PROPOSED MERGER YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Ardea Biosciences, Inc., a Delaware corporation (we , us , our or Ardea), Zeneca Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary AstraZeneca PLC (Zeneca), and QAM Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Zeneca (Merger Sub), entered into an agreement and plan of merger, dated as of April 21, 2012, pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into Ardea and Ardea will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Zeneca upon completion of the merger. The board of directors of each of Ardea and Zeneca has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, upon completion of the merger, Ardea s stockholders will have the right to receive $32.00 in cash for each share of Ardea common stock they own.

We are soliciting proxies for use at a special meeting of our stockholders to consider and vote upon (i) a proposal to adopt the merger agreement, (ii) a proposal to approve on an advisory, non-binding basis the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Ardea s named executive officers in connection with the merger, including the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, and (iii) an adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR each of the foregoing proposals. Approval of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement is necessary to complete the merger.

Your vote is very important. The adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Ardea common stock entitled to vote on the matter either in person or by proxy at the special meeting. The approval on an advisory, non-binding basis of the compensation that may be paid or become payable to our named executive officers in connection with the merger requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Ardea common stock present and entitled to vote on the matter either in person or by proxy at the special meeting. The approval of an adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Ardea common stock present and entitled to vote either in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the Ardea special meeting, please submit your proxy as soon as possible to make sure that your shares of Ardea common stock are represented at the special meeting.

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, the holders of approximately 29.6% of the total shares of Ardea common stock outstanding as of April 20, 2012 (the last trading day prior to the public announcement of the proposed merger) entered into voting agreements with Zeneca that provide, among other things, that they will vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement.

The accompanying proxy statement provides you with detailed information about the proposed merger, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to our named executive officers in connection with the merger and the special meeting. We encourage you to read the entire proxy statement and the merger agreement carefully. A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Annex A to the accompanying proxy statement. You may also obtain more information about Ardea from documents we have filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

For a more complete discussion of the Merger, see the section entitled The Merger beginning on page 17.

What Stockholders of Ardea Will Receive in the Merger

At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holders of shares of Ardea common stock, each outstanding share of Ardea common stock, other than any shares owned by Ardea, Zeneca or Merger Sub, or any wholly owned subsidiary of Ardea or Zeneca, or any stockholders who are entitled to and who properly exercise appraisal rights under the DGCL, will be converted into the right to receive $32.00 in cash (the Merger Consideration), without interest. At such time, all shares of Ardea common stock will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be canceled and retired and will cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate representing any such shares of Ardea common stock or of any shares of Ardea common stock that are in non-certificated book-entry form (Book-Entry Shares) will cease to have any rights as a stockholder with respect thereto, except for the right to receive the Merger Consideration to be paid in consideration therefor upon surrender of such certificate or Book-Entry Shares, as applicable (other than stockholders who properly exercise appraisal rights under the DGCL, who will have the rights specified in the DGCL).

Treatment of Stock Options, Warrants and Restricted Stock Awards

At the Effective Time, each outstanding (i) Ardea stock option will fully vest and be canceled and the holder thereof will be entitled to receive an amount in cash, without interest and less the amount of any required tax withholding, equal to the product of the excess, if any, of $32.00 over the exercise price of such option and the number of shares of Ardea common stock underlying such option; (ii) Ardea warrant that is canceled in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement as of the Effective Time will be exchanged for an amount in cash, without interest and less the amount of any required tax withholding, equal to the product of the excess of $32.00 over the exercise price of such warrant and the number of shares of Ardea common stock underlying such warrant; and (iii) Ardea restricted stock award will fully vest and be canceled and the holder thereof will be entitled to receive an amount in cash, without interest and less the amount of any required tax withholding, equal to the product of $32.00 and the number of shares of Ardea common stock subject to such Ardea restricted stock award.

As of May 18, 2012, the latest practicable date before the printing of this proxy statement, there were outstanding options to purchase 4,441,820 shares of our common stock, 11,980 shares of our common stock subject to Ardea restricted stock awards and outstanding warrants to purchase 562,791 shares of our common stock.

Termination of the Employee Stock Purchase Plan

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, prior to the Effective Time, we will cause the exercise of each outstanding purchase right under our 2000 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the ESPP), and make any pro rata adjustments necessary to reflect the shortened offering period but otherwise cause such shortened offering period to be treated as a fully effective and completed offering period for all purposes under the ESPP. On the fifth business day prior to the completion of the Merger, we will apply the funds credited as of such date under the ESPP within each participant's payroll withholding account to the purchase of whole shares of Ardea common stock in accordance with the terms of the ESPP. Table of Contents

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Ardea and its Reasons for the Merger

Our board of directors, after considering the factors described in the section entitled "The Merger - Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Ardea and its Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 31, and after consulting with its legal and financial advisors, has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger. Our board of directors has determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Ardea and our stockholders, and therefore unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement (the Merger Proposal), FOR the proposal to approve on an advisory, non-binding basis the compensation that may be paid or become payable to our named executive officers in connection with the Merger (the Merger-Related Compensation Proposal) and FOR the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the Merger Proposal. In certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, the board of directors of Ardea may change its recommendation with respect to the Merger Proposal. For a more complete discussion of the recommendations of our board of directors and its reasons for approving the Merger and the circumstances under which the board of directors of Ardea may change its recommendation with respect to the Merger Proposal, see the sections entitled "The Merger - Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Ardea and its Reasons for the Merger" and "The Merger Agreement - Board Recommendation" beginning on pages 31 and 67, respectively.

Opinion of Ardea's Financial Advisor

In connection with the Merger, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated ("BofA Merrill Lynch"), Ardea's financial advisor, delivered to our board of directors a written opinion, dated April 20, 2012, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the per share merger consideration of $32.00 to be received by holders of Ardea common stock. The full text of the written opinion of BofA Merrill Lynch, which describes, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety. BofA Merrill Lynch provided its opinion to our board of directors (in its capacity as such) for the benefit and use of our board of directors in connection with and for purposes of its evaluation of the per share merger consideration of $32.00 from a financial point of view. BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion does not address any other aspect of the Merger and no opinion or view was expressed as to the relative merits of the Merger in comparison to other strategies or transactions that might be available to us or in which Ardea might engage or as to the underlying business decision of Ardea to proceed with or effect the Merger. BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion does not address any other aspect of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Ardea as to how to vote or act in connection with the proposed Merger or any related matter. For a more complete discussion of BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion, see the section entitled "The Merger - Opinion of Ardea's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 35.

Interests of the Directors and Executive Officers of Ardea in the Merger

You should be aware that certain of our directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of the stockholders of Ardea generally.

Manhard, our Senior Vice President, Regulatory Affairs & Development Operations, in respect of the cancelation of their respective ESPP accounts in connection with the termination of the ESPP in the aggregate amount of $36,416 (assuming the Merger was completed on April 30, 2012 and the funds in such accounts were applied to the purchase of shares of Ardea common stock on April 23, 2012, the fifth business day prior to April 30, 2012 and, as such, the date on which such funds are to be applied in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement), (v) the Merger-related cash bonus payments payable to the executive officers of Ardea in the aggregate amount of $815,260, (vi) the severance payments and benefits that may be paid or become payable to our named executive officers upon termination of employment in connection with the completion of the Merger in the aggregate amount of approximately $3,095,135 and (vii) the right to continued indemnification and insurance coverage for our directors and executive officers following the completion of the Merger, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Our board of directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement and in recommending that our stockholders approve the Merger Proposal.

For a more complete discussion of the interests of our directors and executive officers in the Merger, see the section entitled "The Merger Interests of the Directors and Executive Officers of Ardea in the Merger" beginning on page 42.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The exchange of Ardea common stock for cash pursuant to the Merger Agreement will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Stockholders of Ardea who exchange their shares in the Merger generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the cash received in the Merger and their adjusted tax basis in their shares of Ardea common stock. You should consult your tax advisor for a complete analysis of the effect of the Merger on your federal, state, local and/or foreign taxes.

Regulatory Approvals

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act"), and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, the Merger may not be completed until the required information and materials have been furnished to the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice (the "Antitrust Division") and the U.S. Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC"), and until certain waiting period requirements have expired or terminated. Ardea and Zeneca each filed notification and report forms under the HSR Act with the FTC and the Antitrust Division on May 3, 2012.

For a more complete discussion of the regulatory approvals relating to the Merger, see the section entitled "The Merger Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger" beginning on page 49.

Appraisal Rights

Under the DGCL, stockholders of Ardea are entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the Merger. For additional information about appraisal rights, see the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL, attached to this proxy statement as Annex D, and the section entitled "The Merger Appraisal Rights" beginning on page 49.

Conditions to the Completion of the Merger

We expect to complete the Merger as soon as possible following the approval of the Merger Proposal at the special meeting. Completion of the Merger will only be possible, however, after all closing conditions contained in the Merger Agreement are satisfied or waived, including stockholder approval of the Merger Proposal at the special meeting. It is possible, therefore, that factors within and/or outside of our control could require us to complete the Merger at a later time or not complete it at all.

Table of Contents

The obligations of Ardea and Zeneca to complete the Merger are each subject to the satisfaction or waiver by the party entitled to the benefit thereof of the following conditions, among others:

the accuracy as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger (or as of an earlier specified date) of the other party's representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement (without giving effect to materiality or material adverse effect qualifications), provided that inaccuracies will be disregarded so long as the circumstances giving rise to all such inaccuracies, considered collectively, do not constitute, and would not reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on such other party, except that the representations and warranties of Ardea related to organization and good standing, authority relative to the Merger Agreement, capitalization, finders and brokers and takeover statutes shall be accurate other than in any de minimis respect;

prior performance by the other party, in all material respects, of all of its obligations under the Merger Agreement required to be completed by such other party at or prior to the completion of the Merger; and with respect to the obligation of Zeneca to complete the Merger, the absence of any Company Material Adverse Effect (as defined below) since the date of the Merger Agreement.

In addition, the obligations of Ardea and Zeneca to complete the Merger are each subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions (which, in order to complete the Merger, may not be waived):

approval by the stockholders of Ardea of the Merger Proposal; expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period under the HSR Act; and absence of any law or order that prohibits or makes illegal the completion of the Merger.

For a more complete discussion of the conditions to the completion of the Merger, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Conditions to the Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 69.

No Solicitation

In the Merger Agreement, we have agreed that we will not, and we will not authorize or permit our subsidiary or our or its respective directors, officers, employees, agents or other representatives to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage, knowingly induce or knowingly take any other action that would reasonably be expected to lead to the making, submission or announcement of any proposal or inquiry that constitutes, or is reasonably likely to lead to, an alternative acquisition proposal with respect to Ardea;

participate in discussions or negotiations regarding any proposal that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to the making, submission or announcement of, an alternative acquisition proposal with respect to Ardea;

furnish any non-public information with respect to Ardea in connection with an alternative acquisition proposal or any inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to the making, submission or announcement of, an alternative acquisition proposal with respect

approve or recommend any alternative acquisition proposal or any letter of intent or other contract contemplating an alternative acquisition proposal with respect to Ardea or requiring us to abandon or terminate our obligations under the Merger Agreement; or resolve or agree to do any of the foregoing.

The Merger Agreement does not, however, prohibit us from considering an unsolicited written alternative acquisition proposal from a third party made after the date of the Merger Agreement in circumstances not involving a material breach of the Merger Agreement prior to obtaining the requisite stockholder approval of the Merger Proposal if specified conditions are met. For a more complete discussion of the prohibition on solicitation of alternative acquisition proposals from third parties, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation" beginning on page 66.

Table of Contents

Termination of the Merger Agreement

Generally, and except as specified in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Termination of the Merger Agreement" beginning on page 70, the Merger Agreement may be terminated and the Merger may be abandoned at any time prior to the completion of the Merger, including after stockholder approval of the Merger Proposal is obtained:

by mutual written consent of Ardea and Zeneca; or by either party, if:

the Merger has not been completed on or prior to November 30, 2012;

a court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental body issues a final and non-appealable order prohibiting the Merger;

after a vote duly taken, the required approval of the Merger Proposal by the stockholders has not been obtained at the special meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement thereof); or subject to cure periods, the other party's representations and warranties are inaccurate or the other party fails to comply with its covenants, in each case, such that the closing conditions relating to the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties or the performance of the other party's covenants, as applicable, would not be satisfied; or by Zeneca, if:

at any time prior to the approval of the Merger Proposal, the board of directors of Ardea (i) has changed its recommendation with respect to the Merger Proposal in a manner adverse to Zeneca, (ii) fails to include its recommendation in this proxy statement, (iii) adopts, approves, endorses or recommends any alternative acquisition proposal or (iv) fails to recommend against a tender or exchange offer relating to our securities within 10 business days following the commencement of such offer; or

Ardea materially breaches its no solicitation obligations; or by Ardea, if:

subject to its compliance with certain requirements contained in the no solicitation covenants of the Merger Agreement, Ardea enters into a definitive agreement giving effect to an alternative acquisition transaction providing for a superior proposal and pays to Zeneca the termination fee described below.

For a more complete discussion of termination of the Merger Agreement, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Termination of the Merger Agreement" beginning on page 70.

Termination Fees and Expenses

If the Merger Agreement is terminated (i) by either Ardea or Zeneca because the stockholders of Ardea have voted not to approve the Merger Proposal or the Merger has not been completed on or prior to November 30, 2012, and, in either case, at such time a third party or Ardea has publicly disclosed that such third party has made, or is considering making, an alternative acquisition proposal (and such alternative acquisition proposal has not been publicly withdrawn prior to the applicable time provided in the Merger Agreement), and within 12 months after the date of termination of the Merger Agreement we enter into a definitive agreement giving effect to an alternative acquisition proposal or (ii) by us because, prior to the completion of the Merger, we enter into a definitive agreement giving effect to an alternative acquisition transaction providing for a superior proposal, we will be required to pay Zeneca a termination fee of $41 million. Additionally, the termination fee will be payable by us to Zeneca upon termination of the Merger Agreement by Zeneca under certain circumstances.

For a more complete discussion of termination fees and expenses, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Termination Fees and Expenses" beginning on page 71.

Voting Agreements

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Dr. Quart, Dr. Baker and Mr. Tang, each of whom is a member of our board of directors, and certain affiliates of Dr. Baker and Mr. Tang (collectively, the "Key Stockholders") entered into voting agreements in favor of Zeneca (collectively, the "Voting Agreements"). Pursuant to the Voting Agreements, the Key Stockholders have agreed to vote, or cause to be voted, all shares of Ardea common stock beneficially owned by them in favor of the Merger Proposal and any proposal to adjourn or postpone any meeting of the stockholders of Ardea to a later date if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the Merger Proposal on the date on which such meeting is held. In addition, the Key Stockholders have agreed to vote all such shares against (i) any proposal made in opposition to, or in competition with, the consummation of the Merger or any other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; or (ii) any acquisition transaction or any other action involving Ardea that is intended to or would reasonably be expected to impede, prevent, delay or adversely affect the Merger or any other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. As of May 18, 2012, the latest practicable date before the printing of this proxy statement, the shares of Ardea common stock beneficially owned by the Key Stockholders and thus subject to the Voting Agreements constituted approximately 29.6% of the total outstanding shares of Ardea common stock on that date.

For a more complete discussion of the Voting Agreements, see the section entitled "The Voting Agreements" beginning on page 72.

Matters to Be Considered at the Special Meeting

Date, Time and Place. The special meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 19, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. Pacific Time at our offices located at 4939 Directors Place, San Diego, California 92121.

Matters to be Considered at the Special Meeting. At the special meeting, and any adjournments or postponements thereof, you will be asked to:

approve the Merger Proposal;

approve the Merger-Related Compensation Proposal; and approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the Merger Proposal.

Record Date. Our board of directors has fixed the close of business on May 18, 2012 as the record date for determining the stockholders of Ardea entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Required Vote. Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Ardea common stock outstanding and entitled to vote on the matter. Approval of the Merger-Related Compensation Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares of Ardea common stock present and entitled to vote on the matter either in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Ardea common stock present and entitled to vote on the matter either in person or by proxy at the special meeting. As of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting, there were 37,007,188 shares of Ardea common stock outstanding.

Legal Proceedings Related to the Merger

A putative class action lawsuit has been filed by a purported stockholder of Ardea against AstraZeneca, Ardea, the members of the board of directors of Ardea and certain executive officers of Ardea challenging the proposed Merger and seeking, among other things, to enjoin the defendants from completing the Merger pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement. If the plaintiffs are successful in obtaining an injunction prohibiting us from completing the Merger pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, such an injunction may prevent the completion of the Merger in the expected timeframe (or altogether).

The putative class action lawsuit was filed in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Diego, purportedly on behalf of the stockholders of Ardea, against AstraZeneca, Ardea and the directors and President and Chief Executive Officer of Ardea alleging, among other things, that Ardea's directors breached their fiduciary duties to the stockholders of Ardea in connection with the proposed Merger and that AstraZeneca aided and abetted this alleged breach of fiduciary duties. The complaint seeks, among other things, to enjoin the defendants from completing the Merger pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement and recovery of attorney's fees and costs. See the section entitled "The Merger - Legal Proceedings Related to the Merger" beginning on page 52.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND

THE SPECIAL MEETING

The following are some questions that you, as a stockholder of Ardea, may have regarding the Merger and the special meeting, together with brief answers to those questions. We urge you to read carefully the remainder of this proxy statement, including the annexes and other documents referred to or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement, because the information in this section may not provide all of the information that might be important to you with respect to the Merger or the special meeting.

Q: What is the Merger?

A: Ardea, Zeneca and Merger Sub entered into the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into Ardea and Ardea will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Zeneca upon completion of the Merger. As a result of the Merger, Ardea will no longer be a publicly held corporation, Ardea's common stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ Global Select Market and deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and Ardea will no longer file periodic reports with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on account of Ardea common stock.

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: We are sending you these materials to help you decide how to vote your shares of Ardea common stock with respect to the proposed Merger, the advisory vote on the compensation that may be paid or become payable to our named executive officers in connection with the Merger and the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the proposed Merger.

This document contains important information about the Merger and the special meeting, and you should read it carefully.

Q: What will stockholders receive in the Merger?

A: Upon completion of the Merger, you will have the right to receive $32.00 in cash for each share of Ardea common stock you hold, without interest (see the section entitled The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 56). You will not receive the Merger Consideration if you have properly exercised and not withdrawn appraisal rights under the DGCL with respect to such shares. The stockholders of Ardea do not have the option of receiving Zeneca or AstraZeneca stock in the Merger in lieu of the Merger Consideration.

Q: What will holders of Ardea stock options, warrants and restricted stock awards receive in the Merger?

A: At the Effective Time, each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase shares of Ardea common stock will fully vest and be canceled and the holder thereof will be entitled to receive an amount in cash, without interest and less the amount of any required tax withholding, equal to the product of the excess, if any, of $32.00 over the exercise price of such option and the number of shares of Ardea common stock underlying such option. Each outstanding warrant to purchase shares of Ardea common stock that is canceled in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement as of the Effective Time will be exchanged for an amount in cash, without interest and less the amount of any required tax withholding, equal to the product of the excess of $32.00 over the exercise price of such warrant and the number of shares of Ardea common stock underlying such warrant. In addition, each outstanding Ardea restricted stock award will fully vest immediately prior to and will be canceled at the Effective Time and the holder thereof will be entitled to receive an amount in cash, without interest and less the amount of any required tax withholding, equal to the product of $32.00 and the number of shares of Ardea common stock subject to such restricted stock award.

Edgar Filing: Ardea Biosciences, Inc./DE - Form DEFM14A

For a more complete discussion of what holders of Ardea stock options, warrants and restricted stock awards will receive in connection with the Merger, see the section entitled "The Merger - Treatment of Stock Options, Warrants and Restricted Stock Awards" beginning on page 17.

Q: What if I am a participant in Ardea's employee stock purchase plan?

A: Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, prior to the Effective Time, we will cause the exercise of each outstanding purchase right under the ESPP, and make any pro rata adjustments necessary to reflect the shortened offering period but otherwise cause such shortened offering period to be treated as a fully effective and completed offering period for all purposes under the ESPP. On the fifth business day prior to the completion of the Merger, we will apply the funds credited as of such date under the ESPP within each participant's payroll withholding account to the purchase of whole shares of Ardea common stock in accordance with the terms of the ESPP. Immediately prior to and effective as of the Effective Time, the ESPP will be terminated and each share of Ardea common stock purchased under the ESPP will be automatically converted into the right to receive a cash payment equal to $32.00 per share, without interest.

Q: Do the directors and executive officers of Ardea have interests in the Merger that the stockholders of Ardea do not have?

A: Some of the directors and executive officers of Ardea have interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, your interests as a stockholder, including accelerated vesting of stock options and restricted stock awards, consideration payable in respect of canceled warrants, consideration payable in respect of the cancellation of ESPP accounts in connection with the termination of the ESPP, Merger-related cash bonus payments and potential severance payments and related benefits, in each case upon completion of the Merger. The board of directors of Ardea was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, prior to making their determination to recommend the adoption of the Merger Agreement to the stockholders of Ardea. See the section entitled "The Merger Interests of the Directors and Executive Officers of Ardea in the Merger" beginning on page 42.

Q: What stockholder approval is required to complete the Merger?

A: As a condition to the completion of the Merger, our stockholders must approve the Merger Proposal, which approval requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Ardea common stock outstanding and entitled to vote on the matter. In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, the holders of approximately 29.6% of the total shares of Ardea common stock outstanding as of April 20, 2012 (the last trading day prior to the public announcement of the proposed Merger) entered into Voting Agreements with Zeneca that provide, among other things, that they will vote in favor of the Merger Proposal and that grant to Zeneca an irrevocable proxy to vote all of their shares of Ardea common stock in favor of the Merger Proposal.

Q: What stockholder approval is required to approve on an advisory, non-binding basis the compensation that may be paid or become payable to our named executive officers in connection with the Merger?

A: The holders of a majority of the shares of Ardea common stock present and entitled to vote either in person or by proxy at the special meeting must vote in favor of the Merger-Related Compensation Proposal. Approval of the Merger-Related Compensation Proposal is not a condition to the completion of the Merger.

Q: What stockholder approval is required to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the Merger Proposal?

A: The holders of a majority of the shares of Ardea common stock present and entitled to vote either in person or by proxy at the special meeting must vote in favor of any adjournment of the special meeting. Pursuant to the Voting Agreements, the holders of approximately 29.6% of the total shares of Ardea common stock outstanding as of April 20, 2012 (the last trading day prior to the public announcement of the proposed Merger) have agreed to vote all of their shares of Ardea common stock in favor of any such proposal.

Q: What other conditions must be satisfied or waived to complete the Merger?

A: In addition to obtaining stockholder approval of the Merger Proposal, each of the other closing conditions contained in the Merger Agreement must be satisfied or waived. Among the closing conditions is the requirement that no event has occurred that would constitute a material adverse effect on our assets, liabilities, business or results of operations.

For a more complete discussion of the conditions to the completion of the Merger under the Merger Agreement, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement – Conditions to the Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 69.

Q: What regulatory approvals and filings are needed to complete the Merger?

A: The Merger is subject to the expiration or termination of any waiting period under the HSR Act. For a more complete discussion of the regulatory approvals required in connection with the Merger, see the section entitled "The Merger – Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger" beginning on page 49.

Q: When does Ardea expect to complete the Merger?

A: We expect to complete the Merger as soon as possible following the approval of the Merger Proposal at the special meeting, assuming the satisfaction or waiver of all other closing conditions contained in the Merger Agreement. It is possible, therefore, that factors within and/or outside of our control could require us to complete the Merger at a later time or not complete it at all.

Q: How does our board of directors recommend that the stockholders vote with respect to the Merger Proposal, the Merger-Related Compensation Proposal and the adjournment of the special meeting?

A: Our board of directors unanimously recommends that the stockholders vote FOR the Merger Proposal, FOR the Merger-Related Compensation Proposal and FOR the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the Merger Proposal.

Q: What are the material federal income tax consequences of the Merger to me?

A: The exchange of Ardea common stock for cash pursuant to the Merger is a taxable transaction to U.S. holders for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If you are a U.S. holder, you will generally recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received with respect to your shares of Ardea common stock (determined before deduction of any applicable withholding taxes) and your adjusted tax basis in such shares. A non-U.S. holder is generally not subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to the exchange of Ardea common stock for cash in the Merger unless such non-U.S. holder has certain connections to the U.S. Backup withholding may also apply to the cash payments made pursuant to the Merger unless the U.S. holder or other payee provides a taxpayer identification number, certifies that such number is correct, or otherwise complies with the Internal Revenue Service backup withholding rules.

You should read the section entitled "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" beginning on page 53 for a definition of U.S. holder and non-U.S. holder and a more detailed discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. You should also consult your tax advisor for a complete analysis of the effect of the Merger on your federal, state, local and/or foreign taxes.

Q: Do I have appraisal rights in connection with the Merger?

A: Yes. Under the DGCL, stockholders of Ardea who do not submit a proxy or vote for the adoption of the Merger Agreement and who comply with the procedural requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL may demand payment in cash of the fair value of their shares of Ardea common stock in lieu of the Merger Consideration, if any. These rights are commonly known as dissenters' rights. If the dissenting stockholder and Ardea and/or Zeneca do not agree on a fair value for the shares, a court of proper jurisdiction will determine the fair value of such shares, which could be more than, less than or equal to the value of the Merger Consideration. Dissenting stockholders lose their appraisal rights if they fail to follow all of the procedures required by Section 262 of the DGCL. For a more complete discussion of appraisal rights, see the section entitled "The Merger - Appraisal Rights" beginning on page 49 and Annex D to this proxy statement.

Q: When and where will the special meeting take place?

A: The special meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 19, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. Pacific Time at our offices located at 4939 Directors Place, San Diego, California 92121.

Q: Who can attend and vote at the special meeting?

A: All stockholders of record as of the close of business on May 18, 2012, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting.

Q: What do I need to do now and how do I vote?

A: We urge you to read this proxy statement carefully, including its annexes, and to consider how the Merger may affect you. You may provide your proxy instructions in any one of three ways. First, you may mail your signed proxy card in the enclosed return envelope. Alternatively, you may provide your proxy instructions by calling the toll-free call center set up for this purpose at the telephone number indicated on the enclosed proxy card and following the instructions provided. Please have your proxy card available when you call. Finally, you may provide your proxy instructions over the Internet by accessing the website indicated on the enclosed proxy card and following the instructions provided. Please have your proxy card available when you access the web page. Internet proxy voting allows you to vote your shares online, with procedures designed to ensure the authenticity and correctness of your proxy vote instructions. However, please be aware that you must bear any costs associated with your Internet access, such as usage charges from Internet access providers and telephone companies. Please provide your proxy instructions only once and as soon as possible so that your shares can be counted at the special meeting.

Q: What happens if I do not return a proxy card or otherwise provide proxy instructions or if I elect to abstain from voting?

A: If you do not submit a proxy card or vote by telephone or over the Internet, your shares will not be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum, which is required to transact business at the special meeting, and your failure to take action will have no effect on the outcome of Proposal No. 2 (Merger-Related Compensation Proposal) and Proposal No. 3 (adjournment to solicit additional proxies, if necessary). However, such failure to take action will have the same effect as voting "AGAINST" Proposal No. 1 (Merger Proposal).

If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you wish to vote, your proxy will be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum for the special meeting and all of your shares will be voted "FOR" Proposal Nos. 1, 2 and 3. However, if you submit a proxy card or provide proxy instructions by telephone or over the Internet and affirmatively elect to abstain from voting, your proxy will be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum for the special meeting, but will not be voted at the special meeting. As a result, your abstention will have the same effect as voting "AGAINST" Proposal Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

Q: May I vote in person?

