the merger. See "The Merger Agreement - Covenants and Agreements" beginning on page 82 for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to PFC.

Some of our directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that may differ from the interests of our shareholders including, if the merger is completed, the receipt of financial and other benefits.

The executive officers of PFC and FNB negotiated the terms of the merger agreement, the PFC and FNB boards of directors approved the merger agreement and our board of directors recommends that you vote to adopt the merger agreement, approve on an advisory (non-binding) basis the golden parachute compensation payable to our named executive officers in connection with the merger and approve the adjournment proposal. In considering these facts and the other information we have included in this proxy statement/prospectus or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should be aware that certain of our directors and executive officers have economic interests in the merger other than their interests as shareholders. For example, we are party to employment agreements or change of control agreements with some of our executive officers (one of whom is also a director), which provide for, among other things, cash payments following a change of control that is coupled with a termination of employment without cause. In addition, upon completion of the merger, Robert J. McCarthy, Jr., our President and Chief Executive Officer, will be appointed to the board of directors of the combined company, and a member of our or PFC Bank's board of directors, who is mutually agreeable to FNB and us, will be appointed to the board of directors of the combined bank, with such person to be determined. The merger agreement also provides that either FNB or one of its subsidiaries agrees to offer employment on an at-will basis to certain of our executive officers and employees following the completion of the merger for purposes of assisting with a smooth transition of the operations of PFC and its subsidiaries. The merger agreement also provides for the continued indemnification of our current and former directors and executive officers following the merger and for the continuation for six years after the merger of directors' and officers' insurance for these individuals.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information included in this proxy statement/prospectus is preliminary and the actual financial condition and results of operations after the merger may differ materially.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information in this proxy statement/prospectus is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of what FNB's actual financial condition or results of operations would have been had the merger been completed on the dates indicated, nor is it necessarily indicative of the future financial condition or results of operations in future periods of the combined entity. The pro forma condensed consolidated financial information reflects adjustments, which are based upon preliminary estimates, to record the PFC identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed at fair value and the resulting goodwill recognized. The purchase price allocation reflected in this proxy statement/prospectus is preliminary, and final allocation of the purchase price will be based upon the actual purchase price and the fair value of the assets and liabilities of PFC as of the date of the completion of the merger. Accordingly, the final acquisition accounting adjustments may differ materially from the pro forma adjustments reflected in this proxy statement/prospectus. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information" beginning on page 19.

PFC shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Following the merger, former PFC shareholders are expected to hold approximately 9% of the outstanding shares of FNB common stock. As a result, former PFC shareholders will have only limited ability to influence FNB's business. Former PFC shareholders will not have separate approval rights with respect to any actions or decisions of FNB or have separate representation on FNB's board of directors.

PFC shareholders do not have dissenters' appraisal rights in the merger.

Dissenters' rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable shareholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. Under the PBCL, shareholders do not have dissenters' rights with respect to shares of any class of stock which, at the record date fixed to determine shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of shareholders at which a merger or consolidation was acted on, were listed on a national securities exchange. Because PFC's common stock is listed on the NASDAQ, a national securities exchange, holders of PFC common stock will not be entitled to dissenters' appraisal rights in the merger with respect to their shares of PFC common stock.

The fairness opinion obtained by PFC from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances subsequent to the date of the fairness opinion.

KBW, PFC's financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger, has delivered to the board of directors of PFC its opinion dated as of June 15, 2011. The opinion of KBW stated that as of such date, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the consideration to be received in the merger was fair to the PFC common shareholders from a financial point of view. The opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after the date of the opinion, including changes to the operations and prospects of FNB or PFC, changes in general market and economic conditions or regulatory or other factors. Any such changes, or changes in other factors on which the opinion is based, may materially alter or affect the relative values of FNB and PFC.

Risks Related to Owning FNB Common Stock

The combined company's status as a holding company makes it dependent on dividends from its subsidiaries to meet its obligations.

The combined company will be a holding company and will conduct almost all of its operations through its subsidiaries. The combined company will not have any significant assets other than the stock of its subsidiaries and approximately $141.7 million in cash as of June 30, 2011. Accordingly, the combined company will depend on dividends from its subsidiaries to meet its obligations. The combined company's right to participate in any distribution of earnings or assets of its subsidiaries is subject to the prior claims of creditors of such subsidiaries. Under federal law, the amount of dividends that a national bank such as FNB Bank may pay in a calendar year is dependent on the amount of its net income for the current year combined with its retained net income for the two preceding years. The OCC has the authority to prohibit the payment of dividends by a national bank when it determines such payment to be an unsafe and unsound banking practice. In addition, FNB Bank would be prohibited by federal statute and the OCC's prompt corrective action regulations from making any capital distribution if, after giving effect to the distribution, FNB Bank would be classified as undercapitalized under the OCC's regulations.

Interest rate volatility could significantly harm the combined company's business.

The combined company's results of operations will be affected by the monetary and fiscal policies of the federal government. A significant component of the combined company's earnings will consist of its net interest income, which is the difference between the income from interest-earning assets, such as loans and investments, and the expense of interest-bearing liabilities, such as deposits and borrowings. A change in market interest rates could adversely affect the combined company's earnings if market interest rates change such that the interest the combined company pays on deposits and borrowings increases faster than the interest it collects on loans and investments. Consequently, the combined company, along with other financial institutions generally, will be sensitive to interest rate fluctuations.

The Dodd-Frank Act makes fundamental changes in the regulation of the financial services industry, some of which may adversely affect the combined company's business.

The Dodd-Frank Act imposes new regulatory requirements and oversight over banks and other financial institutions in a number of ways, among which are: (i) creating the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, or the CFPB, to regulate consumer financial products and services; (ii) creating the Financial Stability Oversight Council to identify and impose additional regulatory oversight on large financial firms; (iii) granting orderly liquidation authority to the FDIC for the liquidation of financial corporations that pose a risk to the financial system of the United States; (iv) limiting debit card interchange fees; (v) adopting certain changes to shareholder rights, including a shareholder's say on pay vote on executive compensation; (vi) strengthening the SEC's powers to regulate securities markets; (vii) regulating OTC derivative markets; (viii) making more loans subject to provisions for higher cost loans, new disclosures, and certain other revisions; (ix) providing consumers a defense of set-off or recoupment in a foreclosure or collection action if the lender violates the newly created reasonable ability to repay provision; and (x) amending the Truth in Lending Act with respect to mortgage originations, including originator compensation, disallowing mandatory arbitration, and prepayment considerations. Regulators are tasked with adopting regulations that enact and define the breadth and scope of many of these changes. Many of the regulations that must be adopted under the Dodd-Frank Act have yet to be proposed, and it is difficult to gauge the impact of certain provisions of the Dodd-Frank Act because so many important details related to the concepts adopted in the Dodd-Frank Act were left within the discretion of the regulators. For example, the CFPB has the power to adopt new regulations to protect consumers, which power it may exercise at its discretion so long as it advances the general concept of the protection of consumers. Consequently, the impact of these regulations and other regulations to be adopted pursuant to the Dodd-Frank Act is unclear, but may impair the combined company's ability to meet all of the product needs of its customers, lead customers to seek financial solutions and products through nonbanking channels and adversely affect the combined company's profits. Moreover, the increased regulatory scrutiny set forth in the bill and the various proposed mechanisms by which the regulated entities reimburse the regulatory agencies for the increased costs associated with implementing the increased regulatory scrutiny will likely increase the combined company's cost of compliance, divert its resources and may adversely affect profits.

Among those regulations that have been proposed or adopted, the following may adversely affect the business of the combined company:

limitations on debit card interchange fees may affect its profits; changing the methodology for calculating deposit insurance premium rates will become more complex, less predictable and more pro-cyclical, adversely affecting its profits and diverting its resources;

changing the procedures for liquidation may adversely impact its credit ratings and adversely impact its liquidity, profits, and its ability to fund itself; increases in requirements for regulatory capital while eliminating certain sources of capital may adversely affect its profits; and the ability to pay interest on commercial demand deposit accounts may increase its interest expenses.

Table of Contents

These provisions may limit the types of products the combined company is able to offer, the methods of offering them, and prices at which they are offered. They may also increase the cost of offering these products. These provisions likely will affect different financial institutions in different ways, and therefore, may also affect the competitive landscape.

Increases in or required prepayments of FDIC insurance premiums may adversely affect the combined company's earnings.

Since 2008, higher levels of bank failures have dramatically increased resolution costs of the FDIC and depleted its Deposit Insurance Fund, or DIF. In addition, the FDIC instituted temporary programs, some of which were made permanent by the Dodd-Frank Act, to further insure customer deposits at FDIC insured banks, which have placed additional stress on the deposit insurance fund.

In order to maintain a strong funding position and restore reserve ratios of the DIF, the FDIC has increased assessment rates of insured institutions. In addition, on November 12, 2009, the FDIC adopted a rule requiring banks to prepay three years' worth of premiums to replenish the depleted insurance fund. With the enactment of the Dodd-Frank Act in July 2010, the minimum reserve ratio for the DIF was increased from 1.15% to 1.35% of estimated insured deposits, or the assessment base, and the FDIC was directed to take the steps needed to cause the reserve ratio of the DIF to reach 1.35% of estimated insured deposits by September 30, 2020. On December 15, 2010, as part of its long-range management plan to ensure that the DIF is able to maintain a positive balance despite banking crises and steady, moderate assessment rates despite economic and credit cycles, the FDIC set the DIF's designated reserve ratio, or DRR, at 2% of estimated insured deposits. The FDIC is required to offset the effect of the increased minimum reserve ratio for banks with assets of less than $10 billion, so smaller community banks will be spared the cost of funding the increase in the minimum reserve ratio. The assets of FNB Bank are expected to exceed the $10 billion threshold upon completion of the merger.

Historically, the FDIC utilized a risk-based assessment system that imposed insurance premiums based upon a risk matrix that takes into account several components, including but not limited to the bank's capital level and supervisory rating. Pursuant to the Dodd-Frank Act, in February 2011 the FDIC amended its regulations to base insurance assessments on the average consolidated assets less the average tangible equity of the insured depository institution during the assessment period; to set deposit insurance assessment rates in light of the new assessment base; and to revise the assessment system applicable to large banks (having at least $10 billion in total assets) to better differentiate for the risks that a large bank could pose to the DIF.

The likely effect of the new assessment scheme will be to increase assessment fees for institutions that rely more heavily on nondeposit funding sources. However, the higher assessments for institutions that have relied on nondeposit sources of funding in the past could force these institutions to change their funding models and more actively search for deposits. If this happens, it could drive up the costs to attain deposits across the market, a situation that would negatively impact community banks like FNB Bank, which derive the majority of their funding from deposits.

The combined company generally will be unable to control the amount of premiums that it is required to pay for FDIC insurance. Any future increases in or required prepayments of FDIC insurance premiums may adversely affect the combined company's financial condition or results of operations. In light of the recent increases in the assessment rates, the potential for additional increases, and the likelihood that the combined company will have more than $10 billion in assets following the merger and thus be considered a large bank, FNB Bank may be required to pay additional amounts to the DIF, which could have an adverse effect on its earnings. If FNB Bank's deposit insurance premium assessment rate increases again, either because of its risk classification, because of emergency assessments, or because of another uniform increase, the earnings of the combined company could be further adversely impacted.

The recent repeal of federal prohibitions on payment of interest on demand deposits could increase the combined company's interest expense.

All federal prohibitions on the ability of financial institutions to pay interest on demand deposit accounts were repealed as part of the Dodd-Frank Act. As a result, beginning on July 21, 2011, financial institutions may offer interest on demand deposits to compete for clients. We will consider the initiatives of competitors as we evaluate and develop our interest bearing deposit products. The combined company's interest expense will increase and its net interest margin will decrease if its bank subsidiary begins offering interest on demand deposits to attract additional customers or maintain current customers. This could have a material adverse effect on the combined company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Recently adopted rules regulating the imposition of debit card income may adversely affect the operations of the combined company.

On June 29, 2011, the Federal Reserve Board, pursuant to its authority under the Dodd-Frank Act, issued rules regarding interchange fees charged for electronic debit transactions by payment card issuers having assets over $10 billion, adopting a per-transaction interchange cap base of $0.21 plus a 5-basis point fraud loss adjustment per transaction. The Federal Reserve Board deemed such fees reasonable and proportional to the actual cost of a transaction to the issuer. Entities having assets in excess of $10 billion as of December 31, 2011 will be required to comply with those rules effective as of July 1, 2012. Beginning in 2012 and for each calendar year thereafter, entities having assets in excess of $10 billion as of the end of that calendar year will be required to comply with those rules no later than the immediately following July 1. FNB currently has less than $10 billion in assets. Although entities having assets of less than $10 billion, such as FNB, are exempt from these rules, nevertheless, their activities as debit card issuers may be affected indirectly if they must match new, lower fee structures implemented by larger financial institutions in order to remain competitive. Such lower fees could adversely impact the revenue FNB earns from debit interchange fees, which were equal to $15.2 million for 2010 and $8.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2011.

Although FNB currently has less than $10 billion in assets, upon completion of the merger between FNB and PFC in January 2012, the combined company will have assets in excess of $10 billion and will become subject to the Federal Reserve Board rules concerning debit card interchange fees, effective as of July 1, 2013. If FNB is determined to have more than $10 billion in assets as of December 31, 2011, FNB would become subject to those rules effective as of July 1, 2012. FNB estimates that the combined company's revenues earned from interchange fees could decrease by $9.0 million or more per year, without taking into consideration potential mitigation strategies the combined company may employ.

The combined company's results of operations will be significantly affected by the ability of its borrowers to repay their loans.

Lending money is an essential part of the banking business. However, borrowers do not always repay their loans. The risk of non-payment is affected by:

credit risks of a particular borrower; changes in economic, industry and regulatory conditions;

the duration of the loan;

the repricing of variable rate loans; and in the case of a collateralized loan, uncertainties as to the future value of the collateral.

Generally, commercial/industrial, construction and commercial real estate loans present a greater risk of non-payment by a borrower than other types of loans. In addition, consumer loans typically have shorter terms and lower balances with higher yields compared to real estate mortgage loans, but generally carry higher risks of default. Consumer loan collections depend on the borrower's continuing financial stability, and thus are more likely to be affected by adverse personal circumstances. Furthermore, the application of various federal and state laws, including bankruptcy and insolvency laws, may limit the amount that can be recovered on these loans.

The combined company's financial condition and results of operations would be adversely affected if its allowance for loan losses is not sufficient to absorb actual losses.

There is no precise method of estimating loan losses. The combined company can give no assurance that its allowance for loan losses is or will be sufficient to absorb actual loan losses. Excess loan losses could have a material adverse effect on the combined company's financial condition and results of operations. FNB seeks to maintain an adequate allowance for loan losses to provide for estimated losses in its loan portfolio. FNB periodically determines the amount of its allowance for loan losses based upon consideration of several factors, including:

a regular review of the quality, mix and size of the overall loan portfolio;

historical loan loss experience;

evaluation of non-performing loans;

geographic concentration;

assessment of economic conditions and their effects on FNB's existing portfolio; and the amount and quality of collateral, including guarantees, securing loans.

A significant amount of the PFC loan portfolio consists of geographically diverse, out-of-area mortgage loans that are serviced by others. These may have a higher risk of loss than loans originated by PFC because a large number of those loans are collateralized by single family homes located in areas which are experiencing greater economic volatility than in PFC's core market area in western Pennsylvania, and the combined company may have limited control over credit monitoring.

There were approximately $252 million of out-of-area mortgage loans in PFC's loan portfolio at June 30, 2011 collateralized by single family homes throughout the United States, a significant portion of which is located in areas affected by falling home prices and excess housing supply. If these economic pressures continue for an extended period of time, it is possible losses will be realized if the current assessments of fair value deteriorate. At the time of origination, the substantial majority of those loans were jumbo loans, which are generally larger in size and more sensitive to housing price fluctuations. Because these loans are serviced by national service providers, collection efforts may be affected by servicing difficulties by the national service providers, which will be beyond the control of the combined company's collection staff. An increase in the combined company's non-performing loans could result in higher loan losses and reduced earnings.

Changes in economic conditions and the composition of the combined company's loan portfolio could lead to higher loan charge-offs or an increase in the combined company's provision for loan losses and may reduce the combined company's net income.

Changes in national and regional economic conditions continue to impact the loan portfolios of FNB and PFC. For example, an increase in unemployment, a decrease in real estate values or changes in interest rates, as well as other factors, have weakened the economies of the communities that FNB and PFC serve. Weakness in the market areas served by FNB and PFC could depress the earnings and consequently the financial condition of the combined company because customers may not want or need the combined company's products or services; borrowers may not be able to repay their loans; the value of the collateral securing the combined company's loans to borrowers may decline; and the quality of the combined company's loan portfolio may decline. Any of the latter three scenarios could require the combined company to charge-off a higher percentage of its loans and/or increase its provision for loan losses, which would reduce its net income.

The combined company's financial condition may be adversely affected if it is unable to attract sufficient deposits to fund its anticipated loan growth.

The combined company will fund its loan growth primarily through deposits. To the extent that the combined company is unable to attract and maintain sufficient levels of deposits to fund its loan growth, it would be required to raise additional funds through public or private financings. FNB can give no assurance that it would be able to obtain these funds on terms that are attractive to it.

The combined company could experience significant difficulties and complications in connection with its growth and acquisition strategy.

FNB has grown significantly over the last few years and intends to seek to continue to grow by acquiring financial institutions and branches as well as non-depository entities engaged in permissible activities for its financial institution subsidiaries. However, the market for acquisitions is highly competitive. The combined company may not be as successful in identifying financial institutions and branch acquisition candidates, integrating acquired institutions or preventing deposit erosion at acquired institutions or branches as it currently anticipates.

As part of this acquisition strategy, the combined company may acquire additional banks and non-bank entities that it believes provide a strategic fit with its business. To the extent that the combined company is successful with this strategy, it cannot assure you that it will be able to manage this growth adequately and profitably. For example, acquiring any bank or non-bank entity will involve risks commonly associated with acquisitions, including:

potential exposure to unknown or contingent liabilities of banks and non-bank entities the combined company acquires; exposure to potential asset quality issues of acquired banks and non-bank entities; potential disruption to the combined company's business; potential diversion of the time and attention of the combined company's management; and the possible loss of key employees and customers of the banks and other businesses the combined company acquires.

In addition to acquisitions, the combined company may expand into additional communities or attempt to strengthen its position in its current markets by undertaking additional de novo branch openings. Based on its experience, FNB believes that it generally takes up to three years for new banking facilities to achieve operational profitability due to the impact of organizational and overhead expenses and the start-up phase of generating loans and deposits. To the extent that the combined company undertakes additional de novo branch openings, it is likely to continue to experience the effects of higher operating expenses relative to operating income from the new banking facilities, which may have an adverse effect on its net income, earnings per share, return on average shareholders' equity and return on average assets.

The combined company may encounter unforeseen expenses, as well as difficulties and complications in integrating expanded operations and new employees without disruption to its overall operations. Following each acquisition, the combined company must expend substantial resources to integrate the entities. The integration of non-banking entities often involves combining different industry cultures and business methodologies. The failure to integrate successfully the entities the combined company acquires with its existing operations may adversely affect its results of operations and financial condition.

The combined company's results of operations may be adversely affected if asset valuations cause other-than-temporary impairment or goodwill impairment charges.

The combined company may be required to record future impairment charges on its investment securities if they suffer declines in value that are considered other-than-temporary. Numerous factors, including lack of liquidity for re-sales of certain investment securities, absence of reliable pricing information for investment securities, adverse changes in business climate, adverse actions by regulators, or unanticipated changes in the competitive environment could have a negative effect on the combined company's investment portfolio in future periods. Goodwill is assessed annually for impairment and declines in value could result in a future non-cash charge to earnings. If an impairment charge is significant enough it could affect the ability of FNB Bank to pay dividends to the combined company, which could have a material adverse effect on the combined company's liquidity and its ability to pay dividends to shareholders and could also negatively impact its regulatory capital ratios and result in FNB Bank not being classified as "well-capitalized" for regulatory purposes.

The combined company could be adversely affected by changes in the law, especially changes in the regulation of the banking industry.

The combined company and its subsidiaries will operate in a highly regulated environment and will be subject to supervision and regulation by several governmental regulatory agencies, including the Federal Reserve Board, the OCC and the FDIC. Regulations are generally intended to provide protection for depositors, borrowers and other customers rather than for investors. We are subject to changes in federal and state law, regulations, governmental policies, tax laws and accounting principles. Changes in regulations or the regulatory environment could adversely affect the banking industry as a whole and could limit our growth and the return to investors by restricting such activities as:

the payment of dividends;

mergers with or acquisitions of other institutions;

investments;

loans and interest rates;

assessments of fees, such as overdraft and electronic transfer interchange fees;

the provision of securities, insurance or trust services; and the types of non-deposit activities in which the combined company's financial institution subsidiaries may engage.

Under regulatory capital adequacy guidelines and other regulatory requirements, the combined company and its subsidiary bank must meet guidelines subject to qualitative judgments by regulators about components, risk weightings and other factors. From time to time, the regulators implement changes to these regulatory capital adequacy guidelines. Changes resulting from the Dodd-Frank Act and the regulatory accords on international banking institutions formulated by the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision and implemented by the Federal Reserve Board, when fully phased in, will likely require us to satisfy additional, more stringent capital adequacy standards.

In December 2010, the Basel Committee released its final framework for strengthening international capital and liquidity regulation, now officially identified by the Basel Committee as Basel III. Basel III, when implemented by the U.S. banking agencies beginning on January 1, 2013 and fully phased-in on January 1, 2019, will require bank holding companies and their bank subsidiaries to maintain substantially more capital, with a greater emphasis on common equity. Basel III also provides for a countercyclical capital buffer, an additional capital requirement that generally is to be imposed when national regulators determine that excess aggregate credit growth has become associated with a buildup of systemic risk, in order to absorb losses during periods of economic stress. Banking institutions that maintain insufficient capital to comply with the capital conservation buffer will face constraints on dividends, equity repurchases and compensation based on the amount of the shortfall. Additionally, the Basel III framework requires banks and bank holding companies to measure their liquidity against specific liquidity tests, including a liquidity coverage ratio, or LCR, which is designed to ensure that the banking entity maintains a level of unencumbered high-quality liquid assets greater than or equal to the entity's expected net cash outflow for a 30-day time horizon under an acute liquidity stress scenario, and a net stable funding ratio, or NSFR, designed to promote more medium- and long-term funding based on the liquidity characteristics of the assets and activities of banking entities over a one-year time horizon. The LCR and NSFR have proposed adoption dates beginning in 2015 and 2018, respectively.

The U.S. banking agencies have indicated informally that they expect to propose regulations implementing Basel III later in 2011 with final adoption of implementing regulations in mid-2012. Given that the Basel III rules are subject later to change, and the scope and content of capital regulations that the U.S. banking agencies may adopt under the Dodd-Frank Act is uncertain, it is uncertain what impact the new capital regulations will have on the combined company's capital ratios. These changes to present capital and liquidity requirements could restrict the combined company's activities and require it to maintain additional capital. Compliance with heightened capital standards may reduce its ability to generate or originate revenue-producing assets and thereby restrict revenue generation from banking and non-banking operations. If the combined company fails to meet these minimum liquidity capital guidelines and other regulatory requirements, its financial condition would be materially and adversely affected.

The combined company may elect or be compelled to seek additional capital in the future, but that capital may not be available when it is needed.

The combined company may need to raise additional capital in the future to provide itself with sufficient capital resources and liquidity to meet its commitments and business needs. The combined company's ability to raise additional capital, if needed, will depend on conditions in the capital markets, economic conditions and a number of other factors, many of which are outside its control, and on its financial performance. Accordingly, there can be no assurance of the combined company's ability to raise additional capital if needed or on terms acceptable to it. If the combined company cannot raise additional capital when needed, it may have a material adverse effect on its financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The prolonged negative effect of the recession and weak economic recovery may adversely affect the combined company's financial performance.

The severe recession and weak economic recovery have resulted in continued uncertainty in the financial and credit markets in general. There is also concern about the possibility of another economic downturn. The Federal Reserve Board, in an attempt to stimulate the overall economy, has, among other things, kept interest rates low through its targeted federal funds rate and purchased mortgage-backed securities. If the Federal Reserve Board increases the federal funds rate, overall interest rates will likely rise which may negatively impact the housing markets and the U.S. economic recovery. A prolonged weakness in the economy generally, and in the financial services industry in particular, could negatively affect the combined company's operations by causing an increase in loan delinquencies and nonperforming assets, decreases in loan collateral values and a decrease in demand for our products and services, among other things, any of which could have a material adverse impact on our financial condition and results of operations.

The combined company will rely heavily on the proper functioning of its technology.

The combined company will rely heavily on communications and information systems to conduct its business. Any failure, interruption or breach in security of these systems could result in failures or disruptions in the combined company's customer relationship management, general ledger, deposit, loan and other systems. Although FNB has policies and procedures designed to prevent or limit the effect of the failure, interruption or security breach of these information systems, there can be no assurance that any such failures, interruptions or security breaches will not occur or, if they do occur, that they will be adequately addressed. The occurrence of any failures, interruptions or security breaches of the combined company's information systems could damage its reputation, result in a loss of customer business, subject it to additional regulatory scrutiny, or expose it to civil litigation and possible financial liability, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the combined company's financial condition and results of operations.

Certain provisions of FNB's articles of incorporation and bylaws and the FBCA may discourage takeovers.

FNB's articles of incorporation and bylaws contain certain anti-takeover provisions that may discourage or may make more difficult or expensive a tender offer, change in control or takeover attempt that is opposed by FNB's board of directors. In particular, FNB's articles of incorporation and bylaws:

permit shareholders to remove directors only for cause;

do not permit shareholders to take action except at an annual or special meeting of shareholders; require shareholders to give FNB advance notice to nominate candidates for election to its board of directors or to make shareholder proposals at a shareholders' meeting;

permit FNB's board of directors to issue, without shareholder approval unless otherwise required by law, preferred stock with such terms as its board of directors may determine; and require the vote of the holders of at least 75% of FNB's voting shares for shareholder amendments to its bylaws.

Under the FBCA, approval of a business combination with another corporation whose shareholders own 10% or more of the voting shares of that corporation requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds of the voting shares not owned by such shareholders, unless a majority of the corporation's disinterested directors approves the merger. In addition, the FBCA generally provides that shares of a corporation acquired in excess of certain specified thresholds will not possess any voting rights unless a majority vote of the corporation's disinterested shareholders approves the voting rights.

These provisions of FNB's articles of incorporation and bylaws and of the FBCA could discourage potential acquisition proposals and could delay or prevent a change in control, even though a majority of FNB's shareholders may consider such proposals desirable. Such provisions could also make it more difficult for third parties to remove and replace the members of FNB's board of directors. Moreover, these provisions could diminish the opportunities for shareholders to participate in certain tender offers, including tender offers at prices above the then-current market price of FNB's common stock, and may also inhibit increases in the trading price of FNB's common stock that could result from takeover attempts.

Accordingly, we urge you to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

When considering our board of directors' recommendation that you vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement, you should be aware that certain of our executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, your and their interests as shareholders. Advisory (Non-binding) Vote Regarding Golden Parachute Compensation. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of our common stock entitled to vote thereon at a shareholders' meeting at which a quorum is present is required to approve on an advisory (non-binding) basis, PFC's golden parachute compensation payable to the named executive officers of PFC in connection with the merger.

Discretionary Authority to Adjourn Our Special Meeting. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of our common stock entitled to vote thereon at a shareholders' meeting at which a quorum is present is required to approve the proposal to grant discretionary authority to adjourn our special meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies from our shareholders for the merger proposal.

Proxies

Voting. You should complete and return the proxy card accompanying this proxy statement/prospectus in order to ensure that we can count your vote at our special meeting and at any adjournment or postponement of our special meeting, regardless of whether you plan to attend our special meeting. If you sign and return your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, we will count your proxy card as a vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement, in favor of approval on an advisory (non-binding) basis of the golden parachute proposal and in favor of approval of the adjournment proposal.

Attention: Deborah M. Cardillo, Corporate Secretary

If you hold your shares of our common stock in the name of a bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record, you should follow the instructions of the bank, broker, nominee or other holder of record regarding the revocation of proxies.

We will count the shares represented by a properly executed proxy card marked ABSTAIN as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Under the rules of the NYSE, banks, brokers and other nominees may not vote shares of our common stock that they hold of record for a beneficial owner either for or against adoption of the merger, approval (on an advisory (non-binding) basis) of the golden parachute proposal or approval of the adjournment proposal without specific instructions from the beneficial owner of such shares. Therefore, if a bank, broker or other nominee holds your shares, you must give your bank, broker or other nominee instructions on how to vote your shares. Abstentions, if any, and broker non-votes, if any, are counted as present for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. Once a quorum for a meeting is established, abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted in the voting results and will have no effect on the outcome of the proposals to adopt the merger agreement, to approve on an advisory (non-binding) basis the golden parachute compensation payable to PFC's named executive officers, and to approve adjournment of the special meeting.

PROPOSAL NO. 1 PROPOSAL TO ADOPT THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following discussion contains material information pertaining to the merger. This discussion is subject, and qualified in its entirety by reference, to the merger agreement included as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully as well as the discussion in this proxy statement/prospectus.

General

FNB's and PFC's boards of directors have approved the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides that PFC will merge with and into FNB, with FNB being the surviving corporation. Following the merger, PFC Bank, a Pennsylvania chartered permanent reserve fund stock savings bank which is PFC's main operating subsidiary, will merge with and into FNB Bank, a national banking association which is FNB's main operating subsidiary.

In the merger, each share of PFC common stock will be converted into the right to receive 2.178 shares of FNB common stock. No fractional shares of FNB common stock will be issued in connection with the merger, and holders of PFC common stock will be entitled to receive cash in lieu thereof. Shares of FNB common stock issued and outstanding as of the completion of the merger will remain outstanding and will be unaffected by the merger. FNB common stock will continue to trade on the NYSE under the symbol FNB following the merger. See the section entitled, "The Merger Agreement" for additional and more detailed information regarding the legal documents that govern the merger, including information about the conditions to the completion of the merger and the provisions for terminating or amending the merger agreement.

