Item 8.01. Other Events.

On May 3, 2012, Career Education Corporation (CEC or the Company) received notification from the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS) that ACICS acted at its April 20, 2012 meeting to immediately vacate the show-cause directive applicable to all 71 CEC campuses accredited by ACICS.

At the meeting ACICS reviewed information, including the results of third party placement re-verifications, it had requested of the Company regarding the annual placement rates for the period from July 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011. Based on ACICS interpretation of this information, 24 additional ACICS accredited campuses fell below the agency's 65% placement rate standard and are subject to increased levels of accreditation oversight, joining the 36 campuses already subject to this additional oversight. This oversight includes, depending on the campus, more detailed or frequent reporting requirements, a placement improvement plan, attendance by campus career service personnel at periodic workshops, additional requirements for new program and location approvals or on-site evaluations.

Three of these campuses, Sanford-Brown College Indianapolis, Sanford-Brown College Milwaukee and Sanford-Brown Institute Landover, as well as the online campus of the International Academy of Design & Technology, were placed on probation status due to placement rates at or below 40% for the period from July 1, 2010 through June 30, 2011. These four campuses in the aggregate contributed approximately 3.6% of the Company's 2011 consolidated revenue. Campuses on probation remain accredited. An institution is obligated to demonstrate to ACICS that the conditions which led to the imposition of probation have been corrected before probation will be lifted, in this case meaning an increase in placement rates to a level acceptable to ACICS.

The Company is taking steps to improve placement rates at all of its campuses and will continue to review, on a program-by-program basis, placement activities at all of its campuses. As previously disclosed, the Company is also capping new enrollments into certain programs and will teach out additional programs where appropriate.

On May 7, 2012, the Company issued a press release regarding the results of the ACICS meeting, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 99.1, and the information contained therein is incorporated herein by reference.