Edgar Filing: Ardea Biosciences, Inc./DE - Form DEFM14A

A: If your shares of Ardea common stock are registered directly in your name with Ardea's transfer agent, you are considered, with respect to those shares, to be the stockholder of record, and the proxy materials and proxy card are being sent directly to you by Ardea. If you are a stockholder of record, you may attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person, rather than signing and returning your proxy card.

If your shares of Ardea common stock are held in a brokerage account or by another nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name, and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you together with a voting instruction card. As the beneficial owner, you are also invited to attend the special meeting. However, since a beneficial owner is not the stockholder of record, you may not vote these shares in person at the special meeting unless you obtain a legal proxy from the broker or other nominee that holds your shares giving you the right to vote the shares in person at the special meeting.

Q: If my shares of Ardea common stock are held in street name by my bank, broker or other nominee, will my bank, broker or other nominee vote my shares for me?

A: Your bank, broker or other nominee may NOT and will NOT vote your shares of Ardea common stock without instructions from you. You should instruct your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares by following the procedure provided by your bank, broker or other nominee. Without instructions, your shares will not be voted, which will have the same effect as voting AGAINST Proposal No. 1 (Merger Proposal).

Q: May I revoke or change my vote after I have provided proxy instructions?

A: Yes. You may revoke or change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You can do this in one of three ways. First, you can send us a written notice stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you can submit new proxy instructions on a new proxy card or by telephone or over the Internet. Third, you can attend the special meeting and vote in person. Your attendance alone at the special meeting will not revoke your proxy. If you have instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your bank, broker or other nominee in order to change those instructions.

Q: What constitutes a quorum?

A: Stockholders who hold a majority of the shares of Ardea common stock outstanding as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting must be present either in person or by proxy in order to constitute a quorum to conduct business at the special meeting.

Q: Who is paying for this proxy solicitation?

A: We will bear the cost and expense of preparing, assembling, printing and mailing this proxy statement, any amendments thereto, the proxy card and any additional information furnished to our stockholders. We will bear any fees paid to the SEC. We may also reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their costs of soliciting and obtaining proxies from beneficial owners, including the costs of reimbursing brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their costs of forwarding this proxy statement and other solicitation materials to beneficial owners. In addition, proxies may be solicited without extra compensation by directors, officers and employees of Ardea by mail, telephone, fax or other methods of communication. We have retained Phoenix Advisory Partners to assist us in the solicitation of proxies from our stockholders in connection with the special meeting at a cost of approximately $8,000, plus reimbursement of out of pocket expenses. We have agreed to indemnify Phoenix Advisory Partners against certain liabilities arising out of or in connection with its engagement.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares after the record date but before the special meeting?

A: If you transfer your shares of Ardea common stock after the record date but before the date of the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting (provided that such shares remain outstanding on the date of the special meeting). However, you will not have the right to receive the Merger Consideration in exchange for your shares of Ardea common stock if and when the Merger is completed. In order to receive the Merger Consideration in exchange for your shares of Ardea common stock, you must hold your shares through the completion of the Merger.

Q: What do I do if I receive more than one proxy statement or set of voting instructions?

A: If you hold shares of Ardea common stock directly as a record holder and also in street name or otherwise through a nominee, you may receive more than one proxy statement and/or set of voting instructions relating to the special meeting. These should each be voted and/or returned separately in order to ensure that all of your shares of Ardea common stock are voted.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Please do not send any stock certificates with your proxy card. If the Merger is completed, a separate letter of transmittal with instructions for the surrender of your Ardea stock certificates will be mailed to you within five business days following the Effective Time. Stockholders can expect to receive payment following receipt by Computershare Trust Company, N.A., the payment agent, of a completed and duly executed letter of transmittal and Ardea stock certificate representing the shares of Ardea common stock owned by such stockholder.

Q: When will I receive payment for my shares of Ardea common stock or my warrants, stock options or restricted stock awards?

A: When you properly complete and return the required documentation described in the written instructions you receive from Computershare Trust Company, N.A., the payment agent, you will promptly receive from the payment agent a payment of the Merger Consideration for your shares of Ardea common stock (including shares of Ardea common stock purchased under the ESPP) or, for each warrant that has been canceled in accordance with the Merger Agreement, payment of an amount equal to the product of the excess of $32.00 over the per share exercise price of your canceled warrant and the number of shares of Ardea common stock subject to such warrant, as applicable. If you hold one or more Ardea stock options or restricted stock awards, you will receive payment for your options or restricted stock awards, as applicable, from Ardea's payroll processor as promptly as practicable following the completion of the Merger.

Q: What happens if the Merger is not completed?

A: If the Merger Agreement is not adopted by our stockholders or if the Merger is not completed for any other reason, stockholders of Ardea will not receive any payment for their shares in connection with the Merger. Instead, Ardea will remain an independent public company and Ardea common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market. Under specified circumstances, we may be required to pay Zeneca a fee with respect to the termination of the Merger Agreement, as discussed in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Termination Fees and Expenses" beginning on page 71.

If our stockholders approve the Merger Proposal, then we expect the Merger to be completed as soon as practicable following the special meeting.

What Stockholders Will Receive in the Merger

At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holders of any shares of Ardea common stock, each outstanding share of Ardea common stock, other than any shares owned by Ardea, Zeneca or Merger Sub, or any of Ardea's or Zeneca's respective wholly owned subsidiaries, or any stockholders of Ardea who are entitled to and who properly exercise appraisal rights under the DGCL, will be converted into the right to receive $32.00 in cash, without interest. At such time, all shares of Ardea common stock will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be canceled and retired and will cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate representing any such shares or of Book-Entry Shares will cease to have any rights as a stockholder with respect thereto, except for the right to receive the Merger Consideration to be paid in consideration therefor upon surrender of such certificate or Book-Entry Shares, as applicable (other than stockholders who properly exercise appraisal rights under the DGCL, who will have the rights specified in the DGCL).

For a more complete discussion of what you will receive in connection with the Merger, see the section entitled The Merger Agreement - Merger Consideration beginning on page 56.

Warrants

At the Effective Time, each outstanding Ardea warrant that is canceled in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement as of the Effective Time will be exchanged for an amount in cash, without interest and less the amount of any required tax withholding, equal to the product of the excess of $32.00 over the exercise price of such warrant and the number of shares of Ardea common stock underlying such warrant. As of May 18, 2012, the latest practicable date before the printing of this proxy statement, there were 11,980 shares of Ardea common stock subject to outstanding restricted stock awards.

Background of the Merger

Ardea is a biotechnology company focused on the development of small-molecule therapeutics for the treatment of serious diseases. Our lead clinical-stage product candidate is lesinurad, formerly known as

RDEA594, a selective, oral URAT1 transporter inhibitor for the chronic management of hyperuricemia in patients with gout. In addition, BAY 86-9766, formerly known as RDEA119, a specific inhibitor of MEK for the treatment of cancer, is being developed by Bayer under a global license agreement pursuant to which we out-licensed to Bayer global development and commercial rights to RDEA119 and all other compounds in our MEK program.

From time to time, our board of directors has evaluated various business opportunities in an effort to enhance stockholder value. As is customary for development-stage biopharmaceutical companies, we have considered a number of options for commercializing our lead product, lesinurad, and for advancing our other drug development efforts. Among the options our board of directors has considered are (i) developing our own marketing and sales capabilities and pursuing the commercialization of lesinurad and advancing our other drug candidates on our own, (ii) jointly developing and commercializing lesinurad and our other drug product candidates with a global pharmaceutical or other biotechnology company that has greater resources and commercial experience than us and (iii) selling Ardea.

During the third quarter of 2009, we commenced a Phase 2b monotherapy clinical study of lesinurad. Also during the third quarter of 2009, we commenced a Phase 2b combination clinical study to evaluate the addition of lesinurad to allopurinol, a currently-marketed drug, for the treatment of gout patients who had not responded favorably to allopurinol alone.

In March 2010, we received positive, preliminary, top-line results from lesinurad's Phase 2b monotherapy study.

In light of the positive results of our Phase 2b monotherapy study, our board of directors authorized our senior management to initiate an information gathering process to determine whether there would be any significant interest on the part of potential qualified strategic partners to pursue a possible partnering relationship with, or an acquisition of, us on terms acceptable to our board of directors. To assist in this process, during early April 2010, our board of directors interviewed various investment banks with specific knowledge of the healthcare industry and relationships with significant pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies.

In early April 2010, we formally retained BofA Merrill Lynch to act as our financial advisor to assist in the process of exploring strategic alternatives. Also in early April 2010, we closed a public offering of our common stock at a public offering price of $20.00 per share, for net proceeds of approximately $77.1 million.

In mid-April 2010, representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch met with members of our senior management team to discuss a list of potential strategic partners who might be contacted to solicit preliminary interest in a partnering transaction with or an acquisition of us. Based on these discussions, we determined that BofA Merrill Lynch and our senior management team should contact a broad range of the largest global pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies, as well as companies with rheumatology franchises and mid-cap pharmaceutical companies. In addition, around this time, we populated an electronic data room with documents that we determined, after consultation with BofA Merrill Lynch, would be relevant to potential strategic partners, including information related to our clinical study programs and our relationship with Bayer, material contracts, corporate records, financial information, corporate policies and procedures, information related to our intellectual property and other confidential operational information.

Commencing in mid-April 2010, members of our senior management team, including Dr. Quart and Mr. Davis, and representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch contacted approximately 50 pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies to determine their interest in pursuing a potential strategic transaction with us. Of these approximately 50 companies, 26 initially expressed interest in a possible strategic transaction with us. We executed confidentiality agreements with 16 potential strategic partners, including AstraZeneca, and had preliminary discussions and shared certain confidential technical and financial information with each of them. In addition, commencing in early June 2010, we offered access to our electronic data room to each of the companies who had executed confidentiality agreements. Of the 16 companies that had been offered access to our electronic data room, 12 companies, including AstraZeneca, conducted varying levels of due diligence in the data room.

On June 3, 2010, during the course of our Phase 2b studies of lesinurad, we received a preliminary non-binding written indication of interest from a global pharmaceutical company (Company A). Company A expressed interest in an acquisition of 100% of our outstanding common stock at a purchase price of approximately $30.00 per share. Company A also indicated a preference for a two-step acquisition of Ardea, which would include an upfront acquisition of approximately 40% of our outstanding common stock at approximately $30.00 per share, with an option for Company A to later acquire our remaining outstanding common stock at an unspecified premium reflecting a potentially higher valuation. Following consultation with our board of directors, we advised Company A that we were interested in pursuing discussions regarding a potential strategic transaction. While Company A reiterated its interest in a potential strategic transaction, it also stated that it would need to review the results of our ongoing Phase 2b studies before it would be in a position to move forward with any potential strategic transaction. We informed Company A that we would continue to provide it with updated due diligence as our Phase 2b studies of lesinurad progressed.

On June 21, 2010, we received a preliminary non-binding written indication of interest from a second global pharmaceutical company (Company B). The indication of interest did not propose a specific purchase price, but noted that Company B was well positioned to make a competitive offer to acquire us. Company B did, however, indicate that it would need to review the results of our Phase 2b studies of lesinurad in connection with its consideration of a potential strategic transaction. We indicated that we would continue discussions with Company B regarding a potential strategic transaction and would keep it updated regarding the progress of our Phase 2b studies of lesinurad.

During the remainder of 2010 and into the early part of 2011, we continued discussions regarding a potential strategic transaction with Company A and Company B, and had varying levels of discussions with each of the other companies that had entered into a confidentiality agreement with us.

In early January 2011, we announced positive, preliminary, top-line results for our Phase 2b combination study to evaluate the addition of lesinurad to allopurinol for the treatment of gout patients who had not responded favorably to allopurinol alone.

On February 16, 2011, a third global pharmaceutical company (Company C) submitted a preliminary non-binding written indication of interest to acquire all rights to the development and sale of lesinurad for a total amount of $850 million, including an upfront payment of $150 million and $700 million payable upon the achievement of certain unspecified regulatory and commercial milestones. The indication of interest was conditioned upon, among other things, Company C completing its due diligence review and, specifically, its review of our lesinurad program. In light of the positive results of our Phase 2b combination study and the fact that the offer from Company C only included $150 million upfront, with the remainder contingent on meeting certain unspecified regulatory and commercial milestones, our board of directors viewed Company C's offer as inadequate, but indicated that we should continue discussions with Company C regarding a potential strategic transaction. We communicated our board of directors' view to Company C and encouraged Company C to revise its offer. Company C responded that it would not be in a position to revise its offer until we had received the results of our end of Phase 2 meeting with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (the FDA). We indicated that we would continue discussions with Company C regarding a potential strategic transaction while we awaited the results of our end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA.

Also in February 2011, we closed a public offering of our common stock at a public offering price of $26.00 per share, for net proceeds of approximately $78 million.

On March 11, 2011, a fourth global pharmaceutical company (Company D) submitted a preliminary non-binding written indication of interest to acquire all of our outstanding equity interests at a valuation range of $35.00 to $40.00 per share of our common stock, subject to, among other things, completion of due diligence. While members of our senior management team noted that Company D had performed relatively little diligence to date, we continued discussions with Company D regarding a potential strategic transaction. Company D also indicated that it would need to conduct commercial assessments regarding the market opportunity for the treatment of gout prior to moving forward with a strategic transaction with us.

On March 18, 2011, we received a preliminary non-binding written indication of interest from a fifth global pharmaceutical company (Company E). The indication of interest contemplated the upfront purchase of approximately 14.9% of our outstanding common stock from existing stockholders at a purchase price of $35.00 per share, followed by the acquisition, at Company E s option, of the balance of our outstanding common stock at a purchase price of $40.00 per share following FDA approval of lesinurad, in parallel with the spin-off of all of our assets and operations unrelated to lesinurad. In addition to the upfront purchase of approximately 14.9% of our outstanding common stock, Company E would purchase $150 million of convertible debt or convertible preferred stock at a 10% conversion premium to our current trading price, the proceeds of which would be earmarked to fund our drug development efforts, including our Phase 3 studies of lesinurad. Company E also proposed an option to purchase an additional 14.9% of our outstanding common stock for approximately $35.00 per share upon the conclusion of our Phase 3 studies of lesinurad, with another $100 million being paid to us if such option was exercised. Finally, Company E s indication of interest contemplated the payment of certain royalties to our stockholders (via a contingent value right (CVR) mechanism whereby our stockholders would receive additional payments upon the achievement of specified milestones) based on net sales of lesinurad through 2025. Company E s proposal was conditioned upon the satisfactory completion of due diligence. We indicated to Company E that we were interested in pursuing the transaction it had proposed and should continue discussions toward that end. Company E indicated to us that it needed to do additional work regarding the commercial opportunities for the treatment of gout.

During the period from June 2010 through April 2011, pursuant to the direction of our board of directors, we granted access to our electronic data room to each potential strategic partner who had executed a confidentiality agreement and these companies conducted additional due diligence through telephonic conferences and on-site visits. We participated in diligence and/or management meetings with each of the potential strategic partners that submitted preliminary non-binding indications of interest, including meetings with Company A on July 27, 2010 and March 4, 2011; Company B on January 13, 2011; Company C on March 29 and 30, 2011; Company D on February 4, 2011; and Company E on April 13 and 14, 2011. In addition, throughout this time, our senior management team was in regular contact with our board of directors and provided periodic updates to, and solicited and received guidance from, our board of directors regarding all ongoing discussions with potential strategic partners.

Notwithstanding our ongoing discussions with these parties, by May 2011, each of the potential strategic partners that had submitted a preliminary indication of interest had informed us that it had decided not to move forward with a potential strategic transaction with us at that time due to various factors noted by such parties, including the emerging nature of the commercial market for the treatment of gout, the fact that lesinurad had not yet been the subject of an end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA and was not yet in Phase 3 studies and, with respect to some companies, the unique challenges those companies faced in realizing the market opportunities (in both U.S. and ex-U.S. markets) presented by lesinurad. In addition, several parties expressed concerns about our market capitalization given the stage of development of our lesinurad program.

During a meeting of our board of directors held on May 19, 2011, in light of the feedback received from potential strategic partners, we decided to de-emphasize the further exploration of strategic alternatives until the completion of our end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA or the completion of additional market research then being contemplated by us.

On July 22, 2011, we met with the FDA for the clinical portion of our end of Phase 2 meeting. We received the FDA s minutes from the meeting in August 2011 and on September 7, 2011, we issued a press release announcing positive results of our end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA.

On August 3, 2011, Mr. Davis advised a sixth global pharmaceutical company (Company F) that had previously executed a confidentiality agreement with us and had been granted access to our electronic data room of the results of our end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA. Company F expressed a desire to learn more about the FDA feedback and re-entered our electronic data room in order to continue its due diligence review.

On August 5, 2011, a seventh global pharmaceutical company with whom we had initially had discussions in early 2011 (Company G) re-engaged in discussions with us regarding a potential strategic transaction. Company G re-entered the data room to continue its due diligence review.

On August 18, 2011, our board of directors held a regularly scheduled telephonic meeting during which Mr. Davis reviewed for our board of directors the results of earlier discussions with third parties relating to a potential strategic transaction, including specific feedback from these parties. He also described the status of current discussions with interested parties and his view of the prospects for additional companies re-engaging in discussions. Our senior management team then reviewed with our board of directors a proposed project to conduct a further assessment of the commercial market for the treatment of gout, including commercial opportunities for lesinurad. At the recommendation of our senior management, our board of directors authorized us to engage the Monitor Group, a global management consulting firm with particular expertise in the pharmaceutical industry, to work with our senior management and clinical teams on the project. Soon after the board of directors meeting, we engaged the Monitor Group and commenced the project to conduct a further assessment of the commercial market for the treatment of gout.

On August 29, 2011, an eighth global pharmaceutical company (Company H) that had previously executed a confidentiality agreement with us and had entered our electronic data room informed Mr. Davis that it was interested in re-engaging in discussions regarding a potential strategic transaction. After such expression of interest, Company H re-entered our electronic data room to continue its due diligence review.

On August 31, 2011, Mr. Davis had a teleconference with Company C to review the results of our end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA. Following the call, Company C indicated it would like to re-enter our electronic data room to review the results of the meeting and related regulatory correspondence and we granted such access shortly thereafter. Also during the call with Mr. Davis, Company C orally indicated it was interested in considering a strategic transaction that would include an initial acquisition of a minority interest in us, followed by an option to acquire our remaining outstanding common stock at a pre-determined price. We did not discuss specific economic details with Company C.

On September 2, 2011, AstraZeneca called Mr. Davis and stated it was interested in re-engaging in discussions regarding a potential strategic transaction. AstraZeneca re-entered our electronic data room shortly thereafter and proceeded to request additional due diligence materials. During the remainder of September 2011 and into late December 2011, significant due diligence discussions and the exchange of information continued both electronically and by telephone between members of our senior management and clinical teams and representatives of AstraZeneca.

On September 12, 2011, we met with representatives of Company H at its offices to review our clinical results, including the results of our end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA, our plans for Phase 3 studies and commercial opportunities in the treatment of gout. After our meeting, Company H commenced due diligence efforts, including participating in multiple teleconferences with us, requesting additional information and following up on additional due diligence matters.

On September 19, 2011, we met with representatives of Company A in New York to discuss the results of our end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA and our plans for Phase 3 studies. At the conclusion of the meeting, Company A stated that it wished to re-engage in discussions regarding a potential strategic transaction and conduct additional due diligence in furtherance thereof. Despite Company A's expression of interest, over the next five months, Company A conducted limited due diligence.

Also on September 19, 2011, we met with representatives of Company B in New York to discuss the results of our end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA and our plans for Phase 3 studies. Company B indicated it would need to conduct additional internal discussions regarding a potential strategic transaction before it could proceed with further due diligence.

On September 22, 2011, members of our senior management team held a teleconference with representatives of Company H to discuss the commercial opportunities for the treatment of gout, including population sizes, treatment dynamics, the pricing of existing therapies and how lesinurad might fit into the commercial market.

On September 26, 2011, Company G informed Mr. Davis it was interested in re-engaging in discussions with us regarding a potential strategic transaction. Shortly thereafter, Company G re-entered our electronic data room and recommenced its due diligence review.

On September 29, 2011, several members of our senior management team met with AstraZeneca at its offices in Wilmington, Delaware to review the results of our Phase 2b studies, including our end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA, our plans for Phase 3 studies and our view of the gout market opportunities. At the conclusion of the meeting, AstraZeneca indicated that it remained interested in exploring a strategic transaction, subject to additional due diligence of our lesinurad program.

On October 13, 2011, our board of directors held a telephonic meeting during which Mr. Davis updated our board of directors on the status of discussions with potential strategic partners. He reported that since our end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA, six companies who had previously engaged in, and then withdrawn from, discussions regarding a potential strategic transaction had now re-engaged in discussions with us. Mr. Davis reported that upon re-engaging in such discussions, each company indicated potential interest in considering a structured acquisition transaction in which it would acquire a minority interest in our common stock ranging from 14.9% to 40% of our total outstanding shares of common stock, with an option to acquire the remainder of our outstanding common stock at a predetermined price following the completion of Phase 3 studies. No specific economic terms related to a proposed structured acquisition transaction had yet been proposed by any of the companies and no company at that time expressed any interest in an immediate acquisition of 100% of our outstanding common stock. Mr. Davis also reported that five of the six companies had re-entered our electronic data room and that the sixth company would shortly be given access to the data room.

On October 14, 2011, Mr. Davis had further discussions with representatives of Company G regarding a structured acquisition transaction, in particular, addressing the governance challenges presented by such structure during Phase 3 studies. While no specific economic terms were discussed, we agreed to continue discussions with Company G and invited them to visit our offices in San Diego for on-site meetings.

On October 17, 2011, members of our senior management team conducted a teleconference with representatives of Company C during which we reviewed with them the status of our end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA and our plans for Phase 3 studies for our lesinurad program. Again, on October 19, 2011, Mr. Davis spoke with representatives of Company C regarding the status of our strategic discussions and the broad outlines of a potential structured acquisition transaction. Such transaction contemplated an acquisition by Company C of a 20% minority interest in our common stock at an unspecified premium to our then-current trading price, with an option to acquire our remaining outstanding common stock upon the successful completion of our Phase 3 studies of lesinurad at a predetermined price to be mutually agreed upon between us and Company C. While no specific economic terms were discussed at this time, we did discuss with Company C the governance challenges that might arise during Phase 3 studies as a result of a structured acquisition transaction.

On October 21, 2011, Mr. Davis spoke with representatives of Company F regarding the status of our strategic discussions and a potential structured acquisition transaction. Similar to Mr. Davis conversations with Company C, such transaction contemplated an acquisition by Company F of a 20% minority interest in our common stock at an unspecified premium to our then-current trading price, with an option to acquire our remaining outstanding common stock upon the successful completion of our Phase 3 studies of lesinurad at a predetermined price to be mutually agreed upon between us and Company F. No specific economic terms were discussed.

On October 26, 2011, representatives from Company G visited our offices in San Diego to conduct on-site due diligence and to discuss the commercial opportunities for lesinurad. Upon conclusion of the visit, we agreed with Company G to continue discussions related to a potential strategic transaction.

Also in late October 2011, as a result of certain personnel changes within Company H, Company H suspended its due diligence review altogether and terminated all discussions with us regarding a potential strategic transaction.

On November 8, 2011, while at the American College of Rheumatology annual meeting in Chicago, several members of our senior management team met with representatives of Company F, including its senior vice president and global head of the business unit that would be responsible for the development and commercialization of lesinurad if Company F moved forward with a strategic transaction. At the meeting, we reviewed the results of our Phase 2 studies and our end of Phase 2 meeting with the FDA, our plans for Phase 3 studies and our view of the commercial opportunities for lesinurad. At the conclusion of the meeting, we agreed to continue discussions with Company F regarding a potential strategic transaction.

On December 14, 2011, Dr. Quart and Mr. Davis met with Mr. Mahmood Ladha, AstraZeneca's Executive Director, Global Business Development, and Ms. Kelly Distefano, AstraZeneca's Director of Business Development, in Wilmington, Delaware. At the meeting, Mr. Ladha and Ms. Distefano stated that there was increased interest within AstraZeneca in pursuing a strategic transaction with us. We discussed with Mr. Ladha and Ms. Distefano considerations relating to a structured acquisition transaction, including potential challenges that would arise from joint governance of any Phase 3 studies. In addition, we discussed the possibility of an outright acquisition of 100% of our outstanding common stock by AstraZeneca. We did not discuss any specific economic terms with AstraZeneca at this meeting.

On December 16, 2011, our board of directors conducted a regularly scheduled meeting. At the meeting, representatives from the Monitor Group and members of our senior management team gave a status update on the commercial assessment project that was being conducted by us and the Monitor Group. Mr. Davis also updated our board of directors on the continuing discussions with potential strategic partners. Mr. Davis also noted that Company H had placed all primary care strategic activity on hold and had withdrawn from discussions with us. Our board of directors authorized our senior management to continue discussions with all potential strategic partners that had expressed continuing interest in pursuing either a structured acquisition or an acquisition of 100% of our outstanding common stock.

On December 19, 2011, we initiated the first of several Phase 3 clinical studies for lesinurad.

On December 21, 2011, Mr. Davis spoke with representatives of Company C to brief them on the status of the commencement of our Phase 3 clinical studies of lesinurad and the projected costs of the Phase 3 clinical studies proposed to be conducted, and to continue discussions regarding a potential strategic transaction. Company C indicated it was continuing to consider a structured acquisition transaction as previously communicated to Mr. Davis and noted that we should expect its complete assessment of a possible transaction around the beginning of February 2012.

During the week of January 9, 2012, we attended the JP Morgan Healthcare conference in San Francisco. At the conference, we met with Mr. Ladha and Mr. Simon Lowth, the Chief Financial Officer of AstraZeneca. At this meeting, Mr. Ladha and Mr. Lowth indicated that AstraZeneca was interested in pursuing the acquisition of 100% of our outstanding common stock and outlined areas of due diligence that AstraZeneca would need to complete prior to submitting an offer. Also during the week of January 9, 2012, we met with representatives of Company A, Company F, Company G and Company H. Following our meetings, Company H re-engaged in discussions with us regarding a potential strategic transaction. In addition, we also met with representatives of Company B, our first meeting with them since September 2011.

On January 20, 2012, our board of directors held a telephonic meeting during which it discussed the prospects for raising additional capital through an offering of our common stock. Our board of directors also discussed the status of our Phase 3 clinical studies and the status of our discussions with potential strategic partners, and instructed our senior management team to continue discussions with all interested parties.

In the second half of January 2012, we began sharing with active potential strategic partners additional information regarding the work we were doing with the Monitor Group on the commercial opportunities for the treatment of gout and the potential role of lesinurad in such treatment. We continued to communicate additional information to such parties through the completion of our project with the Monitor Group in the second half of March 2012.

In February 2012, we closed a public offering of our common stock at a public offering price of $17.00 per share, for net proceeds of approximately $157.6 million.

On February 6, 2012, Company C contacted Mr. Davis to inform him that it had determined that a gout market opportunity was not consistent with its current commercial strategic plans and thus Company C was no longer interested in pursuing a strategic transaction with us at that time.

On February 15, 2012, Dr. Quart and Mr. Davis met with Messrs. Ladha and Lowth while attending a healthcare investor conference in New York City. At the meeting, Messrs. Ladha and Lowth delivered a non-binding written indication of interest from AstraZeneca to acquire 100% of our outstanding common stock for a purchase price of $24.17 per share, assuming a certain cash balance and reflecting an enterprise value of $650 million. The offer was subject to the completion of further due diligence. Dr. Quart and Mr. Davis indicated they would promptly communicate the proposal to our board of directors. Immediately following the meeting, Dr. Quart forwarded a copy of AstraZeneca's written indication of interest to each of the members of our board of directors for consideration.