Background and Negotiation of the Merger

From time to time over the past several years, the PFC board of directors has periodically discussed and reviewed PFC's business, performance and prospects and has considered various strategic alternatives. In the context of such reviews, the strategic alternatives considered by PFC's board of directors have included continuing its on-going operations as an independent institution, acquiring other depository institutions, branch offices or other financial services firms engaged in complementary lines of business and entering into a strategic merger with a similarly sized or larger institution. The PFC board of directors also periodically reviewed, often with input from several investment banking firms, the competitive environment in PFC's market area and merger and acquisition activity in the financial services industry in general and in the western Pennsylvania market area in particular.

In recent periods, in conjunction with an annual review of PFC's strategic plan, the PFC board of directors considered capital raising initiatives and other strategic options for PFC. While PFC Bank remains well-capitalized, the board of directors believed that additional capital would need to be raised if PFC was to remain independent and grow its balance sheet. The need for additional capital was the result of losses incurred for the years ended June 30, 2010 and 2009. In addition, changes resulting from the Dodd-Frank Act will likely require PFC and other financial institutions to satisfy additional, more stringent capital requirements in the future. The PFC board of directors also considered the increased competitive challenges facing a depository institution such as PFC. For a summary of the challenges facing depository institutions, see the risk factors contained in this document under the heading "Risk Factors Relating to the Merger," as well as the risk factors contained in Item 1A. Risk Factors in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2011, which annual report is incorporated herein by reference.

During the fourth calendar quarter of 2010, the PFC board of directors had both Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., or KBW, and another investment banking firm make several presentations to the board in order to further assist the board in undertaking an in-depth analysis of the various strategic options available to it. Both KBW and the other investment banking firm are nationally recognized and have substantial experience with respect to transactions involving community based financial institutions and their holding companies. Because the raising of new capital would have been significantly dilutive to existing shareholders, the presentations primarily focused on merger activity in the banking and thrift industries, the companies that would most likely have an interest in acquiring PFC and the potential acquisition prices in the event PFC was to be acquired.

After considering the qualifications and experience of the two firms, including the terms of the draft engagement letters received from each firm and the presentations that each firm made to the board, the PFC board of directors decided to retain KBW and executed an engagement letter with KBW dated January 27, 2011. Pursuant to the engagement letter, PFC engaged KBW on an exclusive basis to render financial advisory and investment services to PFC in connection with a possible sale of PFC. The PFC board of directors directed KBW to prepare a list of institutions that might be interested in a business combination transaction with PFC if PFC decided not to remain independent.

From mid-February to mid-March, in consultation with PFC, KBW developed a list of potentially interested parties, comprised solely of bank and savings and loan holding companies that KBW believed, based on its experience and the information available to KBW and PFC, might be interested in entering into a transaction with PFC. The final list, which consisted of 10 institutions, was discussed with and agreed to by the board of directors of PFC. Two of the institutions were unable to participate due to regulatory issues. During this time period, KBW also worked with management to prepare marketing materials and to establish an electronic data room that could be accessed by interested parties who executed confidentiality agreements. Beginning March 19, 2011, KBW contacted the remaining eight institutions on PFC's behalf. As a result of such inquiries, six of the institutions contacted, including FNB, executed confidentiality agreements and received information relating to PFC's operations and financial performance. The six institutions were provided with access to confidential information regarding PFC in order for such parties to undertake their preliminary due diligence reviews. PFC requested that the parties submit specific, written indications of interest by April 14, 2011. With respect to the other two institutions that were contacted but which elected not to execute confidentiality agreements, one indicated that it was focused on internal growth rather than acquisitions and the other one indicated that it was subject to regulatory constraints on making further acquisitions at the time.

On March 23, 2011, FNB commenced its due diligence review of PFC and contacted RBC Capital Markets to serve as FNB's financial advisor. On March 29, 2011, FNB executed an engagement letter with RBC Capital Markets.

On April 14, 2011, four of the six institutions that had entered into confidentiality agreements, including FNB, submitted non-binding indications of interest to acquire PFC. FNB's April 14th non-binding indication of interest proposed an all stock transaction at a fixed exchange ratio, with the initial value to be within the range of $20.00 to $22.50 in FNB common stock for each share of PFC common stock. A second institution (Company B) which submitted a non-binding indication of interest on April 14th proposed a transaction consisting of 90% of Company B common stock with a fixed exchange ratio and 10% cash, with the initial aggregate implied value to be in the range of $18.50 to $20.50 per share of PFC common stock. A third institution (Company C) which submitted a non-binding indication of interest on April 14th proposed an all stock transaction, with the initial value to be within the range of $14.50 to $18.50 in Company C common stock for each share of PFC common stock. On April 18th, Company C increased its indication of interest to a range of $16.00 to $20.00 per share of PFC common stock, which Company C then orally increased on April 18th to $20.00 per share, with such increase confirmed in writing on April 19th. The fourth institution (Company D) which submitted a non-binding indication of interest on April 14th proposed an all stock transaction with a fixed exchange ratio having an initial value of $15.00 per share. Company D then orally indicated that it may be able to increase its price to the upper teens. All of the non-binding indications of interest were preliminary and subject to, among other things, additional due diligence review. A fifth institution which had entered into a confidentiality agreement requested additional time to submit an indication of interest, but it elected not to submit an indication of interest even though its request for an extension of time was granted.

The PFC board of directors met on April 18, 2011 to consider the four non-binding indications of interest that had been received. Upon such review, the PFC board of directors determined to continue discussions with FNB and Company B (as well as Companies C and D if certain issues or questions with respect to their indications of interest could be resolved) and to permit each of them to conduct additional due diligence, including a review of various PFC documents that were requested by the four institutions. Based on discussions between KBW, PFC management and legal counsel in late April, as well as KBW's discussions with Companies C and D, it was determined to permit all four institutions to conduct additional due diligence.

During the week of May 2, 2011, representatives of FNB conducted their review of PFC's documents at an off-site due diligence session near PFC's headquarters and met with management of PFC. During the week of May 9, 2011, representatives of Company B conducted their off-site due diligence review at a location near PFC's headquarters and met with management of PFC. Companies C and D conducted their off-site due diligence reviews at a location near PFC's headquarters and met with management of PFC during the weeks of May 16, 2011 and May 23, 2011, respectively.

KBW initially requested that final indications of interest be received no later than May 27, 2011. The PFC board of directors met on May 26, 2011 to review updated information with respect to each of the bidders, including but not limited to the following information:

their financial results for the first quarter of 2011 and financial highlights for the last four years;

their deposit and loan portfolios and a summary of their asset quality;

their deposit market shares in various areas;

their stock price performance, market valuation and dividend payments;

their history of prior acquisitions; and analyst estimates and recommendations with respect to each of the bidders.

Because Company B indicated during the week of May 23rd that it would not be submitting a final indication of interest, information regarding Company B was not reviewed at the Board meeting on May 26th. The PFC board also agreed to extend the May 27th deadline to June 1st for those bidders who desired additional time to submit their final indication of interest.

At a special meeting of the executive committee of the board of directors of FNB on May 23, 2011, members of FNB's senior management, together with representatives of RBC Capital Markets, provided the executive committee with, among other items, a detailed update regarding the potential transaction with PFC and the related financial analysis. The executive committee approved a range of fixed exchange ratios (which included the fixed exchange ratio of 2.178 that was ultimately accepted by PFC) and authorized RBC Capital Markets and members of FNB's senior management to negotiate the price and other terms of the transaction with PFC and its representatives.

On May 26, 2011, Company D informed KBW that it was withdrawing from the process. On May 27, 2011, FNB submitted a revised non-binding indication of interest to PFC, which proposed a purchase price of $22.00 for each share of PFC common stock, again in an all stock transaction with a fixed exchange ratio. On June 1, 2011, Company C submitted a revised non-binding indication of interest to PFC, which proposed a purchase price of $21.00 per share for each share of PFC common stock, again in an all stock transaction. Company C indicated that its fixed exchange ratio would be based on the volume weighted average price of its common stock for the one-month period immediately prior to announcement of the definitive agreement. Company C also proposed a collar to be determined upon the execution of a definitive agreement, pursuant to which the exchange ratio would be adjusted within certain parameters to be determined based upon changes in the market value of Company C's common stock, together with a double trigger walk-away right whereby PFC would have the option to terminate the merger agreement if Company C's common stock declined in value by more than 15% and underperformed the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 15% between announcement and the closing of the transaction, subject to Company C having the right, if it then desired to continue with the transaction, to either increase the fixed exchange ratio or add cash consideration. Although the collar would provide some downside price protection, there were concerns, particularly in light of Company C's lower proposed purchase price, that it would also restrict the upside potential available to PFC common shareholders.

On June 2, 2011, based on discussions between KBW, PFC management and PFC's legal counsel, KBW told the investment bankers for both FNB and Company C that they needed to submit their best and final offer.

On June 3, 2011, Company C further increased its proposed purchase price to $22.00 per share, with the exchange ratio to be set based on the volume weighted average price for its common stock for the 20 trading days immediately prior to announcement of the definitive agreement. Also on such date, FNB increased its proposed purchase price to $22.50 per share, with the fixed exchange ratio of 2.178 shares of FNB common stock per share of PFC common stock based on the average price for its common stock for the five trading days ended June 2, 2011.

The PFC board of directors met on the afternoon of June 3, 2011 to consider the revised non-binding indications of interest from FNB and Company C. Representatives of KBW and Elias, Matz, Tiernan & Herrick L.L.P., PFC's legal counsel, participated in the meeting. The PFC board of directors considered the results of the process conducted by KBW on PFC's behalf and reviewed the strategic implications and potential benefits and risks of a merger with either FNB or Company C. KBW updated the board with respect to the market in general and the recent stock performance of the banking industry in general and of FNB and Company C in particular. The board noted that the price per share to shareholders was higher in FNB's bid, and the board viewed more favorably the five-trading day average used by FNB compared to the 20-trading day average used by Company C, especially since Company C's stock price had declined over the most recent 20 trading days and Company C's five-trading day average was less than its 20-trading day average. The board also noted that FNB's common stock had a higher market capitalization, higher liquidity and a higher dividend rate. In this regard, FNB's market capitalization was more than twice as high as Company C's market capitalization, FNB's average daily trading volume was nine times as high as Company C's average daily trading volume, and FNB's dividend yield was nearly 40% higher than Company C's dividend yield. KBW reviewed with the board the recent operating results and the preliminary financial results for April and May 2011 for both FNB and Company C, as well as the likely impact of the merger on both FNB's and Company C's projected earnings, book value and regulatory capital. Based on such analysis, the merger was expected to be accretive to the projected earnings of both FNB and Company C and dilutive to the tangible book value of both FNB and Company C, with the amount of dilution to tangible book value projected to be 2.5% for FNB and 13.7% for Company C. The board believed that the all-stock nature of each of the two bids was attractive for those shareholders who may prefer a tax-free exchange of their shares of PFC common stock, and the board believed that the higher liquidity provided by FNB's common stock would enable those PFC shareholders who may wish to sell their shares following completion of the merger to more easily do so. While the collars on the exchange ratio in Company C's offer provided some downside price protection, as did the double trigger walk-away to a lesser extent, the collar also limited the upside potential that would be available to PFC shareholders if the market value of Company C's common stock increased between the announcement date and the closing date of the merger. Based upon the presentations made regarding FNB's performance, its historical stock prices and its preliminary financial results for April and May 2011, the board determined not to seek a collar on the exchange ratio offered by FNB. It was also noted that Company C may have to raise capital in order to complete the transaction and may need to receive approval of its shareholders, neither of which was applicable to FNB, which had just successfully raised $63 million of capital in May 2011. In addition, the board noted that the severance offered to employees without employment or change in control agreements by FNB was higher than the amount offered by Company C. While Company C was offering to appoint two directors of PFC to its holding company board of directors compared to only one director by FNB, this was not deemed to be a material factor. Members of the board of directors asked various questions of both KBW and legal counsel. After full consideration of both bidders and their respective bids, the PFC board of directors determined to continue its discussions regarding a possible transaction with FNB. The PFC board of directors also determined that it was advisable for representatives of PFC to conduct a further due diligence review of FNB.

PFC and FNB entered into a confidentiality agreement dated June 7, 2011 in order for PFC to commence its due diligence review of certain non-public information regarding FNB. Beginning June 8, 2011, representatives of PFC, KBW and PFC's legal counsel were provided access to, and reviewed, certain non-public information regarding FNB. Representatives of PFC, KBW and PFC's legal counsel met with FNB management on June 9, 2011 to discuss FNB's business, results of operations and prospects and to review various documents on-site.

On June 7, 2011, Reed Smith LLP, outside counsel to FNB for this transaction, provided an initial draft of the proposed merger agreement to PFC's counsel, Elias, Matz, Tiernan & Herrick L.L.P. PFC's counsel reviewed the agreement with both PFC and KBW and provided comments on the proposed merger agreement to Reed Smith LLP on June 9, 2011. From June 9, 2011 to June 15, 2011, legal counsel for both FNB and PFC, together with the parties and their representatives, continued to negotiate the terms of the definitive merger agreement and related documents. In addition, PFC, FNB and their respective financial and legal advisors continued to discuss various matters related to the proposed combination of PFC and FNB.

During the afternoon on June 15, 2011, PFC's board of directors held a special meeting to review the merger proposal as set forth in the definitive merger agreement and related documents negotiated by PFC and FNB and their respective financial and legal advisors. The PFC board received presentations regarding the merger agreement from its legal counsel, Elias, Matz, Tiernan & Herrick L.L.P., and the merger from its financial advisor, KBW. Legal counsel, KBW and management of PFC also briefed the board on the results of the due diligence review conducted on FNB. Representatives of Elias, Matz, Tiernan & Herrick L.L.P. and KBW responded to questions from PFC's board. At the meeting, KBW provided its written opinion to the PFC board of directors that the exchange ratio in the merger agreement was fair to the common shareholders of PFC from a financial point of view. After careful and deliberate consideration of these presentations as well as the interest of PFC's shareholders, and customers, employees and communities served by PFC, the PFC board unanimously approved the merger agreement and the related documents.

Following the meeting of PFC's board of directors on June 15, 2011, the merger agreement and related documents were executed and the parties issued a press release announcing the proposed merger.

Recommendation of PFC's Board and PFC's Reasons for the Merger

The PFC board of directors carefully considered the process by which potentially interested acquirers were identified, the multiple bids that were received, the terms of the merger agreement and the value of the merger consideration to be received by the common shareholders of PFC. In reviewing the merger agreement and the value of the merger consideration, the board of directors also took into consideration the feasibility of remaining independent, including the need to eventually raise additional capital that could be significantly dilutive to existing shareholders. After careful consideration, the PFC board of directors determined that it is advisable and in the best interests of PFC and its shareholders for PFC to enter into the merger agreement with FNB. Accordingly, PFC's board unanimously recommends that PFC's shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

The board of directors of PFC has considered the terms and provisions of the merger agreement and concluded that they are fair to the shareholders of PFC and that the merger is in the best interests of PFC and its shareholders.

The board of directors of PFC believes that the merger will provide the resulting institution with additional resources necessary to compete more effectively in the greater Pittsburgh market, compared to the resources that PFC would have if it remained independent. In addition, the PFC board of directors believes that the customers and communities served by PFC will benefit from the resulting institution's enhanced abilities to meet their banking needs.

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the PFC board of directors consulted with PFC's financial and legal advisors, and considered a variety of factors, including the following:

The value of the merger consideration being offered to PFC's shareholders in relation to the market value, book value per share, earnings per share and projected earnings per share of PFC;

As of June 15, 2011, the merger consideration represented more than two times the closing price of the PFC common stock on June 14, 2011 and nearly two times the tangible book value per share of the PFC common stock as of March 31, 2011;

The process conducted by KBW, PFC's financial advisor, to identify potential merger partners and to assist the PFC board of directors in structuring the proposed merger with FNB;

The presentation by KBW, PFC's financial advisor, as to the fairness of the exchange ratio in the merger agreement, from a financial point of view, to PFC's common shareholders. In this regard, PFC's board of directors received from KBW a written opinion dated June 15, 2011 that, as of such date, the exchange ratio in the merger agreement was fair to PFC's common shareholders from a financial point of view. The opinion is attached as Annex C to this document. For a summary of the presentation of KBW, see Opinion of PFC's Financial Advisor in Connection with the Merger below;

The current and prospective environment in which PFC operates, including national, regional and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for financial institutions, the increased regulatory burdens on financial institutions, and the uncertainties in the regulatory climate going forward;

The form of merger consideration offered by FNB, including the opportunity for PFC shareholders to receive shares of FNB common stock on a tax-free basis for their shares of PFC common stock;

The presentation made by Elias, Matz, Tiernan & Herrick L.L.P., PFC's legal advisor, regarding the structure of the merger and the terms of the merger agreement;

The $1.3 billion market valuation of the FNB common stock and an average daily trading volume of over 800,000 shares of FNB common stock in the event PFC shareholders desired to sell the shares of FNB common stock to be received by them upon completion of the merger;

The scale, scope, strength and diversity of operations, product lines and delivery systems that could be achieved by combining PFC with FNB;

The complementary geographic locations of the PFC and FNB branch networks in western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio;

FNB's asset size and capital position, which would give the resulting institution over $11 billion in assets;

The earnings prospects of the combined company, with the merger expected to be accretive to the earnings of the combined company in 2012 and 2013;

The additional products offered by FNB to its customers and the ability of the resulting institution to provide comprehensive financial services to its customers;

Edgar Filing: FNB CORP/FL/ - Form S-4/A

The potential for operating synergies and cross marketing of products in light of the fact that PFC and FNB serve contiguous market areas with similar and complementary customer bases; and PFC's and FNB's shared community banking philosophies.

Other factors considered by PFC's board of directors included:

The reports of PFC's management and legal counsel and the financial presentation by KBW to PFC's board of directors concerning the operations, financial condition and prospects of FNB and the expected financial impact of the merger on the capital ratios of the combined company;

The proposed board arrangements of the combined company, including the inclusion of one of PFC's directors on FNB's board;

The likelihood of successful integration and the successful operation of the combined company;

Table of Contents

The likelihood that the regulatory approvals needed to complete the transaction will be obtained, including the fact that FNB had successfully completed the acquisition of another financial institution on January 1, 2011 and has made other acquisitions in the past;

The potential cost-saving opportunities;

The effects of the merger on PFC's employees, including the prospects for continued employment and the severance and other benefits agreed to be provided to PFC employees; and

The review by the PFC board of directors with its legal and financial advisors of the structure of the merger and the financial and other terms of the merger, including the exchange ratio and the condition that the merger must qualify as a transaction that will permit PFC's shareholders to receive FNB shares in exchange for their PFC shares on a tax-free basis for federal income tax purposes.

The PFC board of directors also considered the potential risks associated with the merger in connection with its deliberation of the proposed transaction, including the challenges of integrating PFC's businesses, operations and employees with those of FNB, the need to obtain approval by shareholders of PFC as well as regulatory approvals in order to complete the transaction, and the risks associated with the operations of the combined company including the ability to achieve the anticipated cost savings. PFC's board also considered that the fixed exchange ratio, by its nature, would not adjust upwards to compensate for declines, or downwards to compensate for increases, in FNB's stock price prior to completion of the merger. If the exchange ratio adjusted based on changes in FNB's stock price, the shareholders of PFC would have lost the upside potential of a fixed exchange ratio if FNB's stock price increases prior to completion of the merger, while receiving downside protection if FNB's stock price decreases prior to completion of the merger. Based upon its review of FNB and its historical stock prices and prospects, PFC's board believed that a fixed exchange ratio was appropriate. The board also considered the structural protections included in the merger agreement, such as the ability of PFC to terminate the merger agreement in the event of any change or development affecting FNB which has, or is reasonably likely to have, a material adverse effect on FNB and which is not cured within 30 days after notice or cannot be cured prior to consummation of the merger, or in the event FNB materially breaches any of its covenants or obligations under the merger agreement. If PFC was to terminate the merger agreement for any of the foregoing reasons, then FNB would be required to reimburse PFC for all of its out-of-pocket costs and expenses, including without limitation professional fees and expenses of legal counsel, financial advisors and accountants, up to a maximum of $500,000, and PFC would retain all of its rights to recover any additional liabilities or damages if FNB's breach was willful.

PFC's board also noted that it could terminate the merger agreement if a superior proposal (as defined in the merger agreement) was received from a third party and certain steps were taken (including notice to FNB and good faith negotiation with FNB of adjustments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement) prior to the mailing date of this proxy statement/prospectus. If a superior proposal had been received and accepted, then PFC would have been required to pay a $6.0 million break-up fee to FNB. The amount of this potential fee was negotiated at arm's-length and was deemed to be reasonable based upon the break-up fees paid in comparable transactions (with the total deal value deemed to include the amounts necessary to fund FNB's purchase or our redemption of the PFC Preferred Stock from the U.S. Treasury), and the fact that multiple institutions had already been given an opportunity to bid prior to the merger agreement being approved. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, no superior proposal has been received.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by PFC's board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered by PFC's board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the PFC board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the PFC board of directors did not consider it practical to, and did not attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. PFC's board of directors evaluated the factors described above, including asking questions of PFC's legal and financial advisors. In considering the factors described above, individual members of PFC's board of directors may have given different weights to different factors. The PFC board of directors relied on the experience and expertise of its legal advisors regarding the structure of the merger and the terms of the merger agreement and on the experience and expertise of its financial advisors for quantitative analysis of the financial terms of the merger. See Opinion of PFC's Financial Advisor in Connection with the Merger below. It should also be noted that this explanation of the reasoning of PFC's board of directors and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements on page 38.

FNB's Reasons for the Merger

FNB is committed to pursuing several key strategies, including the realization of organic growth and the supplementation of that growth through strategic acquisitions.

In approving the merger agreement, FNB's board of directors and its executive committee considered the following factors as generally supporting its decision to enter into the merger agreement:

its understanding of FNB's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects and of our business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects, including our geographic position in the Pittsburgh Metropolitan Statistical Area, or the Pittsburgh MSA, which includes Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Fayette, Washington and Westmoreland counties;

its understanding of the current and prospective environment in which FNB and we operate, including regional and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for financial institutions generally, continuing consolidation in the financial services industry and the likely effect of these factors on FNB in light of, and in the absence of, the proposed merger;

the complementary nature of the respective customer bases, business products and skills of FNB and us that could result in opportunities to obtain synergies as products are cross-marketed and distributed over broader customer bases and best practices are compared and applied across businesses;

the scale, scope, strength and diversity of operations, product lines and delivery systems that combining FNB and us could achieve;

the increased credit capability achieved by combining FNB and us would enhance competition in the markets in which we currently operate;

the historical and current market prices of FNB common stock and our common stock;

the review by the FNB board of directors, with the assistance of FNB's management and RBC Capital Markets, of the structure and terms of the merger, including the exchange ratio, and the expectation of FNB's legal advisors that the merger will qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes; and the likelihood that FNB and we will obtain the regulatory approvals FNB and we need to complete the merger.

The FNB board of directors also considered the fact that the merger will result in a combined entity with assets of approximately $11.7 billion. FNB expects the future growth prospects of our market area to provide sustained business development opportunities in the Pittsburgh MSA.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the FNB board in evaluating the merger agreement is not intended to be exhaustive, but, rather, includes all material factors that FNB's board of directors and executive committee of the board considered. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger, the FNB board and executive committee did not quantify or assign relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The FNB board and executive committee considered all of the above factors as a whole, and on an overall basis considered them to be favorable to, and support, FNB's determination to enter into the merger agreement.

Opinion of PFC's Financial Advisor in Connection with the Merger

In January 2011, PFC engaged KBW to render financial advisory and investment banking services to PFC. KBW agreed to assist PFC in assessing the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger with FNB, to the common shareholders of PFC. PFC selected KBW because KBW is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and is familiar with PFC and its business. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of financial services companies and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

As part of its engagement, representatives of KBW attended the meeting of the PFC board held on June 15, 2011, at which the PFC board evaluated the proposed merger with FNB. At this meeting, KBW reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered an opinion that, as of such date, the exchange ratio offered to PFC common shareholders in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view. The PFC board approved the merger agreement at this meeting.

The full text of KBW's written opinion is attached as Annex C to this document and is incorporated herein by reference. PFC shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW. The description of the opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

KBW's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion is directed to the PFC board and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the PFC common shareholders of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger. It does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any PFC shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote at the PFC special meeting on the merger or any related matter.

In rendering its opinion, KBW reviewed, among other things:

the merger agreement;

Annual Reports to Stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended June 30, 2010 of PFC and the year ended December 31, 2010 of FNB; certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of PFC and FNB and certain other communications from PFC and FNB to their respective stockholders; and other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of PFC and FNB furnished to KBW by PFC and FNB for purposes of KBW's analysis.

KBW also held discussions with members of senior management of PFC and FNB regarding past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition, future prospects of their respective companies; and such other matters as they deemed relevant to their opinion.

KBW also compared certain financial and stock market information for PFC and FNB with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry; and performed other studies and analyses that it considered appropriate.

In conducting its review and arriving at its opinion, KBW relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to them or otherwise publicly available. KBW did not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assume any responsibility for such verification or accuracy. KBW relied upon the management of PFC and FNB as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections (and the assumptions and bases therefore) provided to KBW, and KBW assumed that such forecasts and projections reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of such managements and that such forecasts and projections will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods estimated by such managements. KBW relied upon the assessments of PFC and its legal, tax and accounting advisors with respect to such matters. KBW assumed, without independent verification, that the aggregate allowance for loan and lease losses for PFC and FNB are adequate to cover those losses. KBW did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals of the property, assets and liabilities of PFC or FNB, nor did it examine any individual credit files.

The projections furnished to KBW and used by it in certain of its analyses were prepared by PFC's and FNB's senior management teams. PFC and FNB do not publicly disclose internal management projections of the type provided to KBW in connection with its review of the merger. As a result, such projections were not prepared with a view towards public disclosure. The projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, which are inherently uncertain, including factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the projections.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, KBW assumed that, in all respects material to its analyses:

the merger will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement with no additional payments or adjustments to the exchange ratio;

the representations and warranties of each party in the merger agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the merger agreement are true and correct;

each party to the merger agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents;

all conditions to the completion of the merger will be satisfied without any waivers and modifications; and in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the merger, including the cost savings, revenue enhancements and related expenses expected to result from the merger.

KBW further assumed that the merger will be accounted for using the acquisition method under generally accepted accounting principles, and that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes. KBW's opinion is not an expression of an opinion as to the prices at which shares of PFC common stock or shares of FNB common stock will trade following the announcement of the merger or the actual value of the shares of common stock of the combined company when issued pursuant to the merger, or the prices at which the shares of common stock of the combined company will trade following the completion of the merger.

In performing its analyses, KBW made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of KBW, PFC and FNB. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by KBW are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, the KBW opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by the PFC board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the PFC board with respect to the fairness of the consideration.

The following is a summary of the material analyses presented by KBW to the PFC board on June 15, 2011, in connection with its fairness opinion. The summary is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the KBW opinion or the presentation made by KBW to the PFC board, but summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, KBW did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. Accordingly, KBW believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses.

Summary of Proposal. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of PFC will be converted into the right to receive 2.178 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of FNB. Based on FNB's closing price on June 14, 2011, the day before the announcement of the transaction, of $10.44, the exchange ratio represented a price of $22.74 per share to PFC's shareholders.

Selected Analysis. Using publicly available information, KBW compared the financial performance, financial condition and market performance of PFC to the following publicly traded banks and thrifts headquartered in Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania with assets between $750 million and $6.0 billion. Transaction multiples for the merger were derived from an offer price of $22.74 per share for PFC. For each transaction referred to above, KBW derived and compared, among other things, the implied ratio of price per common share paid for the acquired company to:

book value per share of the acquired company based on the latest publicly available financial statements of the company available prior to the announcement of the acquisition.

tangible book value per share of the acquired company based on the latest publicly available financial statements of the company available prior to the announcement of the acquisition.

premium to core deposits (total deposits less time deposits greater than $100,000) based on the latest publicly available financial statements of the company available prior to the announcement of the acquisition.

market premium based on the latest closing price one day prior to the announcement of the acquisition.

The results of the analysis are set forth in the following table:

Transaction Price to:	FNB / PFC Merger	Recent Transactions Minimum	Recent Transactions Maximum
Book Value	138%	39%	198%
Tangible Book Value	198%	39%	200%
Core Deposit Premium	5.2%	(4.4%)	14.1%
Market Premium (1)	109.0%	(46.0%)	175.5%

Edgar Filing: FNB CORP/FL/ - Form S-4/A

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to PFC, FNB or the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Contribution Analysis. KBW analyzed the relative contribution of FNB and PFC to the pro forma balance sheet, which did not include any estimated purchase accounting adjustments. KBW reviewed the relative contribution of the combined entity, including assets, gross loans held for investment, deposits, tangible equity, tangible common equity and market capitalization. KBW compared the relative contribution of balance sheet data as of March 31, 2011 with the estimated pro forma ownership for PFC based on an exchange ratio of 2.178 given a 100% stock transaction. The results of KBW's analysis are set forth in the following table:

	FNB	PVSA
Assets	84%	16%
Gross Loans Held for Investment	87%	13%
Deposits	83%	17%
Tangible Equity	86%	14%
Tangible Common Equity	90%	10%
Market Capitalization	96%	4%

Financial Impact Analysis. KBW performed pro forma merger analyses on the combined projected income statement and balance sheet information of PFC and FNB. In its analysis, KBW assumed that the merger would be accounted for under the acquisition method, assumed fair market value adjustments based on guidance from FNB's management and assumed that cost savings would amount to 35.0% of PFC's estimated stand-alone expenses, based on guidance from FNB's management. KBW did not quantify synergies that might be obtained from the merger. Based on First Call (a nationally recognized earnings estimate consolidator) median estimates, KBW assumed that FNB's stand-alone per share net income would be $0.84 and $0.97 in 2012 and 2013, respectively. Based on discussions with FNB and PFC management, KBW assumed that PFC's stand-alone net income per share available to common shareholders would be $1.52 and $2.06 in 2012 and 2013, respectively. This analysis indicated that the merger is expected to be accretive to FNB's estimated earnings per share in 2012 and 2013, with such estimated earnings per share accretion amounting to $0.05 and $0.07 in 2012 and 2013, respectively. KBW's analysis further indicated that the merger would be dilutive to FNB's estimated December 31, 2011 book value per share by 0.1% and accretive to FNB's estimated December 31, 2011 tangible book value by 5.7%, and that FNB would maintain well capitalized capital ratios. For all of the above analyses, the actual results achieved by FNB following the merger will vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. KBW performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate a range of the present values of after-tax cash flows that PFC could provide to equity holders through 2016 on a stand-alone basis. In performing this analysis, KBW used estimates for net income available to common shareholders for PFC for 2011-2015 and a growth rate of 3.0% thereafter based on discussions with PFC's management, and applied discount rates ranging from 12.0% to 16.0% based upon KBW's experience as a financial advisor. To determine the range of discount rates to utilize, KBW used the capital asset pricing model implied cost of capital (CAPM) as a focal point. The CAPM includes the historical equity risk premium (as provided by Ibbotson Associates, a nationally recognized provider of this data) of 6.7%, which is then multiplied by PFC's raw beta of 0.4%, resulting in an equity to risk premium of 2.6%. The CAPM formula then adds the risk free rate of the 10 year treasury of 3.1% and a micro-cap size premium (in excess of CAPM) of 6.4% (as provided again by Ibbotson Associates) to result in a CAPM Implied Cost of Equity Capital of 12.0%. When using the raw beta of the NASDAQ Bank Index, the CAPM Implied Cost of Equity Capital resulted in 16.7%. The range of values was determined by adding (1) the present value of projected cash flows to PFC shareholders from 2011 to 2016 and (2) the present value of the terminal value of PFC's common stock. In determining cash flows available to shareholders, KBW assumed PFC balance sheet growth of 0.0% per year, based on discussions with PFC management, and that PFC would maintain a tangible common equity / tangible asset ratio of 7.00% and would retain sufficient earnings to maintain that level. Any earnings in excess of what would need to be retained represented dividendable cash flows for PFC. In calculating the terminal value of PFC, KBW applied multiples ranging from 10.0 times to 14.0 times 2016 forecasted earnings. This resulted in a range of values of PFC from $12.41 to $23.06 per share. The discounted cash flow present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology that relies on numerous assumptions, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of PFC.

