Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 24, 2014, Navistar International Corporation (the Company) completed its previously announced private placement of $370,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 4.75% senior subordinated convertible notes due 2019 (the Convertible Notes) pursuant to a Purchase Agreement, dated March 18, 2014 (the Purchase Agreement), by and between the Company and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, as representative of the several initial purchasers named therein (the Initial Purchasers). The Initial Purchasers also have the option to purchase up to an additional $55,500,000 principal amount of the Convertible Notes at the offering price within the 30-day period from the date of the original issuance of the Convertible Notes. The Convertible Notes are governed by the terms of an indenture, dated as of March 24, 2014 (the Indenture), by and among the Company and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee (the Trustee).

Interest is payable on the Convertible Notes on April 15 and October 15 of each year beginning on October 15, 2014 until their maturity date of April 15, 2019. Holders may convert the Convertible Notes into common stock of the Company, par value $0.10 per share (Common Stock), at their option prior to October 15, 2018, under the following circumstances: (1) during any fiscal quarter commencing after April 30, 2014, if the last reported sale price of the Company's common stock for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive) during the period of 30 consecutive trading days ending on the last trading day of the preceding fiscal quarter is greater than or equal to 130% of the applicable conversion price on each such trading day; (2) during the five business day period after any five consecutive trading day period (the measurement period) in which the trading price per $1,000 principal amount of Convertible Notes for each trading day of that measurement period was less than 98% of the product of the last reported sale price of the Common Stock and the applicable conversion rate on each such trading day; or (3) upon the occurrence of specified corporate events. On and after October 15, 2018 until the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the maturity date, holders may convert their notes at any time, regardless of the foregoing circumstances.

Upon conversion, the Company will satisfy its conversion obligations by delivering, at its election, shares of Common Stock (plus cash in lieu of fractional shares), cash, or any combination of cash and shares of Common Stock in accordance with the terms of the Indenture. The initial conversion rate will be 18.4946 shares of Common Stock per $1,000 principal amount of Convertible Notes, equivalent to an initial conversion price of $54.07 per share of Common Stock. The conversion rate will be subject to adjustment in some events but will not be adjusted for accrued interest. Following certain corporate transactions that occur prior to the maturity date, the Company will increase the conversion rate for a holder that elects to convert its Convertible Notes in connection with such a corporate transaction in certain circumstances.

On or after April 20, 2017, the Convertible Notes will be subject to redemption, in whole or in part, at the Company's option, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of Convertible Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest (including any additional interest) to, but excluding, the redemption date, if the last reported sale price of Common Stock for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive) during the period of 30 consecutive trading days ending within 10 trading days immediately prior to the date of the redemption notice exceeds 130% of the applicable conversion price for the Convertible Notes on each applicable trading day. If the Company calls any or all of the Convertible Notes for redemption, holders will have the right to convert their Convertible Notes at any time until the close of business on the business day preceding the redemption date. If a holder elects to convert its Convertible Notes in connection with a redemption notice, the Company will increase the conversion rate of the Convertible Notes as set forth in the Indenture.

Subject to certain exceptions, holders may require the Company to repurchase, for cash, all or part of the Convertible Notes upon a Fundamental Change (as defined in the Indenture) at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Convertible Notes being repurchased plus any accrued and unpaid interest, including any additional interest, to, but excluding, the date of repurchase.

The Indenture provides for customary events of default which include (subject in certain cases to customary grace and cure periods), among others, nonpayment of principal or interest; failure to convert the Convertible Notes in accordance with the Indenture, breach of other agreements in the Indenture; defaults in, or failure to pay, certain other indebtedness; the rendering of judgments to pay certain amounts of money against the Company and its subsidiaries; and certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency. Generally, if an event of default occurs and is not cured within the time periods specified, the Trustee or the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the then outstanding series of Convertible Notes may declare all the Convertible Notes of such series to be due and payable immediately.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement and the Indenture does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Indenture, form of convertible note and Purchase Agreement filed hereto as Exhibits 4.1, 4.2 and 10.1, respectively, which are incorporated herein by reference.

The Company does not intend to file a shelf registration statement for the resale of the Convertible Notes or the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Convertible Notes, if any.