On February 17, 2012, our board of directors met telephonically to discuss AstraZeneca's proposal. Representatives from BofA Merrill Lynch were also present. Dr. Quart described the meeting he and Mr. Davis had with AstraZeneca and Mr. Davis provided an update on the status of discussions with other potential strategic partners. Following a full discussion of AstraZeneca's proposal, our board of directors determined that the AstraZeneca proposal was inadequate, as it did not reflect the inherent value of Ardea given the current status of our drug development programs, and directed Mr. Davis to convey this message to AstraZeneca. Our board of directors also directed our senior management to continue discussions with the other potential strategic partners that had expressed continuing interest in pursuing a strategic transaction.

Also on February 17, 2012, Mr. Davis and representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch, acting at the direction of our senior management, contacted each of Company A through Company H, as well as other companies that we believed might have an interest in re-engaging in discussions with respect to a potential strategic transaction with us. We and BofA Merrill Lynch provided each of these companies with additional information (to the extent not already provided) regarding our assessment of the commercial opportunities for the treatment of gout. We and BofA Merrill Lynch, acting at the direction of our senior management, also informed each of the companies not currently engaged in discussions with us regarding a potential transaction, together with each company that was then engaged in such discussions, that our strategic discussions with other parties were accelerating and were moving in the direction of an acquisition of 100% of our outstanding common stock and that they should notify us promptly if they had an interest in a potential acquisition.

On February 20, 2012, Mr. Davis spoke with Mr. Ladha and conveyed the response of our board of directors to AstraZeneca's $24.17 per share offer. In response to Mr. Ladha's query regarding what purchase price would be acceptable to our board of directors, Mr. Davis indicated that our board of directors was not prepared to propose a specific price. At Mr. Davis's request, Mr. Ladha then described the remaining due diligence that would be required by AstraZeneca before AstraZeneca would be in a position to agree on a price, if an agreement could be reached at all. Mr. Davis suggested that in the interest of providing AstraZeneca with additional information to enable it to improve its offer, we would facilitate AstraZeneca's further due diligence requests.

On February 23, 2012, Mr. Davis and Mr. Ladha spoke again. Mr. Ladha indicated that AstraZeneca remained interested in a transaction, but could not at that time justify the expense of further due diligence without an agreement on price or a period of exclusivity and, therefore, would defer further due diligence efforts. Messrs. Davis and Ladha agreed that the likely difference in valuation perspectives between the parties was due to differing assessments on the commercial opportunities for the treatment of gout and agreed to continue discussions.

In late February 2012, at the direction of our senior management, representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch re-engaged Company H in discussions regarding a possible transaction with us and on February 29, 2012, Mr. Davis spoke with representatives of Company H and provided an update on our Phase 3 clinical studies of lesinurad and the status of our review of potential strategic transactions.

Also on February 29, 2012, Mr. Davis spoke with representatives of Company A and provided an update on the status of our review of potential strategic transactions. Company A indicated that it would need to complete further due diligence before it would be in a position to move forward with further discussions related to a potential strategic transaction. Commencing in March 2012, Company A's due diligence efforts increased significantly and we engaged in multiple discussions with representatives of Company A with respect to due diligence matters.

In March 2012, each of Company B, Company D and Company E informed BofA Merrill Lynch that it would not move forward with a strategic transaction. With respect to Company B, it had ceased conducting due diligence and had become generally nonresponsive over the past several months. When BofA Merrill Lynch contacted Company B, it was advised by a representative of Company B that Company B was not prepared to move forward with a strategic transaction with us at that time. No specific reason for Company B's decision was provided to BofA Merrill Lynch. With respect to Company D, its confidentiality agreement with us had expired and it declined to enter into a new confidentiality agreement so we could provide it with additional, updated materials. Company D did not provide any specific reason for its decision not to move forward with a strategic transaction. With respect to Company E, a representative of Company E's financial advisor contacted BofA Merrill Lynch and informed it that Company E would not be moving forward with a strategic transaction, providing no specific reason for Company E's decision.

On March 5, 2012, Mr. Ladha called Mr. Davis and verbally informed him that AstraZeneca was revising and improving its offer to acquire 100% of our outstanding common stock, which included (i) an enterprise value of $700 million, as opposed to the $650 million reflected in its initial offer, (ii) a CVR that would pay our stockholders $2.00 per share of our common stock upon lesinurad achieving $1.25 billion in U.S. net sales and (iii) a second CVR that would pay our stockholders an additional $3.00 per share of our common stock upon lesinurad achieving $1.75 billion in U.S. net sales. Mr. Ladha noted that AstraZeneca was positioned to conduct final due diligence but would continue to defer commencement of these efforts until we and AstraZeneca had agreed on a purchase price. Mr. Davis indicated that he would convey the proposal to our board of directors.

On March 9, 2012, our board of directors held a telephonic meeting to receive an update from our senior management regarding the status of our conversations with third parties related to a strategic transaction. Mr. Davis advised our board of directors as to the status of discussions with each potential strategic partner with whom we had been having discussions, including the latest proposal from AstraZeneca. Our board of directors discussed the AstraZeneca proposal, as well as various considerations regarding the discussions with the other potential strategic partners who had continued to express interest in pursuing a strategic transaction. Following a full discussion of the AstraZeneca proposal, our board of directors still viewed AstraZeneca's offer as inadequate, particularly in light of the fact that a significant portion of the consideration was in the form of CVRs that our board of directors did not believe reflected the full value of such future events. Our board of directors asked Mr. Davis to convey this message to AstraZeneca.

On March 12, 2012, Mr. Davis, Mr. Bob Mischler, our Vice President, Commercial Planning and Analysis, and representatives of the Monitor Group met with Company H at Company H's offices to share information regarding our assessment of the commercial opportunities for the treatment of gout and the potential role of lesinurad in such treatment. As a result of such discussions, on March 15, 2012, representatives of Company H conducted on-site due diligence at our offices in San Diego. Upon conclusion of the site visit, Company H advised us that they were interested in proceeding with further due diligence and discussions regarding a potential strategic transaction.

On March 15, 2012, Mr. Davis and Mr. Ladha spoke by telephone about the status of our discussions with AstraZeneca. During the call, Mr. Davis conveyed to Mr. Ladha that our board of directors viewed AstraZeneca's latest proposal as inadequate to justify a sale of Ardea. Mr. Davis also noted that, given the fact we were continuing to advance discussions with other potential strategic partners and the fact that AstraZeneca had additional due diligence to complete, we could neither agree to any specific purchase price at that time nor agree to AstraZeneca's requirement that we do so prior to their commencement of final due diligence. He and Mr. Ladha discussed the fact that there was a desire by both parties to find a path forward and the possibility that AstraZeneca could fall behind other potential strategic partners in the process if AstraZeneca did not promptly commence its final due diligence assessments.

On March 16, 2012, our board of directors held a telephonic meeting with members of our senior management team and representatives of the Monitor Group to review the final results of our assessment of the commercial opportunities for the treatment of gout. The primary purpose of the meeting was to provide our board of directors with additional information to use in the evaluation of all proposals received from potential strategic partners and to aid our board of directors in making a determination to sell Ardea or continue as an independent company.

In mid-March 2012, Mr. Davis communicated to AstraZeneca, Company A, Company F and Company H that each of them should be prepared to complete its due diligence review and be in a position to submit offers in the first half of April 2012, followed by negotiation of a final purchase price and definitive agreements in the second half of April 2012. Each of such companies indicated that they could meet our proposed timeline.

On March 19, 2012, AstraZeneca commenced additional due diligence and on March 22 and 23, 2012, representatives of AstraZeneca and its various advisors conducted on-site due diligence at our offices in San Diego.

On March 26, 2012, Mr. Davis spoke with Company F regarding the work undertaken by us and the Monitor Group and offered to arrange a meeting with us, representatives of the Monitor Group and Company F. Company F reported that it had reviewed the information we had provided to it and, given that such information was very similar to information that Company F had independently developed, it felt a meeting with the Monitor Group was unnecessary.

On March 27, 2012, our board of directors held a regularly scheduled meeting during which Mr. Davis updated our board of directors on the status of discussions with potential strategic partners. He informed our board of directors that we were in active discussions with four companies AstraZeneca, Company A, Company F and Company H. Mr. Davis indicated that while Company G was continuing to consider a possible transaction, it was not engaged in active discussions with us and it was his belief that Company G was unlikely to move forward with a strategic transaction.

Messrs. Davis and Mischler, together with representatives of the Monitor Group, met with Company A at its offices on March 28, 2012. On March 29, 2012, Messrs. Davis and Mischler and representatives of the Monitor Group met with AstraZeneca at its offices. At each meeting, we shared information regarding our assessment of the commercial opportunities for the treatment of gout and the potential role of lesinurad in such treatment.

On April 5, 2012, Company A informed Mr. Davis and Dr. Quart of its determination that a gout program did not fit its strategic priorities at this time, but that Company A would like to continue discussions after we received the results of our Phase 3 clinical studies if we had not then concluded a strategic transaction with another party.

On April 9, 2012, Company G informed Mr. Davis that it had recently determined that it would focus its U.S. business on specialty pharmaceutical markets and, given the significant primary care nature of gout medications, it was not interested in pursuing further discussions regarding a potential strategic transaction.

On April 11, 2012, Mr. Davis spoke with representatives of Company F to determine the status of Company F's due diligence efforts and to update Company F on our strategic process. Representatives of Company F indicated that it had scheduled a meeting for April 13, 2012 with its executive management group, including Company F's chief executive officer, to discuss a potential strategic transaction with us and would let Mr. Davis know promptly after such meeting whether Company F would submit an offer.

On April 11, 2012, representatives of Company H spoke with representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch. The discussion focused on the valuation of the ex-U.S. component of our lesinurad commercial opportunity. Representatives of Company H and representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch discussed various options for addressing the ex-U.S. valuation of our lesinurad program, including utilizing a CVR that could be issued to our stockholders in connection with an acquisition of Ardea.

On April 11 and 12, 2012, Mr. Ladha and Mr. Davis engaged in two conversations in which Mr. Ladha indicated that members of AstraZeneca's executive management team, including its chief executive officer and its chief financial officer, had met recently to review the status of a possible transaction with us. Mr. Ladha indicated that AstraZeneca needed to get final resolution on whether or not a transaction with us was possible in order to determine whether it was in AstraZeneca's interest to invest additional time and resources regarding a potential transaction. He stated that AstraZeneca was prepared to enhance the terms of its last offer on the condition that we agree to a period of exclusivity and, if an acceptable price could be mutually agreed upon, be prepared to spend all of the following week negotiating a definitive merger agreement. Mr. Davis responded that we would have to review any revised proposal with our board of directors before responding to it, but that he felt the likelihood of our board of directors agreeing to any period of exclusivity was remote given the process in which we were actively engaged.

On April 12, 2012, Mr. Davis spoke with a representative of Company H to determine its continued interest in a potential acquisition of Ardea. The representative of Company H stated that Company H was continuing to analyze the valuation of our lesinurad program outside of the U.S. and would likely have to seek a partner to commercialize the ex-U.S. regions. Mr. Davis and Company H's representative discussed the potential for utilizing a CVR to transfer value from the ex-U.S. commercialization to our shareholders, however, Company H expressed concerns regarding the complexity of a CVR, as well as the potential that such a structure would place Company H at a disadvantage relative to other potential bidders that already had a stronger market presence in Europe and Asia. Company H's representative indicated that if Company H could not find a clear path to realize the ex-U.S. value through a partnership, Company H would not be in a position to submit an offer for the acquisition of Ardea. However, Company H indicated that it remained interested in continuing discussions with us and would continue to consider a collaboration with various potential partners to realize the value presented by the ex-U.S. markets.

On the evening of April 12, 2012, Mr. Davis sent an e-mail update to our board of directors describing feedback from AstraZeneca and updating our board of directors on the status of the continuing discussions with Company F and Company H. He indicated that we would continue to work with each of the parties to provide them with all appropriate information so that such parties could timely complete their due diligence review and submit their best offer to acquire us. In the e-mail update, Mr. Davis also provided our board of directors with a form of merger agreement and form of voting agreement that would be provided to the final bidders for their comments.

On April 13, 2012, Mr. Davis spoke with representatives of Company H to further explore the potential for an ex-U.S. partnership or a CVR in hopes of enabling Company H to be in a position to submit an offer.

On April 13, 2012, a representative of Company F telephoned Mr. Davis and a representative of BofA Merrill Lynch to inform them that Company F would be submitting a non-binding proposal to acquire 100% of our outstanding common stock for $25.50 in cash per share. Immediately following the call, Company F forwarded a written proposal to Mr. Davis and the representative of BofA Merrill Lynch confirming the offer, which was conditioned upon Company F's satisfactory completion of due diligence and the negotiation and execution of mutually satisfactory definitive agreements.

On April 13, 2012, Mr. Davis forwarded to each of AstraZeneca and Company F a form of merger agreement and a form of voting agreement contemplated to be entered into by certain members of our board of directors and their respective affiliates in support of a transaction.

On April 14, 2012, Mr. Davis and representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch held a teleconference to discuss the status of discussions with Company H and to address Company H's need for clarity on how to realize the ex-U.S. opportunity for our lesinurad program.

On the morning of April 15, 2012, Dr. Quart, Mr. Davis, a representative of BofA Merrill Lynch and two members of our board of directors held a teleconference to discuss the status of discussions with AstraZeneca, Company F and Company H.

On the evening of April 15, 2012, Mr. Ladha called Mr. Davis to inform him that AstraZeneca was enhancing its offer with the full support of AstraZeneca's board of directors, which would be on stand-by for one week to give final approval to enter into a transaction with us. Mr. Ladha stated that AstraZeneca's revised offer was an all-cash offer of $30.00 per share of our common stock. He stated that the offer reflected a substantial premium over our current trading price, but was contingent on us granting AstraZeneca a 10-day period of exclusivity during which time we would cease discussions and negotiations with all other parties who had indicated an interest in a strategic transaction with us and would negotiate solely with AstraZeneca. He also stated that if we did not agree to the exclusivity arrangement, AstraZeneca would consider participating in a process that involved other parties interested in pursuing a strategic transaction with us, but could potentially reduce its offer of $30.00 per share of our common stock. Mr. Ladha communicated to Mr. Davis that before sending written documents reflecting the revised offer of $30.00 per share, AstraZeneca wanted a reaction to its $30.00 per share offer from Mr. Davis, Dr. Quart and the members of our board of directors who would be asked, together with their respective affiliates, to sign voting agreements in support of a transaction with AstraZeneca.

Dr. Quart, Mr. Davis, a representative of BofA Merrill Lynch and the two members of our board of directors who would be asked, together with their respective affiliates, to sign voting agreements in support of a transaction with AstraZeneca held a teleconference on the evening of April 15, 2012 to discuss the revised offer from AstraZeneca.

Following the teleconference, Mr. Davis called Mr. Ladha and informed him that, while our full board of directors would need to review AstraZeneca's latest offer, the two members of our board of directors who would be asked, together with their respective affiliates, to sign voting agreements in support of a transaction with AstraZeneca had viewed favorably the $30.00 per share offer. Mr. Davis, however, made it clear to Mr. Ladha that such individuals were not agreeing to a price of $30.00 per share and that such price had not yet been discussed with our board of directors. Mr. Davis also informed Mr. Ladha that he was confident our board of directors would not agree to any period of exclusivity. However, Mr. Davis told Mr. Ladha that, subject to the approval of our board of directors, we would commit to sending our senior management team and our financial and legal advisors to New York to attempt to negotiate a final offer that was acceptable to us and AstraZeneca and a mutually acceptable merger agreement and voting agreement, with the goal of executing definitive documents for a transaction, or determining within the one-week period prescribed by AstraZeneca that no agreement could be reached. Messrs. Davis and Ladha tentatively agreed that both parties, along with their respective advisors, would meet in New York on April 17, 2012. Mr. Ladha noted to Mr. Davis that if the parties did not complete negotiations and finalize definitive agreements in the timeframe set forth by AstraZeneca, it was likely that AstraZeneca would need to move on to other opportunities. Following this conversation, Mr. Ladha forwarded to Mr. Davis a mark-up of the draft merger agreement and voting agreement prepared by AstraZeneca and Covington & Burling LLP, its outside legal counsel (Covington).

On the morning of April 16, 2012, our board of directors met telephonically. Also on the call were members of our senior management team, including Dr. Quart and Mr. Davis, and representatives of BofA Merrill Lynch and Paul Hastings LLP, our outside legal counsel (Paul Hastings). Dr. Quart and Mr. Davis updated our board of directors on the status of discussions with AstraZeneca, Company F and Company H. Mr. Davis informed our board of directors that AstraZeneca had increased its offer to $30.00 per share of our common stock, conditioned on us entering into a 10-day exclusivity period. Dr. Quart and Mr. Davis described the continuing due diligence being conducted by Company F. Mr. Davis also informed our board of directors that Company F had not yet submitted a mark-up to the merger agreement or voting agreement. Our board of directors discussed the status of discussions with AstraZeneca, Company F and Company H and directed our senior management to meet with AstraZeneca in New York with the goal of determining whether a final agreement could be reached. Our board of directors also instructed our senior management team to continue discussions with Company F and Company H.

Following the board of directors meeting, Mr. Davis spoke to a representative of Company F to discuss the current status of Company F's continuing technical assessments and legal due diligence. Mr. Davis informed Company F's representative that discussions with other parties were progressing very rapidly. He stated that Company F should complete its corporate due diligence as quickly as possible and submit a final offer and final merger agreement and voting agreement by the end of the week. Company F's representative indicated that Company F and its advisors were committed to finalizing their work and would meet the schedule proposed by Mr. Davis.

On April 17, 2012, Dr. Quart, Mr. Davis, Mr. Christian Waage, our Vice President, General Counsel, and representatives from each of BofA Merrill Lynch and Paul Hastings met with AstraZeneca, Morgan Stanley & Co., AstraZeneca's financial advisor, and Covington at the offices of Covington in New York. Between April 17, 2012 and April 20, 2012, both parties and their advisors continued to negotiate the terms of a merger agreement and voting agreement. In addition, AstraZeneca and its advisors continued their due diligence review.

On April 17, 2012, Company F's representative called Mr. Davis to inform him that Company F was increasing its offer to $30.25 per share of our common stock. On the call, Company F stated that it was nearing completion of its due diligence and would promptly provide a mark-up of the merger agreement and voting agreement. Immediately following the call, Company F forwarded a written proposal confirming its offer of $30.25 per share of our common stock. Between April 17, 2012 and April 20, 2012, representatives of Paul Hastings and Company F's outside legal advisors discussed several issues relating to the merger agreement and voting agreement.

On the evening of April 17, 2012, the evening of April 18, 2012 and the afternoon of April 19, 2012, members of our senior management team held teleconferences with the two members of our board of directors who would be asked, together with their respective affiliates, to sign voting agreements in support of a transaction in order to update them on the status of negotiations with AstraZeneca and Company F and the status of Company H's decision regarding a potential transaction.

On April 18, 2012, Mr. Davis called Company H's representative to suggest means by which Company H might realize the ex-U.S. opportunities for our lesinurad program, and to outline a variety of partnering options in that regard. Company H's representative reiterated that while the information was encouraging, Company H would not be able to submit an offer without a detailed understanding of a partnership arrangement for the ex-U.S. opportunity.

On the morning of April 19, 2012, Company F's outside legal advisors submitted a mark-up of the merger agreement and voting agreement to us, each of which reflected terms that were generally agreeable to us and the two members of our board of directors who would be asked, together with their respective affiliates, to sign voting agreements in support of a transaction with Company F. During the course of the day, Paul Hastings refined the provisions of the mark-up to the merger agreement and voting agreement it had received from Company F's counsel.

On April 19, 2012, Paul Hastings continued to negotiate the terms of the AstraZeneca merger agreement and voting agreement with Covington. By the end of the day on April 19, 2012, we had reached agreement with both AstraZeneca and Company F on all material outstanding issues on their respective merger agreements and voting agreements. On the afternoon of April 19, 2012, our board of directors held a telephonic meeting to discuss the status of discussions with AstraZeneca, Company F and Company H. Members of our senior management team and representatives of each of BofA Merrill Lynch and Paul Hastings were also on the call. Mr. Davis updated our board of directors on the status of negotiations with AstraZeneca and Company F and indicated that Company H was still expressing concerns regarding the ex-U.S. commercial opportunity with respect to our lesinurad program and such concerns remained an obstacle to submitting an offer. Following a discussion, our board of directors determined that it would not be prudent to risk losing the offers from AstraZeneca and Company F in order to allow more time for Company H to determine whether it would submit an offer, and instructed Mr. Davis to advise both AstraZeneca and Company F that final offers would be due at noon the following day, April 20, 2012.

Mr. Davis met with Mr. Ladha on the evening of April 19, 2012 and informed him that another party had submitted a higher offer, together with an acceptable mark-up of the merger agreement and voting agreement. He also informed Mr. Ladha of our board of directors' request that both parties submit final offers by noon the following day and that we would select the winning party shortly thereafter and execute definitive agreements with such party. Mr. Davis then informed Company F's representative of the same final offer deadline.

On the morning of April 20, 2012, Dr. Quart and Mr. Davis spoke by teleconference to representatives of Company F. Company F's representatives informed Dr. Quart and Mr. Davis that Company F would need to conduct additional assessments before it would be in a position to reassess its offer, and indicated that it believed the additional assessments would take approximately two weeks to complete. During the day of April 20, 2012, we sent information to Company F in an effort to try to accelerate its additional assessments. Company F confirmed receipt of the information and also conveyed to Mr. Davis its position that it would not raise its offer at that time.

At approximately 1:00 p.m. on April 20, 2012, Mr. Ladha called Mr. Davis to inform him that AstraZeneca was submitting a final offer of $32.00 per share of our outstanding common stock. Mr. Ladha stressed that AstraZeneca would not raise its offer further and any attempt to further negotiate would result in AstraZeneca withdrawing from the process. He also indicated that the $32.00 per share offer was contingent on final agreements being executed by the end of that day, subject only to the final approval of AstraZeneca's board of directors.

Our board of directors convened a telephonic meeting at 2:00 p.m. on April 20, 2012. Mr. Davis provided an update to our board of directors regarding the status of negotiations with AstraZeneca and Company F. He advised our board of directors that AstraZeneca had increased its offer to $32.00 per share of our common stock and noted that Mr. Ladha had indicated that it was AstraZeneca's final offer. Mr. Davis communicated to our board of directors that, based on the negotiations to date and the conversation he had with Mr. Ladha, Mr. Davis believed that AstraZeneca would not raise its offer any further and that AstraZeneca was serious about withdrawing its offer and dropping out of the process if definitive agreements were not finalized and executed by the end of the day. Mr. Davis then advised our board of directors that Company F had informed him that it would need another two weeks to reassess its offer and that it would not raise its offer of $30.25 per share of our common stock. Both Dr. Quart and Mr. Davis expressed serious concerns that if we attempted to extend the process to allow Company F more time to complete its additional assessments and reassess its offer, AstraZeneca would likely withdraw from the process altogether. In addition, Mr. Davis noted that even if Company F was satisfied with its additional assessments, it was uncertain whether Company F would increase its offer above AstraZeneca's offer. Paul Hastings then reviewed with our board of directors their fiduciary duties in the context of a sale of Ardea and summarized the material terms of the proposed merger agreement to be entered into between us and Zeneca, a wholly owned subsidiary of AstraZeneca, and the form of voting agreement to be entered into by certain of our directors and their respective affiliates who collectively held approximately 29.6% of our outstanding common stock. BofA Merrill Lynch made a presentation to our board of directors regarding its financial analyses of the offer of $32.00 per share of our common stock received from AstraZeneca and delivered to our board of directors an oral opinion, which was confirmed by the delivery of a written opinion dated April 20, 2012, to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to various assumptions and limitations described in such opinion, the $32.00 per share offer price to be received by the holders of our common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. After discussion, our board of directors unanimously determined it was advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Ardea and our stockholders to enter into the merger agreement with Zeneca and complete the proposed merger. Our board of directors then resolved unanimously to approve the merger agreement and the voting agreements.

Following the board of directors meeting, Dr. Quart and Mr. Davis called Mr. Ladha to inform him that our board of directors had unanimously approved moving forward with the transaction with AstraZeneca.

During the remainder of April 20, 2012 and into the early morning of April 21, 2012, the parties and their respective advisors finalized the merger agreement, voting agreements and schedules relating thereto. On the morning of April 21, 2012, Mr. Ladha informed Mr. Davis that he had received final approval of AstraZeneca's board of directors to execute the merger agreement and the voting agreements. We each exchanged executed signature pages shortly thereafter.

On the morning of April 23, 2012, prior to the opening of the U.S. trading markets, we and AstraZeneca issued press releases announcing the signing of the Merger Agreement.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Ardea and its Reasons for the Merger

Our board of directors, after considering the factors described below and after consulting with its legal and financial advisors, (i) has unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of, Ardea and our stockholders, (ii) has unanimously authorized and approved the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreements and (iii) unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the Merger Proposal. Our board of directors consulted with our senior management in evaluating the Merger. In addition, our board of directors considered a number of factors that they believed supported their decision to take the foregoing actions, including, but not limited to, the following:

the fact that AstraZeneca's offer will be paid in cash, providing certainty, immediate value and liquidity to our stockholders;

the ability of AstraZeneca to pay the aggregate merger consideration and the absence of a financing condition to the closing of the Merger;

the belief of our board of directors that $32.00 per share represented the highest consideration that AstraZeneca was willing to pay and the highest per share value obtainable on the date of signing;

the relationship between the $32.00 price per share and the recent historical market prices of our common stock and the deliberations of our board of directors over such price, including their consideration that such price represented a premium of 50% over the one-month volume weighted average price as of April 20, 2012 (the last trading day before the public announcement of the proposed Merger) and a 54% premium based on the closing price of our common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on such date;

the knowledge of our board of directors and their familiarity with our business, financial condition and results of operations, as well as our financial plan, prospects and competitive position if we were to remain as a stand-alone entity, and their belief that the Merger is more favorable to our stockholders than any other strategic alternative reasonably available to us, including remaining as a stand-alone entity;

the risks inherent in the development and commercialization of small-molecule therapeutics for the treatment of serious diseases, the risks related to clinical data results, approval for marketing by the FDA, and any potential conditions or contingencies of such approval, and market acceptance, if approved, and other factors affecting the revenues and profitability of biotechnology products generally;

the significant risks and considerable costs associated with a successful launch and commercialization by Ardea of lesinurad (formerly known as RDEA594) as a primary care drug due, in part, to our lack of any material U.S. and global sales or marketing infrastructure or capabilities;

the opinion of BofA Merrill Lynch, dated April 20, 2012, to our board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the per share merger consideration of $32.00 to be received by our stockholders, as more fully described below in the section entitled "The Merger - Opinion of Ardea's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 35;

the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, including the following related factors:

the conclusion of our board of directors that the $41 million termination fee payable to Zeneca in the circumstances set forth in the Merger Agreement is reasonable in the context of termination fees that were payable in comparable transactions and would not be likely to preclude another party from making a superior proposal with respect to Ardea; and the belief that the terms of the Merger Agreement, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants, and the conditions to their respective obligations to complete the Merger, are reasonable under the circumstances;

the Voting Agreements entered into by the Key Stockholders, pursuant to which such stockholders agreed, solely in their capacity as stockholders, to vote all of their shares of Ardea common stock (representing approximately 29.6% of the outstanding shares of Ardea common stock on April 20, 2012, the last trading day before the public announcement of the proposed Merger) in favor of the Merger Proposal and against any alternative acquisition transaction or any other action involving Ardea that is intended to or would reasonably be expected to impede, prevent, delay or adversely affect the Merger or any other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

the likelihood that the Merger will be completed on a timely basis;

the costs, timing, uncertainty, risks and dilution to our stockholders of raising additional capital to fund further development costs, to achieve and maintain profitability; and the strategic options available to Ardea (including a customary collaboration with or license to another party of lesinurad) and Ardea's assessment that none of these options, including remaining as a stand-alone entity, is likely to present an opportunity that is equal or superior to the Merger or to create value for the stockholders that is equal to or greater than that created by the Merger in the foreseeable future.