The PFC board retained KBW as financial adviser to PFC regarding the merger. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, KBW has experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, KBW may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, PFC and FNB. As a market maker in securities, KBW may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of PFC and FNB for KBW's own account and for the accounts of its customers.

PFC and KBW have entered into an agreement relating to the services to be provided by KBW in connection with the merger. PFC has paid KBW a cash fee of $250,000 in connection with the rendering of the fairness opinion relating to the merger. Additionally, PFC has agreed to pay to KBW at the time of closing of the merger a cash fee (Contingent Fee), which is estimated to be approximately $1.43 million. Pursuant to the KBW engagement agreement, PFC also agreed to reimburse KBW for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its retention and to indemnify against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

PFC has not paid any investment banking fees to KBW during the two years preceding the date of KBW's opinion to PFC. During the two years preceding the date of its opinion to PFC, KBW acted as a book running managing underwriter in connection with two separate public offerings of common stock by FNB in June 2009 and May 2011, respectively, in which FNB raised approximately $197.4 million in aggregate gross proceeds and KBW received approximately $4.8 million in underwriting discounts and commissions.

Structure of the Merger and the Merger Consideration

Structure. Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, and in accordance with the PBCL and the FBCA, at the completion of the merger we will merge with and into FNB. FNB will be the surviving corporation and will continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Florida. Immediately thereafter, PFC Bank will merge with and into FNB Bank. Each share of our common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will become the right to receive 2.178 shares of FNB common stock plus cash for any fractional interest in FNB shares.

When FNB and we complete the merger, our separate corporate existence will terminate. As a shareholder of FNB, your shareholder rights will be governed by the FBCA, FNB's articles of incorporation will be the articles of incorporation of the combined company and FNB's bylaws will be the bylaws of the combined company. See Comparison of Shareholder Rights beginning on page 98.

Upon completion of the merger, the board of directors of FNB will be expanded by one member and Robert J. McCarthy, Jr., our President and Chief Executive Officer, will be appointed as a member of FNB's board of directors. Information about Mr. McCarthy and other current PFC directors and executive officers can be found in the documents of PFC listed in the section entitled, Where You Can Find More Information on page 116. In addition, one member of the board of directors of PFC or PFC Bank who is mutually agreeable to FNB and PFC will be appointed to the board of directors of FNB Bank upon completion of the merger.

Based on information as of the record date, upon completion of the merger, current holders of FNB common stock will own approximately 91% of, and holders of our common stock will own approximately 9% of, the outstanding FNB common stock.

Merger Consideration. The merger agreement provides that at the effective time of the merger each share of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will become the right to receive 2.178 shares of FNB common stock.

We can provide no assurance that the value of 2.178 shares of FNB common stock you will be entitled to receive upon the merger will be substantially equivalent to the value of 2.178 shares of FNB common stock at the time of our shareholder vote to adopt the merger agreement. As the market value of FNB common stock fluctuates, the value of the 2.178 shares of FNB common stock that you will receive as part of the merger consideration upon the merger will fluctuate correspondingly.

If, between the date of the merger agreement and the effective time of the merger, shares of FNB common stock change into a different number or class of shares by reason of any reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or other similar change in FNB's capitalization, other than a business combination transaction with another bank holding company or financial services company, then FNB will make proportionate adjustments to the stock portion of the per share merger consideration.

Fractional Shares. FNB will not issue any fractional shares of its common stock to our shareholders upon completion of the merger. For each fractional share that our shareholders would otherwise have the right to receive, FNB will pay cash in an amount, rounded to the nearest cent, equal to the product of the fractional share interest held by that shareholder multiplied by the average closing price of FNB common stock for the 20 consecutive trading-day period ending on and including the fifth trading day prior to the effective date of the merger. FNB will not pay any interest on cash payable in lieu of fractional shares of FNB common stock, nor will any holder of fractional shares of FNB have the right to receive dividends or other rights in respect of such fractional shares.

Treasury Shares. Upon consummation of the merger, we will cancel any shares of our common stock or preferred stock that we or any of our subsidiaries or FNB or any of its subsidiaries hold, other than in a fiduciary capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted in good faith. FNB will not provide any merger consideration with respect to those cancelled shares.

Procedures for the Exchange of Our Common Stock for the Merger Consideration

Exchange Fund. As promptly as practicable following the effective time of the merger, FNB will deposit with the exchange agent book entry shares representing the aggregate number of shares of FNB capital stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement in exchange for the shares of PFC capital stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, plus funds equal to dividends or distributions payable in accordance with the terms of the merger agreements and cash in lieu of fractional shares of FNB common stock.

Exchange Procedures. After the effective time of the merger, each holder of a PFC stock certificate, other than certificates representing treasury shares, who has surrendered such certificate or who has provided customary affidavits and indemnification regarding the loss or destruction of such certificate, together with duly executed transmittal materials, to the Exchange Agent, will be entitled to receive, for each share of our common stock, 2.178 shares of FNB common stock and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of FNB common stock to which such holder is otherwise entitled.

If your PFC stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, you may receive the merger consideration if you make an affidavit of that fact. FNB may require that you post a bond in a reasonable amount as an indemnity against any claim that may be made against FNB with respect to your lost, stolen or destroyed PFC stock certificate.

Until you exchange your PFC stock certificates, you will not receive any dividends or distributions in respect of any shares of FNB common stock you are entitled to receive upon the merger. Once you exchange your PFC stock certificates for shares of FNB common stock, FNB will pay you any dividends or distributions with a record date after the effective time of the merger and payable with respect to your shares of FNB common stock.

After FNB and we complete the merger, FNB will not allow transfers of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger, except as required to settle trades executed prior to the completion of the merger. If a person presents certificates representing shares of our common stock for transfer after the completion of the merger, FNB will cancel the certificates and exchange them for the merger consideration into which the shares represented by such certificates have been converted.

The Exchange Agent will deliver the merger consideration to a person other than the person in whose name a surrendered PFC stock certificate is registered only if the surrendered PFC stock certificate is properly endorsed and otherwise in proper form for transfer and the person requesting such exchange either affixes any requisite stock transfer tax stamps to the surrendered certificate, provides funds for their purchase or establishes to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such transfer taxes are not payable.

You may exchange your PFC stock certificates for cash and shares of FNB common stock with the Exchange Agent for up to 12 months after the completion of the merger. At the end of that period, the Exchange Agent will return any FNB shares and cash it holds to FNB. Any holders of our stock certificates who have not exchanged their certificates for the merger consideration before that date will then be entitled to look only to FNB to seek payment of the merger consideration.

FNB or the Exchange Agent may be entitled to deduct and withhold from any amounts payable to any holder of shares of our common stock such backup withholding as is required under the Code, or any state, local or foreign tax law or regulation. Any amounts that FNB or the Exchange Agent withhold will be treated as having been paid to such holder of our common stock.

Neither we nor FNB will be liable to any former holder of our common stock for any merger consideration that is paid to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

Interests of FNB's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

Timothy G. Rubritz, the Corporate Controller and principal accounting officer of FNB, is the beneficial owner of 117,976 shares of PFC common stock. Mr. Rubritz served as our Senior Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer from 1989 through November 2009 and joined FNB as its Corporate Controller and principal accounting officer in December 2009. Mr. Rubritz also maintains vested account balances in certain of our benefit plans that have not yet been distributed to him.

None of FNB's other executive officers or directors has any direct or indirect interest in the merger, except insofar as their ownership of insignificant amounts of our common stock might be deemed such an interest.

Interests of PFC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of PFC that you vote to adopt the merger agreement, you should be aware that directors and executive officers of PFC and PFC Bank have financial interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, those of PFC shareholders generally. The independent members of PFC's board of directors were aware of and considered these potential interests, among other matters.

As described in more detail below, these interests include certain payments and benefits that may be provided to the executive officers upon completion of the merger, including enhanced cash severance and continued medical, life and disability insurance benefits.

The dates and share prices used below to quantify these interests have been selected for illustrative purposes only. They do not necessarily reflect the dates on which certain events will occur and do not represent a projection about the future value of PFC common stock.

Existing Employment Agreement. PFC Bank entered into a five-year employment agreement with Robert J. McCarthy, Jr., our Vice Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, in April 1987, and PFC became a party to the agreement upon consummation of the reorganization of PFC Bank into the holding company form of organization in January 1989. The initial term of the agreement has been extended automatically for an additional year on each anniversary date of the agreement. Effective January 1, 2000, a new five-year employment agreement was entered into by the parties to reflect the holding company formation, PFC Bank's charter conversion to a savings bank and change in regulators, and changes in applicable law and regulatory policies since 1987. The 2000 agreement was amended and restated as of December 15, 2005 and December 20, 2007 in order to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations under such section and to make certain other changes. The agreement provides for a minimum annual salary of $375,000, which may be increased from time to time in such amounts as may be determined by the boards of directors of PFC and PFC Bank. In addition, Mr. McCarthy may receive bonus payments as determined by the boards of directors of PFC and PFC Bank, subject to compliance with applicable law. Prior to January 1st of each year, the boards of directors of PFC and PFC Bank shall consider all relevant factors, including Mr. McCarthy's performance, and if appropriate approve a one-year extension of the remaining term of the agreement. The term of Mr. McCarthy's agreement will be extended each year if the boards of directors of PFC and PFC Bank, collectively referred to as Parkvale, approve the extension, unless Mr. McCarthy provides at least 30 days written notice not to extend the agreement beyond its remaining term. The agreement is terminable by Parkvale for cause at any time and currently expires on January 1, 2016.

The agreement with Mr. McCarthy provides for severance payments and other benefits in the event Parkvale terminates his employment for other than cause, disability, retirement or death or Mr. McCarthy resigns for good reason, as defined in the agreement. Good reason includes a material breach of the agreement by PFC or PFC Bank, including a material diminution in Mr. McCarthy's base compensation, a material diminution in his authority, duties or responsibilities or any requirement that he report to a corporate officer or employee instead of reporting directly to the boards of directors, and also includes any material change in the geographic location at which Mr. McCarthy must perform his duties under the agreement. Mr. McCarthy may only terminate his agreement for good reason if he provides written notice of the event within 90 days of its initial existence and PFC and PFC Bank thereafter fail to remedy the condition within 30 days after receiving the written notice. In such event, Parkvale will provide a lump sum cash payment to Mr. McCarthy equal to 2.99 times the sum of the following:

his then current base salary per year;

the highest bonus or other incentive compensation paid to him during the preceding three calendar years;

the average contributions by Parkvale to Mr. McCarthy's accounts under the 401(k) Plan, the ESOP, the Executive Deferred Compensation Plan (excluding elective deferrals) and the Supplemental Executive Benefit Plan for the preceding three calendar years; and the average of all other components of Mr. McCarthy's taxable income from Parkvale for the preceding three calendar years, except that any previously deferred income shall be excluded from taxable income in the year in which such prior deferrals are paid to Mr. McCarthy.

In addition, Parkvale will continue at no cost to Mr. McCarthy his participation in all life, disability and medical insurance plans for the then-remaining term of the employment agreement or pay a lump sum cash equivalency amount if such coverage cannot be provided, plus make an additional lump sum cash payment equal to the projected cost of providing Mr. McCarthy benefits under Parkvale's other employee benefit plans, programs and arrangements (including the use of an automobile and club dues but excluding stock benefit plans) for the then-remaining term of the employment agreement. Under Mr. McCarthy's employment agreement, Mr. McCarthy could receive payments and benefits that constitute a parachute payment. Parachute payments generally are payments in excess of three times the base amount, which is defined to mean the recipient's average annual compensation from the employer includible in the recipient's gross income during the most recent five taxable years ending before the date on which a change in control of the employer occurred. Recipients of parachute payments are subject to a 20% excise tax on the amount by which such payments exceed the base amount, in addition to regular income taxes, and payments in excess of the base amount are not deductible by the employer as compensation expense for federal income tax purposes. In such event, Parkvale has agreed to pay the 20% excise tax that would otherwise be owed by Mr. McCarthy and such additional amounts as may be necessary to reimburse Mr. McCarthy for the federal, state and local income taxes and excise taxes on such amounts in order to place Mr. McCarthy in the same after-tax position he would have been in if the excise tax had not been imposed.

The employment agreement with Mr. McCarthy provides that if he dies during the term of the agreement, then his spouse or other named beneficiaries shall receive his base salary for a period of one year plus the continuation of medical, dental and hospitalization coverage for one year. If Mr. McCarthy's employment is terminated due to disability, his employment agreement provides that he will receive his base salary and other benefits for the then remaining term of the agreement, minus any disability benefits which he is entitled to receive under any disability plan of Parkvale or any governmental plan, including Social Security disability benefits or workmen's compensation benefits.

The agreement also precludes Mr. McCarthy from owning (excluding the ownership of 1% or less of the stock of a public corporation), managing, operating and controlling, being employed by or participating in or being in any way connected with any other business covered by federal deposit insurance which is located in the Pennsylvania counties of Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Fayette, Washington and Westmoreland, together with any other counties within Pennsylvania, Ohio or West Virginia in which PFC Bank has an office. Such restriction shall continue throughout Mr. McCarthy's employment with Parkvale.

Existing Change In Control Agreements. PFC and PFC Bank entered into a three-year change in control severance agreement with Gilbert A. Riazzi effective February 1, 2010, with Thomas R. Ondek originally effective December 21, 2006 and with Gail B. Anwyll originally effective February 23, 2005. The term of each agreement is extended for an additional year on each January 1st until such time as the boards of directors of either PFC or PFC Bank or the executive gives notice not to extend the term of the agreement. As a consequence, the remaining term of each agreement will stay between two and three years unless notice of non-renewal is given not less than thirty (30) days prior to any anniversary date. If either party gives timely notice that the term will not be extended as of any annual anniversary date, then the agreement shall terminate at the conclusion of its remaining term. The agreements currently expire on December 31, 2013.

The agreements provide for severance payments and other benefits in the event employment with Parkvale is terminated subsequent to a change in control of Parkvale by (i) Parkvale for other than cause, disability, retirement or death, or (ii) the executive for good reason, with the definition of good reason similar to that contained in Mr. McCarthy's employment agreement. A change in control of Parkvale is defined to include any of the following: (1) the acquisition of over 50% of the outstanding common stock of PFC or PFC Bank by any person or group, (2) the acquisition within any 12-month period of 30% or more of the outstanding common stock of PFC by any person or group, (3) a change in a majority of the board of directors of PFC within any 12-month period if the appointment or election of the new directors is not approved by a majority of the board of directors in office prior to such appointment or election, and (4) the acquisition of 40% or more of the total assets of PFC or PFC Bank within any 12-month period by any person or group. In such event, Parkvale shall pay to the executive a lump sum cash severance amount equal to two (2) times the executive's annual compensation;

maintain and provide for a period ending at the earlier of (i) the expiration of the remaining term of the agreement as of the date of termination or (ii) the date of full-time employment by another employer, at no cost to the executive, continued participation in all group insurance, life insurance, health and accident insurance, and disability insurance; and make an additional lump sum cash payment equal to the projected cost of providing the executive with benefits under Parkvale's other employee benefit plans, programs and arrangements in which the executive was entitled to participate immediately prior to the date of termination (excluding stock benefit plans and cash incentive compensation). If such payments would constitute a parachute payment under Section 280G of the Code, then the payments and benefits payable shall be reduced by the minimum amount necessary to avoid constituting a parachute payment.

Parkvale may assign the change in control agreements and its rights and obligations thereunder in whole, but not in part, to any corporation, bank or other entity with or into which either PFC or PFC Bank may merge or consolidate or which either may transfer all or substantially all of its respective assets. The executives may not assign or transfer the agreement or any rights or obligations thereunder.

Continued Employment. In order to assist with a smooth transition of the operations of PFC and its subsidiaries following completion of the merger, the merger agreement provides that FNB or one of its subsidiaries agrees to offer employment to certain executive officers and employees of PFC and its subsidiaries following the completion of the merger. The offer of employment to such individuals will be on an at-will basis, with the existing employment and change in control agreements to be assumed and honored by FNB and its subsidiaries. The base salaries to be offered to such individuals will be at an annualized level that is at least equal to their current base salaries, and the titles, duties and responsibilities of such individuals following the effective time of the merger will be determined by FNB in good faith, taking into account the current duties and responsibilities of such individuals and the requirements of the combined organization. Prior to terminating the at-will employment of any of such individuals, FNB has agreed that the individual will receive either at least two weeks' notice or pay in lieu of notice, unless the termination is for cause. FNB and its subsidiaries have the right to terminate the employment of such individuals at any time following completion of the merger.

Summary of Golden Parachute Arrangements

The following table sets forth the aggregate dollar value of the various elements of compensation that each named executive officer of PFC would receive that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger, assuming the following:

the merger closed on October 31, 2011, the last practicable date prior to the date of these materials;

the employment of Messrs. McCarthy, Riazzi and Ondek and Ms. Anwyll had been terminated without cause immediately following the closing of the merger on October 31, 2011; the projected costs of providing continued life, health, dental and accident insurance coverage is based on current premiums, which are assumed to increase by 10% on January 1st of each year; and FNB and Mr. McCarthy mutually agree to take certain actions, and that such actions are actually taken, to avoid the Section 280G tax gross-up that Mr. McCarthy would otherwise be entitled to receive under his employment agreement. Mr. McCarthy has indicated that he is willing to take certain actions to avoid or minimize the amount of the tax reimbursement that would be required in the absence of any tax planning.

Any changes in these assumptions or estimates would affect the amounts shown in the following table. Because all stock options held by the named executive officers of PFC are fully vested and all account balances held by the named executive officers under our benefit plans are fully vested, the values associated with such vested stock options and vested account balances are not included in the following table.

Golden Parachute Compensation

Name	Cash Severance (1)	Perquisites/ Benefits (1)	Tax Reimbursement (2)	Total (3)
Robert J. McCarthy, Jr.	$ 2,085,940(4)	$ 169,124(8)		$ 2,255,064
Gilbert A. Riazzi	$ 309,608(5)	$ 26,743(9)		$ 336,351
Thomas R. Ondek	$ 227,722(6)	$ 64,261(9)		$ 291,983
Gail A. Anwyll	$ 232,498(7)	$ 60,022(9)		$ 292,500

- (1) All amounts listed in this column are payable only if a terminating event occurs concurrently with or subsequent to the change in control and during the term of the employment or change in control agreement. See Existing Employment Agreement and Existing Change in Control Agreements above.
- (2) Assuming that FNB and Mr. McCarthy mutually agree to take certain actions, and that such actions are actually taken, to avoid the Section 280G tax gross-up that Mr. McCarthy would otherwise be entitled to receive under his employment agreement, no amount is reportable in this column. If the tax planning actions are not agreed to, or if such tax planning is not successful, then Mr. McCarthy would be entitled to receive a tax gross-up payment from FNB under his current employment agreement, which amount is currently estimated to be $808,992. Payments of cash severance and perquisites/benefits under Mr. McCarthy's employment agreement trigger liability under Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code for an excise tax on excess parachute payments. Since payment of the cash severance and perquisites/benefits are conditioned upon termination of Mr. McCarthy's employment, the tax reimbursement is also deemed to be conditioned upon termination of Mr. McCarthy's employment. As stated above, Mr. McCarthy has indicated that he is willing to take certain actions to avoid the amount of the tax reimbursement that would be required in the absence of any tax planning. It is currently estimated that there will be no cutback in the payments to Messrs. Riazzi and Ondek and Ms. Anwyll.
- (3) The amounts listed in this column represent the total golden parachute payments to be made to each named executive officer. In each case, the total payments shown for each of the named executive officers are attributable to a double-trigger arrangement (i.e., payment is conditioned upon the executive's termination without cause or resignation for good reason concurrently with or subsequent to the change in control and during the term of the executive's employment or change in control agreement).
- (4) Represents an amount equal to 2.99 times the sum of the following: (a) Mr. McCarthy's current base salary of $375,000, (b) the highest bonus paid to Mr. McCarthy in the three prior calendar years, which bonus was $275,000, and (c) the average for the three prior calendar years of the contributions made by PFC and PFC Bank to Mr. McCarthy's accounts under the 401(k) Plan, the ESOP, the Executive Deferred Compensation Plan and the Supplemental Executive Benefit Plan. See Existing Employment Agreement above.
- (5) Represents an amount equal to 2.00 times Mr. Riazzi's current base salary of $154,804. Mr. Riazzi did not receive any employer matching contributions to his 401(k) account in 2010.
- (6) Represents an amount equal to the sum of the following: (a) 2.00 times Mr. Ondek's current base salary of $111,488, and (b) 3.00 times the matching contribution of $1,582 to Mr. Ondek's 401(k) account in 2010.
- (7) Represents an amount equal to the sum of the following: (a) 2.00 times Ms. Anwyll's current base salary of $111,501, and (b) 3.00 times the matching contribution of $3,165 to Ms. Anwyll's 401(k) account in 2010.

Each of the foregoing amounts have been discounted to present value using a discount rate equal to 1.43%, which equals 120% of the mid-term discount rate published by the IRS for October 2011. The IRS discount rates change monthly, and we will need to use the discount rate for the month in which the merger is actually completed.
- (9) Represents the present value of the estimated projected cost of continuing medical, vision, life, disability and accident insurance premiums (and dental premiums for Ms. Anwyll) for 36 months. Such amounts have been discounted to present value using a discount rate equal to 0.19%, which equals 120% of the short-term discount rate published by the IRS for October 2011. The IRS discount rates change monthly, and we will need to use the discount rate for the month in which the merger is actually completed.

For as long as the PFC Preferred Stock is outstanding, both PFC and PFC Bank are prohibited from making any payments to their ten most highly compensated employees in connection with a termination of employment or a change in control, except that such prohibition does not apply to any of the following: (1) payments pursuant to tax-qualified plans, (2) payments resulting from death or disability or (3) payments for services performed or benefits accrued prior to the date of termination, including benefits payable under our Supplemental Executive Benefit Plan, Executive Deferred Compensation Plan and individual deferred compensation agreements, except to the extent considered a bonus, incentive compensation or retention award. In addition, such prohibition does not apply to any employees of PFC or PFC Bank who become employees of FNB as a result of the merger. FNB and PFC have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to have the PFC Preferred Stock either purchased by FNB or one of its subsidiaries or redeemed by PFC prior to or concurrently with completion of the merger. See The Merger Agreement Treatment of PFC Preferred Stock and PFC TARP Warrant. The dollar amounts shown in the above Golden Parachute Compensation table assume that either of the following occurs: (a) the PFC Preferred Stock is purchased or redeemed prior to or concurrently with completion of the merger, or (b) the executives shown in the table accept the offer of continued employment on an at-will basis to be made by FNB or one of its subsidiaries. See Continued Employment above.

Treatment of Equity Awards. PFC's executive officers and directors participate in PFC's equity-based compensation plans and hold PFC stock options granted in accordance with the terms of such plans. At the time of execution of the merger agreement on June 15, 2011, the directors and executive officers of PFC and PFC Bank as a group held options to acquire an aggregate of 232,750 shares of PFC common stock, all of which were fully vested. The PFC stock options will be converted into stock options to purchase FNB common stock upon completion of the merger. For a more detailed explanation of the treatment of PFC stock options, see The Merger Agreement Treatment of PFC Stock Options beginning on page 77.

Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plans. PFC and PFC Bank maintain certain non-qualified deferred compensation plans for the benefit of certain executive officers, including the Supplemental Executive Benefit Plan, the Executive Deferred Compensation Plan and certain older deferred compensation agreements, which we refer to herein collectively as the Plans and individually as a Plan. Several of our named executive officers, including our President and Chief Executive Officer, Robert J. McCarthy, Jr., is a participant in one or more of the Plans and holds the account balances listed in the table below. Benefits under the Plans are fully vested and are not increased by reason of the merger. Benefits are payable in accordance with the terms of the Plans and the participants' respective elections, which may include payments upon the occurrence of the merger, as a change in control, or, in the event that a Plan or the Plans are terminated and liquidated prior to the merger, such earlier time preceding the merger as may be permitted by applicable law.

The following table sets forth the fair market value of the account balance as of October 31, 2011 of each of our named executive officers who participate in our non-qualified deferred compensation arrangements. Mr. Riazzi and Ms. Anwyll do not participate in these plans.

Robert J. McCarthy, Jr.	Supplemental Executive Benefit Plan	859,362
	Executive Deferred Compensation Plan	1,358,091
	Deferred fees(2)	617,233
	Deferred compensation(2)	1,868,895
Thomas R. Ondek	Executive Deferred Compensation Plan	2,884

(1) The aggregate balances of the Supplemental Executive Benefit Plan and the Executive Deferred Compensation Plan at October 31, 2011 reflect amounts allocated to the accounts of the executives since they first became participants in the plans, which were adopted in 1994. Because such amounts were primarily invested in PFC's common stock, the aggregate balances also reflect accumulated dividends on the shares of common stock plus appreciation in the fair market value of the common stock. The balances at October 31, 2011 are based on the closing price of $21.75 per share of PFC common stock on October 31, 2011. The aggregate number of shares held in all of the non-qualified deferred compensation arrangements on behalf of each named executive and the dollar value of such shares are as follows: Mr. McCarthy, 214,853 shares valued at $4.7 million, and Mr. Ondek, 132 shares valued at $2,871. The shares held in all deferred compensation accounts are included as outstanding shares by PFC held for the benefit of the named executives.

- (2) In the initial years of his employment with PFC Bank, Mr. McCarthy deferred a portion of his salary and director fees. These deferrals were elections made by Mr. McCarthy without any type of contributions by either PFC or PFC Bank. The deferrals were used to purchase PFC common stock when PFC Bank went public in July 1987. The accumulated shares earn dividends that are reinvested in PFC common stock on an annual basis.

Indemnification and Insurance. FNB and PFC have agreed in the merger agreement that, from and after the effective time of the merger, FNB will indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of PFC or any of its subsidiaries against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal or administrative, pertaining or relating to the merger agreement or such person's position as a former director or officer of PFC. FNB has also agreed in the merger agreement that, for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, it will cause the former directors and officers of PFC to be covered by the directors' and officers' insurance policy maintained by PFC or by a policy of at least the same coverage and containing terms no less advantageous to its beneficiaries than PFC's policy.

Share Ownership of PFC and PFC Bank Directors and Executive Officers. As of October 20, 2011, the directors and executive officers of PFC and PFC Bank may be deemed to be the beneficial owners of 916,994 shares (excluding stock options), representing 16.4% of the outstanding shares of PFC common stock. See the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Voting Agreements" beginning on page 93 for further information regarding these voting agreements.

FNB and FNB Bank boards of directors. FNB has agreed in the merger agreement that Robert J. McCarthy, Jr. will be appointed to serve on the board of directors of FNB upon consummation of the merger. Mr. McCarthy will be entitled to receive the annual retainer fee and the annual stock awards paid to other non-employee directors of FNB. Currently, FNB pays a minimum annual retainer fee of $52,500 and provides annual grants of FNB common stock having a market value of $20,000. If Mr. McCarthy does not become a director of FNB because of death or disability, then PFC and FNB will mutually agree upon the addition to the board of directors of FNB of another director of PFC. In addition, a member of the board of directors of PFC or PFC Bank who is mutually agreeable to FNB and PFC also will be appointed to the board of directors of FNB Bank. FNB Bank pays its directors $1,500 for each board meeting attended in person and $300 for each committee meeting attended in person, with a fee of $125 for each committee meeting attended by telephone.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger and the Bank Merger

Completion of the merger and the merger of FNB Bank and PFC Bank are each subject to several federal and state bank regulatory agency filings and approvals. FNB and we cannot complete the merger and the bank merger unless and until FNB and FNB Bank receive all necessary prior approvals from the applicable bank regulatory authorities.

Neither FNB nor we can predict whether or when FNB and we will obtain the required regulatory approvals, waivers or exemptions necessary for the merger of FNB with us and the merger of FNB Bank with PFC Bank.

Table of Contents

Federal Reserve Board. Because FNB is a financial holding company registered under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, or the BHCA, and we are a registered savings and loan holding company, under the Home Owners Loan Act, or the HOLA, the merger is subject to prior approval from the Federal Reserve Board under the BHCA. FNB and we anticipate that the request for the requisite Federal Reserve Board clearances will be submitted in early November 2011.

In general, the Federal Reserve Board will not approve the merger if, under the applicable statutes, such merger:

would result in a monopoly;

would be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States; or may have the effect in any section of the United States of substantially lessening competition, tending to create a monopoly or resulting in a restraint of trade, unless the Federal Reserve Board finds that the anti-competitive effects of the transactions are clearly outweighed by the public interest and the probable effect of the merger in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

In addition, in reviewing a merger under applicable statutes, the Federal Reserve Board will consider the financial and managerial resources of the companies and any subsidiary banks, and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served as well as the records of the companies in combating money laundering. Among other things, the Federal Reserve Board will evaluate the capital adequacy of the combined company after completion of the merger. In connection with its review, the Federal Reserve Board will provide an opportunity for public comment on the application for the merger, and is authorized to hold a public meeting or other proceedings if it determines that would be appropriate.

