Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On June 10, 2016, Axiall Corporation (the Company) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Westlake Chemical Corporation (Westlake) and Lagoon Merger Sub, Inc., a newly formed wholly owned subsidiary of Westlake (Merger Sub). The Merger Agreement provides, among other things and subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, for the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Westlake in a transaction in which each share of the Company's common stock (Company Common Stock), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the time the Merger becomes effective (the Effective Time), other than certain excluded shares as further described in the Merger Agreement, will be converted automatically into the right to receive $33.00 in cash, without interest (the Merger Consideration).

The Company's Board of Directors (the Company Board) unanimously (1) approved the Merger Agreement and determined that the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are fair to and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders, (2) approved the execution, delivery and performance of the Merger Agreement by the Company and the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and (3) resolved to recommend that the Company's stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement provides that, at the Effective Time, any outstanding and unexercised Company stock options, whether or not vested, will be converted into the right to receive a cash payment equal to the Merger Consideration minus the exercise prices of such options. Any outstanding or payable Company awards (other than Company stock options) under any Company stock plans will be assumed by Westlake and converted into restricted stock units in respect of Westlake common stock (Westlake Common Stock), with the same terms and conditions (including with respect to dividend equivalent rights, if any), except that upon settlement the award holder will receive the greater of (1) the value of the Merger Consideration with respect to the shares of Company Common Stock related to the award prior to the Effective Time and (2) the value of the Westlake Common Stock. Any account balances under any Company benefit plan that provides for the deferral of compensation and represents amounts notionally invested in Company Common Stock or provides for distributions or benefits calculated based on the value of Company Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash calculated based on the Merger Consideration.

Stockholders of the Company will be asked to vote on the approval of the Merger Agreement at a special stockholders meeting that will be held on a date to be announced. Each of the Company's and Westlake's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to a number of conditions specified in the Merger Agreement, including, among others (1) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all outstanding shares of Company Common Stock (the Company Stockholder Approval), (2) the receipt of certain required regulatory approvals, including expiration of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (3) the absence of an order, judgment, injunction or law prohibiting the consummation of the Merger, (4) the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement (subject to certain materiality standards set forth in the Merger Agreement), and (5) the other party's compliance with or performance of its covenants and agreements contained in the Merger Agreement in all material respects. The consummation of the Merger is not subject to a financing condition.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties made by each of the Company and Westlake, and also contains customary covenants and agreements, including, among others, agreements by the Company to conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time, to not engage in certain kinds of transactions or take certain actions during this period unless consented to in writing by Westlake, to convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval and, subject to certain exceptions, not to withdraw (or qualify or modify in a manner adverse to Westlake) the recommendation of the Company Board that the Company's stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement. In addition, on the terms and subject to conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, each party has agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all required regulatory approvals. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Company is permitted to continue to pay its regular dividend.

The Company is subject to customary no shop restrictions on its ability to initiate, solicit or knowingly encourage alternative acquisition proposals. However, at any time prior to the receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval, the Company may provide information to and negotiate with third parties that submit an alternative acquisition proposal that the Company Board has determined, after consultation with outside financial and legal advisors, constitutes (or could reasonably be expected to lead to) a Company Superior Proposal (as such term is defined in the Merger Agreement), provided that such alternative acquisition proposal did not result from a breach of the no shop provisions and subject to certain other requirements being met before such action. Further, subject to certain limitations, at any time prior to the receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval, the Company Board may withdraw or adversely change its recommendation of the Merger in response to a Company Superior Proposal and the Company may terminate the Merger Agreement in order to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a Company Superior Proposal, subject to the Company's payment to Westlake of a termination fee in the amount of $77.7 million and compliance with certain notice and other procedures in the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement also provides for the payment of such termination fee (1) in the event the Company enters into or consummates an alternative acquisition proposal within nine months after the termination of the Merger Agreement under certain specified circumstances or (2) if the Company Board, prior to the Company's stockholders adopting the Merger Agreement, (a) recommends an alternative acquisition proposal, (b) changes its recommendation of the Merger, or (c) fails to recommend to the Company's stockholders to reject a publicly disclosed alternative acquisition proposal within certain time limits.

In addition, and subject to certain limitations, either party may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not consummated by January 31, 2017.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement, attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference in its entirety. The Merger Agreement has been included in this filing to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company or Westlake or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. In particular, the representations and warranties, including the assertions embodied therein, contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for the purposes of the Merger Agreement as of the specific dates therein, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties to the Merger Agreement and may be qualified, modified or excepted by information in a confidential disclosure letter provided by the Company to Westlake in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement. This confidential disclosure letter contains information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement may be subject to a standard of materiality provided for in the Merger Agreement that differ from those applicable to investors and have been used for the purpose of allocating risk among the parties, rather than establishing matters of fact. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, Westlake or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's or Westlake's public disclosures. Investors should read the Merger Agreement together with the other information concerning the Company and Westlake that each company publicly files in reports and statements with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On June 8, 2016, the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee of the Company (the "Committee") approved certain changes to the 2016 compensation of Simon P. Bates, the Company's Senior Vice President, Building Products. Specifically, the Committee, pursuant to the Company's 2011 Equity and Performance Incentive Plan (the "Plan"), granted 25,000 restricted stock units ("RSUs") eligible to vest, contingent upon his continued employment with the Company, in three equal installments on the first, second and third anniversaries of the grant date. In addition, on June 8, 2015, the Committee approved certain amendments to Mr. Bates' letter agreement, dated September 18, 2015 (the "Bates Agreement"), that (1) conformed the definition of "Good Reason" to the provisions of the Axiall Corporation Executive and Key Employee Change of Control Severance Plan (the "Plan"), (2) added a Section 4999 excise tax adjustment consistent with the Plan, and (3) provided that Mr. Bates will be entitled to the severance benefits set forth in the Bates Agreement if his employment is terminated by the Company without Cause, or by Mr. Bates, for Good Reason, prior to the date that is two years following the date of a Transaction (each as defined in the Bates Agreement). The severance benefits generally set forth in the Bates Agreement, as amended, consist of (a) continuation of base salary payments for one year following termination, (b) payment of any earned but unpaid cash bonus for any period ending prior to the date of termination, (c) payment of the target bonus for the fiscal year of termination, (d) continued life insurance, medical, dental and vision benefits and continued disability insurance premiums until the earlier of: (i) the day upon which Mr. Bates begins new employment and is eligible for such welfare benefits and (ii) the first anniversary of the termination date, and (e) payment of reasonable outplacement services in an amount not to exceed $15,000.