Our board of directors also considered a number of potentially negative factors in its deliberations concerning the Merger, including:

the fact that, because the stockholders are receiving cash for their shares of Ardea common stock, they will not participate in any potential future growth of either Ardea or AstraZeneca;

the fact that the Merger will be a taxable transaction to our stockholders;

the potential impact of the Merger on our employees, including the possibility that jobs may be eliminated;

the substantial transaction costs to be incurred by us in connection with the Merger, even if the Merger is not completed in a timely manner or at all;

the interests of our directors and executive officers in the Merger, including the matters described under the section entitled "The Merger - Interests of the Directors and Executive Officers of Ardea in the Merger" beginning on page 42;

the fact that certain deal protection measures contained in the Merger Agreement, including the no solicitation provisions limiting Ardea's ability to engage in discussions or negotiations regarding an alternative acquisition proposal and the $41 million termination fee payable by Ardea to Zeneca under certain circumstances, could have the effect of discouraging or devaluing alternative acquisition proposals involving Ardea, including those that could otherwise become superior proposals;

the risk that conditions to the completion of the Merger will not be satisfied and that the Merger may not be completed in a timely manner or at all;

if the Merger is not completed, the potential adverse effect of the public announcement of the Merger on our business and, potentially, on our stock price; and the restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to the completion of the Merger, which require us to carry on our business in the ordinary course and consistent with past practice, subject to specific additional restrictions, which may delay or prevent us from pursuing business opportunities that would otherwise be in our best interests.

This discussion of the information and factors considered by our board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but is intended to summarize certain material factors considered by our board of directors in connection with its approval and recommendation of the Merger and the other related transactions described in this proxy statement. In view of the wide variety of factors considered, our board of directors did not find it practicable to quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered. However, our board of directors concluded that the potential benefits of the Merger outweighed the potential negative factors and that, overall, the Merger had greater potential benefits for our stockholders than other strategic alternatives. Therefore, after taking into account all of the factors set forth above, our board of directors determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Ardea and its stockholders and that we should enter into the Merger Agreement and take all actions necessary to complete the Merger.

Certain Financial Forecasts Utilized by Ardea in Connection with the Merger

Ardea does not, as a matter of course, publicly disclose long-term forecasts or internal projections as to future performance, earnings, or other results, and we are particularly concerned with making such forecasts and projections due to the unpredictability of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, in connection with the analysis of the Merger, Ardea's management prepared three separate sets of financial forecasts: (i) projected U.S. lesinurad sales in an acquisition scenario, (ii) projected U.S. lesinurad sales in a stand-alone scenario and (iii) a stand-alone global, probability adjusted, profit and loss (P&L) forecast. These unaudited financial forecasts were developed to facilitate our strategic discussions and for use by our board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the Merger compared to continuing as a stand-alone company. In addition, we provided the forecast for the stand-alone scenario for U.S. lesinurad sales and the forecasts for stand-alone global, probability adjusted, P&L to BofA Merrill Lynch in connection with its analyses and preparation of its fairness opinion. The forecasts for the acquisition scenario for U.S. lesinurad sales were provided to potential acquirors, including AstraZeneca, in connection with the Merger. Neither the forecasts for the stand-alone scenario for U.S. lesinurad sales nor the forecasts for stand-alone global, probability adjusted, P&L were provided or made available to AstraZeneca or any other potential acquiror prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement with Zeneca.

The financial forecasts were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure, however, we have included below a summary of the financial forecasts to provide you access to certain non-public information that was furnished to our board of directors, our financial advisor and third parties in connection with the Merger. The financial forecasts reflect numerous estimates and assumptions made by Ardea's management team with respect to general business and economic conditions and competitive, regulatory and other future events, as well as matters related specifically to Ardea's commercialization of lesinurad, such as product pricing and reimbursement rates, product launch dates, market penetration, market exclusivity, receipt of regulatory approvals for lesinurad both within and outside the U.S., availability of capital to fund product launches and levels of operating expenses, among other things, all of which are difficult to predict and inherently subjective and many of which are beyond our control. Please read the information set forth below under the heading Important Information About the Financial Forecasts.

U.S. Lesinurad Sales Forecasts

Acquisition Scenario U.S. Lesinurad Sales

The projections of U.S. lesinurad sales in an acquisition scenario (the Acquisition Scenario) assume that during the conduct of Phase 3 studies Ardea is acquired by a large-cap global pharmaceutical company with a significant primary care sales force and significantly greater resources and commercial expertise than Ardea. In this sales forecast, we assumed the acquiror would make significant pre-commercial investments in market preparation and would deploy established primary care resources and expertise to achieve the projected U.S. sales levels.

Stand-Alone Scenario U.S. Lesinurad Sales

The projections of U.S. lesinurad sales in a stand-alone scenario through 2029 assume that Ardea continues to operate as an independent company and independently launches and sells lesinurad utilizing a newly built primary care sales force. In this sales forecast, we assumed Ardea would be able to achieve an overall level of sales revenue that is lower than those achieved in the Acquisition Scenario due to the fact that Ardea would be required to build the infrastructure and develop the expertise and resources required to launch a primary care drug and such newly-built capabilities would not be as effective as the established capabilities of a potential acquirer.

Stand-alone Global, Probability Adjusted, P&L

Our management team also prepared a global, probability adjusted, P&L forecast. In this forecast, we assumed that Ardea remains as a stand-alone company, builds a primary care sales force in the U.S. and launches lesinurad in the U.S. For commercialization outside of the U.S., we assumed Ardea partners lesinurad ex-U.S. rights to third parties in exchange for upfront payments, milestones and royalties. This forecast reflects numerous adjustments, including (i) a gross to net discount on sales of 25% to reflect selling discounts, reimbursements, rebates and similar price reductions, (ii) an 80% probability of regulatory approval for lesinurad and 20% for BAY 86-9766, (iii) adjustments for U.S. revenues from sales of lesinurad based on probability of commercial success (<$500mm = 100%, $500mm – $1,000mm = 90%, >$1,000mm – $1,500mm = 80%, >$1,500mm – $2,000mm = 70% and >$2,000mm = 60%), (iv) partnering of lesinurad in the EU with a 20% royalty on net sales, with an upfront payment of $80 million in 2013 and $40 million upon EU regulatory approval in 2014, (v) partnering of lesinurad in Japan with a 15% royalty on net sales, with an upfront payment of $50 million in 2014 and $25 million upon Japanese regulatory approval in 2015, (vi) adjustments for EU/Japan sales of lesinurad from which the royalties to Ardea described in clauses (iv) and (v) of this sentence are derived based on probability of commercial success (<$150mm = 100%, >$150mm – $300mm = 90%, >$300mm – $450mm = 80%, >$450mm – $600mm = 70% and >$600mm = 60%) and (vii) adjustments to reflect operational costs Ardea would incur as a stand-alone company.

Important Information About the Financial Forecasts

While the financial forecasts were prepared in good faith and management believes the assumptions on which the financial forecasts were based were reasonable when made, no assurance can be made regarding future events. Because the forecasts cover multiple years, such information by its nature becomes less reliable with each successive year. The estimates and assumptions underlying the financial forecasts involve judgments with respect to, among other things, future economic, competitive, regulatory, and financial market conditions and future business decisions that may not be realized and that are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive, and regulatory uncertainties and contingencies, including, among others, the risks and uncertainties described under the section entitled Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Ardea's and/or AstraZeneca's control and will be beyond their control following the Merger. There can be no assurance that the underlying assumptions will prove to be accurate or that the forecasted results will be realized, and actual results likely will differ, and may differ materially, from those reflected in the financial forecasts, whether or not the Merger is completed.

The financial forecasts summarized in this section were prepared solely for internal use by us and not with a view toward public disclosure or with a view toward complying with the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial data, published guidelines of the SEC regarding forward-looking statements, or accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. (GAAP). Our senior management believes the forecasts were prepared in good faith and on a reasonable basis based on the best information available to our senior management at the time of their preparation. The financial forecasts, however, are not actual results and should not be relied upon as being necessarily indicative of actual future results, and readers of this proxy statement are cautioned not to place undue reliance on this information. None of the forecasts reflect any synergies or costs related to or that may arise from the Merger.

All of the financial forecasts summarized in this section were prepared by, and are the responsibility of, our senior management, as indicated. Marcum LLP (Marcum), our independent registered public accounting firm, did not provide any assistance in preparing the financial forecasts and has not examined, compiled, or otherwise performed any procedures with respect to the financial forecasts and, accordingly, Marcum has not expressed any opinion or given any other form of assurance with respect thereto and assumes no responsibility for the prospective financial information. The Marcum reports incorporated by reference into this proxy statement relate solely to the historical financial information of Ardea. Such reports do not extend to the financial forecasts and should not be read to do so.

By including in this proxy statement a summary of the financial forecasts, neither we nor any of our representatives has made or makes any representation to any person regarding the ultimate performance of Ardea compared to the information contained in our financial forecasts. We have made no representation to AstraZeneca or Zeneca, in the Merger Agreement or otherwise, concerning the financial forecasts. The financial forecasts summarized in this section were prepared during the periods described above and have not been updated to reflect any changes since the date of this proxy statement or any actual results of our operations. We undertake no obligation, except as required by law, to update or otherwise revise the financial forecasts to reflect circumstances existing since their preparation or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, even in the event that any or all of the underlying assumptions are shown to be in error, or to reflect changes in general economic or industry conditions.

The inclusion of the financial forecasts in this proxy statement should not be regarded as an indication that Ardea, BofA Merrill Lynch or anyone who received the financial forecasts then considered, or now considers, the financial forecasts to be material information of Ardea or a reliable prediction of future events, and the financial forecasts should not be relied upon as such. Ardea views the financial forecasts as non-material because of the inherent risks and uncertainties associated with such long-range financial forecasts.

The foregoing summary of the financial forecasts is not included in this proxy statement in order to induce any stockholder of Ardea to vote in favor of the Merger Proposal or any other proposals to be voted on at the special meeting.

On April 20, 2012, at a meeting of our board of directors held to evaluate the Merger, BofA Merrill Lynch delivered to our board of directors an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, to the effect that, as of April 20, 2012 and based on and subject to various assumptions and limitations described in its opinion, the per share merger consideration of $32.00 to be received by holders of our common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of BofA Merrill Lynch's written opinion to our board of directors, which describes, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety. The following is a summary of the material terms of BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. BofA Merrill Lynch delivered its opinion to our board of directors for the benefit and use of our board of directors in connection with and for purposes of its evaluation of the per share merger consideration of $32.00 from a financial point of view. BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion does not address any other aspect of the Merger and no opinion or view was expressed as to the relative merits of the Merger in comparison to other strategies or transactions that might be available to Ardea or in which we might engage or as to the underlying business decision of Ardea to proceed with or effect the Merger. BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion does not address any other aspect of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how to vote or act in connection with the proposed Merger or any related matter.

In connection with rendering its opinion, BofA Merrill Lynch, among other things:

reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Ardea;

reviewed certain internal financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of Ardea furnished to or discussed with BofA Merrill Lynch by Ardea's management, including certain financial forecasts relating to Ardea prepared by Ardea's management (the "Financial Forecasts");

In arriving at its opinion, BofA Merrill Lynch assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and data publicly available or provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with it and relied upon the assurances of Ardea's management that the management of Ardea was not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information or data inaccurate or misleading in any material respect. assumed, at Ardea's direction, that the Merger would be consummated in accordance with its terms, without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary governmental, regulatory and other approvals, consents, releases and waivers for the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition, including any divestiture requirements or amendments or modifications, would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Ardea or the contemplated benefits of the Merger. BofA Merrill Lynch also assumed, at the direction of Ardea, that the final executed Merger Agreement and Voting Agreements would not differ in any material respect from the drafts reviewed by BofA Merrill Lynch.

BofA Merrill Lynch expressed no view or opinion as to any terms or other aspects of the Merger (other than the per share merger consideration of $32.00 to the extent expressly specified in its opinion), including, without limitation, the form or structure of the Merger. BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion was limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the per share merger consideration of $32.00 to be received by holders of Ardea common stock and no opinion or view was expressed with respect to any consideration received in connection with the Merger by the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of any party. In addition, no opinion or view was expressed with respect to the fairness (financial or otherwise) of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation to any of the officers, directors or employees of any party to the Merger, or class of such persons, relative to the per share merger consideration of $32.00. Furthermore, no opinion or view was expressed as to the relative merits of the Merger in comparison to other strategies or transactions that might be available to Ardea or in which Ardea might engage or as to the underlying business decision of Ardea to proceed with or effect the Merger. In addition, BofA Merrill Lynch expressed no opinion or recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act in connection with the Merger. Except as described above, Ardea imposed no other limitations on the investigations made or procedures followed by BofA Merrill Lynch in rendering its opinion.

BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, monetary, market and other conditions and circumstances as in effect on, and the information made available to BofA Merrill Lynch as of, the date of its opinion. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect the opinion of BofA Merrill Lynch, and BofA Merrill Lynch does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. The issuance of BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion was approved by BofA Merrill Lynch's Americas Fairness Opinion Review Committee.

Ardea Financial Analyses

Implied Illustrative Present Value of Future Stock Price Analysis. BofA Merrill Lynch reviewed, based on publicly available information, the price-to-earnings ratios of selected midcap publicly traded companies in the biopharmaceutical industry, and applied a range of price-to-earnings ratios based on its review of Ardea's estimated fully-taxed diluted EPS, as provided by the stand-alone, global probability-adjusted, P&L prepared by Ardea's management (the "Ardea Forecasts"), in order to derive a range of implied illustrative future stock prices for Ardea's common stock. For the purposes of its analysis, BofA Merrill Lynch reviewed, based on publicly available information, the price-to-earnings ratios of the following selected midcap publicly traded companies in the biopharmaceutical industry:

Acorda Therapeutics, Inc.

Cubist Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

Table of Contents

Jazz Pharmaceuticals Plc

The Medicines Company

Questcor Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

Salix Pharmaceuticals, Ltd.

United Therapeutics Corp.

Vertex Pharmaceuticals Inc.

ViroPharma Inc.

Based on the observed range of estimated 2012 price-to-earnings ratios of the selected publicly traded companies, BofA Merrill Lynch applied illustrative estimated one year forward (2012) price-to-earnings multiples of 14.0x to 18.0x to the fully-taxed diluted EPS estimates of Ardea for each of the fiscal years 2017 and 2018, as provided in the Ardea Forecasts. Based upon these assumptions and discounting the results to present value as of June 30, 2012 using discount rates of 11.0% to 13.0% (Ardea's estimated cost of equity) for illustrative purposes, BofA Merrill Lynch derived implied per share equity reference ranges of approximately (i) $22.25 to $31.00 per share using the fully-taxed diluted EPS estimates for fiscal year 2017 and (ii) $31.00 to $44.00 per share using the fully-taxed diluted EPS estimates for fiscal year 2018, as compared to the per share merger consideration of $32.00.

Analysis of Enterprise Values of Selected Publicly Traded Comparable Companies. BofA Merrill Lynch also reviewed, based on publicly available information, the enterprise values of selected development-stage publicly traded biopharmaceutical companies whose lead product candidates are in Phase 2 development or are in Phase 3 development but have not yet announced Phase 3 data:

Achillion Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

Exelixis, Inc.

Idenix Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

Neurocrine Biosciences, Inc.

Pharmacyclics, Inc.

Rigel Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

BofA Merrill Lynch observed a range of enterprise values for the selected companies as of April 18, 2012 from approximately $293 million to $1.7 billion. Taking this range of enterprise values and adding Ardea's net cash of approximately $253 million and dividing by Ardea's fully diluted outstanding shares, BofA Merrill Lynch derived an implied per share equity reference range of approximately $14.75 to $48.50 per share of Ardea common stock, as compared to the per share merger consideration of $32.00.

Edgar Filing: Ardea Biosciences, Inc./DE - Form DEFM14A

Sum of the Parts Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. BofA Merrill Lynch performed a discounted cash flow analysis to calculate, based on the Ardea Forecasts, the implied present value of the estimated unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that Ardea was estimated to generate for lesinurad from 2012 to 2029 and for BAY86-9766 from 2012 to 2027. BofA Merrill Lynch assumed that there would be no terminal value for either lesinurad or BAY86-9766 at the end of the relevant period. The estimated cash flows were then discounted to present value as of June 30, 2012, using discount rates ranging from 11.0% to 13.0% (the estimated weighted average cost of capital of Ardea). BofA Merrill Lynch then added to the resulting present value range Ardea's net cash of approximately $253 million. This analysis indicated an implied per share equity reference range of approximately $26.25 to $31.00, as compared to the per share merger consideration of $32.00.

BofA Merrill Lynch also performed an analysis to calculate, based on the Ardea Forecasts, the present value of Ardea's federal net operating loss carryforward balance of $227 million as of December 31, 2011, plus anticipated accumulation of future net operating loss carryforwards based on the Ardea Forecasts, assuming a 40% tax rate, a discount rate of 5% to 7% and an annual limitation on usage of Ardea's net operating losses under Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 3.3%. This analysis indicated an implied per share equity value for Ardea's net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $3.50 to $4.00 or, when added to the discounted cash flow value per share for lesinurad and BAY86-9766 of approximately $26.25 to $31.00 described above, an implied per share equity reference range of approximately $29.75 to $35.00, as compared to the per share merger consideration of $32.00.

Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis. BofA Merrill Lynch reviewed, to the extent publicly available, financial information relating to 16 selected transactions, beginning in 2006, each involving a biopharmaceutical company with a lead asset in Phase 3 clinical trials, that BofA Merrill Lynch deemed relevant for its analysis:

Announcement Date	Target	Acquiror

August 2, 2006	Corus Pharma, Inc.	Gilead Sciences, Inc.
June 7, 2006	NeuTec Plc	Novartis AG

BofA Merrill Lynch reviewed the aggregate transaction value, calculated based on the consideration payable in each of the selected transactions inclusive of contingent payments and subtracting net cash of the target company, for each selected transaction. The aggregate transaction values of the top quartile of the selected transactions (consisting of Amgen Inc.'s acquisition of BioVex, Inc., Daiichi-Sankyo Company Ltd.'s acquisition of Plexxikon, Inc., Johnson & Johnson's acquisition of Cougar Biotechnology, Inc. and Endo Pharmaceutical Holdings Inc.'s acquisition of Indevus Pharmaceuticals, Inc., and excluding Gilead Sciences, Inc.'s acquisition of Pharmasset, Inc.) ranged from approximately $676 million to $1 billion. BofA Merrill Lynch divided the range of aggregate transaction values derived from the top quartile of the selected transactions by the number of fully diluted shares of Ardea common stock after adding Ardea's net cash of approximately $253 million. This analysis indicated an implied per share equity reference range of approximately $24.00 to $31.75, as compared to the per share merger consideration of $32.00.

No company, business or transaction used in this analysis is identical or directly comparable to Ardea or the Merger. Accordingly, an evaluation of the results of this analysis is not entirely mathematical. Rather, this analysis involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition or other values of the companies, business segments or transactions to which Ardea and the Merger were compared.

Other Factors. In rendering its opinion, BofA Merrill Lynch also reviewed and considered other factors, including:

the multiples of the aggregate transaction value (after subtracting Ardea's net cash of approximately $253 million) and aggregate offer value payable in the Merger to (i) Ardea's estimated revenue for the years 2014 and 2015 and its estimated EPS for the years 2017 and 2018 based on the Ardea Forecasts and (ii) Ardea's estimated revenue for the years 2014 and 2015 and its estimated EPS for the years 2017 and 2018 based on publicly available equity research reports;

price targets for Ardea common stock in recently published, publicly available Wall Street research analyst reports. BofA Merrill Lynch observed that the implied present value of the research analyst stock price targets, discounted one year using a discount rate equal to 12% (the midpoint of Ardea's estimated cost of equity) ranged from approximately $17.50 to $36.75 per share, as compared to the per share merger consideration of $32.00;

the implied premiums paid in those of the selected precedent transactions (see Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis above) in which the target company was publicly traded (consisting of Gilead Sciences, Inc.'s acquisition of Pharmasset, Inc., Leo Pharma A/S's acquisition of Peplin, Inc., Johnson & Johnson's acquisition of Cougar Biotechnology, Inc., Endo Pharmaceutical Holdings Inc.'s acquisition of Indevus Pharmaceuticals, Inc., ViroPharma Incorporated's acquisition of Lev Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Genzyme Corporation's acquisition of AnorMed Inc. and Novartis AG's acquisition of NeuTec Plc) over the closing price of the common stock of the target company one day and one month prior to the announcement of the transaction. BofA Merrill Lynch observed that the mean and median premiums paid to the closing price of the target's common stock one day prior to the selected transactions were 54.5% and 30.6%, respectively, and that the mean and median premiums paid to the closing price of the target's common stock one month prior to the selected transactions were 68.7% and 77.8%, respectively. Applying a range of premiums from 30% to 70% to the closing price of Ardea's common stock on April 18, 2012 of $20.27, BofA Merrill Lynch derived an implied per share equity reference range of approximately $26.25 to $34.50 per share of Ardea common stock, as compared to the per share merger consideration of $32.00; and the historical trading performance of Ardea's common stock, as reported by FactSet, an online investment research and database service used by financial institutions, over the 52-week period from April 19, 2011 until April 18, 2012. BofA Merrill Lynch observed that the low and high intraday prices for Ardea's common stock over this period ranged from $13.15 to $29.06, as compared to the per share merger consideration of $32.00. BofA Merrill Lynch also reviewed the per share merger consideration of $32.00 in relation to the closing price of Ardea's common stock on April 18, 2012, the price per share of Ardea's common stock in Ardea's February 6, 2012 equity offering and the volume weighted average closing price (VWAP) of Ardea's common stock for the approximate one-month, three-month, six-month and 12-month periods ended April 18, 2012. This review indicated that the per share merger consideration of $32.00 represented a premium to the prices for Ardea's common stock referenced above as set forth in the table below:

Date or Period	Premium
Closing price on April 18, 2012	57.9%
Price of February 6, 2012 equity offering	88.2%
VWAP for the approximate one-month period ended April 18, 2012	49.5%
VWAP for the approximate three-month period ended April 18, 2012	60.7%
VWAP for the approximate six-month period ended April 18, 2012	66.3%
VWAP for the approximate 12-month period ended April 18, 2012	60.8%

Miscellaneous. As noted above, the discussion set forth above is a summary of the material financial analyses presented by BofA Merrill Lynch to the board of directors of Ardea in connection with its opinion and is not a comprehensive description of all analyses undertaken by BofA Merrill Lynch in connection with its opinion. The presentation of a financial opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a financial analysis is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. BofA Merrill Lynch believes that its analyses summarized above must be considered as a whole. BofA Merrill Lynch further believes that selecting portions of its analyses and the factors considered or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying BofA Merrill Lynch's analyses and opinion. The fact that any specific analysis has been referred to in the summary above is not meant to indicate that such analysis was given greater weight than any other analysis referred to in the summary.

In performing its analyses, BofA Merrill Lynch considered industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Ardea and AstraZeneca. The estimates of the future performance of Ardea in or underlying BofA Merrill Lynch's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those estimates or those suggested by BofA Merrill Lynch's analyses. These analyses were prepared solely as part of BofA Merrill Lynch's analysis of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the per share merger consideration of $32.00 and were provided to the board of directors of Ardea in connection with the delivery of BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities have traded or may trade at any time in the future. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the ranges of valuations resulting from, any particular analysis described above are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty and should not be taken to be BofA Merrill Lynch's view of the actual values of Ardea.

The type and amount of consideration payable in the Merger was determined through negotiations between Ardea and AstraZeneca, rather than by any financial advisor, and was approved by the board of directors of Ardea. The decision to enter into the Merger Agreement was solely that of the board of directors of Ardea. As described above, BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion and analyses were only one of many factors considered by the board of directors of Ardea in its evaluation of the Merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the board of directors of Ardea or Ardea's management with respect to the Merger or the per share merger consideration of $32.00.

Ardea has agreed to pay BofA Merrill Lynch for its services in connection with the Merger an aggregate fee currently estimated to be approximately $13 million, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the completion of the Merger. Ardea also has agreed to reimburse BofA Merrill Lynch for its expenses incurred in connection with BofA Merrill Lynch's engagement and to indemnify BofA Merrill Lynch, any controlling person of BofA Merrill Lynch and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents and affiliates against specified liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates comprise a full service securities firm and commercial bank engaged in securities, commodities and derivatives trading, foreign exchange and other brokerage activities, and principal investing, as well as providing investment, corporate and private banking, asset and investment management, financing and financial advisory services, and other commercial services and products to a wide range of companies, governments and individuals. In the ordinary course of its businesses, BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates may invest on a principal basis or on behalf of customers or manage funds that invest, make or hold long or short positions, finance positions or trade or otherwise effect transactions in equity, debt or other securities or financial instruments (including derivatives, bank loans or other obligations) of Ardea, AstraZeneca and certain of their respective affiliates.

BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates in the past have provided, currently are providing and in the future may provide, investment banking, commercial banking and other financial services to Ardea and have received or in the future may receive customary compensation for the rendering of these services, including having acted or acting as joint book-running manager for Ardea's $71.5 million public offering of its common stock in January 2011.

Table of Contents

In addition, BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates in the past have provided, currently are providing and in the future may provide, investment banking, commercial banking and other financial services to AstraZeneca and its affiliates and have received or in the future may receive customary compensation for the rendering of these services, including (i) having acted or acting as lender under certain letters of credit and credit facilities and (ii) having provided or providing certain foreign exchange derivative trading services and certain treasury management services to AstraZeneca.

Interests of the Directors and Executive Officers of Ardea in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors to vote FOR the Merger Proposal, you should be aware that the directors and executive officers of Ardea have interests in the Merger that may be in addition to, or different from, their interests as stockholders. These interests relate to or arise from, among other things:

the accelerated vesting of all Ardea stock options and restricted stock awards, the consideration to be received by certain directors in respect of the cancellation of warrants held by such directors and the consideration to be received by certain executive officers of Ardea in respect of the cancellation of ESPP accounts in connection with the termination of the ESPP, in each case in connection with the completion of the Merger;

severance payments and benefits to which certain executive officers may become entitled in connection with the completion of the Merger pursuant to employment agreements and/or severance plans of Ardea;

a Merger-related cash bonus payment; and the right to continued indemnification and insurance coverage for our directors and executive officers following the completion of the Merger, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Our board of directors was aware of these potential conflicts of interest during its deliberations on the merits of the Merger and when making its decision regarding the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger.

Arrangements with Zeneca

As of the date of this proxy statement, except for the Voting Agreements discussed in the section entitled The Voting Agreements beginning on page 72, none of the executive officers or other key employees of Ardea have entered into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with us or our subsidiary or with Zeneca, Merger Sub or their affiliates, including AstraZeneca, in connection with the Merger or any amendments or modifications to his or her existing employment agreement with Ardea in connection with the Merger, including regarding employment with, or the right to participate in the equity of, the Surviving Corporation or Zeneca on a going-forward basis following the completion of the Merger. No member of our board of directors has entered into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with Zeneca or its affiliates regarding the right to participate in the equity of the Surviving Corporation, Zeneca or AstraZeneca following the completion of the Merger. Subject to the provisions of the Merger Agreement, all equity interests in Ardea held by our directors and executive officers will be converted into the right to receive the payments provided therefor under the Merger Agreement as described in the sections entitled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Stock Options, Restricted Stock Awards and Warrants and The Merger Interests of the Directors and Executive Officers of Ardea in the Merger Termination of the Employee Stock Purchase Plan beginning on pages 57 and 44, respectively.