OCC. The merger of PFC Bank with and into FNB Bank is subject to the prior approval of the OCC under the Bank Merger Act. FNB and FNB Bank filed an Interagency Merger Application for approval of the bank merger with the OCC on September 19, 2011. In reviewing applications under the Bank Merger Act, the OCC must consider, among other factors, the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the existing and proposed institutions, the convenience and needs of the communities to be served and the effectiveness of both institutions in combating money laundering. In addition, the OCC may not approve a merger:

that will result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States;

if the effect of the merger in any section of the country may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly; or if the merger would in any other manner be a restraint of trade, unless the OCC finds that the anticompetitive effects of the merger are clearly outweighed by the public interest and the probable effect of the merger in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

Under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, or the CRA, the OCC must also take into account the records of performance of PFC Bank and FNB Bank in meeting the credit needs of their markets, including low and moderate income neighborhoods served by each institution. As part of the merger review process, the federal supervisory agencies frequently receive comments and protests from community groups and others. PFC Bank and FNB Bank each received a Satisfactory rating in their most recent CRA evaluations.

The OCC is also authorized to, but generally does not, hold a public hearing or meeting in connection with an application under the Bank Merger Act. A decision by the OCC that such a hearing or meeting would be appropriate regarding any application could prolong the period during which the application is subject to review.

Mergers approved by the OCC under the Bank Merger Act, with certain exceptions, may not be consummated until 30 days after such approval, during which time the U.S. Department of Justice may challenge such merger on antitrust grounds and may require the divestiture of certain assets and liabilities. With approval of the OCC and the Department of Justice, the waiting period may be, and customarily is, reduced to no less than 15 days. There can be no assurance that the Department of Justice will not challenge the merger or, if such a challenge is made, as to the result of such challenge.

U.S. Treasury. The merger agreement provides that upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of the PFC Preferred Stock will be converted into the right to receive one share of FNB preferred stock with substantially the same rights, powers and preferences as the PFC Preferred Stock, and that the PFC TARP Warrant will be converted into a warrant to purchase shares of FNB common stock, subject to appropriate adjustments to reflect the exchange ratio. According to the terms of the PFC Preferred Stock, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66-2/3% of the outstanding shares of the PFC Preferred Stock, voting as a separate class, is required to approve a merger or consolidation between us and another corporation or other entity in which we are not the surviving or resulting entity or its ultimate parent, unless the shares of PFC Preferred Stock are converted into or exchanged for preference securities of the surviving or resulting entity or its ultimate parent and such preference securities have rights, preferences, privileges and voting powers, and limitations and restrictions thereof, which, taken as a whole, are not materially less favorable than the rights, preferences, privileges and voting powers, and limitations and restrictions thereof, of the PFC Preferred Stock immediately prior to the completion of the merger or consolidation, taken as a whole. Similarly, the terms of the PFC TARP Warrant provide that in the event of a merger or consolidation, the right of the holder of the PFC TARP Warrant to receive shares of PFC common stock will be converted into the right to exercise the PFC TARP Warrant to acquire the number of shares of stock or other securities or property into which the PFC common stock issuable upon exercise of the PFC TARP Warrant immediately prior to the merger would have been entitled to receive upon completion of the merger or consolidation. FNB and we intend that, concurrently with or prior to completion of the merger, either FNB or one of its subsidiaries will purchase the PFC Preferred Stock, or we will redeem the PFC Preferred Stock. In the event that FNB and we are unable to complete the purchase or redemption of the PFC Preferred Stock, we believe that conversion of the PFC Preferred Stock into preference securities of FNB and the conversion of the PFC TARP Warrant into a warrant to purchase FNB common stock, each according to the terms of the merger agreement, will comply with the terms of the PFC Preferred Stock and the PFC TARP Warrant such that a separate vote by 66-2/3% of the outstanding shares of PFC Preferred Stock will not be required to approve the merger. In the event of a determination by the U.S. Treasury that the terms of the merger agreement conflict with and do not comply with the requirements of the PFC Preferred Stock or the PFC TARP Warrant, the vote of the U.S. Treasury, as the sole holder of the PFC Preferred Stock, and voting as a separate class, will be required to approve the merger.

In addition, the purchase or redemption of the PFC Preferred Stock requires the approval and cooperation of the U.S. Treasury, in addition to the approval of the Federal Reserve Board and OCC described above. In order to request a purchase from the U.S. Treasury of the PFC Preferred Stock and, if so desired, the PFC TARP Warrant (or a redemption by PFC of the preferred stock and, if so desired, a repurchase of the warrant), PFC and FNB must notify the U.S. Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board of the intent to purchase or redeem, as the case may be. After receiving such notice from PFC and FNB, the U.S. Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board will consult concerning the request. When all consultations among the regulatory agencies have been completed, the U.S. Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board will advise PFC and FNB concerning the completion of the purchase or redemption request. If FNB elects to purchase the PFC TARP Warrant from the U.S. Treasury (or to fund the repurchase of the warrant by PFC), FNB or PFC, as the case may be, must hire an independent advisor to value the warrant in accordance with standard industry practices and present the offer to the U.S. Treasury, which will independently calculate its own determination of fair market value using a process which includes third party input. If those values differ, then the U.S. Treasury and FNB or PFC, as the case may be, will follow a process defined in Section 4.9 of the Securities Purchase Agreement, dated December 23, 2008, entered into between PFC and the U.S. Treasury in connection with the U.S. Treasury's purchase of the PFC Preferred Stock. For a summary of the provisions in the merger agreement regarding the purchase or redemption of the PFC Preferred Stock from the U.S. Treasury, see The Merger Agreement - Purchase or Redemption of PFC Preferred Stock on page 90. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, FNB has engaged in preliminary discussions with the U.S. Treasury regarding the proposed purchase or redemption of the PFC Preferred Stock.

Pennsylvania Department of Banking. The prior written approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking, or the Department, is required under Section 115 of the Pennsylvania Banking Code for the merger of PFC with and into FNB. FNB submitted an application seeking approval of the proposed merger with the Department on September 19, 2011. The criteria for the Department's approval is determined by what is permissible under federal law and regulations. However, the prior written approval of the Department is not required for the proposed merger of PFC Bank, which is a Pennsylvania state-chartered savings institution, with and into FNB Bank, which is a national association, because the resulting institution will be a national association. PFC Bank is required to provide certain notice and documents to the Department regarding the proposed merger.

Other Regulatory Approvals. Neither we nor FNB are aware of any other regulatory approvals that either of us require for completion of the merger other than approvals we describe above. Should FNB or we require any other approvals, we and FNB presently contemplate both of us would seek to obtain such approvals. There can be no assurance, however, that FNB and we can obtain any other approvals, if required.

There can be no assurance that the regulatory authorities described above will approve the merger or the bank merger, and if such mergers are approved, there can be no assurance as to the date on which FNB and we will receive such approvals. The mergers cannot proceed in the absence of the receipt of all requisite regulatory approvals. See The Merger Agreement - Conditions to Completion of the Merger and The Merger Agreement - Termination of the Merger Agreement.

The approval of any application merely implies the satisfaction of regulatory criteria for approval. Any such approval does not include review of the merger from the standpoint of the adequacy of the merger consideration our shareholders will receive upon the merger. Further, regulatory approvals do not constitute an endorsement or recommendation of the merger.

Public Trading Markets

FNB common stock is listed on the NYSE under the symbol FNB. Our common stock is traded on NASDAQ under the symbol PVSA. Upon completion of the merger, our common stock will cease to be traded on NASDAQ, and FNB as the surviving company in the merger will deregister it under the Exchange Act. FNB will list the FNB common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement on the NYSE upon receipt of NYSE approval and subject to official notice of issuance.

As reported on the NYSE, the closing price per share of FNB common stock on June 14, 2011 was $10.44. As reported by NASDAQ, the closing price per share of our common stock on NASDAQ on June 14, 2011 was $10.88. Based on the FNB closing price per share on the NYSE and the exchange ratio, the pro forma equivalent per share value of our common stock was $22.74 as of that date. On October 31, 2011, the last practicable full trading day before the date of these materials, the closing price per share of FNB common stock on the NYSE was $10.09, and the closing price per share of our common stock on NASDAQ was $21.75, resulting in a pro forma equivalent per share value of our common stock of $21.98 as of that date.

Dividends

Shareholders currently owning our common stock would receive upon completion of the merger an anticipated dividend at an annual rate of $1.05 in respect of each share of PFC common stock held based on the 2.178 to 1 exchange ratio in the merger.

FNB shareholders have the right to receive cash dividends when and if declared by the FNB board of directors out of funds legally available for dividends. The FNB board of directors considers the payment of dividends quarterly, taking into account FNB's financial condition and its current and projected net income, FNB's future prospects, economic conditions, industry practices and other factors, including applicable banking laws and regulations.

The primary source of FNB's funds for cash dividends to its shareholders is dividends it receives from its subsidiaries, and principally from FNB Bank. FNB Bank is subject to various regulatory policies and requirements relating to the payment of dividends to FNB, including requirements to maintain capital above regulatory minimums. The appropriate federal bank regulatory authority has the authority to determine, under certain circumstances relating to the financial condition of a bank or bank holding company, that the payment of dividends would be an unsafe or unsound practice and to prohibit payment of any dividends. In addition, the various minimum capital requirements the federal banking regulatory authorities adopt and the capital and non-capital standards FDICIA establishes, as well as recent federal legislation, including the Dodd-Frank Act, could under certain circumstances adversely affect the ability of FNB to pay dividends to its shareholders as well as the ability of FNB Bank to pay dividends to FNB.

Delisting and Deregistration of PFC Common Stock Following the Merger

If the merger is completed, PFC common stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ Global Select Market and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

No Dissenters' Rights

Under Pennsylvania law, shareholders of a corporation are not entitled to exercise dissenters' rights if shares of the corporation are registered on a national securities exchange, designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority or held beneficially or of record by more than 2,000 persons. Consequently, because PFC's common stock is currently listed on NASDAQ, shareholders of PFC will not have the right to exercise dissenters' rights. If the merger agreement is adopted and the merger is completed, shareholders who voted against the adoption of the merger agreement will be treated the same as shareholders who voted for the adoption of the merger agreement and their shares will automatically be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration.

Litigation Related to the Merger

On October 14, 2011, William M. Curnow and Jane Curnow, purported shareholders of PFC, filed a shareholder class and derivative action in the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania captioned Curnow v. Parkvale Financial Corporation, et. al., Civil Action No.61-11-21122 (the Allegheny County Lawsuit). The lawsuit names as defendants each of the current members of PFC's board of directors (the Director Defendants) and PFC. The complaint alleges that the Director Defendants breached their fiduciary duties by agreeing to the merger agreement because the merger consideration was alleged to be grossly inadequate, and that breaches of fiduciary duties were exacerbated by deal protection devices that preclude other bidders from making a successful competing offer for PFC. The lawsuit also alleges that the preliminary proxy statement/prospectus, which was included in the registration statement on Form S-4 filed by FNB with the SEC on September 28, 2011, failed to provide material information necessary for PFC's shareholders to make a fully informed decision concerning the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and that such document allegedly misrepresented certain material information. The lawsuit also alleges that the Director Defendants breached their fiduciary duties of loyalty, due care, independence, disclosure and good faith and fair dealing, and that PFC and FNB have aided and abetted such breaches. The lawsuit seeks, among other things, a preliminary and permanent injunction to prohibit PFC from completing the merger, as well as the payment of the fees and expenses of the plaintiffs' attorneys. The Allegheny County Lawsuit seeks certification of a class of plaintiffs consisting of all holders of PFC common shares, with the exception of the named defendants.

In connection with the proposed merger with FNB, PFC has received two letters from attorneys representing separate purported shareholders, including William and Jane Curnow, demanding that the board remedy alleged breaches of fiduciary duties in connection with the merger (the Demand Letters). The Demand Letters assert that PFC's directors breached their fiduciary duties by causing PFC to enter into the merger agreement. The demand letter on behalf of William and Jane Curnow dated June 29, 2011 demanded that the board of directors of PFC appoint a special committee of directors to renegotiate certain terms of the merger agreement and to independently conclude that the exchange ratio is fair from a financial point of view. A second demand letter on behalf of another shareholder dated August 15, 2011 demanded that the board take action to ensure that the merger consideration is fair to PFC and its shareholders, to recover certain alleged damages and to remedy the alleged breaches of fiduciary duties.

On July 28, 2011, the board of directors of PFC appointed a special committee consisting of three independent directors to review the matters raised in the June 29, 2011 demand letter. Pursuant to the authority granted in the resolution appointing the special committee, the committee also undertook to review the demand letter dated August 15, 2011 and the allegations of the Allegheny County Lawsuit. The special committee engaged separate independent counsel who had no prior involvement in the merger and no prior relationship with PFC or any of its directors. With the assistance of such independent counsel, the special committee thoroughly reviewed the matters raised in the Demand Letters and the Allegheny County Lawsuit (the allegations of which were largely duplicative of the Demand Letters). The special committee unanimously concluded that the claims asserted in the Demand Letters and the Allegheny County Lawsuit were without merit, and that it was not in the best interest of PFC to pursue the purported claims. The report of the special committee, which was adopted on October 31, 2011, directed that PFC seek dismissal of the Allegheny County Lawsuit, or a resolution of that lawsuit consistent with the committee's findings and conclusions.

On November 2, 2011, solely to avoid the costs, risks and uncertainties inherent in litigation, PFC and the Director Defendants entered into a memorandum of understanding with the Curnows that describes a settlement of the Allegheny County Lawsuit. The settlement is expressly subject to approval by the court. Pursuant to the terms of the memorandum, PFC agreed to make additional information available to its shareholders, which additional information is contained in this document. In return, the Curnows have agreed to withdraw all motions and requests for interim relief filed in the Allegheny County Lawsuit, including their motion to enjoin the shareholder vote on the merger. The memorandum provides for limited discovery prior to the submission of the settlement for court approval. If the court approves the settlement contemplated in the memorandum, the Allegheny County Lawsuit will be dismissed with prejudice, and all claims that were or could have been brought challenging any aspect of the proposed merger, the merger agreement, and any disclosure made in connection therewith will be released and barred. Under the terms of the memorandum, counsel for the Curnows will petition the court for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses. PFC and the Director Defendants have reserved the right to contest the fee and expense petition. The amount of the fees and expenses awarded will ultimately be determined and approved by the court, and will not affect the amount of merger consideration to be paid by FNB. PFC (or its successor, FNB) will pay the fees and expenses awarded by the court. In the memorandum, the parties have agreed to negotiate in good faith to prepare a stipulation of settlement to be filed with the court and other documentation as may be required to effectuate the settlement. There can be no assurance that the parties will ultimately enter into a stipulation of settlement or that the court will approve the settlement even if the parties were to enter into such stipulation. In such event, the proposed settlement contemplated by the memorandum of understanding may be terminated.

Consistent with the committee's findings, PFC and the Director Defendants vigorously deny that they engaged in any of the wrongful acts that were alleged in the lawsuit and Demand Letters, and the Director Defendants expressly maintain that they diligently complied with their fiduciary duties and other legal obligations.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following section is a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement. The following description of the merger agreement is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the merger agreement, which we include as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and incorporate by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. This summary may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that may be important to you. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety.

Terms of the Merger

The merger agreement provides for our merger with and into FNB. FNB will be the surviving corporation in the merger and will continue its corporate existence as a Florida corporation, and our separate corporate existence will cease. Each share of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger, except for shares of our common stock that FNB, its subsidiaries or our subsidiaries hold, and shares that we hold as treasury shares, will become, by operation of law, the right to receive 2.178 shares of FNB common stock, which we refer to herein as the exchange ratio.

If, prior to the completion of the merger, FNB declares a stock dividend or distribution with a record date prior to the completion of the merger, or subdivides, splits up, reclassifies or combines shares of its capital stock, or makes a distribution other than a regular quarterly cash dividend on its capital stock or any security convertible into its capital stock, or shares of FNB capital stock are increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares by reason of any reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or other similar change in FNB's capitalization, other than a business combination transaction with another bank holding company or financial services company, then FNB will make proportionate adjustments to the exchange ratio or the merger consideration for the PFC Preferred Stock, which adjustment may include the issuance of securities, property or cash on the same basis that it was issued, distributed or paid to holders of FNB's capital stock.

FNB will not issue any fractional shares of FNB common stock in the merger. For each fractional share that our shareholders would otherwise have the right to receive, FNB will pay an amount in cash, without interest, rounded to the nearest cent, equal to the product of the fractional share held by that shareholder multiplied by the average closing price of FNB common stock for the 20 consecutive trading-day period ending on and including the fifth trading day prior to the effective date of the merger. No holder of fractional shares of FNB will have the right to receive dividends or other rights in respect of such fractional shares.

The FNB articles of incorporation and the FNB bylaws as in effect immediately prior to the completion of the merger will be the articles of incorporation and the bylaws of the combined company.

The merger agreement provides that FNB may at any time change the structure of the merger but no such change may alter the amount or kind of common stock merger consideration to be provided under the merger agreement, adversely affect the U.S. federal income tax consequences to PFC common shareholders in the merger, or materially impede or delay consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Treatment of PFC Stock Options

Upon completion of the merger, all options to purchase shares of PFC common stock pursuant to equity-based compensation plans and award agreements evidencing the grants of such options, which are outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the completion of the merger, shall be converted into fully vested and exercisable options to purchase shares of FNB common stock, as adjusted for the exchange ratio.

Treatment of PFC Preferred Stock and PFC TARP Warrant

Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of the PFC Preferred Stock, unless purchased or redeemed prior to the effective time of the merger, will be converted into the right to receive one share of FNB preferred stock with rights, preferences, privileges and voting powers and limitations and restrictions that are not materially less favorable as a whole than those of the PFC Preferred Stock. Upon completion of the merger, the PFC TARP Warrant also will be converted into a warrant to purchase FNB common stock, subject to appropriate adjustments to reflect the exchange ratio. Subject to the receipt of requisite regulatory approvals, FNB and PFC have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to have the PFC Preferred Stock either purchased by FNB or one of its subsidiaries, in which case it is expected to be extinguished upon consummation of the merger, or redeemed by PFC. FNB also may elect to have the PFC TARP Warrant purchased, redeemed or repurchased, but is not obligated to do so.

Board of Directors of the Combined Company

Upon completion of the merger, the board of directors of FNB will constitute the board of directors of the combined company and will be expanded by one member. Robert J. McCarthy, Jr., our President and Chief Executive Officer, will be appointed as a member of the combined company's board of directors. Upon completion of the merger, a member of the board of directors of PFC or PFC Bank who is mutually agreeable to FNB and PFC also will be appointed to the board of directors of FNB Bank. The executive officers of FNB will continue as the executive officers of the combined company.

Bank Merger

As soon as practicable after the completion of the merger, PFC Bank will merge into FNB Bank, which will continue as a national bank.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger

The closing of the merger will take place at a time and on the date specified by FNB and PFC, which date will be no later than the fifth business day after the satisfaction or waiver of the latest to occur of the closing conditions specified in the merger agreement, other than conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied or waived at the closing. FNB and PFC may extend such date by mutual agreement. The merger will become effective when FNB files articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida and we file articles of merger with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Exchange and Payment Procedures

As promptly as practicable following the effective time of the merger, FNB will deposit with Registrar and Transfer Company, or the Exchange Agent, book entry shares representing the aggregate number of shares of FNB capital stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement in exchange for the shares of PFC capital stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, and immediately available funds equal to any dividends or distributions payable to the PFC shareholders in accordance with the merger agreement, and cash to be paid to PFC shareholders in lieu of fractional shares of FNB common stock.

As soon as practicable after the effective time of the merger, and in no event more than five business days after the effective time of the merger, the Exchange Agent will mail each holder of record of PFC capital stock a letter of transmittal containing instructions for use in effecting the surrender of certificates representing shares of PFC capital stock in exchange for the merger consideration or cash in lieu of fractional shares. After the effective time of the merger, each holder of a PFC stock certificate, other than certificates representing treasury shares (as defined in the merger agreement), who has surrendered such certificate or who has provided customary affidavits and indemnification regarding the loss or destruction of such certificate, together with duly executed transmittal materials, to the Exchange Agent, will be entitled to receive, for each share of our common stock, 2.178 shares of FNB common stock in book entry form and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of FNB common stock to which such holder is otherwise entitled. FNB will have no obligation to deliver the merger consideration or cash in lieu of fractional shares to any PFC shareholder until the PFC shareholder surrenders his certificates representing his shares of PFC capital stock.

If a PFC stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Exchange Agent will issue the consideration properly payable under the merger agreement upon receipt of an affidavit of that fact by the claimant. FNB may require the claimant to post a bond in a reasonable amount as an indemnity against any claim that may be made against FNB with respect to the claimant's lost, stolen or destroyed PFC stock certificate.

The Exchange Agent or, following the first anniversary of the effective time of the merger, FNB, may be entitled to deduct and withhold from any cash amounts payable to any holder of shares of our common stock such amounts as the Exchange Agent or FNB is required to deduct and withhold under the Code, or any state, local or foreign tax law or regulation. Any amounts that FNB or the Exchange Agent withhold will be treated as having been paid to such holder of our capital stock.

PFC stock certificates may be exchanged for shares of FNB common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares of FNB common stock through the Exchange Agent for up to 12 months after the completion of the merger. At the end of that period, the Exchange Agent will return any FNB shares and cash to FNB. Any holders of our stock certificates who have not exchanged their certificates for the merger consideration before that date will then be entitled to look only to FNB to seek payment of the merger consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of FNB common stock and any unpaid dividends or distributions payable to such holder pursuant to the merger agreement. Neither PFC nor FNB will be liable to any former holder of PFC common stock for any merger consideration that is paid to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

Following the effective time of the merger, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of PFC other than to settle transfers of PFC capital stock that occurred prior to the effective time of the merger.

Dividends and Distributions

Following surrender of PFC stock certificates for exchange, the record holder of the whole shares of FNB capital stock issued in exchange for such PFC stock will be paid, without interest:

at the time of surrender, any dividends or distributions with a record date prior to the effective time of the merger that were declared by PFC in respect of shares of PFC capital stock after June 15, 2011 and which remain unpaid at the effective time of the merger;

at the time of surrender, any cash payable in lieu of a fractional share of FNB common stock to which the holder is entitled, and the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the effective time of the merger and which became payable with respect to whole shares of FNB common stock prior to the time of surrender; and at the appropriate payment date, any dividends or distributions in respect of whole shares of FNB capital stock with a record date that is after the effective time of the merger and prior to the date of surrender, but for which the payment date is after the date of surrender.

PFC has agreed that, prior to the completion of the merger, it will not declare or pay any dividend or distribution on its capital stock other than:

dividends and distributions by a subsidiary of PFC to PFC or a wholly-owned subsidiary of PFC;

regular quarterly cash dividends on the PFC Series A Preferred Stock in accordance with its terms; and regular quarterly cash dividends with customary record and payment dates which do not exceed $0.02 per share on the PFC common stock.

However, from and after June 15, 2011, PFC is required to coordinate the declaration of any dividend on its common stock and the record dates and payment dates for those dividends with FNB's declaration of regular quarterly dividends on its common stock and the record dates and payment dates established by FNB so that holders of PFC common stock do not receive two dividends (or fail to receive a dividend) in any quarter.

In determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred in respect of the business, results of operations or financial condition of a party and its subsidiaries, FNB and PFC will disregard any effects resulting from:

Reasonable Best Efforts

FNB and we have agreed to use our reasonable best efforts to prepare and file all documentation, applications, notices, petitions and filings and to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties, regulatory agencies and governmental entities as may be necessary or advisable to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. FNB further agreed it will file all appropriate applications and notices with the regulatory agencies and governmental entities having jurisdiction over the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement within 60 days after the date of the merger agreement. With PFC's consent, FNB and FNB Bank filed applications seeking approval of the proposed mergers with the OCC and the Department on September 19, 2011. FNB and we will consult with each other to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties, regulatory agencies and governmental entities and keep each other apprised as to the status of matters relating to the completion of the merger. However, FNB is not obligated to take any action that would, after completion of the merger, be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on

Access to Information

Upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, FNB and we will provide the other party (and its officers, employees, accountants, counsel and other representatives) reasonable access during normal business hours to all properties, books, contracts, records and personnel as may be reasonably requested.

NYSE Approval

FNB is required to cause the shares of FNB common stock to be issued in the merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the effective time of the merger.

Employee Benefit Plans

The merger agreement provides that FNB shall take all reasonable action to permit our employees to participate, as soon as administratively practicable after completion of the merger, in each employee benefit plan of FNB of general applicability, other than FNB's defined benefit pension plan and any other plan frozen to new participants, to the same extent as similarly situated FNB employees.

FNB will generally provide our employees with service credit for their service with us for purposes of determining eligibility to participate in, the vesting of benefits under and the entitlement to benefits under the employee benefit and compensation plans of FNB in which such employees are eligible to participate following the merger, except to the extent such recognition would result in duplication of benefits.

FNB has agreed to cause its medical, dental and health plans to:

waive any pre-existing condition limitation to the extent such conditions are covered under the applicable medical, health and dental plans of PFC and its subsidiaries;

honor any deductibles, co-payments and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by employees of PFC and its subsidiaries and their beneficiaries during the portion of the plan year prior to their participation in FNB's plans; and waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement under FNB's welfare benefit plans in which our employees are eligible to participate following the merger to the extent that the applicable employee had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under the corresponding PFC plan in which such employee participated prior to the merger.

The merger agreement provides that immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, we shall freeze or terminate each of our benefit plans if FNB so requests in a timely manner.

The merger agreement also provides that PFC will permit the Parkvale Financial Corporation Employee Stock Ownership Plan, as amended and restated effective as of January 1, 2008, which we refer to herein as the ESOP, to terminate in accordance with its terms effective as of the occurrence of a "change in control" as defined in the ESOP. Upon the occurrence of a change in control under the ESOP, all participant and beneficiary accounts will become fully vested. Upon completion of the merger, each share of our common stock held in the ESOP will be converted into the right to receive 2.178 shares of FNB common stock pursuant to the merger agreement.

In order to assist with a smooth transition of the operations of PFC and its subsidiaries, FNB or one of its subsidiaries agree to offer employment to certain officers and employees of PFC and its subsidiaries following completion of the merger. See "Proposal No. 1 - Proposal to Adopt the Merger Agreement - Interests of PFC's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" on page 65.

FNB has also agreed to honor and perform all benefit obligations to and contractual rights of current and former employees and directors of PFC and its subsidiaries existing as of the effective time of the merger, and all employment, executive severance or change-in-control or similar agreements, plans or policies of PFC that are identified in a disclosure schedule to the merger agreement. For a period of one year after completion of the merger, to the extent not duplicative of other severance benefits, FNB will pay severance benefits to employees of PFC or its subsidiaries whose employment is terminated by FNB for reasons other than cause.

Indemnification and Insurance

Following completion of the merger, FNB will indemnify, defend and hold harmless, to the fullest extent currently provided under applicable law and the articles of incorporation and bylaws of PFC, each person who, at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, served as a director or officer of PFC or its subsidiaries, and each person who is or was serving as a director, officer, employee or member of another entity at the request of PFC or its subsidiaries, if such person is or is threatened to be made a party to a claim, action, suit or proceeding based upon his or her service in such capacity or pertaining to the merger agreement, regardless of whether the claim, action, suit or proceeding is asserted or arises before or after the completion of the merger.

The merger agreement further provides that FNB will purchase, at PFC's expense, and maintain for six years following the completion of the merger, directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance in respect of acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the completion of the merger; provided that FNB will not be required to pay annual premiums in excess of 150% of the annual premium currently paid by PFC for such insurance. If FNB is unable to maintain the existing policies or obtain a substitute policy for such amount, FNB will use its commercially reasonable best efforts to obtain the most advantageous coverage available for such amount.

Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers

We have agreed that we and our officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives will not, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit, encourage or take any action to facilitate any inquiries or proposals for any acquisition proposal, as defined below;

enter into or participate in any discussions or negotiations with, furnish any information to or cooperate with, any person or entity seeking to make, or who has made, an acquisition proposal; or approve, recommend or enter into any letter of intent, agreement or other commitment regarding any acquisition proposal.

However, prior to the effective time of the merger, we may consider and participate in discussions and negotiations with respect to a superior proposal, as defined below, if:

our board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that failure to take these actions could reasonably be expected to cause our board of directors to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law;

we have first entered into a confidentiality agreement with the party proposing the superior proposal with confidentiality terms no less favorable to us than those contained in our confidentiality agreement with FNB; and at least 48 hours prior to providing any information to any person or entering into any discussions or negotiations with any person, we notify FNB in writing of the name of such person and the material terms and conditions of any such superior proposal.

The merger agreement permits our board of directors to withdraw or qualify its recommendation of the merger in a manner adverse to FNB, condition or refuse to recommend the merger with FNB if our board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with our outside legal counsel and our financial advisors, that failure to take such actions could reasonably be expected to breach its fiduciary duties under applicable law. We are also permitted under the merger agreement to comply with our disclosure obligations under Rules 14d-9 and 14e-2 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, provided that our board of directors does not withdraw or modify its recommendation of the merger with FNB unless our board of directors has concluded in good faith, after consultation with our outside legal counsel and our financial advisors, that failure to take such actions could reasonably be expected to breach its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

However, notwithstanding our board of directors' withdrawal or qualification of its recommendation of the merger with FNB, we will be obligated to submit the merger agreement at a PFC shareholders' meeting for the purpose of voting on the approval of the merger agreement. If our board of directors has withdrawn or qualified its recommendation of the merger in a manner adverse to FNB, the merger agreement may be submitted to our shareholders without recommendation, in which event our board of directors may communicate the basis for their lack of recommendation in a proxy statement or an amendment or supplement to the proxy statement. Until termination of the merger agreement, the only acquisition proposal we may submit to our shareholders is the merger with FNB.

We have agreed:

to notify FNB promptly, and in any event within 24 hours, after we receive any acquisition proposal, or any information related to an acquisition proposal, which notification shall describe the acquisition proposal and the third party making it; and to cease any discussions or negotiations existing on the date of the merger agreement with any persons with respect to any acquisition proposal.

