Subordination:

The notes will rank equally with all of our other subordinated notes and, together with such other subordinated notes, will be subordinated to all of our existing and future Senior Debt, as defined under Description of Debt Securities Subordination in the accompanying prospectus. In addition, holders of the notes may be fully subordinated to interests held by the U.S. government in the event we enter into a receivership, insolvency, liquidation or similar proceeding. As of September 30, 2016, on a non-consolidated basis, Wells Fargo & Company had approximately $108.0 billion of Senior Debt outstanding, excluding obligations under letters of credit, guarantees, foreign exchange contracts and interest rate swap contracts. In addition, Wells Fargo & Company was obligated on such date under letters of credit, guarantees, foreign exchange contracts and interest rate swap contracts to which the notes will be subordinated pursuant to the terms of the subordinated indenture.

See Description of Notes in the accompanying prospectus supplement and Description of the Debt Securities Subordination in the accompanying prospectus for additional information regarding subordination.

Certain U.S. Federal

Income Tax Consequences: Pursuant to published guidance by the Internal Revenue Service, withholding on gross proceeds under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act will be delayed until January 1, 2019 rather than January 1, 2017. See Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations Legislation Affecting the Taxation of Debt Securities, Common Stock and Preferred Stock Held by or through Foreign Entities in the accompanying prospectus for additional information.

Additional tax considerations are discussed under Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations in the accompanying prospectus.

EU Directive on the Taxation of Savings Income: The EC Council Directive 2003/48/EC on the taxation of savings income, as amended (the Directive), has been repealed from January 1, 2017, in the case of Austria, and from January 1, 2016, in the case of all other EU Member States (subject to on-going requirements to fulfill administrative obligations such as the reporting and exchange of information relating to, and accounting for withholding taxes on, payments made before those dates). The repeal is meant to prevent overlap between the Directive and a new automatic exchange of information regime implemented under Council Directive 2011/16/EU on Administrative Cooperation in the field of Taxation (as amended by Council Directive 2014/107/EU). Council Directive 2011/16/EU (as amended) effectively implements the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development's common reporting standard on automatic exchange of financial account information in tax matters, requires governments to obtain detailed account information from financial institutions and exchange that information automatically with other jurisdictions annually. Council Directive 2011/16/EU (as amended) is generally broader in scope than the Directive, although it does not impose withholding taxes. The agreements with non-EU countries on the basis of the Directive are being revised to be aligned with Council Directive 2011/16/EU (as amended). See EU Directive on the Taxation of Savings Income in the accompanying prospectus.