Treatment of Stock Options, Warrants and Restricted Stock Awards

underlying such option. Each of our directors and officers hold Ardea stock options and will receive the payment described above related to such options.

The terms of the Merger Agreement provide that at the Effective Time, each outstanding Ardea warrant that is canceled in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement as of the Effective Time will be exchanged for an amount in cash, without interest and less the amount of any required tax withholding, equal to the product of the excess of $32.00 over the per share exercise price of such warrants and the number of shares of Ardea common stock underlying such warrants. Dr. Baker and Mr. Tang, each of whom are members of our board of directors, beneficially own fully vested warrants to purchase shares of Ardea common stock and pursuant to the Voting Agreement that Dr. Baker and Mr. Tang entered into with Zeneca on behalf of themselves and certain of their respective affiliates, Dr. Baker and Mr. Tang have consented to the foregoing treatment of the warrants beneficially owned by them and their respective affiliates. No other directors or executive officers of Ardea hold Ardea warrants.

The terms of the Merger Agreement provide that at the Effective Time, each outstanding Ardea restricted stock award will fully vest and be canceled and the holder thereof will be entitled to receive an amount in cash, without interest and less the amount of any required tax withholding, equal to the product of $32.00 and the number of shares of Ardea common stock subject to such restricted stock award. Termination of the Employee Stock Purchase Plan

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, prior to the Effective Time, we will cause the exercise of each outstanding purchase right under the ESPP, and make any pro rata adjustments necessary to reflect the shortened offering period but otherwise cause such shortened offering period to be treated as a fully effective and completed offering period for all purposes under the ESPP. On the fifth business day prior to the completion of the Merger, we will apply the funds credited as of such date under the ESPP within each participant's payroll withholding account

Employment Agreements

Barry D. Quart, Pharm. D. We entered into an amended and restated employment agreement with Dr. Barry Quart, our President and Chief Executive Officer and member of our board of directors, effective November 7, 2008. Dr. Quart's employment agreement provides that if we terminate Dr. Quart's employment without cause or he resigns for good reason (as both terms are defined in his employment agreement), in either case, within three months before or within 12 months following a change in control, Dr. Quart will be entitled to (i) a lump sum severance payment equal to 18 months base salary, payable within 10 days of delivery of a release agreement, (ii) a payment equal to the greater of Dr. Quart's target bonus payment for (a) the year in which he is terminated or (b) the bonus payment earned by Dr. Quart for the year preceding the year in which his termination occurs, in each case payable in a lump sum within 10 days of delivery of the release agreement and (iii) payment for continuation of health care benefits for a period equal to the shorter of 18 months after termination of employment or such time as Dr. Quart obtains insurance benefits from a subsequent employer.

Other Employment Agreements. Ardea is a party to employment agreements with each of Ms. Kimberly J. Manhard, its Senior Vice President, Regulatory Affairs & Development Operations, Mr. John W. Beck, its Senior Vice President, Finance & Operations, Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Stephen R. Davis, its Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer, and Dr. David T. Hagerty, its Senior Vice President, Chief Medical Officer. The employment agreements with the foregoing executives do not provide for severance or change in control benefits. However, such executives are participants in Ardea's Amended and Restated Senior Executive Severance Benefit Plan (the "Severance Plan"), as more fully described below.

Table of ContentsSeverance Arrangements

Ms. Manhard, Messrs. Beck and Davis and Dr. Hagerty are participants in the Severance Plan. The Severance Plan provides that if the executive is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason (as both terms are defined in the Severance Plan), in either case, three months before or within 12 months following a change in control, the executive will be entitled to (i) a lump sum severance payment equal to 12 months base salary, payable within 10 days of delivery of a release agreement, and (ii) a payment equal to the greater of (a) executive's target bonus payment for the year in which the executive's termination occurs or (b) the bonus payment earned by the executive for the year preceding the year in which the executive's termination occurs, in each case payable in a lump sum within 10 days of delivery of the release agreement. In case of a termination without cause or resignation for good reason, whether or not in connection with a change in control, the executive will also be entitled to receive payment for certain health care benefits for a period equal to the shorter of 12 months after termination of employment or such time as the executive obtains insurance benefits from a subsequent employer.

Bonus Payments

In early 2012, the compensation committee of our board of directors approved the 2012 Bonus Plan for our management team, including our named executive officers. Under this plan, each participant was assigned an incentive target that was expressed as a percentage of annual base salary (such percentage, the 2012 Bonus Percentage). The participant's incentive award was based on the achievement of pre-established corporate goals and, for each participant other than Dr. Quart, individual level of performance and contribution, as determined by the compensation committee with input from Dr. Quart. Because of Dr. Quart's overall responsibility and oversight of company-wide functions as Chief Executive Officer, his award is determined solely upon the achievement of corporate goals. In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, our board of directors approved the payment of an additional bonus amount equal to each executive officer's 2012 Bonus Percentage (each, a Merger Bonus). The following table sets forth for each of the executive officers listed (i) the base salary, (ii) the 2012 Bonus Percentage, (iii) the Merger Bonus percentage and (iv) the Merger Bonus amount.

Merger-Related Compensation for Named Executive Officers

The following table sets forth the information required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K regarding the amount of payments and benefits that may be paid or become payable to Ardea's named executive officers in connection with the Merger. Such payments and benefits require an advisory, non-binding vote of the stockholders of Ardea, as described under Proposal 2 Advisory, Non-Binding Vote on the Merger-Related Compensation. The information set forth in the table below is based on the following assumptions:

the Merger was completed on April 30, 2012; and the employment of each named executive officer was terminated on April 30, 2012 by the Surviving Corporation without cause or by the named executive officer for good reason.

For Dr. Quart, the cash severance consists of a lump sum cash payment equal to 18 months base salary and his target bonus for 2012. For Messrs. Beck and Davis and Dr. Hagerty, the cash severance consists of a lump sum cash payment equal to 12 months base salary and their target bonus for 2012. The Merger Bonus, which was approved by the board of directors of Ardea, is payable upon a single trigger (that is, the bonus will be paid upon completion of the Merger without regard to the occurrence of prior or subsequent events).
- (3) Includes the consideration set forth above with respect to the aggregate amounts payable for stock options and restricted stock awards, and also includes consideration payable in respect of the cancellation of accounts under the ESPP. Assuming the Merger was completed on April 30, 2012 and the funds in the ESPP accounts were applied to the purchase of shares of Ardea common stock on April 23, 2012 (the fifth business day prior to April 30, 2012 and, as such, the date on which such funds are to be applied in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement), the consideration for cancellation of accounts for Dr. Quart, Mr. Davis and Ms. Manhard under the ESPP is based on a purchase price under the ESPP of $16.31 (85% of the fair market value (determined in accordance with the terms of the ESPP) of Ardea's common stock on November 15, 2011, the first day of the most recent two-year offering period), without interest and less the amount of any required tax withholding. - (5) Amount represents the estimated cost for the continuation of healthcare coverage for 18 months in the case of Dr. Quart and 12 months for all other named executive officers. Amount is payable upon a double trigger (that is, similar to the severance payments noted above, the amount is payable only if, in addition to the occurrence of the Merger, the executive is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason within 3 months before or 12 months after the completion of the Merger).

Edgar Filing: Ardea Biosciences, Inc./DE - Form DEFM14A

The Merger Agreement also provides that, prior to the Effective Time, Ardea will purchase and maintain for a period of six years following the completion of the Merger, a directors and officers liability tail insurance policy covering past and present directors and officers of the Acquired Corporations for events occurring prior to the completion of the Merger. Such policy must contain terms no less advantageous to the indemnified persons than the policies maintained by Ardea as of April 21, 2012.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

Under the HSR Act and the rules promulgated thereunder, the Merger may not be completed until notifications have been given and information furnished to the FTC and to the Antitrust Division and the specified waiting period has been terminated or has expired. Ardea and Zeneca each filed notification and report forms under the HSR Act with the FTC and the Antitrust Division on May 3, 2012. As a result, the waiting period applicable to the Merger is scheduled to expire at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on June 4, 2012. However, prior to such time, the FTC or the Antitrust Division may extend the waiting period by requesting additional information or documentary material relevant to the Merger from Ardea and Zeneca. If such a request is made, the waiting period will be extended until 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the 30th day after substantial compliance by both Ardea and Zeneca with such request, or on the next business day following that date if the 30th day would fall on a weekend or federal holiday. Thereafter, such waiting period can be extended only by court order.

At any time before or after the completion of the Merger, the FTC or the Antitrust Division could take any action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the completion of the Merger or seeking divestiture of substantial assets of Ardea and Zeneca. The Merger also is subject to review under state antitrust laws and could be the subject of challenges by states or private parties under applicable antitrust laws. Neither Ardea nor Zeneca is aware of any foreign antitrust filings or approvals of foreign government agencies that are required to complete the Merger.

Appraisal Rights

If the Merger is completed, stockholders of Ardea will be entitled to appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL (Section 262), provided that they comply with the conditions established by Section 262.

This section is intended to provide a brief summary of the material provisions of the Delaware statutory procedures that a stockholder must follow in order to seek and perfect appraisal rights. However, this summary is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements, and it is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the relevant provisions of the DGCL, which are attached to this proxy statement as Annex D. The following summary does not constitute any legal or other advice, nor does it constitute a recommendation that stockholders exercise their appraisal rights under Section 262. Failure to follow precisely any of the statutory procedures set forth in Section 262 may result in a termination or waiver of appraisal rights.

A record holder of shares of Ardea common stock who makes the demand described below with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the Effective Time, who submits a written demand for appraisal to Ardea in compliance with the statutory requirements of Section 262, and who does not submit a proxy or vote in favor of the Merger Proposal or consent thereto in writing will be entitled to an appraisal by the Delaware Court of Chancery (the Delaware Court) of the fair value of his, her or its shares of Ardea common stock in lieu of the consideration that such stockholder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to the Merger Agreement. All references in this summary of appraisal rights to a stockholder or holders of shares of Ardea common stock are to the record holder or holders of shares of Ardea common stock.

Under Section 262, because the Merger Agreement is to be submitted for adoption at the special meeting, not fewer than 20 days prior to the meeting, Ardea must notify each of the holders of its stock for whom appraisal rights are available that such appraisal rights are available and include in such notice a copy of Section 262. This proxy statement shall constitute such notice to the record holders of Ardea common stock and a copy of Section 262 is attached to this proxy statement as Annex D.

Stockholders who desire to exercise their appraisal rights must satisfy all of the conditions of Section 262. Those conditions include the following:

Stockholders electing to exercise appraisal rights must not submit a proxy or vote for the Merger Proposal. Submitting a proxy or voting for the Merger Proposal will result in the waiver of appraisal rights.

Table of Contents

Also, because a submitted proxy not marked against or abstain will be voted for the Merger Proposal, the submission of a proxy not marked against or abstain will result in the waiver of appraisal rights.

A written demand for appraisal of shares of Ardea common stock must be delivered to Ardea before the taking of the vote on the Merger Proposal at the special meeting. The written demand for appraisal should reasonably inform Ardea of the stockholder's identity and specify that such stockholder is thereby demanding appraisal of his or her shares of Ardea common stock. The written demand for appraisal of shares of Ardea common stock is in addition to and separate from a vote against the Merger Proposal or an abstention from such vote. Failure to return your proxy, voting against, or abstaining from voting on, the Merger Proposal will not satisfy your obligation to make a written demand for appraisal. Failure to make a written demand for appraisal prior to the taking of the vote on the Merger Proposal at the special meeting will constitute a waiver of appraisal rights.

A demand for appraisal must be executed by or for the stockholder of record, fully and correctly, as such stockholder's name appears on the stock certificate. If the shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, this demand must be executed by or for the fiduciary. If the shares of Ardea common stock are owned by or for more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, such demand must be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record. However, the agent must identify such record holder and expressly disclose the fact that, in exercising the demand, he or she is acting as agent for such record holder. A person having a beneficial interest in Ardea common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized below in a timely manner to perfect appraisal rights on behalf of the beneficial owner.

A stockholder who elects to exercise appraisal rights should mail or deliver his, her or its written demand to Ardea Biosciences, Inc., 4939 Directors Place, San Diego, California 92121, Attention: Corporate Secretary.

Within 10 days after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation must provide notice of the Effective Time to all stockholders who have complied with Section 262 and have not voted in favor of the Merger Proposal.

Within 120 days after the Effective Time, either the Surviving Corporation or any stockholder who has complied with the required conditions of Section 262 may file a petition in the Delaware Court, with a copy served on the Surviving Corporation in the case of a petition filed by a stockholder, demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares of Ardea common stock held by all stockholders seeking to exercise appraisal rights. There is no present intent on the part of Ardea to file an appraisal petition, and stockholders seeking to exercise appraisal rights should not assume that the Surviving Corporation will file such a petition or that Ardea or the Surviving Corporation will initiate any negotiations with respect to the fair value of such shares. Accordingly, stockholders who desire to have their shares of Ardea common stock appraised should initiate any petitions necessary for the perfection of their appraisal rights within the time periods and in the manner prescribed in Section 262. Failure to file a petition for appraisal within the time period specified in Section 262 could result in a loss of appraisal rights.

Within 120 days after the Effective Time, any stockholder who has satisfied the requirements of Section 262 will be entitled, upon written request, to receive from Ardea a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares of Ardea common stock not voting in favor of the Merger Proposal and with respect to which demands for appraisal were received by Ardea and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such statement must be mailed within 10 days after the stockholder's request has been received by the Surviving Corporation or within 10 days after the expiration of the period for the delivery of demands as described above, whichever is later.

If a petition for an appraisal is timely filed and a copy thereof is served upon the Surviving Corporation, the Surviving Corporation will then be obligated, within 20 days after such service, to file in the office of the Register in Chancery (the Register) a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares of Ardea common stock and with whom agreements as to the value of such shares have not been reached. Upon notice to the stockholders, as required by the Delaware Court, at a hearing on such petition, the Delaware Court will determine which stockholders are entitled to appraisal.

rights. The Delaware Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares of Ardea common stock and who hold such stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Delaware Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder. Where proceedings are not dismissed, the Delaware Court will appraise the shares of Ardea common stock owned by such stockholders, determining the fair value of such shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the Merger. When the fair value has been determined, the Delaware Court will direct the payment of such value upon surrender by those stockholders of the certificates representing their shares of Ardea common stock. Unless the Delaware Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the Effective Time through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the Effective Time and the date of payment of the judgment.

Although our board of directors believes that the Merger Consideration is fair, no representation is made as to the outcome of the appraisal of fair value as would be determined by the Delaware Court, and stockholders should recognize that such an appraisal could result in a determination of a value higher or lower than, or the same as, the consideration they would receive pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Moreover, Ardea does not anticipate offering more than the Merger Consideration to any stockholder exercising appraisal rights and reserves the right to assert, in any appraisal proceeding, that, for purposes of Section 262, the fair value of a share of Ardea common stock is less than the Merger Consideration. In determining fair value, the Delaware Court is required to take into account all relevant factors. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court discussed the factors that could be considered in determining fair value in an appraisal proceeding, stating that proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered and that fair price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of a company. The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that in making this determination of fair value, the court must consider market value, asset value, dividends, earnings prospects, the nature of the enterprise and any other facts which could be ascertained as of the date of the merger which shed any light on the future prospects of the merged corporation. Section 262 provides that fair value is to be exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger. In Cede & Co. v. Technicolor, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court stated that such exclusion is a narrow exclusion that does not encompass known elements of value, but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. In Weinberger, the Delaware Supreme Court also stated that elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered. In addition, Delaware courts have decided that the statutory appraisal remedy, depending on factual circumstances, may or may not be a dissenting stockholder's exclusive remedy.

The cost of the appraisal proceeding, which does not include attorneys' or experts' fees, may be determined by the Delaware Court and imposed upon the dissenting stockholder(s) and/or the Surviving Corporation as the Delaware Court deems equitable under the circumstances. Each dissenting stockholder is responsible for his or her attorneys' and expert witness fees and expenses, although, upon application of a dissenting stockholder, the Delaware Court may order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any dissenting stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, be charged pro rata against the value of all shares of Ardea common stock entitled to appraisal.

Any stockholder who has duly demanded appraisal in compliance with Section 262 will not, after the Effective Time, be entitled to vote for any purpose any shares of Ardea common stock subject to such demand or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on such shares, except for dividends or distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date prior to the Effective Time.

At any time within 60 days after the Effective Time, any stockholder will have the right to withdraw his, her or its demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered in the Merger Agreement. After this period, a stockholder may withdraw his, her or its demand for appraisal and receive payment for his, her or its shares as provided in the Merger Agreement only with the consent of the Surviving Corporation. If no petition for appraisal is filed with the Delaware Court within 120 days after the Effective Time, or if any stockholder otherwise fails to perfect, successfully withdraws, or loses such holder's appraisal rights, then such stockholder's right to appraisal will cease and such stockholder's shares of Ardea common stock will be deemed to have been converted at the Effective Time into the right to receive the consideration that such stockholder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to the Merger Agreement. In as much as neither Ardea nor the Surviving Corporation has any obligation to file such a petition, any stockholder who desires a petition to be filed is advised to file it on a timely basis. Any stockholder may withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal by delivering to Ardea a written withdrawal of his, her or its demand for appraisal and acceptance of the Merger Consideration, except that (i) any such attempt to withdraw made more than 60 days after the Effective Time will require written approval of the Surviving Corporation and (ii) no appraisal proceeding in the Delaware Court shall be dismissed as to any stockholder who commenced or joined such proceeding as a named party without the approval of the Delaware Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Delaware Court deems just.

Failure by any stockholder to comply fully with the procedures described above and set forth in Section 262 may result in the loss of such stockholder's appraisal rights. In view of the complexity of exercising appraisal rights under the DGCL, any stockholder considering exercising these rights should consult with legal counsel.

Delisting and Deregistration of Ardea Common Stock

If the Merger is completed, our common stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ Global Select Market and there will no longer be a trading market for such stock. In addition, our common stock will be deregistered under the Exchange Act, and we will no longer file periodic reports with the SEC.

Legal Proceedings Related to the Merger

A putative class action lawsuit has been filed by a purported stockholder of Ardea against AstraZeneca, Ardea, the members of the board of directors of Ardea and certain executive officers of Ardea challenging the proposed Merger and seeking, among other things, to enjoin the defendants from completing the Merger pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement. If the plaintiffs are successful in obtaining an injunction prohibiting the parties from completing the Merger pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, such an injunction may prevent the completion of the Merger in the expected timeframe (or altogether).

The putative class action lawsuit was filed in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Diego, purportedly on behalf of the stockholders of Ardea, against AstraZeneca, Ardea and the directors and President and Chief Executive Officer of Ardea alleging, among other things, that our directors breached their fiduciary duties to the stockholders of Ardea in connection with the proposed Merger and that AstraZeneca aided and abetted this alleged breach of fiduciary duties. The complaint seeks, among other things, to enjoin the defendants from completing the Merger pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement and recovery of attorney's fees and costs of same.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following is a general discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to holders of Ardea common stock. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the U.S. Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder and judicial and administrative authorities, rulings and decisions, all as in effect as of the date hereof. These authorities may change, possibly with retroactive effect, and any such change could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth in this discussion. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, and any state, local or foreign tax consequences, nor does it address any U.S. federal tax considerations other than those pertaining to the U.S. federal income tax.

The following discussion applies only to holders of Ardea common stock who hold such shares as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). Further, this discussion does not purport to consider all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that might be relevant to holders in light of their particular circumstances and does not apply to holders subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, including without limitation:

dealers, brokers, or traders in securities, commodities, or foreign currencies;

financial institutions, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, or insurance companies;

mutual funds or tax-exempt organizations;

holders liable for the alternative minimum tax;

controlled foreign corporations or passive foreign investment companies;

certain former citizens or residents of the United States;

holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;

holders who hold shares of Ardea common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction or other integrated investment; or holders who acquired Ardea common stock pursuant to the exercise of employee stock options, through a tax qualified retirement plan or otherwise as compensation.

As used herein, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of shares of Ardea common stock that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (or any other entity or arrangement treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

a trust if (i) a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more U.S. persons are authorized to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (ii) it has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source.

As used herein, the term "non-U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of shares of Ardea common stock (other than an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) that is not a U.S. holder.

If an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds shares of Ardea common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding Ardea common stock, you should consult your own tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to you.

Table of Contents

Holders of Ardea common stock are urged to consult their own tax advisors with respect to the application of the U.S. federal income tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the U.S. federal non-income tax laws or under the laws of any state, local or foreign taxing jurisdiction or under any applicable tax treaty.

U.S. Holders

The receipt of cash by a U.S. holder in exchange for Ardea common stock pursuant to the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, such U.S. holder's gain or loss will be equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received (determined before the deduction of any applicable withholding taxes) and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares surrendered pursuant to the Merger. Gain or loss recognized by a U.S. holder will be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, at the time of consummation of the Merger, the U.S. holder held the shares for more than one year. For non-corporate taxpayers, long-term capital gains are generally taxable at a reduced rate. Deduction of capital losses may be subject to certain limitations.

Non-U.S. Holders

A non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax or withholding tax on gain recognized pursuant to the Merger unless any of the following circumstances exist:

The non-U.S. holder is an individual who was present in the U.S. for 183 days or more during the taxable year of the Merger and certain other conditions are met, in which case the non-U.S. holder will be subject to tax at a rate of 30% (or at a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty) on the amount by which capital gains allocable to U.S. sources exceed capital losses allocable to U.S. sources.

The gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business by the non-U.S. holder and, if required by a tax treaty, the gain is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained in the U.S. by the non-U.S. holder, in which case the holder will be subject to the same treatment as U.S. holders with respect to such gain.

We are or have been a U.S. real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes during the shorter of the non-U.S. holder's holding period or the 5-year period preceding the Merger, as the case may be. We believe that we are not and have not been a U.S. real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Additionally, non-U.S. holders that are corporations could be subject to a branch profits tax with respect to such gain, which generally is imposed on a foreign corporation on the deemed repatriation from the U.S. of effectively connected earnings and profits, at a rate of 30% (or at a reduced rate under an applicable tax treaty).

Treatment of Stockholders Who Exercise Appraisal Rights

Generally, an Ardea stockholder who perfects appraisal rights and receives cash in exchange for such stockholder's shares of Ardea common stock will recognize capital gain or loss measured by the difference between the amount of cash received and such stockholder's adjusted tax basis in those shares. Such gain or loss will generally be long-term capital gain or loss, provided the shares of Ardea common stock were held for more than one year before the disposition of the shares. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

A stockholder of Ardea may be subject to backup withholding at the applicable rate (currently 28%) on the cash payments to which such stockholder is entitled pursuant to the Merger, unless the stockholder properly establishes an exemption or provides a taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with the backup withholding rules. Each stockholder of Ardea should complete and sign the IRS Form W-9 included as part of the letter of transmittal and return it to the paying agent, in order to provide the information and certification necessary to avoid backup withholding, unless an applicable exemption applies and is established in a manner satisfactory to the paying agent. In addition, certain foreign persons, such as certain nonresident aliens, may establish an exemption from, or a reduced rate of, backup withholding by delivering the applicable IRS Form W-8BEN, certifying such person's non-U.S. status. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules generally will be allowable as a refund against a stockholder's U.S. federal income tax liability provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the Merger Agreement but does not purport to describe all of the terms of the Merger Agreement. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. This summary may not contain all of the information about the Merger Agreement that is important to you. You should refer to the full text of the Merger Agreement for details of the transaction and the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement.

Additionally, the representations, warranties and covenants described in this summary and contained in the Merger Agreement have been made only for the purpose of the Merger Agreement and, as such, are intended solely for the benefit of Ardea, Zeneca and Merger Sub. In many cases, these representations, warranties and covenants are subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties and are qualified by certain disclosures exchanged by the parties in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement. Furthermore, many of the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are the result of a negotiated allocation of contractual risk among the parties and, taken in isolation, do not necessarily reflect facts about Ardea or Zeneca, their respective subsidiaries and affiliates or any other party. Likewise, any references to materiality contained in the representations and warranties may not correspond to concepts of materiality applicable to investors or stockholders. Finally, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the Merger Agreement or may change in the future, and these changes may not be fully reflected in the public disclosures made by Ardea and/or Zeneca. As a result of the foregoing, you are strongly encouraged not to rely on the representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement, or any descriptions thereof, as accurate characterizations of the state of facts or condition of Ardea, Zeneca or any other party. You are likewise cautioned that you are not a third-party beneficiary under the Merger Agreement and do not have any direct rights or remedies pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

Terms of the Merger

The Merger Agreement provides that, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and in accordance with the DGCL, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of Zeneca, will merge with and into Ardea. Upon completion of the Merger, Ardea will continue as the Surviving Corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Zeneca.

Completion of the Merger

The completion of the Merger will take place no later than the second business day after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the completion of the Merger contained in the Merger Agreement, other than those conditions which by their terms can be satisfied only as of the completion of the Merger, or on such other day as Ardea and Zeneca may mutually agree. For a more complete discussion of the conditions to the completion of the Merger, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Conditions to the Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 69.

On the closing date of the Merger, the parties will file a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. The completion of the Merger will become effective at the time the parties file the certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or on such later date as Ardea and Zeneca may mutually agree and set forth in the certificate of merger. Because the completion of the Merger is subject to the satisfaction of conditions other than the filing of the certificate of merger, Ardea and Zeneca cannot predict the exact time at which the Merger will become effective.

Merger Consideration

At the Effective Time, each then-outstanding share of Ardea common stock (other than shares held by Ardea, Zeneca or any of their respective wholly owned subsidiaries, which will be canceled upon completion of the Merger, and shares held by holders that properly demand appraisal rights in accordance with the DGCL) will be automatically converted into the right to receive $32.00 in cash, without interest.

Table of Contents

Treatment of Stock Options, Restricted Stock Awards and Warrants

Stock Options

The Merger Agreement provides that each Ardea stock option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time will fully vest and become exercisable. At the Effective Time, each unexercised Ardea stock option then outstanding will be canceled and the former holder of such option will be entitled to receive an amount in cash, without interest and less the amount of any required tax withholding, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of $32.00 over the exercise price of such option and (ii) the number of shares of Ardea common stock underlying such option.

Restricted Stock Awards

The Merger Agreement provides that each Ardea restricted stock award that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time will fully vest. At the Effective Time, each Ardea restricted stock award will be canceled and the former holder of such restricted stock award will be entitled to receive an amount in cash, without interest and less the amount of any required tax withholding, equal to the product of (i) $32.00 and (ii) the number of shares of Ardea common stock subject to such restricted stock award.

Payments in Respect of Stock Options and Restricted Stock Awards

The Merger Agreement provides that, as promptly as practicable following the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation will pay through its payroll processor to each holder of Ardea stock options and Ardea restricted stock awards the consideration payable in respect thereof, as described above. The Surviving Corporation will use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its payroll processor to make such payments within five business days following the Effective Time.

Warrants

The Merger Agreement provides that each Ardea warrant that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time and that the holder thereof has elected to have canceled in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement will fully vest and become exercisable. At the Effective Time, each unexercised Ardea warrant then outstanding and for which the holder has consented to the treatment set forth in the Merger Agreement (each, a Canceled Warrant) will be canceled and the former holder of such Canceled Warrant will be entitled to receive an amount in cash, without interest and less the amount of any applicable withholding taxes, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of $32.00 over the exercise price of such Canceled Warrant and (ii) the number of shares of Ardea common stock underlying such Canceled Warrant (the Warrant Consideration).