As used in the merger agreement, an acquisition proposal means any inquiry, proposal, offer, regulatory filing or disclosure of an intention relating to any:

direct or indirect acquisition of a substantial (i.e., 20% or more) portion of our and our subsidiaries' net revenues, net income or net assets, taken as a whole;

direct or indirect acquisition of our common stock after June 15, 2011 by a person who, by reason of such purchase or acquisition, becomes the owner of 15% or more of our common stock;

tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any person beneficially owning 15% or more of any class of our capital stock; or merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation or dissolution involving us, other than our proposed merger with FNB.

As used in the merger agreement, superior proposal means any bona fide, unsolicited written acquisition proposal a third party makes to acquire more than 50% of the voting power of our then-outstanding shares of common stock or all or substantially all of our consolidated assets for consideration consisting of cash or securities, that our board of directors, in good faith, concludes, after consultation with our financial advisors and our outside legal counsel, taking into account, among other things, all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal and the person making the proposal, including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation:

is on terms that in the good faith judgment of our board of directors are more favorable to us than the terms of the proposed merger with FNB;

has financing, to the extent required, that is fully committed or reasonably determined by our board of directors to be available to the party making the offer; and is reasonably capable of being completed.

Purchase or Redemption of PFC Preferred Stock

FNB and we will use our reasonable best efforts to cause or facilitate the purchase by FNB or one of its subsidiaries, or the redemption by PFC, of all of the issued and outstanding shares of PFC Preferred Stock (and, at the election of FNB, the PFC TARP Warrant) from the U.S. Treasury prior to or concurrently with the completion of the merger. The purchase or redemption, as applicable, will be funded by FNB or one of its subsidiaries using a method mutually agreed to by FNB and us and subject to any formal or informal requirements of the U.S. Treasury. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, FNB has engaged in preliminary discussions with the U.S. Treasury regarding the proposed purchase or redemption of the PFC Preferred Stock.

Assumption of Indebtedness of PFC to PNC Bank, National Association

FNB and we will use our reasonable best efforts to obtain the written consent of PNC Bank, National Association to the assumption by FNB or one of its subsidiaries, on terms and conditions reasonably satisfactory to FNB, of the Loan Agreement, dated as of December 30, 2008, between PFC and PNC Bank, National Association, pursuant to which a $25 million term loan was extended to PFC. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, FNB is engaged in discussions with PNC Bank, National Association to obtain such consent.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

The respective obligations of FNB and us to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of certain conditions, including:

adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger by the requisite vote of the holders of our outstanding shares of common stock as well as approval of the listing on the NYSE of the FNB common stock to be issued in the merger, subject to official notice of issuance;

the receipt and effectiveness of all governmental and other approvals, registrations and consents and the expiration of all related waiting periods FNB and we are required to obtain to complete the merger and, in the case of FNB, none of the regulatory approvals shall have resulted in a materially burdensome regulatory condition;

the registration statement with respect to the FNB common stock to be issued in the merger shall have become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order or proceedings for that purpose will have been initiated or threatened by the SEC;

the absence of any law, statute, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order in effect by any court or other governmental entity that prevents, prohibits or makes illegal completion of the transactions the merger agreement contemplates;

the representations and warranties in the merger agreement made by the other party as to corporate matters, including due organization, qualification and authority, must be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the date of completion of the merger as though made on such date;

the other representations and warranties in the merger agreement made by the other party must be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the date of completion of the merger (or, if the representation and warranty relates to an earlier specified date, as of such specified date), unless the failure of the representations and warranties to be true and correct, without giving effect to any qualification as to materiality or material adverse effect or similar qualifications, would not be reasonably likely to result in a material adverse effect on the party who made such representations and warranties;

the performance by the other party in all material respects of all obligations under the merger agreement of such party; and the receipt by each of FNB and us of a legal opinion from our respective outside counsel that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Neither FNB nor we can provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, neither FNB nor we have any reason to believe that any of these conditions will not be satisfied.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to closing by mutual consent and by either party in the following circumstances:

if the approval of a governmental entity, which is required for completion of the merger, is denied by final and non-appealable action, unless the denial by such governmental entity is due to the failure of the terminating party to perform its obligations under the merger agreement;

if the merger has not been completed by April 30, 2012, unless the failure to complete the merger by that date is due to the terminating party's failure to perform its obligations under the merger agreement;

if there is a breach of the merger agreement by the other party that would cause the failure of the closing conditions described above, and the breach cannot or has not been cured by the earlier of April 30, 2012 or 30 days after receipt of written notice of the breach; or if the requisite shareholder vote in connection with the merger agreement is not obtained at our shareholders' meeting (or any adjournment or postponement of that meeting), except that we may not exercise this termination right if we have materially breached our obligation to call a shareholders' meeting to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger as soon as reasonably practicable after this proxy statement/prospectus is declared effective by the SEC, or our board of directors fails to recommend the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and the merger or to include such recommendation in our proxy statement to our shareholders.

FNB may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to our special meeting in the following circumstances:

our board of directors changes, withdraws, modifies, qualifies or conditions its recommendation of the merger agreement and the merger in a manner adverse to FNB, except as permitted by the merger agreement with respect to a proposal to acquire us on terms and conditions superior to the terms and conditions on which FNB and we have agreed to merge in the merger agreement;

our board of directors has recommended approval of another acquisition proposal; or we fail to convene and hold our special meeting.

The merger agreement also provides us with certain rights to terminate the merger agreement until the date we mail this proxy statement/prospectus in connection with a superior proposal. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, no superior proposal has been received.

Amendment of the Merger Agreement; Waiver

Edgar Filing: FNB CORP/FL/ - Form S-4/A

Subject to applicable law, FNB and we may amend the merger agreement by written agreement authorized by our respective boards of directors. However, after adoption of the merger agreement by our shareholders, there may not be, without further approval of our shareholders, any amendment of the merger agreement that requires such further approval under applicable law. Either party to the merger agreement, subject to applicable law, may extend the time for the performance of any obligations or acts of the other party or waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other party or compliance by the other party with any of the other agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated, it will become void, and there will be no liability on the part of FNB or us, except that:

termination will not relieve a breaching party from liability for its willful breach giving rise to the termination; and the confidentiality agreement between the parties will survive termination.

Break-up Fee; Expenses

In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated, we are obligated to pay FNB a break-up fee of $6.0 million under certain circumstances set forth below.

the termination of the merger agreement by FNB prior to our special meeting because our board of directors changes, withdraws, modifies, qualifies or conditions its recommendation of the merger agreement and the merger in a manner adverse to FNB, except as permitted by the merger agreement with respect to a proposal to acquire us on terms and conditions superior to the terms and conditions on which FNB and we have agreed to merge in the merger agreement;

the termination of the merger agreement following the commencement of a tender offer or exchange offer for 25% or more of our common stock and we have not sent to our shareholders, within 10 days after the commencement of such offer, a statement that our board of directors recommends the rejection of such tender offer or exchange offer; or the occurrence of any of the following events within 12 months after the termination of the merger agreement by FNB, provided that a third party makes a proposal to acquire us after June 15, 2011 and does not withdraw its proposal prior to termination of the merger agreement:

we enter into an agreement to merge with or be acquired by that third party;

that third party acquires substantially all of our assets; or

that third party acquires more than 50% of our common stock.

FNB and we have also agreed that if either FNB or we breach our respective representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement, such that the conditions to the other party's obligations to close would not be satisfied, and which breach cannot be or is not cured, the breaching party, assuming the other party is not also in material breach of its obligations under the merger agreement, will pay the out-of-pocket expenses, including fees and expenses of legal counsel, financial advisors and accountants, of the non-breaching party, up to a maximum of $500,000. However, if we are also liable for the payment of the break-up fee, we will not be liable for the payment of FNB's out-of-pocket expenses.

Expenses and Fees

Edgar Filing: FNB CORP/FL/ - Form S-4/A

In general, each of FNB and we will be responsible for all expenses each of us incurs in connection with the negotiation and completion of the transactions the merger agreement contemplates. However, the costs and expenses of printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus, and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the merger, will be shared equally by FNB and us.

THE VOTING AGREEMENTS

The following description of the voting agreements is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the form of voting agreement, which we include as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus and incorporate by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read the form of voting agreement carefully and in its entirety.

In connection with the merger agreement, FNB entered into voting agreements with PFC's directors, consisting of Robert J. McCarthy, Jr., Fred P. Burger, Jr., Andrea F. Fitting, Ph.D., Stephen M. Gagliardi, Patrick J. Minnock, Robert D. Pfischner and Harry D. Reagan. In the voting agreements, each of these shareholders has agreed to vote all of his, her or its shares of PFC common stock in favor of approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger.

In addition, except under limited circumstances, these shareholders also agreed not to sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of or encumber their shares of PFC common stock prior to the record date for the meeting of the PFC shareholders to vote on the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The voting agreements terminate immediately upon the earlier of the completion of the merger, the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms, or mutual written agreement of FNB and the shareholder.

As of October 20, 2011, there were 785,217 shares of PFC common stock subject to the voting agreements, which represented approximately 14.1% of the outstanding shares of PFC common stock as of that date.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

FNB will account for the merger as an acquisition, as that term is used under GAAP, for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Under acquisition accounting, our assets, including identifiable intangible assets, and liabilities, including executory contracts and other commitments, as of the effective time of the merger will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to the balance sheet of FNB. Any excess of the purchase price over the fair values will be recorded as goodwill. Financial statements of FNB issued after the merger will include these fair values and our results of operations from the effective time of the merger.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following discussion summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger that apply generally to holders of our shares. This discussion is based on the Code, judicial decisions and administrative regulations and interpretations in effect as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Accordingly, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to the holders of our shares could differ from those described below.

The discussion assumes that you hold your shares as a capital asset. This discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to holders of our shares in light of their particular circumstances, nor does it address the U.S. federal income tax consequences to holders of our stock that are subject to special rules under U.S. federal income tax law, including:

dealers in securities or foreign currencies;

tax-exempt organizations;

foreign persons;

Table of Contents

financial institutions or insurance companies; holders who have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar; holders who own their shares indirectly through partnerships, trusts or other entities that may be subject to special treatment; holders who acquired their shares in connection with stock purchase plans or other compensatory transactions; holders who hold their shares as a hedge or as part of a straddle, constructive sale, conversion transaction or other risk management transaction; and traders in securities that elect to use the mark-to-market method of accounting.

In addition, this discussion does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences of any merger other than those affecting our shareholders resulting from the merger. In addition, this discussion does not address any tax consequences of the merger under foreign, state or local law or U.S. federal estate and gift tax laws. Neither FNB nor we have obtained or sought to obtain a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, or the IRS, regarding any matter relating to the merger and no assurance can be given that the IRS will not assert, or that a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any aspect of this discussion. We urge holders to consult their own tax advisors as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, as well as the effects of state, local and foreign tax laws in light of their own situations.

Reed Smith LLP and Elias, Matz, Tiernan & Herrick L.L.P. have delivered opinions, effective as of September 28, 2011, to FNB and us, respectively, to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth in such opinions, the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

The closing of the merger is conditioned upon the delivery of opinions of Reed Smith LLP, counsel to FNB, and Elias, Matz, Tiernan & Herrick L.L.P., counsel to us, that based on U.S. federal income tax law in effect as of the date of such opinions, the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. An opinion of counsel is not binding on the IRS or any court. In rendering their respective opinions, Reed Smith LLP and Elias, Matz, Tiernan & Herrick L.L.P. will rely on certain assumptions, including assumptions regarding the absence of changes in existing facts and the completion of the merger strictly in accordance with the merger agreement and this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinions will also rely upon certain representations and covenants made by the management of FNB and us and will assume that these representations are true, correct and complete without regard to any knowledge limitation, and that FNB and we, as the case may be, will comply with these covenants. If any of these assumptions or representations is inaccurate in any way, or any of the covenants are not satisfied, it could adversely affect the opinions. The obligation of each of Reed Smith LLP and Elias, Matz, Tiernan & Herrick L.L.P. to deliver such tax opinions is conditioned upon, among other things, the merger satisfying the continuity of proprietary interest requirement. That requirement generally will be satisfied if FNB common stock constitutes at least 40% of the value of the merger consideration. See Continuity of Proprietary Interest Requirement below.

Assuming that the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of PFC shares are as follows.

Exchange of our shares for FNB common stock. Each holder who receives FNB common stock in the merger generally will not recognize gain or loss except to the extent of cash received in lieu of fractional shares, as discussed below.

In general, the aggregate tax basis in the shares of FNB common stock that our shareholders will receive upon the merger will equal such holders' aggregate tax basis in the PFC shares surrendered, decreased by the amount of basis allocated to any fractional share such holder was deemed to receive and subsequently sell. A shareholder's holding period for the shares of FNB common stock that are received in the merger, including any fractional share deemed received and sold as described below, generally will include such holder's holding period for PFC shares surrendered in the merger. The amount of FNB common stock received in the merger includes any fractional share of FNB common stock deemed to be received prior to the exchange of such fractional share for cash. See Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share below.

Because these rules are complex, we recommend that each shareholder who may be subject to these rules consult his, her or its tax advisor.

Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share. Our shareholders who receive cash instead of fractional shares of FNB common stock will be treated as having received the fractional shares in the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional shares for cash. These holders will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the tax basis allocable to the fractional shares. The gain or loss will be capital gain or loss and long-term capital gain or loss if the holder has held the shares of our common stock exchanged for more than one year at the effective time of the merger. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Continuity of Proprietary Interest Requirement. One of the requirements that must be satisfied in order for the merger to qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code is the continuity of proprietary interest requirement. The merger will satisfy this requirement if our shareholders exchange a substantial portion of the value of their proprietary interest in us for proprietary interests in FNB. In the opinion of Reed Smith LLP and of Elias, Matz, Tiernan & Herrick L.L.P., the merger will satisfy the continuity of interest requirement if the value of the FNB common stock our shareholders receive upon the merger is equal to at least 40% of the fair market value of the total consideration issued to our shareholders for their shares of our common stock upon the merger, with the value of the FNB common stock based on the value of the FNB common stock on June 14, 2011. The FNB stock to be issued upon the merger will constitute 100% of the total merger consideration before taking into account other factors discussed below which could reduce that amount. Those factors include:

whether prior to or in connection with the merger PFC or FNB or parties related to either of them redeems or acquires PFC shares or makes distributions; and whether FNB or parties related to FNB make any repurchase of the FNB common stock to be issued in the merger.

Except with respect to the PFC Preferred Stock, both FNB and we have represented that neither of us nor any corporation related to either of us has redeemed or purchased, or has any plan or intention to redeem or purchase, any of our shares in connection with the merger and neither FNB nor any corporation related to FNB has any plan or intention to repurchase any of the FNB common stock to be issued upon completion of the merger. As previously discussed, it is the intention of FNB and PFC that the PFC Preferred Stock will be either purchased by FNB or one of its subsidiaries or redeemed by PFC. Any such purchase or redemption will likely be treated as part of the reorganization in testing the merger consideration for proprietary interest. If the PFC Preferred Stock is acquired for an amount equal to its par value and that amount is treated as merger consideration in testing for continuity of proprietary interest, the FNB common stock to be issued in the merger will constitute approximately 80% of the total consideration received in the merger.

If the merger is not treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, then each U.S. holder would recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the sum of the fair market value of the FNB common stock and the amount of cash received in the merger and such holder's tax basis in our shares of common stock surrendered in exchange for the merger consideration. Further, if the merger is not treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, we would be subject to tax on the deemed sale of our assets to FNB, with gain or loss for this purpose measured by the difference between our tax basis in our assets and the fair market value of the consideration we are deemed to have received in the sale. This gain or loss would be reported on our final corporate tax return, subject to the effect of any tax carryovers and the effect of our other income or loss for that period, and FNB would become liable for any such tax liability by virtue of the merger.

Backup Withholding. Non-corporate holders of our shares may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding at a rate of 28% on any cash payments received in 2012. Generally, backup withholding will not apply, however, if a holder of our shares:

furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number to the exchange agent and certifies that such holder is not subject to backup withholding on the substitute Form W-9 or successor form included in the letter of transmittal received; or is otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will generally be allowed as a refund or credit against a holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the holder furnishes the required information to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements. A significant holder of our shares for U.S. federal income tax purposes who receives shares of FNB common stock upon completion of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger and to file with such holder's U.S. federal income tax return for the year in which the merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the merger. For this purpose, a shareholder is only a significant holder if the person owns at least 5% of our outstanding shares or has a basis of $1,000,000 or more in our shares. Such statement must include the holder's tax basis in and fair market value of our shares surrendered in the merger.

THE FOREGOING SUMMARY IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR AN INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO YOU. WE URGE YOU TO CONSULT A TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE PARTICULAR FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO YOU.

DESCRIPTION OF FNB CAPITAL STOCK

FNB Common Stock

General. FNB is authorized to issue 500 million shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of which 127,024,899 shares were outstanding as of June 30, 2011. FNB common stock trades on the NYSE under the symbol FNB. The transfer agent and registrar for FNB common stock is Registrar and Transfer Company.

As of June 30, 2011, FNB had reserved approximately 8,964,057 million shares of its common stock for issuance under employee stock plans, convertible notes and a warrant that FNB has issued to the U.S. Treasury pursuant to the Capital Purchase Program of the TARP. In addition, FNB has reserved approximately 13,627,579 million shares of its common stock for issuance in connection with the merger. After taking into account these issued and reserved shares, FNB will have approximately 350,383,465 million shares of authorized but unissued common stock available for issuance for other corporate purposes.

Voting and Other Rights. The holders of FNB common stock have one vote per share, and in general a majority of the votes cast with respect to a matter is sufficient to authorize action upon routine matters. Directors are elected by a plurality of votes cast, and each shareholder entitled to vote in an election of directors is entitled to vote each share of stock for each of the candidates for election as directors. However, shareholders do not have the right to cumulate their votes in elections of directors. See Comparison of Shareholder Rights.

In the event of a liquidation, holders of FNB common stock are entitled to receive pro rata any assets legally available for distribution to shareholders with respect to the FNB shares they hold, subject to any prior rights of the holders of any FNB preferred stock then outstanding.

FNB common stock does not carry any preemptive rights, redemption privileges, sinking fund privileges or conversion rights. All outstanding shares of FNB common stock are, and the shares of FNB common stock to be issued to you upon the merger will be, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

Distributions. The holders of FNB common stock are entitled to receive such dividends or distributions as the FNB board of directors may declare out of funds legally available for such payments. The payment of distributions by FNB is subject to the restrictions under the FBCA applicable to the declaration of distributions by a business corporation. A corporation generally may not authorize and make distributions if, after giving effect thereto, it would be unable to meet its debts as they become due in the usual course of business or if the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if it were to be dissolved at the time of distribution, to satisfy the claims upon dissolution of those shareholders who have preferential rights superior to the rights of the holders of its common stock. In addition, the payment of distributions to shareholders is subject to any prior rights of any then-outstanding FNB preferred stock. Stock dividends, if any are declared, may be paid from authorized but unissued shares.

The ability of FNB to pay distributions is affected by the ability of its subsidiaries to pay dividends to FNB. The ability of FNB's subsidiaries, as well as of FNB, to pay dividends in the future is influenced by bank regulatory requirements and capital guidelines.

FNB Preferred Stock

FNB is authorized to issue 20 million shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, of which no shares were outstanding as of June 30, 2011. The FNB board of directors has the authority to issue FNB preferred stock in one or more series and to fix the dividend rights, dividend rates, liquidation preferences, conversion rights, voting rights, rights and terms of redemption, including sinking fund provisions and the number of shares constituting any such series, without any further action by the shareholders of FNB unless such action is required by applicable rules or regulations or by the terms of any other outstanding series of FNB preferred stock. Any shares of FNB preferred stock that may be issued may rank prior to shares of FNB common stock as to payment of dividends and upon liquidation.

COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS

After the merger, you will become shareholders of FNB and your rights will be governed by FNB’s articles of incorporation, FNB’s bylaws and under the FBCA. The following summary discusses differences between FNB’s articles of incorporation and bylaws and our articles of incorporation and bylaws and the differences between the PBCL and the FBCA. For information as to how to get the full text of each party’s respective articles of incorporation or bylaws, see Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 116.

We do not intend for the following summary to be a complete statement of the differences affecting the rights of our shareholders who become FNB shareholders, but rather as a summary of the more significant differences affecting the rights of such shareholders and certain important similarities. We qualify the following summary in its entirety by reference to the articles of incorporation and bylaws of FNB, our articles of incorporation and bylaws and applicable laws and regulations. We urge you to read FNB’s articles of incorporation and bylaws, PFC’s articles of incorporation and bylaws, and the FBCA, the PBCL and federal law governing bank holding companies and savings and loan holding companies in their entirety.

Removal of Directors; Filling Vacancies on the Board of Directors

PFC

Under the PBCL, our board of directors may remove a director from office if he is adjudicated an incompetent by a court or is convicted of a felony or if within 60 days after notice of election, the director does not accept office either in writing or by attending a meeting of our board of directors. By the vote of our shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes which all shareholders would be entitled to cast at an annual election of directors, our entire board of directors or any individual director may be removed from office without assigning any cause. Upon application of any shareholder or director, a court may remove from office any director in case of fraudulent or dishonest acts, or gross abuse of authority or discretion, or for any other proper cause, and may bar from office any director so removed for a period prescribed by the court. A majority of our remaining directors, even though less than a quorum may, by majority vote, fill vacancies on our board of directors, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors.

Quorum of Shareholders

Under the PBCL, the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on a matter to be considered, represented in person or by proxy, constitute a quorum for action on the matter. Under the PBCL, if a meeting called for the election of directors is adjourned, the shareholders who attend the resumption of the adjourned meeting, although less than a quorum, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing directors.

FNB

Under the FBCA, unless the articles of incorporation of a corporation provide otherwise, a corporation’s shareholders may remove directors with or without cause; provided that, if a voting group has the right to elect a director, only the shareholders of that group of shareholders may participate in the vote to remove the director such group has elected. Article 6 of FNB’s articles of incorporation, however, provides that by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the then outstanding shares of FNB common stock, subject to the rights of holders of any then outstanding preferred stock, shareholders may remove any director or the entire board of directors without cause. Under the FBCA and FNB’s bylaws, a majority of the remaining directors, even though less than a quorum, may, by majority vote, fill vacancies on our board of directors, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors or resulting from a removal from office.

FNB

Under the FBCA and FNB’s bylaws, the holders of a majority of votes entitled to be cast on a matter to be considered, represented in person or by proxy, constitute a quorum for action on the matter. FNB’s bylaws further provide that whenever the holders of any class or series of shares are entitled to vote separately on a specified item of business, the holders of a majority of the votes of that class or series entitled to be cast, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum of such class or series.

Table of Contents

Adjournment and Notice of Shareholder Meetings

PFC

The PBCL provides that the shareholders present in person or by proxy at any regular or special meeting of shareholders who are entitled to vote at that meeting may adjourn such meeting for such periods as such shareholders may direct. Nevertheless, adjournments of any meeting at which directors are to be elected may be adjourned only from day to day.

Call of Special Meetings of Shareholders

FNB

Under the FBCA and FNB's bylaws, if a quorum is not present or represented at a shareholders meeting, the shareholders present and entitled to vote at the meeting may adjourn such meeting from time to time.

PFC

Our bylaws provide that our President, our board of directors or our shareholders who are entitled to cast at least one-fifth of the votes which all shareholders are entitled to cast at the particular meeting, may call a special meeting of our shareholders at any time by delivering a written request to our Secretary.

Shareholder Consent in Lieu of Meeting

FNB's bylaws provide that special meetings of shareholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Secretary of FNB pursuant to a resolution or written direction of a majority of the members of the FNB board of directors or by the holders of not less than 10% of the outstanding shares of FNB.

PFC

Under the PBCL, any action that shareholders may take at a meeting may be taken without a meeting, if a consent or consents in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by all of the shareholders who would be entitled to vote at a meeting for such purpose and the consent or consents are filed with our Secretary.

Dissenters' Rights

FNB

Under the FBCA, any action that may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders of FNB may be taken without a meeting, if, prior or subsequent to the action, one or more written consents signed by a majority of the shareholders who would be entitled to vote at a meeting for such purpose are delivered to FNB.

PFC

Under the PBCL, shareholders have dissenters' rights in the event of corporate actions involving certain mergers, share exchanges, transfers of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation, as well as certain other fundamental transactions in which the corporation is not the acquiring corporation.

Under the PBCL, dissenters' rights are generally denied to holders of shares listed on a national securities exchange, listed on a national securities exchange or held beneficially or of record by more than 2,000 shareholders when a plan of merger converts the shares into shares of the acquiring, surviving, new or other corporation, whether or not the shares of the acquiring, surviving, new or other corporation are listed on an

Under the FBCA, shareholders have dissenters' rights in the event of corporate actions involving certain mergers, share exchanges, sales or other dispositions of all or substantially all of the property of the corporation other than in the ordinary course of business, approval of certain control-share acquisitions and amendments of the articles of incorporation that would materially and adversely affect the rights or preferences of shares held by the dissenting shareholders.

Under the FBCA, dissenters' rights are generally denied to holders of shares listed on a national securities exchange or the OTC Bulletin Board or when the corporation's shares are held of record by at least 2,000 persons and such outstanding shares have a market

Derivative Actions

PFC

Under the PBCL, a shareholder may bring a derivative action even if the shareholder was not a shareholder at the time of the alleged wrongdoing, if a court determines that there is a strong prima facie case in favor of the claim and a serious injustice will result without such action.

FNB

Under the FBCA, a person may bring a derivative action only if the person was a shareholder of FNB at the time of the alleged wrongdoing unless the person became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from one who was a shareholder at the time of the alleged wrongdoing.

Dividends and Distributions

PFC

Subject to any restrictions in a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws, the PBCL generally provides that a corporation may make distributions to its shareholders unless after giving effect thereto:

the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that upon its dissolution it would need to satisfy any preferential rights of other shareholders. Neither our articles of incorporation nor our bylaws contain any restrictions on the payment of dividends or the making of distributions to shareholders.

FNB

Subject to any restrictions in a corporation's articles of incorporation, under the FBCA, a corporation may make distributions to its shareholders unless after giving effect thereto:

the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or

FNB's articles of incorporation do not contain any restrictions on the payment of dividends or the making of distributions to holders of its common stock.

Classes of Stock With Preferential Rights

PFC

The articles of incorporation of PFC authorize the PFC board of directors to issue, from time to time, by action of a majority of its members, shares of PFC's authorized, undesignated preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share, in one or more classes or series. In connection with any such issuance, the PFC board of directors may by resolution determine the designation, voting rights, preferences as to dividends and liquidation rights, participation, redemption, sinking fund, conversion, dividend or other special rights or powers, and the limitations, qualifications and restrictions of such shares of preferred stock. The PFC articles of incorporation provide for 5,000,000 shares of undesignated preferred stock. Currently, PFC has 31,762 shares of Fixed Rate Cumulative

FNB

The articles of incorporation of FNB authorize it to issue multiple classes and series of stock that may have rights preferential to the FNB common stock to be received by our shareholders upon the merger. FNB has no such stock currently outstanding. Such preferential rights could include rights to preferential dividend rates compared to such rates for FNB common stock, rights to prevent dividends from being paid on the common stock until dividends have been paid on the preferred stock, rights to preferential payments upon any liquidation of FNB, independent class voting rights with respect to certain fundamental transactions and rights to convert shares of FNB preferred stock into FNB common stock at a Director Qualifications, Number and Term

PFC

Our bylaws provide that our board of directors shall consist of not less than five nor more than 15 members. Each director serves for three years and until his or her successor shall have been elected. The directors shall be divided into three classes as nearly equal in number with the term in office of one class to expire each year. Under the PBCL, a director must be at least 18 years of age, but a director need not be a resident of Pennsylvania or a shareholder.

FNB

FNB's bylaws provide that the board of directors of FNB shall consist of such number of directors as the board of directors of FNB may determine, which number shall be not less than five nor more than 25. FNB's bylaws further provide that FNB's board of directors shall be elected annually at FNB's annual meeting of shareholders. Under the FBCA and FNB's bylaws, a director need not be a resident of Florida nor a shareholder of FNB to qualify to serve as a director. FNB's bylaws further provide that the directors must be at least 21 years of age.

Nomination of Directors

PFC

Our bylaws provide that shareholders must submit nominations for directors to be elected at an annual meeting of shareholders, except for nominations our board of directors makes, to our secretary in writing not later than the close of business on the 30th day immediately preceding the date of the meeting. The notification must contain the following information:

name and business and residential addresses of each proposed nominee;

FNB

FNB's bylaws provide that directors may be nominated for election to FNB's board of directors by either a resolution of the board of directors or by a shareholder of FNB. FNB's bylaws provide that a shareholder may make nominations for director by providing FNB with written notice of the shareholder's intention to nominate a director, which written notice FNB must receive not less than 90 calendar days nor more than 120 calendar days before the first anniversary of the date on which FNB first mailed its proxy statement to its shareholders for its annual meeting of shareholders in the immediately preceding year. The notice of a shareholder's intention to nominate a director must include the information FNB's bylaws require.

the principal occupation of each proposed nominee;

the class and number of shares of capital stock of PFC the nominee owns; and any other information relating to the nominee that is required to be disclosed under the Exchange Act rules relating to solicitation of proxies.

Edgar Filing: FNB CORP/FL/ - Form S-4/A

In an election of directors under cumulative voting, each share of stock normally having one vote for each director to be elected may cast a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected times the number of shares held with the right to distribute that number of votes among one or more candidates. Under the PBCL, cumulative voting in the election of directors is available unless the articles of incorporation of the corporation provide otherwise. Our bylaws state that shareholders may not cumulate votes for the election of directors.

Under the FBCA, cumulative voting in the election of directors is not available unless the articles of incorporation of the corporation provide for cumulative voting. FNB's articles of incorporation do not provide for cumulative voting.

Table of ContentsIndemnification of Officers and Directors*PFC

Under the PBCL, a corporation is permitted to indemnify its directors and officers against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement incurred by them in connection with any pending, threatened or completed action or proceeding, and permits such indemnification against expenses incurred in connection with any pending, threatened or completed derivative action, if the director or officer has acted in good faith and in a manner the officer or director reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the officer's or director's conduct was unlawful. Under the PBCL, a corporation may also pay expenses incurred in defending any action or proceeding in advance of the final disposition upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer is not entitled to indemnification from the corporation.

