Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

Texas Instruments Incorporated (the Company) has transferred shares of its Common Stock (Shares) to a wholly owned subsidiary. The transactions were undertaken between December 19 and 22, 2011, as part of a restructuring by the Company of its subsidiaries following its acquisition of National Semiconductor Corporation in September 2011. The Shares were already issued and held in the Company's treasury. They will continue to be reflected as treasury shares on the Company's financial statements and excluded from earnings per share calculations.

A total of 57,887,451 Shares were transferred to the subsidiary in exchange for promissory notes of the subsidiary having an aggregate principal amount of $1.66 billion, representing an amount per share equal to the closing price of the Company's common stock on the exchange on which the Company's shares are listed for the trading day immediately preceding the date of transfer.

In connection with the subsidiary restructuring, the Company intends to transfer in the first quarter of 2012 approximately $225 million of Shares held in its treasury to the same subsidiary in exchange for equity of the subsidiary. The Shares will be valued, and the impact on the Company's financial statements will be, as described above.

In each case, the Shares are voting stock, but in accordance with Delaware law and the Company's By-Laws, they will not be voted on matters brought before our stockholders or counted for quorum purposes. To the extent required, Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, provides an exemption from registration for the transactions described above.