Exchange of Ardea Stock Certificates, Book-Entry Shares and Warrants

At or prior to the completion of the Merger, Zeneca will enter into an agreement with Computershare Trust Company, N.A., who will act as the payment agent for payment of the Merger Consideration to the holders of Ardea common stock and payment of the Warrant Consideration to the holders of Canceled Warrants. At or prior to the Effective Time, Zeneca will deposit with the payment agent cash sufficient to pay the Merger Consideration and Warrant Consideration.

The Merger Agreement provides that, within five business days following the Effective Time, the payment agent will mail to each stockholder of record or holder of Ardea warrants a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in surrendering all shares of Ardea common stock, whether represented by stock certificates or Book-Entry Shares or Canceled Warrants for the applicable portion of the Merger Consideration or Warrant Consideration, as applicable. The Merger Agreement provides that upon surrender to the payment agent of an Ardea stock certificate, Book-Entry Share or Canceled Warrant, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal and other documents reasonably requested by the payment agent or Zeneca, a holder of shares of Ardea common stock or Canceled Warrants will be entitled to receive the applicable portion of the Merger Consideration or Warrant Consideration, as applicable, and the surrendered Ardea stock certificate, Book-Entry Share or Canceled Warrant will be canceled. Zeneca, the Surviving Corporation and the payment agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration or Warrant Consideration payable to each holder of any Ardea stock certificate, Book-Entry Share or Canceled Warrant, as applicable, such amounts as are required to be deducted or withheld under the Code or any other applicable law.

If any Ardea stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the applicable stockholder may, as a condition to receiving the applicable portion of Merger Consideration payable in respect of the shares previously represented by such certificate, be required to make an affidavit of the loss, theft or destruction and post a bond in a reasonable amount as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Zeneca, the Surviving Corporation or the payment agent with respect to such certificate, in each case in the discretion of Zeneca or the payment agent.

From and after the Effective Time, until it is properly surrendered, each Ardea stock certificate, Book-Entry Share and Canceled Warrant (other than certificates or Book-Entry Shares that represent shares for which the holder has properly made a demand for appraisal under Section 262 that has not subsequently been lost) will represent only the right to receive the applicable portion of the Merger Consideration or the Warrant Consideration, as applicable. In addition, the transfer books of Ardea will close upon completion of the Merger and no shares of Ardea common stock will thereafter be registered or transferred on Ardea's transfer books.

Ardea stock certificates, Book-Entry Shares and Canceled Warrants should not be surrendered for exchange by stockholders prior to the completion of the Merger and should be sent only pursuant to the instructions set forth in the letters of transmittal which the Merger Agreement provides will be mailed to stockholders promptly following the completion of the Merger. In all cases, the Merger Consideration and the Warrant Consideration will be delivered only in accordance with the procedures set forth in the letter of transmittal.

After the date that is nine months following the date of the completion of the Merger, any Merger Consideration or Warrant Consideration (including all interest and other income received by the payment agent in respect of all funds made available to it) remaining in the payment fund established by Zeneca with the payment agent will be delivered to Zeneca upon demand, and any holders of Ardea stock certificates, Book-Entry Shares or Canceled Warrants who have not complied with the applicable provisions for payment summarized above will be entitled to receive payment of the applicable portion of the Merger Consideration or Warrant Consideration, as applicable, only from Zeneca. Neither Zeneca nor the Surviving Corporation will be liable to any holder of Ardea stock certificates, Book-Entry Shares or Canceled Warrants or to any other person or entity for any Merger Consideration or Warrant Consideration delivered to any public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

Representations and Warranties

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties made by Ardea to Zeneca and Merger Sub. Specifically, the representations and warranties of Ardea regarding it and its subsidiary in the Merger Agreement (many of which are qualified by concepts of knowledge, materiality and/or dollar thresholds and are further modified and limited by confidential disclosure schedules delivered by Ardea to Zeneca and Merger Sub, as may or may not be specifically indicated in the text of the Merger Agreement) relate to the following subject matters, among other things:

Material Adverse Effect

Several of the representations, warranties, covenants and closing conditions contained in the Merger Agreement refer to the concept of Company Material Adverse Effect. For purposes of the Merger Agreement, a Company Material Adverse Effect means any effect, change, event, circumstance or development that:

has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, assets, liabilities, operations, financial condition or financial performance of Ardea and its subsidiary, taken as a whole; or materially impacts, delays or prevents the completion of the Merger or the ability of Ardea to perform any of its obligations or covenants under the Merger Agreement.

However, except to the extent set forth below, no effect, change, event, circumstance or development with respect to or resulting from the following, alone or in combination, will be deemed to constitute a Company Material Adverse Effect:

changes in the U.S. or global economy or capital markets in general;

changes that affect generally the industries or markets in which Ardea and its subsidiary are involved;

changes in applicable laws, including the rules, regulations and administrative policies of the FDA or the European Medicines Agency, or in GAAP or interpretations of any of the foregoing;

changes in the market price or trading volume of Ardea common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market or failure(s) by Ardea to meet any budgets, operating projections or forecasts, or published revenue or earnings predictions (although any occurrence or state of facts that may have caused or contributed to such changes or failure(s) may be taken into consideration when determining whether a Company Material Adverse Effect has occurred);

any act or threat of terrorism or war, any armed hostilities or terrorist activities, any threat or escalation of armed hostilities or terrorist activities or any governmental response or reaction to any of the foregoing;

earthquakes, hurricanes, floods, tsunamis or other natural disasters;

any legal proceedings against Ardea by its stockholders challenging or seeking to restrain or prohibit the completion of the Merger;

changes as a result of any action taken by Ardea or any failure of Ardea to take action, in each case, at the direction of Zeneca;

subject to certain exceptions, events attributable to the announcement or performance of the Merger Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or the pendency of the Merger (including the loss or departure of officers or other employees of Ardea and its subsidiary, or the termination, reduction (or potential reduction) or any other negative effect (or potential negative effect) on Ardea's or its subsidiary's relationships or agreements with any of their licensors, licensees, strategic partners, suppliers or other business partners); or any change that Ardea can demonstrate resulted from Zeneca unreasonably withholding its consent to any action requiring Zeneca's consent with respect to the negative covenants discussed in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Certain Covenants of Ardea" beginning on page 61.

In the case of the first, second, third, fifth and sixth clauses in the immediately preceding list, such effects, changes, events, circumstances or developments may be deemed to constitute a Company Material Adverse Effect to the extent they have a disproportionate effect on Ardea and its subsidiary, taken as a whole, relative to other companies in Ardea's industry, but only the incremental and disproportionate effect on Ardea and its subsidiary, taken as a whole, relative to such other companies will be taken into account in determining whether there has been a Company Material Adverse Effect.

Certain Covenants of Ardea permit Zeneca's officers and other employees to meet with the chief financial officer and other officers and managers of Ardea responsible for Ardea's financial statements and the internal controls of Ardea and its subsidiary to discuss such matters as Zeneca may reasonably deem necessary or appropriate in order to enable it to satisfy its obligations under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules and regulations relating thereto or otherwise in connection with the Merger, subject to certain exceptions related to confidentiality obligations, compliance with applicable law and the attorney-client privilege.

Employee Matters

Zeneca has undertaken certain covenants in the Merger Agreement relating to the treatment of employees who are actively employed by Ardea at the Effective Time (Covered Employees). In general, Zeneca has agreed, among other things, to, and to cause the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries to:

for a period of one year following the completion of the Merger, provide to each Covered Employee an annual base salary or hourly rate of pay no less than that received from Ardea immediately prior to the completion of the Merger and an annual cash bonus opportunity at least substantially comparable to that offered by Ardea at target amounts no less favorable than those in effect for such employee during 2012, with payment based on achievement of performance criteria determined by Zeneca and applicable generally to similarly situated employees of Zeneca, and maintain employee benefit plans, programs, policies and arrangements for Covered Employees that are substantially similar in the aggregate to Ardea employee plans identified to Zeneca by Ardea (other than the foregoing bonus arrangements, equity compensation and other long-term incentives, change in control, retention, transition, stay or similar arrangements) in effect immediately prior to the completion of the Merger;

waive any pre-existing condition exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to Covered Employees under any Zeneca employee plan providing medical, dental or vision benefits to the same extent it would have been waived or satisfied under the applicable Ardea employee plan and provide each Covered Employee with credit for any co-payments and deductibles paid prior to such employee's coverage under any Zeneca employee plan during the calendar year in which such amount was paid, to the same extent such credit was given under the applicable Ardea employee plan, in satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under the Zeneca employee plan; and recognize all service of each Covered Employee to Ardea or its subsidiary prior to the completion of the Merger for vesting and eligibility purposes (but not for benefit accrual purposes, except for vacation and severance, as applicable).

Additional Covenants of the Parties

The Merger Agreement contains additional covenants undertaken by each of Ardea and Zeneca relating to actions taken prior to the completion of the Merger or the earlier termination of the Merger Agreement. In general, each of Ardea and Zeneca has agreed, among other things, to, and to cause its subsidiaries to (subject in some cases to exceptions specified in the Merger Agreement or set forth in the confidential disclosure schedules delivered by Ardea to Zeneca and Merger Sub):

in the case of Ardea, promptly provide Zeneca, Merger Sub and their counsel with any comments or communications received from the SEC with respect to this proxy statement and respond as promptly as practicable to any comments of the SEC with respect to this proxy statement; competition, trade regulation or other applicable laws relating to the Merger, cooperate and coordinate with the other party with respect to any such filings or submissions or any investigations by any governmental body, promptly supply any additional information requested by a governmental body and take all other actions reasonably necessary to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act;

use reasonable best efforts to take all actions reasonably necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including obtaining all necessary actions or non-actions, waivers, consents, approvals, orders and authorizations from all governmental bodies and the making of all necessary registrations, declarations and filings with such bodies; provided, however, that Ardea has agreed not to, without Zeneca's prior written consent, commit to any divestiture transaction or agree to any restriction on its business, and provided further, that Zeneca is not required to offer, accept or agree to (i) dispose of or hold separate any part of its, Ardea's or their respective subsidiaries' businesses, operations, assets or product lines, (ii) not compete in any geographic area or line of business, or (iii) restrict, prohibit or limit the ownership or operation by Zeneca or any of its subsidiaries of all or any portion of the business or assets of Zeneca, Ardea, the Surviving Corporation or any of their respective affiliates in any part of the world;

in the case of Ardea, take all actions necessary to cause the exercise, as of the last business day prior to the completion of the Merger, of each outstanding purchase right under the ESPP, and make any pro-rata adjustments necessary to reflect the shortened offering period but otherwise cause such period to be treated as a fully effective and completed offering period, and provide that no further offering or purchase period shall commence under the ESPP following the completion of the Merger; and in the case of Ardea, cooperate with Zeneca and use commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions and do all things reasonably necessary, proper or advisable to cause the delisting of Ardea common stock from the NASDAQ Global Select Market as promptly as practicable after the completion of the Merger and deregistration of Ardea common stock under the Exchange Act as promptly as practicable after such delisting.

No Solicitation

Subject to certain exceptions described below, prior to the Effective Time or the earlier termination of the Merger Agreement, Ardea has agreed that it will not, and it will not authorize or permit its subsidiary or their respective directors, officers, employees, agents and other representatives to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage, knowingly induce or knowingly take any other action that would reasonably be expected to lead to the making, submission, or announcement of, any proposal or inquiry that constitutes, or is reasonably likely to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal (as defined below);

enter into, continue or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any proposal that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to the making, submission or announcement of, an Acquisition Proposal;

furnish any non-public information regarding Ardea to any person in connection with or in response to an Acquisition Proposal or an inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to the making, submission or announcement of an Acquisition Proposal;

approve or recommend an Acquisition Proposal or any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding or other contract contemplating an Acquisition Proposal or requiring the abandonment or termination of Ardea's obligations under the Merger Agreement; or resolve or agree to do any of the foregoing.

In addition, Ardea has agreed to, and will cause its subsidiary and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents and other representatives to, cease and terminate all discussions or negotiations with any person previously conducted with respect to any Acquisition Proposal. Ardea has also agreed to deny access to any data room containing any confidential information previously furnished to any third party relating to the consideration of an Acquisition Proposal by such third party.

Prior to obtaining stockholder approval of the Merger Proposal, the restrictions set forth above do not prohibit Ardea from furnishing information regarding itself to, or participating in discussions with, a person making an unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal if (i) it receives an Acquisition Proposal that the board of directors of Ardea determines in good faith, after consultation with legal counsel and financial advisors, constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to result in, a Superior Proposal (as defined below), (ii) such Acquisition Proposal was made in circumstances not involving a material breach of the Merger Agreement, (iii) the board of directors of Ardea determines in good faith, after consultation with legal counsel, that failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties to the stockholders of Ardea under applicable law, (iv) it enters into a confidentiality agreement with such person and (v) with respect to furnishing information regarding itself, all information provided to such person has been previously or is concurrently provided to Zeneca. Ardea must notify Zeneca within 24 hours of receipt of any Acquisition Proposal, inquiry or request relating to an Acquisition Proposal or request for non-public information relating to any Acquisition Proposal, which notice shall indicate the identity of the subject third party and the material terms of such proposal or offer or the nature of any inquiries or contracts, and include a copy of any written materials received from such third party that describe the material terms of such proposal, inquiry or request. In addition, Ardea must notify Zeneca within three hours after a meeting of its board of directors to consider such Acquisition Proposal as to whether Ardea intends to furnish non-public information about itself to or participate in discussions with such person, and must keep Zeneca informed of all material developments affecting the status and terms of any such proposal, inquiry or request, including by providing Zeneca with copies of additional written materials that describe the material terms of such proposal, inquiry or request.

An Acquisition Proposal means any offer, proposal or inquiry (other than by Zeneca) contemplating or otherwise relating to any Acquisition Transaction (as defined below).

An Acquisition Transaction means any transaction or series of transactions involving:

Edgar Filing: Ardea Biosciences, Inc./DE - Form DEFM14A

any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, issuance or acquisition of securities, recapitalization, tender or exchange offer or other similar transaction in which (i) a third party (or multiple third parties acting as a group) directly or indirectly acquires, or if consummated would result in the acquisition by such third party or group of, beneficial or record ownership or control of more than 15% of the outstanding shares of any class of voting or equity securities of Ardea or (ii) Ardea issues securities representing more than 15% of the outstanding shares of any class of voting or equity securities of Ardea;

any sale, lease, assignment, license, exchange, transfer, acquisition or disposition of any rights or assets that constitute or account for (i) 15% or more of the consolidated net revenues, consolidated net income or consolidated book value of Ardea and its subsidiary or (ii) 15% or more of the fair market value of the assets of Ardea and its subsidiary;

any liquidation or dissolution of Ardea; or any combination of the foregoing.

A Superior Proposal means an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal obtained after the date of the Merger Agreement in circumstances not involving a material breach by Ardea of its no solicitation obligations for an Acquisition Transaction (provided that for purposes of this definition, each reference in the definition of Acquisition Transaction to 15% shall be deemed to be a reference to 50%) which the board of directors of Ardea determines in good faith (after consultation with its legal counsel and financial advisor) (i) to be reasonably likely to be consummated if accepted and (ii) to be more favorable to the stockholders from a financial point of view than the Merger, in each case taking into account at the time of determination all relevant circumstances, including the various legal, financial and regulatory aspects of the proposal, all the terms and conditions of such proposal and the Merger Agreement, any changes to the terms of the Merger Agreement offered by Zeneca in response to such Acquisition Proposal and the ability of the person making such Acquisition Proposal to consummate the transactions contemplated by such Acquisition Proposal (based upon, among other things, expectation of obtaining required approvals or any necessary financing).

Board Recommendation

Under the Merger Agreement, subject to the exceptions described below, the board of directors of Ardea has agreed to recommend that the stockholders of Ardea vote in favor of the Merger Proposal (the Board Recommendation) and has agreed that it will not (i) fail to make the Board Recommendation (including by failing to include the Board Recommendation in this proxy statement), (ii) withhold, withdraw, amend or modify in a manner adverse to Zeneca the Board Recommendation, or publicly propose to do any of the foregoing, (iii) in the event an Acquisition Proposal is publicly announced or disclosed, fail to publicly reaffirm the Board Recommendation within 10 business days following Zeneca's written request, (iv) adopt, approve or recommend, or otherwise declare advisable the adoption of, or publicly propose to do any of the foregoing with respect to, any Acquisition Proposal or (v) resolve to take any such actions. Each of the foregoing actions is referred to as a Change in Company Board Recommendation.

The restrictions set forth above will not prohibit the board of directors of Ardea from effecting a Change in Company Board Recommendation prior to the approval of the Merger Proposal if (i) Ardea has received an unsolicited Acquisition Proposal in circumstances not involving a material breach of the Merger Agreement, and the board of directors of Ardea has determined in good faith after consulting with legal counsel (x) that a failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties to the stockholders under applicable law and (y) the Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal (after consulting with its legal and financial advisors) or (ii) the board of directors of Ardea has determined in good faith, after consulting with legal counsel, that a failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties to the stockholders under applicable law, and in each case, all of the following conditions are met:

Ardea has provided written notice to Zeneca that it is prepared to make a Change in Company Board Recommendation, which written notice contains a description of the events, facts and circumstances giving rise to the proposed action or the material terms and conditions of the Superior Proposal, including a copy of the definitive acquisition agreement, as applicable;

Ardea offers to negotiate with (and if accepted, negotiates in good faith with) Zeneca in making adjustments to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, and Zeneca does not make, within three business days after receipt of the notice described above, a proposal that would, in the good faith judgment of the board of directors of Ardea, after consulting with its legal counsel and, with respect to a Superior Proposal, its financial advisor, cause such events, facts and circumstances to no longer form the basis for a Change in Company Board Recommendation or cause such Acquisition Proposal to no longer constitute a Superior Proposal, as the case may be; and

Ardea has provided a new notice to Zeneca and Zeneca has received a new three business day period, in each case as described above, in the event of any material changes with respect to such events, facts or circumstances or to the financial terms of the Superior Proposal, as the case may be, occurring prior to the Change in Company Board Recommendation.

Special Meeting of Stockholders

Ardea has agreed to take all action necessary to hold a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of obtaining the required stockholder approval of the Merger Proposal as promptly as practicable, including mailing this proxy statement (as amended or supplemented) to its stockholders as promptly as practicable after receiving confirmation from the SEC that it will not comment on, or that it has no additional comments to, this proxy statement. Any postponement or adjournment of the meeting of stockholders will require the prior written consent of Zeneca other than in the event that (i) such postponement or adjournment is advisable to allow reasonable additional time for the filing and mailing of any supplemental or amended disclosure that Ardea and its counsel reasonably determine is necessary under applicable laws and for such supplemental or amended disclosure to be disseminated and reviewed by Ardea's stockholders prior to the meeting of stockholders, (ii) such postponement or adjournment is required to obtain the required stockholder approval of the Merger Proposal or (iii) the board of directors of Ardea concludes in good faith, after consulting with legal counsel that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable law. If the meeting of stockholders is postponed or adjourned pursuant to clause (i), (ii) or (iii) above to a date that is later than three business days prior to the Outside Date (as defined below), then the Outside Date will be extended until the third business day after the date to which the meeting of stockholders has been postponed or adjourned. Zeneca may require Ardea to postpone or adjourn the meeting of stockholders one time (for a period of not more than 15 days but not past the date that is two business days prior to the Outside Date), unless prior to such adjournment Ardea has received an aggregate number of proxies voting in favor of the Merger Proposal, which have not been withdrawn, such that the required stockholder approval will be obtained at such meeting. Once Ardea has established a record date for the meeting of stockholders, Ardea cannot change such record date or establish a different record date for the meeting of stockholders without the prior written consent of Zeneca, unless required to do so by applicable law or Ardea's organizational documents. Unless the Merger Agreement is validly terminated, Ardea is required to submit the Merger Agreement to its stockholders at the meeting of stockholders even if the board of directors of Ardea has effected a Change in Company Board Recommendation.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Merger Agreement provides that, for a period of six years following the completion of the Merger, Ardea or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, will continue to indemnify, defend and hold harmless and provide advancement of expenses to each past and present director and officer of Ardea or its subsidiary, in each case to the same extent permitted under applicable law and provided pursuant to Ardea's certificate of incorporation and bylaws and the indemnification agreements between such directors and officers and Ardea as of the date of the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Ardea or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, will for a period of six years following the completion of the Merger continue to include in its or any successors' charter or bylaws the current provisions regarding limitation of liability of directors, indemnification of officers, directors and employees and advancement of expenses contained in Ardea's certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

Table of Contents

The Merger Agreement provides that, prior to the completion of the Merger, Ardea will purchase and maintain for a period of six years following the completion of the Merger a directors and officers liability tail insurance policy covering the past and present directors and officers of Ardea and its subsidiary, which policy must contain terms no less advantageous to such past and present directors and officers than the policies maintained by Ardea as of the date of the Merger Agreement.

Conditions to the Completion of the Merger

Conditions to Each Party's Obligation. The obligation of each of Zeneca and Ardea to complete the Merger is subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

the stockholders of Ardea shall have approved the Merger Proposal;

any waiting period (and extensions thereof) applicable to the completion of the Merger under the HSR Act shall have expired or been terminated; and no order, injunction, judgment, decree or ruling enacted by a governmental body shall be in effect restraining, preventing, prohibiting or making illegal the completion of the Merger.

Conditions to Ardea's Obligation. The obligation of Ardea to complete the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver in writing by Ardea of the following conditions:

the accuracy in all respects of the representations and warranties made by Zeneca and Merger Sub in the Merger Agreement as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the completion of the Merger (or as of an earlier date specified in such representations and warranties) (without giving effect to any exception or qualification contained therein relating to materiality), except where the matters giving rise to the failure of such representation or warranties to be accurate, individually or in the aggregate, has not had, or would not be reasonably expected to have, a material adverse effect on the ability of Zeneca and Merger Sub to complete the Merger;

the performance of and compliance in all material respects with the agreements and covenants by Zeneca and Merger Sub as required by the Merger Agreement to be performed or complied with by Zeneca and Merger Sub at or prior to the completion of the Merger; and

Governing Law

The Merger Agreement is governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Delaware.

THE VOTING AGREEMENTS

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the voting agreements entered into by certain directors and executive officers of Ardea and certain of their respective affiliates in favor of Zeneca, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the form of voting agreement which is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement.

In connection with the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement, on April 21, 2012, the Key Stockholders entered into Voting Agreements in favor of Zeneca. As of May 18, 2012, the latest practicable date before the printing of this proxy statement, the shares of Ardea common stock beneficially owned by the Key Stockholders, and thus subject to the Voting Agreements, constituted approximately 29.6% of the total outstanding shares of Ardea common stock.

Agreement to Vote and Irrevocable Proxy

Each of the Key Stockholders has agreed to vote all shares of Ardea common stock owned now or in the future, whether beneficially or of record, by such Key Stockholder (the Subject Shares) at any meeting of the stockholders of Ardea, or at any adjournment thereof, and on every action by written consent taken by the stockholders of Ardea:

in favor of the Merger Proposal and the approval of certain proposals to adjourn or postpone any meeting of the stockholders of Ardea to a later date if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the Merger Proposal on the date on which such meeting is held;

against any proposal made in opposition to, or in competition with, the consummation of the Merger or any other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and against any Acquisition Transaction and any other action or agreement involving Ardea that is intended to or would reasonably be expected to impede, prevent, delay or adversely affect the Merger or any other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

In furtherance of the foregoing, pursuant to the Voting Agreements, each Key Stockholder granted to Zeneca an irrevocable proxy and irrevocably appointed the members of the board of directors of Zeneca as their proxies to vote their respective Subject Shares in accordance with the terms of the Voting Agreements.

The Key Stockholders may vote their respective Subject Shares on all other matters not referred to in the irrevocable proxy in any manner they deem appropriate, and the Zeneca proxies may not exercise the proxy with respect to such other matters. The irrevocable proxy is binding upon the heirs and assigns of the Key Stockholders.

Transfer Restrictions on Shares Held by the Key Stockholders

In addition to the agreement to vote and the grant of an irrevocable proxy, the Key Stockholders have agreed to certain transfer restrictions for the Subject Shares. In particular, prior to the termination of the Voting Agreements, the Key Stockholders may not:

cause or permit any sale, pledge, encumbrance, assignment, grant of an option with respect to, transfer, tender or other disposition of such Subject Share or any interest therein (including by gift or entry into any hedging or other derivative transaction that has the effect of materially changing the economic benefits and risks of ownership of such Subject Shares) (each of which is referred to as a Transfer);

enter into any contract, agreement, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the direct or indirect Transfer of any Subject Shares; or deposit, or permit the deposit of, any Subject Shares into a voting trust or grant any proxy, power of attorney, right of first offer or refusal or enter into any voting agreement or similar agreement with respect to any of the Subject Shares in contravention of the obligations of the Key Stockholders under the Voting Agreements.

Table of Contents

The foregoing requirements will not prohibit any of the Key Stockholders from transferring their Subject Shares (i) to family members (either directly or via trusts established for the benefit of such Key Stockholder or such Key Stockholder's immediate family) or upon the death of such Key Stockholder, if such Key Stockholder is an individual, or (ii) to one or more partners or members or to an affiliated entity under common control, if such Key Stockholder is a partnership or limited liability company. Any transferees will be required to agree in writing to be bound by the terms of the applicable Voting Agreement. The foregoing restrictions will not prohibit any of the Key Stockholders from holding any portion of the Subject Shares in a securities margin account, subject to the terms and conditions of such account.

Additional Covenants in the Voting Agreements

Pursuant to the Voting Agreements, each Key Stockholder has agreed not to take any actions that Ardea is prohibited from taking pursuant to the no solicitation restrictions contained in the Merger Agreement (see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation"). Each Key Stockholder has further agreed not to exercise any appraisal rights or any dissenters' rights that such Key Stockholder may have or could potentially have in connection with the Merger or the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the Voting Agreements, each Key Stockholder that holds Ardea warrants consented to the treatment of such warrants described in the Merger Agreement.

Termination of the Voting Agreements

The Voting Agreements will terminate upon the earliest to occur of (i) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, (ii) the Effective Time and (iii) at the option of each Key Stockholder, the date on which an amendment to the Merger Agreement is effected that materially and adversely affects such Key Stockholder.

Table of ContentsSECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT OF ARDEA

The following table sets forth information as of April 30, 2012, regarding the beneficial ownership of Ardea common stock by (i) each person known by the Ardea board of directors to own beneficially 5% or more of the outstanding shares of Ardea common stock, (ii) each Ardea director, (iii) Ardea's named executive officers and (iv) all of Ardea's directors and executive officers as a group. Information with respect to beneficial ownership is based solely on a review of Ardea's common stock transfer records and on publicly available filings made with the SEC by or on behalf of the stockholders listed below. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes, the address for each listed stockholder is: c/o Ardea Biosciences, Inc., 4939 Directors Place, San Diego, California 92121.

Percentage of beneficial ownership is calculated in relation to the 36,889,527 shares of Ardea common stock (net of treasury shares) that were outstanding as of April 30, 2012. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the SEC, which generally attribute beneficial ownership of securities to persons who possess sole or shared voting or investment power with respect to those securities, and includes shares of Ardea common stock issuable pursuant to the exercise of stock options, warrants or other securities that are exercisable or convertible into shares of Ardea common stock within 60 days of April 30, 2012. Securities to purchase shares of Ardea common stock that vest or are exercisable within 60 days of April 30, 2012 are considered beneficially owned by the person holding such securities for the purpose of computing ownership of such person, but are not treated as outstanding for the purpose of computing the beneficial ownership of any other person. Unless otherwise indicated, and subject to the Voting Agreements (see the section entitled "The Voting Agreements"), to Ardea's knowledge, the persons or entities identified in the table below have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares shown as beneficially owned by them.