Under the PBCL, the statutory provisions for indemnification and advancement of expenses are non-exclusive with respect to any other rights, such as contractual rights or rights granted pursuant to a by-law or by vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled. Such rights may, for example, provide for indemnification against judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement incurred by the indemnified person in connection with derivative actions. The PBCL prohibits indemnification in any case where a court determines the act or failure to act giving rise to the claim for indemnification constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. Under the PBCL and our bylaws, we are permitted to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of PFC against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in such capacity, whether or not we would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability.

If authorized by the board of directors, we may also create and fund a trust fund or fund of any nature, and enter into agreements with our officers and directors for the purpose of securing our obligation to indemnify or advance expenses under the bylaws.

Under the FBCA a corporation is permitted to indemnify a director or officer who was or is a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or other type of proceeding, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact the person is or was a director or officer or is currently serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another entity against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the director or officer in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. These indemnification rights apply if the director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner in which the director or officer reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to a criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In addition, under the FBCA, FNB may indemnify and hold harmless an officer or director who is a party to an action by or in the right of the corporation against expenses, including attorneys' fees, and certain amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. A corporation is authorized to provide such indemnification if the director or officer has acted in good faith and in a manner in which the director or officer reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except a corporation may not provide indemnification where there has been an adjudication of liability, unless a court determines, in view of all the circumstances, that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses.

Under the FBCA, indemnification against the costs and expenses of defending any action must be made to any officer or director who is successful in defending a derivative action. Except with regard to the costs and expenses of successfully defending a derivative action, a court may order a corporation to indemnify a director or officer only if a determination is made in accordance with the provisions the FBCA that indemnification is proper under the circumstances.

Under the FBCA, a corporation may advance expenses incurred in defending any action or proceeding in advance of the final disposition of such action or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer is not entitled to indemnification from the corporation.

Under the FBCA, the provisions for indemnification and advancement of expenses are not exclusive. A Florida corporation may make any other or further indemnification or advancement of expenses to any of its officers or directors, both as to action in their official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. Under the FBCA, a corporation generally may not provide indemnification or advancement of expenses to any officer or director if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that the director's or officer's actions or omissions were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute:

a transaction from which the officer or director derived an improper personal benefit;

an unlawful distribution; or willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the corporation.

Under the FBCA and FNB's articles of incorporation, FNB is permitted to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any director or officer of FNB against any liability asserted against the director or officer incurred in such capacity, whether or not FNB would have the power to indemnify the director or officer against such liability. FNB's articles of incorporation further provide that its directors, officers and any other person designated by the board of directors of FNB are entitled to indemnification from FNB to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Director Liability

PFC

The PBCL and our bylaws contain a provision limiting the personal liability of directors for monetary damages for actions taken as a director, except to the extent that by law a director's liability for monetary damages may not be limited.

FNB

Under the FBCA, a director is not liable for monetary damages for any statement, vote, decision or failure to act regarding corporate management or policy, unless the director breached or failed to perform such director's duties as a director and the director's breach of, or failure to perform, those duties constitutes a violation of criminal law, self-dealing, an unlawful distribution, willful misconduct or recklessness. FNB's bylaws contain a provision limiting the liability of its directors to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

PFC

Under the PBCL, the affirmative vote is required of a majority of the votes cast by all shareholders entitled to vote thereon to amend a corporation's articles of incorporation, provided that the PBCL does not require shareholder approval for certain non-material amendments. Our articles of incorporation state that the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of voting stock is required for any amendment, addition, alteration, change or repeal of the articles of incorporation.

FNB

In order to amend the articles of incorporation of a Florida corporation, the FBCA requires that, unless the articles of incorporation provide for a greater vote, the votes cast in favor of such an amendment must exceed the votes cast against such an amendment at a meeting at which a quorum is present; provided, however, that a majority of the outstanding votes entitled to be cast on the amendment is required with respect to amendments that would create dissenters' rights under the FBCA. Further, under the FBCA, shareholder approval is not required for certain non-material amendments.

Under the PBCL, the power to adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws is generally vested, pursuant to the bylaws, in the directors, with certain statutory exceptions and subject to the power of the shareholders to change such action.

Under the FBCA, a corporation's board of directors or shareholders may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws; provided, however, that the board of directors may not amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws if the articles of incorporation reserve such power to the shareholders, or the shareholders, in amending or repealing the bylaws, expressly provide that the board of directors may not amend or repeal the bylaws or a particular bylaw provision. FNB's bylaws provide that FNB may alter or amend and adopt new bylaws by the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the members of FNB's board of directors or by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon.

Under the PBCL, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, the board of directors does not have the authority to adopt or change a bylaw on any subject that is committed expressly to the shareholders by statute, other than shareholder quorum rules if the corporation is a registered corporation such as us. Our bylaws provide that our bylaws may be amended, altered and repealed by a supermajority (2/3) vote of our board of directors, except for any bylaw relating to the qualification, classification and terms of office of the directors, of which the power to amend, alter and repeal is expressly reserved to the vote of the shareholders holding at least 2/3 of the voting power of the outstanding shares of voting stock of PFC.

Vote Required for Extraordinary Corporation Transactions

PFC

Under the PBCL, approval of a merger, consolidation, share exchange, dissolution or sale of substantially all of a corporation's assets other than in the ordinary course of business requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all shareholders entitled to vote thereon. Except as otherwise provided by the bylaws of a corporation, the shareholders of a corporation need not approve a board of directors-approved plan of merger if, among other situations, immediately prior to the transaction, another corporation that is a party to the transaction directly or indirectly owns 80% or more of the outstanding shares of each class of the corporation being acquired, or if the surviving or new corporation is a business corporation incorporated in Pennsylvania with articles of incorporation that are identical to the articles of incorporation of the merged corporation, except for changes permitted by a board of directors without shareholder approval under the PBCL;

each share of the merged corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger is to continue to be outstanding or will be converted into an identical share of the surviving or new corporation after the effective date of the merger; and the shareholders of the merged corporation will hold, in the aggregate, shares of the surviving or new corporation to be outstanding immediately after effectiveness of the plan of merger that constitute at least a majority of the votes entitled to elect directors.

Under the FBCA, approval of a merger, consolidation, share exchange, dissolution or sale of all or substantially all of a corporation's assets other than in the ordinary course of business must receive approval from the board of directors and by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon unless the corporation's articles of incorporation require a higher vote. Under the FBCA, unless required by its articles of incorporation, shareholder approval of a plan of merger is not required if:

the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation will not differ, except for certain minor amendments approved by the board of directors as provided under the FBCA, from its articles before the merger; and each shareholder of the surviving corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger will hold the same number of shares, with identical designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights, immediately after the merger.

FNB's articles of incorporation require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of FNB common stock entitled to vote to approve a merger, consolidation or sale, lease, exchange or other disposition, in a single transaction or series of related transactions, of all or substantially all or a substantial part of the properties or assets of FNB, unless the board of directors of FNB has approved and recommended the transaction prior to the consummation thereof.

PFC

Under the PBCL, if a shareholder of a registered corporation, such as us, is a party to a sale of assets, share exchange, merger or consolidation involving the corporation or a subsidiary, or if a corporation proposes to treat a shareholder differently in a corporate dissolution from other shareholders of the same class, or if a shareholder is to receive a disproportionate amount of shares resulting from a division of the corporation, or if the articles of incorporation of the corporation are amended so as to result in a shareholder receiving an increased voting or economic interest in relation to substantially all other shareholders, then the corporation must obtain the approval from the shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes which all shareholders other than the interested shareholder are entitled to cast with respect to the transaction, without counting the votes of the interested shareholder. Under the PBCL, such additional shareholder approval is not required if the consideration the other shareholders receive in such transaction for shares of any class is not less than the highest amount paid by the interested shareholder in acquiring shares of the same class, or if the proposed transaction is approved by a majority of the board of directors other than certain directors affiliated or associated with, or nominated by, the interested shareholder. The PBCL defines an interested shareholder for this purpose as a shareholder who is a party to the transaction or who is treated differently from other shareholders and any person or group of persons who act in concert or whom the interested shareholder controls.

FNB

Under the FBCA, a number of provisions require supermajority approval for certain transactions with affiliates. Under the FBCA, if any person who, together with such person's affiliates and associates, beneficially owns 10% or more of any voting stock of the corporation (referred to herein as an interested person), is a party to any merger, consolidation, disposition of all or a substantial part of the assets of the corporation or a subsidiary of the corporation, or an exchange of securities requiring shareholder approval, or a business combination, such transaction requires approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the voting shares other than the shares beneficially owned by the interested person; provided, that such approval is not required if:

a majority of the disinterested directors has approved the interested person transaction;

the corporation has not had more than 300 shareholders of record at any time during the three years preceding the date of the transaction's announcement;

the interested person has been the beneficial owner of at least 80% of the corporation's outstanding voting shares for at least five years preceding the date of the transaction's announcement;

the interested person is the beneficial owner of at least 90% of the outstanding voting shares of the corporation, exclusive of shares acquired directly from the corporation in a transaction not approved by a majority of the disinterested directors;

the corporation is an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940; or the consideration holders of the stock will receive of the corporation meets certain minimum levels determined by a formula under Section 607.0901(4)(f) of the FBCA.

Fiduciary Duty

PFC

Under the PBCL, a director shall perform his or her duties as a director in good faith, in a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, skill and diligence, as a person of ordinary prudence would use under similar circumstances. In performing a director's duties, the director is entitled to rely in good faith on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, prepared or presented by:

one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters which the director reasonably believes to be within the professional or expert competence of such person; or a committee of the board upon which the director does not serve, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the director reasonably believes to merit confidence.

Under the PBCL, a director may, in considering the best interests of a corporation, consider:

the effects of any action on shareholders, employees, suppliers, customers and creditors of the corporation, and upon communities in which the corporation has offices or other facilities of are located;

the short-term and long-term interests of the corporation, including the possibility that the continued independence of the corporation may serve the best interests of the corporation;

FNB

Under the FBCA, a director is required to discharge the director's duties in good faith, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation. In discharging the director's duties, a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if presented or prepared by officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

legal counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or a committee of the Board of which the director is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

FNB's articles of incorporation provide that the board of directors of FNB, in evaluating a proposal for an extraordinary corporate transaction, shall consider all relevant factors, including, without limitation, the long-term prospects and interests of the corporation and its shareholders, the social, economic, legal or other effects of any action on the employees, suppliers and customers of the corporation and its subsidiaries, the communities and societies in which FNB and its subsidiaries operate and the economy of the state and the nation.

FNB's articles of incorporation further provide that, if the board of directors of FNB determines that it should reject such a proposal, it may take any lawful action to accomplish that purpose.

the resources, intent and conduct of any person seeking to acquire control of the corporation; and all other pertinent factors.

PFC

Under the PBCL, an amendment is permitted to the corporation's articles of incorporation or other corporate action, if approved by shareholders, to provide mandatory special treatment for specified groups of nonconsenting shareholders of the same class. Under the PBCL, directors may, in discharging their duties, consider the interests of a number of different constituencies, including shareholders, employees, suppliers, customers, creditors and the communities in which the corporation is located. Directors are not required to consider the interests of shareholders to a greater degree than other constituencies' interests. Under the PBCL, directors do not expressly violate their fiduciary duties solely by relying on poison pills or the anti-takeover provisions of the PBCL.

Under the PBCL, protective provisions exist relating generally to hostile takeovers and acquisitions of registered corporations such as us.

Control-Share Transaction: Regulates transactions involving a control share transaction by an interested shareholder, i.e., a person who acquires, or a group of persons acting in concert that acquires, 20% of the voting shares of the registered corporation. Any shareholder of such a registered corporation who objects to the control-share transaction has the right to demand to be paid the fair value of such shareholder's shares.

Business Combination: A registered corporation shall not engage at any time in any business combination with any interested shareholder of the corporation (defined for this purpose as the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the corporation's outstanding voting shares) other than a business combination approved by the board of directors of the corporation prior to the date the interested shareholder acquired the shares or a business combination approved by the board of directors no earlier than five years after the interested shareholder's share acquisition date.

Control-Share Acquisition: A person who acquires voting power of shares that represent (i) at least 20% but less than 33-1/3%; (ii) at least 33-1/3% but less than 50% or (iii) 50% or more, of the voting power of the outstanding stock of the corporation, shall not have any voting rights

FNB is subject to statutory anti-takeover provisions under the FBCA. The FBCA restricts the voting rights of certain shares of a corporation's stock when those shares are acquired by a party who, by such acquisition, would control at least 20% of all voting rights of the corporation's issued and outstanding stock. The statute provides that the acquired shares, or the control shares, will, upon such acquisition, cease to have any voting rights. The acquiring party may, however, petition the corporation to reassign voting rights to the control shares by way of an acquiring person's statement submitted to the corporation in compliance with the requirements of the statute. Upon receipt of such request, the corporation must submit such request for shareholder approval. A corporation may reassign voting rights to the control shares by a resolution of a majority of the corporation's shareholders of each class and series of stock, with the control shares not voting.

In addition, FNB's articles of incorporation and bylaws contain various provisions that may serve as anti-takeover protections, which include:

- the ability of FNB's board of directors to fill vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors;

- the supermajority voting requirements for certain corporate transactions;

- the broad range of factors that FNB's board of directors may consider in evaluating an unsolicited offer including a tender offer proposal; and

- provisions in FNB's articles of incorporation which authorize FNB's board of directors, without further shareholder action, to issue from time to time, up to 20,000,000 shares of FNB preferred stock. The board of directors of FNB has the power to divide any and all of the shares of FNB preferred stock into series and to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.

Disgorgement by Certain Controlling Shareholders: A controlling person or group as defined above who disposes of any equity security of the registered corporation must disgorge any profit the person or group realized if the disposition occurs within 18 months after the person obtained controlling person status.

PROPOSAL NO. 2

ADVISORY (NON-BINDING) VOTE ON GOLDEN PARACHUTE COMPENSATION

The Golden Parachute Proposal

In accordance with the recently enacted Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, PFC's board of directors is providing shareholders with the opportunity to cast an advisory vote on the golden parachute compensation payable to the named executive officers of PFC in connection with the merger at the special meeting through the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the compensation that may be paid or become payable to PFC named executive officers in connection with the merger, as disclosed in the table entitled Golden Parachute Compensation that begins on page 69, together with the accompanying footnotes and narrative discussion relating to the named executive officers' golden parachute compensation and the agreements or understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, as set forth in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled Summary of Golden Parachute Arrangements is hereby APPROVED.

The vote on this Proposal 2 is a vote separate and apart from the vote on Proposal 1 to approve the merger agreement. Accordingly, you may vote to approve this Proposal 2 and not to approve Proposal 1, and vice versa. Because the vote is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding on either PFC or PFC Bank regardless of whether the merger agreement is approved. Accordingly, as the compensation to be paid in connection with the merger is contractual with the executives, regardless of the outcome of this advisory vote, such compensation will be payable, subject only to the conditions applicable to such payment, if the merger agreement is approved and the merger is completed.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that our shareholders vote FOR approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the golden parachute compensation payable to the named executive officers of PFC in connection with the merger.

PROPOSAL NO. 3

The Adjournment Proposal

In the event a quorum is present at our special meeting but there are insufficient votes to adopt the merger agreement, the merger proposal will fail unless we adjourn our special meeting in order to solicit additional proxies from our shareholders. An adjournment under such circumstances will allow us extra time to solicit additional proxies. In order to allow shares present in person or by proxy at our special meeting to vote FOR approval of the adjournment of our special meeting, if necessary, we are submitting an adjournment of our special meeting to you as a separate matter for consideration. We will vote properly submitted proxy cards FOR approval of the adjournment proposal, unless otherwise indicated on the proxy. If our shareholders approve the adjournment proposal, we are not required to give any further notice of the time and place of our adjourned meeting other than an announcement of the time and place we provide at our special meeting.

If a quorum is not present at the meeting, the meeting will be adjourned to a later time without a vote.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

OUR ANNUAL MEETING

In light of the expected timing of completion of the merger, we have postponed our 2011 annual meeting of shareholders and expect to have an annual meeting only if the merger is not completed. Under the SEC's rules, holders of our common stock who wish to make a proposal to be included in our proxy statement for PFC's 2011 annual meeting of shareholders (in the event it is held) must have caused such proposal to be received by us at our principal office not later than May 17, 2011, assuming our 2011 annual meeting is held on or before November 27, 2011. No such proposals were received prior to May 17, 2011. If we schedule an annual meeting after November 27, 2011, we will provide notice of the date fixed for the annual meeting, as well as the deadline for submitting shareholder proposals for such meeting and for having such shareholder proposals included in our proxy statement. If such proposal is in compliance with all of the requirements of Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, it will be included in the proxy statement and set forth on the form of proxy issued for such annual meeting of shareholders. It is urged that any such proposals be sent certified mail, return receipt requested.

In addition, PFC's bylaws establish an advance notice procedure with regard to director nominations and other business proposals by shareholders intended to be presented to our 2011 annual meeting but not included in our 2011 annual meeting proxy materials. For business proposals to be properly brought before the 2011 annual meeting by a shareholder, assuming the 2011 annual meeting is held, the shareholder must comply with Article III, Section 8 of PFC's bylaws. Notice of the proposal must also be given in writing and delivered to, or mailed and received at, PFC's principal executive offices at least 30 days prior to the date of the annual meeting. The notice must include the information required by Article III, Section 8 of our bylaws. PFC's bylaws provide that all nominations for election to the board of directors, other than those made by the board or a shareholder who has complied with the notice provisions in the bylaws thereof, shall be made by the PFC Nominating Committee. Written notice of a shareholder nomination generally must be communicated to the attention of the Corporate Secretary of PFC at least 30 days prior to the date of the annual meeting. AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER, dated as of June 15, 2011 (this Agreement), between F.N.B. CORPORATION, a Florida corporation (FNB), and PARKVALE FINANCIAL CORPORATION, a Pennsylvania corporation (PFC).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of PFC and FNB have determined that it is in the best interests of their respective companies and their shareholders to consummate the strategic business combination transaction provided for in this Agreement pursuant to which PFC will, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, merge with and into FNB (the Merger), so that FNB is the surviving company in the Merger (sometimes referred to in such capacity as the Surviving Company); and

WHEREAS, for federal income Tax (as defined in Section 3.10(b)) purposes, it is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code); and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to make certain representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in connection with the Merger and also to prescribe certain conditions to the Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

THE MERGER

1.1 The Merger.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in accordance with the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law (the PBCL) and the Florida Business Corporation Act (the FBCA), at the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.2) PFC shall merge with and into FNB. FNB shall be the Surviving Company in the Merger, and shall continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Florida. As of the Effective Time, the separate corporate existence of PFC shall cease.

1.2 Effective Time.

The Merger shall become effective as set forth in the articles of merger (the Articles of Merger) that shall be filed with the Secretary of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Secretary of State of the State of Florida on or before the Closing Date (as defined in Section 9.1). The term Effective Time shall mean the date and time when the Merger becomes effective as set forth in the Articles of Merger. Effective Date shall mean the date on which the Effective Time occurs.

1.3 Effects of the Merger.

(b) Directors and Executive Officers of the Surviving Company. The directors of the Surviving Company immediately after the Merger shall be the (i) directors of FNB immediately prior to the Merger, and (ii) one (1) current member of PFC's Board of Directors (the PFC Designee), who shall be Robert J. McCarthy, Jr. If Mr. McCarthy does not become a director of the Surviving Company because of death or disability, FNB agrees, after consultation with the members of the Board of Directors of PFC, to cause a member of the PFC Board of Directors as of the date hereof who is mutually agreeable to FNB and PFC to be elected or appointed to the Board of Directors of the Surviving Company as the PFC Designee. The executive officers of the Surviving Company immediately after the Merger shall be the executive officers of FNB immediately prior to the Merger.

1.4 Conversion of PFC Capital Stock.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, each share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of PFC (PFC Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than Treasury Shares (as defined in Section 1.4(c)) shall, by virtue of the Merger, no longer be outstanding and shall as of the Effective Time automatically be converted into and shall thereafter represent the right to receive as merger consideration (the Common Stock Merger Consideration) 2.178 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of common stock, $0.01 par value, of FNB (FNB Common Stock).

(b) In the event each issued and outstanding share of the Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A, par value $1.00 per share, stated liquidation amount $1,000 per share, of PFC (the PFC Series A Preferred Stock) is not purchased or redeemed prior to or contemporaneous with the Merger, then each share of the PFC Series A Preferred Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than any shares of PFC Series A Preferred Stock to be cancelled in accordance with Section 1.4(c)) shall no longer be outstanding and shall as of the Effective Time automatically be converted into and shall thereafter represent the right to receive, subject to the other provisions of this Article 1, one share (the Preferred Stock Merger Consideration and, together with the Common Stock Merger Consideration, the Merger Consideration) of the FNB Preferred Stock to be designated, prior to the Closing Date, as Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series D, stated liquidation amount $1,000 per share (the FNB Series D Preferred Stock), and otherwise having rights, preferences, privileges and voting powers such that the rights, preferences, privileges and voting powers of the PFC Series A Preferred Stock are not adversely affected by such conversion and having rights, preferences and privileges and voting powers, and limitations and restrictions that, taken as a whole, are not materially less favorable than the rights, preferences, privileges and voting powers, and limitations and restrictions of the PFC Series A Preferred Stock immediately prior to such conversion, taken as a whole.

(c) At and after the Effective Time, each Treasury Share shall be cancelled and retired and no shares of FNB Common Stock or other consideration shall be issued in exchange therefor. Treasury Shares means shares of PFC Common Stock and any outstanding PFC Series A Preferred Stock (together, the PFC Capital Stock) held by PFC or any of the PFC Subsidiaries (as defined in Section 3.1(c)) or by FNB or any of its Subsidiaries, other than in a fiduciary, including custodial or agency, capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted in good faith.

(d) At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of PFC shall be closed as to holders of PFC Capital Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time and no transfer of PFC Capital Stock by any such holder shall thereafter be made or recognized. If, after the Effective Time, certificates representing PFC Capital Stock (Certificates) are properly presented in accordance with Section 2.2 of this Agreement to the Exchange Agent (as defined in Section 2.1), such Certificates shall be cancelled and exchanged for FNB Common Stock or FNB Series D Preferred Stock (together, the FNB Capital Stock), as applicable, held in book entry representing the number of whole shares into which the PFC Capital Stock represented by the Certificates was converted in the Merger, plus, if applicable pursuant to Section 1.4(f), any payment for any fractional share of FNB Common Stock without any interest thereon and any dividends or distributions to which the holder of such Certificates is entitled pursuant to Section 2.2(b).

(e) Each holder of PFC Common Stock shall have the option of enrolling the whole shares of FNB Common Stock issuable to such shareholder upon the consummation of the Merger in FNB's Dividend Reinvestment and Direct Stock Purchase Plan (the "DRSP Plan"). Each PFC shareholder electing to enroll in the DRSP Plan shall be issued FNB Common Stock held in book entry representing the number of whole shares received in the Merger.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each holder of PFC Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of FNB Common Stock, after taking into account all Certificates delivered by such holder, shall receive an amount in cash, without interest, rounded to the nearest cent, equal to the product obtained by multiplying (a) the Average Closing Price (as defined below) as of the Closing Date by (b) the fraction of a share (calculated to the nearest ten-thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of FNB Common Stock, to which such holder would otherwise be entitled. No such holder shall be entitled to dividends or other rights in respect of any such fractional shares. Average Closing Price means, as of any specified date, the average composite closing price of FNB Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange, including any successor exchange ("NYSE"), as reported by the NYSE for the twenty (20) consecutive trading days ending on and including the fifth such trading day prior to the specified date rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth.

1.5 FNB Capital Stock. At and after the Effective Time, each share of FNB capital stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and shall not be affected by the Merger.

1.6 PFC Equity and Equity-Based Awards.

(a) PFC Stock Options. Effective as of the Effective Time, each then outstanding option to purchase shares of PFC Common Stock (each a "PFC Stock Option"), pursuant to the equity-based compensation plans identified in Section 3.11(a) of the PFC Disclosure Schedule (as defined in Article 3 hereof) (the "PFC Stock Plans") and the award agreements evidencing the grants thereunder, granted to any current or former employee or director of PFC or any of the PFC Subsidiaries (as defined in Section 3.1(c)) shall at the Effective Time cease to represent a right to acquire shares of PFC Common Stock and shall be converted automatically into a fully vested and exercisable option to acquire shares of FNB Common Stock on the terms hereinafter set forth. FNB shall assume each such PFC Stock Option in accordance with the terms of the relevant PFC Stock Plan and stock option or other agreement by which it is evidenced, except that from and after the Effective Time: (i) FNB and the Compensation Committee of its Board of Directors, including, if applicable, the entire Board of Directors of FNB, shall be substituted for PFC and the compensation committee of the Board of Directors of PFC, including, if applicable, the entire Board of Directors of PFC, administering such PFC Stock Plan, (ii) each PFC Stock Option assumed by FNB may be exercised solely for shares of FNB Common Stock, (iii) the number of shares of FNB Common Stock subject to such PFC Stock Option shall be equal to the number of shares of PFC Common Stock subject to such PFC Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by the Exchange Ratio, provided that any fractional shares of FNB Common Stock resulting from such multiplication shall be rounded down to the nearest share, and (iv) the exercise price per share of FNB Common Stock under each such option shall be the amount (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to the per share exercise price under each such PFC Stock Option prior to the Effective Time divided by the Exchange Ratio. Notwithstanding clauses (iii) and (iv) of the preceding sentence, each PFC Stock Option that is an "incentive stock option" shall be adjusted as required by Section 424 of the Code, and regulations promulgated thereunder, so as not to constitute a modification, extension or renewal of the option within the meaning of Section 424(h) of the Code. FNB and PFC agree to take all reasonable and necessary steps to effect the provisions of this Section 1.6(a). As of the Effective Time, FNB shall issue to each holder of each outstanding PFC Stock Option that has been assumed by FNB (the "Assumed Stock Options") a document evidencing the conversion and assumption of such PFC Stock Option by FNB pursuant to this Section 1.6(a). Prior to the Effective Time, FNB shall reserve for issuance the number of shares of FNB Common Stock necessary to satisfy FNB's obligations under this Section 1.6(a). As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, FNB shall file and cause to become effective a registration statement or statements on Form S-8 or Form S-3 (or any successor or other applicable form) with respect to the shares of FNB Common Stock subject to the Assumed Stock Options, and to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement for so long as any PFC Stock Options remain outstanding.

(b) Warrant. The Warrant issued on December 23, 2008 to the U.S. Department of the Treasury (Treasury Department) in connection with the issuance of the PFC Series A Preferred Stock (the PFC Warrant) shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of any Person, cease to be a warrant to purchase PFC Common Stock and will be converted automatically into a warrant to purchase FNB Common Stock (the FNB Warrant) in accordance with the terms of the PFC Warrant, and FNB will assume such warrant subject to its terms; provided, however, that after the Effective Time:

(i) the number of shares of FNB Common Stock purchasable upon exercise of the FNB Warrant will equal the product of (x) the number of shares of PFC Common Stock that were purchasable pursuant to the PFC Warrant immediately before the Effective Time and (y) the Exchange Ratio, rounded to the nearest one-hundredth (1/100th) of a share; and

(ii) the per share exercise price for the PFC Warrant will equal the quotient of (x) the per share exercise price of the PFC Warrant in effect immediately before the Effective Time and (y) the Exchange Ratio, rounded to the nearest one-tenth (1/10th) of a cent.

1.7 Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Company. The FNB Charter (as defined in Section 4.1(b)) as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the articles of incorporation of the Surviving Company until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law. The FNB Bylaws (as defined in Section 4.1(b)) as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Company until thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law.

1.8 Tax Consequences. It is intended that the Merger shall constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and that this Agreement shall constitute a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code.

1.9 Dissenting Shares. No outstanding shares of PFC Common Stock shall have any dissenters' rights of appraisal under the PBCL.

1.10 The Bank Merger. As soon as practicable after the execution of this Agreement, PFC and FNB shall cause Parkvale Savings Bank (PFC Bank) and First National Bank of Pennsylvania (FNB Bank) to enter into a bank merger agreement, the form of which is attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A (the Bank Merger Agreement), that provides for the merger of PFC Bank with and into FNB Bank (the Bank Merger), in accordance with applicable laws and regulations and the terms of the Bank Merger Agreement and as soon as practicable after consummation of the Merger. The Bank Merger Agreement provides that the directors of FNB Bank (FNB Bank Board) upon consummation of the Bank Merger shall be the directors of FNB Bank immediately prior to the Bank Merger plus the PFC Bank Designee (as defined in Section 6.14(b)).

1.11 Right to Revise Structure. FNB may at any time change the method of effecting the combination contemplated by this Agreement if and to the extent it deems such a change to be desirable; provided, however, that no such change shall (i) alter or change the amount or kind of the Common Stock Merger Consideration (as defined in Section 1.4(a)) provided for in this Agreement, (ii) adversely affect the Tax treatment of PFC's shareholders as a result of receiving the Merger Consideration or the Tax treatment of either party pursuant to this Agreement, or (iii) materially impede or delay consummation of the transactions this Agreement contemplates. In the event FNB elects to make such a change, the parties agree to execute appropriate documents to reflect the change.