PROPOSALS

Proposal No. 1: Adoption of the Merger Agreement

We are asking you to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement (referred to elsewhere in this proxy statement as the Merger Proposal). For a detailed discussion of the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, see the section entitled The Merger Agreement. As discussed in the section entitled The Merger Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Ardea and its Reasons for the Merger, our board of directors has unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Ardea and its stockholders, and has approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger.

Vote Required; Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Ardea

Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Ardea common stock entitled to vote on the matter either in person or by proxy at the special meeting. A failure to submit a proxy card, a failure to vote by telephone or over the Internet or a failure to vote in person at the special meeting will result in your shares not being counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum, which is required to transact business at the special meeting. For purposes of the vote on Proposal No. 1, an abstention, a failure to submit a proxy card, a failure to vote by telephone or over the Internet or a failure to vote at the special meeting will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST such proposal.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF ARDEA UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE MERGER PROPOSAL.

Proposal No. 2: Advisory, Non-Binding Vote on the Merger-Related Compensation

In accordance with Section 14A of the Exchange Act, we are providing our stockholders with the opportunity to cast an advisory, non-binding vote on the compensation that may be paid or become payable to our named executive officers in connection with the Merger and the agreements and understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable (referred to elsewhere in this proxy statement as the Merger-Related Compensation Proposal). As required by those rules, we are asking our stockholders to vote on the adoption of the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Ardea's named executive officers in connection with the Merger and the agreements or understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be paid or become payable, as disclosed in the table in the section of the Proxy Statement for the special meeting of the stockholders of Ardea entitled The Merger Interests of the Directors and Executive Officers of Ardea in the Merger Merger-Related Compensation for Named Executive Officers, including the associated narrative discussion, are hereby APPROVED.

The section entitled The Merger Interests of the Directors and Executive Officers of Ardea in the Merger Merger-Related Compensation for Named Executive Officers, including the associated narrative discussion, begins on page 46. Ardea has individual employment agreements or arrangements that provide for severance benefits upon a qualifying termination of employment within three months before or 12 months following the Merger because it is necessary to do so in order to recruit and retain executives in its industry.

The vote on executive compensation payable in connection with the Merger is a vote separate and apart from the vote to approve the Merger Proposal. Accordingly, you may vote to approve the Merger Proposal and vote not to approve this Merger-Related Compensation Proposal and vice versa. Because the vote on executive compensation paid or payable in connection with the Merger is advisory only, it will not be binding on Ardea, Zeneca or the Surviving Corporation. Accordingly, because Ardea is contractually obligated to pay the compensation, if the Merger Agreement is approved and the Merger is completed, the compensation will be payable, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, regardless of the outcome of the advisory vote.

Vote Required; Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Ardea

Approval of the Merger-Related Compensation Proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Ardea common stock present and entitled to vote either in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Votes on this proposal may be cast for or against the proposal, or you may abstain from voting on the proposal. A failure to submit a proxy card, a failure to vote by telephone or over the Internet or a failure to vote in person at the special meeting will result in your shares not being counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum, which is required to transact business at the special meeting. For purposes of the vote on Proposal No. 2, an abstention will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST such proposal.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF ARDEA UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE MERGER-RELATED COMPENSATION PROPOSAL.

Proposal No. 3: Approval of the Adjournment of the Special Meeting, if Necessary, to Solicit Additional Proxies if There Are Not Sufficient Votes in Favor of the Merger Proposal

We are asking you to vote on a proposal to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes in favor of the Merger Proposal.

Vote Required; Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Ardea

For purposes of the vote on Proposal No. 3, an abstention will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST such proposal.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF ARDEA UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING, IF NECESSARY, TO SOLICIT ADDITIONAL PROXIES IF THERE ARE NOT SUFFICIENT VOTES IN FAVOR OF THE MERGER PROPOSAL.

Ardea intends to hold the 2013 annual meeting of stockholders only if the Merger is not completed. Stockholder proposals that are intended to be included in the proxy materials for our next annual meeting of stockholders must comply with all of the requirements of Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act. To be considered for inclusion in next year's proxy materials, stockholders must submit their proposals in writing by December 14, 2012. If a stockholder wishes to submit a proposal to be considered at our next annual meeting of stockholders that is not to be included in next year's proxy materials or wishes to nominate a director, the stockholder must do so no sooner than January 31, 2013 but no later than March 2, 2013. In addition, stockholders must comply with our certificate of incorporation and our amended and restated bylaws, which contain additional requirements about advance notice of stockholder proposals and director nominations. Stockholder proposals must be submitted in writing to Ardea Biosciences, Inc., c/o Corporate Secretary, 4939 Directors Place, San Diego, California 92121.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY MATERIALS

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (e.g., brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement addressed to those stockholders. This process, commonly referred to as "householding," potentially means extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies.

In connection with the special meeting, a number of brokers with account holders who are stockholders of Ardea will be householding these proxy materials. As a result, a single proxy statement will be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the applicable stockholders. Once a stockholder receives notice from its broker that it will be householding communications to such stockholder's address, householding will continue until such stockholder is notified otherwise or until such stockholder revokes its consent. If, at any time, a stockholder no longer wishes to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement, such stockholder should notify its broker or contact Ardea's Corporate Secretary at Ardea Biosciences, Inc., 4939 Directors Place, San Diego, California 92121. Stockholders who currently receive multiple copies of our proxy materials at their address and would like to request householding of their communications should contact their broker.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (Agreement) is made and entered into as of April 21, 2012 (the Agreement Date) by and among Zeneca Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent), QAM Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and Ardea BioSciences, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company). Certain capitalized terms used in this Agreement are defined in Exhibit A.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Parent, Merger Sub and the Company intend to effect a merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company (the Merger) in accordance with this Agreement and the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL). Upon consummation of the Merger, Merger Sub will cease to exist, and the Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent;

WHEREAS, the respective boards of directors of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company have approved this Agreement and the Merger and deem it advisable and in the best interest of the stockholders of each of the constituent corporations to consummate the Merger; and

WHEREAS, as a condition and inducement to Parent's and Merger Sub's willingness to enter into this Agreement and to consummate the Merger, concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement certain stockholders of the Company are executing voting agreements (collectively, the Voting Agreements) in favor of Parent whereby they have agreed to vote their shares of Company Common Stock in favor of the adoption of this Agreement.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and premises contained in this Agreement and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties to this Agreement agree as follows:

ARTICLE I.

DESCRIPTION OF TRANSACTION

1.1 Merger of Merger Sub into the Company. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company, and the separate existence of Merger Sub shall cease. The Company will continue as the surviving corporation in the Merger (the Surviving Corporation).

1.2 Effect of the Merger. The Merger shall have the effects set forth in this Agreement and in the applicable provisions of the DGCL.

1.3 Closing; Effective Time. The closing of the Merger (the Closing) shall take place at 10:00 a.m. Pacific Time on or prior to the second (2nd) Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver of the last to be satisfied or waived of the conditions set forth in Article V (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions) or such other date as Parent and the Company shall mutually designate. The Closing shall take place at the offices of Paul Hastings LLP located at 4747 Executive Drive, 12th Floor, San Diego, California. The date on which the Closing takes place is referred to herein as the Closing Date. A certificate of merger satisfying the applicable requirements of the DGCL (the Certificate of Merger) shall be duly executed by the Company and simultaneously with the Closing shall be filed with the Office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. The Merger shall become effective upon the date and time of the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or such other date and time as may be mutually agreed upon by Parent and the Company and set forth in the Certificate of Merger (the Effective Time).

1.4 Certificate of Incorporation; Bylaws; Directors and Officers.

Table of Contents

At the Effective Time:

(a) the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be amended and restated in its entirety to read as set forth in Exhibit B hereto, and, as so amended, shall be the Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with the DGCL and such Certificate of Incorporation;

(b) the Bylaws of the Company as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be amended and restated in their entirety to read as set forth in Exhibit C hereto, and, as so amended, shall be the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with the DGCL and such Bylaws; and

(c) the directors and officers of the Surviving Corporation shall be the respective individuals who are directors and officers, respectively, of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time.

1.5 Conversion of Shares.

(a) At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any further action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or any stockholder of the Company:

(i) all shares of Company Common Stock held by the Company or any wholly-owned Subsidiary of the Company (or held in the Company's treasury) immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be paid in exchange therefor;

(ii) all shares of Company Common Stock held by Parent, Merger Sub or any other wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be paid in exchange therefor;

(iii) except as provided in clauses (i) and (ii) above and subject to Section 1.5(b) and Section 1.9, each share of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive $32.00 in cash (the Per Share Merger Price), without interest; and

(iv) each share of the common stock, $0.001 par value per share, of Merger Sub outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into one (1) share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) If, during the period commencing on the Agreement Date and ending at the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock are changed into a different number or class of shares by reason of any stock split, division or subdivision of shares, stock dividend, reverse stock split, consolidation of shares, reclassification, recapitalization or other similar transaction, then the Per Share Merger Price shall be appropriately adjusted.

1.6 Company Equity Awards; Warrants.

(a) Parent shall not assume any Company Options in connection with the Merger. As of immediately prior to and conditioned upon the occurrence of the Effective Time and without any action on the part of any optionholder, all Company Options outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time shall fully vest and become exercisable. To the extent not exercised prior to the Effective Time, then upon the Effective Time each Company Option shall be canceled, with each former holder of any such canceled Company Option becoming entitled to receive, in consideration of the cancellation of such Company Option, an amount in cash, without interest and subject to deduction for any required withholding Taxes, equal to the product of: (i) the excess, if any, of the Per Share Merger Price over the exercise price of each such Company Option; and (ii) the number of shares of Company Common Stock underlying such Company Option; provided, however, that if the exercise price per share of any such Company Option is equal to or greater than the Per Share Merger Price, such Company Option shall be canceled and terminated without any cash payment or other consideration being made in respect thereof.

(b) Parent shall not assume any Company Restricted Stock Awards in connection with the Merger. As of immediately prior to and conditioned upon the occurrence of the Effective Time and without any action on the part of any holder of any Company Restricted Stock Award, each Company Restricted Stock Award that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, whether or not then vested, shall become fully vested immediately prior to, and then shall be canceled at, the Effective Time (the Canceled Restricted Awards), and, in exchange therefor, each former holder of any such Canceled Restricted Awards shall be entitled to receive an amount in cash, without interest and subject to deduction for any required withholding Taxes, equal to the product of: (i) the Per Share Merger Price; and (ii) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Canceled Restricted Awards.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take such actions as are necessary to cause all Company Warrants that are outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and for which the holder has consented to the treatment of such Company Warrants as provided in this Section 1.6(c) (each, a Canceled Company Warrant), whether or not then vested and exercisable, to fully vest and to be canceled as of the Effective Time in exchange for an amount in cash, without interest and subject to deduction for any required withholding Taxes, in respect thereof equal to the product of: (i) the excess, if any, of the Per Share Merger Price over the exercise price of each such Canceled Company Warrant; and (ii) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Canceled Company Warrant.

(d) As soon as practicable following the Agreement Date and, in any event, prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take such actions as are necessary to approve and effectuate the foregoing provisions of this Section 1.6, including making any determinations or resolutions of the Company Board or a committee thereof or any administrator of an Option Plan, and using commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any consents of holders of the Company Warrants, as may be necessary.

(e) In accordance with the Option Plans, as promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall pay, through the Surviving Corporation's payroll processor, to the former holders of Company Options (with an exercise price that is less than the Per Share Merger Price) and to the former holders of Canceled Restricted Awards such amounts as such holders shall be entitled to receive pursuant to this Section 1.6. The Surviving Corporation shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its payroll processor to effect such payments no later than five (5) Business Days after the Effective Time.

1.7 Closing of the Company's Transfer Books. At the Effective Time: (a) all shares of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and all holders of certificates previously representing shares of Company Common Stock or shares of Company Common Stock that are in non-certificated book-entry form (Book-Entry Shares) shall cease to have any rights as stockholders of the Company; and (b) the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed with respect to all shares of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. No further transfer of any such shares of Company Common Stock shall be made on such stock transfer books after the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, a valid certificate previously representing any shares of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (a Company Stock Certificate) or Book-Entry Shares are presented to the Payment Agent or to the Surviving Corporation or Parent, such Company Stock Certificate or Book-Entry Shares shall be canceled and shall be exchanged as provided in Section 1.8 below.

1.8 Surrender of Certificates.

(a) On or prior to the Closing Date, Parent shall select a reputable bank or trust company to act as payment agent in the Merger (the Payment Agent). At the Effective Time, Parent shall have deposited with the Payment Agent cash sufficient to pay the cash consideration payable pursuant to Section 1.5 and Section 1.6(c). The cash amount so deposited with the Payment Agent is referred to as the Payment Fund. The Payment Agent will invest the funds included in the Payment Fund in the manner directed by Parent; provided, however, that such investments shall be in obligations of or guaranteed by the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality thereof and backed by the full faith and credit of the United States of America, in commercial paper obligations rated A-1 or P-1 or better by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. or Standard & Poor's Corporation, respectively, or in certificates of deposit, bank repurchase agreements or banker's acceptances of commercial banks with capital exceeding $1 billion (based on the most recent financial statements of such bank that are then publicly available). Any interest or other income resulting from the investment of such funds shall be the property of and payable to Parent.

Table of Contents

(b) Within five (5) Business Days after the Effective Time, the Payment Agent will mail to the Persons who were record holders of Company Stock Certificates, Book-Entry Shares or Canceled Company Warrants immediately prior to the Effective Time: (i) a letter of transmittal in the form attached hereto as Exhibit D; and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Company Stock Certificates or Canceled Company Warrants, or the procedure to be followed in the case of Book-Entry Shares, in exchange for the Merger Consideration or the consideration payable with respect to such Canceled Company Warrants pursuant to Section 1.6(c), as applicable. Upon surrender of a Company Stock Certificate, Book-Entry Shares or a Canceled Company Warrant, as applicable, to the Payment Agent for exchange, together with a duly executed letter of transmittal and such other documents as may be reasonably required by the Payment Agent or Parent: (A) the holder of such Company Stock Certificate, Book-Entry Shares or Canceled Company Warrant, as applicable, shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration or the consideration payable with respect to such Canceled Company Warrants pursuant to Section 1.6(c), as applicable; and (B) the Company Stock Certificate, Book-Entry Shares or Canceled Company Warrant so surrendered shall be canceled. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 1.8(b), each Company Stock Certificate, any Book-Entry Shares and each Canceled Company Warrant shall be deemed, from and after the Effective Time, to represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration as contemplated by Section 1.5 or the consideration payable with respect to such Canceled Company Warrants pursuant to Section 1.6(c), as applicable. The cash amount paid upon the surrender for exchange of Company Stock Certificates, Book-Entry Shares or Canceled Company Warrants shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights of such holder pertaining to the shares of Company Common Stock or Canceled Company Warrant, as applicable, theretofore represented thereby. If any Company Stock Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, Parent or the Payment Agent may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the payment of any Merger Consideration with respect to the shares of Company Common Stock previously represented by such Company Stock Certificate, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed Company Stock Certificate to provide an appropriate affidavit and to deliver a bond in such reasonable amount as Parent may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Payment Agent, Parent or the Surviving Corporation with respect to such Company Stock Certificate.

(c) Any portion of the Payment Fund (including all interest and other income received by the Payment Agent in respect of all funds made available to it) that remains undistributed to holders of Company Stock Certificates, Book-Entry Shares or Canceled Company Warrants as of the date that is nine (9) months after the Closing Date shall be delivered to Parent upon demand, and any holders of Company Stock Certificates, Book-Entry Shares or Canceled Company Warrants who have not theretofore surrendered their Company Stock Certificates, Book-Entry Shares or Canceled Company Warrants, as applicable, in accordance with and subject to this Section 1.8 shall thereafter look only to Parent as general creditors for satisfaction of their claims for the Merger Consideration or the consideration payable with respect to such Canceled Company Warrants pursuant to Section 1.6(c), as applicable, previously held by them.

(d) Each of the Payment Agent, Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any consideration payable to any holder of any Company Stock Certificate, Book-Entry Shares or Canceled Company Warrant (in his or her capacity as a holder of Company Common Stock or a Canceled Company Warrant, as applicable) such amounts as are required to be deducted or withheld from such consideration under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law or under any other applicable Legal Requirement. To the extent such amounts are so deducted or withheld, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes under this Agreement as having been paid to the Person to whom such amounts would otherwise have been paid.

(e) Neither Parent nor the Surviving Corporation shall be liable to any holder of any Company Stock Certificate, Book-Entry Shares or Canceled Company Warrant or to any other Person with respect to any Merger Consideration delivered to any public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property law, escheat law or similar Legal Requirement.

1.9 Dissenting Shares.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, shares of Company Common Stock held by a holder who has properly made a demand for appraisal of such shares in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL (any such shares being referred to as Dissenting Shares until such time as such holder fails to perfect or otherwise loses such holder's appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL with respect to such shares) shall not be converted into or represent the right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with Section 1.5, but shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by the DGCL to a holder of Dissenting Shares. At the Effective Time, the Dissenting Shares shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist, and each holder of Dissenting Shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the fair value of such Dissenting Shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL. Any cash deposited by Parent with the Payment Agent in respect of shares of Company Common Stock that become Dissenting Shares shall be returned to Parent promptly upon demand therefor; provided, however, that if any Dissenting Shares shall lose their status as such within nine (9) months following the Closing Date, Parent shall return the cash in respect of such shares to the Payment Agent.

(b) If any Dissenting Shares shall lose their status as such (through failure to perfect or otherwise), then, as of the later of the Effective Time or the date of loss of such status, such shares shall automatically be converted into and shall represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with Section 1.5 (and subject to Section 1.8(d)), without interest thereon, upon surrender of the Company Stock Certificate or Book-Entry Shares representing such shares.

(c) The Company shall give Parent: (i) prompt written notice of (A) any demand for appraisal received by the Company prior to the Effective Time pursuant to the DGCL, (B) any withdrawal of any such demand and (C) any other demand, notice or instrument delivered to the Company prior to the Effective Time pursuant to the DGCL; and (ii) the opportunity to participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to any such demand, notice or instrument. The Company shall not make any payment or settlement offer or otherwise agree to any settlement prior to the Effective Time with respect to any such demand, notice or instrument unless Parent shall have given its written consent to such payment, settlement offer or settlement.

1.10 Further Action. If, at any time after the Effective Time, any further action is determined by Parent to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement or to vest the Surviving Corporation with full right, title and possession of and to all rights and property of Merger Sub and the Company, the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation and Parent shall be fully authorized (in the name of Merger Sub, in the name of the Company and otherwise) to take such action.

ARTICLE II.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

The Company represents and warrants to Parent and Merger Sub that the statements contained in this Article II are true and correct, except as expressly set forth herein, in the disclosure schedule delivered by the Company to Parent and Merger Sub on the Agreement Date (the Disclosure Schedule) or in the Company SEC Documents filed with the SEC on or prior to the Agreement Date (excluding any disclosures that constitute general cautionary, predictive or forward-looking statements set forth in any section of any Company SEC Document entitled risk factors or characterized therein as forward-looking statements or any other statements that are similarly forward-looking in nature, in each case, other than factual disclosures contained therein).

2.1 Due Organization; Subsidiaries.

(a) Each of the Acquired Corporations is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation. Each of the Acquired Corporations has all necessary corporate power and authority to: (i) conduct its business in the manner in which its business is currently being conducted; (ii) own and use its assets in the manner in which its assets are currently owned and used; and (iii) perform its obligations under all Contracts by which it is bound.

Information obtained by Parent or Merger Sub pursuant to this Section 4.1 will constitute Confidential Information under the Confidentiality Agreement and will be subject to the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement. Nothing in this Section 4.1 will require the Company to permit any inspection, or to disclose any information, that in the reasonable judgment of the Company would: (i) violate any of its or its Affiliates' respective obligations with respect to confidentiality; (ii) result in a violation of applicable Legal Requirements; or (iii) result in a loss of the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries; provided, that with respect to clauses (i) through (iii) of this Section 4.1, (A) the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to (1) obtain the consent of any Third Party required to provide such access or disclosure, or (2) develop an alternative to providing such information so as to address such matters that is reasonably acceptable to Parent and the Company, and (B) any information that otherwise would be withheld shall be provided to outside legal counsel to Parent to the extent required to comply with applicable Legal Requirements, including antitrust Legal Requirements; and, provided further, that prior to the Company disclosing any information that legal counsel to the Company reasonably believes would result in a loss of the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine, Parent and the Company will enter into a mutually acceptable common interest agreement. No investigation pursuant to this Section 4.1 or by Parent or its Representatives at any time prior to or following the Agreement Date shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty made by the Company herein, the covenants or agreements of the parties hereto or the conditions to the obligations of the parties hereto under this Agreement.

4.3 Company Stockholder Meeting.

(a) As soon as practicable after the Agreement Date (and, in any event, subject to Parent's obligations in the immediately following sentence, within fifteen (15) Business Days thereafter), the Company shall prepare and file with the SEC a proxy statement (collectively, as amended or supplemented, the Proxy Statement) that will be provided to the Company's stockholders in connection with solicitation of proxies for use at the meeting of the Company's stockholders called to vote upon the Merger and the adoption of this Agreement (the Company Stockholders Meeting). Parent and Merger Sub, as the case may be, shall furnish all information concerning Parent and Merger Sub (and their respective Affiliates, if applicable) as the Company may reasonably request in connection with the preparation and filing with the SEC of the Proxy Statement. Subject to applicable Legal Requirements, the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the Proxy Statement to be disseminated to the Company's stockholders as promptly as practicable following the filing thereof with the SEC and confirmation from the SEC that it will not comment on, or that it has no additional comments on, the Proxy Statement. Each of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub shall promptly correct any information provided by it or any of its respective Representatives for use in the Proxy Statement if and to the extent that such information contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein, or to the extent necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The Company shall take all steps necessary to cause the Proxy Statement, as so corrected, to be filed with the SEC and disseminated to the Company's stockholders, in each case as and to the extent required by applicable Legal Requirements. The Company shall provide Parent, Merger Sub and their counsel a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the Proxy Statement prior to the filing thereof with the SEC, and the Company shall give reasonable and good faith consideration to any comments made by Parent, Merger Sub and their counsel (it being understood that Parent, Merger Sub and their counsel shall provide any comments thereon as soon as reasonably practicable). The Company shall provide in writing to Parent, Merger Sub and their counsel any comments or other communications, whether written or oral, the Company or its counsel may receive from the SEC or its staff with respect to the Proxy Statement promptly after such receipt, and the Company shall provide Parent, Merger Sub and their counsel a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any response to any such comments of the SEC or its staff, and the Company shall give reasonable and good faith consideration to any comments made by Parent, Merger Sub and their counsel (it being understood that Parent, Merger Sub and their counsel shall provide any comments thereon as soon as reasonably practicable). The Company shall respond as promptly as practicable to any comments of the SEC with respect to the Proxy Statement.

(b) The Company shall, as soon as practicable after the Agreement Date, in accordance with applicable Legal Requirements and the Company Charter Documents, duly call, give notice of, set a single record date for, and convene and hold the Company Stockholders Meeting. The Company shall ensure that all proxies solicited in connection with the Company Stockholders Meeting are solicited in accordance with applicable Legal Requirements. Unless a Change in Company Board Recommendation shall have occurred, the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to solicit from the Company's stockholders proxies in favor of the adoption of this Agreement and shall take any other reasonable measures to secure the Required Stockholders Vote. Once the Company Stockholders Meeting has been noticed and called, any postponement or adjournment of the Company Stockholders Meeting shall require the prior written consent of the Parent other than in the event that (i) such postponement or adjournment is advisable to allow reasonable additional time for the filing and mailing of any supplemental or amended disclosure which the Company and its counsel reasonably determine is necessary under applicable Legal Requirements and for such supplemental or amended disclosure to be disseminated and reviewed by the Company's stockholders prior to the Company Stockholders Meeting, (ii) such postponement or adjournment is required to obtain the Required Stockholder Vote or (iii) the Company Board concludes in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable Legal Requirements; provided, that, if the Company Stockholders Meeting is postponed or adjourned pursuant to clause (i), (ii) or (iii) above to a date that is later than three (3) Business Days prior to the Outside Date, then the Outside Date shall be extended until the third (3rd) Business Day after the date to which the Company Stockholders Meeting has been postponed or adjourned. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Parent may require the Company to adjourn or postpone the Company Stockholders Meeting one time (for a period of not more than fifteen (15) days but not past the date that is two (2) Business Days prior to the Outside Date), unless prior to such adjournment the Company shall have received an aggregate number of proxies voting for the adoption of this Agreement and the Merger, which have not been withdrawn, such that the condition in Section 5.1(a) will be satisfied at such meeting. Once the Company has established a record date for the Company Stockholders Meeting, the Company shall not change such record date or establish a different record date for the Company Stockholders Meeting without the prior written consent of Parent, unless required to do so by applicable Legal Requirements or the Company Charter Documents. Unless this Agreement is validly terminated in accordance with Section 6.1, the Company shall submit this Agreement to its stockholders at the Company Stockholders Meeting even if the Company Board shall have effected a Change in Company Board Recommendation. During the last seven (7) Business Days prior to the date of the Company Stockholders Meeting, the Company shall, upon the reasonable request of Parent and at reasonable intervals, advise Parent as to the aggregate tally of proxies received by the Company with respect to the Required Stockholder Vote. Without the prior written consent of Parent, the adoption of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (including the Merger) shall be the only matter (other than matters of procedure and matters required by applicable Legal Requirements to be voted on by the Company's stockholders in connection with the approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby) which the Company shall propose to be acted on by the stockholders of the Company at the Company Stockholders Meeting.

4.4 No Solicitation by the Company; Other Offers.

(a) Subject to Section 4.4(b), from the Agreement Date until the Effective Time or, if earlier, the date on which this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 6.1, the Company shall not, nor shall it authorize or permit any of its Subsidiaries or any of its or their respective Representatives to, directly or indirectly through another Person: (i) solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage, knowingly induce or knowingly take any other action which would reasonably be expected to lead to, the making, submission or announcement of, any proposal or inquiry that constitutes, or is reasonably likely to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal; (ii) enter into, continue or participate in any discussions or any negotiations regarding any proposal that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to the making, submission or announcement of, any Acquisition Proposal; (iii) furnish any non-public information regarding the Company to any Person in connection with or in response to an Acquisition Proposal or an inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to the making, submission or announcement of an Acquisition Proposal; (iv) approve or recommend an Acquisition Proposal or any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding or other Contract contemplating an Acquisition Proposal or requiring the Company to abandon or terminate its obligations under this Agreement; or (v) resolve or agree to do any of the foregoing. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and its and their respective Representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated all discussions or negotiations with any Person previously conducted with respect to any Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall promptly deny access to any data room (whether virtual or actual) containing any confidential information previously furnished to any Third Party relating to the consideration of any Acquisition Proposal by any such Third Party.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 4.4 to the contrary, at any time prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Required Stockholder Vote, in response to an unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal made after the date of this Agreement in circumstances not involving a material breach of this Agreement that the Company Board determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel and its financial advisor) constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to result in, a Superior Proposal, the Company may, upon a good faith determination by the Company Board (after receiving the advice of its outside legal counsel) that failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to constitute a breach of the Company Board's fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable Legal Requirements: (i) furnish information (including by providing access to a data room, whether virtual or actual) with respect to the Acquired Corporations to the Person making such Acquisition Proposal (and such Person's Representatives); provided, however, that all such information shall have been previously provided to Parent or is provided to Parent at substantially the same time that it is provided by the Company to such Person; and (ii) participate in discussions or negotiations with the Person making such Acquisition Proposal (and its Representatives) regarding such Acquisition Proposal; and provided further, that, prior to taking any of the actions described in clauses (i) or (ii) above, the Company and such Person enter into a confidentiality agreement in customary form that is no less favorable in the aggregate to the Company than the Confidentiality Agreement.