EXCHANGE OF SHARES

2.1 FNB to Make Merger Consideration Available. As promptly as practicable following the Effective Time, FNB shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with Registrar and Transfer Company (Exchange Agent), for the benefit of the holders of Certificates, for exchange in accordance with this Article 2, (a) book entry shares representing the aggregate number of shares of FNB Capital Stock issuable pursuant to this Agreement in exchange for shares of PFC Capital Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, (b) immediately available funds equal to any dividends or distributions payable in accordance with Section 2.2(b), and (c) cash in lieu of any fractional shares of FNB Common Stock to be issued pursuant to Section 1.4(f) and paid pursuant to Section 1.4 in exchange for outstanding shares of PFC Capital Stock (such cash and book entry shares for shares of FNB Capital Stock, collectively being referred to as the Exchange Fund). The Exchange Fund shall not be used for any purpose other than to fund payments due pursuant to Section 2.2 except as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

2.2 Exchange Shares.

(a) As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, and in no event more than five business days thereafter, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each holder of record of PFC Capital Stock a letter of transmittal in customary form as prepared by FNB and reasonably acceptable to PFC which shall specify, among other things, that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares into which the shares of PFC Common Stock represented by such Certificate or Certificates shall have been converted pursuant to this Agreement and any dividends or distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.2(b). After the Effective Time of the Merger, each holder of a Certificate formerly representing PFC Capital Stock, other than Treasury Shares, who surrenders or has surrendered such Certificate or customary affidavits and indemnification regarding the loss or destruction of such Certificate, together with duly executed transmittal materials to the Exchange Agent, shall, upon acceptance thereof, be entitled to book entry shares representing FNB Common Stock or FNB Series D Preferred Stock, as applicable, into which the shares of PFC Capital Stock shall have been converted pursuant to Section 1.4, as well as any cash in lieu of any fractional share of FNB Common Stock to which such holder would otherwise be entitled and any dividends or distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.2(b). The Exchange Agent shall accept such Certificate upon compliance with such reasonable and customary terms and conditions as the Exchange Agent may impose to effect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal practices. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.2, (i) each Certificate representing PFC Common Stock shall be deemed from and after the Effective Time of the Merger to evidence only the right to receive the Common Stock Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares into which the shares of PFC Common Stock represented by such Certificate or Certificates shall have been converted pursuant to this Agreement and any dividends or distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.2(b), and (ii) any Certificate representing PFC Series A Preferred Stock shall be deemed from and after the Effective Time of the Merger to evidence only the right to receive the Preferred Stock Merger Consideration and any dividends or distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.2(b). FNB shall not be obligated to deliver the Merger Consideration or any check representing cash in lieu of fractional shares and/or declared but unpaid dividends to which any former holder of PFC Capital Stock is entitled as a result of the Merger until such holder surrenders his Certificate or Certificates for exchange as provided in Section 2.2. If any shares of FNB Capital Stock, or any check representing cash in lieu of fractional shares and/or declared but unpaid dividends, is to be issued in a name other than that in which a Certificate surrendered for exchange is issued, the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed and otherwise in proper form for transfer and the person requesting such exchange shall affix any requisite stock transfer tax stamps to the Certificate surrendered or provide funds for their purchase or establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such taxes are not payable. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, then upon the making of an affidavit, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to FNB, of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by FNB or the Exchange Agent, the posting by such Person of a bond in such amount as FNB and the Exchange Agent may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it, FNB or the Surviving Company with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration payable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

(b) Following surrender of any such Certificate, there shall be paid to the record holder of the whole shares of FNB Capital Stock issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) at the time of such surrender, the amount of any dividends or distributions with a record date prior to the Effective Time that have been declared by PFC in respect of shares of PFC Capital Stock after the date of this Agreement in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and which remain unpaid at the Effective Time, (ii) at the time of such surrender, the amount of any cash payable in lieu of a fractional share of FNB Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 1.4(f) and the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time of the Merger and which had become payable with respect to such whole shares of FNB Common Stock prior to the time of surrender, and (iii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time of the Merger but prior to surrender and a payment date subsequent to surrender payable with respect to such whole shares of FNB Capital Stock. After the date of this Agreement, PFC shall coordinate with FNB the declaration of any dividends in respect of PFC Capital Stock as provided in Sections 5.2(a) and 6.10.

(c) After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of PFC of the shares of PFC Capital Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time other than to settle transfers of PFC Capital Stock that occurred prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to FNB for any reason, they shall be cancelled and exchanged as provided in this Agreement. All shares of FNB Capital Stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares of FNB Common Stock and/or declared but unpaid dividends issued upon the surrender for exchange of shares of PFC Capital Stock or the provision of customary affidavits and indemnification for lost or mutilated Certificates in accordance with the terms hereof and the letter of transmittal, shall be deemed to have been issued in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such shares of PFC Capital Stock.

(d) Any portion of the Exchange Fund, including any interest thereon, that remains undistributed to the shareholders of PFC following the passage of twelve (12) months after the Effective Time of the Merger shall be delivered to FNB, upon demand, and any shareholders of PFC who have not theretofore complied with this Section 2.2 shall thereafter look only to FNB for payment of their claim for FNB Capital Stock, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of FNB Common Stock and any unpaid dividends or distributions payable in accordance with Section 2.2(b).

(e) Neither PFC nor FNB shall be liable to any holder of shares of PFC Capital Stock or FNB Capital Stock, as the case may be, for such shares, or dividends or distributions with respect thereto, or cash from the Exchange Fund delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(f) The Exchange Agent shall not be entitled to vote or exercise any rights of ownership with respect to the shares of FNB Capital Stock held by it from time to time hereunder, except that it shall receive and hold all dividends or other distributions paid or distributed with respect to such shares of FNB Capital Stock for the account of the Persons entitled thereto.

2.3 Adjustments for Dilution and Other Matters. If prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, (a) FNB shall declare a stock dividend or distribution on FNB Capital Stock with a record date prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, or subdivide, split up, reclassify or combine FNB Capital Stock, or make a distribution other than a regular quarterly cash dividend, on FNB Capital Stock in any security convertible into FNB Capital Stock, in each case with a record date prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, or (b) the outstanding shares of FNB Capital Stock shall have been increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities in each case as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or other similar change in FNB's capitalization other than a business combination transaction with another bank holding company or financial services company, then a proportionate adjustment or adjustments will be made to the Exchange Ratio and/or the Preferred Stock Merger Consideration, which adjustment may include, as appropriate, the issuance of securities, property or cash on the same basis as that on which any of the foregoing shall have been issued, distributed or paid to holders of such class of FNB Capital Stock generally.

2.4 Withholding Rights. The Exchange Agent or, subsequent to the first anniversary of the Effective Time, FNB, shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any cash portion of the Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of FNB Common Stock, cash dividends or distributions payable pursuant to Section 2.2(b) and any other cash amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of PFC Capital Stock such amounts as the Exchange Agent or FNB, as the case may be, is required to deduct and withhold under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law, with respect to the making of such payment. To the extent the amounts are so withheld by the Exchange Agent or FNB, as the case may be, such withheld amounts shall be paid to the appropriate Tax authority by the Exchange Agent or FNB and shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of shares of PFC Capital Stock in respect of whom such deduction and withholding was made by the Exchange Agent or FNB, as the case may be.

Except for the approval and adoption of this Agreement and the transactions this Agreement contemplates by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all shareholders of PFC entitled to vote thereon at a shareholders meeting at which a quorum is present, no other corporate approvals on the part of PFC are necessary to approve this Agreement. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by PFC and, assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by FNB, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of PFC, enforceable against PFC in accordance with its terms, except as may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization or similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally and the availability of equitable remedies.

(b) Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by PFC nor the consummation by PFC of the transactions this Agreement contemplates, nor compliance by PFC with any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement, will (i) violate any provision of the PFC Articles or the PFC Bylaws or (ii) assuming that the consents, approvals and filings referred to in Section 3.4 are duly obtained and/or made and are in full force and effect, (A) violate any statute, code, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, order, writ, decree or Injunction (as defined in Section 7.1(e)) applicable to PFC, any of the PFC Subsidiaries or any of their respective properties or assets or (B) except as set forth in Section 3.3(b) of the PFC Disclosure Schedule, violate, conflict with, result in a breach of any provision of, constitute a default or an event which, with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default under, result in the termination of or a right of termination or cancellation under, accelerate the performance required by, or result in the creation of any Lien upon any of the respective properties or assets of PFC or any of the PFC Subsidiaries under, any of the

Neither FNB, its Subsidiaries nor any other Person on their behalf has executed or entered into any written agreement with, or obtained or applied for any written consents or written clearances or any other Tax rulings from, nor has there been any written agreement executed or entered into on behalf of any of them with any Taxing Authority, relating to Taxes, including any IRS private letter rulings or comparable rulings of any Taxing Authority and closing agreements pursuant to Section 7121 of the Code or any predecessor provision thereof or any similar provision of any applicable law, which rulings or agreements would have a continuing effect after the Effective Time. Neither FNB nor any of its Subsidiaries has engaged in a reportable transaction, as set forth in Treas. Reg. §1.6011-4(b), or any transaction that is the same as or substantially similar to one of the types of transactions that the IRS has determined to be a tax avoidance transaction and identified by notice, regulation or other form of published guidance as a listed transaction, as set forth in Treas. Reg. §1.6011-4(b)(2). PFC has received complete copies of (i) all federal, state, local and foreign income or franchise Tax Returns of FNB and its Subsidiaries relating to the taxable periods beginning January 1, 2008 or later and (ii) any audit report issued within the last three years relating to any Taxes due from or with respect to FNB or its Subsidiaries. 4.11 Employee Benefits. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meaning:

FNB Benefit Plans means any employee benefit plan, program, policy, practice or other arrangement providing benefits to any current or former employee, officer or director of FNB or any of its Subsidiaries or any beneficiary or dependent thereof that is sponsored or maintained by FNB or any of its Subsidiaries or to which FNB or any of its Subsidiaries contributes or is obligated to contribute, whether or not written, including without limitation any employee welfare benefit plan within the meaning of Section 3(1) of ERISA, any employee pension benefit plan within the meaning of Section 3(2) of ERISA, whether or not such plan is subject to ERISA, and any bonus, incentive, deferred compensation, vacation, stock purchase, stock option, equity compensation, severance, employment, change of control or fringe benefit plan, program or policy.

FNB Employment Agreement means a contract, offer letter or agreement of FNB or any of its Subsidiaries with or addressed to any individual who is rendering or has rendered services thereto as an employee pursuant to which FNB or any of its Subsidiaries has any actual or contingent liability or obligation to provide compensation and/or benefits in consideration for past, present or future services.

FNB Plan means any FNB Benefit Plan other than a Multiemployer Plan.

(a) Section 4.11(a) of the FNB Disclosure Schedule includes a complete list of all FNB Benefit Plans and all FNB Employment Agreements.

(b) With respect to each FNB Plan, FNB has delivered or made available to PFC a true, correct and complete copy of: (i) each writing constituting a part of such FNB Plan, including without limitation all plan documents, employee communications, benefit schedules, trust agreements, and insurance contracts and other funding vehicles, (ii) the two most recent Annual Reports (Form 5500 Series) and accompanying schedules, if any, (iii) the current summary plan description and any material modifications thereto, if any (in each case, whether or not required to be furnished under ERISA), (iv) the most recent annual financial report, if any, (v) the most recent actuarial report, if any, and (vi) the most recent determination letter from the IRS, if any. FNB has delivered or made available to PFC a true, correct and complete copy of each FNB Employment Agreement.

(c) All contributions required to be made to any FNB Plan by applicable law or regulation or by any plan document or other contractual undertaking, and all premiums due or payable with respect to insurance policies funding any FNB Plan, for any period through the date of this Agreement have been timely made or paid in full or, to the extent not required to be made or paid on or before the date of this Agreement, have been fully reflected on the financial statements to the extent required by GAAP. Each FNB Benefit Plan that is an employee welfare benefit plan under Section 3(1) of ERISA either (i) is funded through an insurance company contract and is not a welfare benefit fund within the meaning of Section 419 of the Code or (ii) is unfunded, as noted in Section 4.11(c) of the FNB Disclosure Schedule.

(d) With respect to each FNB Plan, FNB and its Subsidiaries have complied, and are now in compliance, in all material respects, with all provisions of ERISA, the Code and all laws and regulations applicable to such FNB Plans. Each FNB Plan has been administered in all material respects in accordance with its terms. There is not now, nor do any circumstances exist that would reasonably be expected to give rise to, any requirement for the posting of security with respect to a FNB Plan or the imposition of any material lien on the assets of FNB or any of its Subsidiaries under ERISA or the Code. Section 4.11(d) of the FNB Disclosure Schedule identifies each FNB Plan that is intended to be a qualified plan within the meaning of Section 401(a) of the Code (FNB Qualified Plans). The IRS has issued a favorable determination letter with respect to each FNB Qualified Plan and the related trust which has not been revoked, or FNB is entitled to rely on a favorable opinion issued by the IRS, and, to the knowledge of FNB, there are no existing circumstances and no events have occurred that would reasonably be expected to adversely affect the qualified status of any FNB Qualified Plan or the related trust. No trust funding any FNB Plan is intended to meet the requirements of Code Section 501(c)(9). To the knowledge of FNB, none of FNB and its Subsidiaries nor any other person, including any fiduciary, has engaged in any prohibited transaction, as defined in Section 4975 of the Code or Section 406 of ERISA, which would reasonably be expected to subject any of the FNB Plans or their related trusts, FNB, any of its Subsidiaries or any person that FNB or any of its Subsidiaries has an obligation to indemnify, to any material Tax or penalty imposed under Section 4975 of the Code or Section 502 of ERISA.

(e) With respect to each FNB Plan that is subject to Title IV or Section 302 of ERISA or Section 412 or 4971 of the Code, (i) there does not exist any accumulated funding deficiency within the meaning of Section 412 of the Code or Section 302 of ERISA, whether or not waived, and, (ii) except as would not have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect: (A) the fair market value of the assets of such FNB Plan equals or exceeds the actuarial present value of all accrued benefits under such FNB Plan, whether or not vested, on a termination basis, (B) no reportable event within the meaning of Section 4043(c) of ERISA for which the 30-day notice requirement has not been waived has occurred, (C) all premiums to the PBGC have been timely paid in full, (D) no liability, other than for premiums to the PBGC, under Title IV of ERISA has been or would reasonably be expected to be incurred by FNB or any of its Subsidiaries and (E) the PBGC has not instituted proceedings to terminate any such FNB Plan and, to FNB's knowledge, no condition exists that presents a risk that such proceedings will be instituted or which would reasonably be expected to constitute grounds under Section 4042 of ERISA for the termination of, or the appointment of a trustee to administer, any such FNB Plan.

(f) (i) No FNB Benefit Plan is a Multiemployer Plan or a Multiple Employer Plan, (ii) none of FNB and its Subsidiaries nor any of their respective ERISA Affiliates has, at any time during the last six years, contributed to or been obligated to contribute to any Multiemployer Plan or Multiple Employer Plan and (iii) none of FNB and its Subsidiaries nor any of their respective ERISA Affiliates has incurred, during the last six years, any Withdrawal Liability that has not been satisfied in full. There does not now exist, nor do any circumstances exist that would reasonably be expected to result in, any Controlled Group Liability that would be a liability of FNB or any of its Subsidiaries following the Effective Time, other than such liabilities that arise solely out of, or relate solely to, the FNB Benefit Plans. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither FNB nor any of its Subsidiaries, nor, to FNB's knowledge, any of their respective ERISA Affiliates, has engaged in any transaction described in Sections 4069, 4204 or 4212 of ERISA.

(g) Other than a medical retirement plan, FNB and its Subsidiaries have no liability for life, health, medical or other welfare benefits to former employees or beneficiaries or dependents thereof, except for health continuation coverage as required by Section 4980B of the Code, Part 6 of Title I of ERISA or applicable law and at no expense to FNB and its Subsidiaries.

(h) Neither the execution nor the delivery of this Agreement nor the consummation of the transactions this Agreement contemplates will, either alone or in conjunction with any other event, whether contingent or otherwise, (i) result in any payment or benefit becoming due or payable, or required to be provided, to any director, employee or independent contractor of FNB or any of its Subsidiaries, (ii) increase the amount or value of any benefit or compensation otherwise payable or required to be provided to any such director, employee or independent contractor, (iii) result in the acceleration of the time of payment, vesting or funding of any such benefit or compensation, including deferred compensation, or (iv) result in any amount failing to be deductible by reason of Section 280G of the Code or would be subject to an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code or additional tax under Section 409A of the Code.

(i) No labor organization or group of employees of FNB or any of its Subsidiaries has made a pending demand for recognition or certification, and there are no representation or certification proceedings or petitions seeking a representation proceeding presently pending or, to FNB's knowledge, threatened to be brought or filed, with the National Labor Relations Board or any other labor relations tribunal or authority. Each of FNB and its Subsidiaries is in material compliance with all applicable laws and collective bargaining agreements respecting employment and employment practices, terms and conditions of employment, wages and hours and occupational safety and health.

4.12 Compliance with Applicable Law. FNB and each of its Subsidiaries are not in default in any material respect under any applicable law, statute, order, rule, regulation, policy or guideline of any Governmental Entity applicable to FNB or any of its Subsidiaries, including the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, the Fair Housing Act, the Community Reinvestment Act, the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act, the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorist (USA Patriot) Act of 2001, the Bank Secrecy Act, the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and applicable limits on

Except for matters that have not had and would not reasonably be likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on FNB, (i) none of FNB nor any of its Subsidiaries is, with or without the lapse of time or the giving of notice, or both, in breach or default in any material respect under any material contract, lease, license or other agreement or instrument, (ii) to the knowledge of FNB, none of the other parties to any such material contract, lease, license or other agreement or instrument is, with or without the lapse of time or the giving of notice, or both, in breach or default in any material respect thereunder and (iii) neither FNB nor any of its Subsidiaries has received any written notice of the intention of any party to terminate or cancel any such material contract, lease, license or other agreement or instrument whether as a termination or cancellation for convenience or for default of FNB or any of its Subsidiaries.

4.14 Agreements with Regulatory Agencies. Neither FNB nor any of its Subsidiaries is subject to any cease-and-desist or other order or enforcement action issued by, or is a party to any written agreement, consent agreement or memorandum of understanding with, or is a party to any commitment letter or similar undertaking to, or is subject to any order, or has been since January 1, 2009, a recipient of any supervisory letter from, or has been ordered to pay any civil money penalty by, or since January 1, 2009, has adopted any policies, procedures or board resolutions at the request or suggestion of any Regulatory Agency or other Governmental Entity that currently restricts in any material respect the conduct of its business or that in any material manner relates to its capital adequacy, its ability to pay dividends, its credit or risk management policies, its management or its business, other than those of general application that apply to similarly situated financial holding companies or their Subsidiaries, each item in this sentence, whether or not set forth in the FNB Disclosure Schedule (FNB Regulatory Agreement), nor has FNB or any of its Subsidiaries been advised since January 1, 2009 by any Regulatory Agency or other Governmental Entity that it is considering issuing, initiating, ordering or requesting any such FNB Regulatory Agreement. Each bank Subsidiary of FNB has at least a satisfactory rating under the U.S. Community Reinvestment Act.

4.15 Undisclosed Liabilities. Neither FNB nor any of its Subsidiaries has, and since December 31, 2010, neither FNB nor any of its Subsidiaries has incurred, any liabilities or obligations, whether accrued, absolute, contingent or otherwise, known or unknown, whether due or to become due, except (i) those liabilities fully accrued or reserved against in the unaudited consolidated balance sheet of FNB and its Subsidiaries as of March 31, 2011 included in the FNB Reports, (ii) for liabilities and obligations incurred in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice since March 31, 2011, (iii) for liabilities and obligations that are not material to FNB and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, and (iv) for any liabilities incurred with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.16 Environmental Liability.

(b) There are no legal, administrative, arbitral or other proceedings, claims, actions, causes of action, private environmental investigations or remediation activities or governmental investigations of any nature seeking to impose, or that are reasonably likely to result in the imposition, on FNB of any liability or obligation arising under common law or under any local, state or federal environmental statute, regulation or ordinance including the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, as amended, pending or threatened against FNB, which liability or obligation is reasonably likely to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on FNB. To the knowledge of FNB, there is no reasonable basis for any such proceeding, claim, action or governmental investigation that would impose any liability or obligation that would be reasonably likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on FNB. FNB is not subject to any agreement, order, judgment, decree, letter or memorandum by or with any Governmental Entity or third party imposing any liability or obligation with respect to the foregoing that is reasonably likely to have, either individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on FNB.

4.17 Reorganization. As of the date of this Agreement, FNB is not aware of any fact or circumstance that could reasonably be expected to prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

4.18 Loans: Nonperforming and Classified Assets.

(a) Except as set forth in Section 4.18 of the FNB Disclosure Schedule, each Loan on the books and records of FNB and its Subsidiaries was made and has been serviced in all material respects in accordance with their customary lending standards in the ordinary course of business, is evidenced in all material respects by appropriate and sufficient documentation and, to the knowledge of FNB, constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the obligor named in the Contract evidencing such Loan, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent transfer and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights or by general equity principles.

(a) except for the designation of the FNB Series D Preferred Stock, amend, repeal or otherwise modify any provision of the FNB Charter or the FNB Bylaws other than those that would not be adverse to PFC or its shareholders or those that would not impede FNB's ability to consummate the transactions this Agreement contemplates;

(b) take any action, or knowingly fail to take any action, which action or failure to act would be reasonably expected to prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;

(d) make any material investment either by purchase of stock or securities, contributions to capital, property transfers or purchase of any property or assets of any other individual, corporation or other entity, in any case to the extent such action would be reasonably expected to prevent, or materially impede or delay, the consummation of the transactions this Agreement contemplates;

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

6.1 Regulatory Matters.

(a) FNB agrees to prepare and file, as soon as practicable, the Registration Statement with the SEC in connection with the issuance of FNB Common Stock in the Merger including the Proxy Statement and prospectus and other proxy solicitation materials of PFC constituting a part thereof and all related documents. PFC shall prepare and furnish to FNB such information relating to it and its directors, officers and shareholders as may be reasonably required in connection with the above referenced documents based on its knowledge of and access to the information required for said documents, and PFC and its legal, financial and accounting advisors shall have the right to review in advance and approve, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, such Registration Statement prior to its filing. PFC agrees to cooperate with FNB and FNB's counsel and accountants in requesting and obtaining appropriate opinions, consents and letters from its financial advisor and independent auditor in connection with the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement. As long as PFC has cooperated as described above, FNB agrees to file, or cause to be filed, the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement with the SEC as promptly as reasonably practicable. Each of PFC and FNB agrees to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Registration Statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as reasonably practicable after the filing thereof. FNB also agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or Blue Sky permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions this Agreement contemplates. After the SEC has declared the Registration Statement effective under the Securities Act, PFC shall promptly mail at its expense the Proxy Statement to its shareholders.

(b) Each of PFC and FNB agree that none of the respective information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Registration Statement shall, at the time the Registration Statement and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated in this Agreement or necessary to make the statements in this Agreement not misleading. Each of PFC and FNB agree that none of the respective information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto shall contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated in this Agreement or necessary to make the statements in this Agreement not misleading. Each of PFC and FNB further agree that if such party shall become aware prior to the Effective Time of any information furnished by such party that would cause any of the statements in the Registration Statement or the Proxy Statement to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements in this Agreement not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other parties thereof and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be filed promptly with the SEC and, to the extent required by law, disseminated to the shareholders of PFC and/or FNB.

(c) FNB agrees to advise PFC, promptly after FNB receives notice thereof, of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, of the issuance of any stop order or the suspension of the qualification of FNB Common Stock for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, of the initiation or, to the extent FNB is aware thereof, threat of any proceeding for any such purpose, or of any request by the SEC for an amendment or supplement of the Registration Statement or for additional information.

(d) The parties shall cooperate with each other and use their respective reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties, Regulatory Agencies and Governmental Entities that are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions this Agreement contemplates, including the Merger, and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such Regulatory Agencies and Governmental Entities. FNB agrees that it will file all appropriate applications or notices with each Regulatory Agency or Governmental Entity having jurisdiction over the transactions contemplated by this Agreement within 60 days following the date hereof. PFC and FNB shall have the right to review in advance, and, to the extent practicable, each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, all the information relating to PFC or FNB, as the case may be, and any of their respective Subsidiaries, which appear in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party, Regulatory Agency or any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. The parties shall consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties, Regulatory Agencies and Governmental Entities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions this Agreement contemplates and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions this Agreement contemplates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to require FNB to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction, in connection with obtaining the foregoing permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of third parties, Regulatory Agencies or Governmental Entities, that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on FNB, including the Surviving Company after giving effect to the Merger, after the Effective Time (a Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition). In addition, PFC agrees to cooperate and use its reasonable best efforts to assist FNB in preparing and filing such petitions and filings, and in obtaining such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of third parties, Regulatory Agencies and Governmental Entities, that may be necessary or advisable to effect any mergers and/or consolidations of Subsidiaries of PFC and FNB following consummation of the Merger.

(e) Each of FNB and PFC shall, upon request, furnish to the other all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the Proxy Statement, the Registration Statement or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of FNB, PFC or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any Regulatory Agency or Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including, without limitation, any pro forma financial information to be included in the Registration Statement on Form S-4).

(f) Each of FNB and PFC shall promptly provide each other with any written communications received from any Regulatory Agency or Governmental Entity with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and will promptly advise the other upon receiving any oral communication with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement from any Regulatory Agency or Governmental Entity whose consent or approval is required for consummation of the transactions this Agreement contemplates that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any Requisite Regulatory Approval (as defined in Section 7.1(c)) will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval may be materially delayed.

(g) PFC and FNB shall consult with each other before issuing any press release with respect to the Merger or this Agreement and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statements without the prior consent of the other party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that a party may, without the prior consent of the other party, but after such consultation, to the extent practicable under the circumstances, issue such press release or make such public statements as may upon the advice of outside counsel be required by law or the rules or regulations of the SEC, the FDIC, the OCC, the NYSE or FINRA. In addition, the Chief Executive Officers of PFC and FNB shall be permitted to respond to appropriate questions about the Merger from the press. PFC and FNB shall cooperate to develop all public announcement materials and make appropriate management available at presentations related to the Merger as reasonably requested by the other party.

6.2 Access to Information.

(a) Upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, each of PFC and FNB shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, afford to the officers, employees, accountants, counsel and other representatives of the other, reasonable access, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time, to all its properties, books, contracts, commitments and records, and, during such period, the parties shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, make available to the other party all other information concerning its business, properties and personnel as the other may reasonably request. PFC shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, provide to FNB a copy of each report, schedule and other document filed or received by it during such period pursuant to the requirements of federal or state banking laws other than reports or documents that such party is not permitted to disclose under applicable law. Neither PFC nor FNB nor any of their Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of such party or its Subsidiaries or contravene any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment, decree, fiduciary duty or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement. The parties shall make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply to the extent possible in light of those restrictions.

(b) All information and materials provided pursuant to this Agreement shall be subject to the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreements entered into between PFC and FNB (the Confidentiality Agreements).

(c) No investigation by either of the parties or their respective representatives shall affect the representations and warranties of the other set forth in this Agreement.

6.3 PFC Shareholder Approval. PFC shall call a meeting of its shareholders for the purpose of obtaining the requisite shareholder approval required in connection with this Agreement and the Merger (the "PFC Shareholders Meeting"), and shall use its reasonable best efforts to call such meeting as soon as reasonably practicable following the Registration Statement being declared effective giving reasonable time for printing and mailing and taking into account the timing of its annual meeting of shareholders. Subject to Section 6.11, the Board of Directors of PFC shall recommend approval and adoption of this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions this Agreement contemplates, by PFC's shareholders and shall include such recommendation in the Proxy Statement (the "PFC Recommendation"). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, PFC's obligations pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 6.3 shall not be affected by the commencement, public proposal, public disclosure or communication to PFC of any Acquisition Proposal, as defined in Section 6.11(e). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 8.1, PFC's obligations pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 6.3 shall terminate.

6.4 Commercially Reasonable Efforts; Cooperation. Each of PFC and FNB agrees to exercise good faith and use its commercially reasonable best efforts to satisfy the various covenants and conditions to Closing in this Agreement, and to consummate the transactions this Agreement contemplates as promptly as possible.

6.5 NYSE Approval. FNB shall cause the shares of FNB Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time.

6.6 Benefit Plans.

(a) Following the Effective Time, FNB shall take all reasonable action so that employees of PFC and the PFC Subsidiaries shall be entitled to participate, effective as soon as administratively practicable following the Effective Time, in each employee benefit plan, program or arrangement of FNB of general applicability with the exception of FNB's defined benefit pension plan and any other plans frozen to new participants (the "FNB Plans") to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of FNB and its Subsidiaries, it being understood that inclusion of the employees of PFC and the PFC Subsidiaries in the FNB Plans may occur at different times with respect to different plans, provided that coverage shall be continued under corresponding Benefit Plans of PFC and the PFC Subsidiaries until such employees are permitted to participate in the FNB Plans and provided further, however, that nothing contained in this Agreement shall require FNB or any of its Subsidiaries to make any grants to any former employee of PFC under any discretionary equity compensation plan of FNB. FNB shall cause each FNB Plan in which employees of PFC and the PFC Subsidiaries are eligible to participate to recognize, for purposes of determining eligibility to participate in, the vesting of benefits under the FNB Plans and the entitlement to benefits under the FNB Plans (including, but not limited to, severance benefit and vacation plans), the service of such employees with PFC and the PFC Subsidiaries (or predecessor companies) to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose by PFC or the PFC Subsidiaries, provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits. Except for the commitment to continue those Benefit Plans of PFC and the PFC Subsidiaries that correspond to FNB Plans until employees of PFC and the PFC Subsidiaries are included in such FNB Plans, nothing in this Agreement shall limit the ability of FNB to amend or terminate any of PFC's Benefit Plans in accordance with and to the extent permitted by their terms at any time permitted by such terms.

(b) At and following the Effective Time, and except as otherwise provided in Section 6.6(d), FNB shall honor, and, to the extent required by any individual agreement, assume, and the Surviving Company shall continue to be obligated to perform, in accordance with their terms, all benefit obligations to, and contractual rights of, current and former employees of PFC and the PFC Subsidiaries and current and former directors of PFC and the PFC Subsidiaries existing as of the Effective Date, as well as all employment, executive severance or "change-in-control" or similar agreements, plans or policies of PFC that are set forth in Section 6.6(b) of the PFC Disclosure Schedule. The severance or termination payments that are payable pursuant to any such severance agreements, plans or policies of PFC are described in Section 6.6(b) of the PFC Disclosure Schedule. Following the consummation of the Merger and for one year thereafter, FNB shall, to the extent not duplicative of other severance benefits, pay employees of PFC or its Subsidiaries whose employment is terminated by FNB for reasons other than cause, severance as set forth in Section 6.6(b) of the FNB Disclosure Schedule. Following the expiration of the foregoing severance policy, any years of service recognized for purposes of this Section 6.6(b) will be taken into account under the terms of any applicable severance policy of FNB or its Subsidiaries.

(c) At such time as employees of PFC and the PFC Subsidiaries become eligible to participate in a medical, dental or health plan of FNB or its Subsidiaries, to the extent reasonably practicable and available from its insurers, cause each such plan to (i) waive any preexisting condition limitations to the extent such conditions are covered under the applicable medical, health or dental plans of PFC and its Subsidiaries, (ii) honor under such plans any deductibles, co-payments and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employees of PFC and its Subsidiaries and their beneficiaries during the portion of the plan year prior to such participation, and (iii) waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement that would otherwise be applicable to such employee or dependent on or after the Effective Time to the extent such employee or dependent had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under an analogous Benefit Plan prior to the Effective Time.

(d) PFC shall permit the PFC Employee Stock Ownership Plan as amended and restated effective as of January 1, 2008 (the ESOP) to terminate in accordance with its terms effective as of the occurrence of a change in control as defined in Section 7.4(e) of the ESOP (the ESOP CIC Date) and the accounts of all participants and beneficiaries in the ESOP as of the ESOP CIC Date to become fully vested as of the ESOP CIC Date. All shares of PFC Common Stock held in the ESOP shall be converted into the Common Stock Merger Consideration. As soon as practicable after the date hereof, PFC shall, after consultation with FNB, file or cause to be filed all necessary documents with the IRS for a determination letter that the termination of the ESOP as of the ESOP CIC Date will not adversely affect the ESOP s qualified status, with a copy to be provided to FNB and its counsel. Prior to the Effective Time, PFC and, following the Effective Time, FNB shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain such favorable determination letter (including, but not limited to, adopting such amendments to the ESOP as may be requested by the IRS as a condition to its issuance of a favorable determination letter). As soon as practicable following the later of the Effective Time or the receipt of a favorable determination letter from the IRS regarding the qualified status of the ESOP upon its termination, the account balances in the ESOP shall be either distributed to participants and beneficiaries or transferred to an eligible tax-qualified retirement plan or individual retirement account as a participant or beneficiary may direct, except that ESOP participants whose employment is terminated by FNB may elect to receive their ESOP account balance prior to the receipt of the IRS determination letter but following their termination of employment. FNB agrees to permit ESOP participants who become employees of FNB and its Subsidiaries to roll over their account balances in the ESOP to the FNB 401(k) Plan.

(e) Immediately prior to the Effective Time, PFC shall, at the written request of FNB, freeze or terminate such of the PFC Benefit Plans as is requested by FNB, provided that such request is received from FNB in a timely manner.

(f) In order to assist with a smooth transition of the operations of PFC and its Subsidiaries and the transactions which this Agreement contemplates, FNB or one of its Subsidiaries agree to offer employment to certain officers and employees of PFC and its Subsidiaries as employees of FNB and its Subsidiaries following the Effective Time upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in Section 6.6(f) of the FNB Disclosure Schedule.

6.7 Indemnification: Directors and Officers Insurance.

(a) In the event of any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal or administrative, including any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (each a Claim) in which any individual who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement, or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a director or officer of PFC or any of PFC Subsidiaries or who is or was serving at the request of PFC or any of PFC Subsidiaries as a director, officer, employee, member or otherwise of another Person (the Indemnified Parties), is, or is threatened to be, made a party based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to (i) the fact that he is or was a director or officer of PFC or any of PFC Subsidiaries or was serving at the request of PFC or any of PFC Subsidiaries as a director or officer of another Person or (ii) this Agreement or any of the transactions this Agreement contemplates, whether asserted or arising before or after the Effective Time, the parties shall cooperate and use their best efforts to defend against and respond thereto. From and after the Effective Time, FNB shall, and shall cause the Surviving Company to, indemnify, defend and hold harmless, as and to the fullest extent currently provided under applicable law, the PFC Articles, the PFC Bylaws as in effect on the date hereof and any agreement set forth in Section 6.7 of the PFC Disclosure Schedule, each such Indemnified Party against any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses, including reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses, including fees and expenses of legal counsel, including local counsel, incurred in advance of the final disposition of any claim, suit, proceeding or investigation upon receipt of any undertaking required by applicable law, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any such threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation.

(b) FNB and the Surviving Company agree that all rights to indemnification of liabilities, including advancement of expenses, and all limitations with respect thereto, existing in favor of any Indemnified Person, as provided in the PFC Articles or the PFC Bylaws, shall survive the Merger and shall continue in full force and effect, without any amendment thereto; provided, however, that in the event any Claim is asserted or made, any determination required to be made with respect to whether an Indemnified Person's conduct complies with the standards set forth under the PBCL, the PFC Articles or the PFC Bylaws, as the case may be, shall be made by independent legal counsel, whose fees and expenses shall be paid by FNB and the Surviving Company, selected by such Indemnified Person and reasonably acceptable to FNB; and, provided further that nothing in this Section 6.7 shall impair any rights or obligations of any current or former director or officer of PFC or its Subsidiaries, including pursuant to the respective organizational documents of PFC, or their respective Subsidiaries, under the PBCL or otherwise.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, FNB shall obtain at the expense of PFC, and FNB shall maintain for a period of six years following the Effective Time, directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance policies in respect of acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, including the transactions this Agreement contemplates, covering the Indemnified Persons who as of the Effective Time are covered by PFC's directors' and officers' liability insurance or fiduciary liability insurance policies, provided that FNB may substitute therefor policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions that are not less advantageous than such policies of PFC or single premium tail coverage with policy limits equal to PFC's existing coverage limits, provided that in no event shall FNB be required to expend for any one year an amount in excess of 150% of the annual premium currently paid by PFC for such insurance (the Insurance Amount), and further provided that if FNB is unable to maintain or obtain the insurance called for by this Section 6.7(c) as a result of the preceding provision, FNB shall use its commercially reasonable best efforts to obtain the most advantageous coverage as is available for the maximum Insurance Amount. The provisions of the immediately preceding sentence shall be deemed to have been satisfied if prepaid policies have been obtained prior to the Effective Time from an insurer or insurers selected by FNB that have an insurer financial strength rating by A.M. Best Co. of at least A-, which policies provide the Indemnified Persons with coverage, from the Effective Time to the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time, including in respect of the transactions this Agreement contemplates, on terms that are no less advantageous to Indemnified Persons than PFC's D&O Insurance existing immediately prior to the date of this Agreement. If such prepaid policies have been obtained prior to the Effective Time, then the FNB shall maintain such policies in full force and effect and continue the obligations thereunder.

(d) The provisions of this Section 6.7 shall survive the Effective Time and are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives.

6.8 Additional Agreements. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, including any merger between a Subsidiary of FNB, on the one hand, and a Subsidiary of PFC, on the other hand, or to vest the Surviving Company with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of either party to the Merger, the proper officers and directors of each party and their respective Subsidiaries shall take all such necessary action as may be reasonably requested by, and at the sole expense of, FNB.

6.9 Advice of Changes. Each of FNB and PFC shall promptly advise the other of any change or event (i) having or reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on it or (ii) that it believes would or would be reasonably likely to cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement; provided, however, that no such notification shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties, or remedies with respect thereto, or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under this Agreement; provided, further, that a failure to comply with this Section 6.9 shall not constitute the failure of any condition set forth in Article VII to be satisfied unless the underlying Material Adverse Effect or material breach would independently result in the failure of a condition set forth in Article VII to be satisfied.

6.10 Dividends. PFC may pay regular quarterly cash dividends on the PFC Common Stock at a rate not in excess of the regular quarterly cash dividend ($0.02 per share) declared prior to the date of this Agreement on the PFC Common Stock, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 6.10, after the date of this Agreement PFC shall coordinate the declarations of any dividends in respect of the PFC Common Stock and the record dates and payment dates relating thereto with FNB's declaration of regular quarterly dividends on the FNB Common Stock and the record dates and payment dates relating thereto, it being the intention of PFC and FNB that holders of PFC Common Stock shall not receive two dividends, or fail to receive one dividend, in any quarter with respect to their shares of PFC Common Stock and any shares of FNB Common Stock such holders receive in exchange therefor in the Merger.

6.11 Certain Actions.

(a) From the date of this Agreement through the Effective Time, except as otherwise permitted by this Section 6.11, PFC will not, and will not authorize or permit any of its directors, officers, agents, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, advisors, agents, affiliates or representatives (collectively, "PFC Representatives") to, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit, encourage or take any action to facilitate, including by way of furnishing information, any Acquisition Proposal, as defined in Section 6.11(e)(i), or any inquiries with respect to or the making of any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) enter into or participate in any discussions or negotiations with, furnish any information relating to PFC or any of the PFC Subsidiaries or afford access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of PFC or any of the PFC Subsidiaries, to otherwise cooperate in any way with, or knowingly assist, participate in, facilitate or encourage any effort by any third party that is seeking to make, or has made, an Acquisition Proposal or (iii) except in accordance with Section 8.1(g), approve, endorse or recommend or enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any contract, agreement or commitment contemplating or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, PFC and its Board of Directors shall be permitted (i) to comply with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act with regard to an Acquisition Proposal provided that the Board of Directors of PFC shall not withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to FNB the PFC Recommendation except as set forth in subsection (iii) below, (ii) to engage in any discussions or negotiations with, and provide any information to, any third party in response to a Superior Proposal, as defined in Section 6.11(e)(ii), by any such third party, if and only to the extent that (x) PFC's Board of Directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that failure to do so could reasonably be expected to breach its fiduciary duties under applicable law, (y) prior to providing any information or data to any third party in connection with a Superior Proposal by any such third party, PFC's Board of Directors receives from such third party an executed confidentiality agreement, which confidentiality terms shall be no less favorable to PFC than those contained in the Confidentiality

Agreements between PFC and FNB, a copy of which executed confidentiality agreement shall have been provided to FNB for informational purposes and (z) at least 48 hours prior to providing any information or data to any third party or entering into discussions or negotiations with any third party, PFC promptly notifies FNB in writing of the name of such third party and the material terms and conditions of any such Superior Proposal and (iii) to withdraw, modify, qualify in a manner adverse to FNB, condition or refuse to make the PFC Recommendation (the Change in PFC Recommendation) if PFC's Board of Directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel and financial advisors, that failure to do so could reasonably be expected to breach its fiduciary duties under applicable law. Notwithstanding any Change of PFC Recommendation, this Agreement shall be submitted to the shareholders of PFC at the PFC Shareholders Meeting for the purpose of voting on the approval of this Agreement and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve PFC of such obligation; provided, however, that if the Board of Directors of PFC shall have effected a Change of PFC Recommendation, then the Board of Directors of PFC may submit this Agreement to PFC's shareholders without recommendation (although the resolutions adopting this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded), in which event the Board of Directors of PFC may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to PFC's shareholders in the Proxy Statement or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto to the extent required by applicable law. In addition to the foregoing, PFC shall not submit to the vote of its shareholders any Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger prior to any termination of this Agreement.

(c) PFC will promptly, and in any event within 24 hours, notify FNB in writing of the receipt of any Acquisition Proposal or any information related thereto, which notification shall describe the Acquisition Proposal and identify the third party making the same.

(d) PFC agrees that it will, and will cause the PFC Representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations existing as of the date of this Agreement with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal. PFC or its Representatives shall promptly after the date of this Agreement instruct each Person which has heretofore executed a confidentiality agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal with or for the benefit of PFC to promptly return or destroy (which destruction shall be certified in writing by such Person to PFC) all information, documents and materials relating to an Acquisition Proposal or to PFC or its businesses, operations or affairs heretofore furnished by PFC or any of its Representatives to such Person or any of such Person's Representatives in accordance with the terms of any confidentiality agreement with such Person and to destroy all summaries, analyses or extracts of or based upon such information in the possession of such Person or any of its Representatives.

(e) For purposes of this Agreement:

(i) The term Acquisition Proposal means any inquiry, proposal or offer, filing of any regulatory application or notice, whether in draft or final form, or disclosure of an intention to do any of the foregoing by or from any Person relating to any (w) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of a business that constitutes a substantial, i.e., 20% or more, portion of the net revenues, net income or net assets of PFC and the PFC Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (x) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of PFC Common Stock after the date of this Agreement by a Person who by reason of such purchase or acquisition first becomes the owner of 15% or more of PFC Common Stock after the date of this Agreement, (y) tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any Person beneficially owning 15% or more of any class of equity securities of PFC or (z) merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving PFC other than the transactions this Agreement contemplates.

(ii) The term Superior Proposal means any bona fide, unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal made by a Third Party to acquire more than 50% of the combined voting power of the shares of PFC Common Stock then outstanding or all or substantially all of PFC's consolidated assets for consideration consisting of cash and/or securities that is on terms that the Board of Directors of PFC in good faith concludes, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel, taking into account, among other things, all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal and the person making the proposal, including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation, (A) is on terms that the Board of Directors of PFC in its good faith judgment believes to be more favorable to the holders of PFC Common Stock than the Merger, (B) for which financing, to the extent required, is then fully committed or reasonably determined to be available by the Board of Directors of PFC and (C) is reasonably capable of being completed.

(iii) For purposes of this Section 6.11, Third Party means any person as defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act other than FNB or its affiliates.

(f) If a Payment Event, as defined in Section 6.11(g), occurs, PFC shall pay to FNB by wire transfer of immediately available funds, within two business days following such Payment Event, a fee of $6.0 million (the Break-up Fee), provided, however, that if a Payment Event occurs, PFC shall have no obligation to pay FNB's expenses under Section 9.3(b).

(g) The term Payment Event means any of the following:

(i) the termination of this Agreement by FNB pursuant to Section 8.1(f)(i);

Commencing following the date of this Agreement, FNB and PFC shall, and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to, use their reasonable best efforts to facilitate the integration, from and after the Closing, of PFC and the PFC Subsidiaries with the businesses of FNB and its Subsidiaries, without taking action that would, in effect, give FNB control over the management or policies of PFC or any of the PFC Subsidiaries. In furtherance of the foregoing, PFC shall provide, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and the PFC Representatives to provide, all reasonable cooperation and take all reasonable actions as may be requested by FNB in connection with such purchase or redemption, including by (i) furnishing all information concerning PFC and its Subsidiaries that FNB or any applicable Governmental Entity may request in connection with such purchase or redemption or with respect to the effects of such purchase on FNB or its pro forma capitalization; (ii) assisting with the preparation of any analyses or presentations FNB deems necessary or advisable in its reasonable judgment in connection with such purchase, repurchase or redemption or the effects thereof; and (iii) entering into any agreement with such holder (including any letter agreement among PFC, FNB and such holder) to effect the purchase, repurchase or redemption of such shares as FNB may reasonably request. than as a result of a material breach by FNB of any of its obligations under this Agreement and such failure or breach with respect to any such representation, warranty or obligation cannot be cured, or, if curable, shall continue unremedied for a period of 30 days after PFC has received written notice from FNB of the occurrence of such failure or breach, but in no event shall such 30-day period extend beyond April 30, 2012.

(ii) By PFC, if (A) any of the representations and warranties of FNB contained in this Agreement shall fail to be true and correct such that the condition set forth in Section 7.3(a) would not be satisfied or (B) FNB shall have breached or failed to comply with any of its obligations under this Agreement such that the conditions set forth in Sections 7.1 or 7.3(b) would not be satisfied, in either case other than as a result of a material breach by PFC of any of its obligations under this Agreement and such failure or breach with respect to any such representation, warranty or obligation cannot be cured, or, if curable, shall continue unremedied for a period of 30 days after FNB has received written notice from PFC of the occurrence of such failure or breach, but in no event shall such 30-day period extend beyond April 30, 2012.

(c) Delay. By FNB or PFC, if its Board of Directors so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board, in the event that the Merger is not consummated on or before 5:00 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time on April 30, 2012, except to the extent that the failure of the Merger then to be consummated by such date shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate pursuant to this Section 8.1(c) to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth in this Agreement.

(d) No Regulatory Approval. By FNB or PFC, if its Board of Directors so determines by a vote of a majority of the members of its entire Board, in the event the approval of any Governmental Entity required for consummation of the Merger this Agreement contemplates shall have been denied by final nonappealable action of such Governmental Entity or an application therefor shall have been permanently withdrawn at the request of a Governmental Entity, provided, however, that no party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(d) if such denial shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants of such party set forth in this Agreement.

(e) No PFC Shareholder Approval. By FNB, or by PFC provided that PFC shall not be in material breach of any of its obligations under Section 6.3, if any approval of the shareholders of PFC this Agreement contemplates shall not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at the PFC Shareholders Meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

(f) Failure to Recommend. At any time prior to the PFC Shareholders Meeting, by FNB if (i) PFC shall have breached Section 6.3 in any respect materially adverse to FNB, (ii) the PFC Board of Directors shall have failed to make the PFC Recommendation or shall have effected a Change in PFC Recommendation, (iii) the PFC Board shall have recommended approval of an Acquisition Proposal or (iv) PFC shall have materially breached its obligations under Section 6.3 by failing to call, give notice of, convene and hold the PFC Shareholder Meeting.

(g) Superior Proposal. At any time prior to the date of mailing of the Proxy Statement, by PFC in order to enter concurrently into an Acquisition Proposal that has been received by PFC and the PFC Board of Directors in compliance with Sections 6.11(a) and (b) and that PFC's Board of Directors concludes in good faith, in consultation with its financial and legal advisors, that such Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Proposal; provided, however, that this Agreement may be terminated by PFC pursuant to this Section 8.1(g) only after the fifth business day following PFC's provision of written notice to FNB advising FNB that the PFC Board of Directors is prepared to accept a Superior Proposal, it being agreed that the delivery of such notice shall not entitle FNB to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(g) and only if (i) during such five-business day period, PFC has caused its financial and legal advisors to negotiate with FNB in good faith to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement such that such Acquisition Proposal would no longer constitute a Superior Proposal and (ii) PFC's Board of Directors has considered such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement resulting from such negotiations and has concluded in good faith, based upon consultation with its financial and legal advisers, that such Acquisition Proposal remains a Superior Proposal even after giving effect to the adjustments proposed by FNB and further provided that such termination shall not be effective until PFC has paid the Break-up Fee provided by Section 6.11(f) to FNB.

8.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement by either FNB or PFC as provided in Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect except (i) Sections 6.2(b), 6.11(f)-(i), 8.2, 8.3, 9.3 and 9.8 shall survive any termination of this Agreement and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement (other than the provisions of Section 6.11(i)), no party shall be relieved or released from any liability or damages arising out of its willful breach of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

8.3 Amendment. Subject to compliance with applicable law, this Agreement may be amended by the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with Merger by the shareholders of PFC; provided, however, that after any approval of the transactions this Agreement contemplates by the shareholders of PFC, there may not be, without further approval of the PFC shareholders, any amendment of this Agreement that requires such further approval under applicable law. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

8.4 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective Board of Directors, may, to the extent legally allowed, (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement and (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in this Agreement; provided, however, that after any approval of the transactions this Agreement contemplates by the shareholders of PFC, there may not be, without further approval of the PFC shareholders, any extension or waiver of this Agreement or any portion of this Agreement that changes the amount or form of the consideration to be delivered to the holders of PFC Common Stock under this Agreement, other than as this Agreement contemplates. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party, but such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

(b) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by:

(i) FNB pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(i); or shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the words include, includes or including are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words without limitation. The PFC Disclosure Schedule and the FNB Disclosure Schedule, as well as all other schedules and all exhibits to this Agreement, shall be deemed part of this Agreement and included in any reference to this Agreement. This Agreement shall not be interpreted or construed to require any person to take any action, or fail to take any action, if to do so would violate any applicable law. In this Agreement, knowledge or Knowledge means the knowledge as of the date referenced of executive officers of the applicable party following inquiry of persons within their organization and its Subsidiaries who would be reasonably expected to be knowledgeable about the relevant subject matter.

9.6 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other party, it being understood that each party need not sign the same counterpart.

9.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the documents and the instruments referred to in this Agreement, together with the Confidentiality Agreements, constitutes the entire agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, other than the Confidentiality Agreements.

9.8 Governing Law; Jurisdiction.

(a) This Agreement, the Merger and all claims arising hereunder or relating to this Agreement shall be governed and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of law thereof.

(b) Each of the parties to this Agreement irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the exclusive jurisdiction of any Pennsylvania state court or the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees that, subject to rights with respect to post-trial motions and rights of appeal or other avenues of review, a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Each of the parties to this Agreement irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement in any Pennsylvania state court or the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. Each of the parties to this Agreement irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent it may legally and effectively do so, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(c) EACH PARTY HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (I) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (II) EACH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (III) EACH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY AND (IV) EACH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.8.

9.9 Severability. Except to the extent that application of this Section 9.9 would have a Material Adverse Effect on PFC or FNB, any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable. In all such cases, the parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to substitute a valid, legal and enforceable provision that, insofar as practicable, implements the original purposes and intents of this Agreement.

9.10 Assignment; Third Party Beneficiaries. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement shall be assigned by either of the parties, whether by operation of law or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the other party. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by each of the parties and their respective successors and assigns. Except as otherwise specifically provided in Section 6.6, 6.7 and 6.14, this Agreement, including the documents and instruments referred to in this Agreement, is not intended to and does not confer upon any person other than the parties to this Agreement any rights or remedies under this Agreement.

FORM OF VOTING AGREEMENT

F.N.B. Corporation

One F.N.B. Boulevard

Hermitage, PA 16148

Ladies and Gentlemen:

F.N.B. Corporation (FNB) and Parkvale Financial Corporation (PFC) have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of June , 2011 (the Agreement) whereby PFC will merge with and into FNB (the Merger) and shareholders of PFC will receive the Merger Consideration as set forth in the Agreement, subject to the closing of the Merger. All defined terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Agreement.

A condition to FNB's obligations under the Agreement is that I execute and deliver this Letter Agreement to FNB.

Intending to be legally bound hereby, I irrevocably agree and represent as follows:

(a) I will vote or cause to be voted for approval and adoption of the Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby all shares of PFC common stock over which I have sole voting power, and will use my best efforts to cause any shares of PFC common stock over which I share voting power to be voted for approval and adoption of the Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Beneficial ownership shall have the meaning assigned to it pursuant to Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

(b) On or prior to the record date (the Record Date) for the meeting of the PFC shareholders to vote on approval and adoption of the Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, I (i) will not offer, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any shares of PFC common stock over which I have sole dispositive power, and (ii) shall use my best efforts to not permit the offer, sale, transfer or other disposition of any shares of PFC common stock over which I have shared dispositive power, except to the extent that I may be permitted under law to make charitable gifts or as permitted by paragraph (g) hereof.

(c) I have beneficial ownership over the number of shares of PFC common stock, and hold stock options for the number of shares of PFC common stock, if any, set forth in Appendix A hereto.

(d) I agree that PFC shall not be bound by any attempted sale of any shares of PFC common stock over which I have sole voting and dispositive power, and PFC's transfer agent shall be given appropriate stop transfer orders and shall not be required to register any such attempted sale, unless the sale has been effected in compliance with the terms of this Letter Agreement.

(e) I agree that, if I exercise any options to purchase PFC common stock prior to the Record Date, any of the shares of PFC common stock so acquired by me, except any shares sold as part of a cashless exercise, shall be subject to clauses (a), (b) and (d) above.

(f) I represent that I have the capacity to enter into this Letter Agreement and that it is a valid and binding obligation enforceable against me in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency and other laws affecting creditors' rights and general equitable principles.

(g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, I may transfer any or all of the shares of PFC common stock over which I have beneficial ownership to my spouse, ancestors or descendants; provided, however, that in any such case, prior to and as a condition to the effectiveness of such transfer, each person to which any of such shares or any interest in any of such shares is or may be transferred shall have executed and delivered to FNB an agreement to be bound by the terms of this Letter Agreement. In addition, I may sell, transfer or assign shares of PFC common stock to the extent and on behalf of trusts or estates of which I am not a beneficiary in order to comply with fiduciary obligations or legal requirements.

I am signing this Letter Agreement solely in my capacity as a shareholder of PFC and as an optionholder if I am an optionholder, and not in any other capacity, such as a director or officer of PFC or as a fiduciary of any trusts in which I am not a beneficiary. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary: (a) I make no agreement or understanding herein in any capacity other than in my capacity as a beneficial owner of PFC common stock and (b) nothing herein shall be construed to limit or affect any action or inaction by me or any of my representatives, as applicable, in serving on PFC's Board of Directors or as an officer of PFC, in acting in my capacity as a director, officer or fiduciary of PFC or as fiduciary of any trust of which I am not a beneficiary.

This Letter Agreement shall be effective upon acceptance by FNB.

This Letter Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force and effect concurrently with, and automatically upon, the earlier to occur of (a) the consummation of the Merger, (b) the written agreement of the parties to terminate this Letter Agreement, and (c) any termination of the Agreement in accordance with its terms, except that any such termination shall be without prejudice to FNB's rights arising out of my willful breach of any covenant or representation contained herein.

All notices and other communications in connection with this Letter Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed given if delivered personally, sent via facsimile, with confirmation, mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or delivered by an express courier, with confirmation, to the parties at their addresses set forth on the signature page hereto.

Annex C

The Board of Directors

Parkvale Financial Corporation

4220 William Penn Highway

Monroeville, PA 15146

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as investment bankers as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of Parkvale Financial Corporation (Parkvale) of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger (the Merger) of Parkvale with and into F.N.B. Corporation (FNB), with FNB being the surviving company in the Merger pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 15, 2011, between Parkvale and FNB (the Agreement). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Parkvale (the Common Shares) not owned by FNB or Parkvale or by any of their respective wholly-owned subsidiaries other than shares owned in a fiduciary capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted, will be cancelled and retired and converted into the right to receive 2.178 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of FNB, as more fully described in the Agreement.

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., has acted as financial advisor to Parkvale. As part of our investment banking business, we are continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, we have experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may, from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Parkvale and FNB, and as a market maker in securities, we may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Parkvale and FNB for our own account and for the accounts of our customers. To the extent we have any such position as of the date of this opinion it has been disclosed to Parkvale. We have acted exclusively for the Board of Directors of Parkvale in rendering this fairness opinion and will receive a fee from Parkvale for our services. A portion of our fee is contingent upon the successful completion of the Merger.

During the past two years we acted as a bookrunning managing underwriter in connection with two separate public offerings of common stock by FNB.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, analyzed and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of Parkvale and FNB and the Merger, including among other things, the following: (i) the Agreement; (ii) the Annual Reports to Stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended June 30, 2010 of Parkvale and the three years ended December 31, 2010 of FNB; (iii) certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Parkvale and FNB and certain other communications from Parkvale and FNB to their respective stockholders; and (iv) other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of Parkvale and FNB furnished to us by Parkvale and FNB for purposes of our analysis. We have also held discussions with senior management of Parkvale and FNB regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies and such other matters as we have deemed relevant to our inquiry. In addition, we have compared certain financial and stock market information for Parkvale and FNB with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry and performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate.

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to us or publicly available and we have not independently verified the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assumed any responsibility for such verification or accuracy. We have relied upon the management of Parkvale and FNB as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections (and the assumptions and bases therefore) provided to us, and we have assumed that such forecasts and projections reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of such managements and that such forecasts and projections will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such managements. We are financial advisors only and have relied upon, without independent verification, the assessments of Parkvale and its legal, tax and accounting advisors with respect to such matters. Further, we are not experts in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and we have assumed, with your consent that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for Parkvale and FNB are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering our opinion, we have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals of the property, assets or liabilities of Parkvale or FNB, nor have we examined any individual credit files.

We have assumed that, in all respects material to our analyses, the following: (i) the Merger will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement with no additional payments or adjustments to the Exchange Ratio; (ii) the representations and warranties of each party in the Agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the Agreement are true and correct; (iii) each party to the Agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents; (iv) all conditions to the completion of the Merger will be satisfied without any waivers or modifications; and (v) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the Merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the Merger, including the cost savings, revenue enhancements and related expenses expected to result from the Merger.

We have considered such financial and other factors as we have deemed appropriate under the circumstances, including, among others, the following: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of Parkvale and FNB; (ii) the assets and liabilities of Parkvale and FNB; and (iii) the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions involving banks and bank holding companies. We have also taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. Our opinion is necessarily based upon conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof and the information made available to us through the date hereof. Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Parkvale to engage in the Merger, or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to Parkvale.

This opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date hereof, to the holders of the Common Shares of the Exchange Ratio in the Merger. We express no view or opinion as to any terms or other aspects of the Merger.

Further, we are not expressing any opinion about the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of Parkvale's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the public shareholders of Parkvale.

In addition, this opinion does not in any manner address the prices at which the FNB Common Stock will trade following the consummation of the Merger and we express no opinion as to how the stockholders of Parkvale should vote at the stockholders' meeting to be held in connection with the Merger.

This opinion has been reviewed and approved by our Fairness Opinion Committee in conformity with our policies and procedures established under the requirements of Rule 2290 of the NASD Rules of the Financial Institutions Regulatory Authority. This opinion is for the information of the Board of Directors and may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent, except as set forth in our engagement letter with the Company.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio in the Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of the Common Shares.

Very truly yours,

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc.

PART II: INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Florida Business Corporations Act, as amended (the "FBCA"), provides that, in general, a business corporation may indemnify any person who is or was a party to any proceeding, other than an action by, or in the right of, the corporation, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation, against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, provided certain standards are met, including that such officer or director acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and provided further that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, the officer or director had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In the case of proceedings by or in the right of the corporation, the FBCA provides that, in general, a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party to any such proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation against expenses and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, provided that such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made with respect to any claim as to which such person is adjudged liable, unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity. To the extent that any officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any of such proceedings, the FBCA requires that the corporation indemnify such officer or director against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith. However, the FBCA further provides that, in general, indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any officer or director if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his or her actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute: (i) a violation of the criminal law, unless the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe it was unlawful; (ii) a transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit; (iii) in the case of a director, a circumstance under which the director has voted for or assented to a distribution made in violation of the FBCA or the corporation's articles of incorporation; or (iv) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of a shareholder.

The registrant's articles of incorporation provide that the registrant shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law in connection with any actual or threatened action, suit or proceeding, civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other, whether brought by or in the right of the registrant or otherwise, arising out of the service to the registrant or to another organization at the registrant's request, or because of their positions with the registrant. The registrant's articles of incorporation further provide that the registrant may purchase and maintain insurance to protect itself and any such director or officer against any liability, cost or expense asserted against or incurred by him or her with respect to such service, whether or not the registrant would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability by law or under the provisions of this paragraph.

The registrant's bylaws provide that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, no director of the registrant shall be personally liable for monetary damages for any action taken or any failure to take any action.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change in such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) (1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(d) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(e) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(f) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