(c) The Company shall promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours) after receipt, notify Parent of any Acquisition Proposal, inquiry or request relating to an Acquisition Proposal or request for non-public information relating to an Acquisition Proposal and, in any such notice to Parent, indicate the identity of the Person making such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry or request and the material terms and conditions of any proposal or offer or the nature of any inquiries or contacts (and shall include with such notice copies of any written materials received from or on behalf of such Person that describe the material terms and conditions of such proposal, inquiry or request), and (i) promptly (and, in any event, within three (3) hours) after the meeting of the Company Board to consider such Acquisition Proposal, shall notify Parent as to whether the Company intends to participate or engage in discussions or negotiations with, or furnish nonpublic information to, such Person; (ii) shall keep Parent informed of all material developments affecting the status and terms of any such proposals, inquiries and requests and (iii) shall promptly provide Parent with copies of any additional written materials that describe the material terms and conditions of such proposal, inquiry or request.

(d) The Company Board shall not: (i) fail to make the Company Board Recommendation to the Company's stockholders (including through any failure to include the Company Board Recommendation in the Proxy Statement); (ii) withhold, withdraw, amend or modify in a manner adverse to Parent, or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw, amend or modify in a manner adverse to Parent, the Company Board Recommendation; (iii) in the event that an Acquisition Proposal is publicly announced or disclosed, fail to publicly reaffirm the Company Board Recommendation within ten (10) Business Days after Parent's written request; (iv) adopt, approve or recommend, or otherwise declare advisable the adoption of, any Acquisition Proposal or publicly propose to adopt, approve or recommend, or otherwise declare advisable the adoption of, any Acquisition Proposal; or (v) resolve to take any such actions (each such foregoing action or failure to act in clauses (i) through (v) being referred to as a Change in Company Board Recommendation). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company Board may, at any time prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Required Stockholder Vote, take any of the actions set forth in Sections 4.4(d)(i)-(iii) below; provided, however, that prior to taking any such action the Company complies with Section 4.4(e) of this Agreement:

(i) effect a Change in Company Board Recommendation in response to an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal in circumstances not involving a material breach of this Agreement that is not withdrawn if the Company Board concludes in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable Legal Requirements and the Company Board concludes in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel and the Company's financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal;

(ii) effect a Change in Company Board Recommendation if the Company Board concludes in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable Legal Requirements; and

(iii) terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.1(h) and enter into a Company Acquisition Agreement, but only if the Company receives an unsolicited, bona fide written Acquisition Proposal in circumstances not involving a material breach of this Agreement that is not withdrawn that the Company Board concludes in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel and the Company's financial advisor, constitutes a Superior Proposal and the Company Board concludes in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to enter into such definitive agreement would reasonably be expected to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable Legal Requirements.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in Section 4.4(d), the Company shall not be entitled to: (i) make a Change in Company Board Recommendation pursuant to Section 4.4(d)(i) or Section 4.4(d)(ii); or (ii) terminate this Agreement and enter into any Company Acquisition Agreement pursuant to Section 4.4(d)(iii), unless: (A) the Company shall have first provided prior written notice to Parent that it is prepared to (1) make a Change in Company Board Recommendation (a Recommendation Change Notice) or (2) terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.1(h) in response to a Superior Proposal (a Superior Proposal)

Notice), which notice shall, if the basis for the proposed action by the Company Board is not related to a Superior Proposal, contain a description of the events, facts and circumstances giving rise to such proposed action or, if the basis for the proposed action by the Company Board is a Superior Proposal, contain a description of the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal, including a copy of the Company Acquisition Agreement in the form to be entered into (it being understood and agreed that the delivery of such notice shall not, in and of itself, be deemed to be a Change in Company Board Recommendation); (B) the Company shall have offered to negotiate with (and, if accepted, negotiated in good faith with) Parent in making adjustments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement; and (C) Parent does not make, within three (3) Business Days after the receipt of such notice, a proposal that would, in the good faith judgment of the Company Board (after consultation with outside legal counsel and, in the case of a Superior Proposal, the Company's financial advisor), cause such events, facts and circumstances to no longer form the basis for the Company Board to effect a Change in Company Board Recommendation or cause the Acquisition Proposal previously constituting a Superior Proposal to no longer constitute a Superior Proposal, as the case may be. Any material changes with respect to such events, facts or circumstances mentioned above, or material changes to the financial terms of such Superior Proposal, as the case may be, occurring prior to the Company's effecting a Change in Company Board Recommendation in accordance with the terms hereof or terminating this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.1(h) shall require the Company to provide to Parent a new Recommendation Change Notice or Superior Proposal Notice and a new three (3) Business Day period in which to negotiate.

(f) Nothing contained in this Section 4.4 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall prohibit the Company from: (i) taking and disclosing to the Company's stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14d-9, Rule 14e-2(a) or Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A promulgated under the Exchange Act; or (ii) making any disclosure to the Company's stockholders if, in the good faith judgment of the Company Board, after consultation with outside legal counsel, failure to so disclose would reasonably be expected to constitute a breach of its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable Legal Requirements; provided, however, that this Section 4.4(f) shall not affect the obligations of the Company and the Company Board and the rights of Parent and Merger Sub under Sections 4.4(d) and 4.4(e) of this Agreement, to the extent applicable to such disclosure (it being understood that any stop, look and listen letter or similar communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act shall not be deemed to be a Change in Company Board Recommendation).

4.5 Reasonable Best Efforts.

(a) Each party shall make or cause to be made, in cooperation with the other parties and to the extent applicable and as promptly as practicable (and in any event within ten (10) Business Days): (i) an appropriate filing of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act with respect to the Merger; and (ii) all other necessary filings, forms, declarations, notifications, registrations and notices with other Governmental Bodies under any other antitrust, competition, trade regulation, or other Legal Requirements relating to the Merger (except as otherwise expressly provided herein). Each party shall use its reasonable best efforts to: (A) respond at the earliest practicable date to any requests for additional information made by the U.S. Department of Justice, U.S. Federal Trade Commission or any other Governmental Body; (B) act in good faith and reasonably cooperate with the other party in connection with any investigation by any Governmental Body; (C) furnish to each other all information required for any filing, form, declaration, notification, registration and notice, subject to advice of such party's antitrust counsel; and (D) take all other actions reasonably necessary to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act or any foreign antitrust, competition or similar Legal Requirements. In connection with the foregoing: (1) whenever possible, each party shall give the other party reasonable prior notice of any communication with, and any proposed understanding or agreement with, any Governmental Body regarding any filings, forms, declarations, notifications, registrations or notices, and permit the other to review and discuss in advance, and consider in good faith the views of the other in connection with, any proposed communication, understanding or agreement with any Governmental Body with respect to the Merger, subject to advice of such party's antitrust counsel; (2) where reasonably practical, none of the parties hereto shall independently participate in any meeting or conversation, or engage in any substantive conversation with any Governmental Body in respect of any filings or inquiry without giving the other party prior notice of the meeting or conversation and, unless prohibited by such Governmental Body, the opportunity to attend or participate; (3) if one party is prohibited by applicable Legal Requirements or by the applicable Governmental Body from participating in or attending any meetings, conferences or conversations, the attending party shall keep the other reasonably apprised with respect thereto; and (4) the parties hereto shall consult and cooperate with one another in connection with any information or proposals submitted in connection with proceedings under or relating to any antitrust laws. Without limiting the foregoing, but subject to Section 4.5(b) and Section 4.5(c), the Company and Parent shall each use its reasonable best efforts to eliminate impediments under any antitrust law that may be asserted by any Governmental Body so as to enable the Closing to occur as soon as reasonably possible (and in any event, not later than the Outside Date).

(b) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other party or parties hereto in doing, all things reasonably necessary, proper or advisable under applicable Legal Requirements or otherwise to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including using reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary actions or non-actions, waivers, consents, approvals, orders and authorizations from all Governmental Bodies and make all necessary registrations, declarations and filings with all Governmental Bodies, that are necessary to consummate the Merger; provided, however, that in no event shall Parent or Merger Sub be obligated to, and the Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, agree to or proffer any consent fee, concession or other modification to the terms and conditions of any Contract in order to obtain any consents contemplated by this Section 4.5(b).

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Agreement, the Company shall not, without Parent's prior written consent, commit to any divestiture transaction or agree to any restriction on its business, and nothing in this Section 4.5 shall (i) limit any applicable rights a party may have to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.1 so long as such party has up to then complied in all material respects with its obligations under this Section 4.5, or (ii) require Parent to offer, accept or agree to (A) dispose of or hold separate, or cause any of its Subsidiaries to dispose of or hold separate, any part of the businesses, operations, assets or product lines of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries (or a combination of the respective businesses, operations, assets or product lines of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries), (B) not compete in any geographic area or line of business, (C) restrict, prohibit or limit the ownership or operation by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries of all or any portion of the business or assets of Parent, the Company, the Surviving Corporation or any of their respective Affiliates in any part of the world, (D) divest, or cause any of its Subsidiaries to divest, any shares of Company Common Stock, or (E) impose limitations on the ability of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries effectively to acquire, hold or exercise full rights of ownership of the shares of Company Common Stock, including the right to vote any shares of Company Common Stock acquired or owned by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries on all matters properly presented to the Company's stockholders.

4.6 Public Announcements. The initial press release with respect to the execution and delivery of this Agreement shall be a joint press release to be reasonably agreed upon by Parent and the Company. Except as permitted in accordance with Section 4.4, Parent and the Company shall consult with each other before issuing, and, to the extent practicable, give each other the reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon, any press release or other public statements with respect to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby and consider in good faith the views of the other party, and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation, except as may be required by applicable Legal Requirements, court process or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with or rules of any securities exchange or trading market on which securities of Parent or the Company are listed, in which case the party required to make the release or announcement shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to allow the other party or parties hereto reasonable time to comment on such release or announcement in advance of such issuance (it being understood that the final form and content of any such release or announcement, as well as the timing of any such release or announcement, shall be at the final discretion of the disclosing party).

4.7 Director and Officer Liability.

(a) During the period beginning on the Closing Date and ending on the sixth (6th) anniversary thereof, Parent shall cause the Company or Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, to the extent permitted by applicable Legal Requirements, to: (i) indemnify, defend and hold harmless all past and present directors and officers of the Acquired Corporations as of the Effective Time (such Persons, Indemnified Persons), against any costs or expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses and disbursements), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and provide advancement of expenses to such Indemnified Persons to the same extent such persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses as of the Agreement Date by the Company pursuant to the Company Charter Documents and the indemnification agreements of the Company in existence on the date hereof with any directors and officers of the Company; and (ii) include and cause to be maintained in effect in the Company or the Surviving Corporation (or any successor s), as the case may be, charter and bylaws the current provisions regarding elimination of liability of directors, indemnification of officers, directors and employees and advancement of expenses contained in the Company Charter Documents. If the Company or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, or any of their respective successors or assigns: (A) shall consolidate with or merge into any other corporations or entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger; or (B) shall transfer all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any individual, corporation or other entity, then and in each such case, proper provisions shall be made so that the successors and assigns of the Company or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, shall assume all of the obligations set forth in this Section 4.7.

(b) The Company shall, prior to the Effective Time, purchase a six (6) year tail prepaid policy on terms and conditions no less advantageous to the Indemnified Persons than the existing directors' and officers' liability (and fiduciary) insurance maintained by the Company, covering, without limitation, the Merger.

4.8 Notification of Certain Events. Each of the Company and Parent shall, as promptly as reasonably practicable, notify the other:

(a) upon becoming aware that any representation or warranty made by it in this Agreement was at the time made untrue or inaccurate in any material respect or has become untrue or inaccurate in any material respect, or of any failure of such Person to comply with or satisfy in any material respect any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under this Agreement; provided, however, that no such notification shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty of such party set forth herein or the conditions to the obligations of the other party to consummate the Merger, or the remedies available to the parties hereto;

(b) to the extent the Company or Parent, as the case may be, has Knowledge of such notice or communication, of any written communication from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is required in connection with the Merger;

(c) without limitation of the parties' respective obligations under Section 4.5, of any written communication from any Governmental Body related to this Agreement, the Merger or the other transactions contemplated hereunder;

(d) of any Legal Proceedings commenced and served on the Company or, to its Knowledge, threatened in writing against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, as the case may be, that, (i) if pending on the Agreement Date, would have been required to have been disclosed pursuant to any Section of this Agreement, or (ii) relates to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereunder; and

(e) any event, condition, fact or circumstance (i) that would make the timely satisfaction of any of the conditions set forth in Article V impossible or unlikely or (ii) that has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

4.9 Shareholder Litigation. Prior to the earlier of the Effective Time or the date of termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.1:

(a) the Company shall promptly advise Parent in writing of any shareholder litigation against the Company or its directors relating to this Agreement or the Merger and shall keep Parent reasonably informed regarding any such shareholder litigation; and (b) the Company shall control such defense and this Section 4.9 shall not give Parent the right to direct such defense; provided, however, that no settlement of such litigation shall be agreed to without Parent's prior written consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

4.10 Rule 16b-3. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent, Merger Sub and the Company shall take all such steps as may be required to cause the transactions contemplated in this Agreement and any other dispositions of equity securities of the Company (including any derivative securities) or acquisitions of equity securities of Parent by each individual (including directors by deputization) who is or will be subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to the Company to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

4.11 Employee Matters.

(a) For purposes of this Section 4.11: (i) the term Covered Employees shall mean employees who are actively employed by the Company or its Subsidiaries at the Effective Time; and (ii) the term Continuation Period shall mean the period beginning at the Effective Time and ending on the first anniversary of the Effective Time.

(b) Base Compensation. For the Continuation Period, Parent shall provide, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to provide to each Covered Employee, an annual base salary or hourly rate of pay that is no less than the base salary or hourly rate of pay that such Covered Employee received from the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(c) Bonuses During Continuation Period. During the Continuation Period, Parent shall, or shall cause its Subsidiaries to, provide each Covered Employee with an annual cash bonus opportunity that is at least substantially comparable to those offered by the Company immediately before the Effective Time at target base salary multiples (or other target amounts) that are no less favorable than the target base salary multiples or other targets in effect for such Covered Employee during 2012, but with payment based on achievement of performance criteria determined by Parent and applicable generally to similarly situated or comparable employees of Parent and its Subsidiaries in a consistent and good faith manner during the Continuation Period.

(d) Benefit Plans. During the Continuation Period, Parent shall maintain or cause the Surviving Corporation to maintain employee benefit plans, programs, policies and arrangements for Covered Employees that are substantially similar in the aggregate to the Company Employee Plans identified on Part 2.15(a) of the Disclosure Schedule (other than the bonus plans described in Sections 4.11(c) above, equity compensation and other, long-term incentives, change in control, retention, transition, stay or similar arrangements) that were in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(e) Crediting of Payments. In the event any Covered Employee first becomes eligible to participate under any employee benefit plan, program, policy or arrangement of the Parent or Surviving Corporation (Parent Employee Benefit Plan) following the Effective Time, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to: (i) waive any pre-existing condition exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to any Covered Employee under any Parent Employee Benefit Plan providing medical, dental, or vision benefits to the same extent such limitation would have been waived or satisfied under the employee benefit plan Covered Employee participated in immediately prior to coverage under the Parent Employee Benefit Plan; and (ii) provide each Covered Employee with credit for any co-payments and deductibles paid prior to the Covered Employee's coverage under any Parent Employee Benefit Plan during the calendar year in which such amount was paid, to the same extent such credit was given under the employee benefit plan Covered Employee participated in immediately prior to coverage under the Parent Employee Benefit Plan, in satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under the Parent Employee Benefit Plan.

(f) Service Crediting. As of the Effective Time, Parent shall recognize, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to recognize, all service of each Covered Employee prior to the Effective Time, to the Acquired Corporations (as well as predecessor entities of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) for vesting and eligibility purposes (but not for benefit of accrual purposes, except for vacation and severance, as applicable); for the avoidance of doubt, service of each Covered Employee prior to the Effective Time shall not be recognized for the purpose of any entitlement to participate in, or receive benefits with respect to, any: (i) employer contributions under any Parent 401(k) plan; or (ii) Parent retiree medical program or other retiree welfare benefit program in which any Covered Employee participates after the Effective Time. In no event shall anything contained in this Section 4.11(f) result in any duplication of benefits for the same period of service.

(g) ESPP. Prior to the Effective Time, if permitted pursuant to the terms of the ESPP, the Company shall take all actions that may be necessary to: (i) cause the exercise (as of the last Business Day prior to the Closing Date) of each outstanding purchase right under the ESPP, and make any pro-rata adjustments that may be necessary to reflect the shortened offering period but otherwise cause such shortened offering period to be treated as a fully effective and completed offering period for all purposes under the ESPP; and (ii) provide that no further offering period or purchase period shall commence under the ESPP after the Effective Time; provided, however, that such exercise of outstanding purchase rights, and the cessation of further offering and purchase periods, shall be conditioned upon the consummation of the Merger. On the fifth (5th) Business Day prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall apply the funds credited as of such date under the ESPP within each participant's payroll withholding account to the purchase of whole shares of Company Common Stock in accordance with the terms of the ESPP. Immediately prior to and effective as of the Effective Time (and subject to the consummation of the Merger), the Company shall terminate the ESPP. Each share of Company Common Stock purchased under the ESPP shall be automatically converted into the right to receive the Per Share Merger Price on the same basis as all other shares of Company Common Stock, except that each such share shall be automatically converted into the right to receive the Per Share Merger Price without the issuance of a certificate representing such share.

(h) Nothing in this Section 4.11 shall be construed to limit the right of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (including, following the Effective Time, the Acquired Corporations) to amend or terminate any Company Employee Plan or other employee benefit plan, to the extent such amendment or termination is permitted by the terms of the applicable plan, nor shall anything in this Section 4.11 be construed to require Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (including, following the Effective Time, the Acquired Corporations) to retain the employment of any particular Covered Employee for any fixed period of time following the Effective Time. Nothing in this agreement shall constitute an amendment to any Company Employee Plan, and no Company Employee Plan shall be amended absent a separate written amendment that complies with such plan's amendment procedures.

4.12 Confidentiality. The parties acknowledge that Parent and the Company are bound by a mutual non-disclosure agreement, dated as of April 16, 2010 (the Confidentiality Agreement), which Confidentiality Agreement shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, except as expressly modified herein.

4.13 Deregistration; Stock Exchange Delisting. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall cooperate with Parent and use commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and do or cause to be done all things, reasonably necessary, proper or advisable on its part under applicable Legal Requirements and rules and policies of Nasdaq to cause the delisting of the Company Common Stock from Nasdaq as promptly as practicable after the Effective Time and deregistration of the Company Common Stock under the Exchange Act as promptly as practicable after such delisting. The Company shall not cause the Company Common Stock to be delisted from Nasdaq prior to the Effective Time.

(a) by mutual written consent of Parent and the Company;

(b) by either Parent or the Company, upon written notice to the other party, if the Effective Time shall not have occurred on or prior to the close of banking business, New York time, on November 30, 2012 (the Outside Date); provided, however, that a party shall not be permitted to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 6.1(b) if the failure to consummate the Merger by the Outside Date is attributable to a failure on the part of such party to perform any covenant or obligation in this Agreement that is required to be performed by such party at or prior to the Effective Time;

(c) by either Parent or the Company, upon written notice to the other party, if a court of competent jurisdiction or other Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final and nonappealable order, decree or ruling, or shall have taken any other action, having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 6.1(c) shall not be available to a party if the issuance of such final, non-appealable order, decree or ruling is attributable to the failure of such party to perform in any material respect any of its obligations under this Agreement;

(d) by either Parent or the Company, upon written notice to the other party, if: (i) the Company Stockholders Meeting (including any adjournments or postponements thereof) shall have been held and the Company's stockholders shall have taken a final vote on a proposal to adopt this Agreement; and (ii) this Agreement shall not have been adopted at such meeting by the Required Stockholder Vote (and shall not have been adopted at any adjournment or postponement thereof);

(g) by the Company, upon written notice to Parent, if: (i) any of Parent's representations and warranties shall have been inaccurate as of the Agreement Date, such that the condition set forth in Section 5.3(a) would not be satisfied; or (ii) any of Parent's covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement shall have been breached, such that the condition set forth in Section 5.3(b) would not be satisfied, and in the case of both clauses (i) and (ii), such breach is not curable within thirty (30) days following such notice, or, if curable, is not cured within thirty (30) days following such notice provided, however, that Parent shall use reasonable efforts to cure such breach as promptly as practicable; or 6.3 Expenses; Termination Fees.

(a) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 6.1(e) or by the Company pursuant to Section 6.1(h), the Company shall pay to Parent the Termination Fee. The Termination Fee payable pursuant to this Section 6.3(a) shall be paid no later than the second (2nd) Business Day following termination pursuant to Section 6.1(e) and concurrently with any termination pursuant to Section 6.1(h).

(b) In the event that (i) this Agreement is terminated by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 6.1(b) or Section 6.1(d), (ii) at or prior to the Outside Date (in the case of termination pursuant to Section 6.1(b)) or the Company Stockholders Meeting at which the Required Stockholder Vote shall not have been obtained (in the case of termination pursuant to Section 6.1(d)), a Third Party or the Company shall have publicly disclosed that such Third Party has made, or is considering making, an Acquisition Proposal (and such Acquisition Proposal shall not have been publicly withdrawn prior to the time of the termination of this Agreement, or in the case of termination pursuant to Section 6.1(b), such Acquisition Proposal shall not have been publicly withdrawn at least ten (10) days prior to the Company Stockholders Meeting), and (iii) if, within twelve (12) months after the date of termination of this Agreement, the Company enters into a definitive agreement providing for, or consummates, a transaction within the scope of the definition of Acquisition Transaction (provided that for purposes of this clause (iii), each reference in the definition of Acquisition Transaction to 15% shall be deemed to be a reference to 50%), then the Company shall within two (2) Business Days after the entry into such definitive agreement, or concurrently with the consummation of such transaction, as applicable, cause to be paid to Parent, by wire transfer of immediately available funds, an amount equal to the Termination Fee.

(c) All payments under this Section 6.3 shall be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated in writing by Parent.

(d) Each of the Company and Parent acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 6.3 are an integral part of this Agreement. Accordingly, in the event that the Company shall fail to pay the Termination Fee when due, the Company shall reimburse Parent for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred or accrued by it (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) in connection with the collection under and enforcement of this Section 6.3 with interest on the amount of the Termination Fee from the date that such payment was required to be made until the date of actual payment at the prime lending rate prevailing during such period as published in The Wall Street Journal.

(e) In the event that Parent shall receive the Termination Fee pursuant to this Section 6.3, the receipt of such fee shall be deemed to be liquidated damages for any and all losses or damages suffered or incurred by Parent, Merger Sub or any of their respective Affiliates in connection with this Agreement (and the termination hereof), the Merger (and the abandonment thereof) or any matter forming the basis for such termination, and none of Parent, Merger Sub or any of their respective Affiliates shall be entitled to bring or maintain any other claim, action or proceeding against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective Affiliates arising out of this Agreement, the Merger or any matters forming the basis for such termination.

ARTICLE VII.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

7.1 Amendment or Supplement. At any time prior to the Effective Time, this Agreement may be amended or supplemented in any and all respects, whether before or after receipt of the Required Stockholder Vote, by written agreement signed by all of the parties hereto; provided, however, that following approval of this Agreement by the Company's stockholders, there shall be no amendment of or change to the provisions of this Agreement which, pursuant to applicable Legal Requirements, would require further approval by the Company's stockholders without receipt of such approval.

7.2 Extension of Time, Waiver, etc. At any time prior to the Effective Time, any party may, subject to and to the extent permitted by applicable Legal Requirements: (a) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of any other party hereto; (b) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or acts of any other party hereto; or (c) waive compliance by any other party with any of the agreements contained in this Agreement or, except as otherwise provided in the Agreement, waive any of such party's conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no failure or delay by the Company, Parent or Merger Sub in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver of rights, nor shall any single or partial exercise of such rights preclude any other or further exercise of such rights or the exercise of any other right hereunder. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party.

7.3 No Additional Representations; No Survival. Each party hereto agrees that, except for the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or in any certificates delivered pursuant to this Agreement, neither Parent and Merger Sub nor the Company makes any other representations or warranties, and each hereby disclaims any other representations or warranties, express or implied, or as to the accuracy or completeness of any other information, made by, or made available by, itself or any of its Representatives, with respect to, or in connection with, the negotiation, execution or delivery of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, notwithstanding the delivery or disclosure to the other or the other's Representatives of any documentation or other information with respect to any one or more of the foregoing. None of the representations and warranties in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall survive the Effective Time. This Section 7.3 shall not limit the survival of any covenant or agreement of the parties hereto contained in this Agreement which by its terms contemplates performance after the Effective Time.

7.4 Entire Agreement; No Third Party Beneficiary. This Agreement, including the exhibits and schedules hereto, the Disclosure Schedule, the documents and instruments relating to the Merger referred to in this Agreement and the Confidentiality Agreement, constitute the entire agreement, and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. This Agreement is not intended, and shall not be deemed, to confer any rights or remedies upon any Person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, to create any agreement of employment with any Person or to otherwise create any third party beneficiary hereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following Persons are intended as third party beneficiaries of this Agreement, solely after the Effective Time, solely with respect to Article I, the security holders of the Company as provided in Article I; and, solely with respect to Section 4.7, the directors and officers of the Company covered by Section 4.7.

7.5 Applicable Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of laws. All actions and proceedings arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the negotiation, validity or performance of this Agreement, or the Merger shall be heard and determined exclusively in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, and the parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of such court (and, in the case of appeals, the appropriate appellate court therefrom), in any such action or proceeding and irrevocably waive the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any such action or proceeding. The consents to jurisdiction set forth in this paragraph shall not constitute general consents to service of process in the State of Delaware and shall have no effect for any purpose except as provided in this paragraph and shall not be deemed to confer rights on any Person other than the parties hereto. The parties agree that service of any court paper may be made in any manner as may be provided in Section 7.9 (other than by facsimile) and otherwise under the applicable Legal Requirements or court rules governing service of process in such court. The parties hereto agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable Legal Requirements.

7.6 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO IRREVOCABLY WAIVES TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LEGAL REQUIREMENTS ANY AND ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. Each of the parties hereto acknowledges that it and the other parties hereto have been induced to enter into this Agreement and the Merger, as applicable, by, among other things, the mutual waivers and certifications in this Section 7.6.

7.7 Specific Enforcement. Notwithstanding Section 6.3 of this Agreement, the parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur for which monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement are not performed in accordance with the terms hereof or are otherwise breached, and that, in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled at law or in equity, the party seeking to enforce this Agreement against such nonperforming party under this Agreement shall be entitled to specific performance and the issuance of injunctive and other equitable relief to prevent any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement. The parties hereto further agree to waive any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with the obtaining of any such injunctive or other equitable relief.

7.8 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any of the parties hereto, in whole or in part (whether by operation of law or otherwise), without the prior written consent of the other parties, and any attempt to make any such assignment without such consent shall be null and void, except that Merger Sub may assign, in its sole discretion, any or all of its rights, interests and obligations under this Agreement to any one or more direct or indirect wholly-owned Subsidiaries of Parent without the consent of the Company, but no such assignment shall relieve Merger Sub of any of its obligations under this Agreement.
